Abraham offering up his Son Isaac.

*And the Angel of the Lord called unto him out of Heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham, and he said, here am I.
And he said, Lay not thy hand upon the lad neither do thou any thing unto him, for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy Son, thine only Son, from me."*

TO THE READER

[FROM COLLINS' BIBLE.]

AS the DEDICATION of the English translation of the BIBLE to king James the first of England seems to be wholly unnecessary for the purposes of edification, and perhaps on some accounts improper to be continued in an American edition, the Editors have substituted a short account of the translations of the Old and New Testaments from the original Hebrew and Greek in which they were written.

To the Jews was first committed the care of the sacred Writings, and for many ages they were in a manner confined to that chosen people. There was then no need of translations into other languages; yet was the providence of God particularly manifest in their preservation and purity. The Jews were so faithful to their important trust, that, when copies of the law or the prophets were transcribed, they observed the most scrupulous exactness; they not only diligently compared the one with the other, but even counted the number of letters in each book, and compared and recorded the numbers.

The first translations that were made of the Old Testament were after the Babylonish captivity. They are called the Targams, which word in the Chaldean language signifies Translations. They are also often called the Chaldee Paraphrases; some of them are exact translations of different parts of Scripture; others are properly paraphrases, containing enlargements, explanations, and even additions. Several of them are yet extant, and they are often mentioned by the ancient fathers of the Christian church. Some have affirmed that the five books of Moses and that of Joshua were translated into Greek before the days of Alexander the Great. But the most remarkable translation of the Old Testament into Greek is called the Septuagint, which, if the opinion of some eminent writers is to be credited, was made in the reign of Ptolemy Philadelphus, about 260 years before the Christian era. At any rate it is undoubtedly the most ancient that is now extant, and on many accounts deserving notice, though not to be put on a level with the Hebrew text, as has been sometimes done.

The New Testament was originally written in Greek; and no sooner was the gospel spread through the nations than it was found necessary to translate the inspired Writings for each into its proper tongue. Some translations of the Old Testament, different from the Septuagint, were made into Greek from the year of Christ's birth 128 to 200. It is generally believed that the church of Antioch was favoured with a Syrian translation of the Bible as early as the year 100. The Ethiopians of Abyssinia have a version of the Bible, which they ascribe to Frumentius, of the fourth century. Chrysostom, who lived in the end of the fourth, and Theodoret, who lived in the middle of the fifth century, both inform us that they had the Syrian, Indian, Persian, Armenian, Ethiopic, and Scythian versions. The ancient Egyptians had the Scriptures translated into their language. The Georgians have a version in their ancient language. The most ancient German translation is supposed to have been made by Ulphilas, A. D. 360. The Old Testament of all these translations, except the Syrian, is taken from the Septuagint, and not immediately from the Hebrew text.

We will now give some account of the translations of the Bible into the English language. There have been some who have affirmed that Adelme, Bishop of Sherburn, who lived in the beginning of the eighth century, translated the Psalms into the Saxon tongue. That however is uncertain, as some of the best historians make no mention of it: yet it is possible, as he was a man of great parts, and of great learning for those times, and said to be the first Englishman who wrote in the Latin language. About the same time, or a little after, Bede, commonly called the venerable Bede, translated some parts of the New Testament, some say the whole Bible, but that is not probable. Near 200 years later, king Alfred translated the Psalms into the same language. In 1382 Wickliff finished his translation of the Bible, which is yet extant: that is to say, there are copies of it in some publick and private libraries. All these translations were made from the Vulgate. In the reign of Henry the eighth, several editions of the Old and New Testaments were published in English; one of the most remarkable is that of Wiliam Tyndal in 1530. The translation of the New Testament was made from the original Greek, but probably the Old Testament either from the Latin of the Vulgate, or the Greek of the Septuagint. This was soon followed by the improvements of Coverdale and Mathews. By order of the king, Tonstal, Bishop of Durham, and Heath, Bishop of Rochester, made a new translation, which was published in 1541: but, not pleasing Henry, it was suppressed by authority. In the reign of king Edward the sixth, another translation was made; two editions of which were published, one in 1549, and the other in 1551. In the reign of queen Elizabeth another translation was made, which, being revised by some of the most learned of the Bishops, went by the name of the Bishops' Bible. This professed to be translated from the Hebrew of the Old Testament, and the Greek of the New, though in some instances, when there was a difference, it preferred the Septuagint to the Hebrew.

This last circumstance, with some others, induced king James the first to select fifty-four persons, eminent in learning, and particularly well acquainted with the original languages in which the Old and New Testaments were written, to make a new translation of the whole Bible. In the year 1607, forty-seven of those persons, the other seven probably having died, assembled together, and arranged themselves into committees, to each of which a portion was given to translate. They were favoured not only with the best translations, but with the most accurate copies, and the various readings of the original text. After about three years assiduous labour, they severally completed the parts assigned them. They then met together, and while one read the translation newly formed, the rest had each a copy of the original text in his hand, or some one of the ancient versions, and when any difficulty occurred they stopped, till by common consultation it was determined what was most agreeable to the inspired Original. This translation was first published A. D. 1610, and is the one which has been ever since that time printed by publick authority, and generally used in the British dominions. It may be added with safety, that it has been generally approved by men of learning and piety of all denominations, of which its having never been superseded by any other, for two hundred years, is a sufficient proof.

The publisher has only further to add, that he has made the following impression from the Oxford edition of 1784 by Jackson and Hamilton—and has been particularly attentive in the revisal and correction of the proof-sheets with the Cambridge edition of 1668 by John Field—with the Edinburgh edition of 1775 by Kincaid, and, in all variations, with the London edition of 1772 by Eyre and Strahan—that where there was any difference in words, or in the omission or addition of words, among these, he followed that which appeared to be most agreeable to the Hebrew of Arias Montanus, and to the Greek of Arias Montanus and Leusden, and always adopted some one of the above-mentioned English copies as his authority, except in the mode of spelling, in which he has generally followed Johnson.

1 The creation of heaven and earth....14 Of the sun, moon, and stars....
26 Of man in the image of God....29 Also the appointment of food.

IN the beginning ^a God created the ^b heaven and the earth.

2 And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep: and the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

3 And ^d God said, Let there be light: and there was light.

4 And God saw the light, that it was good: and God [†] divided the light from the darkness.

5 And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night: and the [†] evening and the morning were the first day.

6 [†] And God said, ^e Let there be [†] a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

7 And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so.

8 And God called the firmament Heaven: and the evening and the morning were the second day.

9 [†] And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto ^f one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.

10 And God called the ^g dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.

11 And God said, Let the Earth [†] bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit-tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.

12 And the Earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his ^h kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

13 And the evening and the morning were the third day.

14 [†] And God said, Let there be ⁱ lights in the firmament of the heaven, to divide [†] the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years.

15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so.

16 And God made two great lights: the greater light to [†] rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also.

17 And God ^k set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth,

B

18 And to ^l rule over the day, and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.

19 And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

20 And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath [†] life, and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven.

21 And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

22 And God ^m blessed ^m them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas; and let fowl multiply in the earth.

23 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

24 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so.

25 And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

26 [†] And God said, ⁿ Let us make man in ^o our image, after our likeness: and let them have ^p dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; ^q male and female created he them.

28 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, ^r Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth [†] upon the earth.

29 [†] And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb [†] bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; ^s to you it shall be for meat.

30 And to ^t every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is [†] life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.

31 And God saw every thing that he had made, and behold, it was ^u very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

CHAPTER II.

1 The first sabbath... 4 The manner of the creation... 19, 20 The naming of the creatures... 21 The making of woman, and institution of marriage.

THUS the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them.

2 And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made.

3 And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made.

4 ¶ These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens,

5 And every plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew: for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground.

6 But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.

7 And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

8 ¶ And the LORD God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed.

9 And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

10 And a river went out of Eden to water the garden: and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads.

11 The name of the first is Pison: that is it which compasseth the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold;

12 And the gold of that land is good: there is bdellium and the onyx-stone.

13 And the name of the second river is Gihon: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of Ethiopia.

14 And the name of the third river is Hiddekel: that is it which goeth toward the east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates.

15 And the LORD God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden, to dress it, and to keep it.

16 And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat:

17 But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.

18 ¶ And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone: I will make him a help meet for him.

19 And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air, and brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them; and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof.

20 And Adam gave names to all cattle and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field: but for Adam there was not found a help meet for him.

21 ¶ And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept; and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof:

22 And the rib which the LORD God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man.

23 And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of man.

24 Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.

25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

CHAPTER III.

1 The serpent deceiveth Eve... 6 Man's shameful fall... 16 The punishment of mankind... 22 Their casting out of paradise.

NOW the serpent was more subtle than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made: and he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden:

3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.

4 And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die:

5 For God doth know, that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened; and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.

6 And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise; she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat; and gave also unto her husband with her, and he did eat.

7 And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked: and they sewed fig-leaves together, and made themselves aprons.

8 And they heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day: and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God amongst the trees of the garden.

9 And the LORD God called unto Adam, and said unto him, Where art thou?

10 And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden: and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.

11 And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree whereof I commanded thee, that thou shouldest not eat?

12 And the man said, The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

13 And the LORD God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.

14 And the LORD God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field: upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life:

15 And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed: it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

16 Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception; in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children: and thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee.

17 And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life;

20 And Adam called his wife's name Eve, because she was the ^a mother of all living.

21 Unto Adam also and to his wife did the LORD God make ^b coats of skins, and clothed them.

22 ¶ And the LORD God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil. And now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and ^c eat, and live for ever:

23 Therefore the LORD God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, ^d to till the ground from whence he was taken.

24 So he ^e drove out the man: and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden Cherubims, and a ^f flaming sword which turned ^g every way, to keep the way of the tree of life.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The birth, trade, and religion of Cain and Abel.... 3 The murder of Abel.... 11 The curse of Cain.

AND Adam ^a knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare Cain, and said, I have gotten [†] a man from the LORD.

2 And she again bare his brother Abel. And Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

3 And in [†] process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the LORD.

4 And Abel, he also brought of the ^b firstlings of his flock, and of the ^c fat thereof. And the LORD had ^d respect unto Abel, and to his offering:

5 But unto Cain, and to his offering, he had not respect. And Cain was very ^e wroth, and his countenance fell.

6 And the LORD said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen?

7 If thou ^f doest well, shalt thou not ^{||} be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door. And unto thee shall be his ^g desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

8 And Cain ^h talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and ⁱ slew him.

9 ¶ And the LORD said unto Cain, ^k Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, ^l I know not: Am I my brother's keeper?

10 And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's blood ^m crieth unto me from the ground.

11 And now art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand.

12 When thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength: ⁿ A fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth.

13 And Cain said unto the LORD, ^{||} My punishment is greater than I can bear.

14 Behold, thou hast driven me out this day from the ^o face of the earth; and from thy face shall I be hid; and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth; and it shall come to pass, that every one that findeth me shall ^p slay me.

15 And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him seven-fold. And the LORD set ^q a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.

16 ¶ And Cain went out ^r from the presence of the LORD, and dwelt in the land of ^{||} Nod, on the east of Eden.

17 And Cain knew his wife, and she conceived, and bare Enoch: and he builded a city, and called the name of the city ^s after the name of his son Enoch.

18 And unto Enoch was born Irad: and Irad begat Mehujael: and Mehujael begat Methusael: and Methusael begat Lamech.

19 ¶ And Lamech took unto him two ^t wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah.

20 And Adah bare Jabel: he was the father of such as dwell in tents, and of such as have cattle.

21 And his brother's name was Jubal: he was the father of all such as handle the harp and organ.

22 And Zillah, she also bare Tubal-cain, an [†] instructor of every artificer in brass and iron: and the sister of Tubal-cain was Naamah.

23 And Lamech said unto his wives, Adah and Zillah, Hear my voice, ye wives of Lamech, hearken unto my speech: for I have slain a man to my wounding, and a young man to my hurt.

24 If Cain shall be avenged seven-fold, truly Lamech seventy and seven-fold.

25 ¶ And Adam knew his wife again, and she bare a son, and called his name Seth: For God, said she, hath appointed me ^u another seed instead of Abel, whom Cain slew.

26 And to Seth, to him also there was born a son; and he called his name Enos: then ^x began men to call upon the name of the LORD.

CHAPTER V.

1 The genealogy, age, and death of the patriarchs from Adam unto Noah.... 24 The godliness and translation of Enoch.

THIS is the ^a book of the generations of Adam: In the day that God created man, in the ^b likeness of God made he him:

2 Male and female created he them; and blessed them, and ^c called their name Adam, in the day when they were created.

3 ¶ And Adam lived a hundred and thirty years, and begat ^d a son in his own likeness, after his image; and called his name Seth:

4 And the days of Adam, after he had begotten Seth were eight hundred years: and he begat ^e sons and daughters:

5 And all the days that Adam lived were ^f nine hundred and thirty years: and he ^g died.

6 ¶ And Seth lived a hundred and five years, and begat Enos:

7 And Seth lived after he begat Enos eight hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters:

8 And all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years; and he died.

9 ¶ And Enos lived ninety years, and begat [†] Cainan:

10 And Enos lived after he begat Cainan eight hundred and fifteen years, and begat sons and daughters:

11 And all the days of Enos were nine hundred and five years; and he died.

12 ¶ And Cainan lived seventy years, and begat Mahalaleel:

13 And Cainan lived after he begat Mahalaleel eight hundred and forty years, and begat sons and daughters:

14 And all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years; and he died.

15 ¶ And Mahalaleel lived sixty and five years, and begat Jared:

30 And Lamech lived after he begat Noah five hundred ninety and five years, and begat sons and daughters :

31 And all the days of Lamech were seven hundred seventy and seven years : and he died.

32 And Noah was ^o five hundred years old : and Noah ^p begat Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The wickedness of the world, which provoked God's wrath, and caused the flood....14 The order and form of the ark.

AND it came to pass, when men began to ^a multiply on the face of the earth and daughters were born unto them,

2 That the ^b sons of God ^c saw the ^d daughters of men that they were fair ; and they ^e took them wives of all which they chose.

3 And the LORD said, ^f My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is ^g flesh : yet his days shall be ^h a hundred and twenty years.

4 There were giants in the earth in those days ; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them : the same became mighty men, which were of old, men of renown.

5 ¶ And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

6 And ⁱ it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it ^k grieved him at his heart.

7 And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth ; [†] both man and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air ; [‡] for it repenteth me that I have made them.

8 But Noah ¹ found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

9 ¶ These are the generations of Noah : Noah was ^m a just man, and perfect in his generations, and Noah ⁿ walked with God.

10 And Noah begat three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

11 The earth also was corrupt ^o before God ; and the earth was filled with violence.

12 And God looked upon the earth, and behold, it was corrupt : for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

13 And God said unto Noah, ^p The end of all flesh is come before me ; for the earth is ^q filled with violence through them : and behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

14 ¶ Make thee an ark of gopher-wood : rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.

15 And this is the fashion which thou shalt make it of : The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.

16 A window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above ; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof : with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it.

17 And behold, ^r I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven : and every thing that is in the earth ^s shall die.

18 But with thee will I establish my covenant : and ^t thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee.

19 And of every living thing of all flesh, ^u two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee : they shall be male and female.

20 Of fowls after their kind, and of cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after his kind ; two of every sort shall come ^x unto thee, to keep them alive.

21 And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee ; and it shall be for food for thee, and for them.

22 ^y Thus did Noah ; according to all that God commanded him, so did ^z he.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Noah, with his family, and the living creatures, enter the ark....17 The beginning and continuance of the flood.

AND the LORD said unto Noah, ^a Come thou and all thy ^b house into the ark : for thee have ^c I seen righteous before me in this ^d generation.

2 Of every clean beast thou shalt take to thee by [†] sevens, the male and his female ; and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female.

3 Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female ; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth.

4 For yet seven days, and ^e I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights : and every living substance that I have made will I [†] destroy from off the face of the earth.

5 And Noah did according unto all that the LORD commanded him.

6 And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth.

7 ¶ And Noah went in, and ^f his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, [†] because of the waters of the flood.

10 And ^h it came to pass, after seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon the earth.

11 [†] In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the ⁱ great deep broken up, and the ^k windows of heaven were opened.

12 And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

13 In the self-same day entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark:

14 They, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every sort.

15 And they went in unto Noah into the ark, ^l two and two of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life.

16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the ^w Lord shut him in.

17 And the flood was forty days upon the earth: and the waters increased, and bare up the ark, and it was lifted up above the earth.

18 And the waters ⁿ prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth: and the ark ^o went upon the face of the waters.

19 And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth; and all the ^p high hills that were under the whole heaven were covered.

20 Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail: and the ^q mountains were covered.

21 And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and ^r every man:

22 All in whose nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died.

23 And every living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; and they were destroyed from the earth; and ^s Noah only remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark.

24 And the waters prevailed upon the earth a ^t hundred and fifty days.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 The waters assuage....4 The ark resteth on Ararat... 13 Noah goeth forth of the ark....20 He bui'deth an altar, and offereth sacrifice.

AND God ^a remembered Noah, and every living thing, and ^b all the cattle that was with him in the ark: and God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters assuaged;

2 The fountains also of the deep, and the windows of heaven were stopped, and the rain from heaven was ^c restrained;

3 And the waters returned from off the earth [†] continually: and ^d after the end of the hundred and fifty days the waters were abated.

4 [†] And the ark rested in the seventh month, upon the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat.

5 And the waters [†] decreased continually, until the tenth month: in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen.

6 [†] And it came to pass at the end of forty days, that Noah ^e opened the window of the ark which he had made:

7 And he sent forth a raven, which went forth [†] to and fro, until the waters were dried up from off the earth.

8 Also he sent forth ^e a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground;

9 But the dove ^h found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark: for the waters were on the face of the whole earth. Then he put forth his hand, and took her, and pulled her in unto him into the ark.

10 And he ⁱ stayed yet other seven days, and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark.

11 And the dove came in to him in the evening, and lo, in her mouth was an ^k olive-leaf pluckt off. So Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth.

12 And he stayed ^l yet other seven days, and sent forth the dove; which returned not again unto him any more.

13 [†] And it came to pass in the six hundredth and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth: and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and behold, the face of the ground was dry.

14 And in the second month, on the ^m seven and twentieth day of the month, was the earth dried.

15 [†] And God spake unto Noah, saying,

16 ⁿ Go forth of the ark, thou, and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons' wives with thee.

17 Bring forth with thee every living thing that is with thee, of all flesh, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth; that they may breed abundantly in the earth, and be fruitful, and multiply upon the earth.

18 And Noah ^o went forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him:

19 Every beast, every creeping thing, and every fowl, and whatsoever creepeth upon the earth, after their [†] kinds, went forth out of the ark.

20 [†] And Noah builded ^p an altar unto the LORD, and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt-offerings on the altar.

21 And the LORD smelled [†] a sweet savour; and the LORD said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake; for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth: neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have ^q done.

22 [†] While the earth remaineth, seed-time and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night, shall not cease

CHAPTER IX.

1 God blesseth Noah....4 Blood and murder are forbidden....8 God's covenant, 13 signified by the rainbow....18 Noah replenisheth the world: 21 Is drunken, and mocked of his son....25 Curseth Canaan, 29 and dieth.

AND God ^a blessed Noah and his sons, and said unto them, Be ^b fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth.

2 And ^c the fear of you, and the dread of you, shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every fowl of the air, upon all that moveth upon the earth, and upon all the fishes of the sea; into your hand are they delivered.

3 Every moving thing that ^d liveth shall ^e be meat for you; even ^f as the green herb have I given you all things.

5 And surely your blood of your lives will I require: at the hand of every beast will I require it, and at the hand of man; at the hand of every man's brother will I require the life of man.

6 Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man.

7 And you, be ye fruitful, and multiply; bring forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply therein.

8 ¶ And God spake unto Noah, and to his sons with him, saying,

9 And I, behold, I establish my covenant with you, and with your seed after you;

10 And with every living creature that is with you, of the fowl, of the cattle, and of every beast of the earth with you, from all that go out of the ark, to every beast of the earth.

11 And I will establish my covenant with you; neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood; neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth.

12 And God said, This is the token of the covenant which I make between me and you, and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations.

13 I do set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth.

14 And it shall come to pass, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow shall be seen in the cloud:

15 And I will remember my covenant, which is between me and you, and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 And the bow shall be in the cloud; and I will look upon it, that I may remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the earth.

17 And God said unto Noah, This is the token of the covenant which I have established between me and all flesh that is upon the earth.

18 ¶ And the sons of Noah that went forth of the ark, were Shem, and Ham, and Japheth: and Ham is the father of Canaan.

19 These are the three sons of Noah: and of them was the whole earth overspread.

20 And Noah began to be a husbandman, and he planted a vineyard:

21 And he drank of the wine, and was drunken; and he was uncovered within his tent.

22 And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brethren without.

23 And Shem and Japheth took a garment, and laid it upon both their shoulders, and went backward, and covered the nakedness of their father: and their faces were backward, and they saw not their father's nakedness.

24 And Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done unto him.

25 And he said, Cursed be Canaan; a servant of servants shall he be unto his brethren.

26 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Shem; and Canaan shall be his servant.

27 God shall enlarge Japheth, and he shall dwell in the tents of Shem; and Canaan shall be his servant.

28 ¶ And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years.

29 And all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years: and he died.

CHAPTER X.

1 The generations of Noah....8 Nimrod the first monarch.

Before

NOW these are the generations of the sons of Noah; Shem, Ham, and Japheth: and unto them were sons born after the flood.

2 The sons of Japheth; Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras.

3 And the sons of Gomer; Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah.

4 And the sons of Javan; Elishah, and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.

5 By these were the isles of the Gentiles divided in their lands; every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations.

6 ¶ And the sons of Ham; Cush, and Misraim, and Phut, and Canaan.

7 And the sons of Cush; Seba, and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabtecha; and the sons of Raamah; Sheba, and Dedan.

8 And Cush begat Nimrod: he began to be a mighty one in the earth.

9 He was a mighty hunter before the LORD: wherefore it is said, Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before the LORD.

10 And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

11 Out of that land went forth Asshur, and builded Nineveh, and the city of Rehoboth, and Calah, 12 And Resen between Nineveh and Calah: the same is a great city.

13 And Mizraim begat Ludim, and Anamim, and Lehabim, and Naphtuhim, 14 And Pathrusim, and Casluhim, (out of whom came Philistim,) and Caphtorim.

15 And Canaan begat Sidon his first-born, and Heth,

16 And the Jebusite, and the Amorite, and the Girgashite,

17 And the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite,

18 And the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite: and afterward were the families of the Canaanites spread abroad.

19 And the border of the Canaanites was from Sidon, as thou comest to Gerar, unto Gaza; as thou goest unto Sodom and Gomorrah, and Admah, and Zeboim, even unto Lasha.

20 These are the sons of Ham, after their families, after their tongues, in their countries, and in their nations.

21 ¶ Unto Shem also, the father of all the children of Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder, even to him were children born.

22 The children of Shem; Elam, and Asshur, and Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram.

23 And the children of Aram; Uz, and Hull, and Gether, and Mash.

24 And Arphaxad begat Salah; and Salah begat Eber.

25 And unto Eber were born two sons: the name of one was Peleg, for in his days was the earth divided; and his brother's name was Joktan.

26 And Joktan begat Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah, 27 And Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah,

28 And Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba,

29 And Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab: all these were the sons of Joktan.

30 And their dwelling was from Mesha, as thou goest unto Sephar, a^r mount of the east.

31 These are the sons of Shem, after their families, after their tongues, in their lands, after their nations.

32 These are the families of the sons of Noah, after their generations, in their nations: and by these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.

CHAPTER XI.

1 One language in the world...3 The building of Babel...5 The confusion of tongues.

AND the whole^a earth was of one[†] language, and of one speech.

2 And it came to pass, as they^b journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar; and they dwelt there.

3 And they said one to another, ^c Go to, let us make brick, and burn them thoroughly. And they had^d brick for stone, and slime had they for mortar.

4 And they said, Go to, let us build us a city, and a tower, whose^e top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us^f a name, lest we be^g scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.

5 And the LORD^h came down to see the city and the tower, which theⁱ children of men builded.

6 And the LORD said, ^k Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do.

7 Go to, ^l let us go down, and there^m confound their language, that they mayⁿ not understand one another's speech.

8 So the LORD^o scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city.

9 Therefore is the name of it called Babel, because the LORD did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.

10 ¶ These are the generations of Shem: Shem was a hundred years old, and begat Arphaxad two years after the flood:

11 And Shem lived after he begat Arphaxad five hundred years, and begat sons and daughters:

12 And Arphaxad lived five and thirty years, and begat^p † Salah.

13 And Arphaxad lived, after he begat Salah, four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

14 And Salah lived thirty years, and begat Eber:

15 And Salah lived after he begat Eber four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

16 And Eber lived four and thirty years, and begat^q † Peleg:

17 And Eber lived after he begat Peleg four hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters.

18 And Peleg lived thirty years, and begat Reu:

19 And Peleg lived after he begat Reu two hundred and nine years, and begat sons and daughters.

20 And Reu lived two and thirty years, and begat^r † Serug.

21 And Reu lived after he begat Serug two hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters.

22 And Serug lived thirty years, and begat Nahor:

23 And Serug lived after he begat Nahor two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

24 And Nahor lived nine and twenty years, and begat Terah.

25 And Nahor lived after he begat Terah a hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters.

26 And Terah lived seventy years, and begat^s Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

27 ¶ Now these are the generations of Terah: Terah begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran: and Haran begat Lot.

28 And Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his nativity, in^t Ur of the Chaldees.

29 And Abram and Nahor took them wives; the name of Abram's wife was ^u Sarai; and the name of Nahor's wife Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of^v Milcah, and the father of Ischa.

30 But Sarai was barren; she had no child.

31 And^w Terah took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Haran his son's son, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, his son Abram's wife; and they went forth with them from Ur of the Chaldees, to go into the land of Canaan; and they came unto^x Haran, and dwelt there.

32 And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years: and Terah died in Haran.

CHAPTER XII.

1 God calleth Abram, and blesseth him with a promise of Christ...

6 He journeyeth through Canaan...10 He is driven by a famine into Egypt.

NOW the LORD^a had said unto Abram, ^b Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, into a land that I will^c shew thee:

2 And I will make of thee^d a great nation, and I will^e bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing:

3 And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and^f in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

4 So Abram departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him, and Lot went with him: and Abram was seventy and five years old when he^g departed out of Haran.

5 And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had^h gotten in Haran; and they went forth to go into the land of Canaan; and into the land of Canaan they came.

6 ¶ And Abramⁱ passed through the land unto the place of^j Sichem, unto the plain of Moreh. And the^k Canaanite was then in the land.

7 And the LORD^l appeared unto Abram, and said, Unto^m thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an altar unto the LORD, who appeared unto him.

8 And heⁿ removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of Beth-el, and pitched his tent, having Beth-el on the west, and Hai on the east: and there he builded an altar unto the LORD, and called upon the name of the LORD.

9 And Abram journeyed, going on still toward the south.

10 ¶ And there was^o a famine^p in the land: and Abram^q went down into Egypt to sojourn there; for the famine was grievous in the land.

11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Egypt, that he said unto Sarai his wife, Behold now, I know that thou art a^r fair woman to look upon:

12 Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Egyptians shall see thee, that they shall say, This is his wife: and they will^s kill me, but they will save thee alive.

13 Say, I pray thee, thou art ^t my sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee.

14 ¶ And it came to pass, that when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman that she was very fair.

15 The princes also of Pharaoh saw her, and commended her before Pharaoh: and the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house.

16 And he entreated Abram well for her sake: and he had sheep, and oxen, and he-asses, and men-servants, and maid-servants, and she-asses, and camels.

17 And the LORD plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram's wife.

18 And Pharaoh called Abram, and said, What is this that thou hast done unto me? why didst thou not tell me that she was thy wife?

19 Why saidst thou, She is my sister? so I might have taken her to me to wife: now therefore behold thy wife, take her, and go thy way.

20 And Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him: and they sent him away, and his wife, and all that he had.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Abram and Lot return out of Egypt....14 God reneweth the promise to Abram....18 He removeth to Hebron, and there buildeth an altar.

AND Abram went up out of Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him, into the south.

2 And Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold.

3 And he went on his journeys from the south, even to Beth-el, unto the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Beth-el and Hai;

4 Unto the place of the altar, which he had made there at the first: and there Abram called on the name of the LORD.

5 And Lot also, which went with Abram, had flocks, and herds, and tents.

6 And the land was not able to bear them, that they might dwell together: for their substance was great so that they could not dwell together.

7 And there was a strife between the herdmen of Abram's cattle and the herdmen of Lot's cattle: and the Canaanite and the Perizzite dwelled then in the land.

8 And Abram said unto Lot, Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen; for we be brethren.

9 Is not the whole land before thee? Separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: if thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left.

10 And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain of Jordan, that it was well watered every where, before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, even as the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, as thou comest unto Zoar.

11 Then Lot chose him all the plain of Jordan; and Lot journeyed east: and they separated themselves the one from the other.

12 Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelled in the cities of the plain, and pitched his tent toward Sodom.

13 But the men of Sodom were wicked and sinners before the LORD, exceedingly.

14 ¶ And the LORD said unto Abram, after that Lot was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art, northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward:

15 For all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed for ever.

16 And I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed also be numbered.

17 Arise, walk through the land in the length of it and in the breadth of it; for I will give it unto thee.

18 Then Abram removed his tent, and came and dwelt in the plain of Mamre, which is in Hebron, and built there an altar unto the LORD.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 The battle of the kings....12 Lot is taken prisoner....18 Melchizedek blesseth Abram....20 Abram giveth him tythe.

AND it came to pass, in the days of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of nations;

2 That these made war with Bera king of Sodom, and with Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, and Shemeber king of Zebaiim, and the king of Bela, which is Zoar.

3 All these were joined together in the vale of Siddim, which is the salt sea.

4 Twelve years they served Chedorlaomer and in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

5 And in the fourteenth year came Chedorlaomer, and the kings that were with him, and smote the Rephaims in Ashteroth Karnaim, and the Zuzims in Ham, and the Emims in Shaveh Kiriathaim,

6 And the Horites in their mount Seir, unto El-paran, which is by the wilderness.

7 And they returned and came to En-mishpat, which is Kadesh, and smote all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites that dwelt in Hazezon-tamar.

8 And there went out the king of Sodom, and the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zebaiim, and the king of Bela, (the same is Zoar;) and they joined battle with them in the vale of Siddim;

9 With Chedorlaomer the king of Elam, and with Tidal king of nations, and Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar; four kings with five.

10 And the vale of Siddim was full of slime-pits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and fell there: and they that remained fled to the mountain.

11 And they took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their victuals and went their way.

12 And they took Lot, Abram's brother's son, who dwelt in Sodom, and his goods and departed.

13 ¶ And there came one that had escaped, and told Abram the Hebrew; for he dwelt in the plain of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol, and brother of Aner: and these were confederate with Abram.

14 And when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he armed his trained servants, born in his own house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued them unto Dan.

15 And he divided himself against them, he and his servants by night, and smote them, and pursued them unto Hobah, which is on the left hand of Damascus.

16 And he brought back all the goods, and also brought again his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women also, and the people.

17 ¶ And the king of Sodom went out to meet him (after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer, and of the kings that were with him,) at the valley of Shaveh, which is the king's dale.

18 And ^b Melchizedek king of Salem brought ^c forth bread and wine : and he was the ^d priest of the most high God.

19 And he ^e blessed him, and said, ^f Blessed be Abram, of the most high God, possessor of heaven and earth :

20 And ^g blessed be the most high God, which hath ^h delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he gave him tithes of all.

21 And the king of Sodom said unto Abram, Give me the persons, and take the goods to thyself.

22 And Abram said to the king of Sodom, I have lifted up my hand unto the LORD, the most high God, the possessor of heaven and earth,

23 That I will not ^k take from a thread even to a shoe-latchet, and that I will not take any thing that is thine, lest thou shouldest say, I have made Abram rich :

24 Save only that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men which went with me, Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre ; let them take their portion.

CHAPTER XV.

1 God encourageth Abram, 4 promiseth him a son, and a multiplying of his seed....6 Abram is justified by faith....7 Canaan is promised and confirmed by a vision.

AFTER these things the word of the LORD came unto Abram ^a in a vision, saying, ^b Fear not, Abram : I am thy ^c shield, and thy exceeding ^d great reward.

2 And Abram said, LORD God, what wilt thou give me, ^e seeing I go childless, and the steward of my nouse is this Eliezer of Damascus ?

3 And Abram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed : and lo, ^f one born in my house is mine heir.

4 And behold, the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, This shall not be thine heir ; but he that shall come forth out of thine own bowels ^g shall be thine heir.

5 And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and tell the ^h stars, if thou be able to number them : and he said unto him, So shall thy seed be.

6 And he ⁱ believed ^k in the LORD ; and ^l he counted it to him for righteousness.

7 And he said unto him, I am the LORD that brought thee out of ^m Ur of the Chaldees, to give thee this land to inherit it.

8 And he said, LORD God, ⁿ whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it ?

9 And he said unto him, ^o Take me a heifer of three years old, and a she-goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtle-dove, and a young pigeon.

10 And he took unto him all these, and ^p divided them in the midst, and laid each piece one against another : but the birds divided he not.

11 And when the ^q fowls came down upon the carcasses, Abram drove them away.

12 And when the sun was going down, ^r a deep sleep fell upon Abram ; and lo, a horror of great darkness fell upon him.

13 And he said unto Abram, Know of a surety, that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is ^s not theirs, and shall serve them ; and they shall afflict them ^t four hundred years ;

14 And also that nation, whom they shall serve, will ^u I judge : and afterwards shall they come out with ^v great substance.

15 And thou shalt go to ^z thy fathers in peace ; thou shalt be buried in a good old age.

16 But in the fourth generation they shall come hither again : for the iniquity of the Amorites is not ^a yet full.

17 And it came to pass that when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold a smoking furnace, and a ^b burning lamp that passed between those pieces.

18 In that same day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, ^c Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates :

19 The Kenites, and the Kenizzites, and the Kadmonites,

20 And the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Rephaims,

21 And the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Girgashites, and the Jebusites.

CHAPTER XVI.

NOW Sarai being barren giveth Hagar to Abram....15 Ishmael is born. Sarai, Abram's wife, ^a bare him no children : and she had a ^b handmaid, an Egyptian, whose name was Hagar.

2 And Sarai said unto Abram, Behold, now, the LORD hath ^c restrained me from bearing : I pray thee go in unto my maid ; it may be that I may ^d obtain children by her. And Abram ^e hearkened to the voice of Sarai.

3 And Sarai, Abram's wife, took Hagar her maid, the Egyptian, after Abram had dwelt ^f ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his ^g wife.

4 ^h And he went in unto Hagar, and she conceived : and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was ⁱ despised in her eyes.

5 And Sarai said unto Abram, ^j My wrong be upon thee : I have given my maid into thy bosom ; and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes : the LORD ^k judge between me and thee.

6 But Abram said unto Sarai, Behold, thy maid ^l is ^m in thy hand ; do to her as it pleaseth thee. And when Sarai ⁿ dealt hardly with her, she ^o fled from her face.

7 ^p And the angel of the LORD ^q found her by a fountain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain in the way to Shur.

8 And he said, Hagar, Sarai's maid, ^r whence earnest thou ? and whither wilt thou go ? And she said, ^s I flee from the face of my mistress Sarai.

9 And the angel of the LORD, said unto her, Return to thy mistress, and ^t submit thyself under her hands.

10 And the angel of the LORD said unto her, I will ^u multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be numbered for multitude.

11 And the angel of the LORD said unto her, Behold, thou art with child, and shalt bear a son, and shalt call his name Ishmael ; because the LORD ^v hath heard thy affliction.

12 And he will be a wild man : his hand will be ^w against every man, and every man's hand against him ; and he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren.

13 And she called the name of the LORD that spake ^x unto her, ^y Thou God seest me : for she said, Have I also here ^z looked after him that seeth me ?

14 Wherefore the well was called || Beer-lahai-roi ; behold, it is between Kadesh and Bered.

15 ^a And Hagar bare Abram a son : and Abram called his son's name, which Hagar bare, Ishmael.

16 ^b And Abram was fourscore and six years old, when Hagar bare Ishmael to Abram,

AND when Abram was ninety years old and nine, the LORD^a appeared to Abram, and said unto him, I am the^b Almighty God; ^c walk before me, and be thou perfect.

2 And I will make my covenant^d between me and thee, and will multiply thee exceedingly.

3 And Abram^e fell on his face: and God talked with him, saying,

4 As for me, behold, my covenant^f is with thee, and thou shalt be^g a father of many nations.

5 Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram; but thy name shall be called Abraham; for a^h father of many nations have I made thee.

6 And I will make thee exceeding fruitful, and I will make nations of thee; andⁱ kings shall come out of thee.

7 And I will establish my covenant between me and thee, and^j thy seed after thee, in their generations, for an^k everlasting covenant; to be^l a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee.

8 And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for^m an everlasting possession; and I will be their God.

9 ¶ And God said unto Abraham, Thou shalt keep my covenant therefore, thou and thy seed after thee, in their generations.

10 This isⁿ my covenant, which ye shall keep, between me and you, and thy seed after thee; Every^o man-child among you shall be^p circumcised.

11 And ye shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be a token of the covenant betwixt me and you.

12 And he that is[†] eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every man-child in your generations, he that is born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, which is not of thy seed.

13 He that is born in thy house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needs be circumcised: and my covenant shall be in^q your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

14 And the uncircumcised man-child, whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that soul shall be^r cut off from his people; he hath^s broken my covenant.

15 ¶ And God said unto Abraham, As for Sarai thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sarai, but Sarah shall her name be.

16 And I will^t bless her, and give thee a son also of her: yea, I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of^u nations; kings of people shall be of her.

17 Then Abraham fell upon his face, and^x laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a child be born unto him that is a hundred years old? and shall Sarah, that is ninety years old, bear?

18 And Abraham said unto God, O that Ishmael might live^y before thee!

19 And God said, ^z Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed; and thou shalt call his name^a Isaac: and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him.

20 And as for Ishmael, I have heard thee: Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly: ^b twelve princes shall he beget, and I will make him a great nation.

21 But^c my covenant will I establish with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear unto thee at this set time in the next year.

22 And he left off talking with him, and God^d went up from Abraham.

23 ¶ And Abraham^e took Ishmael his son, and all that were born in his house, and all that were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's house; and^f circumcised the flesh of their foreskin, in the^g self-same day, as God had said unto him.

24 And Abraham was^h ninety years old and nine, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

25 And Ishmael his son was thirteen years old, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

26 In the self-same day was Abraham circumcised, and Ishmael his son;

27 And all the men of his house, born in the house, and bought with money of the stranger, were circumcisedⁱ with him.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 Abraham entertaineth three angels....17 The destruction of Sodom is revealed to Abraham.

AND the LORD^a appeared unto him in the plains of Mamre: and he sat in the tent-door in the heat of the day;

2 And he lifted up his eyes and looked, and lo, ^b three men stood by him: and when he saw^c them, he ran to meet them from the tent-door, and^d bowed himself toward the ground,

3 And said, My Lord, if now I have found^e favour in thy sight, pass not away, I pray thee, from thy servant:

4 Let a little water, I pray you, be fetched, and^f wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree:

5 And I will fetch a morsel of^g bread, and^h comfort ye your hearts; after that you shall pass on: forⁱ therefore are ye come to your servant. And they said, So do, as thou hast said.

6 And Abraham hastened into the tent unto Sarah, and said, Make ready quickly^k three measures of fine meal, knead^l it, and make cakes upon the hearth.

7 And Abraham ran unto the herd, and fetched a calf^m tender and good, and gaveⁿ it unto a young man; and he hasted to dress it.

8 And he took butter, and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set^o it before them; and he^p stood by them under the tree, and they did^q eat.

9 ¶ And they said unto him, Where is Sarah thy wife? And he said, Behold, in the^r tent.

10 And he said, I will certainly^s return unto thee according to the time of life; and lo, Sarah thy wife shall have a son. And Sarah heard^t it in the tent-door, which was behind him.

11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old and^u well stricken in age; and it ceased to be with Sarah after the^v manner of women.

12 Therefore Sarah^w laughed within herself, saying, After I am waxed old shall I have pleasure, ^x my lord being old also?

13 And the LORD said unto Abraham, ^y Wherefore did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I of a surety bear a child, which am old?

14 Is any thing^z too hard for the LORD? At the time appointed^a I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son.

15 Then Sarah^b denied, saying, I laughed not; for she was afraid. And he said, Nay; but thou didst laugh.

16 And the men rose up from thence, and looked toward Sodom: and Abraham went with them ^b to bring them on the way.

17 ¹ And the LORD said, Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which ^c I do;

18 Seeing that Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed ^d in him?

19 For ^e I know him, that he will ^f command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the LORD, to do justice and judgment; that the LORD may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him.

20 And the LORD said, Because the ^g cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous, 21 I ^h will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not, I will ⁱ know.

22 And the men turned their faces from thence, and went toward Sodom: but Abraham ^k stood yet before the LORD.

23 ¹ And Abraham ^l drew near, and said, Wilt thou also destroy ^m the righteous with the wicked?

24 Peradventure there be fifty righteous within the city: wilt thou also destroy and not spare the place for the fifty righteous that ⁿ are therein?

25 That be far from thee to do after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked; and that the righteous should be as the wicked, that be far from thee: ^o Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?

26 And the LORD said, If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all ^p the place for their sakes.

27 And Abraham answered and said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the LORD, which ^q am ^r but dust and ashes:

28 Peradventure there shall lack five of the fifty righteous; wilt thou destroy all the city for ^s lack of five? And he said, If I find there forty and five, I will not destroy ^t it.

29 And he spake unto him ^u yet again, and said, Peradventure there shall be forty found there. And he said, I will not do ^v it for forty's sake.

30 And he said ^w unto him, Oh, let not the LORD be angry, and I will speak: Peradventure there shall thirty be found there. And he said, I will not do ^x it, if I find thirty there.

31 And he said, Behold now, ^y I have taken upon me to speak unto the LORD: Peradventure there shall be twenty found there. And he said, I will not destroy ^z it for twenty's sake.

32 And he said, Oh, let not the LORD be angry, and I will speak yet but this once: Peradventure ten shall be found there. And he said, ^a I will not destroy ^b it for ten's sake.

33 And the LORD went his way, as soon as he had left communing with Abraham: and Abraham returned unto his place.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 Lot entertaineth two angels....24 The vicious Sodomites are stricken with blindness....24 Sodom and Gomorrah are destroyed....26 Lot's wife is made a pillar of salt....31 The incestuous origin of Moab and Ammon.

AND there came ^a two angels to Sodom at even; and Lot sat ^b in the gate of Sodom; and Lot, seeing ^c them, rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground;

2 And he said, Behold now, my lords, turn in, I pray you, into your servant's house, and tarry all night, ^d and wash your feet, and ye shall rise up early, and go on your ways. And they said, ^e Nay; but we will abide in the street all night.

3 And he ^f pressed upon them greatly; and they ^g turned in unto him, and entered into his house; and he made them a feast, and did bake ^h unleavened bread, and they did eat.

4 ¹ But ⁱ before they lay down, the men of the city, even the men of Sodom, compassed the house round ^j both old and young, all the people from every quarter:

5 And ^k they called unto Lot, and said unto him, Where ^l are the men which came in to thee this night? bring them out unto us, that we may ^m know them.

6 And Lot went out at the door unto them, and shut the door after him,

7 And said, I pray you, brethren, do not so wickedly.

8 Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, ⁿ bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as ^o is good in your eyes: only unto these men do nothing; for therefore came they under the ^p shadow of my roof.

9 And they said, ^q Stand back. And they said ^r again, This one ^s fellow came in ^t to sojourn, and he will ^u needs be a judge: Now will we ^v deal worse with thee than with them. And they pressed sore upon the man, ^w even Lot, and came near to break the door.

10 But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the door.

11 And they smote the men that ^x were at the door of the house with ^y blindness, both small and great: so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

12 ¹ And the men said unto Lot, Hast thou here any besides? son-in-law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whatsoever thou hast in the city, ^z bring ^a them out of this place:

13 For we will destroy this place, because the ^b cry of them is waxen great before the face of the LORD; and the LORD hath sent us to destroy it.

14 And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons-in-law, which ^c married his daughters, and said, Up, ^d get you out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city: but he seemed as one that ^e mocked unto his sons-in-law.

15 ¹ And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters which are here, lest thou be consumed ^f in the iniquity of the city.

16 And while he ^g lingered, the men laid ^h hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; the LORD being ⁱ merciful unto him; and they brought him forth, and set him without the city.

17 And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that ^j he said, Escape ^k for thy life: look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain: escape to the ^l mountain, lest thou be consumed.

18 And Lot said unto them, Oh, ^m not so, my lord!

19 Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast shewed unto me in saving my life: and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some ⁿ evil take me, and I die:

20 Behold now, this city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one: Oh, let me escape thither! (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live.

21 And he said unto him, See, I have ^k accepted thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city, for the which thou hast spoken.

22 Haste thee, escape thither; for ^l I cannot do any thing till thou be come thither: therefore the name of the city was called Zoar.

23 ¹ The sun was ^m risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zoar.

24 Then the LORD rained upon ⁿ Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven;

25 And he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and ^o that which grew upon the ground.

26 ¹ But his wife ^p looked back from behind him, and she became ^q a pillar of salt.

27 ¹ And Abraham gat up early in the morning to the place where ^r he stood before the LORD:

28 And he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, and beheld, and lo, the ^s smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace.

29 ¹ And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God ^t remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in the which Lot dwelt.

30 ¹ And Lot went up out of Zoar, and dwelt ^u in the mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he feared to dwell in Zoar: and he dwelt in a cave, he, and his two daughters.

31 ¹ And the first-born said unto the younger, Our father is old, and there is ^x not a man in the earth ^y to come in unto us after the manner of all the earth:

32 ^z Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

33 And they made their father ^a drink wine that night: and the first-born went in, and lay with her father; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

34 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the first-born said unto the younger, Behold, I lay yesternight with my father: let us make him drink wine this night also; and go thou in, and lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

35 And they made their father drink wine that night also: and the younger arose, and lay with him; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

36 Thus were both the daughters of Lot with child ^b by their father.

37 And the first-born bare a son, and called his name ^c Moab: the same is the father of the ^e Moabites unto this day.

38 And the younger, she also bare a son, and called his name ^d Ben-ammi: the same is the father of the children of Ammon unto this day.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Abraham sojourneth at Gerar....2 He denieth his wife, and loseth her.

AND Abraham journeyed ^a from thence toward the south country, and dwelled between ^b Kadesh and Shur, and sojourned in Gerar.

2 And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, ^c She is my sister: and Abimelech king of Gerar sent and took Sarah.

3 But ^d God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, Behold, thou art but ^e a dead man, for the woman which thou hast taken: for she is a man's wife.

4 But Abimelech had ^f not come near her: and he said, LORD, wilt thou slay also ^g a righteous nation?

5 Said he not unto me, She is my sister? and she, even she herself said, He is my brother: ^h in the integrity of my heart and innocency of my hands have I done this.

6 And God said unto him in a dream, ⁱ Yea, I know that thou didst this in the integrity of thy heart; for I also ^k withheld thee from sinning ^l against me: therefore ^m I suffered I thee not to touch her.

7 Now therefore restore the man his wife; for he is ⁿ a prophet, and he ^o shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live: and if thou ^p restore her not, know thou that thou shalt surely die, ^q thou and all that are thine.

8 Therefore Abimelech ^r rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears: and the men were sore afraid.

9 Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said unto him, What hast thou done unto us? and what have I offended thee, that thou hast ^s brought on me and on my kingdom a ^t great sin? thou hast done deeds unto me that ought not to be done.

10 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What sawest thou, that thou hast done this thing?

11 And Abraham said, Because I thought, Surely the ^u fear of God is not in this place; and they will slay me for my wife's sake.

12 And yet indeed she is ^v my sister; she is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother: and she became my wife.

13 And it came to pass, when God caused me to ^w wander from my father's house, that I said unto her, This is thy kindness which thou shalt shew unto me; at every place whither we shall come, say of me, He is my brother.

14 And Abimelech took sheep, and oxen, and men-servants, and women-servants, and gave them unto Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife.

15 And Abimelech said, Behold, my land is before thee: dwell where it pleaseth thee.

16 And unto Sarah he said, Behold, I have given ^y thy brother a thousand pieces of silver: behold, he is to thee a covering of the eyes unto all that are with thee, and with all other: ^z thus she was reproved.

17 ¹ So Abraham prayed unto God: and God ^a healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his maid-servants; and they bare children.

18 For the LORD had ^b fast closed up all the wombs of the house of Abimelech, because of Sarah, Abraham's wife.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Isaac is born....4 He is circumcised....9 Hagar and Ishmael are cast forth.

AND the LORD ^a visited Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did unto Sarah ^b as he had spoken.

2 For Sarah ^c conceived, and bare Abraham a son in his old age, at the ^d set time of which God had spoken to him.

3 And Abraham called the name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sarah bare to him, ^e Isaac.

4 And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac, being ^f eight days old, as God had commanded him.

5 And Abraham was a hundred years old, when his son Isaac was born unto him.

6 ¹ And Sarah said, God hath made me to laugh, ^g so that all that hear will laugh with me.

7 And she said, ^a Who would have said unto Abraham, that Sarah should have given children i suck? for I have borne him a son in his old age.

8 And the child grew, and was ^k weaned: and Abraham made a great feast the same day that Isaac was weaned.

9 ¶ And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, which she had borne unto Abraham, ^l mocking.

10 Wherefore she said unto Abraham, ^m Cast out this bond-woman, and her son: for the son of this bond-woman shall not be ⁿ heir with my son, even with Isaac.

11 And the thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight, ^o because of his son.

12 And God said unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight, because of the lad, and because of thy bond-woman; in all that Sarah hath said unto thee, hearken unto her voice: for ^p in Isaac shall thy seed be called.

13 And also of the son of the bond-woman will I ^q make a nation, because he is thy seed.

14 And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread, and a bottle of water, and gave it unto Hagar (putting it on her shoulder) and the child, and sent her away: and she departed, and ^r wandered in the wilderness of Beer-sheba.

15 And the water was ^s spent in the bottle, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs.

16 And she went and sat her down over against him, a good way off, as it were a bow-shot: for she said, Let me not see the ^t death of the child. And she sat over against him, and lifted up her voice, and wept.

17 And God heard the voice of the lad: and the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is.

18 Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in thy hand: for I will make him a great nation.

19 And God opened her eyes, and she saw a ^u well of water: and she went, and filled the bottle with water, and gave the lad drink.

20 And God was with the lad; and he grew, and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer.

21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran: and his ^v mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ And it came to pass at that time that ^w Abimelech and Phichol the chief captain of his host, spake unto Abraham, saying, ^x God is with thee in all that thou doest:

23 Now therefore ^y swear unto me here by God, ^z that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son: but according to the kindness that ^{aa} I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned.

24 And Abraham said, ^{ab} I will swear.

25 And Abraham reproved Abimelech because of ^{ac} a well of water, which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away.

26 And Abimelech said, ^{ad} I wot not who hath done this thing: neither didst thou tell me, neither yet heard I of it, but to-day.

27 And Abraham ^{ae} took sheep and oxen, and gave them unto Abimelech: and both of them made a ^{af} covenant.

28 And Abraham set seven ewe-lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What mean these seven ewe-lambs, which thou hast set by themselves?

30 And he said, For these seven ewe-lambs shalt thou take of my hand, that they may be ^{ah} a witness unto me that I have digged this well.

31 Wherefore he called that place ^{ai} Beer-sheba; because there they sware both of them.

32 Thus they made a covenant at Beer-sheba: then Abimelech rose up, and Phichol the chief captain of his host, and they returned into the land of the Philistines.

33 ¶ And Abraham planted a grove in Beer-sheba, and called there on the name of the LORD, ^{aj} the everlasting God.

34 And Abraham sojourned in the Philistines' land many days.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 Abraham is tempted to offer Isaac....3 He giveth proof of his faith and obedience.

AND it came to pass ^a after these things, that God did ^b tempt Abraham, and said unto him, Abraham: and he said, Behold, ^c here I am.

2 And he said, Take now thy son, thine ^d only son Isaac, ^e whom thou lovest, and get thee into the land of ^f Moriah; and offer him there for a burnt-offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of.

3 ¶ And Abraham ^g rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son, and clave the wood for the burnt-offering, and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him.

4 Then on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and ^h saw the place afar off.

5 And Abraham said unto his young men, ⁱ Abide ye here with the ass, and I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and ^k come again to you.

6 And Abraham took the wood of the burnt-offering, and ^l laid it upon Isaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand and a knife: and they went both of them together.

7 And Isaac spake unto Abraham his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood: but where is the ^m lamb for a burnt-offering?

8 And Abraham said, My son, ⁿ God will provide himself a lamb for a burnt-offering: so they went both of them together.

9 And they came to the place which God had told him of; and Abraham built ^o an altar there, and laid the wood in order; and ^p bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar upon the wood.

10 And Abraham stretched forth his hand, and took the knife ^q to slay his son.

11 And the ^r angel of the LORD called unto him ^s out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham. And he said, Here am I.

12 And he said, ^t Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now ^u I know that thou ^x fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son, from me.

13 And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold, ^y behind him ^z a ram caught in ^{aa} a thicket by his horns: And Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt-offering in the stead of his son.

14 And Abraham called the name of that place ^{ab} Jehovah-jireh: as it is said to this day, In the mount of the LORD ^{ac} it shall be seen.

15 ¶ And the angel of the LORD called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time, ham, I pray thee, ^p send me good speed this day, and shew kindness unto my master Abraham.

13 Behold, I ^a stand here by the well of water; and the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water :

14 And ^r let it come to pass, that the damsel to whom I shall say, Let down thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also : let the same be she that thou hast appointed for thy servant Isaac; and thereby shall I know that thou hast shewed kindness unto my master.

15 ¹ And it came to pass, ^s before he had done speaking, that behold, Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel, son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, with her ^t pitcher upon her shoulder.

16 And the damsel [†] was very fair to look upon, a virgin; neither had any man ^u known her: and she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up.

17 And the servant ran to meet her, and said, Let me, I pray thee, drink a little water of thy pitcher.

18 And she said, Drink, my lord: and she hasted, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink.

19 And when she had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking.

20 And she hasted, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again unto the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels.

21 And the man, ^x wondering at her, ^y held his peace, to wit, whether the LORD had made his journey prosperous, or not.

22 And it came to pass, as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden ^{||} ear-ring, of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hands of ten shekels weight of gold,

23 And said, Whose daughter art thou? tell me, I pray thee: is there room in thy father's house for us to lodge in?

24 And she said unto him, I am the daughter of Bethuel ^z the son of Milcah, which she bare unto Nahor.

25 She said, moreover, unto him, We have both straw and provender enough, and room to lodge in.

26 And the man ^a bowed down his head, and worshipped the LORD.

27 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of my master Abraham, who ^b hath not left destitute my master of his mercy and his truth: I being in the way, the LORD led me to the house of my master's ^c brethren.

28 And the damsel ran, and told them of her mother's house these things.

29 ¹ And Rebekah had a brother, and his name was Laban: and Laban ran out unto the man, unto the well.

30 And it came to pass, when he saw the ear-ring, and bracelets upon his sister's hands, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, Thus spake the man unto me; that he came unto the man, and behold, he stood by the camels at the well.

31 And he said, Come in, thou ^e blessed of the LORD; wherefore standest thou without? for I have prepared the house, and room for the camels.

32 And the man came into the house: and he ungirded his camels, and gave straw and provender for the camels, and water to ^f wash his feet, and the men's feet that were with him.

33 And there was set meat before him to eat: but he said, ^g I will not eat until I have told mine errand. And he said, Speak on.

34 And he said, I am ^h Abraham's servant.

35 And ⁱ the LORD hath blessed my master greatly, and he is become great: and he hath given him flocks, and herds, and silver, and gold, and men-servants, and maid-servants, and camels, and asses.

36 And Sarah, my master's wife, bare a son to my master when she ^k was old: and unto him hath he given all that he hath.

37 And my master made me swear, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my son ^l of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell:

38 But thou shalt go unto ^m my father's house, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son.

39 And I said unto my master, ⁿ Peradventure the woman will not follow me.

40 And he said unto me, The LORD, ^o before whom I walk, will send his angel with thee, and ^p prosper thy way; and thou shalt take a wife for my son of my kindred, and of my father's house.

41 Then shalt thou be clear from this ^q my oath, when thou comest to my kindred; and if they give not thee one, thou shalt be clear from my oath.

42 And I came this day unto the well, and said, O LORD God of my master Abraham, if now thou do ^r prosper my way which I go:

43 Behold, ^s I stand by the well of water; and it shall come to pass, that when the virgin cometh forth to draw water, and I say to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drink;

44 And she say to me, ^t Both drink thou, and I will also draw for thy camels: let the same be the woman whom the LORD hath appointed out for my master's son.

45 And before I had done speaking ^u in mine heart, behold, Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down unto the well, and drew water: and I said unto her, Let me drink, I pray thee.

46 And she made haste, and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: so I drank, and she made the camels drink also.

47 And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bare unto him: and I put the ear-ring ^x upon her face, and the bracelets upon her hands.

48 And I bowed down my head, and worshipped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master Abraham, which had led me in the ^y right way to take my master's brother's daughter unto his son.

49 And now if ye will deal ^z kindly and truly with my master, tell me: and if not, tell me; that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left.

50 Then Laban and Bethuel answered, and said, The thing proceedeth from the LORD: we cannot speak unto thee ^a bad or good.

51 Behold, Rebekah is before thee, take her, and go, and let her be thy master's son's wife, as the LORD hath spoken.

52 And it came to pass, that, when Abraham's servant heard their words, he ^b worshipped the LORD, bowing himself to the earth.

53 And the servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Rebekah. He gave also to her brother and to her mother ^b precious things.

54 And they did eat and drink, he and the men that were with him, and tarried all night; and they rose up in the morning, and he said, ^c Send me away unto my master.

55 And her brother and her mother said, Let the damsel abide with us a few days, at the least ten; after that she shall go.

56 And he said unto them, Hinder me not, seeing the LORD hath prospered my way: send me away, that I may go to my master.

57 And they said, We will call the damsel, and inquire ^d at her mouth.

58 And they called Rebekah, and said unto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she said, I will go.

59 And they sent away Rebekah their sister, and her ^e nurse, and Abraham's servant, and his men.

60 And they ^f blessed Rebekah, and said unto her, Thou art our sister; be thou the mother of ^g thousands of millions, and let thy seed ^h possess the gate of those which hate them.

61 [†] And Rebekah arose, and her damsels, and they rode upon the camels, and ⁱ followed the man: and the servant took Rebekah, and went his way.

62 And Isaac came from the way of the well Lahai-roi; for he dwelt in the ^j south country.

63 And Isaac went out to ^{||} ^m meditate in the field at the even-tide: and he lifted up his eyes, and saw, and behold, the camels were coming.

64 And Rebekah lifted up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac, she lighted off the camel.

65 For she had said unto the servant, What man is this that walketh in the field to meet us? And the servant had said, It is my master: therefore she took ⁿ a veil and covered herself.

66 And the servant told Isaac all things that he had done.

67 And Isaac brought her into his mother's Sarah's tent, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife; and he ^p loved her: and Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

CHAPTER XXV.

2 The sons of Abraham by Keturah....7 His age and death....12 The generations of Ishmael....21 Isaac prayeth for Rebekah, being barren....24 The birth of Esau and Jacob....29 Esau selleth his birthright.

THEN ^a again Abraham took a ^b wife, and her name was Keturah.

2 And she ^c bare him Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and ^e Midian, and Ishbak, ^f and Shuah.

3 And Jokshan begat Sheba, and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim, and Letushim, and Leummim.

4 And the sons of Midian; ^g Ephah, and Ephher, and Hanoah, and Abidah, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah.

5 [†] And Abraham gave ^h all that he had unto Isaac.

6 But unto the sons of the ⁱ concubines which Abraham had, Abraham gave ^k gifts, and sent them away from Isaac his son (while he yet lived) ^j eastward, unto the east country.

7 And these are the days of the years of Abraham's life which he lived, ^m a hundred threescore and fifteen years.

8 Then Abraham gave up the ghost, and died ^a in a good old age, an old man, and full of years; and was ^b gathered to his people.

9 And his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the ^c field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, which is before Mamre;

10 The field which Abraham purchased of the sons of Heth: there was Abraham ^d buried, and Sarah his wife.

11 [†] And it came to pass after the death of Abraham, that God ^e blessed his son Isaac: and Isaac dwelt by the well Lahai-roi.

12 [†] Now these are the generations of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's handmaid, bare unto Abraham.

13 And these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: the first-born of Ishmael, ^f Nebajoth; and ^g Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam,

14 And Mishma, ^h and Dumah, and Massa,

15 Hadar, and ⁱ Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah:

16 These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their towns, and by their castles; ^j twelve princes according to their nations.

17 And these are the years of the life of Ishmael: a hundred and thirty and seven years: and he gave up the ghost and died, and was gathered unto his people.

18 And they dwelt from Havilah unto Shur, that is before Egypt, as thou goest toward Assyria: and he ^k died in the presence of all his brethren.

19 [†] And these are the generations of Isaac, Abraham's son: Abraham begat Isaac:

20 And Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah to wife, the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian of Padan-aram, the sister to Laban the ^l Syrian.

21 And Isaac ^a entreated the LORD for his wife, because she was ^b barren: and the LORD was entreated of him, and Rebekah his wife conceived.

22 And the children ^{||} struggled together within her: and she said, If it be so, why am I thus? And she went to inquire of the LORD.

23 And the LORD said unto her, Two nations are in thy womb, and two manner of people shall be separated from thy bowels: and the one people shall be stronger than the other people; and the elder ^c shall serve the younger.

24 [†] And when her days to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, there were twins in her womb.

25 And the first came out ^d red, all over like a hairy garment: and they called his name Esau.

26 And after that came his brother out, and his hand ^e took hold on Esau's heel; and his name was called Jacob: and Isaac was threescore years old when she bare them.

27 And the boys grew: and Esau was ^f a cunning hunter, a man of the field; and Jacob was a ^g plain man ^h dwelling in tents.

28 And Isaac loved Esau, because [†] he did eat of his venison: but Rebekah loved Jacob.

29 [†] And Jacob sod pottage: and Esau came from the field, and he was ⁱ faint.

30 And Esau said to Jacob, Feed me, I pray thee, [†] with that same red pottage; for I am faint: therefore was his name called Edom.

31 And Jacob said, Sell me this day thy ^k birthright

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 Isaac because of famine goeth to Gerar...26 Abimelech's covenant with him at Beer-sheba.

A^bND there was a famine ^a in the land, besides the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went unto Abimelech king of the Philistines unto Gerar.

2 And the LORD ^e appeared unto him, and said. Go not down into Egypt: ^a dwell in the land which I shall tell thee of.

3 ^e Sojourn in this land, and I will be with thee, and will bless thee: for unto thee, and unto thy seed I will give ^f all these countries, and I will ^e perform the oath which I swore unto Abraham thy father;

4 And I will make thy seed to multiply as the ^b stars of heaven, and will give unto thy seed all these countries: and in ⁱ thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed:

5 Because that Abraham ^k obeyed my voice, and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws.

6 [†] And Isaac dwelt in ⁱ Gerar:

7 And the men of the place asked him of his wife; and he said, She is ^m my sister: for he feared ^a to say, She is my wife; lest, said he, the men of the place should kill me for Rebekah; because she was fair to look upon.

8 And it came to pass when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines ^o looked out at a window, and saw, and behold, Isaac was ^p sporting with Rebekah his wife.

9 And Abimelech called Isaac, and said, Behold, of a surety she is thy wife: and ^q how saidst thou, She is my sister? And Isaac said unto him, Because I said, Lest I die for her.

10 And Abimelech said, What is this thou hast done unto us? one of the people might lightly have lain with thy wife, and thou shouldest have brought guiltiness upon us.

11 And Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He that ^r toucheth this man or his wife shall surely be put to death.

12 Then Isaac sowed in that land, and [†] received in the same year ^a a hundred-fold: and the LORD ^t blessed him:

13 And the man waxed great, and [†] went forward, and grew until he became very great:

14 For he had ^u possession of flocks, and possession of herds, and great store of servants: And the Philistines ^x envied him.

15 For all the wells which his father's servants had digged in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had ^y stopped them, and filled them with earth.

16 And Abimelech said unto Isaac, Go from us, for thou art much mightier than we.

17 And Isaac departed thence, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there.

18 And Isaac digged again the wells of water which they had digged in the days of Abraham his father; for the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham: and he ^z called their names after the names by which his father had called them.

19 And Isaac's servants digged in the valley, and found there a well of [†] springing water.

20 And the herdmen of Gerar did strive with Isaac's herdmen, saying, The water is ours: and he called the name of the well ^{||} Esek; because they strove with him.

21 And they digged another well, and strove for that also: and he called the name of it ^{||} Sitnah.

22 And he removed from thence, and digged another well; and for that they strove not: and he called the name of it ^{||} Rehoboth; and he said, For now the LORD hath ^a made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land.

23 And he went up from thence to ^b Beer-sheba. b ch. 21, 31.

24 And the LORD appeared unto him the same night, and said, I am the God ^c of Abraham thy father: ^d fear not, for I am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant Abraham's sake. c ch. 17, 7. d ch. 15, 1.

25 And he builded an ^e altar there, and called upon the name of the LORD, and [†] pitched his tent there: and there Isaac's servants digged a well. e ch. 12, 7. f Heb. stretched out. Isai. 30, 20.

26 [†] Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath one of his friends, and Phichol the chief captain of his army.

27 And Isaac said unto them, Wherefore come ye to me, ^f seeing ye hate me, and have sent me away from you? f verse 18.

28 And they said, [†] We saw certainly that the LORD was with thee: and we said, Let there be now ^g an oath betwixt us, even betwixt us and thee, and let us make a covenant with thee: g ch. 24, 41.

29 That thou wilt do us no hurt, as we have ^h not touched thee, and as we have done unto thee nothing but good, and have sent thee away in peace: thou art now the blessed of the LORD. h verses 11, 14, 15.

31 And they rose up betimes in the morning, and swore one to another: and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace.

32 And it came to pass the same day, that Isaac's servants came and told him concerning the well which they had ^k digged, and said unto him, [†] We have found water. k verse 25. l Prov. 2, 4, 5. Mat. 7, 7.

33 And he called it ^{||} Shebah: therefore the name of the city is Beer-sheba unto this day.

4 And make me savoury meat, such as I love; and bring it to me, that ^d I may eat; that my ^e soul may bless ^f thee before I die.

5 And Rebekah heard when Isaac spake to Esau his son: and Esau went to the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it.

6 ¶ And Rebekah spake unto Jacob her son, saying, Behold, I heard thy father speak unto Esau thy brother, saying,

7 Bring me venison, and make me savoury meat, that I may eat, and bless thee before the LORD, ^g before my death:

8 Now therefore, my son, ^h obey my voice, according to that which I command thee.

9 Go now to the flock, and fetch me from thence two good kids of the goats; and I will make them savoury meat for thy father, such as he loveth:

10 And thou shalt bring it to thy father, that he may eat, and that he may bless thee before his death.

11 And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, Behold, Esau my brother is ⁱ a hairy man, and I ^{am} a smooth man:

12 My father peradventure will feel me, and I shall seem to him ^k as a deceiver; and I shall bring ^l a curse upon me, and not a blessing.

13 And his mother said unto him, ^m Upon me be thy curse, my son; only obey my voice, and go fetch me them.

14 And he went, and fetched, and brought them to his mother: and his mother made savoury meat, such as his father loved.

15 And Rebekah took [†] goodly raiment of her eldest son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them upon Jacob her younger son:

16 And she put the skins of the kids of the goats upon his hands, and upon the smooth of his neck:

17 And she gave the savoury meat and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob.

18 ¶ And he came unto his father, and said, My father. And he said, Here ^{am} I; who ^{art} thou, my son?

19 And Jacob said unto his father, I ^{am} Esau ⁿ thy first-born; I have done according as thou badest me: arise, ⁱ I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, that thy soul may bless me.

20 And Isaac said unto his son, How ^{is it} that thou hast found it so quickly, my son? And he said, Because the LORD thy God brought it to me.

21 And Isaac said unto Jacob, ^o Come near, I pray thee, that I may feel thee, my son, whether thou be my very son Esau, or not.

22 And Jacob went near unto Isaac his father; and he felt him, and said, The voice ^{is} Jacob's voice, but the hands ^{are} the hands of Esau.

23 And he discerned him not, because his hands were hairy, as his brother Esau's hands: so he ^p blessed him.

24 And he said, ^{Art} thou my very son Esau? And he said, ^q I ^{am}.

25 And he said, Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, that my soul may bless thee. And he brought it near to him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine, and he drank.

26 And his father Isaac said unto him, Come near now, and kiss me, my son.

27 And he came near, and kissed him: and he smelled the smell of his raiment, and blessed him, and said, See, the smell of my son is as the smell ^r of a field which the LORD hath blessed:

28 Therefore God give thee of the ^s dew of heaven, and the ^t fatness of the earth, and plenty of ^u corn and wine:

29 Let people ^x serve thee, and nations bow down to thee; be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's sons bow down to thee: ^y cursed be every one that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee.

30 ¶ And it came to pass, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was yet scarce gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting.

31 And he also had made savoury meat; and brought it unto his father; and said unto his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his son's venison, that thy soul may bless me.

32 And Isaac his father said unto him, Who ^{art} thou? And he said, I ^{am} thy son, thy first-born, Esau.

33 And Isaac [†] trembled very exceedingly, and said, Who? where ^{is} he that hath taken venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before thou camest, and have blessed him? yea, and ^z he shall be blessed.

34 And when Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with a great and exceeding ^a bitter cry, and said unto his father, Bless me, ^{even} me also, O my father!

35 And he said, Thy brother came with ^b subtilty, and hath taken away thy blessing.

36 And he said, Is he not rightly ^c named Jacob? for he hath supplanted me these two times: he took away my birthright; and behold, now he hath taken away my blessing. And he said, Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me?

37 And Isaac answered and said unto Esau, Behold, I have made him thy lord, and all his brethren have I given to him for servants; and with corn and wine have I sustained him: and what shall I do now unto thee, my son?

38 And Esau said unto his father, Hast thou but one blessing, my father? bless me, ^{even} me also, O my father! And Esau lifted up his voice, and ^d wept.

39 And Isaac his father answered, and said unto him, Behold, thy dwelling shall be the ^e fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above;

40 And by thy ^f sword shalt thou live, and shalt ^g serve thy brother: and it shall come to pass when thou shalt have the dominion, that thou shalt ^h break his yoke from off thy neck.

41 ¶ And Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him: and Esau ^k said in his heart, The days of mourning for my father are at hand, ^l then will I slay my brother Jacob.

42 And these words of Esau her elder son were told to Rebekah: and she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said unto him, Behold, thy brother Esau, as touching thee, ^m doth comfort himself, ^{pur-}posing to kill thee.

43 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice: and arise, flee thou to Laban my brother to Haran;

44 And tarry with him a few ⁿ days, until thy brother's fury turn away;

45 Until thy brother's anger turn away from thee, and he forget ^{that} which thou hast done to him: then I will send, and fetch thee from thence. Why should I be deprived also of you ^o both in one day?

46 And Rebekah said to Isaac, ^p I am weary of my life, because of the daughters of Heth: if Jacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these ^{which}

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 Jacob cometh to the well of Haran: 18 He covenanteth for Rachel: 23 He is deceived with Leah: 28 He marrieth also Rachel, and serveth for her seven years more.

THEN Jacob [†] went on his journey, and came into the land of the people of the east.

2 And he looked, and behold, ^a a well in the field, and lo, there were three flocks of sheep ^b lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks: and a great stone was upon the well's mouth.

3 And thither were all the flocks gathered: and they ^c rolled the stone from the well's mouth and watered the sheep, and ^d put the stone again upon the well's mouth in his place.

4 And Jacob said unto them, My brethren, whence be ye? And they said, Of Haran are we.

5 And he said unto them, Know ye Laban ^e the son of Nahor? And they said, We know him.

6 And he said unto them, [†] Is he well? And they said, He is well; and behold, Rachel his daughter cometh with the sheep.

7 And he said, Lo, it is ^f yet high day, neither is it time that the cattle should be gathered together: water ye the sheep, and go and feed them.

8 And they said, ^g We cannot, until all the flocks be gathered together, and ^h till they roll the stone from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep.

9 ¶ And ⁱ while he yet spake with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep: for she ^j kept them.

10 And it came to pass, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, that Jacob went near, and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother.

11 And Jacob ^k kissed Rachel, and ^l lifted up his voice, and wept.

12 And Jacob told Rachel that he was her ^m father's brother, and that he was Rebekah's son: and she ran and told her father.

13 And it came to pass when Laban heard the tidings of Jacob his sister's son, that he ran to meet him, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house. And he told Laban all ⁿ these things.

14 And Laban said to him, Surely thou art ^o my bone and my flesh: and he abode with him the space of a month.

15 And Laban said unto Jacob, Because thou art ^p my brother, shouldest thou therefore serve me for nought? tell me, what shall thy wages be?

16 And Laban had two daughters: the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.

17 Leah was tender-eyed, but Rachel was beautiful and well-favoured.

18 And Jacob loved Rachel; and said, I will ^q serve thee seven years for Rachel thy younger daughter.

19 And Laban said, It is ^r better that I give her to thee, than that I should give her to another man: abide with me.

24 And Laban gave unto his daughter Leah, Zilpah his maid, for ^h a handmaid.

25 And it came to pass, that in the ⁱ morning, behold, it was Leah: and he said to Laban, What is this thou hast done unto me? Did not I serve with thee for Rachel? wherefore then hast thou ^j beguiled me?

26 And Laban said, It must not be so done in our country, to give the younger before the first-born.

27 ^k Fulfil her week, and we will give thee ^l this also, ^m for the service which thou shalt serve with me yet seven other years.

28 And Jacob did so, and fulfilled her week: and he gave him Rachel his daughter to wife also.

29 And Laban gave to Rachel his daughter, Bilhah his handmaid, to be her maid.

30 And he went in also unto Rachel, and he loved also Rachel more than Leah, and served with him yet seven other years.

31 ¶ And when the LORD ⁿ saw that Leah was ^o hated, he ^p opened her womb: but Rachel was ^q barren.

32 And Leah conceived, and bare a son; and she called his name || Reuben: for she said, Surely the LORD hath looked upon my affliction; now therefore my husband will love me.

34 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and said, Now this time will my husband be joined unto me, because I have borne him three sons: therefore was his name called || Levi.

35 And she conceived again, and bare a son: and she said, Now will I praise the LORD: therefore she called his name || Judah, and ^r left bearing.

3 And she said, Behold ^w my maid Bilhah, go in unto her; and she shall bear upon my knees, that I may also ^x have children by her.

7 And Bilhah, Rachel's maid, conceived again, and bare Jacob a second son.

8 And Rachel said, With ^y great wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister, and I have prevailed: and she called his name || Naphtali.

16 And Jacob came out of the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, Thou must come in unto me; for surely I have hired thee with my son's mandrakes. And he lay with her that night.

17 And God ^{ae} hearkened unto Leah, and she conceived, and bare Jacob the fifth son.

18 And Leah said, God hath given me my hire, because I have given my maiden to my husband: and she called his name || Issachar.

19 And Leah conceived again, and bare Jacob the sixth son.

Jacob, and he loved the damsel, and spake kindly unto the damsel.

4 And Shechem ^e spake unto his father Hamor, saying, Get me this damsel ^f to wife.

5 And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter: now his sons were with his cattle in the field: and Jacob ^g held his peace until they were come.

6 ^h And Hamor the father of Shechem went out unto Jacob to commune with him.

7 And the sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard ⁱ it: and the men were grieved, and they were very wroth, because he had wrought ^j folly in Israel, in lying with Jacob's daughter; which thing ^k ought not to be done.

8 And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soul of my son Shechem longeth for your daughter: I pray you give her him to wife.

9 And make ye marriages with us, and ^l give your daughters unto us, and take our daughters unto you.

10 And ye shall dwell with us: and the land shall be ^m before you; dwell and trade you therein, and get you possessions therein.

11 And Shechem said unto her father, and unto her brethren, Let me ⁿ find grace in your eyes, and what ye shall say unto me I will give.

12 ^o Ask me never so much ^p dowry and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me: but give me the damsel to wife.

13 And the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father ^q deceitfully, and said, Because he had defiled Dinah their sister.

14 And they said unto them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is ^r uncircumcised: ^s for that ^t were a reproach unto us:

15 But in this will we consent unto you: If ye will be as we ^u be, that every male of you be circumcised;

16 Then will we give our daughters unto you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people.

17 But if ye will not hearken unto us, to be circumcised; then will we take our daughter, and we will be gone.

18 And their words pleased Hamor, and Shechem, Hamor's son.

19 And the young man deferred not to do the thing, because he had delight in Jacob's daughter: and he ^v was more honourable than all ^w the house of his father.

20 ^x And Hamor and Shechem his son came unto the ^y gate of their city, and communed with the men of their city, saying, 21 These men ^z are peaceable with us, therefore let them dwell in the land, and trade therein: for the land, behold, ^a it is large enough for them: let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters.

22 Only herein ^b will the men consent unto us for to dwell with us, to be one people, if every male among us be circumcised, as they ^c are circumcised.

23 ^d Shall not their cattle, and their substance, and every beast of theirs ^e be ours? only let us consent unto them, and they will dwell with us.

24 And unto Hamor, and unto Shechem his son, hearkened all that went out of the gate of his city: and every male was ^f circumcised, all that went out of the gate of his city.

25 ^g And it came to pass on the third day, when they were ^h sore, that ⁱ two of the sons of Jacob,

Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the city boldly, and slew ^j all the males.

26 And they slew Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went out.

27 The sons of Jacob came ^k upon the slain, and spoiled the city; because they had ^l defiled their sister.

28 They took their sheep, and their oxen, and their asses, and that which ^m was in the city, and that which ⁿ was in the field.

29 And all their ^o wealth and ^p all their little ones, and their wives took they captive, and spoiled even all that ^q was in the house.

30 And Jacob said to ^r Simeon and Levi, Ye have ^s troubled me to make me to ^t stink among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites, and the Perizzites: and I ^u being ^v few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and slay me, and I shall be destroyed, I and my house.

31 And they said, ^w Should he deal with our sister as with a harlot?

CHAPTER XXXV.

1 God sendeth Jacob to Beth-el....2 He purgeth his house of idols, 9 God blesseth Jacob at Beth-el....16 Rachel travaileth of Benjamin, and dieth in the way to Edar....23 The sons of Jacob....28 The age, death, and burial of Isaac.

AND ^a God said unto Jacob, Arise, go up to ^b Beth-el, and dwell there: and make there an altar unto God, that appeared unto thee when thou ^c fleddest from the face of Esau thy brother.

2 Then Jacob said unto his ^d household, and to all that ^e were with him, ^f Put away the strange gods that ^g are among you, and ^h be clean, and change your ⁱ garments:

3 And let us arise, and go up to Beth-el; and I will there make an altar unto God, who ^j answered me in the day of my ^k distress, and was with me in the way which I went.

4 And they gave unto Jacob all ^l the strange gods which ^m were in their hand, and ⁿ all their ^o ear-rings which ^p were in their ears; and Jacob ^q hid them under the oak which ^r was by Shechem.

5 And they journeyed: and the ^s terror of God was upon the cities that ^t were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob.

6 ^u So Jacob came to ^v Luz, which ^w is in the land of Canaan (that ^x is Beth-el) he and all the people that ^y were with him.

7 And he built ^z there an altar, and called the place ^a El-beth-el; because there God appeared unto him when he fled from the face of his brother.

8 But Deborah, ^b Rebekah's nurse, died, and she was buried beneath Beth-el, under an oak: and the name of it was called ^c Allon-Bachuth.

9 ^d And God ^e appeared unto Jacob again when he came out of Padan-aram; and blessed him.

10 And God said unto him, Thy name ^f is Jacob: thy name shall not be called any more Jacob, but Israel shall be thy name; and he called his name ^g Israel.

11 And God said unto him, I ^h am ⁱ God Almighty: be fruitful and multiply; a nation, and a company of nations shall be of thee, and ^j kings shall come out of thy loins.

12 And the land which I gave Abraham and Isaac, ^k to thee I will give it, and to thy seed after thee will I give the land.

13 And God ^l went up from him, in the place where he talked with him, ch. 28, 18.

14 And Jacob set up ^a a pillar in the place where he talked with him, even a pillar of stone; and he poured a drink-offering thereon, and he poured oil thereon.

15 And Jacob called the name of the place where God spake with him, Beth-el.

16 [¶] And they journeyed from Beth-el; and there was but a little way to come to ^b Ephrath: and Rachel travailed, and she had ^c hard labour.

17 And it came to pass when she was in hard labour, that the midwife said unto her, Fear not; thou shalt have this son also.

18 And it came to pass as her soul was in departing, (for she ^d died,) that she called his name [¶] Ben-oni: but his father called him [¶] Benjamin.

19 And Rachel died, and was buried in the way to Ephrath, ^e which is Beth-lehem.

20 And Jacob set a pillar upon her grave: that is the pillar of Rachel's grave unto this day.

21 [¶] And Israel journeyed, and spread his tent beyond the tower of Edar.

22 And it came to pass, when Israel dwelt in that land, that Reuben went and ^f lay with Bilhah his father's concubine: and Israel heard it. Now the sons of Jacob were ^g twelve:

23 The sons of Leah; Reuben, Jacob's first-born, and Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Zebulun:

24 The sons of Rachel; Joseph, and Benjamin:

25 And the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's handmaid; Dan, and Naphtali:

26 And the sons of Zilpah, Leah's handmaid; Gad, and Asher. These are the sons of Jacob, which were born to him in ^h Padan-aram.

27 [¶] And Jacob came unto Isaac his father unto ⁱ Mamre, unto the city of ^k Arbah (which is Hebron) where Abraham and Isaac sojourned.

28 And the days of Isaac were ^l a hundred and fourscore years.

29 And Isaac gave up the ^m ghost and died, and was gathered unto ⁿ his people, being old and full of days; and his sons Esau ^o and Jacob buried him.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

3 Esau's three wives...⁶ His removing to mount Seir...¹⁵ The dukes which descended of his sons.

NOW these are the ^a generations of Esau, who is ^b Edom.

2 Esau ^c took his wives of the daughters of ^d Canaan; ^e Adah the daughter of Elon the Hittite, and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon the Hivite;

3 And ^f Bashemath, Ishmael's daughter, sister of ^g Nebajoth.

4 And Adah bare to Esau, ^h Eliphaz; and Bashemath bare Reuel;

5 And Aholibamah bare Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah: These are the sons of Esau, which were born unto him in the ⁱ land of Canaan.

6 And Esau ^k took his wives, and his sons, and his daughters, and all the persons of his house, and his cattle, and all his beasts, and all his substance which he had got in the land of Canaan; and went into the country from the face of his brother Jacob.

7 For their riches were more than that they might ^l dwell together: and the land wherein they were ^m strangers could not bear them, because of their cattle.

8 Thus dwelt Esau in mount ⁿ Seir: Esau is Edom.

9 [¶] And these are the generations of Esau the father of the ^o Edomites, in mount Seir:

10 These are the names of Esau's sons; Eliphaz the son of Adah the wife of Esau; Reuel the son of Bashemath the wife of Esau.

11 And the sons of Eliphaz were, Teman, Omar, ^o Zepho, and Gatam, and Kenaz.

12 And ^p Timna was concubine to Eliphaz, Esau's son; and she bare to Eliphaz, ^q Amalek: these were the sons of Adah, Esau's wife.

13 And these are the sons of ^r Reuel; Nahath, and Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah: these were the sons of Bashemath, Esau's wife.

14 [¶] And these were the sons of Aholibamah, the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon, Esau's wife: and she bare to Esau, Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah.

15 [¶] These were ^s dukes of the sons of Esau: the sons of Eliphaz, the first-born son of Esau; duke Teman, duke Omar, duke Zepho, duke Kenaz, 16 Duke ^t Korah, duke Gatam, and duke Amalek: these are the dukes that came of Eliphaz, in the land of Edom: these were the sons of Adah.

17 [¶] And these are the sons of Reuel, Esau's son; duke Nahath, duke Zerah, duke Shammah, duke Mizzah: these are the dukes that came of Reuel, in the land of Edom: these are the sons of Bashemath, Esau's wife.

18 [¶] And these are the sons of Aholibamah, Esau's wife; duke Jeush, duke Jaalam, duke Korah: these were the dukes that came of Aholibamah the daughter of Anah, Esau's wife.

19 These are the sons of Esau (who is Edom) and these are their dukes.

20 [¶] These are the sons of Seir ^u the Horite, ^x who inhabited the land; Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, 21 And Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan: these are the dukes of the Horites, the children of Seir in the land of Edom.

22 And the children of Lotan were Hori, and ^y Heman: and Lotan's sister was ^z Timna.

23 And the children of Shobal were these; ^a Alvan, and Manahath, and Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.

24 And these are the children of Zibeon; both Ajah, and Anah: this was that Anah that found the [†] mules in the wilderness, as he fed the asses of Zibeon his father.

25 And the children of Anah were these: Dishon, and ^b Aholibamah the daughter of Anah.

26 And these are the children of ^c Dishon; Hemdan, and Eshban, and Ithran, and Cheran.

27 The children of Ezer are these; Bilhan, and Zaavan, and Akan.

28 The children of Dishan are these; Uz, and Aran.

29 These are the dukes that came of the ^d Horites; duke Lotan, duke Shobal, duke Zibeon, duke Anah, 30 Duke Dishon, duke Ezer, duke Dishan: these are the dukes that came of Hori, among their [¶] dukes in the land of Seir.

31 [¶] And these are the kings that reigned in the land of Edom, ^e before there reigned any king over the children of Israel.

32 And Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom: and the name of his city was Dinhabah.

33 And Bela died, and Jobab the son of Zerah of ^f Bozrah reigned in his stead.

34 And Jobab died, and Husham of the land of ^g Temani reigned in his stead.

35 And Husham died, and Hadad the son of

CHAPTER XXXVII.

2 Joseph is hated of his brethren....5 His two dreams....18 His brethren conspire his death....21 Reuben saveth him....26 They sell him to the Ishmaelites....35 He is sold to Potiphar in Egypt.

AND Jacob dwelt in the land [†] wherein his father was a stranger, in the land of Canaan.

2 These are the generations of Jacob. Joseph being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brethren, and the lad was with the sons of Bilhah, and with the sons of Zilpah, his father's ^a wives : and Joseph brought unto his father their ^b evil report.

3 Now Israel ^c loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the ^d son of his old age : and he made him ^e a coat of many colours.

4 And when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, they ^f hated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him.

5 ^g And Joseph ^g dreamed a dream, and he told it his brethren : and they hated him ^h yet the more.

6 And he said unto them, Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed :

7 For behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright ; and behold, your sheaves stood ⁱ round about, and ^k made obeisance to my sheaf.

8 And his brethren said unto him, Shalt thou indeed ^l reign over us ? or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us ? And they hated him yet the more for his dreams and for his words.

9 ^l And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more : and behold, the ^m sun and the moon and the eleven ⁿ stars made obeisance to me.

10 And he told it to his father, and to his brethren : and his father rebuked him, and said unto him, What is this dream that thou has dreamed ? Shall I and thy mother and thy brethren indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth ?

11 And his brethren envied him ; but his father ^o observed the saying.

12 ^l And his brethren went to feed their father's flock in Shechem.

13 And Israel said unto Joseph, Do not thy brethren feed the flock in Shechem ? Come, and I will send thee unto them. And he said to him, Here am I.

14 And he said to him, Go, I pray thee, [†] see whether it be well with thy brethren, and well with the flocks ; and bring me word again. So he sent him out of the vale of Hebron, and he came to Shechem.

15 ^l And a certain man found him, and behold, he was wandering in the field : and the man asked him, saying, What seekest thou ?

16 And he said, ^p I seek my brethren : tell me, I pray thee, where they feed their flocks.

17 And the man said, They are departed hence : for I heard them say, Let us go to ^q Dothan. And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in Dothan.

18 And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, they ^r conspired against him to slay him.

19 And they said one to another, Behold, this [†] dreamer cometh.

20 Come now therefore, and let us slay him, and cast him into some ^s pit ; and we will say, ^t Some evil beast hath devoured him ; and we shall see what will become of his dreams.

21 And ^u Reuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands ; and said, Let us not kill him.

22 And Reuben said unto them, Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him ; that he might rid him out of their hands, to ^x deliver him to his father again.

23 ^l And it came to pass when Joseph was come unto his brethren, that they ^y stripped Joseph out of his coat, his coat of many colours, that was on him.

24 And they took him, and cast him into a pit : and the pit was empty, there was ^z no water in it.

25 And they sat down ^a to eat bread : and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and behold, a company of Ishmaelites came from ^b Gilead, with their camels bearing spicery, and balm, and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt.

26 And Judah said unto his brethren, ^c What profit is it if we slay our brother, and ^d conceal his blood ?

27 Come, and let us ^e sell him to the Ishmaelites, and let not our hand be upon him ; for he is our brother, and our flesh : and his brethren were content.

28 Then there passed by ^f Midianites, merchantmen ; and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for ^g twenty pieces of silver : and they brought Joseph into Egypt.

29 ^l And Reuben returned unto the pit ; and behold, Joseph was not in the pit : and he ^h rent his clothes.

30 And he returned unto his brethren, and said, The child is ⁱ not : and I, whither shall I go ?

31 And they took Joseph's coat, and killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the coat in the blood :

32 And they sent the coat of many colours, and they brought it to their father ; and said, This have we found : know now whether it be thy son's coat or no.

33 And he knew it, and said, It is my son's coat ; an evil beast hath devoured him : Joseph is ^k without doubt rent in pieces.

34 And Jacob rent his clothes, and put ^l sackcloth upon his loins, and mourned for his son many days.

35 And all his sons and all ^m his daughters rose up to comfort him ; but he ⁿ refused to be comforted ; and he said, For I will go down into the grave unto my son mourning. Thus his father wept for him.

36 And the ^o Midianites sold him into Egypt unto Potiphar, || an officer of Pharaoh's, and captain of the guard.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

6 Er marrieth Tamar....13 She deceiveth Judah....27 She beareth twins, Pharez and Zarah.

AND it came to pass at that time, that Judah went down from his brethren, and turned in to a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah.

2 And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite, whose name was Shuah; and he took her, and went in unto her.

3 And she conceived, and bare a son; and he called his name Er.

4 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and she called his name Onan.

5 And she yet again conceived, and bare a son; and called his name Shelah: and he was at Chezib, when she bare him.

6 And Judah took a wife for Er his first-born, whose name was Tamar.

7 And Er, Judah's first-born, was wicked in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD slew him.

8 And Judah said unto Onan, Go in unto thy brother's wife, and marry her, and raise up seed to thy brother.

9 And Onan knew that the seed should not be his: and it came to pass, when he went in unto his brother's wife, that he spilled it on the ground, lest that he should give seed to his brother.

10 And the thing which he did displeased the LORD: wherefore he slew him also.

11 Then said Judah to Tamar his daughter-in-law, Remain a widow at thy father's house till Shelah my son be grown; (for he said, lest peradventure he die also as his brethren did :) and Tamar went and dwelt in her father's house.

12 And in process of time, the daughter of Shuah, Judah's wife died: and Judah was comforted, and went up unto his sheep-shearers to Timnath, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite.

13 And it was told Tamar, saying, Behold, thy father-in-law goeth up to Timnath, to shear his sheep.

14 And she put her widow's garments off from her, and covered her with a vail, and wrapped herself, and sat in an open place, which is by the way to Timnath: for she saw that Shelah was grown, and she was not given unto him to wife.

15 When Judah saw her, he thought her to be a harlot; because she had covered her face.

16 And he turned unto her by the way, and said, Go to, I pray thee, let me come in unto thee; (for he knew not that she was his daughter-in-law :) and she said, What wilt thou give me, that thou mayest come in unto me?

17 And he said, I will send thee a kid from the flock: and she said, Wilt thou give me a pledge, till thou send it?

18 And he said, What pledge shall I give thee? And she said, Thy signet, and thy bracelets, and thy staff that is in thy hand: and he gave it her, and came in unto her, and she conceived by him.

19 And she arose and went away and laid by her vail from her, and put on the garments of her widowhood.

20 And Judah sent the kid by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to receive his pledge from the woman's hand: but he found her not.

21 Then he asked the men of that place, saying,

Where is the harlot that was openly by the way-side? And they said, There was no harlot in this place.

22 And he returned to Judah, and said, I cannot find her; and also the men of the place said, that there was no harlot in this place.

23 And Judah said, Let her take it to her, lest we be shamed: behold, I sent this kid, and thou hast not found her.

24 And it came to pass about three months after, that it was told Judah, saying, Tamar thy daughter-in-law hath played the harlot; and also, behold, she is with child by whoredom. And Judah said, Bring her forth, and let her be burnt.

25 When she was brought forth, she sent to her father-in-law, saying, By the man whose these are, am I with child: and she said, Discern, I pray thee, whose are these, the signet, and bracelets, and staff.

26 And Judah acknowledged them, and said, She hath been more righteous than I; because that I gave her not to Shelah my son: and he knew her again no more.

27 And it came to pass in the time of her travail, that behold, twins were in her womb.

28 And it came to pass when she travailed, that the one put out his hand; and the midwife took and bound upon his hand a scarlet thread, saying, This came out first.

29 And it came to pass as he drew back his hand, that behold, his brother came out; and she said, How hast thou broken forth? this breach be upon thee: therefore his name was called Pharez.

30 And afterward came out his brother that had the scarlet thread upon his hand: and his name was called Zarah.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

1 Joseph advanced in Potiphar's house....7 He resisteth his mistress's temptation....20 He is cast into prison.

AND Joseph was brought down to Egypt: and Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him of the hands of the Ishmaelites, which had brought him down thither.

2 And the LORD was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man: and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian.

3 And his master saw that the LORD was with him, and that the LORD made all that he did to prosper in his hand.

4 And Joseph found grace in his sight, and he served him: and he made him overseer over his house, and all that he had he put into his hand.

5 And it came to pass from the time that he had made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, that the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of the LORD was upon all that he had in the house, and in the field.

6 And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand; and he knew not aught he had, save the bread which he did eat: and Joseph was a goodly person, and well-favoured.

7 And it came to pass after these things, that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph: and she said, Lie with me.

8 But he refused, and said unto his master's wife, Behold, my master wotteth not what is with me in the house, and he hath committed all that he hath to my hand;

9 There is none greater in this house than I; neither hath he kept back any thing from me, but thee, because thou art his wife : ^a how then can I do this ^o great wickedness, and sin against God ?

10 And it came to pass, as she spake to Joseph [†] day by day, that he hearkened not unto her, to lie by her, or to be ^p with her.

11 And it came to pass about this time, that Joseph went into the house to do his business; and there was ^q none of the men of the house there within.

12 And she ^r caught him by his garment, saying,
Lie with me : and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and ^s got him out.

13 And it came to pass, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled forth,

14 That she called unto the men of her house, and spake unto them, saying, See, he hath brought in a Hebrew unto us to ^t mock us : he came in unto me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice :

15 And it came to pass, when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled, and got him out.

16 And she laid up his garment by her, until his lord came home.

17 And she spake unto him according to these words, saying, The Hebrew servant which thou hast brought unto us, came in unto me to mock me :

18 And it came to pass as I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled out.

19 And it came to pass, when his master heard the words of his wife, which she spake unto him, saying,
After this manner did thy servant to me ; that ^x his wrath was kindled.

20 And Joseph's master ^y took him, and put him into the prison, a place where the king's prisoners ^z were bound : and he was there in the prison.

21 ¶ But the LORD was ^a with Joseph, and shewed him mercy, and [†] gave him favour in the sight of the ^b keeper of the prison.

22 And the keeper of the prison committed to Joseph's hand all the prisoners that were in the prison ; and whatsoever they did there, he was the doer of it.

23 The keeper of the prison looked not to any thing that was under his hand ; because the LORD was with him : and that which he did, the LORD
^c made it to prosper.

CHAPTER XL.

1 The butler and baker of Pharaoh in prison....5 He interpreteth their dreams....23 The ingratitude of the butler.

AND it came to pass after these things, that the
offended their lord the king of Egypt.

2 And Pharaoh was wroth against two of his officers, against the chief of the butlers, and against the chief of the bakers.

3 And he put them ^a in ward in the house of the captain of the guard, into the ^b prison, the place where Joseph was bound.

4 And the ^c captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he served them ; and they continued a season in ward.

5 ¶ And they ^d dreamed a dream both of them, each man his dream in one night, each man ^e according to the interpretation of his dream ; the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, which were bound in the prison.

6 And Joseph came in unto them in the morning, and looked upon them, and behold, they were ^f sad.

7 And he asked Pharaoh's officers that were with him in the ward of his lord's house, saying, Wherefore [†] look ye so sadly to-day ?

8 And they said unto him, We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Joseph said unto them, Do not interpretations ^g belong to God ? ^h Tell me them, I pray you.

9 And the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said unto him, In my dream, ⁱ behold, a vine was before me ;

10 And in the vine were three branches : and it was as though it budded, and her blossoms shot forth ; and the clusters thereof brought forth ripe grapes :

11 And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand : and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand.

12 And Joseph said unto him, This is the interpretation of it : The three branches are ^k three days :

13 Yet ^l within three days shall Pharaoh || lift up thy head, and restore thee unto thy place : and thou shalt deliver Pharaoh's cup into his hand, after the former manner when thou wast his butler.

14 But think on me when it shall be well with thee, and shew kindness, I pray thee, unto me, and make mention of me unto Pharaoh, and bring me
^m out of this house :

15 For indeed I was ⁿ stolen away out of the ^o land of the Hebrews : and here also have I ^p done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon.

16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said unto Joseph, I also was in my dream, and behold, I had three white baskets on my head :

17 And in the uppermost basket there was of all manner of bake-meats for Pharaoh : and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my head.

18 And Joseph answered, and said, This is the interpretation thereof : The three baskets are three days :

19 Yet within three days shall Pharaoh lift up thy head from off thee, and shall hang thee on a tree ; and ^q the birds shall eat thy flesh from off thee.

20 ¶ And it came to pass the third day, which was Pharaoh's ^r birth-day, that he made a feast unto all his servants : and he lifted up the head of the chief butler and of the chief baker among his servants.

21 And he restored the chief butler unto his butler-ship again ; and he gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand :

22 But he hanged the chief baker, ^s as Joseph had interpreted to them.

23 Yet did not the chief butler remember Joseph, but ^t forgot him.

CHAPTER XLI.

1 Pharaoh's two dreams....25 Joseph interpreteth them....33 He giveth Pharaoh counsel....38 Joseph is advanced....50 He begetteth Manasseh and Ephraim....54 The famine beginneth.

AND it came to pass at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh ^a dreamed : and behold, he stood by the ^b river.

2 And behold, there came up out of the river seven well-favoured kine and fat-fleshed ; and they fed in a meadow.

3 And behold, seven other kine came up after them out of the river, ^c ill-favoured and lean-fleshed ; and stood by the other kine upon the brink of the river.

4 And the ill-favoured and lean-fleshed kine did eat up the seven well-favoured and fat kine. So Pharaoh awoke.

5 And he slept and dreamed the second time: and behold, seven ears of corn came up upon one stalk, rank and good.

6 And behold, seven thin ears and blasted with the ^d east wind sprung up after them.

7 And the seven thin ears devoured the seven rank and full ears. And Pharaoh awoke, and behold, it was ^e a dream.

8 And it came to pass in the morning, that his spirit was ^f troubled: and he sent and called for all the ^g magicians of Egypt, and all the ^h wise men thereof: and Pharaoh told them his dreams; but there was ⁱ none that could interpret them unto Pharaoh.

9 ¶ Then spake the chief butler unto Pharaoh, saying, I do remember ^k my faults this day:

10 Pharaoh was wroth with his servants, and put me in ward in the ^l captain of the guard's house, both me, and the chief baker:

11 And ^m we dreamed a dream in one night, I and he: we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream.

12 And there was there with us a young man, a Hebrew, servant to the captain of the guard; and we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams; to each man according to his dream he did interpret.

13 And it came to pass, as he interpreted to us, so it was: me ⁿ he restored unto mine office, and him he hanged.

14 ¶ Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they [†] brought him hastily out of the dungeon: and he ^o shaved himself, and changed his ^p raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh.

15 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it: and I have heard say of thee, ¶ that thou canst understand a dream to interpret it.

16 And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, ^q It is not in me: God shall give Pharaoh ^r an answer of peace.

17 And ^s Pharaoh said unto Joseph, In my dream, behold, I stood upon the bank of the river:

18 And behold, there came up out of the river seven kine, fat-fleshed, and well-favoured; and they fed in a meadow:

19 And behold, seven other kine came up after them, poor, and very ill-favoured, and lean-fleshed, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for badness:

20 And the lean and the ill-favoured kine did eat up the first seven fat kine:

21 And when they had eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them; but they were ^t still ill-favoured, as at the beginning. So I awoke.

22 And I saw in my dream, and behold, seven ears came up in one stalk, full and good:

23 And behold, seven ears, withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them:

24 And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears: and I told this unto the magicians; but there was none that could declare it unto me.

25 And Joseph said unto Pharaoh, The dream of Pharaoh is one: God hath shewed Pharaoh what he is ^u about to do.

26 The seven good kine are seven years; and the seven good ears are seven years: the dream is one.

27 And the seven thin and ill-favoured kine that came up after them are seven years; and the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind shall be seven years of famine.

28 This is the thing which I have spoken unto Pharaoh: what God is about to do he sheweth unto Pharaoh.

29 Behold, there come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt:

30 And there shall arise after them seven years of famine; and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine shall consume the land:

31 And the plenty shall not be known in the land by reason of that famine following: for it shall be very grievous.

32 And for that the dream was doubled ^x unto Pharaoh twice; it is because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass.

33 Now therefore let Pharaoh look out a man discreet and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt.

34 Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint [†] officers over the land, and take up the ^y fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plenteous years.

35 And let them gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up corn ^z under the hand of Pharaoh; and let them keep food in the cities.

36 And that food shall be ^a for store to the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt; that the land [†] perish not through the famine.

37 And ^b the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants.

38 And Pharaoh said unto his servants, Can we find such a one as this is, a man in whom ^c the Spirit of God is?

39 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Forasmuch as God hath shewed thee ^d all this, there is none so discreet and wise as thou art:

40 Thou shalt be ^e over my house, and according unto ^f thy word shall all my people be [†] ruled: only in the throne will I be greater than thou.

41 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, See, I have ^g set thee over all the land of Egypt.

42 And Pharaoh took off his ^h ring from his hand, and put ⁱ it upon Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in vestures of ⁱ fine linen, and put ^k a gold chain about his neck;

43 And he made him to ride in the ^l second chariot which he had: and they cried before him, [†] Bow the knee: and he made him ruler over all the land of Egypt.

44 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I am Pharaoh, and without thee shall no man lift up his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt.

45 And Pharaoh called Joseph's name ¶ Zaphnath-paaneah; and he gave him to wife Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah ¶ priest of ^m On: and Joseph went out over all the land of Egypt.

46 And Joseph was ⁿ thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt: and Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt.

47 And in the seven plenteous years the earth brought forth by handfuls.

48 And he gathered up all the food of the seven years which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities: the food of the field which was round about every city, laid he up in the same.

sea, very much, until he left numbering; for it was without number.

50 And unto Joseph were born two sons before the years of famine came: which Asenath, the daughter of Poti-pherah priest of On bare unto him.

51 And Joseph called the name of the first-born || Manasseh; For God, said he, hath made me forget all my toil, and all my father's house.

52 And the name of the second called he || Ephraim: For God hath caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction.

53 ¶ And the seven years of plenteousness that was in the land of Egypt, were ended.

54 And the seven years of dearth began to come, according as Joseph had said: and the dearth was in all lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

55 And when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread: and Pharaoh said unto all the Egyptians, Go unto Joseph; what he saith to you, do.

56 And the famine was over all the face of the earth: and Joseph opened all the store-houses, and sold unto the Egyptians; and the famine waxed sore in the land of Egypt.

57 And all countries came into Egypt to Joseph for to buy corn; because that the famine was so sore ^a in all lands.

CHAPTER XLII.

1 Jacob sendeth his ten sons to buy corn in Egypt....16 They are imprisoned by Joseph for spies....24 Simeon is kept for a pledge....36 Jacob refuseth to send Benjamin.

NOW when Jacob ^a saw that there was corn in Egypt, Jacob said unto his sons, ^b Why do ye look one upon another?

2 And he said, Behold, I have heard that there is corn in Egypt: get you ^c down thither, and buy for us from thence; that we may ^d live and not die.

3 And Joseph's ten brethren went down to buy corn in Egypt.

4 ^e But Benjamin, Joseph's brother, Jacob sent not with his brethren: for he said, ^f Lest peradventure mischief befall him.

5 And the sons of Israel came to buy corn among those that came: for the famine was in the land of Canaan.

6 And Joseph was the ^g governor over the land, and he it was that sold to all the people of the land: and Joseph's brethren came, and ^h bowed down themselves before him with their faces to the earth.

7 And Joseph saw his brethren, and he knew them, but made himself strange unto them, and spake ⁱ roughly unto them; and he said unto them, Whence come ye? And they said, From the land of Canaan, to buy food.

8 And Joseph knew his brethren, but they knew not him.

9 And Joseph remembered ⁱ the dreams which he dreamed of them, and said unto them, Ye are spies; to see the ^k nakedness of the land ye are come.

10 And they said unto him, Nay, my lord, but to buy food are thy servants come.

11 We are all one man's sons; we are true men; thy servants are no spies.

12 And he said unto them, Nay, but to see the nakedness of the land ye are come.

13 And they said, Thy servants are twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan:

and behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one ^l is not.

14 And Joseph said unto them, That is it that I spake unto you, saying, Ye are spies:

15 Hereby ye shall be proved: [†] By the life of Pharaoh ye shall not go forth hence, except your youngest brother come hither.

16 Send one of you, let him fetch your brother, and ye shall be kept in prison, that your words may be proved, whether there be any truth in you: or else, by the life of Pharaoh, surely ye are spies.

17 And he put them all together into ward three days.

18 And Joseph said unto them the third day, This do, and live; for ^m I fear God:

19 If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in the house of your prison: go ye, carry [†] corn for the famine of your houses:

20 But ⁿ bring your youngest brother unto me; so shall your words be verified, and ye shall not die. And they did so.

21 ¶ And they said one to another, ^o We are verily guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw ^p the anguish of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hear; ^q therefore is this distress come upon us.

22 And Reuben answered them, saying, ^r Spake I not unto you, saying, Do not sin against the child; and ye would not hear? therefore behold also his blood is ^s required.

23 And they knew not that Joseph understood them; for he spake unto them by an interpreter.

24 And he turned himself about from them, and ^t wept; and returned to them again, and communed with them, and took from them ^u Simeon, and bound him before their eyes.

25 ¶ Then Joseph commanded to fill their sacks with corn, and to restore every man's money into his sack, and to give them provision for the way: and ^x thus did he unto them.

26 And they laded their asses with the corn, and departed thence.

27 And as one of them opened his sack to give his ass provender in the inn, he espied his money: for behold, it was in his sack's mouth.

28 And he said unto his brethren, My money is restored; and lo, it is even in my sack: and their heart [†] failed them, and they were ^y afraid, saying one to another, What is this that God hath done unto us?

29 ¶ And they came unto Jacob their father unto the land of Canaan, and told him all that befell unto them, saying,

30 The man who is the lord of the land, spake [†] roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country.

31 And we said unto him, We are true men, we are no spies:

32 We be twelve brethren, sons of our father: one is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.

33 And the man, the lord of the country, said unto us, Hereby shall I know that ye are true men: leave one of your brethren here with me, and take food for the famine of your households, and be gone:

34 And bring your youngest brother unto me: then shall I know that ye are no spies, but that ye are true men: so will I deliver you your brother, and ye shall traffic in the land.

35 ¶ And it came to pass as they emptied their sacks, that behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack; and when both they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.

36 And Jacob their father said unto them, Me have ye bereaved of my children: Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ² ye will take Benjamin away: All these things are ^a against me.

37 And Reuben spake unto his father, saying, Slay ^b my two sons, if I bring him not to thee: deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to thee again.

38 And he said, My son shall ^c not go down with you; for his brother ^d is dead, and he is ^e left alone: if mischief befall him by the way in the which ye go, then shall ye bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the ^f grave.

CHAPTER XLIII.

1 Jacob is hardly persuaded to send Benjamin....15 Joseph entertaineth his brethren....31 He maketh them a feast.

AND the famine was ^a sore in the land.

2 And it came to pass, when they had eaten up the corn which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said unto them, Go again, [†] buy us ^b a little food.

3 And Judah spake unto him, saying, ^c The man did solemnly protest unto us, saying, Ye shall ^d not see my face, except your brother be with you.

4 If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down and buy thee food:

5 But if thou wilt not send him we will not go down: for the man said unto us, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.

6 And Israel said, Wherefore dealt ye so ill with me, as to tell the man whether ye had yet a brother?

7 And they said, The man asked us straitly of our state, and of our kindred, saying, Is your father yet alive? have ye another brother? and we told him according to the tenor of these words: Could we certainly know that he would say, Bring your brother down?

8 And Judah said unto Israel his father, Send the ^e lad with me, and we will arise and go; that we may live, and not die, both we and thou, and also our little ones.

9 I will be surety for him; of my hand shalt thou require him: if I bring him not unto thee, and set him before thee, then [†] let me bear the blame for ever:

10 For except we had lingered, surely now we had returned this second time.

11 And their father Israel said unto them, If it must be so now, do this; take of the [†] best fruits in the land in your vessels, and carry down the man ^e a present, a little ^b balm, and a ⁱ little honey, spices, and myrrh, nuts, and almonds:

12 And take double money in your hand; and the money that was brought again in the mouth of your sacks, ^k carry it again in your hand; peradventure it was an oversight:

13 [†] Take also your brother, and arise, go again unto the man:

14 And ^m God Almighty give you mercy before the man, that he may send away your other brother, and Benjamin: ^a If I be bereaved of my children, I am bereaved.

15 [†] And the men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin; and rose up, and went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph.

16 And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the ^o ruler of his house, Bring these men home, and [†] slay, and make ready: for these men shall dine with me at noon.

17 And the man did as Joseph bade: and the man brought the men into Joseph's house.

18 And the men were ^p afraid, because they were brought into Joseph's house; and they said, Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time, are we brought in; that he may [†] seek occasion against us, and fall upon us, and take us for bondmen, and our asses.

19 And they came near to the steward of Joseph's house, and they communed with him at the door of the house,

20 And said, [†] O sir, ^a we came indeed down at the first time to buy food:

21 And it came to pass, when we came to the inn, that we ^r opened our sacks, and behold, every man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight: and we have brought it again in our hand.

22 And other money have we brought down in our hands to buy food: we cannot tell who put our money in our sacks.

23 And he said, ^s Peace be to you, fear not: ^t your God, and the God of your father, hath given you treasure in your sacks: I had your money. And he brought Simeon out unto them.

24 And the man brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave them ^u water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their asses provender.

25 And they made ready the present against Joseph came at noon: for they heard that they should eat bread there.

26 [†] And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, ^x and bowed themselves to him to the earth.

27 And he asked them of their [†] welfare, and said, [†] Is your father well, the old man of whom ye spake? Is he yet alive?

28 And they answered, Thy servant our father is in good health, he is yet alive: and they bowed down their heads, and made obeisance.

29 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, Is this your younger brother, of whom ye spake unto me? And he said, God be gracious unto thee, ^y my son.

30 And Joseph made haste; for his bowels ^z did yearn upon his brother: and he sought where to weep, and he entered into his chamber, and wept there.

31 And he washed his face, and went out, and refrained himself, and said, Set on bread.

32 And they set on for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians which did eat with him, by themselves: because the Egyptians might not ^a eat bread with the Hebrews; for that is an ^b abomination unto the Egyptians.

33 And they sat before him, the first-born according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth: and the men marvelled one at another.

34 And he took and sent messes unto them from before him: but Benjamin's mess was ^c five times so much as any of theirs. And they drank, and [†] were merry with him.

as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's mouth.

2 And ^b put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, and his corn-money : and he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken.

3 ¹ As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they, and their asses.

4 And when they were gone out of the city, and not yet far off, Joseph said unto his steward, Up, follow after the men ; and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, Wherefore have ye rewarded evil for good ?

5 Is not this it in which my lord drinketh, and whereby indeed he [†] divineth ? ye have done evil in so doing.

6 ¹ And he overtook them, and he spake unto them these same words.

7 And they said unto him, Wherefore saith my lord these words ? God forbid that thy servants should do according to this thing :

8 Behold, the money which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again unto thee out of the land of Canaan : how then should we steal out of thy lord's house silver or gold ?

9 With whomsoever of thy servants it be found, both ^c let him die, and we also will be my lord's bond-men.

10 And he said, Now also let it be according unto your words : he with whom it is found shall be my servant ; and ye shall be ^d blameless.

11 Then they speedily took down every man his sack to the ground, and opened every man his sack.

12 And he searched, and began at the eldest, and left at the youngest : and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

13 Then they ^e rent their clothes, and laded every man his ass, and returned to the city.

14 ¹ And Judah and his brethren came to Joseph's house, (for he was yet there :) and they fell before him on the ground.

15 And Joseph said unto them, What deed is this that ye have done ? wot ye not that such a man as I can [†] certainly divine ?

16 And Judah said, What shall we say unto my lord ? what shall we speak ? or [†] how shall we clear ourselves ? God hath found out the ^g iniquity of thy servants : behold ^h we are my lord's servants, both we, and he also with whom the cup is found.

17 And he said, God forbid that I should do so : but the man in whose hand the cup is found, he shall be my servant ; and as for you, get you up ⁱ in peace unto your father.

18 ¹ Then Judah came near unto him, and said, ^k Oh my Lord, let thy servant, I pray thee, speak a word in my lord's ^l ears, and let not thine anger burn against thy servant : for thou art even ^m as Pharaoh.

19 My lord asked his servants, saying, Have ye a father or a brother ?

20 And we said unto my lord, We have a father, an old man, and a child of his ⁿ old age, ^o a little one : and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loveth him.

21 And thou saidst unto thy servants, Bring him down unto me, that I may ^p set mine eyes upon him.

22 And we said unto my lord, The lad cannot leave his father : for if he should leave his father, his father would die.

23 And thou saidst unto thy servants, Except your youngest brother come down with you, ye shall see my face ^a no more.

24 And it came to pass, when we came up unto thy servant my father, we told him the words of my lord.

25 And our father said, Go again, and buy us a little food.

26 And we said, We cannot go down : if our youngest brother be with us, then will we go down ; for we may not see the man's face, except our youngest brother be with us.

27 And thy servant my father said unto us, Ye know that ^r my wife bare me two sons :

28 And the one went out from me, and I said, Surely he is torn in pieces ; and I saw him not since :

29 And if ye take this also from me, and mischief befall him, ye shall bring down my [†] gray hairs with [†] sorrow to the grave.

30 Now therefore when I come to thy servant my father, and the lad be not with us ; (seeing that his life ^t is bound up in the lad's life :)

31 It shall come to pass, when he seeth that the lad is not with us, that he will die : and thy servant shall bring down the gray hairs of thy servant our father with sorrow to the grave.

32 For thy servant became surety for the lad unto my father, saying, If I bring him not unto thee, then I shall bear the blame to my father for ever.

33 Now therefore, I pray thee, let thy servant abide ^u instead of the lad a bond-man to my lord ; and let the lad go up with his brethren.

34 For how shall I go up to my father, and the lad be not with me ? lest peradventure I see the evil that shall [†] come on my father.

CHAPTER XLV.

1 Joseph maketh himself known to his brethren....9 He sendeth for his father....25 Jacob is revived with the news.

THEN Joseph could not ^a refrain himself before all them that stood by him ; and he cried, Cause every man ^b to go out from me : and there stood no man with him, while Joseph made himself known unto his brethren.

2 And he [†] wept aloud ; and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard.

3 And Joseph said unto his brethren, I ^c am Joseph : doth my father yet live ? And his brethren could not answer him ; for they were ^d troubled at his presence.

4 And Joseph said unto his brethren, Come near to me, I pray you : and they came near. And he said, ^e I am Joseph your brother, ^f whom ye sold into Egypt.

5 Now therefore ^g be not grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that ye sold me hither : ^h for God did send me before you ⁱ to preserve life.

6 For these two years hath the famine been in the land : and yet there are five years, in the which there shall neither ^k be ^k earing nor harvest.

7 And God sent me before you, to preserve you a posterity in the earth, and to save your lives by a great ^l deliverance.

8 So now it was not you that sent me hither, ^m but God : and he hath made me ⁿ a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt.

9 Haste ye, and go up to my father, and say unto him, Thus saith thy son Joseph, God hath made me lord of all Egypt : come down unto me, tarry not .

dren, and thy children's children, and thy flocks, and thy herds, and all that thou hast :

11 And there will I nourish thee, (for yet there are five years of famine ;) lest thou, and thy household, and all that thou hast come to poverty.

12 And behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is ^a my mouth that speaketh unto you.

13 And ye shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that ye have seen : and ye shall haste, and bring down my father hither.

14 And he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck, and ^p wept; and Benjamin wept upon his neck.

15 Moreover, he kissed all his brethren, and wept upon them : and after that his brethren ^a talked with him.

16 ¶ And the fame thereof was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, Joseph's brethren are come : and it pleased Pharaoh well, and his servants.

17 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Say unto thy brethren, This do ye ; lade your beasts, and go, get you unto the land of Canaan :

18 And take your father, and your households, and come unto me : and I will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and ye shall eat the ^r fat of the land.

19 Now ^s thou art commanded, this do ye ; take you wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, and for your wives, and bring your father, and come.

20 Also [†] regard not your stuff : for the good of all the land of Egypt is yours.

21 And the children of Israel did so : And Joseph gave them wagons, according to the [†] commandment of Pharaoh, and gave them provision for the way.

22 To all of them he gave each man ^t changes of raiment : but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver, and five changes of raiment.

23 And to his father he sent after this manner ; ten asses laden with the good things of Egypt, and ten she-asses laden with corn and bread and meat for his father by the way.

24 So he sent his brethren away, and they departed : and he said unto them, See that ye [†] fall not out by the way.

25 ¶ And they went up out of Egypt, and came into the land of Canaan unto Jacob their father, 26 And told him, saying, Joseph is yet alive, and he is governor over all the land of Egypt. And Jacob's heart ^a fainted, for he believed them not.

27 And they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said unto them : and when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived :

28 And Israel said, ^a It is enough : Joseph my son is yet alive : I will go and see him before I die.

CHAPTER XLVI.

1 Jacob is comforted by God at Beer-sheba... 5 Thence he with his company goeth into Egypt.

AND Israel took his journey with all that he had, and came to ^a Beer-sheba, and ^b offered sacrifices unto the ^c God of his father Isaac.

2 And God spake unto Israel in the ^d visions of the night, and said, ^e Jacob, Jacob ! And he said, Here am I.

3 And he said, I am ^f God, the God of thy father : fear not to go down into Egypt ; for I will there make of thee a great nation :

4 I will go down with thee into Egypt ; and I will also surely ^a bring thee up again : and Joseph shall put his hand upon thine eyes.

5 And Jacob rose up from Beer-sheba : and the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father, and their little ones, and their wives, in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him.

6 And they took their cattle, and their goods which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and came into ⁱ Egypt, Jacob, and all his seed with him ;

7 His sons, and his sons' sons with him, his ^k daughters, and his sons' daughters, and all his seed brought he with him into Egypt.

8 ¶ And these are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt, Jacob and his sons : Reuben, Jacob's first-born.

9 And the sons of Reuben ; ⁱ Hanoch, and Phallu, and Hezron, and Carmi.

10 ¶ And the sons of Simeon ; ^m Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul the son of ⁿ a Canaanitish woman.

11 ¶ And the sons of Levi ; ^o Gershon, ^p Kohath, and Merari.

12 ¶ And the sons of Judah ; Er, and Onan, and Shelah, and Pharez, and Zarah : but Er and Onan ^q died in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Pharez were ^r Hezron, and Hamul.

13 ¶ And the sons of ^s Issachar ; ^t Tola, and ^u Phuvah, and Job, and Shimron.

14 ¶ And the sons of Zebulun ; Sered, and Elon, and Jableel.

15 These be the sons of Leah, which she bare unto Jacob in ^x Padan-aram, with his daughter Dinah : all the souls of his sons and his daughters were ^y thirty and three.

16 ¶ And the sons of Gad ; ^z Ziphion, and Haggi, Shuni, and Ezbon, Eri, and Arodi, and Areli.

17 ¶ And the sons of Asher ; Jimnah, and Ishuah, and Isui, and Beriah, and Serah their sister. And the sons of Beriah ; Heber, and Malchiel.

18 These are the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah his daughter : and these she bare unto Jacob, even sixteen souls.

19 The sons of Rachel, Jacob's ^a wife ; Joseph, and Benjamin.

20 And unto Joseph, in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, which Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah ^b priest of On bare unto him.

21 ¶ And the sons of Benjamin were ^b Belah, and Becher, and ^c Ashbel, Gera, and Naaman, Ehi, and Rosh, ^d Muphim, and Huphim, and Ard.

22 These are the sons of Rachel, which were born to Jacob ; all the souls were fourteen.

23 ¶ And the ^e sons of Dan ; Hushim.

24 And the sons of Naphtali ; Jahzeel, and Guni, and Jezer, and ^f Shilleim.

25 These are the sons of Bilhah, which Laban gave unto Rachel his daughter, and she bare these unto Jacob : all the souls were seven.

26 All the souls that came with Jacob into Egypt, which came out of his [†] loins, besides Jacob's sons' wives, all the souls were threescore and six ;

27 And the sons of Joseph which were born him in Egypt, were two souls : all the souls of the house of Jacob, which came into Egypt, were ^g threescore and ten.

28 ¶ And he sent Judah before him unto Joseph, to direct his face unto Goshen ; and they came into the land of Goshen.

29 And Joseph made ready his chariot, and went up to meet Israel his father to Goshen: and presented himself unto him: and he fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while.

30 And Israel said unto Joseph, Now let me die, since I have seen thy face, because thou art yet alive.

31 And Joseph said unto his brethren, and unto his father's house, I will go up, and shew Pharaoh, and say unto him, My brethren, and my father's house, which were in the land of Canaan, are come unto me:

32 And the men are shepherds, for their trade hath been to feed cattle; and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have.

33 And it shall come to pass, when Pharaoh shall call you, and shall say, What is your occupation?

34 That ye shall say, Thy servants' trade hath been about cattle from our youth even until now, both we, and also our fathers: that ye may dwell in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd is an abomination unto the Egyptians.

CHAPTER XLVII.

1 Joseph presenteth five of his brethren, and his father, before Pharaoh... 23 Jacob's age... 29 He sweareth Joseph to bury him with his fathers.

THEN Joseph came and told Pharaoh, and said, My father and my brethren, and their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have, are come out of the land of Canaan; and behold, they are in the land of Goshen.

2 And he took some of his brethren, even five men, and presented them unto Pharaoh.

3 And Pharaoh said unto his brethren, What is your occupation? And they said unto Pharaoh, Thy servants are shepherds, both we, and also our fathers.

4 They said moreover unto Pharaoh, For to sojourn in the land are we come: for thy servants have no pasture for their flocks, for the famine is sore in the land of Canaan: now therefore, we pray thee, let thy servants dwell in the land of Goshen.

5 And Pharaoh spake unto Joseph, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come unto thee:

6 The land of Egypt is before thee; in the best of the land make thy father and brethren to dwell; in the land of Goshen let them dwell; and if thou knowest any men of activity among them, then make them rulers over my cattle.

7 And Joseph brought in Jacob his father, and set him before Pharaoh: and Jacob blessed Pharaoh.

8 And Pharaoh said unto Jacob, How old art thou?

9 And Jacob said unto Pharaoh, The days of the years of my pilgrimage are a hundred and thirty years: few and evil have the days of the years of my life been, and have not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage.

10 And Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh.

11 And Joseph placed his father and his brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded.

12 And Joseph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his father's household, with bread according to their families.

13 And there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very sore, so that the land of Egypt, and all the land of Canaan, fainted by reason of the famine.

14 And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corn which they bought: and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.

15 And when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came unto Joseph, and said, Give us bread: for why should we die in thy presence? for the money faileth.

16 And Joseph said, Give your cattle; and I will give you for your cattle, if money fail.

17 And they brought their cattle unto Joseph: and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for horses, and for the flocks, and for the cattle of the herds, and for the asses; and he fed them with bread, for all their cattle, for that year.

18 When that year was ended, they came unto him the second year, and said unto him, We will not hide it from my lord, how that our money is spent; my lord also hath our herds of cattle: there is not aught left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies and our lands:

19 Wherefore shall we die before thine eyes, both we and our land? buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants unto Pharaoh: and give us seed; that we may live, and not die, that the land be not desolate.

20 And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh; for the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine prevailed over them: so the land became Pharaoh's.

21 And as for the people, he removed them to cities from one end of the borders of Egypt even to the other end thereof.

22 Only the land of the priests he bought not; for the priests had a portion assigned them of Pharaoh, and did eat their portion which Pharaoh gave them; wherefore they sold not their lands.

23 Then Joseph said unto the people, Behold, I have bought you this day and your land for Pharaoh: lo, here is seed for you, and ye shall sow the land.

24 And it shall come to pass, in the increase, that ye shall give the fifth part unto Pharaoh, and four parts shall be your own, for seed of the field, and for your food, and for them of your households, and for food for your little ones.

25 And they said, Thou hast saved our lives: let us find grace in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants.

26 And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt unto this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth part; except the land of the priests only, which became not Pharaoh's.

27 And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen; and they had possessions therein, and grew, and multiplied exceedingly.

28 And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seven-teen years: so the whole age of Jacob was a hundred forty and seven years.

29 And the time drew nigh that Israel must die: and he called his son Joseph, and said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and truly with me; bury me not, I pray thee, in Egypt:

30 But I will lie with my fathers, and thou shalt carry me out of Egypt, and bury me in their burying-place. And he said, I will do as thou hast said.

31 And he said, Swear unto me: and he swore unto him. And Israel bowed himself upon the bed's head.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

1 Joseph with his sons visiteth his sick father....2 Jacob strengtheneth himself to bless them....3 He repeateth the promise....21 He prophesieth their return to Canaan.

AND it came to pass after these things, that one told Joseph, Behold, thy father is sick: and he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim.

2 ¶ And one told Jacob, and said, Behold, thy son Joseph cometh unto thee: And Israel strengthened himself, and sat upon the bed.

3 And Jacob said unto Joseph, ^a God Almighty appeared unto me at ^b Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me,

4 And said unto me, Behold, ^c I will make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, and I will make of thee a multitude of people; and will give this land to thy seed after thee, for ^d an everlasting possession.

5 ¶ And now, thy two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, which were born unto thee in the land of Egypt, before I came unto thee into Egypt, ^e are mine: ^f as Reuben and Simeon, they shall be mine.

6 And thy issue, which thou begetteth after them, shall be thine, and shall be called ^g after the name of their brethren in their inheritance.

7 And as for me, when I came from ^b Padan, ⁱ Rachel died by me in the land of Canaan, in the way, when yet there was but a little way to come unto Ephrath: and I buried her there in the way of Ephrath, the same is Beth-lehem.

8 And Israel beheld Joseph's sons, and said, Who are these?

9 And Joseph said unto his father, They are my sons, ^k whom God hath given me in this place. And he said, Bring them, I pray thee, unto me, and I will ^l bless them.

10 (Now the eyes of Israel were [†] dim for age, so that he could not see:) And he brought them near unto him; and he kissed them, and embraced them.

11 And Israel said unto Joseph, I had not thought to see thy face: and lo, God hath shewed me also thy seed.

12 And Joseph brought them out from between his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth.

13 And Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand, and brought them near unto him.

14 And Israel stretched out ^m his right hand, and laid it upon Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Manasseh's head, [†] guiding his hands wittingly; for Manasseh was the first-born.

15 ¶ And he blessed ⁿ Joseph, and said, God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac ^o did walk, the God which ^p fed me all my life long unto this day,

16 The Angel which redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac: and let them [†] grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth.

17 And when Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it ^r displeased him: and he held up his father's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head unto Manasseh's head.

18 And Joseph said unto his father, Not so, my father: for this is the first-born; put thy right hand upon his head.

19 And his father refused, and said, I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: but truly his younger brother shall be ^s greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations.

20 And he blessed them that day, saying, ^t In thee shall Israel bless, saying, God make thee as Ephraim and as Manasseh: and he set Ephraim before Manasseh.

21 And Israel said unto Joseph, Behold, I die; but God shall be with you, and bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

22 Moreover ^u I have given to thee one portion above thy brethren, which I took out of the hand of the Amorite with ^x my sword and with my bow.

CHAPTER XLIX.

1 Jacob calleth his sons to bless them....3 Their blessings in particular....29 He chargeth them about his burial....33 He dieth.

AND Jacob called unto his sons, and said, ^a Gather yourselves together, that I may ^b tell you that which shall befall you in the ^c last days.

2 Gather yourselves together, and hear, ye sons of Jacob; and hearken ^d unto Israel your father.

3 ¶ Reuben, thou art my ^e first-born, my might, and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power:

4 Unstable as water, [†] thou shalt not excel; because thou [†] wentest up to thy father's bed; then defilest thou it: he went up to my couch.

5 ¶ Simeon and Levi are ^g brethren; ^h instruments of cruelty are in their habitations.

6 O my soul, come not thou into their ⁱ secret; unto their assembly, mine ^k honour, be not thou united! for in their anger they slew a man, and in their self-will they digged down a wall.

7 Cursed be their ^l anger, for it was fierce: and their wrath, for it was cruel: I will ^m divide them in Jacob, and ⁿ scatter them in Israel.

8 ¶ Judah, thou art ^o he whom thy brethren shall praise; thy hand shall be in the ^o neck of thine enemies; thy father's children shall bow down before thee.

9 Judah is ^p a lion's whelp; from the prey, my son, thou art gone up: he stooped down, he ^q couched as a lion, and as an old lion: who shall rouse him up?

10 The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor ^r a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come: and unto him shall the ^s gathering of the people be.

11 Binding his foal unto the ^t vine, and his ass's colt unto the choice vine; he washed his garments in wine, and his clothes in the ^u blood of grapes:

12 His eyes shall be red with wine, and his teeth white with milk.

13 ¶ Zebulun shall dwell at the ^x haven of the sea; and he shall be for a haven of ships; and his border shall be unto Zidon.

14 ¶ Issachar is ^y a strong ass, couching down between two burdens:

15 And he saw that rest was good, and the land that it was pleasant; and bowed his shoulder to bear, and became a servant unto tribute.

16 ¶ Dan shall ^z judge his people, as one of the tribes of Israel.

17 Dan shall be ^a a serpent by the way, an adder in the path, that biteth the horse-heels, so that his rider shall fall backward.

18 I have ^b waited for thy salvation, O LORD! 19 ¶ Gad, ^c a troop shall overcome him: but he shall overcome at the last.

20 ¶ Out of Asher ^d his bread shall be fat, and he shall yield royal dainties.

21 ¶ Naphtali is ^a a hind let loose: he giveth goodly words.

22 ¶ Joseph is ^a a fruitful bough, even a fruitful bough by a well, whose branches run over the wall:

23 ¶ The archers have sorely grieved him, and shot at him, and hated him:

24 But his bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong by the ^b hands of the mighty God of Jacob: (from thence is the Shepherd, the Stone of Israel:)

25 Even by the God of thy father, who shall help thee, and by the Almighty, who shall bless thee with ⁱ blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that lieth under, blessings of the ^k breasts and of the womb:

26 The blessings of thy father have prevailed ⁱ above the blessings of my progenitors unto the ^m utmost bound of the ⁿ everlasting hills: they shall be on the head of Joseph, and on the crown of the head of him that was ^o separate from his brethren.

27 ¶ Benjamin shall ^p ravin as a wolf: in the morning he shall devour the prey, and ^q at night he shall divide the spoil.

28 ¶ All these are the ^r twelve tribes of Israel: and this is it that their father spake unto them, and blessed them: every one according to his blessing he blessed them.

29 And he charged them, and said unto them, I am to be ^s gathered unto my people: bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of ^t Ephron the Hittite,

30 In the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field of Ephron the Hittite, for a possession of a burying-place.

31 (There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife; there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife; and there I buried Leah.)

32 The purchase of the field and of the cave that is therein, was from the children of Heth.

33 And when Jacob had made an end of commanding his sons, he gathered up his ^u feet into the bed, and yielded up the ghost, and was ^v gathered unto his people.

CHAPTER L.

1 The mourning for Jacob... 2 Joseph getteth leave of Pharaoh to go to bury him... 3 He professeth unto his brethren of their return... 4 He taketh an oath of them for his bones... 5 He dieth.

AND Joseph fell upon his ^a father's face, and ^b wept upon him, and ^c kissed him.

2 And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father: and the physicians ^d embalmed Israel.

3 And forty days were fulfilled for him: for so are fulfilled the days of those which are embalmed: and the Egyptians mourned for him ^e threescore and ten days.

4 And when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph ^f spake unto the house of Pharaoh, saying, If now I have found grace in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the ears of Pharaoh, saying,

5 My father made me swear, saying, Lo, ^g I die: in my grave which I have ^h digged for me in the land of Canaan, there shalt thou ⁱ bury me. Now therefore let me go up, I pray thee, and bury my father, and I will come again.

6 And Pharaoh said, Go up, and bury thy father, according ^k as he made thee swear.

7 ¶ And Joseph went up to bury his father: and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt,

8 And all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father's house: only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Goshen.

9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen: and it was ^l a very great company.

10 And they came to the threshing-floor of ^m Atad, which is ⁿ beyond Jordan, and there they mourned with a great and very sore lamentation: and he made a mourning for his father ^o seven days.

11 And when the inhabitants of the land, the ^p Canaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, This is a grievous mourning to the Egyptians: wherefore the name of it was called ^q Abel-mizraim, which is beyond Jordan.

12 And his sons did unto him ^r according as he commanded them:

13 For his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of ^s the field of Machpelah, which Abraham bought with the field, for a possession of a burying-place of Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre.

14 ¶ And Joseph returned into Egypt, he and his brethren, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.

15 ¶ And when Joseph's brethren saw that their father was dead, they said, Joseph will ^t peradventure hate us, and will ^u certainly requite us all the evil which we did unto him.

16 And they ^v sent a messenger unto Joseph, saying, Thy father did command before he died, saying,

17 So shall ye say unto Joseph, ^w Forgive, I pray thee now, the trespass of ^x thy brethren, and their sin; for they did unto thee evil: and now, we pray thee, forgive the trespass of the servants of ^y the God of thy father. And Joseph wept when they spake unto him.

18 And his brethren also went and ^z fell down before his face: and they said, Behold, we ^{aa} be thy servants.

19 And Joseph said unto them, ^{ab} Fear not: for am I in ^{ac} the place of God?

20 But as for you, ye thought evil against me: ^{ad} but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive.

21 Now therefore fear ye not: ^{ae} I will nourish you, and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spake ^{af} kindly unto them.

22 And Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he, and his father's house: and Joseph lived a hundred and ten years.

23 And Joseph saw Ephraim's children of the ^{ag} third generation: the children also of Machir, the son of Manasseh, were brought up upon Joseph's knees.

24 And Joseph said unto his brethren, I die: and God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land, unto the land which he sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

25 And Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up ^{ah} my bones from hence.

26 ¶ So Joseph died, being a hundred and ten years old: and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

Exodus. Chap. ii. Ver. 3.

¶ The SECOND Book of Moses, called EXODUS.

CHAPTER I.

22 Pharaoh commandeth the male children to be cast into the river.

NOW these are the ^a names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt; every man and his household came with Jacob.

2 ^b Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah,

3 ^c Issachar, Zebulun, and ^d Benjamin,

4 Dan, and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

5 And all the souls that came out of the loins of Jacob were ^e seventy souls: ^f for Joseph was in Egypt already.

6 And Joseph died, and all ^g his brethren, and all that generation.

7 And the children of Israel were fruitful, and ^h increased abundantly, and multiplied, and waxed exceeding mighty; and the land was filled with them.

8 ¶ Now there arose up a ⁱ new king over Egypt, which ^k knew not Joseph.

9 And he said unto his people, Behold, the people of the children of Israel are ^l more and mightier than we.

10 ^m Come on, let us ⁿ deal wisely with them. lest they multiply, and it come to pass, that, when there falleth out any war, they join also unto our enemies, and fight against us, and so get them up out of the land.

11 Therefore they did set over them taskmasters, to afflict them with their ^o burdens. And they built for Pharaoh treasure-cities, Pithom, and Raamses.

12 † But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were ^p grieved because of the children of Israel.

13 And the Egyptians made the children of Israel to serve with ^q rigour.

14 And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, in mortar, and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field: all their service wherein they made them serve was with rigour.

15 And the king of Egypt spake to the Hebrew midwives (of which the name of one was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah:)

16 And he said, When ye do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the stools; if it be a son, then ye shall ^r kill him; but if it be a daughter, then she shall live.

17 But the midwives ^s feared God, and did not ^t as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the men-children alive.

18 And the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said unto them, ^u Why have ye done this thing, and have saved the men-children alive?

19 And the midwives said unto Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women are not as the Egyptian women; for they are lively, and are delivered ^x ere the midwives come in unto them.

20 Therefore God dealt ^y well with the midwives: and the people multiplied, and waxed very mighty.

21 And it came to pass, because the midwives ^z feared God, that he ^z made them houses.

22 And Pharaoh ^a charged all his people, saying, Every son that is born ye shall cast into the river, and every daughter ye shall save alive.

CHAPTER II.

2 Moses is born, and in an ark cast into the river. 11 He slayeth an Egyptian. 21 He marryeth Zipporah.

AND there went ^a a man of the house of Levi, and ^b took to wife a daughter of Levi.

2 And the woman conceived and bare a ^c son: and when she saw him that he was ^d a goodly child, she ^e hid him three months.

3 And when she could ^f not longer hide him, she took for him an ark of bulrushes, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and put the child therein; and she laid it in the flags by the river's brink.

4 And ^g his sister stood afar off, to wit what would be done to him.

5 ¶ And the ^h daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash herself at the river; and her maidens walked along by the river's side: and when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to fetch it.

6 And when she had opened it, she saw the child: and, behold, the babe wept. And she had ⁱ compassion on him, and said, This is one of the ^k Hebrews' children.

7 Then said his sister to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go, and call to thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee?

8 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. And the maid went and called the ^l child's mother.

9 And Pharaoh's daughter said unto her, Take this child away and nurse it forme, and I will give thee thy wages. And the woman took the child and nursed it.

10 And the child grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he became ^m her son. And she called his name ¶ Moses: and she said, Because I drew him out of the water.

11 ¶ And it came to pass in those days, when Moses was ⁿ grown, that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their burdens: and he espied an Egyptian smiting a Hebrew, one of his brethren.

12 And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, he ^o slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.

13 And when he went out ^p the second day, Behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together: and he said ^q to him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow?

14 And he said, Who made thee ^r a prince and a judge over us? intendest thou to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? And Moses ^s feared, and said, Surely this thing is known.

15 Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But Moses ^t fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of ^u Midian: and he sat down by a ^x well.

16 Now the ^y priest of Midian had seven daughters: and they came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock.

17 And the shepherds came and drove them away: but Moses stood up and ^y helped them, and watered their flock.

18 And when they came to ^z Reuel their father, he said, How is it that ye are come so soon to-day?

19 And they said, An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water enough for us, and watered the flock.

20 And he said unto his ^a daughters, And where is he? why is it that ye have left the man? call him, that he may eat ^b bread.

21 And Moses was content to dwell with the man: and he ^c gave Moses, ^d Zipporah his daughter.

22 And she bare him a son, and he called his name

|| Gershom ; for he said, I have been a stranger in a strange land.

23 ¶ And it came to pass, in process of time, that the king of Egypt died : and the children of Israel sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried ; and their cry came up unto God, by reason of the bondage.

24 And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.

25 And God looked upon the children of Israel, and God had respect unto them.

CHAPTER III.

2 God appeareth to Moses in a burning bush....9 He sendeth him to deliver Israel....14 The name of God....15 His message to Israel.

NOW Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian : and he led the flock to the back side of the desert, and came to the mountain of God, even to Horeb.

2 And the Angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush ; and he looked, and, behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed.

3 And Moses said, I will now turn aside, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burned.

4 And when the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, God called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses ! And he said, Here am I.

5 And he said, Draw not nigh hither : put off thy shoes from off thy feet ; for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.

6 Moreover he said, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face ; for he was afraid to look upon God.

7 ¶ And the LORD said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their task-masters ; for I know their sorrows :

8 And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land, unto a good land, and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey ; unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

9 ¶ Now therefore, behold, the cry of the children of Israel is come unto me : And I have also seen the oppression wherewith the Egyptians oppress them.

10 Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt.

11 ¶ And Moses said unto God, Who am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt ?

12 And he said, Certainly I will be with thee ; and this shall be a token unto thee, that I have sent thee : When thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain.

13 And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you ; and they shall say to me, What is his name ? What shall I say unto them ?

14 And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM : And he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you.

15 And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you : this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations.

16 Go, and gather the elders of Israel together, and say unto them, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared unto me, saying, I have surely visited you, and seen that which is done to you in Egypt :

17 And I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt, unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey.

18 And they shall hearken to thy voice ; and thou shalt come, thou and the elders of Israel, unto the king of Egypt, and ye shall say unto him, The LORD God of the Hebrews hath met with us ; and now let us go (we beseech thee) three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.

19 And I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you go, no, not by a mighty hand.

20 And I will stretch out my hand, and smite Egypt with all my wonders which I will do in the midst thereof : and after that he will let you go.

21 And I will give this people favour in the sight of the Egyptians : and it shall come to pass, that, when ye go, ye shall not go empty.

22 But every woman shall borrow of her neighbour, and of her that sojourneth in her house, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment : and ye shall put them upon your sons, and upon your daughters : and ye shall spoil the Egyptians.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Moses' rod is turned into a serpent....14 Aaron is appointed to assist him....21 God's message to Pharaoh....24 Zipporah circumciseth her son....27 Aaron is sent to meet Moses.

AND Moses answered and said, But, behold, they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice : for they will say, The LORD hath not appeared unto thee.

2 And the LORD said unto him, What is that in thine hand ? And he said, A rod.

3 And He said, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent : and Moses fled from before it.

4 And the LORD said unto Moses, Put forth thine hand, and take it by the tail. And he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand :

5 That they may believe that the LORD God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath appeared unto thee.

6 ¶ And the LORD said furthermore unto him, Put now thy hand into thy bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom : and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous as snow.

7 And he said, Put thy hand into thy bosom again. And he put his hand into his bosom again, and plucked it out of his bosom, and behold, it was turned again as his other flesh.

8 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe thee, neither hearken to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the latter sign.

9 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe also these two signs, neither hearken unto thy voice,

10 [†]And Moses said unto the LORD, O my Lord, I am not [†]eloquent, neither heretofore, nor since thou hast spoken unto thy servant: but I am [†]slow of speech, and of a slow tongue.

11 And the LORD said unto him, Who hath^m made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the LORD?

12 Now therefore go, and I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say.

13 And he said, O my Lord, send, I pray thee, by the hand of him whom thou wilt send.

14 [†]And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses, and he said, Is not Aaron the Levite thy brother? I know that he can^a speak well. And also, behold, he cometh forth to meet thee: and when he seeth thee, he will be glad in his heart.

15 And thou shalt speak unto him, and put^r words in his mouth: and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will^s teach you what ye shall do.

16 And he shall be thy^t spokesman unto the people: and he shall be, even he shall be to thee instead of a mouth, and thou shalt be to him instead of God.

17 And thou shalt take this rod in thy hand, wherewith thou shalt^x do signs.

18 [†]And Moses went, and returned to Jethro his father-in-law, and said unto him, Let me go. I pray thee, and return unto my brethren which are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet alive. And Jethro said to Moses, Go in peace.

19 And the LORD said unto Moses in Midian, Go, return into Egypt: for all the men are dead which^z sought thy life.

20 And Moses took his wife, and his sons, and set them upon an ass, and he returned to the land of Egypt. And Moses took the^b rod of God in his hand.

21 [†]And the LORD said unto Moses, When thou goest to return into Egypt, see that thou do all those wonders before Pharaoh which I have put in thy hand: but^c I will harden his heart, that he shall not let the people go.

22 And thou shalt say unto Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD, Israel is^d my son, even my^e first-born:

23 And I say unto thee, Let my son go, that he may serve me: and if thou refuse to let him go, behold, I will slay thy son, even thy first-born.

24 [†]And it came to pass by the way in the inn, that the LORD^f met him, and sought to^g kill him.

25 Then Zipporah took^h a sharp stone, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and cast it at his feet, and said, Surelyⁱ a bloody husband art thou to me.

26 So he let him go: then she said, A bloody husband thou art, because of the circumcision.

27 [†]And the LORD said to Aaron, Go into the wilderness to meet Moses. And he went, and met him in the mount of God, and^j kissed him.

28 And Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD who had sent him, and^m all the signs which he had commanded him.

29 [†]And Moses and Aaron went, and gathered together all theⁿ elders of the children of Israel.

30 And Aaron spake all the words which the LORD had spoken unto Moses, and did the signs in the sight of the people.

31 [†]And the people believed: and when they heard that the LORD had^o visited the children of Israel, and that he had looked upon their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshipped.

CHAPTER V.

1 Pharaoh chideth Moses and Aaron for their message.... 6 He increaseth the Israelites' task.

AND afterward^a Moses and Aaron went in, and told Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Let my people go, that they may hold^c a feast unto me in the wilderness.

2 And Pharaoh said, Who is the LORD, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the LORD, neither will I let Israel go.

3 And they said, The God of the Hebrews^e hath met with us: let us go, we pray thee, three days' journey into the desert, and sacrifice unto the LORD our God; lest he fall upon us with^f pestilence, or with the sword.

4 And the king of Egypt said unto them, Wherefore do ye, Moses and Aaron, let the people from their works? get you unto your burdens.

5 [†]And Pharaoh said, Behold, the people of the land now are^h many, and ye make them rest from their burdens.

6 And Pharaoh commanded the same day the task-masters of the people, and their officers, saying,

7 Ye shall^k no more give the people straw to make brick, [†]as heretofore: let them go and gather straw for themselves.

8 And the tale of the bricks which they did make heretofore, ye shall lay upon them; ye shall not diminish ought thereof: for they be idle; therefore they cry, saying, Let us go and sacrifice to our God.

9 [†]Let there more work be laid upon the men, that they may labour therein: and let them not regard^l vain words.

10 And the taskmasters of the people^m went out, and their officers, and they spake to the people, saying, Thus saith Pharaoh, I will not give you straw.

11 Go ye, get you straw where ye can find it: yet not ought of yourⁿ work shall be diminished.

12 So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt, to gather stubble instead of straw.

13 And the taskmasters hastened^o them, saying, Fulfil your works, your daily tasks, as when there was straw.

14 And the officers of the children of Israel, which Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, and demanded, Wherefore have ye not fulfilled your task in making brick, both yesterday and to-day, as heretofore?

15 [†]Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried unto Pharaoh, saying, Wherefore dealest thou thus with thy servants?

16 There is no straw given unto thy servants, and they say to us, Make brick: and behold, thy servants are beaten; but the fault is in thine own people.

17 But he said, Ye are idle, ye are idle: therefore ye say, Let us go, and do sacrifice to the LORD.

18 Go therefore now, and work: for there shall no straw be given you, yet shall ye deliver the tale of bricks.

19 [†]And the officers of the children of Israel did see that they were^o in evil case, after it was said, Ye shall not minish ought from your bricks of your daily task.

20 And they met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh:

21 And they said unto them, The LORD^p look upon you, and judge; because ye have made our savour to be † abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants; to put a sword in their hand to slay us.

22 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, LORD, wherefore hast thou so evil-entreated this people? why is it that thou hast sent me?

23 For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in thy name, he hath done evil to this people: neither hast thou delivered thy people at all.

CHAPTER VI.

1 God reneweth his promise by his name JEHOVAH.

WHEN the LORD said unto Moses, Now shalt thou see what I will do to Pharaoh: for with a strong hand shall he let them go, and with a strong hand shall he drive them out of his land.

2 And God spake unto Moses, and said unto him, I am the LORD:

3 And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob by the name of God Almighty, but by my name JEHOVAH was I not known to them.

4 And I have also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers.

5 And I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage: and I have remembered my covenant.

6 Wherefore say unto the children of Israel, I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with a stretched-out arm, and with great judgments:

7 And I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God: and ye shall know that I am the LORD your God, which bringeth you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians.

8 And I will bring you in unto the land, concerning the which I did swear to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob: and I will give it you for a heritage: I am the LORD.

9 And Moses spake so unto the children of Israel: but they hearkened not unto Moses, for † anguish of spirit, and for cruel bondage.

10 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

11 Go in, speak unto Pharaoh, king of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land.

12 And Moses spake before the LORD, saying, Behold, the children of Israel have not hearkened unto me; how then shall Pharaoh hear me, who am of † uncircumcised lips?

13 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, and gave them a charge unto the children of Israel, and unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

14 These be the heads of their fathers' houses: The sons of Reuben the first-born of Israel; Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi: these be the families of Reuben.

15 And the sons of Simeon: Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanitish woman: these are the families of Simeon.

16 And these are the names of the sons of Levi, according to their generations: Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari. And the years of the life of Levi were a hundred thirty and seven years.

17 The sons of Gershon; Libni, and Shimi, according to their families.

18 And the sons of Kohath; Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel: and the years of the life of Kohath were a hundred and thirty and three years.

19 And the sons of Merari; Mahali and Mushi: these are the families of Levi, according to their generations.

20 And Amram took him Jochebed his father's sister to wife; and she bare him Aaron and Moses. And the years of the life of Amram were a hundred and thirty and seven years.

21 And the sons of Izhar; Korah, and Nepheg, and Zichri.

22 And the sons of Uzziel; Mishael, and Elzaphan, and Zithri.

23 And Aaron took him Elisheba, daughter of Amminadab, sister of Naashon, to wife; and she bare him Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

24 And the sons of Korah; Assir, and Elkanah, and Abiasaph: these are the families of the Korhites.

25 And Eleazar, Aaron's son, took him one of the daughters of Putiel to wife; and she bare him Phinehas: these are the heads of the fathers of the Levites, according to their families.

26 These are that Aaron and Moses, to whom the LORD said, bring out the children of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their armies.

27 These are they which spake to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the children of Israel from Egypt: these are that Moses and Aaron.

28 And it came to pass on the day when the LORD spake unto Moses in the land of Egypt, 29 That the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, I am the LORD: speak thou unto Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I say unto thee.

30 And Moses said before the LORD, Behold, I am of † uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh hearken unto me?

CHAPTER VII.

1 Moses is encouraged to go to Pharaoh....7 His age....10 His rod is turned into a serpent....13 Pharaoh's heart is hardened....19 The river is turned into blood.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, See, I have made thee a god to Pharaoh: and Aaron thy brother shall be thy prophet.

2 Thou shalt speak all that I command thee: and Aaron thy brother shall speak unto Pharaoh, that he send the children of Israel out of his land.

3 And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of Egypt.

4 But Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you, that I may lay my hand upon Egypt, and bring forth mine armies, and my people the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt, by great judgments.

5 And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I stretch forth my hand upon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them.

6 And Moses and Aaron did as the LORD commanded them, so did they.

7 And Moses was fourscore years old, and Aaron fourscore and three years old, when they spake unto Pharaoh.

8 And the LORD spake unto Moses, and unto Aaron, saying,

9 When Pharaoh shall speak unto you, saying, Shew a miracle for you: then thou shalt say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and cast it before Pharaoh, and it shall become a serpent.

10 And Moses and Aaron went in unto Pharaoh.

and they did so as the LORD had commanded : and Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh, and before his servants, and it became a serpent.

11 ¶ Then Pharaoh also called the wise men, and the ^o sorcerers : now the magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their || enchantments.

12 For they cast down every man his rod, and they became serpents : but Aaron's rod ^p swallowed up their rods.

13 ¶ And ^a he hardened Pharaoh's heart that he hearkened not unto them ; as the LORD had said.

14 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Pharaoh's heart is [†] hardened, he refuseth to let the people go.

15 Get thee unto Pharaoh in the ^r morning ; lo, he goeth out unto the water, and thou shalt stand by the river's brink against he come : and the rod which was turned to a serpent shalt thou take in thy hand.

16 And thou shalt say unto him, The LORD God of the Hebrews hath sent me unto thee, saying, Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness : and behold, hitherto thou wouldest not hear.

17 Thus saith the LORD, In this thou shalt ^s know that I am the LORD : behold, I will smite with the rod that is in my hand upon the waters which are in the river, and they shall be turned to blood.

18 And the fish that is in the river shall die, and the river shall stink : and the Egyptians shall [†] loathe to drink of the water of the river.

19 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and stretch out thy hand upon the waters of Egypt, upon their streams, upon their rivers, and upon their ponds, and upon all their [†] pools of water, that they may become blood : and that there may be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood, and in vessels of stone.

20 And Moses and Aaron did so, as the LORD commanded ; and he ^t lifted up the rod and smote the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants ; and all the waters that were in the river were turned to ^a blood.

21 And the fish that was in the river ^x died ; and the river ^y stank, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river ; and there was blood throughout ^z all the land of Egypt.

22 And the magicians of Egypt ^a did so with their enchantments : and Pharaoh's heart was ^b hardened, neither did he hearken unto them ; as the LORD had said.

23 And Pharaoh turned and went into his house, neither did he ^c set his heart to this also.

24 And all the Egyptians digged round about the river for water to drink ; for they could not drink of the water of the river.

25 And seven days were fulfilled after that the LORD had smitten the river.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Frogs are sent....25 Pharaoh inclineth to let the people go, 32 but yet is hardened.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, ^a Go unto Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Let my people go that they may serve me.

2 And if thou refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite all thy borders with frogs :

3 And the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into thy house, and into thy bed-chamber, and upon thy bed, and into the house of thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thine ovens, and into thy kneading troughs .

4 And the frogs shall come up both ^b on thee, and upon thy people, and upon all thy servants.

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch forth thy hand with thy rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt.

6 And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt ; and the ^c frogs came up, and ^d covered the land of Egypt.

7 And the magicians ^e did so with their enchantments, and brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt.

8 ¶ Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, ^f Entreat the LORD that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people : and I will let the people ^g go, that they may do sacrifice unto the LORD.

9 And Moses said unto Pharaoh, || Glory over me : when shall I entreat for thee and for thy servants, and for thy people, to [†] destroy the frogs from thee, and thy houses, that they may remain in the ^h river only ?

10 And he said, To-morrow. And he said, Be it according to thy word : ⁱ that thou mayest know that there is none like unto the LORD our God.

11 And the frogs shall depart from thee, and from thy houses, and from thy servants, and from thy people ; they shall remain in the river only.

12 ¶ And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh : and Moses ^k cried unto the LORD, because of the frogs which he had brought against Pharaoh.

13 And the LORD ^l did according to the word of Moses : and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the villages, and out of the fields.

14 And they gathered them together upon [†] heaps : and the land ^m stank.

15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was ⁿ respite, he [†] hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them ; as the LORD had said.

16 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch out thy ^o rod, and smite the dust of the land, that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

17 And they did so ; for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and it became ^p lice in man and in beast : all the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

18 And the magicians did so with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they ^q could not : so there were lice upon man, and upon beast.

19 Then the magicians said unto Pharaoh, This is the ^r finger of God : and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them ; as the LORD had said.

20 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh ; (lo, he cometh forth to the water ;) and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Let my people go, that they may serve me :

21 Else, if thou wilt not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses : and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of || swarms of flies, and also the ground whereon they are.

22 And I will sever in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there ; to the end thou mayest know that I am the LORD in the midst of the earth.

23 And I will put a division between my people and thy people : to-morrow shall this sign be.

24 And the LORD did so : and there came a grievous swarm of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Egypt : the land was corrupted by reason of the swarms of flies.

25 And Pharaoh called for Moses, and for Aaron, and said, Go ye sacrifice to your God in the land.

26 And Moses said, It is not meet so to do ; for we shall sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God : Lo, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us ?

27 We will go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as he shall command us.

28 And Pharaoh said, I will let you go, that ye may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness ; only ye shall not go very far away : y entreat for me.

29 And Moses said, Behold, I go out from thee, and I will entreat the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, to-morrow : but let not Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more, in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.

30 And Moses went out from Pharaoh, and entreated the LORD :

31 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses ; and he removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people ; there remained not one.

32 And Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go.

CHAPTER IX.

1 The murrain of beasts....27 Pharaoh sueth to Moses, 35 but yet is hardened.

THEN the LORD said unto Moses, a Go in unto Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

2 For if thou refuse to let them go, and wilt hold them still,

3 Behold, the b hand of the LORD is upon thy cattle which is in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the sheep : there shall be a very grievous c murrain.

4 And the LORD shall d sever between the cattle of Israel, and the cattle of Egypt : and there shall nothing die of all that is the children's of Israel.

5 And the LORD e appointed a set time, saying, f To-morrow the LORD shall do this thing in the land.

6 And the LORD did that thing on the morrow, and g all the cattle of Egypt died : but of the cattle of the children of Israel died not one.

7 And Pharaoh sent, and behold, there was not one of the cattle of the Israelites dead. And the heart of Pharaoh was h hardened, and he did not let the people go.

8 I And the LORD said unto Moses and unto Aaron, Take to you i handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward the heaven in the sight of Pharaoh.

9 And it shall become small dust in all the land of Egypt, and shall be a k bile breaking forth with blains l upon man, and upon beast, throughout all the land of Egypt.

10 And they took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh : and Moses sprinkled it up toward heaven : and it became a bile breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast.

11 And the magicians m could not stand before Moses, because of the bile : for the bile was upon the magicians, and upon all the Egyptians.

12 And the LORD n hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he hearkened not unto them ; as the LORD had spoken unto Moses.

13 O And the LORD said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

14 For I will at this time send all my plagues upon o thy heart, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people : that thou mayest know that there is none like me in all the earth.

15 For now I will p stretch out my hand, that I may smite thee and thy people with pestilence ; and thou shalt be cut off from the earth.

16 And in very deed q for this cause have I r raised thee up, s for to shew in thee my power ; and that t my name may be declared throughout all the earth.

17 u As yet exaltest thou thyself against my people, that thou wilt not let them go ?

18 Behold, to-morrow about this time, I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as hath not been in Egypt since the foundation thereof even until now.

19 Send therefore now, and gather thy cattle, and all that thou hast in the field : for upon every man and beast which shall be found in the field, and shall not be brought home, the hail shall come down upon them, and they shall die.

20 He that v feared the word of the LORD among the servants of Pharaoh made his servants and his cattle flee into the houses :

21 And he that w regarded not the word of the LORD left his servants and his cattle in the field.

22 x And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch forth thy hand toward heaven, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt.

23 And Moses stretched forth his rod toward heaven, and the LORD sent y thunder and z hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground : and the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt.

24 So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as there was a none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.

25 And the hail smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast, and the hail smote every herb of the field and brake every tree of the field.

26 Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, was there b no hail.

27 O And Pharaoh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said unto them, c I have sinned this time : the LORD is righteous, and I and my people are wicked.

28 d Entreat the LORD (for it is enough) that there be no more mighty e thunderings and hail ; and I will let you go, and ye shall stay no longer.

29 And Moses said unto him, As soon as I am gone out of the city, I will spread abroad f my hands unto the LORD ; and the thunder shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail ; that thou mayest know how that the g earth is the LORD's.

30 But as for thee and thy servants, I know that ye will h not yet fear the LORD God.

31 And the flax and the barley was smitten: for the barley was in the ear, and the flax was bolled.

32 But the wheat and the rye were not smitten: for they were † not grown up.

33 And Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread abroad his hands unto the LORD: and the thunders and hail^b ceased, and the rain was not poured upon the earth.

34 And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders were ceased, he sinned yet more, andⁱ hardened his heart, he and his servants.

35 And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, neither would he let the children of Israel go; as the LORD had spoken by Moses.

CHAPTER X.

7 Pharaoh, moved by his servants, inclineth to let the Israelites go....
12 The plague of the locusts. 16 Pharaoh saith unto Moses.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh: for I have^a hardened his heart, and the heart of his servants; that I might shew these my signs before him:

2 And that thou mayest tell^b in the ears of thy son, and of thy son's son, what things I have wrought in Egypt, and my signs which I have done among them; that ye may know how that I am the LORD.

3 And Moses and Aaron came in unto Pharaoh, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, How long wilt thou refuse to^c humble thyself before me? Let my people go, that they may serve me.

4 Else, if thou refuse to let my people go, behold, to-morrow will I bring the^d locusts into thy coast:

5 And they shall cover the^e face of the earth, that one cannot be able to see the earth: and they shall eat the^e residue of that which is escaped, which remaineth unto you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which groweth for you out of the field:

6 And they shall fill thy houses, and the houses of all thy servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians; which neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers' fathers have seen, since the day that they were upon the earth unto this day. And he turned himself, and went out from Pharaoh.

7 And Pharaoh's servants said unto him, How long shall this man be^f a snare unto us? Let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God: Knowest thou not yet that Egypt^g is destroyed?

8 And Moses and Aaron were brought again unto Pharaoh: and he said unto them, Go, serve the LORD your God: but † who are they that shall go?

9 And Moses said, We will go with our^h young and with ourⁱ flocks, with our sons and with our daughters, with our^j flocks and with our herds will we go: for we must hold^k a feast unto the LORD.

10 And he said unto them, Let the LORD be^l so with you, as I will let you go, and your little ones: ^m look to it; for evil is before you.

11 Not so: go now ye that are men, and serve the LORD; for thatⁿ ye did desire. And they were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.

12 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thy hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up upon the land of Egypt, and eat every herb of the land, even all that the hail hath left.

13 And Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought^o an east wind upon the land all that day, and all that night: and when it was morning, the east wind brought the^p locusts.

14 And the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the coasts of Egypt: ^q very grievous were they; before them there were^r no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such.

15 For they covered the face of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened; and they^s did eat every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left: and there remained not any green thing in the trees, or in the herbs of the field, through all the land of Egypt.

16 ¶ Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste; and he said, ^t I have sinned against the LORD your God, and^u against you.

17 Now therefore forgive, I pray thee, my sin only this once, and^x entreat the LORD your God that he may take away from me this^y death only.

18 And he went out from Pharaoh, and^z entreated the LORD.

19 And the LORD turned a mighty strong west wind, which took away the locusts, and cast them into the^a Red sea: there remained not one locust in all the coasts of Egypt.

20 But the LORD^b hardened Pharaoh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go.

21 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thy hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even darkness which may be felt.

22 And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven: and there was a^c thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days:

23 They^d saw not one another, neither rose any from his place for three days: but all the children of Israel^e had light in their dwellings.

24 ¶ And Pharaoh called unto Moses, and said, Go ye, serve the LORD: only let your flocks and your herds be stayed: ^f let your little ones also go with you.

25 And Moses said, Thou must give us also^g sacrifices, and burnt-offerings, that we may sacrifice unto the LORD our God.

26 Our cattle also shall go with us; there shall^h not a hoof be left behind; for thereof must we take to serve the LORD our God; and we know not with what we must serve the LORD, until we come thither.

27 ¶ But the LORDⁱ hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let them go.

28 And Pharaoh said unto him, Get thee from me, take heed to thyself, see my face^k no more: for in that day thou seest my face, thou shalt die.

29 And Moses said, Thou hast spoken^l well, I will see thy face again no more.

CHAPTER XI.

1 God's message to the Israelites to borrow jewels of their neighbours.
4 Moses threateneth Pharaoh with the death of the first-born.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, yet will I bring ^a one plague more upon Pharaoh, and upon Egypt; afterwards he will let you go hence: when he shall let you go, he shall surely^a thrust you out hence altogether.

2 Speak now in the ears of the people, and let every man^b borrow of his neighbour, and every woman of her neighbour, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold.

3 And the LORD gave the people^c favour in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover, the man Moses^d was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people.

4 And Moses said, Thus saith the LORD, ^e About midnight will I go out into the midst of Egypt:

r Isa. 43, 1.

12 For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both man and beast: and against all ^s the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the LORD.

13 And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood,

I will ^t pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you [†] to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt.

14 And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and ye shall keep it a feast to the LORD throughout your generations: ye shall keep it ^u a feast by an ordinance ^x for ever.

15 ^y Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread; even the first day ye ^z shall put away leaven out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread, from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be ^a cut off from Israel.

16 And in the first day there shall be ^b a holy convocation, and in the seventh day there shall be a holy convocation to you: no manner of work shall ^c be done in them, save that which every man must eat, that only may be done of you.

17 And ye shall observe the feast of unleavened bread; for in this self-same day have ^d I brought your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore shall ye observe this day in your generations by an ordinance for ever.

18 ¶ In the ^e first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread until the one and twentieth day of the month at even.

19 Seven days shall there be no leaven ^f found in your houses: for whosoever eateth that which is leavened, even that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a ^g stranger, or born in the land.

20 Ye shall eat nothing leavened: in all your habitations shall ye eat unleavened bread.

21 ¶ Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel, and said unto them, Draw out, and take you a lamb, according to your families, and kill the ^h passover.

22 And ye shall take a bunch of ⁱ hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the bason, and ^k strike the lintel and the two side-posts with the blood that is in the bason: and none of you shall ^l go out at the door of his house until the morning.

23 For the LORD will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side-posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and will ^m not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you.

24 And ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons for ever.

25 And it shall come to pass, when ye be come to the land which the LORD will give you, according as he hath promised, that ye shall keep this service.

26 And it shall come to pass, when your children shall say unto you, ⁿ What mean ye by this service?

27 That ye shall say, It is the sacrifice of the LORD's passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. And the people bowed the head and worshipped.

28 And the children of Israel went away, and did ^o as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, that ^p at midnight the LORD smote all ^q the first-born in the land of Egypt, from the first-born of Pharaoh that sat on his throne, unto the first-born of the captive that was in the dungeon; and all the first-born of cattle.

and said, Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, both ye and the children of Israel: and go, serve the LORD, as ye have said.

32 Also take your flocks and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone: and ^t bless me also.

33 And the Egyptians were ^u urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, We be ^x all dead men.

34 And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their ^y kneading-troughs being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders.

35 And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses: and they ^z borrowed of the Egyptians, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment.

36 And the LORD gave the people ^a favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they ^b lent unto them such things as they required: and they spoiled the Egyptians.

37 ¹ And the children of Israel journeyed from ^c Rameses to Succoth, about ^d six hundred thousand on foot that were men, besides children.

38 And a [†] mixed multitude went up also with them; and flocks; and herds, even very much cattle.

39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt, for it was not leavened: because they were ^e thrust out of Egypt, and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any victual.

40 ¹ Now the ^f sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt was ^g four hundred and thirty years.

41 And it came to pass, at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even ^h the self-same day it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt.

42 It is a night [†] to be much observed unto the LORD, for bringing them out from the land of Egypt: this is that night of the LORD to be observed of all the children of Israel in their generations.

43 ¹ And the LORD said unto Moses and Aaron, This is the ordinance of the passover: There shall ⁱ no stranger eat thereof:

44 But every man's servant that is ^k bought for money, when thou hast circumcised him, then ^j shall he eat thereof.

45 ^m A foreigner, and a hired servant shall not eat thereof.

46 ⁿ In one house shalt it be eaten; thou shalt not carry forth ought of the flesh abroad out of the house: neither shall ye break a ^o bone thereof.

47 All the congregation of Israel shall ^p keep it.

48 And when ^q a stranger shall sojourn with thee, and will ^r keep the passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then ^s let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as one that is born in the land: for ^t no uncircumcised person shall eat thereof.

49 ^u One law shall be to him that is home-born, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among you.

50 Thus did all the children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

51 And it came to pass the self-same day, that the LORD did bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their ^v armies.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 The first-born are sanctified to God... 11 The firstlings of beasts are set apart... 17 The Israelites go out of Egypt... 21 God guideth them by a pillar of a cloud, and a pillar of fire.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 2^a Sanctify unto me all the ^b first-born, whatsoever ^c openeth the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of beast: it is mine.

3 ¹ And Moses said unto the people, ^d Remember this day, in which ye came out from Egypt, out of the house of bondage; for ^e by strength of hand the LORD brought you out from this place: there shall no ^f leavened bread be eaten.

4 This day came ye out, in the month Abib.

5 ¹ And it shall be, when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which he sware unto thy fathers to give thee, a land flowing with milk and honey, that thou shalt keep this service in this month.

6 Seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread, and in the seventh day shall be ^g a feast to the LORD.

7 Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days: and there shall no leavened bread be seen with thee, neither shall there be leaven seen with thee in all thy quarters.

8 ¹ And thou shalt ^h shew thy son in that day, saying, This is done because of that which the LORD did unto me when I came forth out of Egypt.

9 And it shall be for a sign unto thee upon thy hand, and for a memorial between thine eyes; that the LORD's law may be in thy ⁱ mouth: for with a strong hand hath the LORD brought thee out of Egypt.

10 Thou shalt therefore keep this ordinance in his season from year to year.

11 ¹ And it shall be when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, as he sware unto thee and to thy fathers, and shall give it thee,

12 That thou shalt set apart unto the LORD ^m all that openeth the matrix; and every ⁿ firstling that cometh of a beast which thou hast, the males shall be the LORD's.

13 And every firstling of an ^o ass thou shalt redeem with ^p a lamb; and if thou wilt not redeem it, then thou shalt ^q break his neck: and all the first-born of man among thy children shalt thou ^r redeem.

14 ¹ And it shall be when thy son asketh thee [†] in time to come, saying, What is this? that thou shalt say unto him, By strength of hand the LORD brought ^s us out from Egypt, from the house of bondage.

15 And it came to pass, when Pharaoh ^t would hardly let us go, that the LORD slew all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both the first-born of man, and the first-born of beasts: therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all that openeth the matrix, being males; but all the first-born of my children I redeem.

16 And it shall be for a token upon thy hand, and for ^u frontlets between thine eyes: for by strength of hand the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt.

17 ¹ And it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God led them not through ^v the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, Lest peradventure the people repent when they ^w see war, and they return to Egypt:

18 But God led the people about, through ^x the way of the wilderness of the Red sea: and the children of Israel went up ^y harnessed out of the land of Egypt.

19 And Moses took the ^z bones of Joseph with him: for he had straitly sworn the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you; and ye shall carry up my bones away hence with you.

20 ¹ And they took their journey from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness.

21 And the LORD ^a went before them by day in ^b a

1 God instructeth the Israelites in their journey....5 Pharaoh pursueth after them....21 The Israelites pass through the Red sea, 23 which drowneth the Egyptians.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, that they turn and encamp^a before Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, over against^b Baal-zephon: before it shall ye encamp by the sea.

3 For Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, They are^c entangled in the land, the wilderness hath shut them in.

4 And I will^d harden Pharaoh's heart that he shall follow after them; and I will^e be honoured upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host; that the Egyptians may know that I am the LORD. And they did so.

5 ¶ And it was told the king of Egypt that the people^f fled. and the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was turned against the people, and they said, Why have we done this, that we have let Israel go from serving us?

6 And he made ready his chariot, and took his people with him:

7 And he took six hundred^h chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over every one of them.

8 And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel: and the children of Israel went out with aⁱ high hand.

9 But the Egyptians^k pursued after them (all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army) and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pi-hahiroth, before Baal-zephon.

10 ¶ And when Pharaoh drew nigh, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians marched after them; and they were^l sore afraid: and the children of Israel cried out unto the LORD.

11 And they said unto Moses, Because there were^m no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? Wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt?

12 Is not this the word that we did tell thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? for it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness.

13 ¶ And Moses said unto the people,ⁿ Fear ye not, stand still, and see^o the salvation of the LORD, which he will shew to you to-day; for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to-day, ye shall^p see them again no more for ever.

14 The LORD shall^q fight for you and ye shall hold your peace.

15 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Wherefore^r criest thou unto me? speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward:

16 But lift thou up thy rod, and stretch out thy hand over the sea, and divide it: and the children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea.

17 And I, behold, I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them: and I will get me honour upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

18 ¶ And the Egyptians shall^s know that I am the LORD, when I have gotten me honour upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

19 ¶ And the^t angel of God which went before the camp of Israel, removed, and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them:

20 And it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel; and it was a^u cloud and darkness to them, but it gave light by night to these: so that the one came not near the other all the night.

21 And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea: and the LORD caused the sea^v to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea^w dry land, and the waters were^x divided.

22 And the children of Israel went into^y the midst of the sea upon the dry ground: and the waters were^z a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

23 ¶ And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them, to the midst of the sea, even all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

24 And it came to pass, that in the^{aa} morning-watch the LORD^{ab} looked unto the host of the Egyptians through the^{ac} pillar of fire and of the cloud, and^{ad} troubled the host of the Egyptians,

25 And took off their chariot-wheels, that they drave them^{ae} heavily: so that the Egyptians said, Let us flee from the face of Israel; for the LORD fighteth for them against the Egyptians.

26 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thy hand over the sea, that the waters may^{af} come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen.

27 And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to his strength when^{ag} the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it; and the LORD^{ah} overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

28 And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them: there remained^{ai} not so much as one of them.

29 But the children of Israel^{aj} walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea; and the waters were^{ak} a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

30 Thus the LORD saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians: and Israel^{al} saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea-shore.

31 And Israel saw that great work which the LORD did upon the Egyptians: and the people feared the LORD, and^{am} believed the LORD, and his servant Moses.

CHAPTER XV.

1 Moses' song....23 The waters at Marah are bitter.

THEN sang Moses and the children of Israel^{an} this song unto the LORD, and spake, saying, I will sing unto the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

2 The LORD is my^{ao} strength and song, and he is become my^{ap} salvation: he is my God, and I will prepare him^{aq} a habitation; my father's God, and I will exalt him.

3 The LORD is^{ar} a man of war: the LORD is his name.

4 Pharaoh's chariots and his host hath he cast^{as} into the sea: his^k chosen captains also are drowned in the Red sea.

5 The depths have covered them: they sank into the bottom as^l a stone.

6 Thy right hand, O LORD, is^m become glorious in power: thy right hand, O LORD, hath dashed in pieces the enemy.

7 And in the greatness of thine excellency thou hast overthrown them that rose upⁿ against thee: thou sentest forth thy wrath, which consumed them as stubble.

8 And with the^o blast of thy nostrils the waters were gathered together, the floods stood upright as a heap, and the depths were^p congealed in the heart of the sea.

9 The enemy^q said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will^r divide the spoil: my lust shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.

10 Thou didst^s blow with thy wind, the sea^t covered them: they sank as lead in the mighty waters.

11 Who is like unto thee, O LORD, among the gods? who is like thee^u glorious in holiness, ^x fearful in praises, doing wonders?

12 Thou stretchedst out thy right hand,^y the earth swallowed them.

13 Thou in thy mercy hast^z led forth the people which thou hast redeemed: thou hast guided them in thy strength unto thy holy habitation.

14 The people shall hear, and^a be afraid: sorrow shall take hold on the inhabitants of Palestina.

15 Then the dukes of Edom shall be amazed; the mighty men of Moab, trembling shall take hold upon them; all the inhabitants of Canaan shall^b melt away.

16 Fear and dread shall fall upon them; by the greatness of thine arm they shall be as still as a stone; till thy people pass over, O LORD, till the people pass over, which thou hast^c purchased.

17 Thou shalt bring them in, and^d plant them in the mountain of thine inheritance, in the place, O LORD, which thou hast made for thee to dwell in; in the sanctuary, O LORD which thy hands have established.

18 The LORD shall reign for^e ever and ever.

19 For the^f horse of Pharaoh went in with his chariots and with his horsemen into the sea, and the LORD brought again the waters of the sea upon them: but the children of Israel went on dry land in the midst of the sea.

20 ¶ And Miriam the^g prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took^h a timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her, with timbrels, and with dances.

21 And Miriam answeredⁱ them, Sing ye to the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

22 So Moses brought Israel from the Red sea; and they went out into the wilderness of^k Shur; and they went^l three days in the wilderness, and found no water.

23 ¶ And when they came to^m Marah, they could not drink of the waters of Marah; for they were bitter: therefore the name of it was called Marah.

24 And the peopleⁿ murmured against Moses, saying, ^o what shall we drink?

25 And he^p cried unto the LORD; and the LORD shewed him^q a tree, which when he had cast into the waters, the waters were made sweet: there he made for them a statute and an ordinance, and there he^r proved them,

26 And said, If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, and wilt do that which is^s right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these^t diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the LORD that^u heareth thee.

27 ¶ And they came to^x Elim, where were twelve wells of water, and threescore and ten^y palm-trees: and they encamped there by the waters.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 The Israelites murmur for want of bread....4 God promiseth them bread from heaven....11 Quails are sent, 14 and manna.

AND they took^a their journey from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came unto the wilderness of^b Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the^c fifteenth-day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt.

2 And the^d whole congregation of the children of Israel^e murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness:

3 And the children of Israel said unto them, Would to God we had^f died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the^g flesh-pots, and when we did eat bread to the full: for ye have brought us forth into this wilderness, to kill this^h whole assembly with hunger.

4 ¶ Then said the LORD unto Moses, Behold, I willⁱ rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather^j a certain rate every day, that I may^k prove them, whether they will walk in my law, or no.

5 And it shall come to pass, that on the sixth day they shall prepare^l that which they bring in; and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.

6 And Moses and Aaron said unto all the children of Israel, At even, then ye shall know that the LORD hath brought you out from the land of Egypt:

7 And in the morning, then ye shall see the^m glory of the LORD: for that he heareth your murmurings against the LORD: and what are we, ye that murmur against us?

8 And Moses said, This shall be when the LORD shall give you in the evening flesh to eat, and in the morning bread to the full; for that the LORD heareth your murmurings which ye murmur against him: And what are we? your murmurings are not against us, but against the LORD.

9 ¶ And Moses spake unto Aaron, Say unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, Come near^o before the LORD: for he hath heard your murmurings.

10 And it came to pass, as Aaron spake unto the whole congregation of the children of Israel, that they looked toward the^p wilderness, and behold, the^q glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.

11 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel; speak unto them, saying, At even ye shall eat^r flesh, and in the morning ye shall be^s filled with bread: and ye shall know that I am the LORD your God.

13 And it came to pass, that at even the^t quails came up, and covered the camp: and in the morning the dew lay round about the host.

14 And when^u the dew that lay was gone up, behold upon the face of the wilderness there lay a small roundⁿ thing, as small as the hoar-frost on the ground:

15 And when the children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, || It is manna: for they wist not what it was. And Moses said unto them, This is the bread which the LORD hath given you to eat.

16 ¶ This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded, Gather of it every man according to his eating: an omer^x for every man according to the number of your persons, take ye every man for them which are in his tents.

17 And the children of Israel did so, and gathered, ^y some more, some less.

18 And when they did mete it with an omer, he that gathered much had ^z nothing over, and he that gathered little had no lack: they gathered every man according to his eating.

19 And Moses said, Let no man leave of it till the morning.

20 Notwithstanding, they hearkened not unto Moses: but some of them left of it until the morning, and it ^a bred worms, and stank: and Moses was wroth with them.

21 And they gathered it every morning, every man according to his eating: and when the sun waxed hot ^b it melted.

22 ¶ And it came to pass, that on the sixth day they gathered^c twice as much bread, two omers for one man: and all the rulers of the congregation came and ^d told Moses.

23 And he said unto them, This is that which the LORD hath said, To-morrow is the rest of the^e holy sabbath unto the LORD: bake that which ye will bake to-day, and seethe that ye will seethe; and that which remaineth over, lay up for you to be kept until the morning.

24 And they laid it up till the morning, as Moses bade: and it did ^f not stink, neither was there any worm therein.

25 And Moses said, ^g Eat that to-day; for to-day is a sabbath unto the LORD; to-day ye shall not find it in the field.

26 Six days ye shall gather it; but on the seventh day, which is the sabbath, in it there shall^h be none.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, that there ⁱ went out some of the people on the seventh day for to gather, and they ^k found none.

28 And the LORD said unto Moses, How long refuse ye to keep ^l my commandments and my laws?

29 See, for that the LORD hath given you the sabbath, therefore he giveth you on the sixth day the bread of two days: abide ye every man in his place, let no man go^m out of his place on the seventh day.

30 So the peopleⁿ rested on the seventh day.

31 And the house of Israel called the name thereof Manna: and it was^o like coriander-seed, white; and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey.

32 ¶ And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commandeth, Fill an omer of it to be kept ^p for your generations; that they may see the bread wherewith I have fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt.

33 And Moses said unto Aaron, Take^q a pot, and put an omer full of manna therein, and lay it up^r before the LORD, to be kept for your generations.

34 As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the Testimony,^s to be kept.

35 And the children of Israel did^t eat manna forty years, until they came to a land inhabited: they did eat manna, until they came unto the borders of the land of Canaan.

36 Now an omer is the tenth part of an ephah.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 The people murmur for water at Rephidim....8 Amalek is overcome....15 Moses buildeth the altar JEHOVAH-nissi.

AND all the congregation of the children of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin,^a after their journies, according to the^b commandment of the LORD, and pitched in Rephidim: and there was no water for the people to drink.

2 Wherefore the people did^c chide with Moses, and said, ^d Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said unto them, Why chide ye with me? wherefore do ye^e tempt the LORD?

3 And the people thirsted there for water; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore is this that thou hast brought us up out of Egypt to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst?

4 And Moses^f cried unto the LORD, saying, What shall I do unto this people? ^g they be almost ready to stone me.

5 And the LORD said unto Moses,^h Go on before the people, and take with thee of the elders of Israel: andⁱ thy rod, wherewith thou smotest the river, take in thine hand, and go.

6 Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Horeb; and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come^k water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.

7 And he called the name of the place || Massah, and || Meribah, because of the chiding of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, Is the LORD among us, or not?

8 ¶ Then came^l Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim.

9 And Moses said unto Joshua, Choose us out men, and go out, fight with Amalek: to-morrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the^m rod of God in my hand.

10 So Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and fought with Amalek: and Moses, Aaron, and Hur, went up to the top of the hill.

11 And it came to pass, when Mosesⁿ held up his hand, that Israel prevailed: and when he let^o down his hand, Amalek prevailed.

12 But Moses' hands were^p heavy; and they took ^q a stone, and put it under him, and he sat thereon: and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were^r steady until the going down of the sun.

13 And Joshua discomfited Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

14 And the LORD said unto Moses,^s Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua: for I will^t utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.

15 ¶ And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it || JEHOVAH-nissi:

16 For he said, Because the LORD hath sworn that the LORD will have war with Amalek from generation to generation.

CHAPTER XVIII.

2 Jethro bringeth to Moses his wife and two sons....7 Moses entertaineth him.

WHEN^a Jethro the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that^b God had done s for Moses, and for Israel his people, and that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt:

2 Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her back,

3 And her two sons; of which the name of the one was Gershom: (for he said, I have been an alien in a strange land:)

4 And the name of the other was Eliezer; (for the God of my father, said he, was my help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh:)

5 And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife unto Moses into the wilderness, where he encamped at the mount of God:

6 And he said unto Moses, I thy father-in-law Jethro am come unto thee, and thy wife, and her two sons with her.

7 And Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and did obeisance, and kissed him: and they asked each other of their welfare: and they came into the tent.

8 And Moses told his father-in-law all that the LORD had done unto Pharaoh, and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, and all the travail that had come upon them by the way, and how the LORD delivered them.

9 And Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness which the LORD had done to Israel, whom he had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians.

10 And Jethro said, Blessed be the LORD, who hath delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh, who hath delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.

11 Now I know that the LORD is greater than all God's: for in the thing wherein they dealt proudly, he was above them.

12 And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took a burnt-offering and sacrifices for God: and Aaron came, and all the elders of Israel to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law before God.

13 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses sat to judge the people: and the people stood by Moses from the morning unto the evening.

14 And when Moses' father-in-law saw all that he did to the people, he said, What is this thing that thou doest to the people? Why sittest thou thyself alone, and all the people stand by thee from morning unto even?

15 And Moses said unto his father-in-law, Because the people come unto me to inquire of God:

16 When they have a matter, they come unto me, and I judge between one and another, and I do make them know the statutes of God, and his laws.

17 And Moses' father-in-law said unto him, The thing that thou doest is not good.

18 Thou wilt surely wear away, both thou, and this people that is with thee: for this thing is too heavy for thee; thou art not able to perform it thyself alone.

19 Hearken now unto my voice, I will give thee counsel, and God shall be with thee: Be thou for the people to God-ward, that thou mayest bring the causes unto God:

20 And thou shalt teach them ordinances and laws, and shalt shew them the way wherein they must walk, and the work that they must do.

21 Moreover, thou shalt provide out of all the people, able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens:

22 And let them judge the people at all seasons: and it shall be, that every great matter they shall bring unto thee, but every small matter they shall judge: so shall it be easier for thyself, and they shall bear the burden with thee.

23 If thou shalt do this thing, and God command thee so, then thou shalt be able to endure, and all this people shall also go to their place in peace.

24 So Moses hearkened to the voice of his father-in-law, and did all that he had said.

25 And Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

26 And they judged the people at all seasons: the hard causes they brought unto Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves.

27 And Moses let his father-in-law depart: and he went his way into his own land.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 The people come to Sinai...3 God's message by Moses unto the people out of the mount...12 The mountain must not be touched. 16 The presence of God upon the mount.

IN the third month, when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day came they into the wilderness of Sinai.

2 For they were departed from Rephidim, and were come to the desert of Sinai, and had pitched in the wilderness; and there Israel encamped before the mount.

3 And Moses went up unto God, and the LORD called unto him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel;

4 Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I bear you on eagles' wings, and brought you unto myself.

5 Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine:

6 And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

7 And Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before their faces all these words which the LORD commanded him.

8 And all the people answered together, and said, All that the LORD hath spoken we will do. And Moses returned the words of the people unto the LORD.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, Lo, I come unto thee in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with thee, and believe thee for ever. And Moses told the words of the people unto the LORD.

10 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go unto the people, and sanctify them to-day and to-morrow, and let them wash their clothes, 11 And be ready against the third day: for the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai.

12 And thou shalt set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves, that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it: whosoever toucheth the mount shall be surely put to death:

13 There shall not a hand touch it, but he shall surely be stoned or shot through: whether it be beast or man, it shall not live: when the trumpet soundeth long, they shall come up to the mount.

Before CHRIST 1491. sell her unto a strange nation he shall have no power, seeing he hath dealt deceitfully with her 9 And if he have betrothed her unto his son, he shall deal with her after the manner of daughters.

10 If he take him another wife; her food, her raiment, and her duty of marriage shall he not diminish.

11 And if he do not these three unto her, then shall she go out free without money.

12 ¶ He that smiteth a man, so that he die, shall be surely put to death.

13 And if a man lie not in wait, but God deliver him into his hand; then I will appoint thee a place whither he shall flee.

14 But if a man come presumptuously upon his neighbour, to slay him with guile; thou shalt take him from mine altar, that he may die.

15 And he that smiteth his father, or his mother, shall be surely put to death.

16 ¶ And he that stealeth a man, and selleth him, or if he be found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death.

17 ¶ And he that curseth his father or his mother, shall surely be put to death.

18 ¶ And if men strive together, and one smite another with a stone, or with his fist, and he die not, but keepeth his bed:

19 If he rise again, and walk abroad upon his staff, then shall he that smote him be quit: only he shall pay for the loss of his time, and shall cause him to be thoroughly healed.

20 ¶ And if a man smite his servant, or his maid, with a rod, and he die under his hand; he shall be surely punished.

21 Notwithstanding, if he continue a day or two, he shall not be punished: for he is his money.

22 ¶ If men strive, and hurt a woman with child, so that her fruit depart from her, and yet no mischief follow: he shall be surely punished, according as the woman's husband will lay upon him; and he shall pay as the judges determine.

23 And if any mischief follow, then thou shalt give life for life,

24 Eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,

25 Burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

26 And if a man smite the eye of his servant, or the eye of his maid, that it perish; he shall let him go free for his eye's sake.

27 And if he smite out his man-servant's tooth, or his maid-servant's tooth; he shall let him go free for his tooth's sake.

28 ¶ If an ox gore a man or a woman, that they die; then the ox shall be surely stoned, and his flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall be quit.

29 But if the ox were wont to push with his horn in time past, and it hath been testified to his owner, and he hath not kept him in, but that he hath killed a man or a woman; the ox shall be stoned, and his owner also shall be put to death.

30 If there be laid on him a sum of money, then he shall give for the ransom of his life whatsoever is laid upon him.

31 Whether he have gored a son, or have gored a daughter, according to this judgment shall it be done unto him

32 If the ox shall push a man-servant, or a maid-servant; he shall give unto their master thirty shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.

33 ¶ And if a man shall open a pit, or if a man shall dig a pit, and not cover it, and an ox or an ass fall therein;

34 The owner of the pit shall make it good, and give money unto the owner of them; and the dead beast shall be his.

35 ¶ And if one man's ox hurt another's, that he die, then they shall sell the live ox, and divide the money of it, and the dead ox also they shall divide.

36 Or if it be known that the ox hath used to push in time past, and his owner hath not kept him in; he shall surely pay ox for ox, and the dead shall be his own.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 Of theft and other offences....29 Of the first fruits.

IF a man shall steal an ox, or a sheep, and kill it, or sell it; he shall restore five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep.

2 If a thief be found breaking up, and be smitten that he die, there shall no blood be shed for him.

3 If the sun be risen upon him there shall be blood shed for him: for he should make full restitution; if he have nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft.

4 If the theft be certainly found in his hand alive, whether it be ox, or ass, or sheep, he shall restore double.

5 ¶ If a man shall cause a field or vineyard to be eaten, and shall put in his beast, and shall feed in another man's field: of the best of his own field, and of the best of his own vineyard shall he make restitution.

6 If fire break out, and catch in thorns, so that the stacks of corn, or the standing corn, or the field be consumed therewith; he that kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.

7 ¶ If a man shall deliver unto his neighbour money or stuff to keep, and it be stolen out of the man's house; if the thief be found, let him pay double.

8 If the thief be not found, then the master of the house shall be brought unto the judges, to see whether he have put his hand unto his neighbour's goods.

9 For all manner of trespass, whether it be for ox, for ass, for sheep, for raiment, or for any manner of lost thing which another challengeth to be his: the cause of both parties shall come before the judges; and whom the judges shall condemn, he shall pay double unto his neighbour.

10 If a man deliver unto his neighbour an ass, or an ox, or a sheep, or any beast to keep; and it die, or be hurt, or driven away, no man seeing it:

11 Then shall an oath of the LORD be between them both, that he hath not put his hand unto his neighbour's goods; and the owner of it shall accept thereof, and he shall not make it good.

12 And if it be stolen from him, he shall make restitution unto the owner thereof.

13 If it be torn in pieces; then let him bring it for witness, and he shall not make good that which was torn.

14 ¶ And if a man borrow ought of his neighbour, and it be hurt, or die, the owner thereof being not with it, he shall surely make it good.

15 But if the owner thereof be with it, he shall not make it good: if it be a hired thing, it came for his hire.

17 If her father utterly refuse to give her unto him, he shall pay money according to the dowry of virgins.

18 ¶ Thou shalt not suffer^a a witch to live.

19 ¶ Whosoever^o lieth with a beast shall surely be put to death.

20 ¶ He that sacrificeth unto^p any god, save unto the LORD only, he shall be^q utterly destroyed.

21 ¶ Thou shalt neither^r vex a stranger, nor oppress him: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

22 Ye shall not afflict any^s widow, or fatherless child.

23 If thou afflict them in any wise, and they cry at all unto me, I will surely^t hear their cry;

24 And my wrath shall wax hot, and I will kill you with the sword; and^u your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.

25 ¶ If thou lend money to any of^x my people that is poor by thee, thou shalt not be to him as a^y usurer, neither shalt thou lay upon him usury.

26 ¶ If thou at all take thy neighbour's raiment to pledge, thou shalt deliver it unto him by that the sun goeth down:

27 For that is his covering only, it is his raiment for his skin: wherein shall he sleep? and it shall come to pass, when he crieth unto me, that I will hear; for I am gracious.

28 ¶ Thou shalt not revile the gods, nor curse the ruler of thy people.

29 ¶ Thou shalt not delay to offer the^a first of thy ripe fruits, and of thy liquors: the^b first-born of thy sons shalt thou give unto me.

30 Likewise shalt thou do with thine oxen, and with thy sheep: seven days it shall be with his dam; on the eighth day thou shalt give it me.

31 And ye shall be^c holy men unto me: neither shall ye eat any flesh that is^d torn of beasts in the field; ye shall^e cast it to the dogs.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 Of slander and false witness....3, 6 Of justice....4 Of charitableness.
10 Of the year of rest....12 Of the Sabbath....13 Of idolatry....14
Of the three feasts....18 Of the blood and the fat of the sacrifice....
20 An Angel is promised.

THOU shalt not^g raise a false report: ^a put not thy hand with the wicked to be an^b unrighteous witness.

2 Thou shalt not follow^c a multitude to do evil; neither shalt thou speak in a cause to decline after many to wrest judgment:

3 ¶ Neither shalt thou^d countenance a poor man in his cause.

4 ¶ If thou meet thine enemy's ox or his ass going astray, thou shalt surely^e bring it back to him again.

5 If thou see the ass of him that hateth thee lying under^f his burden, and wouldest forbear to help him, thou shalt surely help with him.

6 ¶ Thou shalt not wrest the judgment of^g thy poor in his cause.

7^h Keep thee far from a false matter; and the innocent and righteous slay thou not: for I willⁱ not justify the wicked.

8 And thou shalt take^k no gift; for the gift blindeth^l the wise, and^m perverteth the words of the righteous.

9 Also thou shalt not oppress a stranger: for ye know the heart of a stranger, seeing ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

10 Andⁿ six years thou shalt sow thy land, and shalt gather in the fruits thereof.

11 But the seventh year thou shalt letⁿ it rest and lie still; that the poor of thy people may eat: and what they leave the beasts of the field shall eat. In like manner thou shalt deal with thy vineyard, and with thy oliveyard.

12 ¶ Six days thou shalt do thy work, and on the seventh day thou shalt rest: that thine ox and thine ass may rest; and the son of thy handmaid, and the stranger, may be refreshed.

13 ¶ And in all things that I have said unto you, be^o circumspect: and make no mention of the^p name of other gods, neither let it be heard out of thy mouth.

14 ¶ Three times thou shalt keep^a a feast unto me in the year.

15 Thou shalt keep the feast of unleavened bread. (thou shalt eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded thee, in the time appointed of the month Abib; for in it thou camest out from Egypt; and none shall^q appear before me empty:)

16 And the feast of harvest, the first-fruits of thy labours, which thou hast sown in the field: and the feast of ingathering, which is in the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the field.

17 Three times in the year^r all thy males shall appear before the LORD God.

18 ¶ Thou shalt^s not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread: neither shall the fat of my sacrifice remain until the morning.

19 The first of the first-fruits of thy land thou shalt bring into the^t house of the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not^u seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

20 ¶ Behold, I send^v an Angel before thee, ^z to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the^a place which I have prepared:

21 Beware of him, and obey his voice, provoke him not; for he will^b not pardon your transgressions: for my name is^c in him.

22 But if thou shalt indeed^d obey his voice, and do all that I speak; then I will be^e an enemy unto thine enemies, and an adversary unto thine adversaries.

23 For mine Angel shall go^f before thee, and bring thee in unto the^g Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites; and I will cut them off.

24 Thou shalt not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do^h after their works: but thou shalt utterly overthrow them, and quite break down their images.

25 And ye shall serve the LORD your God, and he shall blessⁱ thy bread, and thy water; and I will take^k sickness away from the midst of thee.

26 There shall nothing^l cast their young, nor be barren, in thy land: the number of thy days I will^m fulfil.

27 I will sendⁿ my fear before thee, and will destroy all the people to whom thou shalt come, and I will make all thine enemies turn their backs unto thee.

28 And I will send^o hornets before thee, which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite from before thee.

29 I will not drive them out from before thee in one year; lest the land become desolate, and the beast of the field multiply against thee.

30 By little and little I will drive them out from before thee, until thou be increased, and inherit the land:

31 And I will set thy bounds from the Red sea

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Moses is called up into the mountain....4 Moses buildeth an altar, and twelve pillars....6 He sprinkleth the blood of the covenant....
9 The glory of God appeareth....15 Moses continueth forty days and forty nights in the mount.

AND he said unto Moses, Come up unto the LORD, ^a thou, and Aaron, ^b Nadab, and Abihu, and ^c seventy of the elders of Israel; and worship ^d ye afar off.

2 And Moses ^e alone shall come near the LORD: but they shall not come nigh; neither shall the people go up with him.

3 ¶ And Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD, and all the judgments: and all the people answered with one voice, and said, All the words which the LORD hath said ^f will we do.

4 ¶ And Moses ^g wrote all the words of the LORD, and rose up early in the morning, and builded ^h an altar under the hill, and twelve ⁱ pillars according to the ^k twelve tribes of Israel.

5 And he sent ^l young men of the children of Israel, which offered burnt-offerings, and sacrificed ^m peace-offerings of ⁿ oxen unto the LORD.

6 ¶ And Moses took half of the blood, and put ^o it in basons; and half of the blood he sprinkled ^p on the altar.

7 And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people: and they said, All that the LORD hath said will we do, and be obedient.

8 And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled ^q it ^r on the people, and said, ^s Behold the blood of the covenant, which the LORD hath made with you concerning all these words.

9 ¶ Then went up Moses, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel:

10 And they ^t saw the God of Israel: and ^u there was under his feet as it were a paved work of a ^v sapphire-stone, and as it were the ^w body of heaven in ^x his clearness.

11 And upon the ^y nobles of the children of Israel he ^z laid not his hand: also they saw God, and ^a did eat and drink.

12 And the LORD said unto Moses, Come up to me into the mount, and be there: and I will give thee ^b tables of stone, and a law, and commandments which I have written; that thou mayest teach them.

13 And Moses rose up, and his minister Joshua: and Moses went up into the mount of God.

14 ¶ And he said unto the elders, Tarry ye here for us, until we come again unto you: and behold, Aaron and Hur ^c are with you: if any man have any matters to do, let him come unto them.

15 ¶ And Moses went up into the mount, and ^d a cloud covered the mount.

16 And the glory of the LORD abode upon mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days: and the seventh day he called unto Moses out of the midst of the cloud.

17 And the sight of the glory of the LORD was like devouring fire on the top of the mount in the eyes of the children of Israel.

18 And Moses went into the midst of the cloud, and gat him up into the mount: and Moses was in the mount ^e forty days and forty nights.

CHAPTER XXV.

1 What the Israelites must offer for the making of the tabernacle....
10 The form of the ark....17 The mercy-seat with the cherubims
....23 The table with the furniture thereof.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto the children of Israel, that they ^f bring me an offering: of every man that giveth it ^g willingly with his heart ye shall take my offering.

3 And this ^h is the offering which ye shall take of them; ⁱ gold, and silver, and brass,

4 And ^j blue, and purple, and ^k scarlet, and fine ^l linen, and ^m goats' hair,

5 And rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and shittim-wood,

6 Oil for the ⁿ light, spices for anointing oil, and for sweet incense,

7 Onyx-stones, and stones to be set in the ^o ephod, and in the breast-plate.

8 And let them make me ^p a sanctuary; that I ^q may dwell among them.

9 According to all that I shew thee, ^r after the pattern of the tabernacle, and the pattern of all the instruments thereof, even so shall ye make ^s it.

10 ¶ And they shall make ^t an ark of shittim-wood: two cubits and a half ^u shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

11 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, within and without shalt thou overlay it, and shalt make upon it a crown of gold round about.

12 And thou shalt cast four rings of gold for it, and put ^v them in the four corners thereof; and two rings ^w shall be in the one side of it, and two rings in the other side of it.

13 And thou shalt make staves of shittim-wood, and overlay them with gold.

14 And thou shalt put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, that the ark may be ^x borne with them.

15 The staves shall be in the rings of the ark: they shall not be taken from it.

16 And thou shalt put into the ark the ^y testimony which I shall give thee.

17 ¶ And thou shalt make ^z a mercy-seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half ^a shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof.

18 And thou shalt make two cherubims of gold, of beaten work shalt thou make them, in the two ends of the mercy-seat.

19 And make one cherub on the one end, and the other cherub on the other end: ^b even of the mercy-seat shall ye make the cherubims on the two ends thereof.

20 And the cherubims shall stretch forth ^c their wings on high, ^d covering the mercy-seat with their wings, and their faces ^e shall look one to another: toward the mercy-seat shall the faces of the cherubims be.

21 And thou shalt put the mercy-seat above upon the ark; and in the ark thou shalt put the ^f testimony that I shall give thee.

22 And there I will ^g meet with thee, and I will commune with thee from above the mercy-seat, from between the two cherubims which ^h are upon the ark of the testimony, of all ⁱ things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel.

Before
1491

23 ¶ Thou shalt also make a table of shittim-wood: two cubits shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

24 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, and make thereto a crown of gold round about.

25 And thou shalt make unto it a border of a hand-breadth round about, and thou shalt make a golden crown to the border thereof round about.

26 And thou shalt make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings in the four corners that are on the four feet thereof.

27 Over against the border shall the rings be for places of the staves to bear the table.

28 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim-wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be borne with them.

29 And thou shalt make the [†] dishes thereof, and ^u spoons thereof, and ^{*} covers thereof, and bowls thereof, to cover withal: of ⁷ pure gold shalt thou make them.

30 And thou shalt set upon the table [†] shew-bread before me always.

31 ¶ And thou shalt make ^z a candlestick ^a of pure gold: of beaten work shall the candlestick be made: his shaft, and his branches, his bowls, his knops, and his ^b flowers, shall be of the same.

32 And six branches shall come out of the sides of it; three branches of the candlestick out of the one side, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side:

33 Three bowls made ^c like unto almonds, with a knop and a flower in one branch; and three bowls made like almonds in the other branch, with a knop and a flower: so in the six branches that come out of the candlestick.

34 And in the candlestick shall be four bowls made like unto almonds, with their knops and their flowers.

35 And there shall be a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches that proceed out of the candlestick.

36 Their knops and their branches shall be of the same: all of it shall be one beaten work of pure gold.

37 And thou shalt make the ^d seven lamps thereof: and they shall light the lamps thereof, that they may give ^e light over against it.

38 And the tongs thereof, and the snuff-dishes thereof, shall be of pure gold.

39 Of a talent of pure gold shall he make it, with all these vessels.

40 And ^f look that thou make them after their ^g pattern, which was shewed thee in the mount.

CHAPTER XXVI.

Directions for the Tabernacle.

MOREOVER, thou shalt make the ^a tabernacle with ten curtains of fine ^b twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with ^c cherubims of [†] cunning work shalt thou make them.

2 The length of one curtain shall be eight and twenty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: and every one of the curtains shall have one measure.

3 The five curtains shall be coupled together [†] one to another; and other five curtains shall be coupled one to another.

4 And thou shalt make loops of blue upon the edge of the one curtain from the selvedge in the coupling; and likewise shalt thou make in the uttermost edge of another curtain, in the coupling of the second.

5 Fifty loops shalt thou make in the one curtain, and fifty loops shalt thou make in the edge of the curtain that is in the coupling of the second; that the loops may take hold one of another.

6 And thou shalt make fifty taches of gold, and couple the curtains together with the taches: and it shall be ^d one tabernacle.

7 ¶ And thou shalt make curtains of goats' hair to be a covering upon the tabernacle: ^e eleven curtains shalt thou make.

8 The length of one curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: and the eleven curtains shall be all of one measure.

9 And thou shalt couple five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves, and shalt double the sixth curtain in the fore-front of the tabernacle.

10 And thou shalt make fifty loops on the edge of the one curtain that is outmost in the coupling, and fifty loops in the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second.

11 And thou shalt make fifty taches of brass, and put the taches into the loops, and couple the tent together that it may be one.

12 And the remnant that remaineth of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remaineth, shall hang over the back side of the tabernacle.

13 And a cubit on the one side, and a cubit on the other side of that which remaineth in the length of the curtains of the tent, it shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle on this side and on that side, to cover it.

14 ¶ And thou shalt make ^f a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering above of badgers' skins.

15 ¶ And thou shalt make ^g boards for the tabernacle of shittim-wood standing up.

16 Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and a cubit and a half shall be the breadth of one board.

17 Two tenons shall there be in one board, set in order one against another: thus shalt thou make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

18 And thou shalt make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards on the south side southward.

19 And thou shalt make forty ^h sockets of silver under the twenty boards: two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

20 And for the second side of the tabernacle on the north side there shall be twenty boards.

21 And their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

22 And for the sides of the tabernacle [†] westward thou shalt make six boards.

23 And two boards shalt thou make for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.

24 And they shall be ⁱ coupled together beneath, and they shall be coupled together above the head of it unto one ring: thus shall it be for them both; they shall be for the two corners.

25 And they shall be eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

26 And thou shalt make ^k bars of shittim-wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle,

4 And thou shalt make for it ^h a grate of net-work of brass; and upon the net shalt thou make four brazen rings in the four corners thereof.

5 And thou shalt put it under ⁱ the compass of the altar beneath, that the net may be even to the midst of the altar.

6 And thou shalt make staves for the altar, staves of shittim-wood, and overlay them with brass.

7 And the staves shall be put into the rings, and the staves shall be upon the two sides of the altar, to bear it.

8 Hollow with boards shalt thou make it: as ^j it was shewed thee in the mount, so shall they make it.

9 ¶ And thou shalt make the ^k court of the tabernacle: for the south side southward there shall be hangings for the court of fine twined linen of a hundred cubits long for one side:

10 And the twenty ^k pillars thereof: and their twenty sockets shall be of brass: the hooks of the pillars and their fillets shall be of silver.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 Aaron and his sons are set apart for the priest's office. ...2 Holy garments are appointed. ...30 The Urim and Thummim. ...31 The robe of the ephod. ...40 The garments for Aaron's sons.

AND take thou unto thee Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may ^r minister unto me in the priest's office, even Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's sons.

2 ¶ And thou shalt make ^b holy garments for Aaron thy brother, for ^c glory and for beauty.

3 And thou shalt speak unto all that are ^d wise-hearted, ^e whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they may make Aaron's garments to consecrate him, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office.

4 And these are the garments which they shall make; a breast-plate, and ^f an ephod, ^g and a robe, and a broidered coat, ^h a mitre, and a girdle: and they shall make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, and his sons, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office.

5 And they shall take ⁱ gold, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen.

6 ¶ And they shall make the ephod of gold, of blue, and of purple, of scarlet, and fine twined linen, with cunning work.

7 It shall have the two shoulder-pieces thereof joined at the two edges thereof; and so it shall be joined together.

8 And the ^k curious girdle of the ephod which is upon it, shall be of the same, according to the work thereof; even of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 And thou shalt take two onyx-stones, and grave on them the names of the children of Israel:

10 Six of their names on one stone, and the other six names of the rest on the other stone, according to ¹ their birth.

11 With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, shalt thou ^m engrave the two stones with the names of the children of Israel: thou shalt make them to be set in ouches of gold.

12 And thou shalt put the two stones upon the shoulders of the ephod for stones of ^a memorial unto the children of Israel: and Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD upon his two ^o shoulders for a memorial.

13 And thou shalt make ouches of gold;

14 And two ^p chains of pure gold at the ends; of wreathen work shalt thou make them, and fasten the wreathen chains to the ouches.

15 ¶ And thou shalt make the ^a breast-plate of judgment with cunning work; after the work of the ephod thou shalt make it; of gold, of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine twined linen shalt thou make it.

16 Four-square it shall be, being doubled: a span shall be the length thereof, and a span shall be the breadth thereof.

17 And thou shalt set in it settings of stones, even four rows of stones; the first row shall be a ^r sardius, ^s a topaz, and a ^t carbuncle: this shall be the first row.

18 And the second row shall be an ^u emerald, ^x a sapphire, and a ^y diamond.

19 And the third row a ^z ligure, an ^a agate, and an ^b amethyst.

20 And the fourth row a ^c beryl, and an ^d onyx, and a ^e jasper: they shall be set in gold in their inclosings.

21 And the stones shall be with the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet; every one with his name shall they be according to the twelve tribes.

22 And thou shalt make upon the breast-plate chains at the ends of wreathen work of pure gold.

23 And thou shalt make upon the breast-plate two rings of gold, and shalt put the two rings on the two ends of the breast-plate.

24 And thou shalt put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings which are on the ends of the breast-plate.

25 And the other two ends of the two wreathen chains thou shalt fasten in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod before it.

26 And thou shalt make two rings of gold, and thou shalt put them upon the two ends of the breast-plate in the border thereof, which is in the side of the ephod inward.

27 And two other rings of gold thou shalt make, and shalt put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward the fore-part thereof, over against the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod.

28 And they shall bind the breast-plate by the rings thereof unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it may be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breast-plate be not loosed from the ephod.

29 And Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel in the breast-plate of judgment ^f upon his heart, when he goeth in unto the holy place, for a memorial before the LORD continually.

30 ¶ And thou shalt put in the breast-plate of judgment the ¶ Urim and the Thummim; and they shall be upon Aaron's heart, when he goeth in before the LORD: and Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel upon his heart before the LORD continually.

31 ¶ And thou shalt make the robe of the ephod all of blue.

32 And there shall be a hole in the top of it, in the midst thereof: it shall have a binding of ^h woven work round about the hole of it, as it were the hole of a habergeon, that ⁱ it be not rent.

33 And beneath, upon the hem of it thou shalt make ^k pomegranates of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, round about the hem thereof; and bells of gold between them round about:

34 A golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, upon the hem of the robe round about.

35 And it shall be upon Aaron, to minister: and his ^l sound shall be heard when he ^m goeth in unto the holy place before the LORD, and when he cometh out, that he die not.

36 ¶ And thou shalt make a plate of pure gold, and grave upon it like the engravings of a signet, ⁿ HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

37 And thou shalt put it on a blue lace, that it may be upon the mitre; upon the fore-front of the mitre it shall be.

38 And it shall be upon Aaron's forehead, that Aaron may ^o bear the iniquity of the holy things, which the children of Israel shall hallow in all their holy gifts; and it shall be always upon his forehead, that they may be accepted before the LORD.

39 And thou shalt embroider the ^p coat of fine linen, and thou shalt make the mitre of fine linen, and thou shalt make the ^q girdle of needle-work.

40 And for Aaron's sons thou shalt make ^r coats, and thou shalt make for them girdles, and ^s bonnets shalt thou make for them, for glory and for beauty.

41 And thou shalt put them upon Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him: and shalt anoint them, and consecrate them, and sanctify them, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office.

42 And thou shalt make them linen breeches to cover their ^t nakedness: from the loins even unto the ^u thighs they shall reach:

43 And they shall be upon Aaron, and upon his sons, when they come in unto the tabernacle of the congregation, or when they come near unto the altar to minister in the holy place; that they ^x bear not iniquity and die. It shall be a statute for ever unto him, and his seed after him.

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 The sacrifice and ceremonies of consecrating the priests...38 The continual burnt-offering...45 God's promise to dwell among the children of Israel.

AND this is the thing that thou shalt do unto them to hallow them, to minister unto me in the priest's office: Take one young bullock, and two rams ^a without blemish,

2 And ^b unleavened bread, and cakes unleavened tempered ^c with oil, and wafers unleavened anointed with oil: of ^d wheaten flour shalt thou make them.

3 And thou shalt put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bullock and the two rams.

4 And Aaron and his sons thou shalt bring unto the door of the ^e tabernacle of the congregation, and shalt ^f wash them with water.

5 And thou shalt take the garments, and ^eput upon Aaron the coat, and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breast-plate, and ^hgird him with the curious girdle of the ephod :

6 And thou shalt put the ⁱmitre upon his head, and put the ^kholy crown upon the mitre.

7 Then shalt thou take the anointing oil, and pour it upon his head, and ^lanoint him.

8 And thou shalt bring his sons, and put coats upon them.

9 And thou shalt gird them with girdles (Aaron and his sons) and put the bonnets on them; and the priest's office shall be theirs for a perpetual statute: and thou shalt ^mconsecrate Aaron and his sons.

10 And thou shalt cause a bullock to be brought before the tabernacle of the congregation; and Aaron and his sons shall ⁿput their hands upon the head of the bullock.

11 And thou shalt kill the bullock before the LORD, by the ^odoor of the tabernacle of the congregation.

12 And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and put it upon the horns of the ^paltar with thy ^qfinger, and pour all the blood beside the bottom of the altar.

13 And thou shalt take all the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul that is above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the ^rfat that is upon them, and burn them upon the altar.

14 But the flesh of the bullock, and his skin, and his dung, shalt thou burn with fire ^swithout the camp: it is a sin-offering.

15 Thou shalt also take one ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

16 And thou shalt slay the ram, and thou shalt take his blood, and sprinkle it round about upon the altar.

17 And thou shalt cut the ram in pieces, and ^twash the inwards of him, and his legs, and put them unto his pieces, and unto his head.

18 And thou shalt ^uburn the whole ram upon the altar: it is a burnt-offering unto the LORD: it is a sweet savour, an offering made by ^vfire unto the LORD.

19 And thou shalt take the other ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put ^ztheir hands upon the head of the ram.

20 Then shalt thou kill the ram, and take of his blood, and put it upon the ^atip of the right ear of Aaron, and upon the tip of the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumb of their right ^bhand, and upon the great toe of their right ^cfoot, and sprinkle the blood upon the ^daltar round about.

21 And thou shalt take of the blood that is upon the altar, and of ^ethe anointing oil, and ^fsprinkle it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon the garments of his sons with him: and he shall be hallowed, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.

22 Also thou shalt take of the ram the fat and the rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the ^gright shoulder: for it is a ram of consecration:

23 And one ^hloaf of bread, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of the unleavened bread, that is before the LORD.

24 And thou shalt put all in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons; and shalt ⁱwave them for a wave-offering before the LORD.

25 And thou shalt receive them of their hands, and burn them upon the altar for a burnt-offering, for ^ka sweet savour before the LORD: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

26 And thou shalt take the breast of the ram of Aaron's consecration, and wave it for a wave-offering before the LORD: and it shall be ^lthy part.

27 And thou shalt sanctify the breast of the wave-offering, and the shoulder of the ^mheave-offering, which is waved, and which is heaved up, of the ram of the consecration, even of that which is for Aaron, and of that which is for his sons:

28 And it shall be Aaron's and his sons' by a statute ⁿfor ever, from the children of Israel: for it is a heave-offering: and it shall be a heave-offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifice of their peace-offerings, even their heave-offering unto the LORD.

29 And the holy garments of Aaron shall be his sons' after him, to be ^oanointed therein, and to be consecrated in them.

30 And that son that is priest in his stead shall put them on ^pseven days, when he cometh into the tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the holy place.

31 And thou shalt take the ram of the consecration, and seethe his flesh in the ^qholy place.

32 And ^rAaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

33 And they shall eat those things wherewith the ^satonement was made, to consecrate and to sanctify them: but ^ta stranger shall not eat thereof, because they are holy.

34 And if aught of the flesh of the consecrations, or of the bread, remain unto the morning, then thou shalt burn the ^uremainder with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is holy.

35 And thus shalt thou do unto Aaron, and to his sons, according to all things which I have commanded thee: seven days shalt thou consecrate them.

36 And thou shalt offer every day a bullock for a sin-offering for ^xatonement; and thou shalt ^ycleanse the altar, when thou hast made an atonement for it, and thou shalt anoint it, to sanctify it.

37 Seven days thou shalt make an atonement for the altar, and sanctify it; and it shall be an altar ^zmost holy: whatsoever ^atoucheth the altar shall be holy.

38 ¶ Now this is that which thou shalt offer upon the altar; two lambs of the first year ^bday by day continually.

39 The one lamb thou shalt offer in the morning; and the other lamb thou shalt offer ^cat even:

40 And with the one lamb a tenth-deal of flour mingled with ^dthe fourth part of a hin of beaten oil: and the fourth part of a hin of wine for a drink-offering.

41 And the other lamb thou shalt offer at even, and shalt do thereto according to the meat-offering of the morning, and according to the drink-offering thereof, for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

42 This shall be a ^econtinual burnt-offering throughout your generations at the ^fdoor of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD: where I will ^gmeet you to speak there unto thee.

43 And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and the tabernacle shall be sanctified ^hby my glory.

4 And he received them at their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool, after he had made it a^h molten calf: and they said, These *be*ⁱ thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

5 And when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation, and said, Tomorrow is a^k feast to the LORD.

6 And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt-offerings, and brought peace-offerings: and the people^l sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

7 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, ^m Go, get thee down: for thyⁿ people, which thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt, have^o corrupted themselves:

8 They have^p turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed thereunto, and said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which have brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, I have seen this people, and behold, it is a^q stiff-necked people:

10 Now therefore^r let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and I will make of thee^s a great nation.

11 ¶ And Moses besought the LORD his God, and said, LORD, ^t why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand?

12 ^u Wherefore should the Egyptians speak and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and^x repent of this evil against thy people.

13 ^y Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, thy servants, to whom thou swarest^z by thine own self, and saidst unto them, ^a I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it for ever.

14 And the^b LORD repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people.

15 ¶ And Moses turned, and went down from the^c mount, and the two tables of the testimony were in his hand: the tables were written on both their sides; on the one side and^d on the other were they written.

16 And the tables were the^e work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, graven upon the tables.

17 And when^f Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said unto Moses, There is a noise of war in the camp.

18 And he said, It is not the voice of them that shout for mastery, neither is it the voice of them that cry for being overcome: but the noise of them that sing do I hear.

19 ¶ And it came to pass as soon as he came nigh unto the camp, that he saw the calf, and the dancing: and Moses^g anger waxed hot, and he cast the tables out of his hands, and^h brake them beneath the mount.

20 ¶ And he took the calf which they had made, and burnt it in the fire, andⁱ ground it to powder, and strewed it^k upon the water, and made the children of Israel^l drink of it.

21 And Moses said unto Aaron, What did this people unto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sin upon them?

22 ¶ And Aaron said, Let not the anger of my lord wax hot: thou knowest the people, that they^m are set on mischief.

23 For they said unto me, Make us gods which shall go before us: for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

24 And I said unto them, Whosoever hath any gold, let them break it off. So they gave it me: then I cast it into the fire, and there ⁿ came out this calf.

25 And when Moses saw that the people were ^o naked, (for Aaron had made them naked ^p unto their shame among [†] their enemies,)

26 Then Moses ^q stood in the gate of the camp, and said, ^r Who is on the LORD's side? let him come unto me. And all the ^s sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him.

27 And he said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Put every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and ^t slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour.

28 And the children of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about ^u three thousand men.

29 For Moses had said, ^x Consecrate yourselves to-day to the LORD, even every man upon his ^y son, and upon his brother; that he may bestow upon you a blessing this day.

30 ¹ And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses said unto the people, Ye have sinned a great sin: and now ^z I will go up unto the LORD; ^a peradventure I shall make an ^b atonement for your sin.

31 And Moses returned ^c unto the LORD, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made them gods of gold.

32 Yet now, ^d if thou wilt, forgive their sin: and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy ^e book which thou hast written.

33 And the LORD said unto Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, ^f him will I blot out of my book.

34 Therefore now ^g go, lead the people unto the place of which I have spoken unto thee: Behold, mine Angel shall go before thee: nevertheless, in the day when I visit, I will visit their sin upon them.

35 And the LORD plagued the people, because ^h they made the calf which Aaron made.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

1 The Lord refuseth to go, as he had promised, with the people....9 The Lord talketh familiarly with Moses....12 Moses desireth to see the glory of God.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Depart and go up hence, thou and the people which thou hast brought up out of the land of Egypt, unto the land which I swear unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, Unto thy ^a seed will I give it:

2 And I will send ^b an angel before thee; and I will drive out the ^c Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite and the Jebusite:

3 Unto a land flowing with ^d milk and honey: for I will ^e not go up in the midst of thee; for thou art ^f a stiff-necked people: lest I ^g consume thee in the way.

4 ¹ And when the people heard these evil tidings, they mourned: and no man did put on him his ornaments.

5 For the LORD had said unto Moses, Say unto the children of Israel, Ye are a stiff-necked people: I will come up into the midst of thee in a moment, and consume thee: therefore now ¹ put off thy ornaments from thee, that ^k I may know what to do unto thee.

6 And the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by the ^l mount Horeb

7 ¹ And Moses took the tabernacle, and pitched it without the camp afar ^m off from the camp, and called it the Tabernacle of the Congregation. And it came to pass, that every one which sought the LORD, went out unto the tabernacle of the congregation, which was without the camp.

8 And it came to pass when Moses went out unto the tabernacle, that all the people rose up, and stood every man ⁿ at his tent-door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone into the tabernacle.

9 ¹ And it came to pass, as Moses entered into the tabernacle, the cloudy pillar descended, and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and ^o the LORD talked with Moses.

10 And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the tabernacle-door: and all the people rose up and ^p worshipped, every man in his tent-door.

11 And the LORD spake unto Moses ^q face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. And he turned again into the camp: but his servant Joshua the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the tabernacle.

12 ¹ And Moses said unto the LORD, See, ^r thou sayest unto me, Bring up this people: and thou hast not let me know whom thou wilt send with me. Yet thou hast said, ^s I know thee by name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight.

13 Now therefore, I pray thee, if I have found grace in thy sight, shew me now ^t thy way, that I may know thee, that I may find grace in thy sight: and consider that this nation is ^u thy people.

14 And he said, ^x My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest.

15 And he said unto him, If ^y thy presence go not with me, carry us not up hence.

16 For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? Is it not in that thou goest with us? So shall we be ^z separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth.

17 And the LORD said unto Moses, ^a I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name.

18 And he said, I beseech thee, shew me ^b thy glory.

19 And he said, I will make all my ^c goodness pass before thee, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before thee; and will be gracious to whom I will be ^d gracious, and will shew ^e mercy on whom I will shew mercy.

20 And he said, Thou ^f canst not see my face: for there shall no man see me, ^g and live.

21 And the LORD said, Behold, there is a place by me, and thou shalt stand upon ^h a rock:

22 And it shall come to pass, while my glory passeth by, that I will put thee in ⁱ a cleft of the rock; and will cover ^k thee with ^l my hand while I pass by:

23 And I will take away my hand, and thou shalt see my ^m back parts: but my face shall ⁿ not be seen.

the morning unto mount Sinai, and present thyself there to me in the top of the mount.

3 And no man^e shall come up with thee, neither let any man be seen throughout all the mount: neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that mount.

4 And he hewed two tables of stone, like unto the first; and Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up unto mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tables of stone.

5 ¶ And the LORD descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD.

6 And the LORD passed by before him, and proclaimed, The LORD, The LORD God, merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth,

7 Keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, unto the third and to the fourth generation.

8 ¶ And Moses made haste, and bowed his head toward the earth, and worshipped.

9 And he said, If now I have found grace in thy sight, O LORD, let my Lord, I pray thee, go among us (for it is a stiff-necked people) and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for thine inheritance.

10 ¶ And he said, Behold, I make a covenant: before all thy people I will do marvels, such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation: and all the people among which thou art shall see the work of the LORD: for it is a terrible thing that I will do with thee.

11 Observe thou that which I command thee this day: Behold, I drive out before thee the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite.

12 Take heed to thyself, lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land whither thou goest, lest it be for a snare in the midst of thee:

13 But ye shall destroy their altars, break their images, and cut down their groves:

14 For thou shalt worship no other god: for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God:

15 Lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they go a whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice unto their gods, and one call thee, and thou eat of his sacrifice;

16 And thou take of their daughters unto thy sons, and their daughters go a whoring after their gods, and make thy sons go a whoring after their gods.

17 Thou shalt make thee no molten gods.

18 The feast of unleavened bread shalt thou keep. Seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread, as I commanded thee in the time of the month Abib: for in the month Abib thou camest out from Egypt.

19 All that openeth the matrix is mine: and every firstling among thy cattle, whether ox or sheep, that is male.

20 But the firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a lamb: and if thou redeem him not, then shalt thou break his neck. All the first-born of thy sons thou shalt redeem. And none shall appear before me empty.

21 Six days thou shalt work, but on the seventh day thou shalt rest: in earing-time and in harvest thou shalt rest.

22 And thou shalt observe the feast of weeks, of the first-fruits of wheat-harvest, and the feast of ingathering at the year's end.

23 Thrice in the year shall all your men-children appear before the LORD God, the God of Israel.

24 For I will cast out the nations before thee, and enlarge thy borders: neither shall any man desire thy land, when thou shalt go up to appear before the LORD thy God thrice in the year.

25 Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leaven, neither shall the sacrifice of the feast of the passover be left until the morning.

26 The first of the first-fruits of thy land thou shalt bring unto the house of the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

27 And the LORD said unto Moses, Write thou these words: for after the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with thee, and with Israel.

28 ¶ And he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he did neither eat bread nor drink water. And he wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant, the ten commandments.

29 ¶ And it came to pass when Moses came down from mount Sinai (with the two tables of testimony in Moses' hand, when he came down from the mount) that Moses wist not that the skin of his face shone, while He talked with him.

30 And when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come nigh him.

31 And Moses called unto them; and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned unto him: and Moses talked with them.

32 And afterward all the children of Israel came nigh: and he gave them in commandment all that the LORD had spoken with him in mount Sinai.

33 And till Moses had done speaking with them, he put a vail on his face.

34 But when Moses went in before the LORD to speak with him, he took the vail off, until he came out. And he came out and spake unto the children of Israel that which he was commanded.

35 And the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone: and Moses put the vail upon his face again, until he went in to speak with Him.

CHAPTER XXXV.

2 The sabbath....4 The free gifts for the tabernacle....30 Bezaleel and Aholiab are called to the work.

AND Moses gathered all the congregation of the children of Israel together, and said unto them, These are the words which the LORD hath commanded, that ye should do them.

2 ¶ Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be to you a holy day, a sabbath of rest to the LORD: whosoever doeth work therein shall be put to death.

3 Ye shall kindle no fire throughout your habitations upon the sabbath-day.

4 ¶ And Moses spake unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the LORD commanded, saying,

5 Take ye from among you an offering unto the LORD: whosoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it, an offering of the LORD; gold, and silver, and brass,

6 And blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goat's hair,

- 13 The ^q table, and his staves, and all his vessels, and the ^r shew-bread;
- 14 The candlestick also for the ^s light, and his furniture, and his lamps, with the oil for the light;
- 15 And the ^t incense-altar, and his staves, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging for the door at the entering in of the tabernacle;
- 16 The ^u altar of burnt-offering, with his brazen grate, his staves, and all his vessels, the laver and his ^x foot;
- 17 The ^y hangings of the court, his pillars, and their sockets, and the hanging for the door of the court;
- 18 The pins of the tabernacle, and the ^z pins of the court, and their cords;
- 19 The clothes of ^a service, to do service in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office.
- 20 ¶ And all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.
- 21 And they came, every one whose heart ^b stirred him up, and every one whom his spirit made willing, and they brought the LORD's offering to the work of the tabernacle of the congregation, and for all his service, and for the holy garments.
- 22 And they came, both men and women, as many as were willing-hearted, and brought ^c bracelets, and ear-rings, and rings, and tablets, all jewels of gold: and every man that ^d offered, offered an offering of gold unto the LORD.
- 23 And every man with whom was found blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair, and red skins of rams, and badgers' skins, brought them.
- 24 Every one that did offer an offering of silver and brass brought the LORD's offering: and every man with whom ^e was found shittim-wood for any work of the service, brought it.
- 25 And all the ^f women that were wise-hearted did ^g spin with their hands, and brought that which they had spun, both of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine linen.
- 26 And all the women whose heart stirred them up in wisdom spun goats' hair.
- 27 And the rulers brought onyx-stones, and stones to be set, for the ephod, and for the breast-plate;
- 28 And ^h spice, and oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense.
- 29 The children of Israel brought a willing offering unto the LORD, every man and woman, whose heart made them ⁱ willing to bring, for all manner of work ^j which the LORD had commanded to be made by the hand of Moses.
- 30 ¶ And Moses said unto the children of Israel, See, the LORD hath called by name ^k Bezaleel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah;
- 31 And ^l he hath filled him with the spirit of God,
- in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship;
- 32 And to devise curious works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass,
- 33 And in the cutting of stones, to set them, and in carving of wood, to make any manner of cunning work.
- 34 And he hath put in his heart that he may teach, both he, and ^m Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, ⁿ of the tribe of Dan.
- 35 Them hath he filled with wisdom of heart, to work all manner of work, of the engraver, and of ^o the cunning workman, and of the embroiderer, in ^p blue, and in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, even of them that do any work, and of those that ^q devise cunning work.
- CHAPTER XXXVI.
- The offerings are delivered to the workmen.
- 1490.
- THEN wrought Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise-hearted man, in whom the LORD put wisdom and understanding to know how to work ^a all manner of work for the service of the sanctuary, according to ^b all that the LORD had commanded.
- 2 And Moses called ^c Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise-hearted man, in whose heart the LORD had put wisdom, even every one whose heart stirred him up to come unto the work to do it:
- 3 And they received of Moses all the offering which the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, to make it ^d withal. And they brought yet unto him free-offerings every ^e morning.
- 4 And all ^f the wise men, that wrought all the work of the sanctuary, came every man from his work which they made;
- 5 ¶ And they spake unto Moses, saying, The people bring ^g much more than enough for the service of the work which the LORD commanded to make.
- 6 And Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman make any more work for the offering of the sanctuary. So the people were ^h restrained from bringing.
- 7 For the ⁱ stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much.
- 8 ¶ And every wise-hearted man among them that wrought the work of the ^j tabernacle made ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with ^k cherubims of cunning work made he them.
- 9 The length of one curtain was twenty and eight ^l cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: the curtains were all of one size.
- 10 And he coupled the five curtains one unto another: and the other five curtains he coupled one unto ^m another.
- 11 And he made loops of blue on the ⁿ edge of one curtain, from the selvedge in the coupling: likewise he made in the uttermost side of another curtain, in the coupling of the second.
- 12 ^o Fifty loops made he in one curtain, and fifty loops made he in the edge of the curtain which was in the coupling of the second: the loops held one curtain to another.
- 13 And he made fifty taches of gold, and coupled the curtains one unto another with the taches. So it became one tabernacle.
- 14 ¶ And he made curtains of goats' hair for the tent ^p over the tabernacle: eleven curtains he made them.

Before CHRIST 1490.
 15 The length of one curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits was the breadth of one curtain: the eleven curtains were of one size.
 16 And he coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves.
 17 And he made fifty loops upon the uttermost edge of the curtain in the coupling, and fifty loops made he upon the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second;
 18 And he made fifty taches of brass to couple the tent together, that it might be one.
 19 ¶ And he made a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of badgers' skins above that.
 20 ¶ And he made boards for the tabernacle of shittim-wood, standing up.
 21 The length of a board was ten cubits, and the breadth of a board one cubit and a half.
 22 One board had two † tenons, equally distant one from another: thus did he make for all the boards of the tabernacle.
 23 And he made boards for the tabernacle; twenty boards for the south side southward:
 24 And forty sockets of silver he made under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.
 25 And for the other side of the tabernacle which is toward the north corner, he made twenty boards,
 26 And their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.
 27 And for the sides of the tabernacle † westward he made six boards.
 28 And two boards made he for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.
 29 And they were † coupled beneath, and coupled together at the head thereof, to one ring: thus he did to both of them in both the corners.
 30 And there were eight boards; and their sockets were sixteen sockets of silver, under † every board two sockets.
 31 And he made bars of shittim-wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle,
 32 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle for the sides westward.
 33 And he made the middle bar to shoot through the boards from the one end to the other.
 34 And he overlaid the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold to be places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.
 35 ¶ And he made a vail of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: with cherubims made he it of cunning work.
 36 And he made thereunto four † pillars of shittim-wood, and overlaid them with gold: their hooks were of gold; and he cast for them four sockets of silver.
 37 And he made a hanging for the tabernacle-door of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, of † needle work;
 38 And the five pillars of it, with their hooks: and he overlaid their † chapiters and their † fillets with gold: but their five sockets were of brass.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

1 The ark....6 The mercy-seat with cherubims....10 The table with its vessels.

AND ¶ Bezaleel made the ark of shittim-wood: two cubits and a half was the length of it, and a cubit and a half the breadth of it, and a cubit and a half the height of it:

 2 And he overlaid it with pure gold ^b within and without, and made ^c a crown of gold to it round about.
 3 And he cast for it four rings of gold, to be set by the ^d four corners of it: even two rings upon the one side of it, and two rings upon the other side of it.
 4 And he made staves of shittim-wood, and overlaid them ^e with gold.
 5 And he put the ^f staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, to bear the ark.
 6 ¶ And he made the ^g mercy-seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half was the length thereof, and one cubit and a half the breadth thereof.
 7 And he made two cherubims of gold, beaten out of one piece made he them, on the two ends of the mercy-seat;
 8 One cherub on the end on this side, and another cherub on the other end on that side: out of the mercy-seat made he the cherubims on the two ends thereof.
 9 And the cherubims ^h spread out their wings on high, and covered with their wings over the mercy-seat, with their faces one to another; even to the mercy-seat-ward were the faces of the cherubims.
 10 ¶ And he made the table of shittim-wood: two cubits was the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof:
 11 And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made thereunto a crown of gold round about.
 12 Also he made thereunto a border of a hand-breadth round about: and made a crown of gold for the border thereof round about.
 13 And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings upon the four corners that were in the four feet thereof.
 14 Over against the border were the rings, the places for the staves to bear the table.
 15 And he made the staves of shittim-wood, and overlaid them with gold, to bear the table.
 16 And he made the vessels which were upon the table, his ⁱ dishes, and his ^j spoons, and his ^k bowls, and his covers to cover withal, of pure gold.
 17 ¶ And he made the ^l candlestick of pure gold; of beaten work made he the candlestick: his shaft, and his branch, his bowls, his knops, and his flowers were of the same:
 18 And six branches going out of the sides thereof; three branches of the candlestick out of the one side thereof, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side thereof:
 19 Three bowls made after the fashion of almonds in one branch, a knop and a flower; and three bowls made like almonds in another branch, a knop and a flower: so throughout the six branches going out of the candlestick.
 20 And in the candlestick were four bowls made like ^m almonds, his knops and his flowers:
 21 And a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches ⁿ going out of it.
 22 Their knops and their branches were of the same: all of it was one ^o beaten work of pure gold.
 23 And he made his ^p seven lamps, and his snuffers, and his snuff-dishes, of pure gold.
 24 Of a talent of pure gold made he it, and all the vessels thereof.
 25 ¶ And he made the ^q incense altar of shittim-

27 And he made two rings of gold for it under the crown thereof, by the two corners of it, upon the two sides thereof, to be places for the staves to bear it withal.

28 And he made the staves of shittim-wood and overlaid them with gold.

29 ¶ And he made the † holy anointing oil, and the pure ^u incense of sweet spices, according to the work of the apothecary.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

1 The altar of burnt-offering... 3 The laver of brass

AND he made the ^a altar of burnt-offering of shittim-wood: five cubits was the length thereof, and five cubits the breadth thereof; it was ^b four-square; and three cubits the height thereof.

2 And he made the ^c horns thereof on the four corners of it; the horns thereof were of the same: and he overlaid it with ^d brass.

3 And he made all the vessels of the altar, the pots, and the ^e shovels, and the basons, and the ^f flesh-hooks, and the fire-pans: all the vessels thereof made he of brass.

4 And he made for the altar ^g a brazen grate of net-work under the compass thereof beneath unto the midst of it.

5 And he cast four rings for the four ends of the ^h grate of brass, to be places for the staves.

6 And he made ⁱ the staves of ^k shittim-wood, and overlaid them with brass.

7 And he put the staves into the rings on the sides of the altar, to bear it withal; he made the altar hollow with boards.

8 ¶ And he made the ^l laver of brass, and the foot of it of brass, of the ^m looking-glasses of the women † assembling, which assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

9 ¶ And he made the court: on the south side southward the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen, a hundred cubits:

10 Their pillars were twenty, and their brazen sockets twenty; the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets, were of silver.

11 And for the north side, the hangings were a hundred cubits, their pillars were twenty, and their sockets of brass twenty: the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets, of silver.

12 And for the west side were hangings ⁿ of fifty cubits, their pillars ten, and their sockets ten; the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets, of silver.

13 And for the east side eastward fifty cubits.

14 The hangings of the ^o one side of the gate were fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three.

15 And for the other side of the court-gate, on this hand and that hand, were hangings of fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three.

16 All the hangings of the court round about were of fine twined linen.

17 And the sockets for the pillars were of brass; the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets, of silver; and the overlaying of their chapters of silver; and all the pillars of the court were filleted with silver.

18 And the hanging for the gate of the court was needle-work, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: and twenty cubits was the length, and the height in the breadth was five cubits, answerable to the hangings of the court.

19 And their pillars were four, and their sockets of brass four; their hooks of silver, and the overlaying of their chapters and their fillets of silver.

20 And all the || pins of the tabernacle, and of the court round about, were of brass.

21 ¶ This is the sum of the tabernacle, even of the tabernacle ^p of testimony, as it was counted, according to the commandment of Moses, for the service of the Levites, by the hand of ^q Ithamar, son to Aaron the priest.

22 And Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made ^r all that the LORD commanded Moses.

23 And with him was Aholiab, son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, and ^s a cunning workman, and an embroiderer in blue, and in purple, and in scarlet, and fine linen.

24 All the gold that was occupied for the work in all the work of the holy place, even the gold of the ^t offering, was twenty and nine || talents, and seven hundred and thirty shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary.

25 And the silver of them that were numbered of the congregation was a hundred talents, and a thousand seven hundred and threescore and fifteen shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary:

26 ¶ A bekah for † every man, that is, half a shekel, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for every one that went to be numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for ^u six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty men.

27 And of the hundred talents of silver were cast the sockets of the sanctuary, and the sockets of the vail; a ^x hundred sockets of the hundred talents, a talent for a socket.

28 And of the thousand seven hundred seventy and five shekels he made hooks for the pillars, and overlaid their chapters, and filleted them.

29 And the brass of the offering was seventy talents, and two thousand and four hundred shekels.

30 And therewith he made the sockets to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the brazen altar, and the brazen grate for it, and all the vessels of the altar,

31 And the sockets of the court round about, and the sockets of the court gate, and all the pins of the tabernacle, and all the pins of the court round about.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

The clothes of service, and holy garments, viewed and approved by Moses.

AND of the ^a blue, and purple, and scarlet, they made clothes of service, to do service in the ^b holy place, and made the ^c holy garments for Aaron; as the LORD commanded Moses.

2 ¶ And he made the ^d ephod of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

6 And they wrought ^h onyx-stones enclosed in ouches of gold, graven as signets are graven, with ⁱ the names of the children of Israel.

7 And he put them on the shoulders of the ephod, that they should be stones for ^k a memorial to the children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses.

8 ^l And he made the ¹ breast-plate of cunning work, like the work of the ephod; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 It was four-square; they made the breast-plate double: a span was the length thereof, and a ^m span the breadth thereof, being doubled.

10 And they set in it ⁿ four rows of stones: the first row was a sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle: this was the first row.

11 And the second row, an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond.

12 And the third row, a ligure, an agate, and an amethyst.

13 And the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper: they were enclosed in ouches of gold in their enclosings.

14 And the stones were ^o according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet, every one with his name, according to the twelve tribes.

15 And they made upon the breast-plate ^p chains at the ends, of wreathen work of pure gold.

16 And they made two ouches of gold, and two gold rings, and put the two rings in the two ends of the breast-plate.

17 And they put the two ^r wreathen chains of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breast-plate.

18 And the two ends of the two wreathen chains they fastened in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulder-pieces of the ^s ephod, before it.

19 And they made two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breast-plate, upon the border of it, which was on the side of the ephod inward.

20 And they made two other golden rings, and put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward the forepart of it, over against the other ^t coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod:

21 And they did bind the breast-plate by his rings unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it might be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breast-plate might not be loosed from the ephod; ^u as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 ^v And he made the robe of the ephod of woven work, all of blue.

23 And there was a hole in the midst of the robe, as the hole of a habergeon, with a band round about the hole, that it should not rend.

24 And they made upon the hems of the robe pomegranates of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and ^x twined linen.

25 And they made bells of pure gold, and put the ^y bells between the pomegranates upon the hem of the robe, round about between the pomegranates;

26 A bell and a ^z pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, round about the hem of the robe to minister in; as the LORD commanded Moses.

27 ¹ And they made ^a coats of fine linen, of woven work, for Aaron and for his sons,

28 And a mitre of fine linen, and ^b goodly bonnets of fine linen, and linen breeches of fine twined linen,

29 And a ^c girdle of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, of needle-work; as the LORD commanded Moses.

30 ¹ And they made the plate of the ^d holy crown of pure gold, and wrote upon it a writing, like to the engravings of a signet, ^e HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

31 And they tied unto it a lace of blue, to fasten it on high upon the mitre; ^f as the LORD commanded Moses.

32 ¹ Thus was all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation finished: and the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, ^g so did they.

33 And they brought the tabernacle unto Moses, the tent, and all his furniture, his taches, his boards, ^h his bars, and his pillars, and his sockets;

34 And the covering of ⁱ rams' skins dyed red, and the covering of badgers' skins, and the vail of the covering;

35 The ark of the testimony, and the staves thereof, and the ^k mercy-seat;

36 The table, and all the vessels thereof, and the ^l shew-bread;

37 The pure candlestick, with the ^m lamps thereof, even with the lamps to be set in order, and all the vessels thereof, and the oil for light;

38 And the golden altar, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging for the tabernacle-door;

39 The ⁿ brazen altar, and his grate of brass, his staves, and all his vessels, the laver and his foot;

40 The hangings of the court, his pillars, and his sockets, and the hanging for the court-gate, his cords, and his ^o pins, and all the vessels of the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of the congregation;

41 The clothes of service to do service in the holy place, and the ^p holy garments for Aaron the priest, and his sons' garments, to minister in the priest's office.

42 ^q According to all that the Lord commanded Moses, so the children of Israel made all the work.

43 And Moses did ^r look upon all the work, and behold, they had done it as the LORD had commanded, even so had they done it: and Moses ^s blessed them.

¹ The tabernacle is commanded to be reared....¹³ Aaron and his sons to be sanctified....³⁴ A cloud covered the tabernacle.

3 And thou shalt put therein the ark of the testimony, and ^c cover the ark with the vail.

4 And thou shalt bring in the ^d table, and ^e set in order the things that are to be set in order upon it; and thou shalt bring in the ^f candlestick, and light the lamps thereof.

5 And thou shalt set the altar of gold for the incense before the ark of the testimony, and put the ^g hanging of the door to the tabernacle.

6 And thou shalt set the altar of the burnt-offering before the door of the ^h tabernacle of the tent of the congregation.

7 And thou shalt set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and shalt put water therein.

10 And thou shalt anoint the altar of the burnt-offering, and all his vessels, and sanctify the altar: and it shall be an altar^m most holy.

11 And thou shalt anoint the laver and his foot, and sanctify it.

12 And thou shalt bring Aaron and his sons unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and wash them with water.

13 ¶ And thou shalt put upon Aaron the holy garments, and anoint him, and sanctify him; that he may minister unto me in the priest's office.

14 And thou shalt bring his sons, and clothe them with coats:

15 And thou shalt anoint them, as thou didst anoint their father, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office: for their anointing shall surely be anⁿ everlasting priesthood throughout their generations.

16 ¶ Thus did Moses; according to all that the LORD commanded him, so did he.

17 And it came to pass in the first month, in the^o second year, on the first^{day} of the month, that the tabernacle was reared up.

18 And Moses reared up the^p tabernacle, and^q fastened his sockets, and set up the boards thereof, and put in the bars thereof, and reared up his pillars.

19 And he spread abroad the^r tent over the tabernacle, and put the^s covering of the tent above upon it; as the LORD commanded Moses.

20 And he took and put the^t testimony into the ark, and set the staves on the ark, and put the^u mercy-seat above upon the ark:

21 And he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up the vail of the covering, and^x covered the ark of the testimony; as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 And he put the table in the tent of the congregation, upon the side of the tabernacle northward, without the vail.

23 And he set the^v bread in order upon it before the LORD; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

24 And he put the^w candlestick in the tent of the congregation, over against the table, on the side of the tabernacle southward.

25 And he^a lighted the lamps before the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

26 And he put the^b golden altar in the tent of the congregation, before the vail:

27 And he burned sweet incense thereon; as the LORD commanded Moses.

28 And he set up the hanging^{at} the door of the tabernacle.

29 And he put the^c altar of burnt-offering^{by} the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation, and offered upon it the burnt-offering, and the meat-offering; ^d as the LORD commanded Moses.

30 And he set the^e laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and put water there, to wash^{withal}.

31 And Moses, and Aaron, and his sons, ^f washed their hands and their feet thereat:

32 When they went into the tent of the congregation, and when they came near unto the altar, they washed; ^g as the LORD commanded Moses.

33 And he reared up the^h court round about the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the hanging of the court-gate: so Moses finished the work.

34 ¶ Then aⁱ cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the^k glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

35 And Moses was^l not able to enter into the tent of the congregation, because the cloud abode thereon, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

36 And when the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the children of Israel^m went onward in all their journeys:

37 But if the cloud were not taken up, then they journeyed not till the day that it was taken up.

38 Forⁿ the cloud of the LORD^{was} upon the tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

¶ The THIRD Book of Moses, called LEVITICUS.

CHAPTER I.

1 The burnt-offerings....3 of the herd....10 of the flocks....14 of the fowls.

AND the LORD^a called unto Moses, and spake unto him out of the^b tabernacle of the congregation, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man of you bring^c an offering unto the LORD, ye shall bring your offering of the cattle, even of the herd and of the^d flock.

3 ¶ If this offering be a^e burnt-sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without^f blemish; he shall offer it of his own^g voluntary will at^h the door of the tabernacle of the congregationⁱ before the LORD.

4 And he shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt-offering; and it shall be accepted for him^k to make atonement for him.

5 And^l he shall kill the^m bullock before the LORD: and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall bring the blood, ⁿ and sprinkle the blood round about upon the altar that is^{by} the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

6 And he shall flay the burnt-offering, and [¶] cut it into his pieces.

7 And the sons of Aaron the priest shall^o put fire upon the altar, and lay the wood in order upon the fire.

8 And the priests, Aaron's sons, shall lay the^p parts, the head, and the fat, in order upon the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar.

9 But his inwards and his legs shall he wash in^q water: and the priest shall burn all on the altar, to be a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a^r sweet savour unto the LORD.

10 ¶ And if his offering be of the flocks, namely, of the^s sheep, or of the goats, for a burnt-sacrifice; he shall bring it a male without blemish.

11 And he shall kill it on the side of the altar northward before the LORD: and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall sprinkle his blood round about upon the altar:

12 And he shall cut it into his pieces, with his head and his fat: and the priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar.

15 And the priest shall bring it unto the altar, and wring off his head, and burn it on the altar: and the blood thereof shall be wrung out at the side of the altar:

16 And he shall pluck away his crop with his feathers, and cast it beside the altar on the east part, by the place ^yof the ashes:

17 And he shall cleave it with the wings thereof, but shall ^znot divide it asunder: and the priest shall burn it upon the altar, upon the wood that is upon the fire: it is a burnt-sacrifice, an offering made by fire, ^aof a sweet savour unto the LORD.

CHAPTER II.

The meat-offering of flour with oil and incense.

AND when any will offer ^aa meat-offering unto the LORD, his offering shall be of ^bfine flour; and he shall ^cpour oil upon it, and put ^dfrankincense thereon:

2 And he shall bring it to Aaron's sons the priests: and he shall take thereout his handful of the flour thereof, and of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof, and the priest shall burn the ^ememorial of it upon the altar, to be an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD:

3 And the remnant of the meat-offering shall be Aaron's and his sons': it is a thing ^fmost holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

4 ¶ And if thou bring an oblation of a meat-offering baken in the oven, it shall be ^gunleavened cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil.

5 ¶ And if thy oblation be a meat-offering baken in a ^hpan, it shall be of fine flour unleavened, mingled with oil.

6 Thou shalt part it ⁱin pieces, and pour oil thereon: it is a meat-offering.

7 ¶ And if thy oblation be a meat-offering baken in the frying-pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil.

8 And thou shalt bring the meat-offering that is made of these things unto the LORD: and when it is presented unto the priest, he shall bring it unto the altar.

9 And the priest shall take from the meat-offering a memorial thereof, and shall burn it upon the altar: it is an offering made by fire, of a ^ksweet savour unto the LORD.

10 And that which is left of the meat-offering shall be Aaron's and his sons': it is a thing most holy, of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

11 No meat-offering which ye shall bring unto the LORD shall be made with leaven: for ye shall burn ^lno leaven, nor any ^mhoney, in any offering of the LORD made by fire.

12 ¶ As for the oblation of the first-fruits, ye shall ⁿoffer them unto the LORD: but they shall not be burnt on the altar for a sweet savour.

13 ¶ And every oblation of thy meat-offering shalt thou season with ^osalt; neither shalt thou suffer the salt of the ^pcovenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meat-offering: ^qwith all thine offerings thou shalt offer salt.

14 And if thou offer a meat-offering of thy firstfruits unto the LORD, thou shalt offer for the meat-offering ^rof thy first-fruits, green ears of corn dried by the fire, even corn beaten out of ^sfull ears.

15 And thou shalt put ^toil upon it, and lay frankincense thereon: it is a meat-offering.

16 And the priest shall burn the memorial of it, part of the beaten corn thereof, and part of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

CHAPTER III.

1 The peace-offering of the herd... 6 of the flock.

AND if his oblation be a sacrifice ^aof peace-offering, if he offer it of the herd, whether it be a male ^bor female; he shall offer it ^cwithout blemish before the LORD.

2 And he shall ^dlay his hands upon the head of his offering, and kill it at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron's sons the priests shall ^esprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.

3 And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the peace-offering, an offering made by fire ^funto the LORD; the ^gfat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards,

4 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the ^hcaul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

5 And Aaron's sons shall ⁱburn it on the altar, upon the burnt-sacrifice, which is upon ^kthe wood that is on the fire: it is an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

6 ¶ And if his offering for a sacrifice of peace-offering unto the LORD be of the flock, male ^lor female; he shall offer it without blemish.

7 ¶ If he offer a lamb for his offering, then shall he offer it before the LORD.

8 And ^mhe shall lay his hand upon the head of his offering, and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron's sons shall sprinkle the blood thereof round about upon the altar.

9 And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the peace-offering an offering made by fire unto the LORD: the fat thereof, and the ⁿwhole rump, (it shall he take off hard by the back-bone;) and the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards,

10 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

11 And the priest shall burn it upon the altar: it is the food of the offering made by fire unto the LORD.

12 ¶ And if his offering be a goat, then he shall offer it before the LORD.

13 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of it, and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation: and the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle the blood thereof upon the altar round about.

14 And he shall offer thereof his offering, even an offering made by fire unto the LORD; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards,

15 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

16 And the priest shall burn them upon the altar: it is the food of the offering made by fire for a sweet savour: all the ^ofat is the LORD's.

17 It shall be a perpetual statute for your generations throughout all your dwellings, that ye eat neither fat nor ^pblood.

3 ¶ If the priest that is ^eanointed do sin ^faccording to the sin of the people; then let him bring, for his sin which he hath sinned, a young bullock ^gwithout blemish unto the LORD for ^fa sin-offering.

4 And he shall bring the bullock unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD; and shall ^elay his hand upon the bullock's head, and kill the bullock before the LORD.

5 And the priest that is ^fanointed shall take of the bullock's blood, and bring it to the tabernacle of the congregation :

6 And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and ^gsprinkle of the blood ^hseven times before the LORD, before the vail of the sanctuary.

7 And the priest shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar of ⁱsweet incense before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation; and shall pour all the blood of the bullock at the bottom of the altar of the burnt-offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8 And he shall take off from it all the fat of the bullock for the sin-offering; the ^kfat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards,

9 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away,

10 As it was taken off from the bullock of the sacrifice of peace-offerings: and the priest shall burn them upon the altar of the burnt-offering.

11 And the ⁱskin of the bullock, and all his flesh, with his head, and with his legs, and his inwards, and his dung;

12 Even the whole bullock shall he carry forth ^mwithout the camp unto a clean place, ⁿwhere the ashes are poured out, and burn him on the wood with fire: where the ashes are poured out shall he be burnt.

13 ¶ And if the ^owhole congregation of Israel sin through ^pignorance, and the thing be ^qhid from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done some-what against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which should not be done, and are guilty;

14 When the sin which they have sinned against it is known, then the congregation shall offer a ^ryoung bullock for the sin, and bring him before the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And the ^selders of the congregation shall ^tlay their hands upon the head of the bullock before the LORD: and the ^ubullock shall be killed before the LORD.

16 And the priest that is ^vanointed shall bring of the bullock's blood to the tabernacle of the congregation :

17 And the priest shall dip his finger in some of the blood, and sprinkle ^yit ^vseven times before the LORD, even before the vail.

18 And he shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar which is before the LORD, that is in the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall pour out all the blood at the bottom of the altar of the burnt-offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

19 And he shall take all his fat from him, and burn ^zit upon the altar.

20 And he shall do with the bullock as he did with the bullock for a sin-offering, so shall he do with this: and the priest shall make an atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them.

21 And he shall carry forth the bullock ^zwithout the camp, and burn him as he burned the first bullock: it is a sin-offering for the congregation.

22 ¶ When ^aa ruler hath sinned, and done some-what through ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD his God concerning things which should not be done, and is guilty;

23 Or if his sin, wherein he hath sinned, come to his knowledge; he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a male without blemish:

24 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the goat, and kill it in the place ^bwhere they kill the burnt-offering before the LORD: it is a sin-offering.

25 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin-offering with his finger, and put ^cit upon the horns of the altar of ^cburnt-offering, and shall pour out his blood at the bottom of the altar of burnt-offering.

26 And he shall burn all his fat upon the altar, as the fat of the sacrifice of peace-offerings: and the priest shall make an atonement for him as concerning his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.

27 ¶ And if ^dany one of the ^ecommon people sin through ignorance, while he doeth somewhat against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and be guilty;

28 Or if his sin which he hath sinned come to his knowledge: then he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, ^fa female without blemish, for his sin which he hath sinned.

29 And he shall ^glay his hand upon the head of the sin-offering, and slay the sin-offering in the place of the burnt-offering.

30 And the priest shall take of the blood thereof with his finger, and put ^hit upon the horns of the altar of burnt-offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar.

31 And he shall ⁱtake away all the fat thereof, as the fat is taken away from off the sacrifice of peace-offerings; and the priest shall burn ^jit upon the altar for ^ja sweet savour unto the LORD; and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him.

32 And if he bring ^ka lamb for a sin-offering, he shall bring it a female ^kwithout blemish.

33 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin-offering, and slay it for a sin-offering in the place where they kill the burnt-offering.

34 And the priest shall take of the blood of the ^msin-offering with his finger, and put ^mit upon the horns of the altar of burnt-offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar:

35 And he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of the peace-offerings; and the priest shall burn them upon the altar, according to the offerings made by fire unto the LORD: and the priest shall make an atonement for his sin that he hath committed, and it shall be forgiven him.

CHAPTER V.

14 The trespass-offering in sacrilege, 17 and in sins of ignorance.

AND if ^a a soul sin, and hear the voice of ^b swearing, and is a witness, whether he hath seen or known of it; if he do not utter it, then he shall bear his iniquity.

2 ¶ Or if a soul touch any ^cunclean thing, whether it be a ^dcarcass of an unclean beast, or a carcass of unclean cattle, or the carcass of unclean creeping things, and if it be hidden from him; he also shall be ^eunclean, and guilty.

3 Or if he touch the uncleanness of man, ^f whatsoever uncleanness it be that a man shall be defiled withal, and it be hid from him; when he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty.

4 ¶ Or if a soul swear, pronouncing with his lips ^gto do evil, or to do good, whatsoever it be that a man shall pronounce with an oath, and it be hid from him; when he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty in one of these.

5 And it shall be, when he shall be guilty in one of these things, that he shall ^hconfess that he hath sinned in that thing:

6 ¶ And he shall bring his ⁱtrespass-offering unto the LORD for his sin which he hath sinned, ^ka female from the flock, a lamb or a kid of the goats, for a sin-offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sin.

7 ¶ And if he be ^lnot able to bring a lamb, then he shall bring for his trespass which he hath committed, two turtle-doves, or two ^myoung pigeons, unto the LORD; one for a sin-offering and the other for a burnt-offering.

8 And he shall bring them unto the priest, who shall offer that which is for the sin-offering ⁿfirst, and wring off his head from his neck but shall not divide it asunder:

9 And he shall sprinkle of the blood of the sin-offering ^oupon the side of the altar; and the rest of the blood shall be wrung out at the bottom of the altar: it is a sin-offering.

10 And he shall offer the second for a burnt-offering, according to the manner: and the priest shall make ^pan atonement for him for his sin which he hath sinned, and it shall be forgiven him.

11 ¶ But if he be not able to bring two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons; then he that sinned shall bring for his offering the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a sin-offering: he shall put ^qno oil upon it, neither shall he put any frankincense thereon: for it is a sin-offering.

12 Then shall he bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it, even ^ra memorial thereof, and burn it on the altar, according to the offerings ^smade by fire unto the LORD: it is a sin-offering.

13 And the ^tpriest shall make an atonement for him as touching his sin that he hath sinned in one of these, and it shall be forgiven him: and the remnant shall be the priest's, as a meat-offering.

14 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 15 If a soul commit a trespass, and sin ^uthrough ignorance, in the ^vholy things of the LORD; then he shall bring for ^whis trespass unto the LORD a ram ^xwithout blemish out of the flocks, with ^ythy estimation by shekels of silver, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for a trespass-offering:

16 And he shall make amends for the harm that he hath done in ^athe holy thing, and shall add the ^bfifth part thereto, and give it unto the ^cpriest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass-offering, and it shall be forgiven him.

17 ¶ And if a soul sin, and commit any of these things which are forbidden to be done by the commandments of the LORD; though ^dhe wist it not, yet is he guilty, and shall bear his iniquity.

18 And he shall bring a ram without blemish out of the flock, with thy estimation, for a trespass-offering unto the priest; and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his ^eignorance wherein he erred and wist it not, and it shall be forgiven him.

19 It is ^fa trespass-offering: he hath certainly trespassed against the LORD.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The trespass-offering for sins done wittingly....19 The offering at the consecration of a priest....24 The law of the sin-offering.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 If a soul sin, and commit a ^atrespass ^bagainst the LORD, and ^clie unto his neighbour in that which was ^ddelivered him to keep, or in fellowship, or in a thing taken away ^eby violence, or hath ^fdeceived his neighbour;

3 Or have found that which was ^glost, and lieth concerning it, and sweareth falsely; in any of all these that a man doeth, sinning therein:

4 Then it shall be, because he hath sinned and is guilty, that he shall ^hrestore that which he took violently away, or the thing which he hath deceitfully gotten, or that which was delivered him to keep, or the lost thing which he found,

5 Or all that about which he hath sworn falsely; he shall even restore it in the principal, and shall add the ⁱfifth part more thereto, and give it unto him to whom it appertaineth, ^jin the day of his trespass-offering.

6 And he shall bring his ^ktrespass-offering unto the LORD, a ram without blemish out of the flock, with thy estimation, for a trespass-offering, unto the priest:

7 And the priest shall make ^lan atonement for him before the LORD: and it shall be forgiven him for any thing of all that he hath done in trespassing therein.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

9 Command Aaron and his sons, saying, This is ^mthe law of the burnt-offering: It is the burnt-offering, because of the burning upon the altar all ⁿnight unto the morning, and the fire of the altar shall be burning in it.

10 And the priest shall put on his ^olinen garment, and his linen breeches shall he put upon ^phis flesh, and take up the ashes which the fire hath ^qconsumed with the burnt-offering on the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar.

11 And he shall put off his garments, and put ^ron other garments, and carry forth the ashes ^swithout the camp unto a clean place.

12 And the fire upon the altar shall be burning in it; it shall ^tnot be put out: and the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt-offering in order upon it; and he shall burn thereon the fat of the peace-offerings.

13 The fire shall ^uever be burning upon the altar; it shall never go out.

14 ¶ And this is the law of the ^xmeat-offering.

The sons of Aaron shall offer it before the LORD, before the altar.

15 And he shall take of it his handful, of the flour of the meat-offering, and of the oil thereof, and all the frankincense which is upon the meat-offering, and shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savour, even the memorial of it, unto the LORD.

16 And the remainder thereof shall Aaron and his sons eat: with unleavened bread shall it be eaten in the holy place; in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation they shall eat it.

17 It shall not be baken with leaven. I have given it unto them for their portion of my offerings made by fire. It is most holy, as is the sin-offering, and as the trespass-offering.

18 All the males among the children of Aaron shall eat of it. It shall be a statute for ever in your generations concerning the offerings of the LORD made by fire: every one that toucheth them shall be holy.

19 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

20 This is the offering of Aaron and of his sons, which they shall offer unto the LORD in the day when he is anointed; the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a meat-offering perpetual, half of it in the morning, and half thereof at night.

21 In a pan it shall be made with oil; and when it is baken, thou shalt bring it in: and the baken pieces of the meat-offering shalt thou offer for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

22 And the priest of his sons that is anointed in his stead shall offer it: it is a statute for ever unto the LORD; it shall be wholly burnt.

23 For every meat-offering for the priest shall be wholly burnt: it shall not be eaten.

24 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

25 Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, saying, This is the law of the sin-offering: In the place where the burnt-offering is killed shall the sin-offering be killed before the LORD: it is most holy.

26 The priest that offereth it for sin shall eat it: in the holy place shall it be eaten, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation.

27 Whatsoever shall touch the flesh thereof shall be holy: and when there is sprinkled of the blood thereof upon any garment, thou shalt wash that whereon it was sprinkled in the holy place.

28 But the earthen vessel wherein it is sodden shall be broken: and if it be sodden in a brazen pot, it shall be both scoured, and rinsed in water.

29 All the males among the priests shall eat thereof: it is most holy.

30 And no sin-offering, whereof any of the blood is brought into the tabernacle of the congregation to reconcile withal in the holy place, shall be eaten: it shall be burnt in the fire.

CHAPTER VII.

1 The law of the trespass-offering, 11 and of the peace-offerings.... 22 The fat, 26 and the blood, are forbidden.... 28 The priest's portion in the peace-offerings.

LIKEWISE this is the law of the trespass-offering: it is most holy.

2 In the place where they kill the burnt-offering shall they kill the trespass-offering: and the blood thereof shall he sprinkle round about upon the altar.

3 And he shall offer of it all the fat thereof; the rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards,

4 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the caul that is above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away:

5 And the priest shall burn them upon the altar for an offering made by fire unto the LORD: it is a trespass-offering.

6 Every male among the priests shall eat thereof: it shall be eaten in the holy place: it is most holy.

7 As the sin-offering is, so is the trespass-offering: there is one law for them: the priest that maketh atonement therewith shall have it.

8 And the priest that offereth any man's burnt-offering, even the priest shall have to himself the skin of the burnt-offering which he hath offered.

9 And all the meat-offering that is baken in the oven, and all that is dressed in the frying-pan, and in the pan, shall be the priest's that offereth it.

10 And every meat-offering mingled with oil, and dry, shall all the sons of Aaron have, one as much as another.

11 ¶ And this is the law of the sacrifice of peace-offerings, which he shall offer unto the LORD.

12 ¶ If he offer it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes mingled with oil, of fine flour, fried.

13 Besides the cakes, he shall offer for his offering, leavened bread, with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his peace-offerings.

14 And of it he shall offer one out of the whole oblation for a heave-offering unto the LORD, and it shall be the priest's that sprinkleth the blood of the peace-offerings.

15 And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace-offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten the same day that it is offered; he shall not leave any of it until the morning.

16 ¶ But if the sacrifice of his offering be a vow, or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offereth his sacrifice: and on the morrow also the remainder of it shall be eaten:

17 But the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burnt with fire.

18 And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace-offerings be eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be imputed unto him that offereth it: it shall be an abomination, and the soul that eateth of it shall bear his iniquity.

19 And the flesh that toucheth any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burnt with fire: and as for the flesh, all that be clean shall eat thereof.

20 But the soul that eateth of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace-offerings that pertain unto the LORD, having his uncleanness upon him, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

21 Moreover, the soul that shall touch any unclean thing, as the uncleanness of man, or any unclean beast, or any abominable unclean thing, and eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace-offerings which pertain unto the LORD, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

22 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 23 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Ye shall eat no manner of fat, of ox, or of sheep, or of goat.

24 And the fat of the beast that dieth of itself, and the fat of that which is torn with beasts, may be used in any other use: but ye shall in no wise eat of it.

30 ^b His own hands shall bring the offerings of the LORD made by fire; the fat with the breast, it shall he bring, that the breast may be waved for a wave-offering before the LORD.

31 And the priest shall burn the fat upon the altar: but the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons'.

32 And the right shoulder shall ye give unto the priest for ^k a heave-offering of the sacrifices of your peace-offerings.

33 He among the sons of Aaron that offereth the blood of the peace-offerings, and the fat, shall have ^l the right shoulder for his part.

34 For the wave-breast and the heave-shoulder have I taken of the children of Israel from off the sacrifices of their peace-offerings, and have given them unto Aaron the priest, and unto his sons, by a statute ^m for ever, from among the children of Israel.

35 This is the portion of the ⁿ anointing of Aaron, and of the anointing of his sons, out of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, in the day when he presented them to minister unto the LORD in the priest's office;

36 Which the LORD commanded to be given them of the children of Israel, in the day that he anointed them, by a statute for ever throughout their generations.

37 This is the law of the burnt-offering, of the meat-offering, and of the sin-offering, and of the trespass-offering, and of the ^o consecrations, and of the sacrifice of the peace-offerings;

38 Which the LORD commanded Moses in ^p mount Sinai, in the day that he commanded the children of Israel to offer their ^q oblations unto the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Take ^a Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, and the ^b anointing oil, and a bullock for the ^c sin-offering, and two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread;

3 And gather thou all the congregation together unto the ^d door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And Moses did ^e as the LORD commanded him; and the assembly was gathered together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

5 And Moses said unto the congregation, This is the thing which the LORD commanded to be done.

6 And Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and washed them with ^f water.

7 And he put upon him the ^g coat, and girded him with the girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod upon him, and he girded him with the curious girdle of the ephod, and bound it unto him therewith.

8 And he put the ^h breast-plate upon him: also he put in the breast-plate the ⁱ Urim and the Thummim.

9 And he put the mitre upon his head; also upon the mitre, even upon his ^k fore-front, did he put the golden plate, the ^l holy crown; as the LORD commanded Moses.

10 And Moses took the ^m anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that was therein, and sanctified them.

11 And he sprinkled thereof upon the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all his ⁿ vessels, both the laver and his foot, to sanctify them.

12 And he poured of the anointing oil upon ^o Aaron's head, and anointed him, to sanctify him.

13 And Moses brought Aaron's sons, and put coats upon them, and girded them with girdles, and put bonnets upon them; as the LORD commanded Moses.

14 ¶ And he brought the bullock for the ^p sin-offering: and Aaron and his sons laid ^q their hands upon the head of the bullock for the ^r sin-offering.

15 And he ^s slew it; and Moses took the blood, and put it upon the ^t horns of the altar round about with his finger, and ^u purified the altar, and poured the blood at the bottom of the altar, and ^v sanctified it, to make reconciliation upon it.

16 And he took all the ^w fat that was upon the inwards, and the ^x caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and Moses burned it upon the altar.

17 But the bullock, and his hide, his flesh, and his dung, he burnt with fire ^y without the camp: as the LORD commanded Moses.

18 ¶ And he brought the ram for the ^z burnt-offering: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram.

19 And he ^a killed it; and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

20 And he cut the ram into pieces; and Moses burnt the head, and the pieces, and the fat.

21 And he washed the inwards and the legs in water; and Moses burnt the whole ram upon the altar: it was a burnt-sacrifice for ^b a sweet savour, and an offering made by fire unto the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 ¶ And he brought the other ^c ram, the ram of consecration: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram.

23 And he slew it; and Moses took of the blood of it, and put it upon the tip of Aaron's right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his ^d right foot.

24 And he brought Aaron's sons, and Moses put of the blood upon the tip of their right ears, and upon the thumbs of their right hands, and upon the great toes of their right feet: and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

25 And he took the fat, and the ^e rump, and all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right shoulder:

26 And out of the basket of unleavened bread, that was before the LORD, he took one unleavened cake, and a cake of ^f oiled bread, and one ^g wafer, and put them on the fat, and upon the right shoulder:

27 And he put all upon Aaron's hands, and upon his sons' hands, and ^h waved them for a wave-offering before the LORD.

28 And Moses took them from off their hands, and burnt them on the altar upon the burnt-offering they were consecrations for a sweet savour: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

29 And Moses took the breast, and waved it for a wave-offering before the LORD: for of the ram of consecration it was Moses' part; as the LORD commanded Moses.

30 And Moses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which was upon the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon his sons' garments with him; and sanctified Aaron, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.

31 And Moses said unto Aaron and to his sons, Boil the flesh at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation; and there eat it with the bread that is in the basket of consecrations, as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it.

32 And that which remaineth of the flesh and of the bread shall ye burn with fire.

33 And ye shall not go out of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation in seven days, until the days of your consecration be at an end: for seven days shall he consecrate you.

34 As he hath done this day, so the LORD hath commanded to do, to make an atonement for you.

35 Therefore shall ye abide at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation day and night seven days, and keep the charge of the LORD, that ye die not: for so I am commanded.

36 So Aaron and his sons did all things which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

CHAPTER IX.

1 The first-offerings of Aaron for himself and the people....23 Moses and Aaron bless the people....24 Fire cometh from the Lord upon the altar.

AND it came to pass on the eighth day, that Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the elders of Israel;

2 And he said unto Aaron, Take thee a young calf for a sin-offering, and a ram for a burnt-offering, without blemish, and offer them before the LORD.

3 And unto the children of Israel thou shalt speak, saying, Take ye a kid of the goats for a sin-offering; and a calf and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish, for a burnt-offering;

4 Also a bullock and a ram for peace-offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD; and a meat-offering mingled with oil: for to-day the LORD will appear unto you.

5 And they brought that which Moses commanded before the tabernacle of the congregation: and all the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD.

6 And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commanded that ye should do: and the glory of the LORD shall appear unto you.

7 And Moses said unto Aaron, Go unto the altar, and offer thy sin-offering, and thy burnt-offering, and make an atonement for thyself, and for the people: and offer the offering of the people, and make an atonement for them; as the LORD commanded.

8 And Aaron therefore went unto the altar, and slew the calf of the sin-offering, which was for himself.

9 And the sons of Aaron brought the blood unto him: and he dipped his finger in the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the bottom of the altar:

10 But the fat, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver of the sin-offering, he burnt upon the altar; as the LORD commanded Moses.

11 And the flesh and the hide he burnt with fire without the camp.

12 And he slew the burnt-offering; and Aaron's sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled round about upon the altar.

13 And they presented the burnt-offering unto him, with the pieces thereof, and the head: and he burnt them upon the altar.

14 And he did wash the inwards and the legs, and burnt them upon the burnt-offering on the altar.

15 And he brought the people's offering, and took the goat, which was the sin-offering for the people, and slew it, and offered it for sin, as the first.

16 And he brought the burnt-offering, and offered it according to the manner.

17 And he brought the meat-offering, and took a handful thereof, and burnt it upon the altar, besides the burnt-sacrifice of the morning.

18 He slew also the bullock and the ram for a sacrifice of peace-offerings, which was for the people: and Aaron's sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled upon the altar round about,

19 And the fat of the bullock, and of the ram, the rump, and that which covereth the inwards, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver:

20 And they put the fat upon the breasts, and he burnt the fat upon the altar:

21 And the breasts and the right shoulder Aaron waved for a wave-offering before the LORD; as Moses commanded.

22 And Aaron lifted up his hand towards the people, and blessed them; and came down from offering of the sin-offering, and the burnt-offering, and peace-offerings.

23 And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out, and blessed the people: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the people.

24 And there came a fire out from before the LORD, and consumed upon the altar the burnt-offering and the fat: which when all the people saw, they shouted, and fell on their faces.

CHAPTER X.

1 Nadab and Abihu, for offering of strange fire, are burnt by fire....
8 The priests are forbidden wine when they are to go into the tabernacle.

AND Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took either of them his censer, and put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and offered strange fire before the LORD, which he commanded them not.

2 And there went out fire from the LORD, and devoured them, and they died before the LORD.

3 Then Moses said unto Aaron, This is it that the LORD spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be glorified. And Aaron held his peace.

4 And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said unto them, Come near, carry your brethren from before the sanctuary out of the camp.

5 So they went near, and carried them in their coats out of the camp; as Moses had said.

6 And Moses said unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons, Uncover not your heads, neither rend your clothes; lest ye die, and lest wrath come upon all the people: but let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, bewail the ^p burning which the LORD hath kindled.

7 And ye shall not go out from the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: for the ^q anointing oil of the LORD is upon you. And they did according to the word of Moses.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Aaron, saying,
9 Do not drink wine nor strong [†] drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations:

10 And that ye may ^r put difference between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean;

11 And that ye may teach the children of Israel ^s all the statutes which the LORD hath spoken unto them by the hand of Moses.

12 ¶ And Moses spake unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons that were left, Take the ^t meat-offering that remaineth of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and eat it without leaven beside the altar: for it is most holy:

13 And ye shall eat it in the holy place, because it is thy due, and thy sons' due, of the sacrifices of the LORD made by fire: for so I am commanded.

14 And the wave-breast and heave-shoulder shall ye eat in a clean place; thou, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee: for they be thy due, and thy sons' due, which are given out of the sacrifices of peace-offerings of the children of Israel.

15 The heave-shoulder and the wave-breast shall they bring, with the offerings made by fire of the fat, to wave it for a wave-offering before the LORD; and it shall be thine, and thy sons' with thee, by ^a a statute for ever; as the LORD hath commanded.

16 ¶ And Moses ^x diligently sought the goat of the sin-offering, and behold, it was burnt: and he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron which were left alive, saying,

17 Wherefore have ye not eaten the sin-offering in the holy place, seeing it is most holy, and God hath given it you ^y to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD?

18 Behold, the blood of it was not brought in within the ^z holy place: ye should indeed have eaten it in the holy place, as I commanded.

19 And Aaron said unto Moses, Behold, this day have they offered their sin-offering, and their burnt-offering before the LORD; and such things have befallen me: and if I had eaten the sin-offering to-day, should it have been ^a accepted in the sight of the LORD?

20 And when Moses heard that, ^b he was content.

CHAPTER XI.

2 What beasts may, 4 and what may not be eaten....9 What fishes....
13 What fowls....29 The creeping things which are unclean.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and ^a to Aaron, saying unto them,

2 ¶ Speak unto the ^b children of Israel, saying, These are the beasts which ye shall ^c eat among ^d all the beasts that are on the earth.

3 Whatsoever parteth the hoof, and is ^e cloven-footed, and ^f cheweth the cud among the beasts, that shall ye eat.

4 ¶ Nevertheless, these shall ye not eat, of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the hoof: as the ^g camel, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof: he is unclean unto you.

5 And the ^h coney, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.

6 And the ⁱ hare, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.

7 And the ^k swine, though he divide the hoof, and be cloven-footed, yet he cheweth not the cud; he is unclean to you.

8 Of their flesh shall ye not eat, and their carcass shall ye ^l not touch; they are unclean to you.

9 ¶ These shall ye eat, of all that are in the waters: whatsoever hath ^m fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, them shall ye eat.

10 And all that have not fins and scales in the seas, and in the rivers, of all that move in the waters, and of any living thing which is in the waters, they shall be ⁿ an abomination unto you:

11 They shall be even an abomination unto you: ye shall not eat of their ^o flesh, but ye shall have their carcasses in abomination.

12 Whatsoever hath no fins nor scales in the waters, that shall be an abomination unto you.

13 ¶ And these are they which ye shall have in abomination among the fowls; they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: The ^p eagle, and the ^q ossifrage, and the ^r ospray,

14 And the ^s vulture, and the ^t kite after his kind;

15 Every ^u raven after his kind;

16 And the ^x owl, and the ^y night-hawk, and the ^z cuckoo, and the ^a hawk after his kind,

17 And the ^b little owl, and the ^c cormorant, and the ^d great owl,

18 And the ^e swan, and the pelican, and the ^f gier-eagle,

19 And the ^g stork, the ^h heron after her kind, and the ⁱ lapwing, and the bat.

20 All fowls that creep, going upon all four, shall be an abomination unto you.

21 Yet these may ye eat, of every flying creeping thing that goeth upon all four, which have legs above their feet, to leap withal upon the earth;

22 Even these of them ye may eat; the ^k locust after his kind, and the bald locust after his kind, and the beetle after his kind, and the grasshopper after his kind.

23 But all other flying creeping things, which have four feet, shall be an abomination unto you.

24 And for these ye shall be unclean: whosoever toucheth the carcass of them shall be unclean ^l until the even.

25 And whosoever beareth ought of the carcass of them shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even.

26 The carcasses of every beast which divideth the hoof and is not cloven-footed, nor cheweth the cud, are unclean unto you: every one that toucheth them shall be unclean.

27 And whatsoever goeth upon his paws, among all manner of beasts that go on all four, those are unclean unto you: whoso toucheth their carcass shall be unclean until the even.

28 And he that beareth the carcass of them shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: they are unclean unto you.

29 ¶ These also shall be unclean unto you among the creeping things that creep upon the earth; the ^m weasel, and the ⁿ mouse, and the ^o tortoise after his kind,

30 And the ^p ferret, and the ^q chameleon, and the lizard, and the ^r snail and the mole.

g Col. 2, 11.

31 These are unclean to you among all that creep: whosoever doth touch them, when they be dead, shall be unclean until the even.

32 And upon whatsoever any of them, when they are dead, doth fall, it shall be unclean; whether it be any vessel of wood, or raiment, or skin, or sack, whatsoever vessel it be, wherein any work is done, it must be put into ^r water, and it shall be unclean until the even; so it shall be cleansed.

33 And every earthen vessel, whereinto any of them falleth, whatsoever is in it shall be unclean; and ye shall break it.

34 Of all meat which may be eaten, that on which such water cometh shall be unclean: and all drink that may be drunk in every such vessel, shall be unclean.

35 And every thing whereupon any part of their carcass falleth, shall be unclean; whether it be oven, or ranges for pots, they shall be broken down: for they are unclean, and shall be unclean unto you.

36 Nevertheless, a fountain or pit, wherein there is plenty of water, shall be clean: but that which toucheth their carcass shall be unclean.

37 And if any part of their carcass fall upon any ^t sowing-seed which is to be sown, it shall be clean.

38 But if any water be put upon the seed, and any part of their carcass fall thereon, it shall be unclean unto you.

39 And if any beast, of which ye may eat, die; he that ^u toucheth the ^x carcass thereof shall be unclean until the ^y even.

40 And he that eateth of the carcass of it shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even; he also that beareth the carcass of it shall ^z wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even.

41 And every ^a creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth shall be an abomination; it shall not be eaten.

42 Whatsoever goeth upon the ^b belly, and whatsoever goeth upon all four, or whatsoever hath ^c more feet among all creeping things that creep upon the earth, them ye shall not eat; for they are an abomination.

43 Ye shall not make yourselves abominable with any creeping thing that creepeth, neither shall ye make yourselves unclean with them, that ye should be defiled thereby.

44 For ^d I am the LORD your God: ye shall therefore ^e sanctify yourselves, and ye shall be holy; for I am holy: neither shall ye defile yourselves with any manner of creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

45 For I am the LORD that bringeth you up out of the land of Egypt, to be ^f your God: ye shall therefore be holy, for ^g I am holy.

46 This is the law of the beasts, and of the fowl, and of every living creature that moveth in the waters, and of every creature that creepeth upon the earth;

47 To ^h make a difference between the unclean and the clean, and between the beast that may be eaten and the beast that may not be eaten.

CHAPTER XII.

The purification of a woman after child-birth.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 ⁱ Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a woman have ^b conceived seed, and borne a ^c man-child: then she shall be unclean seven days; according to the days of the ^d separation for her ^e in-firmity shall she be unclean.

3 And in the eighth day the flesh of his ^f fore-skin shall be circumcised.

4 And she shall then continue in the blood of her ^g purifying ^h three and thirty days: she shall ⁱ touch no hallowed thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until ^k the days of her purifying be fulfilled.

5 But if she bear a maid-child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her separation: and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying three-score and six days.

6 ^l And when the days of her purifying are ¹ fulfilled, for a son, or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb of the first year for a burnt-offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtle-dove, ^m for a sin-offering, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest:

7 Who shall offer it before the LORD, and make ⁿ an atonement for her; and she shall be cleansed from the ^o issue of her blood. This is the law for her that hath borne a male ^p or a female.

8 And if she ^q be not able to bring a lamb, then she shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons; the one for the burnt-offering, and the other for a sin-offering: and the priest shall make an atonement for her, and she shall be clean.

CHAPTER XIII.

The laws and tokens whereby the priest is to be guided in discerning the leprosy.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying,

2 When a man shall have in the skin of his flesh a rising, ^a a scab, or ^b bright spot, and it be in the skin of his flesh like the ^c plague of leprosy; then he shall be brought unto Aaron the priest, or unto one of his sons the priests:

3 And ^d the priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh: and when the hair in the plague is turned ^e white, and the plague in sight be ^f deeper than the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosy: and the priest shall look on him, and ^g pronounce him unclean.

4 If the bright spot be white in the skin of his flesh, and in sight be not deeper than the skin, and the hair thereof be not turned white; then the priest shall shut up ^h him that hath the plague seven days:

5 And the priest shall look on him the seventh day: and behold, if the plague in his sight be at a stay, and the plague spread not in the skin; then the priest shall shut him up seven days more:

6 And the priest shall look on him again the seventh day: and behold, if the plague be somewhat dark, and the plague spread not in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean: it is ⁱ but a scab: and he shall ^j wash his clothes, and be clean.

7 But if the scab ^k spread much abroad in the skin, after that he hath been seen of the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen of the priest again:

8 And if the priest see, that behold, the scab ^l spreadeth in the skin, then the priest shall ¹ pronounce him unclean: it is a leprosy.

9 When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought unto the priest:

10 And the priest shall see him: and behold, if the rising be white in the skin, and it have turned the hair white, and there be ^m quick raw flesh in the rising:

11 It is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not shut him up: for he is unclean.

12 And if a leprosy break out abroad in the skin, and the leprosy cover all the skin ⁿ of him that hath the plague from his head even to his foot, wheresoever the priest looketh;

13 Then the priest shall consider: and behold, if the leprosy have covered all his flesh, he shall † pronounce him clean that hath the plague: it is all turned white: he is clean.

14 But when raw flesh appeareth in him, he shall be unclean.

15 And the priest shall see the raw flesh, and pronounce him to be unclean: for the raw flesh is unclean: it is ^o a leprosy.

16 Or if the raw flesh turn again, and be changed into white, he shall come unto the priest;

17 And the priest shall see him: and behold, if the plague be turned into white; then the priest shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: he is clean.

18 The flesh also, in which, even in the skin thereof, was ‖ a bile, and ^p is healed,

19 And in the place of the bile there be a white rising, or a bright spot, white, and somewhat reddish, and it be shewed to the priest;

20 And if, when the priest seeth it, behold, it be in sight lower than the skin, and the hair thereof be turned white; the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague of leprosy ^q broken out of the bile.

21 But if the priest look on it, and behold, there be no white hairs therein, and if it be not lower than the skin, but be somewhat dark; then the priest shall shut him up seven days:

22 And if it spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague.

23 But if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not, it is a burning bile; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

24 Or if there be any flesh, in the skin whereof there is ^r a hot † burning, and the quick flesh that burneth have a ^s white bright spot, somewhat reddish, or white:

25 Then the priest shall † look upon it; and behold, if the hair in the bright spot be turned white, and it be in sight deeper than the skin: it is a leprosy broken out of the burning: wherefore the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.

26 But if the priest look on it, and behold, there be no white hair in the bright spot, and it be no lower than the other skin, but be somewhat dark; then the priest shall ^u shut him up seven days:

27 And the priest shall look upon him the seventh day: and if it be spread ^x much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.

28 And if the bright spot stay in his place, and ^y spread not in the skin, but it be somewhat dark; it is a rising of the burning, and the priest shall pronounce him clean: for it is an inflammation of the burning.

29 If a man or woman have a plague upon the ^z head or the ^a beard;

30 Then the priest shall see the plague: and behold, if it be in sight deeper than the skin, and there be in it a yellow thin hair; then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a dry scall, even a leprosy upon ^b the head or beard.

31 And if the priest look on the plague of the scall, and behold, it be not in sight deeper than the skin, and that there is no ^c black hair in it; then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague of the scall seven days:

32 And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the plague: and behold, if the scall spread not, and there be in it no yellow hair, and the scall be not ^d in sight deeper than the skin;

33 He shall be ^e shaven, but the scall shall he not shave; and the priest shall shut up him that hath the scall seven days more:

34 And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the scall: and behold, if the scall be not spread in the skin, nor be in sight deeper than the skin; then the priest shall pronounce him clean: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

35 But if the scall spread much in the skin ^f after his cleansing;

36 Then the priest shall look on him: and behold, if the scall be spread in the skin, the priest shall not seek for yellow hair; he is unclean.

37 But if the scall be in his sight at a stay, and that there is black hair grown up therein; the scall is healed, he is clean: and ^g the priest shall pronounce him clean.

38 If a man also or ^h a woman have in the skin of their flesh bright spots, even white bright spots;

39 Then the priest shall look: and behold, if the bright spots in the skin of their flesh be darkish white; it is a freckled spot that groweth in the skin; ⁱ he is clean.

40 And the man whose ^k hair is fallen off his head, he is bald; yet is he clean.

41 And he that hath his ^l hair fallen off from the part of his head toward his face, he is forehead-bald; yet is he clean.

42 And if there be in the bald head, or ^m bald forehead, a white reddish sore; it is a leprosy sprung up in his bald head, or his bald forehead.

43 Then the priest shall look upon it: and behold, if the rising of the sore be white reddish in his bald head, or in ⁿ his bald forehead, as the leprosy appeareth in the skin of the flesh;

44 He is a leprous man, he is unclean: the priest shall pronounce him utterly unclean; his plague is in his head.

45 And the leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be rent, and his ^o head bare, and he shall ^p put a covering upon his upper lip, and shall cry, ^q Unclean, unclean.

46 All the days wherein the plague shall be in him he shall be defiled; he is unclean: he shall ^r dwell alone, without the camp shall his habitation be.

47 The garment also that the plague of leprosy is in, whether it be a woollen garment, or a linen garment;

48 Whether it be in the warp, or woof, of linen, or of woollen: whether in a skin, or in any thing made of skin:

49 And if the plague be greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skin, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin; it is a plague of leprosy, and shall be shewed unto the priest:

50 And the priest shall look upon the plague, and shut up it that hath the plague seven days:

51 And he shall look on the plague on the seventh day: if the plague be spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in a skin, or in any work that is made of skin; the plague is a ^s fretting leprosy; it is unclean.

52 He shall therefore burn that garment, whether warp or woof, in woollen or in linen, ^t or any thing of skin, wherein the plague is: for it is a fretting leprosy; it shall be burnt in the fire

55 And the priest shall look on the plague after that it is washed : and behold, if the plague have not changed his [†] colour, and the plague be not spread ; it is unclean ; thou shalt burn it in the fire ; it is fret inward, whether it be [†] bare within or without.

58 And the garment, either warp, or woof, or whatsoever thing of skin it be which thou shalt wash, if the plague be departed from them, then it shall be ^u washed the ^x second time, and shall be clean.

CHAPTER XIV.

2 The rites and sacrifices in cleansing of the leper....37 The signs of leprosy in a house.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 ¹ This shall be the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing : He shall be brought unto the priest :

3 And the priest shall go forth out of the camp : and the priest shall look, and behold, if the plague of leprosy be ^a healed in the leper,

4 Then shall the priest command to take for him that is to be cleansed two birds ^b alive and ^c clean, ^d and cedar-wood, ^e and scarlet, ^f and hyssop.

5 And the priest shall command that one of the birds be killed in ^g an earthen vessel, over [†] running water.

6 As for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar-wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them, and the living bird, in ^h the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water.

7 And he shall sprinkle upon him that is to be cleansed from the leprosy ⁱ seven times, and shall ^k pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird ^l loose into the ^m open field.

8 And he that is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and ⁿ wash himself in water, that he may be clean : and after that he shall come into the camp, and shall tarry abroad out of his tent seven days.

9 But it shall be on the seventh day, that he shall shave ^o all his hair off his head, and his beard, and his eye-brows, even all his hair he shall shave off ; and he shall wash his clothes, also he shall wash his flesh in water, and he shall ^p be clean.

10 And on the eighth day he shall take ^q two he-lambs without ^r blemish, and one ewe-lamb of the first year without blemish, and three tenth-deals of fine flour for a meat-offering, mingled with ^s oil, and one log of oil.

11 And the priest that maketh him clean, shall present the man that is to be ^t made clean, and those things, before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

12 And the priest shall take one he-lamb, and offer him for a ^u trespass-offering, and the log of oil, and wave them for a wave-offering before the LORD.

13 And he shall slay the lamb in the place ^x where he shall kill the sin-offering and the burnt-offering, in the holy place : for as the sin-offering ^y is the priest's, so is the trespass-offering : it is most holy.

14 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and the priest shall put it upon the ^z tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

15 And the priest shall take some of the log of oil, and pour it into the palm of his own left hand :

16 And the priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and shall sprinkle of the oil with his finger seven times before the LORD.

17 And of the rest of the oil that is in his hand, shall the priest put upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, ^a upon the blood of the trespass-offering.

18 And the remnant of the ^b oil that is in the priest's hand he shall pour upon the head of him that is to be cleansed : and the priest shall ^c make an atonement for him before the LORD.

19 And the priest shall ^d offer the sin-offering, and make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed from his uncleanness ; and afterward he shall kill ^e the burnt-offering.

20 And the priest shall offer the burnt-offering, and the ^f meat-offering upon the altar : and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and he shall be clean.

21 And if he be poor, and ^g cannot get so much ; then he shall take one lamb for a trespass-offering to ^h be waved, to make an atonement for him ; and one tenth-deal of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat-offering, and a log of oil ;

22 And two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, such as he is able to get ; and the one shall be a sin-offering, and the other a burnt-offering.

23 And he shall bring them on the eighth day for his cleansing unto the priest, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the LORD.

24 And the priest shall take the lamb of the trespass-offering, and the log of oil, and the priest shall wave them for a wave-offering before the LORD.

25 And he shall ⁱ kill the lamb of the trespass-offering, and the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the ^k right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right ^l hand, and upon the great toe of his right ^m foot.

26 And the priest shall pour of the oil into the palm of his own left hand.

27 And the priest shall ⁿ sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand ^o seven times before ^p the LORD :

28 And the priest shall put of the oil that is in his hand, upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the place of ^q the blood of the trespass-offering.

29 And the rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand, he shall put upon the ^r head of him that is to be cleansed, to make an ^s atonement for him before the LORD

31 Even such as he is able to get, the one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt-offering, with the meat-offering. And ^u the priest shall make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed, before the LORD.

32 This is the law of him in whom is the plague of leprosy, ^x whose hand is not able to get that which pertaineth to his cleansing.

33 ¹ And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

34 When ye be come into the land of Canaan, which ^y I give to you for a possession, and I ^z put the plague of leprosy in a house of the land of your possession ;

35 And he that owneth the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, It seemeth to me there is as it were a plague in the house :

36 Then the priest shall command that they empty the house, before the priest go into it to see the plague, that all that is in the house ^a be not made unclean ; and afterward the priest shall go in to see the house :

37 ¹ And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in ^b the walls of the house, with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall ;

38 Then the priest shall go out of the house, to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days :

39 And the priest shall come again the seventh day, and shall look ; and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house :

40 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and they shall cast them into an unclean place without the city :

41 And he shall cause the house to be scraped within round about, and they shall pour out the dust that they scrape off without the city into an unclean place :

42 And they shall take other stones, and put them in the place of those stones ; and he shall take other mortar, and shall plaster the house.

43 And if the plague come again, and break out in the house, after that he hath taken away the stones, and after he hath scraped the house, and after it is plastered ;

44 Then the priest shall come and look ; and behold, if the plague be spread in the house, it is a ^c fretting leprosy in the house : it is unclean.

45 And he shall ^d break down the house, the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the mortar of the house : and he shall carry them forth out of the city into an unclean place.

46 Moreover, he that ^e goeth into the house all the while that it is shut up, shall be unclean until the even.

47 And he that lieth in the house shall wash his clothes : and he that ^f eateth in the house shall wash his clothes.

48 ¹ And if the priest shall come in, and look upon it, and behold, the plague hath not spread in the house, after the house was plastered : then the priest shall ^g pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed.

49 And he shall take to ^h cleanse the house two birds, and cedar-wood, and ⁱ scarlet, and hyssop :

50 And he shall kill the one of the birds in an earthen vessel, over running water :

51 And he shall take the cedar-wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the ^k blood of the slain bird, and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times :

52 And he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar-wood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet :

53 But he shall let go the living bird out of the city into the open fields, and make an ^l atonement for the house : and it shall be clean.

54 This is the law for ^m all manner of plague of ⁿ leprosy, and scall,

55 And for the leprosy of a garment, and of a house,

56 And for a rising, and for a scab, and for a bright spot :

57 ⁿ To teach when it is unclean, and [†] when it is clean : this is the law of leprosy.

CHAPTER XV.

2 The uncleanness of men in their issues...19 The uncleanness of women in their issues.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses ^a and to Aaron, saying,

2 ¹ Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When any man hath a ^b running issue out of his flesh, because of his ^c issue he is unclean.

3 And this shall be his uncleanness in his issue : ^c whether his flesh run with his issue, or his flesh be stopped from his issue, it is his uncleanness.

4 Every bed whereon he lieth that hath the issue, is unclean : and ^d every thing whereon he sitteth, shall be unclean.

5 And whosoever toucheth his bed, shall ^e wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean ^f until the even.

6 And he that sitteth on any thing whereon he sat that hath the issue, shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

7 And he that toucheth the flesh of him that hath the issue, shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

8 And if he that hath the issue ^g spit upon him that is clean ; then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

9 And what saddle soever he rideth upon that hath the issue, shall be unclean.

10 And whosoever toucheth any thing that was under him, shall be unclean until the even : and he that ^h beareth any of those things, shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

11 And whomsoever he toucheth that hath the issue (and hath not rinsed his hands in water) he shall wash his clothes, and ⁱ bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

12 And the ^j vessel of earth that he toucheth which hath the issue, shall be broken : and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

13 ¹ And when he that hath an issue is cleansed of his issue ; then he shall number to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean.

14 And on the eighth day he shall take to him two turtle-doves, or ^k two young pigeons, and come before the LORD, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and give them unto the priest :

15 And the priest shall offer them, the one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt-offering ; and the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD for his ^l issue.

19 And he shall sprinkle of the blood upon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and hallow it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel.

20 ¶ And when he hath made an end of reconciling the holy place, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar, he shall bring the live goat:

21 And Aaron shall ^e lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat, and ^b confess over him all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions in all their sins, putting them upon the head of the goat, and shall send him away by the hand of a ^f fit man into the wilderness:

22 And the goat shall bear upon him ^k all their iniquities unto a land ^l not inhabited: and he shall let go the goat in the ^m wilderness:

23 And Aaron shall come into the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall put off the linen garments which he put on when he went into the holy place, and shall ⁿ leave them there:

24 And he shall ^o wash his flesh with water in the ^p holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth, and offer his burnt-offering, and the burnt-offering of the people, and make an atonement for himself, and for the people.

25 And the ^q fat of the sin-offering shall he burn upon the altar.

26 And he that let go the goat for the scape-goat shall wash his clothes, and bathe ^r his flesh in water, and afterward come into the camp.

27 And the bullock for the sin-offering, and the goat for the sin-offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, shall one carry forth ^s without the camp; and they shall burn in the fire their skins, and their flesh, and their dung.

28 And he that burneth them shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp.

29 ¶ And this shall be a statute for ever unto you, that in the ^t seventh month, on the ^u tenth day of the month, ye shall ^x afflict your souls, and do ^y no work at all, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger that sojourneth among you:

30 For on that day shall the priest make an atonement for you, to cleanse you, that ye may be clean from all your sins before the LORD.

31 It shall be a sabbath of ^a rest unto you, and ye shall afflict your souls by a statute for ever.

32 And the priest whom he shall anoint, and whom he shall ^b consecrate to minister in the priest's office in his father's stead, shall make the atonement, and shall put on the linen clothes, even the holy garments:

33 And he shall make an atonement for the holy sanctuary, and he shall make an atonement for the tabernacle of the congregation, and for the altar: and he shall make an atonement for the priests, and for all the people of the congregation.

34 And this shall be an everlasting statute unto you, to make an atonement for the children of Israel ^c for all their sins ^d once a year. And he did as the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 The blood of all slain beasts must be offered to the Lord...7 They must not offer to devils...10 All eating of blood is forbidden.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto Aaron, and unto his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them,

This is the thing which the LORD ^a hath commanded, saying,

3 What man soever there be of the house of Israel, that killeth an ox, or lamb, or goat in the camp, or that killeth it out of the camp,

4 And bringeth it not unto the ^b door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer an offering unto the LORD ^c before the tabernacle of the LORD: blood shall be imputed unto that man; he hath shed ^d blood; and that man shall be ^e cut off from among his people:

5 To the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices which they offer in the ^f open field, even that they may bring them unto the LORD, unto ^g the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest, and offer them for peace-offerings unto the LORD.

6 And the priest shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar of the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and burn the fat for ^h a sweet savour unto the LORD.

7 And they shall no more offer their sacrifices unto ⁱ devils, after whom they ^k have gone ^l a whoring: This shall be a statute for ever unto them throughout their generations.

8 ¶ And thou shalt say unto them, Whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers which sojourn among you, that offereth a burnt-offering or ^m sacrifice,

9 And bringeth it not unto the ⁿ door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer it unto the LORD; even that man shall be cut off from among his people.

10 ¶ And whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, that eateth any manner of ^o blood; I will even set my face against that soul that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people.

11 For the ^p life of the flesh is in the blood: and ^q I have given it to you upon the altar, to make an atonement for your souls: for ^r it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul.

12 ^s Therefore I said unto the children of Israel, No soul of you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger that sojourneth among you eat blood.

13 And whatsoever man there be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, which ^t hunteth and catcheth any beast or fowl that may be eaten; he shall even ^u pour out the blood thereof, and ^x cover it with dust.

14 For it is the life of all flesh, the blood of it is for the life thereof: therefore I said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall eat the blood of ^y no manner of flesh: for the life of all flesh is the blood thereof: whosoever eateth it shall be cut off.

15 And every soul that eateth that which ^z died of itself, or that which was ^a torn with beasts, (whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger) he shall both wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the ^b even: then shall he be clean.

16 But if he wash them not, nor bathe his flesh; then he shall bear his iniquity.

land of ^e Canaan whither I bring you, shall ye not do: neither shall ye ^f walk in their ordinances.

4 Ye shall do ^g my judgments, and keep mine ordinances, to walk therein: I am the LORD your God.

5 Ye shall therefore keep my statutes and my judgments: which if a man do, he shall ^h live in them: I am the LORD.

6 ¶ ⁱ None of you shall approach to any that is near of kin to him, to uncover their ^k nakedness: I am the LORD.

7 The nakedness of thy ^l father, or the nakedness of thy mother, shalt thou not uncover: she is thy mother, thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

8 The nakedness of thy father's ^m wife shalt thou not uncover: it is thy father's nakedness.

9 The nakedness of thy sister, the daughter of thy father, or daughter of thy mother, whether she be born at home, or born abroad, even their nakedness thou shalt not uncover.

10 The nakedness of thy son's daughter, or of thy daughter's daughter, even their nakedness thou shalt not uncover: for theirs is thine own nakedness.

11 The nakedness of thy father's wife's daughter, begotten of thy father, (she is thy sister) thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

12 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy father's sister: she is thy father's near kinswoman.

13 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister: for she is thy mother's near kinswoman.

14 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy father's brother, thou shalt not approach to his wife: she is thine aunt.

15 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy ⁿ daughter-in-law: she is thy son's wife, thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

16 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy ^o brother's wife: it is thy brother's nakedness.

17 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, neither shalt thou take her son's daughter, or her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness; for they are her near kinswomen: it is wickedness.

18 Neither shalt thou take a wife ^p to her sister, to ^q vex her, to uncover her nakedness, besides the other in her life-time.

19 ¶ Also thou shalt ^r not approach unto a woman to uncover her nakedness, as long as she is ^s put apart for her uncleanness.

20 Moreover, thou shalt ^t not lie carnally with thy neighbour's wife, to defile thyself with her.

21 And thou shalt not let any of thy ^u seed pass through the fire to ^v Molech, neither shalt thou ^w profane the name of thy God: I am the LORD.

22 Thou shalt not ^x lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination.

23 Neither shalt thou ^y lie with any beast to defile thyself therewith: neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto: it is confusion.

24 Defile not ye yourselves in any of these things: for in all these the nations are defiled which I cast out before you:

25 And the land is defiled: therefore I do ^z visit the iniquity thereof upon it, and the land itself ^{aa} vomiteth out her inhabitants.

26 Ye shall therefore keep my statutes and my judgments, and shall not commit any of these abomi-nations; neither any of your own nation, nor any stranger that sojourneth among you:

27 (For all these abominations have the men of the land done, which were before you, and the land is defiled;)

28 That the land spue not you out also, when ye defile it, as it spued out the nations that were before you.

29 For whosoever shall commit any of these abominations, even the souls that commit them shall be ^d cut off from among their people.

30 Therefore shall ye keep mine ^e ordinance, that ye commit not any one of these abominable customs, which were committed before you, and that ye defile not yourselves therein: I am the LORD your God.

CHAPTER XIX.

A repetition of sundry laws.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, and say unto them, Ye shall ^a be holy: for I the LORD your God am holy.

3 ¶ Ye shall fear every man ^b his mother and his father, and keep ^c my sabbaths: I am the LORD your God.

4 ¶ Turn ye not unto ^d idols, nor make to yourselves ^e molten gods: I am the LORD your God.

5 ¶ And if ye offer a sacrifice of ^f peace-offerings unto the LORD, ye shall offer it at your own will.

6 It shall be eaten the same day ye offer it, and on the morrow: and if aught remain until the third day, it shall be ^g burnt in the fire.

7 And if it be eaten at all on the third day, it is ^h abominable; it shall not be accepted.

8 Therefore every one that eateth it shall bear ⁱ his iniquity, because he hath profaned the hallowed thing of the LORD; and that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

9 ¶ And when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt ^j not wholly reap the corners of thy field, neither shalt thou gather the gleanings of thy harvest.

10 And thou shalt not glean thy vineyard, neither ^k shalt thou gather every grape of thy vineyard; thou shalt ^l leave them for the poor and stranger: I am the LORD your God.

11 Ye shall not steal, neither ^m deal falsely, neither lie one to another.

12 And ye shall not swear by my name ⁿ falsely, neither shalt thou profane the ^o name of thy God: I am the LORD.

13 Thou shalt not ^p defraud thy neighbour, neither rob him: the ^q wages of him that is hired shall not abide with thee all night until the morning.

14 Thou shalt ^r not curse the deaf, nor ^s put a stumbling-block before the blind, but shalt fear thy God: I am the LORD.

15 Ye shall do no ^t unrighteousness in judgment; thou shalt not ^u respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty: but in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour.

16 Thou shalt not go up and down ^v as ^w a tale-bearer among thy people; neither shalt thou ^x stand against the blood of thy neighbour; I am the LORD.

17 Thou shalt ^y not hate thy brother in thy heart: thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbour, || and not suffer sin upon him.

18 Thou shalt ^z not avenge, nor bear any ^{aa} grudge against the children of thy people, but thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: I am the LORD.

19 Ye shall keep my statutes. Thou shalt not let thy °cattle gender with a diverse kind: Thou shalt not sow thy field with mingled seed: neither shall a garment mingled of linen and °woollen come upon thee.

20 And whosoever lieth °carnally with a woman that is a bond-maid betrothed to a husband, and not at all redeemed, nor freedom given her; she shall be scourged: they shall not be put to death, because she was °not free.

21 And he shall bring his trespass-offering unto the LORD, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, even a ram for a trespass-offering.

22 And the priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass-offering before the LORD for his sin which he hath done; and the sin which he hath done shall be forgiven him.

23 ¶ And when ye shall come into the land, and shall have planted all manner of trees for food; then ye shall count the fruit thereof as uncircumcised: three years shall it be as uncircumcised unto you: it shall not be eaten of.

24 But in the fourth year all the fruit thereof shall be °holy to praise the LORD withal.

25 And in the fifth year shall ye eat of the fruit thereof, that it may yield unto you the °increase thereof: I am the LORD your God.

26 ¶ Ye shall not eat any thing °with the blood: neither shall ye use °enchantment, nor °observe times.

27 Ye shall not °round the corners of your heads, neither shalt thou °mar the corners of thy beard.

28 Ye shall not make any °cuttings in your flesh for the °dead, nor °print any marks upon you: I am the LORD.

29 ¶ Do not prostitute thy daughter to cause her to be °a whore: lest the land fall to whoredom, and the land become full of wickedness.

30 ¶ Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and °reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD.

31 ¶ Regard not them that have °familiar spirits, neither seek after °wizards, to be defiled by them: I am the LORD your God.

32 ¶ Thou shalt rise up before the °hoary head, and honour the face of the °old man, and fear thy God: I am the LORD.

33 ¶ And if °a stranger sojourn with thee in your land, ye shall not vex him.

34 But the stranger that dwelleth with you shall be unto you °as one born among you, and thou shalt love him as thyself; for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

35 ¶ Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in °mete-yard, in weight, or in measure.

36 °Just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin shall ye have: I am the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt.

37 Therefore shall ye observe all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them: I am the LORD.

CHAPTER XX.

6 Of going to wizards...7 Of sanctification...9 Of him that curseth his parents...10 Of adultery...11, 14, 17, 19 Of incest...13 Of sodomy...15 Of bestiality.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 ¶ Again thou shalt say to the children of Israel, Whosoever he be of the children of Israel, or of the °strangers that sojourn in Israel, that giveth any of his seed unto °Molech, °he shall surely be put to death: the people of the land shall °stone him with stones.

3 And I will °set my face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people; because he hath given of his seed unto Molech, °to defile my sanctuary, and to profane °my holy name.

4 ¶ And if the people of the land do any ways °hide their eyes from the man, when he giveth of his seed unto Molech, and kill him not;

5 Then I will set °my face against that man, and against his °family, and will °cut him off, and all that go °a whoring after him, to commit whoredom with Molech, from among their people.

6 ¶ And °the soul that turneth after such as have familiar spirits, and after wizards, to go a whoring after them, I will even set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people.

7 ¶ Sanctify yourselves therefore and be ye holy: for I am the LORD your God.

8 And ye shall keep my statutes, and do them: I am the LORD which °sanctify you.

9 ¶ For every one that °curseth his father or his mother, shall be surely put °to death: he hath cursed his father or his mother: his °blood shall be upon him.

10 ¶ And the man that committeth adultery with another man's wife, even he that committeth adultery with his neighbour's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be °put to death.

11 ¶ And the man that lieth with his father's wife hath uncovered his father's nakedness: both of them shall surely be put to death: their °blood shall be upon them.

12 And if a man °lie with his daughter-in-law, both of them shall surely be put to death: they have wrought confusion; their blood shall be upon them.

13 ¶ If a man also lie with mankind, °as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

14 ¶ And if a man take a wife and her mother, it is °wickedness: they shall be burnt with fire, both he and they: that there be no wickedness among you.

15 ¶ And if a man lie with a beast, he shall surely be put to death: and ye shall slay the beast.

16 And if a woman approach unto any beast, and lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman and the beast; they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

17 And if a man shall take his sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter, and see her nakedness, and she see his nakedness: it is °a wicked thing; and they shall be cut off in the sight of their people: he hath uncovered his sister's nakedness; he shall bear his iniquity.

18 ¶ And if a man shall lie with a woman having her °sickness, and shall uncover her nakedness; he hath discovered her fountain, and she hath uncovered the °fountain of her blood: and both of them shall be °cut off from among their people.

19 ¶ And thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister, nor of thy father's sister: for he uncovereth his near kin: they shall bear their iniquity.

20 And if a man shall lie with his °uncle's wife, he hath uncovered his uncle's nakedness: they shall bear their sin; they shall die childless.

21 And if a man shall take his brother's wife, it is an °unclean thing: he hath uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Of the priest's mourning....7, 15 Of their marriages.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto the ^apriests the sons of Aaron, and say unto them, There shall none be ^bdefiled for the ^cdead among his people:

2 But for his ^dkin, that is near unto him, that is, for his mother, and for his father, and for his son, and for his daughter, and for his brother,

3 And for his sister a virgin, that is nigh unto him, which hath had ^eno husband: for her may he be defiled.

4 But he shall not defile himself, being ^fa chief man among his people, to profane himself.

5 They shall ^gnot make baldness upon their head, neither shall they shave off the ^hcorner of their beard, nor make any ⁱcuttings in their flesh.

6 ¶ They shall be holy unto their God, and not ^kprofane the name of their God: for the ^lofferings of the LORD made by fire, and the bread of their God they do offer: therefore they shall be holy.

7 ¶ They shall not take a wife that is a ^mwhore, or profane; neither shall they take a woman ⁿput away from her husband: for he is holy unto his God.

8 ¶ Thou shalt ^osanctify him therefore, for he offereth the bread of thy God: he shall be holy unto thee: for I the LORD, which sanctify you, am holy.

9 And the daughter of any priest, if she profane herself by playing the whore, she profaneth her father: she shall be burnt with fire.

10 And he that is the ^phigh priest among his brethren, upon whose head the anointing oil was poured, and that is consecrated to put on the garments, shall ^qnot uncover his head, nor rend his clothes;

11 Neither shall he ^rgo in to any dead body, nor defile himself for his father, or for his mother;

12 Neither shall he go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God; for the ^scrown of the anointing oil of his God is upon him: I am the LORD.

13 ¶ And he shall take ^ta wife in her virginity.

14 A widow, or a divorced woman, or profane, or a harlot, these shall he not take: but he shall take a virgin of ^uhis own people to wife.

15 Neither shall he profane his seed among his people: for I the LORD do sanctify him.

24 And Moses told it unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the children of Israel.

CHAPTER XXII.

The priests in their uncleanness must abstain from the holy things.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, that they ^aseparate themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, and that they profane not my ^bholy name in those things which they ^challow unto me: I am the LORD.

8 That which dieth of itself, or is ^ltorn with beasts, he shall not eat to defile himself therewith: I am the LORD.

9 They shall therefore keep mine ordinance, lest they bear ^msin for it, and ⁿdie therefore, if they profane it: I the LORD do sanctify them.

10 ¶ There shall ^ono stranger eat of the holy thing: a sojourner of the priest, or a hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing.

13 But if the priest's daughter be a widow, or divorced, and have no child, and is returned unto her father's house, as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's meat; but there shall no stranger eat thereof.

14 And if a man eat of the holy thing unwittingly, then he shall put the fifth part thereof unto it, and shall give it unto the priest, with the holy thing.

15 And they shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel which they offer unto the LORD:

16 Or suffer them to bear the iniquity of trespass, when they eat their holy things: for I the LORD do sanctify them.

17 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

18 Speak unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them, Whatsoever he be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, that will offer his oblation for all his vows, and for all his free-will-offerings, which they will offer unto the LORD for a burnt-offering:

19 Ye shall offer at your own will a male without blemish of the beeves, of the sheep, or of the goats.

20 But whatsoever hath a blemish, that shall ye not offer: for it shall not be acceptable for you.

21 And whosoever offereth a sacrifice of peace-offerings unto the LORD to accomplish his vow, or a free-will-offering in beeves, or sheep, it shall be perfect to be accepted: there shall be no blemish therein.

22 Blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a wen, or scurvy, or scabbed, ye shall not offer these unto the LORD, nor make an offering by fire of them upon the altar unto the LORD.

23 Either a bullock, or a lamb that hath any thing superfluous or lacking in his parts, that mayest thou offer for a free-will-offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted.

24 Ye shall not offer unto the LORD that which is bruised, or crushed, or broken, or cut; neither shall ye make any offering thereof in your land.

25 Neither from a stranger's hand shall ye offer the bread of your God of any of these; because their corruption is in them, and blemishes be in them: they shall not be accepted for you.

26 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

27 When a bullock, or a sheep, or a goat is brought forth, then it shall be seven days under the dam; and from the eighth day and thenceforth it shall be accepted for an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

28 And whether it be cow, or ewe, ye shall not kill it and her young both in one day.

29 ¶ And when ye will offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving unto the LORD, offer it at your own will.

30 On the same day it shall be eaten up, ye shall leave none of it until the morrow: I am the LORD.

31 Therefore shall ye keep my commandments, and do them: I am the LORD.

32 Neither shall ye profane my holy name; but I will be hallowed among the children of Israel: I am the LORD which hallow you, 33 That brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 The feast of the Lord...3 The sabbath...26 The day of atonement...33 The feast of tabernacles.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, Concerning the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, even these are my feasts.

3 ¶ Six days shall work be done: but the seventh day is the sabbath of rest, a holy convocation: ye shall do no work therein: it is the sabbath of the LORD in all your dwellings.

4 These are the feasts of the LORD, even holy convocations, which ye shall proclaim in their seasons.

5 In the fourteenth day of the first month at even is the LORD's passover.

6 And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread unto the LORD: seven days ye must eat unleavened bread.

7 In the first day ye shall have a holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

8 But ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD seven days: in the seventh day is a holy convocation, ye shall do no servile work therein.

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come into the land which I give unto you, and shall reap the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a sheaf of the first-fruits of your harvest unto the priest:

11 And he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD, to be accepted for you: on the morrow after the sabbath the priest shall wave it.

12 And ye shall offer that day when ye wave the sheaf, a he-lamb without blemish of the first year for a burnt-offering unto the LORD.

13 And the meat-offering thereof shall be two tenth-deals of fine flour mingled with oil, an offering made by fire unto the LORD for a sweet savour: and the drink-offering thereof shall be of wine, the fourth part of a hin.

14 And ye shall eat neither bread, nor parched corn, nor green ears, until the self-same day that ye have brought an offering unto your God: It shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

15 ¶ And ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave-offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete:

16 Even unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath shall ye number fifty days; and ye shall offer a new meat-offering unto the LORD.

17 Ye shall bring out of your habitations two wave-loaves, of two tenth-deals: they shall be of fine flour, they shall be baked with leaven, they are the first-fruits unto the LORD.

18 And ye shall offer with the bread seven lambs without blemish of the first year, and one young bullock, and two rams: they shall be for a burnt-offering unto the LORD, with their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings, even an offering made by fire of sweet savour unto the LORD.

19 Then ye shall sacrifice one kid of the goats for a sin-offering, and two lambs of the first year for a sacrifice of peace-offerings.

20 And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the first-fruits for a wave-offering before the LORD, with the two lambs: they shall be holy to the LORD for the priest.

21 And ye shall proclaim on the self-same day, that it may be a holy convocation unto you: ye shall do no servile work therein. It shall be a statute for ever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

35 Compassion of the poor....39 The usage of bondmen....47 The redemption of servants.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses ^{||} in mount Sinai, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into ^a the land which I give you, then shall the land keep a sabbath unto the LORD.

3 Six years thou shalt sow thy field, and six years thou shalt prune thy vineyard, and gather in the fruit thereof;

4 But in the seventh year shall be a ^b sabbath of rest unto the ^c land, a sabbath for the LORD: thou shalt neither sow thy field, nor prune thy vineyard.

5 That which groweth of its own accord of thy harvest, thou shalt not reap, neither gather the grapes of thy vine undressed: for it is a year of rest unto the land.

6 And the sabbath of the land shall be meat for you; for thee, and for thy servant, and for thy maid, and for thy hired servant, and for thy stranger that sojourneth with thee,

7 And for thy cattle, and for the beast that are in thy land, shall all the increase thereof ^d be meat.

8 [¶] And thou shalt number ^e seven sabbaths of years unto thee, seven times seven years; and the space of the seven sabbaths of years shall be unto thee ^f forty and nine years.

9 Then shalt thou cause the trumpet of the jubilee ^g to sound on the ^h tenth day of the seventh month, in the day of atonement shall ye make the trumpet sound throughout all your land.

10 And ye shall ⁱ hallow the fiftieth year, and ^k proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be ^l a jubilee unto you; and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man ^m unto his family.

11 A jubilee shall that fiftieth year be unto you: ye shall not sow, neither reap that which groweth of itself in it, nor gather the grapes in it of thy vine undressed.

12 For it is the jubilee; it shall be ⁿ holy unto you: ye shall eat the increase thereof ^o out of the field.

13 In the year of this jubilee ye shall return every man unto his possession.

14 [¶] And if thou sell aught unto thy neighbour, or buyest aught of thy neighbour's hand, ye shall not oppress one another:

15 ^q According to the number of years after the jubilee, thou shalt buy of thy neighbour, and according unto the number of years of the fruits he shall sell unto thee:

16 According to the multitude of years thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewness of years thou shalt diminish the price of it: for according to the number of the years of the fruits doth he sell unto thee.

17 Ye shall not therefore oppress one another; but thou shalt ^r fear thy God: for I am the LORD your God.

18 [¶] Wherefore ye shall do my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them; and ye shall dwell in the land ^s in safety.

19 And the land shall ^t yield her fruit, and ye shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety.

20 And if ye shall say, ^u What shall we eat the seventh year? behold, we shall not sow nor gather in our increase:

21 Then I will ^v command my blessing upon you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for three years.

22 And ye shall sow the eighth year, and ^z eat yet of old fruit until the ninth year; until her fruits come in ye shall eat of the old store.

23 [¶] The land shall not be sold for ever; for the land ^a is mine, for ye are strangers and ^b sojourners with me.

24 And in all the land of your possession ye shall grant ^c a redemption for the land.

25 [¶] If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away some of his possession, and if ^d any of his kin come to redeem it, then shall he redeem that which ^e his brother sold.

26 And if the man have none to redeem it, and ^f himself be able to redeem it;

27 Then let him count the years of the sale thereof, and restore the overplus unto the man to whom he sold it; that he may return unto his possession.

28 But if he be not able to restore it to him, then that which is sold shall remain in the hand of him that hath bought it until the year of jubilee: and in the jubilee it shall go out, and he shall return unto his ^g possession.

29 [¶] And if a man sell a dwelling-house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold: within a full year may he redeem it.

30 And if it be not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be established for ever to him that bought it, throughout his generations: it shall not go out in the jubilee.

31 But the houses of the villages which have no walls round about them, shall be counted as the fields of the country: they may be redeemed, and they shall go out in the jubilee.

32 Notwithstanding the cities of the Levites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Levites redeem at any time.

33 And if a man purchase of the Levites, then the house that was sold, and the city of his possession shall go out in the year of jubilee; for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel.

34 But the field of the suburbs of their cities may ^h not be sold, for it is their perpetual possession.

35 [¶] And if thy brother be waxen poor, and fallen in decay with thee; then thou shalt ⁱ relieve him: yea, though he be a stranger, or a sojourner; that he may live with thee.

36 Take thou ^k no usury of him, or ^l increase; but fear thy God; that thy brother may live with thee.

37 Thou shalt not give him thy money upon usury, nor lend him thy victuals for increase.

38 I am the LORD ^m your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.

39 [¶] And if thy brother that dwelleth by thee be waxen poor, and ⁿ be sold unto thee; thou shalt not ^o compel him to serve as a bond-servant:

40 But as a hired servant, and as a sojourner he shall be with thee, and shall serve thee unto the year of jubilee:

own family, and unto the possession of his fathers shall he return.

42 For they are ^r my servants which I brought forth out of the land of Egypt; they shall not be sold as bond-men.

43 Thou shalt not rule over him with ^s rigour, but shalt ^t fear thy God.

44 Both thy bond-men, and thy bond-maids, which thou shalt have, shall be of the ^u heathen that are round about you; of them shall ye buy bond-men and bond-maids.

45 Moreover, of the children of the strangers that do sojourn among you, of them shall ye ^x buy, and of their families that are with you, which they begat in your land: and they shall be your possession.

46 And ye shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them for a possession, ^y they shall be your bond-men for ever: but over your brethren the children of Israel, ye shall not rule one over another with rigour.

47 ¶ And if a sojourner or a stranger wax ^z rich by thee, and thy brother that dwelleth by him wax poor, and sell himself unto the stranger or sojourner by thee, or to the ¹ stock of the stranger's family:

48 After that he is sold he may be redeemed again; one of his brethren may redeem him:

49 Either his uncle, or his uncle's son may redeem him, or ^a any that is nigh of kin unto him of his family may redeem him; or if he be able, he may redeem himself.

50 And he shall reckon with him that bought him, from the year that he was sold to him, unto the year of jubilee: and the price of his sale shall be according unto the number of years, according to the ^t time of a hired servant shall it be with him.

51 If there be yet many years behind, according unto them he shall give again the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for.

52 And if there remain but few years unto the year of jubilee, then he shall count with him, and according unto his years shall he give him again the price of his redemption.

53 And as a yearly hired servant shall he be with him: and the other shall not rule with rigour over him in thy sight.

54 And if he be not redeemed in these years, then he shall go out in the year ^b of jubilee, both he, and his children with him.

55 For unto me the children of Israel are servants, they are my servants whom ^c I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 Of idolatry....3 A blessing to them that keep the commandments
14 A curse to those that break them.

YE shall make you no idols nor graven ^a image, neither rear you up a ^b standing image, neither shall ye set up ^c any image of stone in your land, to bow down unto it: for I am the LORD your God.

2 ¶ Ye shall keep ^d my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD.

3 ¶ If ye ^e walk in my statutes and keep my commandments, and do them;

4 Then I will give you ^f rain in due season, and the land shall yield ^g her increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit:

5 And your threshing shall reach unto the ^h vintage, and the vintage shall reach unto the sowing-time; and ye shall eat your bread to the ⁱ full, and dwell in your land ^j safely.

6 And I will give ^m peace in the land, and ye shall lie down, and none shall make ⁿ you afraid: and I will rid ^o evil beasts out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land.

7 And ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall ^p before you by the sword.

8 And ^q five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight: and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.

9 For I will have respect unto you, and make you ^r fruitful, and multiply you, and establish my covenant with you.

10 And ye shall eat ^s old store, and bring forth the old because of the new.

11 And I will ^t set my tabernacle among you: and my soul shall not abhor you.

12 And I will ^u walk among you, and will be ^x your God, and ye shall be my people.

13 I am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that ye should not be their ^y bond-men, and I have broken the bands of your yoke, and made you go upright.

14 ¶ But if ye will ^z not hearken unto me, and will not do all these commandments;

15 And if ye shall ^a despise my statutes, or if your soul abhor my judgments, so that ye will not do all my commandments, but that ye break my covenant:

16 I also will do this unto you, I will even appoint over you ^b terror, consumption, and the ^c burning ague, that shall ^d consume the eyes, and ^e cause sorrow of heart: and ye shall sow your seed in vain; for your ^f enemies shall eat it.

17 And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be ^g slain before your enemies: they that hate you shall ^h reign over you, and ye shall flee when ⁱ none pursueth you.

18 And if ye will not yet ^k for all this hearken unto me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins.

19 And I will break the ^l pride of your power; and I will make your heaven as ^m iron, and your earth as brass:

20 And your strength shall be spent ⁿ in vain for your land shall not yield her ^o increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruits

21 And if ye walk contrary unto me, and will ^p not hearken unto me, I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins.

22 I will also send ^q wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number, and your ^r highways shall be ^s desolate.

23 And if ye will not be reformed ^t by me by these things, but will walk contrary unto me;

24 Then will I also ^u walk contrary unto you, and will punish you yet seven times for your sins.

25 And I will bring a sword upon you, that shall avenge the quarrel of ^v my covenant: and when ye are gathered together within your cities, I will send the pestilence among you: and ye shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.

26 And when I have broken the ^w staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver ^x you your bread again by ^y weight: and ye shall eat and ^z not be satisfied.

27 And if ye will not for all this hearken unto me, but walk contrary unto me;

28 Then I will walk contrary unto you also in

30 And I will destroy your high places, and cut down your images, and ^b cast your carcasses upon the carcasses of your idols, and ^c my soul shall abhor you.

31 And I will make your ^d cities waste, and bring your sanctuaries unto desolation, and I will not smell the savour of your sweet odours.

32 And I will bring the land into ^e desolation: and your enemies which dwell therein shall be astonished at it.

33 And I will ^f scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.

34 Then shall the land enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye ^g be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths.

35 As long as it lieth desolate it ^h shall rest: because it did ⁱ not rest in your sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it.

36 And upon them that are left ^j alive of you, I will send ^k a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a ^l shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, ^m as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall, when none pursueth.

37 And they shall fall one upon another, as it were before a sword, when none pursueth: and ye shall have no power to stand before your enemies.

38 And ye shall ⁿ perish among the heathen, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up.

39 And they that are left of you shall ^o pine away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also in the iniquities of their ^p fathers shall they pine away with them.

40 ¶ If they shall ^q confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, with their trespass which they trespassed against me, and that also they have walked contrary unto me;

41 And ^r that I also have walked contrary unto them, and have brought them into the land of their enemies: if then their ^s uncircumcised hearts be ^t humbled, and they then accept of the punishment of their iniquity:

42 Then will I ^u remember my covenant ^v with Jacob, and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will remember ^w the land.

43 The land also shall be left of them, and shall enjoy her sabbaths, while she lieth desolate without them: and they shall accept of the punishment of their iniquity; ^x because, even because they despised my judgments, and because their soul abhorred my statutes.

44 And yet for all that, when they be in the ^y land of their enemies, I will not cast them away, neither will I abhor them, to ^z destroy them utterly, and to break my covenant with them: for I ^{aa} am the LORD

45 But I will ^{ab} for their sakes remember the covenant of their ^{ac} ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the heathen, that I might be their God: I ^{ad} am the LORD.

46 These ^{ae} are the statutes, and judgments, and laws, which the LORD made ^{af} between him and the children of Israel in ^{ag} mount Sinai by the hand of Moses.

² He that maketh a singular vow must be the Lord's.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

² Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When a man shall make a singular ^a vow, the ^b persons shall be for ^c the LORD, by thy estimation.

3 ¶ And thy estimation shall be, of the male from twenty years old even unto sixty years old, even thy estimation shall be ^d fifty shekels of silver, after the shekel of the ^e sanctuary.

4 And if it ^f be a female, then thy estimation shall be ^g thirty shekels.

5 And if it ^h be from ⁱ five years old even unto twenty years old, then thy estimation shall be of the male twenty shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

6 And if it ^j be from ^k a month old even unto five years old, then thy estimation shall be of the male five shekels of silver, and for the female thy estimation shall be three shekels of silver.

7 And if it ^l be from sixty years old and above; if it ^m be a male, then thy estimation shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

8 But if he be poorer than thy estimation, then he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall value him: according to his ⁿ ability that vowed shall the priest value him.

9 ¶ And if it ^o be a beast whereof men bring an offering unto the LORD, all that ^p any man giveth of such unto the LORD shall be holy.

10 He shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: and if he shall at all change beast for beast, then it and the exchange thereof shall be holy.

11 And if it ^q be any ^r unclean beast, of which they do not offer a sacrifice unto the LORD, then he shall present the beast before the priest:

12 And the priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad: as thou valuest it ^s who ^t art the priest, so shall it be.

13 But if he will at all redeem it, then he shall add ^u a fifth part thereof unto thy estimation.

14 ¶ And when a man shall ^v sanctify his house to be holy unto the LORD, then the priest shall estimate it, whether it be good or bad: as the priest shall estimate it, so shall it stand.

15 And if he that sanctified it will redeem his house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be his.

16 ¶ And if a man shall sanctify ^w unto the LORD some part of a field of his possession, then thy estimation shall be according to the seed thereof: a ^x homer of barley seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver.

17 If he sanctify his field from ^y the year of jubilee, according to thy estimation it shall stand.

18 But if he sanctify his field after the jubilee, then the priest shall reckon unto him the money according to the years that remain, even unto the year of the ^z jubilee, and it shall be abated from thy estimation.

19 And if he that sanctified the field will in any wise redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be assured to him.

20 And if he will not redeem the field, or if he have sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more.

21 But the ^{aa} field, when it goeth out in the jubilee, shall be holy unto the LORD, as ^{ab} a field devoted to the possession thereof shall be the priest's.

22 And if ^{ac} a man sanctify unto the LORD a field which he hath bought, which is not of the fields of his possession;

33 He shall not search whether it be good or bad, neither shall he change it : and if he change it at all, then both it and the change thereof shall be holy ; it shall not be redeemed.

34 These are the commandments which the LORD commanded Moses for the children of Israel in ^e mount Sinai.

¶ The FOURTH Book of Moses, called NUMBERS.

CHAPTER I.

1 God commandeth Moses to number the people.

1490.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of ^a Sinai, in the ^b tabernacle of the congregation, on the first day of the ^c second month, in the second year ^d after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 Take ye the ^e sum of all the congregation of the ^f children of Israel, after their ^g families, by the house of their fathers, with the number of their names, every male by their polls :

3 From twenty years old and upward, all that are ^h able to go forth to war in Israel ; thou and Aaron shall ⁱ number them by their armies.

4 And with you there shall be a man of every tribe ; every one head of the house of his fathers.

5 ¶ And these are the names of the men that shall stand with you : Of the tribe of Reuben ; Elizur the son of Shedeur.

6 Of Simeon ; Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

7 Of Judah ; Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

8 Of Issachar ; Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

9 Of Zebulun ; Eliab the son of Helon.

10 Of the children of Joseph : of Ephraim ; Elishama the son of Ammihud : of Manasseh ; Gammaliel the son of Pedahzur.

11 Of Benjamin ; Abidan the son of || Gideoni.

12 Of Dan ; Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

13 Of Asher ; Pagiel the son of Ocran.

14 Of Gad : Eliasaph the son of ⁱ Deuel.

15 ^k Of Naphtali ; Ahira the son of Enan.

16 These were the ^l renowned of the congregation, ^m princes of the tribes of their fathers, ⁿ heads of ^o thousands in Israel.

17 ¶ And Moses and Aaron took these men which are expressed by their names :

18 And they assembled all the congregation together on the first day of the second month, and they declared their pedigrees after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, by their polls.

19 ^p As the LORD commanded Moses, so he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.

20 And the children of Reuben, Israel's eldest son, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war ;

21 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Reuben, were forty and six thousand and five hundred.

22 Of the children of Simeon, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, those that were numbered of them, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every ^q male from twenty years old and upward, all that were ^r able to go forth to war ;

23 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of ^s Simeon, were fifty and nine thousand and three hundred.

24 Of the children of ^t Gad, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war ;

25 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Gad, were forty and ^u five thousand six hundred and fifty.

26 Of the children of ^x Judah, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war ;

27 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Judah, were † threescore and fourteen thousand and six hundred.

28 Of the children of ^y Issachar, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war ;

29 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Issachar, were ^z fifty and four thousand and four hundred.

30 Of the children of ^a Zebulun, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war ;

43 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Naphtali, were fifty and three thousand and four hundred.

44 These are those that were numbered, which Moses and Aaron numbered, and the princes of Israel, being ^o twelve men: each one was for the house of his fathers.

45 So were all those that were numbered of the children of Israel, by the house of their fathers, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war in Israel;

46 Even all they that were numbered, were ^p six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty.

47 ¶ But the ^q Levites, after the tribe of their fathers, were not numbered among them.

48 For the LORD had spoken unto Moses, saying,

49 Only thou shalt not number the tribe of Levi, neither take the sum of them among the children of Israel:

50 But thou shalt appoint the Levites over the ^r tabernacle of testimony, and over all the vessels thereof, and over all things that belong to it: they shall ^a bear the tabernacle, and all the vessels thereof, and they shall minister unto it, and shall encamp round about the tabernacle.

51 And when the tabernacle ^t setteth forward, the Levites shall take it down; and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up: and the ^u stranger that cometh nigh shall be ^x put to death.

52 And the children of Israel shall pitch their tents every man by his own camp, and every man by his own ^y standard, throughout their hosts.

53 But the Levites shall pitch round about the tabernacle of testimony; that there be ^z no wrath upon the congregation of the children of Israel: and the Levites shall keep the ^a charge of the tabernacle of testimony.

54 And the children of Israel did according to ^b all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did they.

CHAPTER II.

The order of the tribes in their tents.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

2 Every man of the children of Israel shall pitch by his ^a own ^{||} standard, with the ^b ensign of their father's house: ^c far off ^d about the tabernacle of the congregation shall they pitch.

3 And on the east side toward the rising of the sun shall they of the standard of the camp of Judah pitch throughout their armies: and Nahshon the son of Amminadab, shall be ^e captain of the children of ^f Judah.

4 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were threescore and fourteen thousand and six hundred.

5 And those that do pitch next unto him, shall be the tribe of Issachar: and Nethaneel the son of Zuar shall be captain of the children of Issachar.

6 And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, were fifty and four thousand and four hundred.

7 Then the tribe of Zebulun: and Eliab the son of Helon shall be captain of the children of Zebulun.

8 And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, were fifty and seven thousand and four hundred.

9 All that were numbered in the camp of Judah were a hundred thousand and fourscore thousand and six thousand and four hundred throughout their armies: these shall ^g first set forth.

28 In the number of all the males from a month old and upward, were eight thousand and six hundred, keeping the charge of the ^e sanctuary.

29 The families of the sons of Kohath shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle ^b southward.

30 And the chief of the house of the father of the families of the Kohathites shall be Elizaphan the son of Uzziel.

31 And their charge shall be the ark, and the table, and the candlestick, and the altars, and the vessels of the sanctuary wherewith they minister, and the hanging, and all the service thereof.

32 And Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall be chief over the chief of the ⁱ Levites, and have the ^k oversight of them that keep the charge of the sanctuary.

33 ¶ Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites, and the family of the Mushites: these are the families of Merari.

34 And those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males from a month old and upward, were six thousand and two hundred.

39 All that were numbered of the Levites, which Moses and ^r Aaron numbered at the commandment of the LORD, throughout their families, all the males from a month old and upward, were ^s twenty and two thousand.

40 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, ^t Number all the first-born of the males of the children of Israel, from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names.

41 And thou shalt take the Levites ^u for me (I am the LORD) instead of all the first-born among the children of Israel; and the cattle of the Levites, instead of all the firstlings among the cattle of the children of Israel.

42 And Moses numbered, as the LORD commanded him, all the first-born among the children of Israel.

43 And all the first-born males by the number of names, from a month old and upward, of those that were numbered of them, were ^x twenty and two thousand two hundred and threescore and thirteen.

44 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

45 Take the Levites ^y instead of all the first-born among the children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of their cattle; and the Levites shall be mine: I am the LORD.

46 And for those that are to be redeemed of the two hundred and threescore and thirteen, of the first-born of the children of Israel, which are more than the Levites:

47 Thou shalt even take ^z five shekels apiece by the poll, after the shekel of the sanctuary shalt thou take them: the shekel is twenty ^a gerahs.

48 And thou shalt give the money, wherewith the odd number of them is to be redeemed, unto Aaron and to his sons.

49 And Moses took the ^b redemption-money of them that were over and above them that were redeemed by the Levites:

50 Of the first-born of the children of Israel took he the money; a thousand three hundred and threescore and five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary:

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

2 Take the sum of the sons of ^d Kohath from among the sons of Levi, after their families, by the house of their fathers;

3 From ^e thirty years old and upward, even until ^f fifty years old, all that enter into the ^g host, to do the ^h work in the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 ¶ This shall be the service of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation, about the most ⁱ holy things.

5 And when the camp ^j setteth forward, Aaron shall come, and his sons, and they shall take down the ^k covering-vail, and cover the ark of ^l testimony with it:

6 And shall put thereon the covering of ^m badgers' skins, and shall spread over it a cloth wholly of blue, and shall put in the ⁿ staves thereof.

7 And upon the ^o table of shew-bread they shall spread a cloth of blue, and put thereon the dishes, and the spoons, and the bowls, and covers to cover withal: and the ^p continual bread shall be thereon:

8 And they shall spread upon them a cloth of scarlet, and cover the same with a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put in the staves thereof.

9 And they shall take a cloth of blue, and cover the candlestick of the ^q light, and his lamps, and his tongs, and his snuff-dishes, and all the oil-vessels thereof, wherewith they minister unto it:

10 And they shall put it, and all the vessels thereof, within a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put it upon a bar.

11 And upon the ^r golden altar they shall spread a cloth of blue, and cover it with a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put to the staves thereof:

12 And they shall take all the ^s instruments of ministry, wherewith they minister in the sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blue, and cover them with a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put them on a bar.

13 And they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth thereon:

16 ¶ And to the office of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest pertaineth the oil for the light, and the sweet incense, and the daily meat-offering, and the anointing^a oil, and the oversight of all the tabernacle, and of all that therein is, in the sanctuary, and in the vessels thereof.

17 ¶ And the LORD^a spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

18 ^aCut ye not off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites:

19 But thus do unto them, that they may ^alive, and not die, when they approach unto the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in, and appoint them every one to his service and to his burden:

20 But they shall not go in^b to see when the holy things are ^ccovered, ^dlest they die.

21 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

22 Take also the sum of the sons of Gershon, throughout the houses of their fathers, by their families;

23 From thirty years old and upward until fifty years old shalt thou number them; all that enter in [†]to perform the service, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation.

24 This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, to serve, and for^e burdens.

25 And they shall bear the curtains of the tabernacle, and the tabernacle of the congregation, his covering, and the covering of the badgers' skins that is above upon it, and the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation,

26 And the hangings of the court, and the hanging for the door of the gate of the court, which is by the tabernacle and by the altar round about, and their cords, and all the instruments of their service, and all that is made for them: so shall they serve.

27 At the appointment of Aaron and his sons shall be all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, in all their burdens, and in all their service: and ye shall appoint unto them in charge all their burdens.

28 This is the service of the families of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of the congregation: and their charge shall be^c under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

29 ¶ As for the sons of Merari, thou shalt number them after their families, by the house of their fathers:

30 From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old shalt thou number them, every one that entereth into the service, to do the work of the tabernacle of the congregation.

31 And this is the charge of their burden, according to all their service in the tabernacle of the congregation; the^e boards of the tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and the pillars thereof, and^h sockets thereof,

32 And the pillars of the court round about, and theirⁱ sockets and^k their pins, and their cords, with all their instruments, and with all their service: and [†]by name ye shall reckon the instruments of the charge of their burden.

33 This is the^m service of the families of the sons of Merari, according to all their service in the tabernacle of the congregation, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

34 ¶ And Moses and Aaron and the chief of the congregation [†]numbered the sons of the Kohathites after their families and after the house of their fathers,

35 Fromⁿ thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that entereth into the service, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation:

36 And those that were numbered of them by their families were^o two thousand seven hundred and fifty.

37 These were they that were numbered of the families of the Kohathites, all that might do service in the tabernacle of the congregation, which Moses and Aaron did number^p according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

38 And those that were^q numbered of the sons of Gershon, throughout their families, and by the house of their fathers,

39 From thirty years old and upward even unto^r fifty years old, every one that entereth into the service for the work of the tabernacle of the congregation,

40 Even those that were numbered of them, throughout their families,^y by the house of their fathers, were^s two thousand and six hundred and thirty.

41 These are they that were numbered of the families of the sons of Gershon, of all that^t might do service in the tabernacle of the congregation, whom Moses and Aaron did number according to the commandment of the LORD.

42 ¶ And those that were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, throughout their families, by the house of their fathers,

43 From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that entereth into the service, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation,

44 Even those that were numbered of them after their families, were^u three thousand and two hundred.

45 These be those that were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

46 All those that were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the^x chief of Israel numbered, after their families, and after the house of their fathers,

47 From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that came to do the service of the ministry, and the service of the^y burden in the tabernacle of the congregation,

48 Even those that were numbered of them, were^z eight thousand and five hundred and fourscore.

49^a According to the commandment of the LORD they were numbered by the hand of Moses, every one according to his service, and^b according to his burden: thus were they numbered of him, as the LORD commanded Moses.

out without the camp: as the LORD spake unto Moses, so did the children of Israel.

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 6 Speak unto the children of Israel, When a man or woman shall commit ^b any sin that men commit, to do a trespass against the LORD, and that person be guilty;

7 Then they shall ⁱ confess their sin which they have done: and he shall recompense his trespass with the principal thereof, and add unto it the ^k fifth part thereof, and gave it ^l unto him against whom he hath trespassed.

8 But if the man have no kinsman to recompense the trespass unto, let the trespass be recompensed unto the LORD, even to the priest; besides the ^m ram of the atonement, whereby an atonement shall be made for him.

9 And every ⁿ offering of ^o all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring ^p unto the priest, shall be his.

10 And every man's hallowed things shall be his: whatsoever any man giveth the priest, it ^q shall be his.

11 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man's wife ^r go aside, and commit a trespass against him,

13 And a man lie with her ^s carnally, and it ^t be hid from the eyes of her husband, and be kept close, and she be defiled, and there be ^u no witness against her, neither she be taken with the manner;

14 And the ^x spirit of ^y jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be defiled: or if the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be not defiled:

15 Then shall the man bring his wife unto the ^z priest, and he shall bring her offering for her, the ^a tenth part of an ephah of ^b barley meal; he shall pour no ^c oil upon it, nor put frankincense thereon; for it is an offering of jealousy, an offering of memorial bringing iniquity to remembrance.

16 And the priest shall bring her near, and ^d set her before the LORD:

17 And the priest shall take ^e holy water in an earthen vessel; and of the ^f dust that is in the floor of the ^g tabernacle the priest shall take, and put it into the water:

18 And the priest shall set the woman before the LORD, and ^h uncover the woman's head, and put the offering of memorial in her hands, which is the jealousy-offering: and the priest shall have in his hand the ⁱ bitter water that ^k causeth the curse:

19 And the priest shall charge her by an oath, and say unto the woman, If no man have lain with thee, and if thou hast not gone aside to uncleanness with another ^l instead of thy husband, be thou free from this bitter water that causeth the curse:

20 But if thou hast gone aside to another instead of thy husband, and if thou be defiled, and some man hath ^m lain with thee besides thy husband:

21 Then the priest shall ⁿ charge the woman with an oath of cursing, and the priest shall say unto the woman, The LORD make thee ^o a curse and an oath among thy people, when the LORD doth make thy thigh to ^p rot, and thy belly to swell:

22 And this water that causeth the curse shall go into thy bowels, to make thy belly to swell, and thy thigh to rot. And the woman shall say, ^q Amen, amen.

23 And the priest shall write these curses in ^r a book, and he shall ^s blot them out with the bitter water:

24 And he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter water that causeth the curse: and the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter.

25 Then the priest shall take the jealousy-offering out of the woman's hand, and shall wave the offering before the LORD, and offer it upon the altar:

26 And the priest shall take a handful of the offering, even the memorial thereof, and burn it upon the altar, and afterward shall cause the woman to drink the water.

27 And when he hath made her to drink the water, then it shall come to pass, that, if she be defiled, and have done trespass against her husband, that the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh ^t shall rot: and the woman shall be a curse among her people.

28 And if the woman be not defiled, but be clean; then she shall be free, and shall ^u conceive seed.

29 This is the law of jealousies, when a wife goeth aside to ^v another instead of her husband, and is defiled;

30 Or when the spirit of jealousy cometh upon him, and he be jealous over his wife, and shall set the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute upon her all this law.

31 Then shall the man be guiltless from iniquity, and this woman shall ^w bear her iniquity.

2 The law of the Nazarite....24 The form of blessing the people.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When either man or woman shall ^a separate themselves to ^b vow a vow of a ^c Nazarite, to separate themselves ^d unto the LORD:

3 He shall separate himself from ^e wine and ^f strong drink, and shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink, neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moist grapes, or dried.

4 All the days of his separation shall he eat nothing that is made of the ^g vine-tree, from the ^h kernels even to the husk.

5 All the days of the vow of his separation there shall no ⁱ razor come upon his head: until the days be fulfilled, in the which he separateth himself unto the LORD, he shall be holy, and shall let the ^k locks of the hair of his head grow.

6 All the days that he separateth himself unto the LORD, he shall come at no ^l dead body.

7 He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother, or for his sister, when they die: because the consecration of his God is upon his head.

8 All the days of his separation he is holy unto the LORD.

9 And if any man die very suddenly by him, and he hath defiled the head of his consecration; then he shall ^m shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day shall he shave it.

10 And on the eighth day he shall bring two turtles, or two ⁿ young pigeons, to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation:

atonement for him, for that he ^o sinned by the dead, and shall hallow his head that same day.

12 And he shall ^p consecrate unto the LORD the days of his separation, and shall bring a lamb of the first year for a trespass-offering: but the days that were before shall be ^q lost, because his separation was defiled.

13 ¶ And this is the law of the Nazarite: When the days of his separation are fulfilled, he shall be ^r brought unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation:

14 And he shall offer his offering unto the LORD, one he-lamb of the first year without blemish for a burnt-offering, and one ewe-lamb of the first year without blemish for a sin-offering, and one ram without blemish for ^s peace-offerings,

15 And a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, and ^t wafers of unleavened bread anointed with oil, and their meat-offerings and ^u their drink-offerings.

16 And the ^x priest shall bring them before the LORD, and shall offer his sin-offering, and his burnt-offering:

17 And he shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace-offerings unto the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread: the priest shall offer also his ^y meat-offering, and his drink-offering.

18 And the Nazarite shall ^z shave the head of his separation at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall take the hair of the head of his separation, and put it in the ^a fire which is ^b under the sacrifice of the peace-offerings.

19 And the priest shall take the ^c sodden shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them, upon the hands of the Nazarite, after the hair of his separation is shaven:

20 And the priest shall ^d wave them for a wave-offering before the LORD: this is holy for the priest, with the wave-breast, and heave-shoulder: and after that, the Nazarite may drink wine.

21 This is the law of the Nazarite who hath vowed, and of his offering unto the LORD ^e for his separation, besides that that his hand shall get: according to the vow which he vowed, so he must do after the law of his separation.

22 ¶ And the LORD ^f spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Speak unto Aaron and unto his ^g sons, saying, On this wise ye shall bless the children of Israel, saying unto them,

24 The LORD ^h bless thee, and ⁱ keep thee:

25 The LORD ^k make his face shine upon thee, and ^l be gracious unto thee:

26 The LORD ^m lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee ⁿ peace.

27 And they shall put my name upon the children of Israel, and ^o I will bless them.

CHAPTER VII.

1 The offering of the princes at the dedication of the tabernacle.

AND it came to pass ^a on the day that Moses had fully set up the tabernacle, and had ^b anointed it, and sanctified it, and all the instruments thereof, both the altar and all the vessels thereof, and had anointed them, and ^c sanctified them;

2 That the princes of Israel, ^d heads of the house of their fathers, who were the princes of the tribes, and ^e were over them that were numbered, offered:

3 And they brought their offering before the LORD, six ^f covered wagons, and twelve oxen; a wagon for two of the princes, and for each one an ox: and they brought them before the tabernacle.

4 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

5 Take it of them, that they may be to ^g do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; and thou shalt give them unto the Levites, to every man according to his service.

6 And Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them unto the Levites:

7 Two wagons and four oxen he gave unto the sons of Gershon, according to their service:

8 ^h And four wagons and eight oxen he gave unto the sons of Merari, according unto their service, ⁱ under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

9 But unto the sons of Kohath he gave none: because the service of the ^k sanctuary belonging unto them was that they should bear upon ^l their shoulders.

10 ¶ And the princes offered for dedicating ^m of the altar in the day that it was anointed, even the princes offered their offering before the altar.

21 One young bullock, one ^b ram, one lamb of the first year, ^c for a burnt-offering:

22 One ^d kid of the goats for a sin-offering:

23 And for a sacrifice of peace-offerings, two ^e oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

89 ¶ And when Moses was gone into the tabernacle of the congregation to speak ^c with Him, then he heard the voice of one speaking unto him from off the ^d mercy-seat that was upon the ark of testimony, from between the two ^e cherubims: and he ^f spake unto Him.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 How the lamps are to be lighted.....5 The consecration of the Levites.....23 The age and time of their service.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto Aaron, and say unto him, When thou ^a lightest the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light over against the candlestick.

3 And Aaron did so; he lighted the lamps thereof over against the candlestick, as the LORD commanded Moses.

4 And this work of the ^b candlestick was of beaten gold, unto the shaft thereof, unto the flowers thereof, was beaten work: according unto the ^c pattern which the LORD had shewed Moses, so he made the candlestick.

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

6 Take the ^d Levites from ^e among the children of Israel, and ^f cleanse them.

7 And thus shalt thou do unto them, to cleanse them: Sprinkle [†] water of purifying upon them, and let them shave all their flesh, and let them wash their ^g clothes, and so make themselves clean.

8 Then let them take a young bullock with his meat-offering, even fine flour mingled with oil, and another young bullock shalt thou take for a sin-offering.

9 And thou shalt bring the Levites before the tabernacle of the congregation: and thou shalt gather the whole assembly of the children of Israel together:

10 And thou shalt bring the Levites before the LORD: and the ^b children of Israel shall [†] put their hands upon the Levites:

11 And Aaron shall [‡] offer the Levites before the LORD for an [†] offering of the children of Israel, that they may ^m execute the service of the LORD.

12 And the Levites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bullocks: and thou shalt offer the one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt-offering, unto the LORD, to make ⁿ an atonement for the Levites.

13 And thou shalt set the Levites before Aaron, and before his sons, and offer them for an offering unto the LORD.

14 Thus shalt thou separate the Levites from among the children of Israel: and the Levites shall ^o be mine.

15 And after that shall the Levites go in to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation: and thou shalt cleanse them, and ^a offer them for an offering.

16 For they are wholly given unto me from among the children of Israel; instead of such as [†] open every womb, even instead of the first-born of all the children of Israel, have I taken them unto me.

17 For all the first-born of the children of Israel are mine, both man and beast: on the day that I smote every first-born in the land of Egypt ^s I sanctified them for myself.

18 And I have taken the Levites for all the first-born of the children of Israel.

19 And I have given the Levites as [†] a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the children of Israel in the tabernacle of the congregation, and to make an atonement for the children of Israel: that there be ^x no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come nigh unto the ^y sanctuary.

20 And ^z Moses, and Aaron, and all the congregation of the children of Israel, did to the Levites according unto all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did the children of Israel unto them.

21 And the Levites were [†] purified, and they washed their clothes; and Aaron offered them as an offering before the LORD; and Aaron ^a made an atonement for them to cleanse them.

22 And after that went the Levites in to do their service in the tabernacle of the congregation before Aaron and before his sons: as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did they unto them.

23 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

24 This is it that belongeth unto the Levites: From ^b twenty and five years old and upward they shall go in [†] to wait upon the service of the tabernacle of the congregation:

25 And from the age of fifty years they shall [†] cease waiting upon the service thereof, and shall serve no more:

26 But shall minister with their brethren in the tabernacle of the congregation, to keep the charge, and shall do no service. Thus shalt thou do unto the Levites touching their charge.

CHAPTER IX.

15 The cloud guideth the removings and encampings of the Israelites.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses in the ^a wilderness of Sinai, in the ^b first month of the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 Let the children of Israel also keep the ^c passover at his ^d appointed season.

3 In the fourteenth day of this month, ^e at even, ye shall keep it in his appointed season: according to all the [†] rites of it, and according to all the [†] ceremonies thereof, shall ye keep it.

4 And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, that they should keep the passover.

5 And they kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month at even in the wilderness of Sinai: according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

6 ¶ And there were certain men, who were defiled by the [†] dead body of a man, that they could not keep the passover on that day: and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day:

8 And Moses said unto them, Stand still, and I will hear what the LORD will command concerning you.

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If any man of you or of your posterity shall be unclean by reason of a dead body, or be in a journey afar off, yet he shall keep the passover unto the LORD.

11 The fourteenth day of the second month at even they shall keep it, and eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

12 They shall leave none of it unto the morning, nor break any bone of it: according to all the ordinances of the passover they shall keep it.

13 But the man that is clean, and is not in a journey, and forbeareth to keep the passover, even the same soul shall be cut off from among his people: because he brought not the offering of the LORD in his appointed season: that man shall bear his sin.

14 And if a stranger shall sojourn among you, and will keep the passover unto the LORD; according to the ordinance of the passover, and according to the manner thereof, so shall he do: ye shall have one ordinance both for the stranger, and for him that was born in the land.

15 ¶ And on the day that the tabernacle was reared up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, namely, the tent of the testimony: and at even there was upon the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, until the morning.

16 So it was always: the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

17 And when the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle, then after that the children of Israel journeyed: and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents.

18 At the commandment of the LORD the children of Israel journeyed, and at the commandment of the LORD they pitched: as long as the cloud abode upon their tabernacle they rested in their tents.

19 And when the cloud tarried long upon the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel kept the charge of the LORD, and journeyed not.

20 And so it was, when the cloud was a few days upon the tabernacle; according to the commandment of the LORD they abode in their tents, and according to the commandment of the LORD they journeyed.

21 And so it was, when the cloud abode from even unto the morning, and that the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed: whether it was by day or by night that the cloud was taken up, they journeyed.

22 Or whether it were two days, or a month, or a year, that the cloud tarried upon the tabernacle, remaining thereon, the children of Israel abode in their tents, and journeyed not: but when it was taken up, they journeyed.

23 At the commandment of the LORD they rested in their tents, and at the commandment of the LORD they journeyed: they kept the charge of the LORD, at the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

CHAPTER X.

11 The Israelites remove from Sinai to Paran....14 The order of their march.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Make thee two trumpets of silver; of a whole piece shalt thou make them: that thou mayest use them for the calling of the assembly, and for the journeying of the camps.

3 And when they shall blow with them, all the assembly shall assemble themselves to thee at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And if they blow but with one trumpet, then the princes, which are heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves unto thee.

5 When ye blow an alarm, then the camps that lie on the east parts shall go forward.

6 When ye blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that lie on the south side shall take their journey: they shall blow an alarm for their journeys.

7 But when the congregation is to be gathered together, ye shall blow, but ye shall not sound an alarm.

8 And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow with the trumpets; and they shall be to you for an ordinance for ever throughout your generations.

9 And if ye go to war in your land against the enemy that oppresseth you, then ye shall blow an alarm with the trumpets; and ye shall be remembered before the LORD your God, and ye shall be saved from your enemies.

10 Also in the day of your gladness, and in your solemn days, and in the beginnings of your months, ye shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt-offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace-offerings; that they may be to you for a memorial before your God: I am the LORD your God.

11 ¶ And it came to pass on the twentieth day of the second month, in the second year, that the cloud was taken up from off the tabernacle of the testimony.

12 And the children of Israel took their journeys out of the wilderness of Sinai; and the cloud rested in the wilderness of Paran.

13 And they first took their journey according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

14 In the first place went the standard of the camp of the children of Judah according to their armies: and over his host was Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

15 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Issachar was Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

16 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon.

17 And the tabernacle was taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari set forward, bearing the tabernacle.

18 ¶ And the commandment of the camp of Reuben set forward according to their armies: and over his host was Elizur the son of Shedeur.

19 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

20 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Gad was Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

21 And the Kohathites set forward, bearing the sanctuary: and the other did set up the tabernacle against they came.

22 ¶ And the standard of the camp of the children of Ephraim set forward according to their armies: and over his host was Elishama the son of Ammihud.

23 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Manasseh was Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

24 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gideoni.

of Dan set forward, which was the ^rere-ward of all the camps throughout their hosts: and over his host was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

26 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Asher was Pagiel the son of Ocran.

27 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was Ahira the son of Enan.

28 [†] Thus were the journeyings of the children of Israel according to their armies, when they set forward.

29 [¶] And Moses said unto ^s Hobab, the son of Raguel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, We are journeying unto the place of which the LORD said, I will give it you: come thou with us, and we will do thee good: for the LORD hath spoken good concerning Israel.

30 And he said unto him, I will ^b not go; but I will depart to mine own land, and to my kindred.

31 And he said, Leave us not, I pray thee: forasmuch as thou knowest how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and thou mayest be to us instead of ⁱ eyes.

32 And it shall be, if thou go with us, yea, it shall be, that what goodness the LORD shall do unto us, the same will we do unto thee.

33 [¶] And they departed from the ^k mount of the LORD [†] three days' journey: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD went before them in the three days' journey, to search out a resting-place for them.

34 And the ^m cloud of the LORD was ⁿ upon them ^o by day, when they went out of the camp.

35 And it came to pass, when the ark set forward, that Moses said, ^p Rise up, LORD, and let ^q thine enemies be ^r scattered; and let them that hate thee flee before thee.

36 And when it rested, he said, Return, O LORD, unto the many thousands of Israel.

CHAPTER XI.

4 The people lust for flesh, and loathe manna....31 Quails are given in wrath at Kibroth-hattaavah.

AND when the people ^a complained, it ^b displeased the LORD: and the LORD heard it: and his anger was kindled; and the ^c fire of the LORD burnt among them, and consumed them that were in the uttermost parts of the camp.

2 And the people cried unto Moses; and when Moses prayed unto the LORD, the fire was ^d quenched.

3 And he called the name of the place [¶] Taberah: because the fire of the LORD burnt among them.

4 [¶] And the ^e mixed multitude that was among them [†] fell a lusting: and the children of Israel also wept again, and said, ^f Who shall give us flesh to eat?

5 We remember the fish which we did eat in Egypt freely; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the ^g garlic.

6 But now our soul is ^h dried away; there is nothing at all, besides this manna, ⁱ before our eyes.

7 And the manna was as coriander-seed, and the colour thereof as the colour of ^k bdellium.

8 And the people went about, and gathered it, and ^l ground it in mills, or beat it in a mortar, and baked it in pans, and made ^m cakes of it: and the taste of it was as the taste of ⁿ fresh oil.

9 And when the dew ^o fell upon the camp in the night, the manna fell upon it.

10 [¶] Then Moses heard the people weep throughout their families, every man in the door of his tent: and the anger of the LORD was kindled greatly; Moses also was displeased.

11 And Moses said unto the LORD, Wherefore hast thou ^p afflicted thy servant? and wherefore have I not ^q found favour in thy sight, that thou layest ^r the burden of all this people upon me?

12 Have I conceived all this people? have I begotten them, that thou shouldest say unto me, Carry them in thy ^s bosom, as a ^t nursing-father beareth the sucking child, unto the land which thou swarest unto their fathers?

13 ^u Whence should I have flesh to give unto all this people? for they weep unto me, saying, Give us flesh, that we may eat.

14 I am not able to bear all this people alone, because it is too heavy for me.

15 And if thou deal thus with me, kill me, I pray thee, out of hand, if I have found favour in thy sight; and let me not see my ^x wretchedness.

16 [¶] And the LORD said unto Moses, Gather unto me ^y seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom thou knowest to be the elders of the people, and ^z officers over them; and bring them unto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they may stand there with thee.

17 And I will come down ^a and talk with thee there: and I will ^b take of the spirit which is upon thee, and will put it upon them; ^c and they shall bear the burden of the people with thee, that thou bear it not thyself alone.

18 And say thou unto the people, Sanctify yourselves against to-morrow, and ye shall eat flesh: for ye have wept in the ears of the LORD, saying, Who shall give us flesh to eat? for it was well with us in Egypt: therefore the LORD will give you flesh, and ye shall eat.

19 Ye shall not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days;

20 But even a whole month, until it come out at your nostrils, and it be loathsome unto you: because that ye have despised the LORD which is among you, and have wept before him, saying, Why came we forth out of Egypt?

21 And Moses said, The people among whom I am, ^e are ^f six hundred thousand footmen; and thou hast said, I will give them flesh, that they may eat a whole month.

22 Shall the flocks and the herds be slain for them, to suffice them? or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to ^g suffice them?

23 And the LORD said unto Moses, Is the LORD's ^h hand waxed short? thou shalt see now whether my word shall come to pass unto thee, or not.

24 [¶] And Moses went out, and told the people the words of the LORD, and gathered the seventy ⁱ men of the elders of the people, and set them round about the tabernacle.

25 And the LORD came down in a ^j cloud, and spake unto him, and took of the spirit that was upon him, and gave it unto the seventy elders: and it came to pass, that when the spirit rested upon them, they ^k prophesied, and did not cease.

26 But there remained two of the men in the camp, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: and the spirit rested upon them; and they were of them that were ^m written, but went ⁿ not out unto the tabernacle: and they prophesied in the camp.

27 And there ran a young man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp.

Before CHRIST 1490. Moses, one of his young men, answered and said, My lord Moses, forbid them.

29 And Moses said unto him, Enviest thou for my sake? would God that all the LORD's people were prophets, and that the LORD would put his spirit upon them.

30 And Moses gat him into the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

31 ¶ And there went forth a wind from the LORD, and brought quails from the sea, and let them fall by the camp, as it were a day's journey on this side, and as it were a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, and as it were two cubits high upon the face of the earth.

32 And the people stood up all that day, and all that night, and all the next day, and they gathered the quails: he that gathered least gathered ten homers: and they spread them all abroad for themselves round about the camp.

33 And while the flesh was yet between their teeth, ere it was chewed, the wrath of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD smote the people with a very great plague.

34 And he called the name of that place Kibroth-hattaavah: because there they buried the people that lusted.

35 And the people journeyed from Kibroth-hattaavah unto Hazeroth: and abode at Hazeroth.

CHAPTER XII.

God rebuketh the sedition of Miriam and Aaron.

AND ¶ Miriam and Aaron spake against Moses because of the Ethiopian woman whom he had married: for he had married an Ethiopian woman.

2 And they said, Hath the LORD indeed spoken only by Moses? hath he not spoken also by us? And the LORD heard it.

3 (Now the man Moses was very meek, above all the men which were upon the face of the earth.)

4 And the LORD spake suddenly unto Moses, and unto Aaron, and unto Miriam, Come out ye three unto the tabernacle of the congregation. And they three came out.

5 And the LORD came down in the pillar of the cloud, and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam: and they both came forth.

6 And he said, Hear now my words: If there be a prophet among you, I the LORD will make myself known unto him in a vision, and will speak unto him in a dream.

7 My servant Moses is not so, who is faithful in all my house.

8 With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even apparently, and not in dark speeches; and the similitude of the LORD shall he behold: wherefore then were ye not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?

9 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them; and he departed.

10 And the cloud departed from off the tabernacle; and behold, Miriam became leprous, white as snow: and Aaron looked upon Miriam, and behold, she was leprous.

11 And Aaron said unto Moses, Alas, my lord, I beseech thee, lay not the sin upon us, wherein we have done foolishly, and wherein we have sinned.

12 Let her not be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when he cometh out of his mother's womb.

13 And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, Heal her now, O God, I beseech thee.

14 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, If her father had but spit in her face, should she not be ashamed seven days? let her be shut out from the camp seven days, and after that let her be received in again.

15 And Miriam was shut out from the camp seven days: and the people journeyed not till Miriam was brought in again.

16 And afterward the people removed from Hazeroth, and pitched in the wilderness of Paran.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 The names of the men who were sent to search the land....26
Their relation.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Send thou men, that they may search the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel: of every tribe of their fathers shall ye send a man, every one a ruler among them.

3 And Moses by the commandment of the LORD sent them from the wilderness of Paran: all those men were heads of the children of Israel.

4 And these were their names: Of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur.

5 Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori.

6 Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

7 Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph.

8 Of the tribe of Ephraim, Oshea the son of Nun.

9 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu.

10 Of the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi.

11 Of the tribe of Joseph, namely, of the tribe of Manassah, Gaddi the son of Susi.

12 Of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli.

13 Of the tribe of Asher, Sethus the son of Michael.

14 Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi.

15 Of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.

16 These are the names of the men which Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called Oshea the son of Nun, Jehoshua.

17 ¶ And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said unto them, Get you up this way southward, and go up into the mountain:

18 And see the land, what it is; and the people that dwelleth therein, whether they be strong or weak, few or many:

19 And what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad; and what cities they be that they dwell in, whether in tents, or in strong holds;

20 And what the land is, whether it be fat or lean, whether there be wood therein, or not. And be ye of good courage, and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time of the first ripe grapes.

21 ¶ So they went up, and searched the land from the wilderness of Zin unto Rehob, as men come to Hamath.

22 And they ascended by the south, and came unto Hebron; where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the children of Anak, were. (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)

23 And they came unto the brook of Eshcol, and cut down from thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bare it between two upon a staff; and they brought of the pomegranates, and of the figs.

24 The place was called the brook Eshcol, because of the cluster of grapes which the children of Israel cut down from thence.

25 And they returned from searching of the land after forty days.

27 And they told him, and said, We came unto the land whither thou sentest us, and surely ^y it floweth with milk and honey; and this is the fruit of it.

28 Nevertheless, the people be strong that dwell in the land, and the cities are ^z walled, and very great: and moreover, we saw the children of ^a Anak there.

29 The ^b Amalekites dwell in the land of the south: and the ^c Hittites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites, dwell in the ^d mountains; and the Canaanites dwell by the sea, and by the coast of Jordan.

30 And ^e Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it; for ^f we are well able to overcome it.

31 But the ^g men that went up with him said, We be not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we.

32 And they brought up ^h an evil report of the land which they had searched unto the children of Israel, saying, The land through which we have gone to search it, is a land that ⁱ eateth up the inhabitants thereof; and all the people that we saw in it are ^k men of a great stature.

33 And there we saw the giants, the sons of Anak, which come of the giants: and we were in our own sight as ^l grasshoppers, and so we were ^m in their sight.

CHAPTER XIV.

The people murmur at the news.

AND ^a all the congregation lifted up their voice, and ^b cried; and the people wept that night.

2 And all the children of Israel murmured ^c against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, ^d Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt! or would God we had died in this wilderness!

3 And wherefore ^e hath the LORD brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? were it not better for us to return into Egypt?

4 And they said one to another; ^f Let us make a captain, and let us ^g return into Egypt.

5 Then Moses and Aaron ^h fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel.

6 ¶ And Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which were of them that ⁱ searched the land, ^j rent their clothes:

7 And they spake unto all the company of the children of Israel, saying, The land, which we passed through to search it, is an ^k exceeding good land.

8 If the LORD delight in us, then he will bring us into this land, and give it us; a land which floweth with milk and honey.

9 Only rebel not ye against the LORD, neither fear ye the people of the land: for they are ^l bread for us: their ^m defence is departed from them, and the LORD is ⁿ with us: fear them not.

10 But all the congregation bade ^o stone them with stones. And the glory of the LORD ^p appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation before all the children of Israel.

11 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, How long will this people ^q provoke me? and how long will it be ere they ^r believe me, for ^s all the signs which I have shewed among them?

12 I will smite them with the ^t pestilence, and disinherit them, and will ^u make of thee a greater nation and mightier than they.

13 ¶ And Moses said unto the LORD, Then the Egyptians shall hear it, (for thou broughtest up this people in thy might from among them:)

14 And they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land: for they have heard that thou LORD art among this people, that thou LORD art ^v seen face to face, and that thy cloud ^w standeth over them, and that thou goest before them, by day-time in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night.

15 Now if thou shalt kill all this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of thee will speak, saying,

16 Because the LORD ^y was not able to bring this people into the land which he swore unto them, therefore he hath slain them in the wilderness.

17 And now, I beseech thee, let the power of my LORD be great, according as thou hast spoken, saying,

18 The LORD ^z is long-suffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by ^a no means clearing the guilty ^b visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation.

19 Pardon, I beseech thee, the iniquity of this people according unto the greatness of thy mercy, and as thou hast forgiven this people, from Egypt even ^c until now.

20 And the LORD said, I have ^d pardoned according to thy word:

21 But as ^e truly as I live, all the earth shall be ^f filled with the glory of the LORD.

22 Because all those men which have seen ^g my glory, and my miracles, which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have tempted me now these ten times, and have not hearkened to my voice;

23 ^h Surely they shall not see the ⁱ land which I swear unto their fathers, neither shall any of them that provoked me see it:

24 But my servant ^j Caleb, because he had ^k another spirit with him, and hath ^l followed me fully, him will I bring into the land whereinto he went; and his seed shall ^m possess it.

25 (Now the Amalekites, and the Canaanites dwell in the valley.) ⁿ To-morrow turn you, and get you into the wilderness by the way of the ^o Red sea.

26 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

27 ^p How long shall I bear with this evil congregation, which murmur against me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against me.

28 Say unto them, ^q As truly as ^r I live, saith the LORD, as ye have spoken in mine ears, so will I do to you:

29 Your carcasses shall ^s fall in this wilderness; and all that were ^t numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, which have murmured against me.

30 Doubtless ye shall not come into the land concerning which ^u I swear to make you dwell therein, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

31 But your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they ^v shall know ^w the land which ye have despised.

34 After the number of the days in which ye searched the land, even forty days (* each day for a year) shall ye bear your iniquities, even forty years, and ye shall know my breach of promise.

35 I the LORD have said, ² I will surely do it unto all this evil congregation, that are gathered together against me in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die.

36 And the men which Moses sent to search the land, who returned, and made all the congregation to murmur against him, by bringing up a slander upon the land,

37 Even those men that did bring up the evil report upon the land, died by the plague ^b before the LORD.

38 But Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which were of the men that went to search the land, ^c lived still.

39 And Moses told these sayings unto all the children of Israel and the people ^d mourned greatly.

40 ¶ And they ^e rose up early in the morning, and gat them up into the top of the mountain, saying, Lo, ^f we be here, and will go up unto the place which the LORD hath promised: for we have sinned.

CHAPTER XV.

The law of the meat-offering, and the drink-offering.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come into the land of your ^a habitations, which I give unto you,

3 And will make an offering by fire unto the LORD, a ^b burnt-offering, or a ^c sacrifice in ^d performing a vow, or in a ^e free-will-offering, or in your ^f solemn feasts, to make a ^g sweet savour unto the LORD, of the herd, or of the flock:

4 Then shall he that offereth his offering unto the LORD bring ^h a meat-offering of ⁱ a tenth-deal of flour mingled with the fourth ^j part of a hin of oil.

5 And the fourth ^k part of a hin of wine for a drink-offering shalt thou prepare with the burnt-offering or sacrifice, for one lamb.

6 Or for a ram, thou shalt prepare ^l for a meat-offering two tenth-deals of flour mingled with the third ^m part of a hin of oil.

7 And for a ⁿ drink-offering thou shalt offer the third ^o part of a hin of wine, ^p for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

8 And when thou preparest a bullock ^q for a burnt-offering, or ^r for a sacrifice in performing a vow, or peace-offerings unto the LORD:

9 Then shall he bring with a bullock a meat-offering of three tenth-deals of flour mingled with half a hin of oil.

10 And thou shalt bring for a drink-offering half a hin of wine, ^s for an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

11 Thus shall it be done for one bullock, or for one ram, or for a lamb, or a kid.

12 According to the number that ye shall prepare, so shall ye do to every one according to their number.

13 All that are born of the country shall do these things after this manner, in offering an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

14 And if a stranger sojourn with you, or whosoever ^t be among you in your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD: as ye do, so he shall do.

15 ^u One ordinance ^v shall be both for you of the congregation, and also for the stranger that sojourneth ^w with you, an ordinance ^x for ever in your generations: as ye ^y are so shall the stranger be before the LORD.

16 One law and one manner shall be for you, and for the stranger that sojourneth with you.

17 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

18 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land whither I bring you,

19 Then it shall be, that when ye eat of the ^z bread of the land, ye shall offer ^{aa} up a heave-offering unto the LORD.

20 Ye shall offer up a cake of the ^{ab} first of your ^{ac} dough ^{ad} for a heave-offering: as ye ^{ae} do the heave-offering of the ^{af} threshing-floor, so shall ye heave it.

21 Of the first of your dough ye shall give unto the LORD a heave-offering in your ^{ag} generations.

22 ¶ And if ye have ^{ah} erred, and not observed all these commandments which the LORD hath spoken unto Moses,

23 Even all that the LORD hath commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the day that the LORD commanded ^{ai} Moses, and henceforward among your generations;

24 Then it shall be, if ^{aj} ought be committed ^{ak} by ignorance ^{al} without the knowledge of the congregation, that ^{am} all the congregation shall offer one ^{an} young bullock for a burnt-offering, for a sweet savour unto the LORD, with his meat-offering, and his drink-offering, according to the manner, and one kid of the goats for ^{ao} a sin-offering.

25 And the priest shall make an atonement for all the congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them; for it is ignorance: and they shall bring their offering, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD, and their ^{ap} sin-offering before the LORD, for their ignorance:

26 And it shall be forgiven all the congregation of the children of Israel, and the ^{aq} stranger that sojourneth among them; seeing all the people ^{ar} were in ignorance.

27 ¶ And if ^{as} any soul sin through ignorance; then he shall bring a she-goat of the ^{at} first year for a sin-offering.

28 And the priest shall make an atonement for the soul that sinneth ignorantly, when he sinneth by ignorance before the LORD, to make an atonement for him: and it shall be forgiven him.

CHAPTER XVI.

The rebellion of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.

NOW ^a Korah, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi; and Dathan and Abiram, the sons of ^b Eliab; and On, the son of Peleth, ^c sons of Reuben, took men;

2 And they rose up before Moses, ^d with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty princes of the assembly, ^e famous in the congregation, men of renown:

3 And they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said unto them, ^f Ye take too much upon you, seeing all the congregation ^g are holy, every one of them, and the LORD is among them: wherefore then lift ye up yourselves above the congregation of the LORD?

4 And when Moses heard it, he ^h fell upon his face:

5 And he spake unto Korah and unto all his company, saying, Even ⁱ to-morrow the LORD ^j will shew ^k who are his, and ^l who is holy; and will cause ^m him to come near unto him: even ⁿ him whom he hath chosen will he cause to ^o come near unto him.

6 This do; Take you ^p censers, Korah, and all his company;

7 And put fire therein, and put incense in them before the LORD to-morrow: and it shall be ^q that the man whom the LORD doth ^r choose, he shall be ^s holy: ^t ye take too much upon you, ye sons of Levi.

8 And Moses said unto Korah, Hear, I pray you, ye sons of Levi:

9 Seemeth it but a ^u small thing unto you, that the God of Israel hath ^v separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself to do the ^w service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and ^x to stand before the congregation to ^y minister unto them?

10 And he hath brought thee near ^z to him, and all thy brethren the sons of Levi with thee: and seek ye the priesthood also?

11 For which cause both thou and all thy company ^a are gathered together ^b against the LORD: and ^c what ^d is Aaron, that ye murmur against him?

12 ¶ And Moses ^e sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab: which said, We will not come up:

13 Is it a small thing that thou hast brought us up out of a land that floweth with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, except thou make thyself altogether ^f a prince over us?

14 Moreover, thou hast ^g not brought us into a land that floweth with milk and honey, or given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: wilt thou ^h put out the eyes of these men? we will not come up.

15 And Moses was very ⁱ wroth, and said unto the LORD, ^j Respect not thou their offering: I have not taken ^k one ass from them, neither have I hurt one of them.

16 And Moses said unto Korah, Be thou and all thy company before the LORD, thou, and they, and Aaron, to-morrow:

17 And take every man his ^l censer, and put incense in them, and bring ye before the LORD every man his censer, two hundred and fifty censers; thou also and Aaron each of ^m you his censer.

18 And they took every man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood in the door of the tabernacle of the congregation with Moses and Aaron.

19 And Korah gathered ⁿ all the congregation against them unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the ^o glory of the LORD appeared unto all the congregation.

20 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

21 ^p Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them ^q in a moment.

22 And they fell upon their faces, and said, O God, the ^r God of the spirits of ^s all flesh, shall ^t one man sin, and wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation?

23 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

24 Speak unto the congregation, saying, Get you up from about the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.

25 And Moses rose up, and went unto Dathan and Abiram; and the ^u elders of Israel followed him.

26 And he spake unto the congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and ^v touch nothing of theirs, ^w lest ye be consumed in all their sins.

27 So they gat up from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and ^x stood in the door of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little children.

28 And Moses said, Hereby ye shall know that the LORD hath sent me to do all these works; for ^y I have not done them of mine ^z own mind.

or if they be visited after the visitation of all men; then the LORD hath not sent me.

30 But if the LORD make ^r a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up, with all that appertain unto them, and they go down quick into the ^a pit; then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the LORD.

31 ¶ And it came to pass, as he had made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground clave asunder that was under them :

32 And the earth opened her mouth, and ^t swallowed them up, and their ^u houses, and ^x all the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their goods.

33 They, and all that appertained to them went down alive into the pit, and the earth ^y closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation.

34 And all Israel that were round about them, fled at the ^z cry of them: for they said, ^a Lest the earth swallow us up also.

35 And there came out ^b a fire from the LORD, and consumed the ^c two hundred and fifty men that offered incense.

36 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

37 Speak unto Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, that he take up the censers out of the burning, and scatter thou the fire ^d yonder; for they are hallowed.

38 The censers of these ^e sinners against their own souls, let them make them broad plates for a covering of the altar: for they offered them before the LORD, therefore they are hallowed: and they shall be ^f a sign unto the children of Israel.

39 And Eleazar the priest took the brazen censers, wherewith they that were burnt had offered; and they were made broad plates for a covering of the altar:

40 To be a memorial unto the children of Israel, that ^g no stranger, which is not of the seed of Aaron, come near to offer incense before the LORD: that he be not ^h as Korah, and as his company: as the LORD said ⁱ to him by the hand of Moses.

41 ¶ But on the ^k morrow all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, ^l Ye have killed the people of the LORD.

42 And it came to pass when the congregation was gathered against Moses and against Aaron, that they looked toward the tabernacle of the congregation: and behold, the cloud covered it, and ^m the glory of the LORD appeared.

43 And Moses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of the congregation.

44 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, ⁿ Get you up from among this congregation, that I may consume them as in a moment. And they ^o fell upon their faces.

46 ¶ And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a censer, and put fire therein from off the altar, and put on ^p incense, and go quickly unto the congregation, and make an ^q atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from the LORD; the plague is begun.

47 And Aaron took as Moses commanded, and ran into the midst of the congregation; and behold, the plague was begun among the people: and he ^r put on incense, and made an atonement for the people.

48 And he stood ^s between the dead and the living; and the ^t plague was stayed.

49 Now they that died in the plague were fourteen thousand and seven hundred, besides them that died about the matter of Korah.

50 And Aaron returned unto Moses unto the ^u door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the plague was stayed.

CHAPTER XVII.

Aaron's rod among all the rods of the tribes only flourisheth.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, ² Speak unto the children of Israel, and take of every one of them ^a a rod according to the house of their fathers, of all their princes according to the house of their fathers, twelve rods: write thou every man's name upon his rod.

3 And thou shalt write Aaron's name upon the rod of ^b Levi: for ^c one rod shall be for the head of the house of their fathers.

4 And thou shalt lay them up in the tabernacle of the congregation, ^d before the testimony, ^e where I will meet with you.

5 And it shall come to pass, that the man's rod whom I shall choose shall ^f blossom: and I will make to cease from me the murmurings of the children of Israel, whereby they murmur against you.

6 And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, and every one of their princes gave him a rod apiece, ^g for each prince one, according to their fathers, ^h houses, even twelve rods: and the rod of Aaron was among their rods.

7 And Moses laid up the rods before the LORD in the tabernacle of witness.

8 And it came to pass, that on the morrow Moses went into the tabernacle of witness; and behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Levi was budded, and brought forth ⁱ buds, and bloomed blossoms, and yielded ^j almonds.

9 And Moses brought out all the rods from ^k before the LORD unto all the children of Israel: and they looked, and took every man his rod.

10 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Bring Aaron's rod again before the testimony, to be ^l kept for a token against the ^m rebels; and thou shalt quite take away their murmurings from me, that they die not.

11 And Moses did so: as the LORD commanded him, so did he.

12 And the children of Israel spake unto Moses, saying, Behold, we ⁿ die, we perish, we all perish.

13 Whosoever cometh any thing near unto the tabernacle of the LORD shall die: shall we be ^o consumed with dying?

1 The charge of the priests and Levites... 2 The priests' portion... 21 The Levites' portion.

AND the LORD said unto Aaron, ^a Thou, and thy sons, and thy father's house with thee, shall bear the iniquity of the ^b sanctuary: and thou and thy sons with thee shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood.

2 And thy brethren also of the tribe of Levi, the tribe of thy father, bring thou with thee, that they may be joined ^c unto thee, and ^d minister unto thee: but thou and thy sons with thee shall minister ^e before the tabernacle of witness.

3 And they shall ^f keep thy charge, and the charge of all the tabernacle: only they shall not come nigh the vessels of the sanctuary and the altar, that neither they, nor ye also, die.

4 And they shall be joined unto thee, and keep the ^g charge of the tabernacle of the congregation for all the service of the tabernacle: and ^h a stranger shall not come nigh unto you.

5 And ye shall keep the charge of the ⁱ sanctuary, & and the charge of the altar; that there be no¹ wrath any more upon the children of Israel.

6 And I, behold, I have^k taken your brethren the Levites from among the children of Israel: to you they are given as a gift for the LORD, to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation.

7 Therefore thou and thy sons with thee shall keep your priest's office for every thing of the altar, and¹ within the vail; and ye shall serve: I have given your priest's office unto you as a[†] service of gift: and the^m stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Aaron, Behold, I also have^o given thee the charge of my heave-offerings of all the^o hallowed things of the children of Israel; unto thee have I given them^p by reason of the anointing, and to thy sons, by an ordinance for ever.

9 This shall be thine of the^q most holy things reserved from the fire: every oblation of theirs, every meat-offering of theirs, and every sin-offering of theirs, and every trespass-offering of theirs, which they shall render unto me, shall be most holy for thee and for thy sons.

10^s In the most holy place shalt thou eat it; every male shall eat it: it shall be holy unto thee.

11 And this is thine; the^u heave-offering of their gift, with all the^x wave-offerings of the children of Israel: I have given them unto thee, and to thy sons, and to thy^y daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of it.

12 All the best of the oil, and all the best of the wine and of the wheat, the^z first-fruits of them which they shall offer unto the LORD, them have I given thee.

13 And whatsoever is first ripe in the land, which they shall bring unto the LORD, shall be thine; every one that is clean in thy house shall^a eat of it.

14 Every thing^b devoted in Israel shall be thine.

15 Every thing that^c openeth the matrix in all flesh, which they bring unto the LORD, whether it be of men or beasts, shall be thine: nevertheless, the first-born of man shalt thou surely^d redeem, and the firstling of^e unclean beasts shalt thou redeem.

16 And those that are to be redeemed from^f a month old shalt thou redeem, according to thine estimation, for the money of five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs.

17 But^g the firstling of a cow, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, thou shalt^h not redeem: they are holy: thou shalt sprinkle their blood upon the altar, and shalt burn their fat for an offering made by fire, for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

18 And the flesh of them shall be thine, as the wave-breast and as the right shoulder are thine.

19 All theⁱ heave-offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer unto the LORD, have I given thee, and thy sons and thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: it is a^k covenant of salt for ever before the LORD unto thee and to thy seed with thee.

20 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Aaron, ^lThou shalt have no^m inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou have anyⁿ part among them: I am thy^o part and thine inheritance among the children of Israel.

21 And behold, I have given the children of Levi all the^p tenth in Israel for an inheritance, for their service which they serve, even the service of the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 Neither must the children of Israel henceforth

^q come nigh the tabernacle of the congregation, lest they bear sin, and die.

23 But the Levites shall do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they shall bear^r their iniquity: It shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel they have no inheritance.

24 But the tithes of the children of Israel which they offer as^s a heave-offering unto the LORD, I have given to the Levites to inherit: therefore I have said unto them, Among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.

25 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

26 Thus speak unto the Levites, and say unto them, When ye take of the children of Israel the tithes which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then ye shall offer up a heave-offering of it for the LORD, even a tenth part of the tithe.

27 And this your heave-offering shall be reckoned unto you, as though it were the corn of the threshing-floor, and as the^t fulness of the wine-press.

28 Thus ye also shall offer a heave-offering unto the LORD of all your tithes which ye receive of the children of Israel; and ye shall give thereof the LORD's heave-offering^u to Aaron the priest.

29 Out of all your^x gifts ye shall offer every heave-offering of the LORD, of all the^y best thereof, even the hallowed part thereof out of it.

30 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, When ye have heaved the best thereof from it, then it shall be counted unto the Levites as the increase of the threshing-floor, and as the increase of the wine-press.

31 And ye shall eat it^z in every place, ye and your households: for it is your^a reward for your service in the tabernacle of the congregation.

32 And ye shall bear no sin by reason of it, when ye have heaved from it the best of it: neither shall ye^b pollute the holy things of the children of Israel, lest ye die.

CHAPTER XIX.

The water of separation made of the ashes of a red heifer.

AND the^a LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

2 This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD hath commanded, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring thee a red heifer^b without spot, wherein is no blemish, and upon which^c never came yoke:

3 And ye shall give her unto^d Eleazar the priest, that he may bring her forth^e without the camp, and one shall slay her before his face:

4 And Eleazar the priest shall take of her blood with his^f finger, and^g sprinkle of her blood directly before the^h tabernacle of the congregation seven times:

5 And one shall burn the heifer in his sight; her skin, and her flesh, and her blood, with her dung, shall he burn:

6 And the priest shall takeⁱ cedar-wood, and^k hyssop, and^l scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer.

7 Then the priest shall^m wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp, and the priest shall be unclean until the even.

8 And he that burneth her shall wash his clothes in water, and bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the even.

CHAPTER XX.

2 The children of Israel murmur for want of water....7 Moses, smiting the rock, bringeth forth water at Meribah.

THEN came the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, into the desert of ^b Zin in the ^c first month: and the people ^d abode in ^e Kadesh; and Miriam ^f died there, and was buried there. 2 And there was ^g no water for the congregation: and they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron.

3 And the people ^h chode with Moses, and spake, saying, 'Would God that we had died when ^k our brethren died before the LORD!

4 And why have ye brought up the congregation of the LORD into this wilderness, that we and our cattle should die there?

5 And wherefore have ye made us to come up out of Egypt, to bring us in unto this evil place? it is no place of seed, or of figs, or of vines, or of pomegranates; neither is there any water to drink.

6 And Moses and Aaron went from the ¹ presence of the assembly unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they ^m fell upon their faces: and the glory of the LORD ⁿ appeared unto them.

7 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

8 Take the ^o rod, and gather thou the assembly together, thou and Aaron thy brother, and ^p speak ye unto the rock before their eyes; and it shall ^q give forth his water, and thou shalt bring forth to them water out of the rock: so thou shalt give the congregation and their beasts drink.

9 And Moses took the rod ^r from before the LORD, as he commanded him.

10 And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock, and he said unto them, ^s Hear now, ye ^t rebels; ^u must we fetch you water out of this rock?

11 And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice: and the water came out ^x abundantly, and the ^y congregation drank, and their ^z beasts also.

12 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, Because ye ^a believed me not, to ^b sanctify me in the ^c eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall ^d not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them.

13 This is the water of ¶ Meribah; because the children of Israel strove with the LORD, and he was ^e sanctified in them.

14 ¶ And Moses sent messengers from Kadesh unto the king of ^f Edom, Thus saith thy brother Israel, Thou knowest all the travail that hath ^g befallen us:

15 How our fathers ^h went down into Egypt, and we have dwelt in Egypt a ⁱ long time; and the Egyptians vexed us, and our fathers:

16 And when we cried unto the LORD, he heard our voice, and sent an ^j angel, and hath brought us forth out of Egypt: and behold, we are in Kadesh, a city in the uttermost of thy border:

17 Let us pass, I pray thee, through ^k thy country: we will not pass through the fields, or through the vineyards, neither will we drink of the water of the wells: we will go by the king's highway, we will not turn to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed thy borders.

18 And Edom said unto him, Thou shalt not pass by me, lest I come out against thee with the sword.

19 And the children of Israel said unto him, We will go by the highway: and if I and my cattle drink of thy water, then I will ^l pay for it: I will only, without doing any thing else, go through on my feet.

20 And he said, Thou shalt not go through. And Edom came out against him with much people, and with a strong hand.

21 Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his border: wherefore Israel ^m turned away from him.

22 ¶ And the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, journeyed from Kadesh, and came unto ⁿ mount Hor.

26 And ^q strip Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son : and Aaron shall be gathered unto his people, and shall die there.

27 And Moses did as the LORD commanded : and they went up into mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation.

28 And Moses ^r stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them ^s upon Eleazar his son ; and Aaron died there in the ^t top of the mount : and Moses and Eleazar came down from the mount.

29 And when all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, they mourned for Aaron ^u thirty days, even all the house of Israel.

CHAPTER XXI.

7 The people repenting, are healed by a brazen serpent....21 Sihon is overcome. 33 and Og.

AND when ^a king Arad the Canaanite, which dwelt in the ^b south, heard tell that Israel came by the way of the ^c spies ; then he fought against Israel, and took ^d some of them prisoners.

2 And Israel ^e vowed a vow unto the LORD, and said, If thou wilt indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will ^f utterly destroy their cities.

3 And the LORD ^g hearkened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites ; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities : and he called the name of the place Hormah.

4 ¶ And they journeyed from mount Hor by the way of the Red sea, to ^h compass the land of Edom : and the soul of the people was much ⁱ discouraged because of the ^k way.

5 And the people spake ^l against God, and against Moses, Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness ? for there is no bread, neither is there any water ; and our soul loatheth this ^m light bread.

6 And the LORD sent fiery ⁿ serpents among the people, and they bit the people ; and much people of Israel died.

7 ¶ Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, We have ^o sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD, and against thee ; pray unto the LORD, that he take away the serpents from us. And Moses ^p prayed for the people.

8 And the LORD said unto Moses, Make thee ^q a fiery serpent, and set it upon a pole : and it shall come to pass, that every one that is bitten, when he ^r looketh upon it, shall ^s live.

9 And Moses made a serpent of ^t brass, and put it upon a ^u pole, and it came to pass, that ^x if a serpent had bitten any man, when he ^y beheld the serpent of brass, he lived.

10 ¶ And the children of Israel set forward, and pitched in ^z Oboth.

11 And they journeyed from Oboth, and pitched at ^a Ije-abarim, in the wilderness which is before ^b Moab, toward the sun-rising.

12 ¶ From thence they removed, and pitched in the valley of ^c Zared.

13 From thence they removed, and pitched on the other side of ^d Arnon, which is in the wilderness that cometh out of the coasts of the Amorites : for Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.

14 Wherefore it is said in the book of the wars of the LORD, What he did in the Red sea, and in the ^e brooks of Arnon,

15 And at the stream of the brooks that goeth down to the dwelling of Ar, and lieth upon the border of Moab.

16 And from thence they went to Beer : that is the well whereof the LORD spake unto Moses, Gather the people together, and I ^f will give them water.

17 ¶ Then Israel ^g sang this song, Spring up, O well ; sing ye unto it :

18 The ^h princes digged the well, the nobles of the people digged it, by the direction of the ⁱ law-giver, with their ^k staves. And from the wilderness they went to Mattanah :

19 And from Mattanah to Nahaliel : and from Nahaliel to Bamoth :

20 And from Bamoth in the valley, that is in the country of Moab, to the top of Pisgah, which looketh toward Jeshimon.

21 And Israel ^l sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, saying,

22 ^m Let me pass through thy land : we will not turn into the fields, or into the vineyards ; we will not drink of the waters of the well : but we will go along by the king's highway, until we be past thy borders.

23 And Sihon ⁿ would not suffer Israel to pass through his border : but Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness : and he came to ^o Jahaz, and fought against Israel:

24 And ^p Israel smote him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from Arnon unto Jab-bok, even unto the children of Ammon : for the border of the children of Ammon was strong.

25 And Israel took all these cities : and Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all the villages thereof.

26 For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and taken all his land out of his hand, even unto Arnon.

27 Wherefore they that speak ^q in proverbs say, ^r Come into Heshbon, let the city of Sihon be built and prepared.

28 For there is ^s a fire gone out of Heshbon, a flame from the city of ^t Sihon : it hath ^u consumed Ar of Moab, and ^x the lords of the high places of Arnon.

29 ^y Wo to thee, Moab ! thou art undone, O ^z people of Chemosh : ^a he hath given his sons that escaped, and his daughters, into captivity unto Sihon king of the Amorites.

30 We have shot at them ; Heshbon is perished even unto ^b Dibon, and we have laid them waste even unto Nophah, which reacheth unto ^c Medeba.

31 ¶ Thus Israel dwelt in the land ^d of the Amorites.

32 And Moses sent to spy out ^e Jaazer ; and they took the villages thereof, and drove out the Amorites that were there.

33 And they turned and went up by the way of Bashan : and Og ^f the king of ^g Bashan went out against them, he, and all his people, to the battle at Edrei.

34 And the LORD said unto Moses, Fear him not : for I have delivered him into thy hand, and all his people, and his land ; and thou shalt ^h do to him as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon.

35 So they smote him, and his sons, and all his people, until there was none left him alive: and they possessed his land.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 Balak's message for Balaam....22 An angel would have slain him, if his ass had not saved him.

AND the children of Israel ^a set forward, and pitched in the plains of Moab on this side Jordan by Jericho.

2 ¶ And ^b Balak the son of Zippor ^c saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites.

3 And Moab was sore ^d afraid of the people, ^e because they were many: and Moab was distressed because of the children of Israel.

4 And Moab said unto the elders of Midian, Now shall this company ^f lick up all that are round about us, as the ox licketh up the grass of the field. And Balak the son of Zippor was king of the Moabites at that time.

5 He sent messengers therefore unto ^g Balaam the son of Beor to ^h Pethor, which is by the river of the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt: behold, they cover the face of the earth, and they abide over against me:

6 ¶ Come now therefore, I pray thee, ^k curse me this people; for they are ^l too mighty for me: peradventure I shall prevail, that we may smite them, and that I may drive them out of the land: for I wot that he ^m whom thou blessest is blessed, and he whom thou cursest is cursed.

7 And the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with ⁿ the rewards of divination in their hand; and they came unto Balaam, and spake unto him the words of Balak.

8 And he said unto them, Lodge here ^o this night, and I will bring you word again, ^p as the LORD shall speak unto me: and the princes of Moab abode with Balaam.

9 And ^q God came unto Balaam, and said, What men are these with thee?

10 And Balaam said unto God, Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, hath sent unto me, saying,

11 Behold, there is a people come out of Egypt, which covereth the face of the earth: come now, ^r curse me them; peradventure I shall be able to overcome them, and drive them out.

12 And God said unto Balaam, Thou shalt not go with them: thou shalt ^s not curse the people: for they ^t are blessed.

13 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and said unto the princes of Balak, Get you into your land: for the LORD ^u refuseth to give me leave to go with you.

14 And the princes of Moab rose up, and they went unto Balak, and said, Balaam ^x refuseth to come with us.

15 ¶ And Balak sent yet again princes, more, and more honourable than they.

16 And they came to Balaam, and said to him, Thus saith Balak the son of Zippor, Let nothing, I pray thee, hinder thee from coming unto me:

17 For I will promote thee unto very great honour, and ^y I will do whatsoever thou sayest unto me: come therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people.

18 And Balaam answered and said unto the servants of Balak, If Balak would give me his ^a house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the word of the LORD ^b my God, to do ^c less or more.

19 Now therefore, I pray you, tarry ye also here this night, that ^d I may know what the LORD will say unto me more.

20 And God came unto Balaam at night, and said unto him, If the men come to call thee, rise up, and ^e go with them; but yet ^f the word which I shall say unto thee, that ^g shalt thou do.

21 And Balaam ^h rose up in the morning, and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab.

22 ¶ And ⁱ God's anger was kindled because he went: and the ^k angel of the LORD stood in the way for an adversary against him. Now he was riding upon his ass, and his two servants were with him.

23 And the ^l ass saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his ^m sword drawn in his hand: and the ⁿ ass turned aside out of the way, and went into the field: and Balaam ^o smote the ass, to turn her into the way.

24 But the angel of the LORD stood in a path of the vineyards, ^p a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side.

25 And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she thrust herself unto the wall, and ^q crushed Balaam's foot against the wall: and he smote her again.

26 And the angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place, where was ^r no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left.

27 And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she fell down under Balaam: and ^s Balaam's anger was kindled, and he smote the ass with a staff.

28 And the LORD ^t opened the mouth of the ass, and she said unto Balaam, What have I done unto thee, that thou hast smitten me these three times?

29 And Balaam said unto the ass, Because thou hast ^u mocked me: I would there were a sword in my hand, for now would ^x I kill thee.

30 And the ass said unto Balaam, Am not I thine ass, upon which thou hast ridden ever since I was thine unto this day? was I ever wont to do so unto thee? And he said, Nay.

31 Then the LORD ^y opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and he bowed down his head, and fell flat on his face.

32 And the angel of the LORD said unto him, ^z Wherefore hast thou smitten thine ass these three times? behold, I went out to withstand thee, because thy way is ^a perverse before me:

33 And the ass saw me, and turned from me these three times: unless she had turned from me, surely now also I had slain thee, and ^b saved her alive.

34 And Balaam said unto the angel of the LORD, I have ^c sinned; for I knew not that thou stoodest in the way against me: now therefore, if it displease thee, I will get me back again.

35 And the angel of the LORD said unto Balaam, ^d Go with the men: but only the word that I shall speak unto thee, that thou shalt speak: so Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

36 ¶ And when Balak heard that Balaam was come, he ^e went out to meet him unto a city of Moab, which is in the border of ^f Arnon, which is in the utmost coast.

37 ¶ And Balak said unto Balaam, Did I not earnestly send unto thee to call thee? wherefore camest thou not unto me? ^g am I not able indeed to promote thee to honour?

38 And Balaam said unto Balak, Lo, I am come unto thee : have I now any ^e power at all to say any thing ? the word that God putteth in my mouth, that shall I speak.

39 And Balaam went with Balak, and they came unto ^h Kirgath-huzoth.

40 And Balak ⁱ offered oxen and sheep, and sent to Balaam, and to the princes that ^{were} with him.

41 And it came to pass on the ^k morrow, that Balak took Balaam, and brought him up into the ^l high places of Baal, that thence ^m he might see the utmost part of the people.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1, 13, 23 Balak's sacrifice....7, 13 Balaam's parable.

AND Balaam said unto Balak, ^a Build me here ^b seven altars, and prepare me here seven oxen and seven rams.

2 And Balak ^c did as Balaam had spoken ; and Balak and Balaam offered on every altar a bullock and a ram.

3 And Balaam said unto Balak, ^d Stand by thy burnt-offering, and I will go : peradventure the LORD will come to ^e meet me : and whatsoever he sheweth me I will tell thee. And he went to a high place.

4 And ^f God met Balaam : and he said unto him, I have ^g prepared seven altars, and I have offered upon every altar a bullock and a ram.

5 And the LORD put ^h a word in Balaam's mouth, and said, Return unto Balak, and thus thou shalt speak.

6 And he returned unto him, and lo, he stood by his burnt-sacrifice, he, and all the princes of Moab.

7 And he took up his parable, and said, Balak the king of Moab hath brought me from ⁱ Aram, out of the mountains of ^k the east, saying, Come, curse me Jacob, and come, ^l defy Israel.

8 ^m How shall I curse, whom God hath not cursed ? or how shall I defy, whom the LORD hath not defied ?

9 For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I behold him : lo, the people shall ⁿ dwell alone, and shall ^o not be reckoned among the nations.

10 Who can count the ^p dust of Jacob, and the number of the fourth part of Israel ? Let me die the ^q death of the righteous, and let my ^{||} last end be like his !

11 And Balak said unto Balaam, What hast thou done unto me ? I took thee to curse mine ^r enemies, and behold, thou hast blessed them altogether.

12 And he answered and said, ^s Must I not take heed to speak that which the LORD hath ^t put in my mouth ?

13 And Balak said unto him, Come, I pray thee, with me unto another place, from whence thou mayest see them : thou shalt see but the ^u utmost part of them, and shalt not see them all : and curse me them from thence.

14 ^v And he brought him into the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built ^w seven altars, and offered a bullock and a ram on every altar.

15 And he said unto Balak, Stand here by thy burnt-offering, while I meet the LORD yonder.

16 And the LORD met Balaam, and ^x put a word in his mouth, and said, Go again unto Balak, and say thus.

17 And when he came to him, behold, he stood by his burnt-offering, and the princes of Moab with him. And Balak said unto him, What hath the LORD spoken ?

18 And he took up his parable, and said, ^y Rise up,

Balak, and hear ; hearken unto me, thou son of Zippor :

19 God ^z is not a man, that he should ^{||} lie ; neither the son of man, that he should ^a repent : hath he said, and shall he not do it ? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good ?

20 Behold, I have received commandment to ^b bless : and he hath blessed, and I cannot ^c reverse it.

21 He hath not ^d beheld iniquity in Jacob, neither hath he seen perverseness in Israel : the LORD ^e his God is with him, and the ^f shout of a king ^g is ^{||} among them.

22 God ^h brought them out of Egypt ; ⁱ he hath as it were ^k the strength of a unicorn.

23 Surely there is ^l no enchantment ^m against Jacob, neither is there any divination against Israel : according to this time it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel, ⁿ What hath God wrought !

24 Behold, the people shall rise up as a great ^o lion, and ^p lift up himself as a young lion : he shall not lie down until he eat of the ^q prey, and drink the blood of the slain.

25 And Balak said unto Balaam, Neither ^r curse them at all, nor bless them at all.

26 But Balaam answered and said unto Balak, Told not I thee, saying, All that the LORD speaketh, that I must do ?

27 ^s And Balak said unto Balaam, ^{||} Come. I pray thee, I will bring thee unto another place ; peradventure it will please God that thou mayest curse me them from thence.

28 And Balak brought Balaam unto the ^t top of Peor, that looketh toward Jeshimon.

29 And Balaam said unto Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven bullocks and seven rams.

30 And Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bullock and a ram on every altar.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Balaam prophesieth the happiness of Israel....15 He prophesieth of the Star of Jacob.

AND when Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he went not, as at other times, [†] to seek for enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness.

2 And Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel ^a abiding in his tents according to their tribes, and the ^b Spirit of God came upon him.

3 And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor hath said, and the man [†] whose eyes are open hath said :

4 He hath said, which heard the words of God, which saw the vision of the Almighty, ^c falling into a trance, but having his eyes open :

5 How goodly are thy ^d tents, O Jacob, and thy tabernacles, O Israel !

6 As the valleys are they ^e spread ^f forth, as gardens by the ^g river's side, as the trees of ^h lign-aloes which the LORD ⁱ hath planted, and as ^k cedar-trees beside the waters.

7 He shall ^l pour the water out of his buckets, and ^m his seed shall be in many waters, and his king shall be higher than ⁿ Agag, and his kingdom shall be ^o exalted.

8 God brought him forth out of Egypt : he hath as it were the strength of a ^p unicorn : he shall ^q eat up the nations his enemies, and shall ^r break their bones, and pierce them through with his ^s arrows

21 And he looked on the ⁿKenites, and took up his parable, and said, Strong is thy dwelling-place, and thou puttest thy ^onest in a rock.

23 And he took up his parable, and said, Alas, who shall live when God doeth this!

57 ¶ And these are they that were numbered of the ^dLevites after their families: of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites: of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites: of Merari, the family of the Merarites.

58 These are the families of the Levites: the family of the Libnites, the family of the ^eHebronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the ^fMushites, the family of the ^gKorathites. And Kohath begat Amram.

59 And the name of Amram's wife was ^hJochbed, the daughter of Levi, whom her mother bare to Levi in Egypt: and she bare unto Amram, Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their sister.

60 And unto Aaron ⁱwas born Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

61 And Nabab and Abihu ^kdied, when they offered strange fire before the LORD.

62 And those that were numbered of them were ^ltwenty and three thousand, all males from a month old and upward: for they were not numbered among the children of Israel, because there was no inheritance given them among the children of Israel.

63 ¶ These are they that were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who numbered the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho.

64 But among these there was not a man of them whom Moses and Aaron the priest numbered, when they numbered the children of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai.

65 For the LORD had said of them, They shall ^msurely die in the wilderness. And there was ⁿnot left a man of them, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

CHAPTER XXVII.

6 The law of inheritances....12 Moses being told of his death, sueth for a successor.

¶ THEN ^acame the daughters of Zelophehad, the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph: and these are the ^bnames of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Tirzah.

2 And they stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the priest, and before the princes, and all the congregation, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying,

3 Our father ^cdied in the wilderness, and he was not in the company of them that gathered themselves together against the LORD in the company of ^dKorah; but died in his own sin, and had no sons.

4 Why should the name of our father ^ebe done away from among his family, because he hath no son? ¶ Give unto us therefore a possession among the brethren of our father.

5 And Moses brought their ^fcause before the LORD.

6 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

7 The daughters of Zelophehad ^gspeak right: thou shalt surely ^hgive them a possession of an inheritance among their father's brethren; and thou shalt cause the inheritance of their father to pass unto them.

8 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a man die, and have no son, then ye shall cause his inheritance to pass unto his daughter.

9 And if he have no daughter, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his brethren.

10 And if he have no brethren, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his father's brethren.

11 And if his father have no brethren, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his ⁱkinsman that is next to him of his family, and he shall possess it: and it shall be unto the children of Israel a ^kstatute of judgment, as the LORD commanded Moses.

12 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Get thee up into this mount ^lAbarim, and ^msee the land which I have given unto the children of Israel.

13 And when thou hast seen it, thou also shalt be ⁿgathered unto thy people, as Aaron thy brother was gathered.

14 For ye ^orebelled against my commandment in the desert of Zin, in the strife of the congregation, to ^psanctify me at the water before their eyes: that is the water of ^qMeribah in Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.

15 ¶ And Moses spake unto the LORD, saying,

16 Let the LORD, the God of the ^rspirits of all flesh, ^sset a man over the congregation, 17 Which may ^tgo out before them, and which may go in before them, and which may lead them out, and which may bring them in; that the congregation of the LORD be not ^uas sheep which have no shepherd.

18 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Take thee Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the ^xspirit, and lay thy hand upon him;

19 And set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation: and ^ygive him a charge in their sight.

20 And thou shalt put ^zsome of thine honour upon him, that all the congregation of the children of Israel [†]may be obedient.

21 And he shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall ask counsel for him after the judgment of ^aUrim before the LORD: ^bat his word shall they go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he, and all the children of Israel with him, even all the congregation.

22 And Moses did as the LORD commanded him: and he took Joshua, and set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation:

23 And he laid his hands upon him, and gave him a charge, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

Offerings are to be observed.

¶ AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 ^aCommand the children of Israel, and say unto them, My ^boffering, and my ^cbread for my sacrifices made by fire, for [†]a sweet savour unto me, shall ye observe to offer unto me in their ^ddue season.

3 ¶ And thou shalt say unto them, This is ^ethe offering made by fire which ye shall offer unto the LORD; two lambs of the first year ^fwithout spot ^gday by day, for a continual burnt-offering.

4 The one lamb shalt thou offer ^hin the morning, and the other lamb shalt thou offer at ⁱeven:

5 And a tenth part of an ephah of flour for a meat-offering, mingled with the fourth part of a hin of beaten oil.

6 It is a continual burnt-offering, which was ordained in mount Sinai for a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

7 And the drink-offering thereof shall be the fourth part of a hin for the one lamb: in the holy place shalt thou cause the strong wine to be poured unto the LORD for a drink-offering:

8 And the other lamb shalt thou offer at even: as the meat-offering of the morning, and as the drink

22 And one goat for a sin-offering; besides the continual burnt-offering, and his meat-offering, and his drink-offering.

23 ¶ And on the fourth day ten bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish:

24 Their ^r meat-offering and their ^s drink-offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

25 And one kid of the goats for a sin-offering; besides the ^t continual burnt-offering, his meat-offering, and his drink-offering.

26 ¶ And on the fifth day nine bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without spot:

27 And their meat-offering and their drink-offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

28 And one goat for a sin-offering; besides the continual burnt-offering, and his meat-offering, and his drink-offering.

29 ¶ And on the sixth day eight bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish:

30 And their meat-offering and their drink-offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

34 And one goat for a sin-offering; besides the continual burnt-offering, his meat-offering, and his drink-offering.

35 ¶ On the eighth day ye shall have a solemn assembly: ye shall do no servile work therein:

36 But ye shall offer a burnt-offering, a sacrifice made by fire, of [†] a sweet savour unto the LORD: one bullock, one ram, seven lambs of the first year without blemish:

37 Their meat-offering and their drink-offerings for the bullock, for the ram, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

38 And one goat for a sin-offering; besides the continual burnt-offering, and his meat-offering, and his drink-offering.

39 These things ye shall do ^u unto the LORD in your ^x set feasts, besides your ^y vows, and your ^z free-will-offerings, for your burnt-offerings, and for your meat-offerings, and for your drink-offerings, and for your ^a peace-offerings.

40 And Moses told the children of Israel according to all that the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAPTER XXX.

Vows are not to be broken.

AND Moses spake unto the ^s heads of the tribes ^b concerning the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded.

2 If a man ^c vow a vow unto the LORD, or swear an ^d oath to ^e bind his soul with a bond: he shall [†] not break his word. he shall do according to ^f all that ^g proceedeth out of his mouth.

3 ¶ If ^g a woman also vow a vow unto the LORD, and bind herself by a bond, being in her father's house in her youth:

4 And her father hear her vow, and her bond wherewith she hath bound her soul, and her father shall hold his peace at her; then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she hath bound her soul ^h shall stand.

5 But if her father disallow her in the day that he heareth, not any of her vows or of her bonds wherewith she hath bound her soul ⁱ shall stand; and the LORD shall forgive her, because her father disallowed her.

6 ¶ And if she had at all a husband when [†] she vowed, or uttered aught out of her lips, wherewith she bound her soul:

7 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her in the day that he heard it: then her vows shall stand, and her bonds wherewith she bound her soul shall stand.

8 But if her husband ^k disallowed her on the day that he heard it, then he shall make her vow which she vowed, and that which she uttered with her lips, wherewith she bound her soul, of none effect; and the LORD shall forgive her.

9 ¶ But every vow of a ^l widow, and of her that is ^m divorced, wherewith they have bound their souls, shall stand against her.

10 And if she vowed in her husband's house, or bound her soul by a bond with an oath;

11 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her, and disallowed her not: then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she bound her soul shall stand.

12 But if her husband hath [†] utterly made them void on the day he heard them; then whatsoever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, shall not stand: her husband hath made them void; and the LORD shall forgive her.

13 Every vow, and every binding oath to ⁿ afflict the soul, her husband may establish it, or her husband may make it void.

14 But if her husband [†] altogether hold his peace at her from day to day; then he establisheth all her vows, or all her bonds, which ^o are upon her: he confirmeth them, because he held his peace at her in the day that he heard them.

15 But if he shall any ways make them void after that he hath heard them; then he shall ^p bear her iniquity.

16 These ^q are the statutes which the LORD ^r commanded Moses between a man and his ^s wife, between the father and his daughter, being yet in her youth in her father's house.

CHAPTER XXXI.

The Midianites are spoiled, and Balaam slain.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 2 ^a Avenge the children of Israel of the ^b Midianites: afterward shalt thou be ^c gathered unto thy people.

3 And Moses spake unto the people, saying, Arm some of yourselves unto the war, and let them go against the Midianites, and ^d avenge the LORD of Midian.

4 [†] Of every tribe a thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, shall ye send to the war.

a tribe.

Before CHRIST 1452. Israel, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed for war.

Before CHRIST 1452. 6 And Moses sent them to the war, a thousand of every tribe, them and ^e Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war, with the ^f holy instruments, and the ^g trumpets to blow in his hand.

Before CHRIST 1452. 7 And they warred against the Midianites, as the LORD commanded Moses; and they slew all the males.

Before CHRIST 1452. 8 And they slew the kings of ^h Midian, besides the rest of them that were slain; namely, Evi, and Rekem, and ⁱ Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five ^k kings of Midian: ^l Balaam also the son of Beor they slew with the sword.

Before CHRIST 1452. 9 And the children of Israel took all the women of Midian captives, and their little ones, and took the spoil of all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods.

Before CHRIST 1452. 10 And they burnt all their cities wherein they dwelt, and all their goodly castles, with fire.

Before CHRIST 1452. 11 And they took all the spoil, and all the prey, both of men and of beasts.

Before CHRIST 1452. 12 And they brought the captives, and the ^m prey, and the spoil unto Moses and Eleazar the priest, and unto the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the camp at the plains of Moab, which are by Jordan near Jericho.

Before CHRIST 1452. 13 ¶ And Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went forth to ⁿ meet them without the camp.

Before CHRIST 1452. 14 And Moses was wroth with the officers of the [†] host, with the captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, which came from the battle.

Before CHRIST 1452. 15 And Moses said unto them, Have ye saved all the women alive?

Before CHRIST 1452. 16 Behold, these caused the children of Israel, through the ^o counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against the LORD in the matter of Peor, and there was a plague among the congregation of the LORD.

Before CHRIST 1452. 17 Now therefore kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman that hath ^p known man by lying with [†] him.

Before CHRIST 1452. 18 But all the women-children, that have not known a man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves.

Before CHRIST 1452. 19 And do ye abide without the camp ^q seven days: whosoever hath killed any person, and whosoever ^r hath touched any slain, ^s purify both yourselves and your [†] captives on the third day, and on the ^t seventh day.

Before CHRIST 1452. 20 And purify all your ^u raiment, and all [†] that is made of skins, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood.

Before CHRIST 1452. 21 And ^v Eleazar the priest said unto the men of war which went to the battle, This is the ^x ordinance of the law which the LORD commanded Moses;

Before CHRIST 1452. 22 Only the gold, and the silver, the brass, the iron, the tin, and the lead,

Before CHRIST 1452. 23 Every thing that may ^y abide the fire, ye shall make it go through the fire, and it shall be clean: nevertheless it shall be purified with the ^a water of separation: and all that abideth not the fire ye shall make go through the ^b water.

Before CHRIST 1452. 24 And ye shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and ye shall be clean, and afterward ye shall come into the camp.

Before CHRIST 1452. 25 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

Before CHRIST 1452. 26 Take the sum of the prey that was taken, both of man and of beast, thou, and Eleazar the priest, and the chief fathers of the congregation:

27 And divide the prey into ^c two parts; between them that took the war upon them, who went out to battle, and between all the congregation:

28 And levy a tribute ^d unto the LORD of the men of war which went out to battle: one soul of five hundred, both of the persons, and of the beeves, and of the asses, and of the sheep:

29 Take it of their half, and give it unto ^e Eleazar the priest, for a heave-offering of the LORD.

30 And of the children of Israel's half, thou shalt take one portion of fifty, of the persons, of the beeves, of the asses, and of the flocks, of ^f all manner of beasts, and give them unto the Levites, which ^g keep the charge of the tabernacle of the LORD.

31 And Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses.

32 And the booty, being the rest of the prey which the men of war had caught, was six hundred thousand and seventy thousand and five thousand sheep,

33 And threescore and twelve thousand beeves,

34 And threescore and one thousand asses,

35 And thirty and two thousand persons in all, of women that had not known man by lying with him.

36 And the half which was the portion of them that went out to war, was in number three hundred thousand, and seven and thirty thousand and five hundred sheep:

37 And the LORD's tribute of the sheep was six hundred and threescore and fifteen.

38 And the beeves were thirty and six thousand; of which the LORD's tribute was threescore and twelve.

39 And the asses were thirty thousand and five hundred; of which the LORD's ^h tribute was threescore and one.

40 And the persons were sixteen thousand, of which the LORD's tribute was thirty and two persons.

41 And Moses gave the tribute, which was the LORD's heave-offering, unto ⁱ Eleazar the priest, as the LORD commanded Moses.

42 And of the children of Israel's half, which Moses divided from the men that warred,

43 (Now the half that pertained unto the congregation was three hundred thousand and thirty thousand and seven thousand and five hundred sheep,

44 And thirty and six thousand beeves,

45 And thirty thousand asses and five hundred,

46 And sixteen thousand persons;)

47 Even of the children of Israel's half, Moses took one portion of fifty, both of man and of beast, and gave them unto the Levites, which ^k kept the charge of the tabernacle of the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

48 ¶ And the officers which were over thousands of the host, the captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, came near unto Moses:

49 And they said unto Moses, Thy servants have taken the sum of the men of war which are under our [†] charge, and there [†] lacketh not one man of us.

50 We have therefore brought an oblation for the LORD, what every man hath [†] gotten, of jewels of gold, chains, and bracelets, rings, ear-rings, and tablets, to make an ^l atonement for our souls before the LORD.

51 And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of them, even all wrought jewels.

52 And all the gold of the offering that they offered up to the LORD, of the captains of thousands, and of the captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty ^m shekels.

53 (For the men of war had taken spoil, every man for himself.)

54 And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of the captains of thousands, and of hundreds, and brought it into the tabernacle of the congregation, for a memorial for the children of Israel ^o before the LORD.

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 The Reubenites and Gadites sue for their inheritance on that side Jordan: 39 They conquer it.

NOW the children of ^aReuben and the children of ^bGad had a very great ^cmultitude of cattle: and when they saw the land of ^dJaazer, and the land of ^eGilead, that behold, the place was ^fa place for cattle;

2 The children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spake unto Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and unto the princes of the congregation, saying, 3 ^gAtaroth, and ^hDibon, and Jaazer, and ⁱNimrah, and ^kHeshbon, and Elealeh, and ^lShebam, and Nebo, and ^mBeon,

4 Even the country which the LORD ⁿsmote before the congregation of Israel, is a land for cattle, and thy servants have cattle:

5 Wherefore, said they, if we have found grace in thy sight, let this land be given unto thy servants for a possession, and ^obring us not over Jordan.

6 ¶ And Moses said unto the children of Gad and to the children of Reuben, Shall your brethren go to war, and shall ye sit here?

7 And wherefore ^pdiscourage ye ^qthe heart of the children of Israel from going over into the land which the LORD hath given them?

8 Thus did your fathers, when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the land.

9 For ^rwhen they went up unto the valley of Eshcol, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, that they should not go into the land which the LORD had given them.

10 And the LORD's anger was kindled the same time, and he sware, saying,

11 Surely ^snone of the men that came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I sware unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob; because they have not ^twholly followed me:

12 Save ^uCaleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, and Joshua the son of Nun: for they have wholly followed the LORD.

13 And the LORD's anger was kindled against Israel, and he made them ^vwander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation that had done evil in the sight of the LORD was ^wconsumed.

14 And behold, ye are risen up in your father's stead, an increase of sinful men, to augment yet the ^xfierce anger of the LORD toward Israel.

15 For if ye turn away ^yfrom after him, he will yet again leave them in the wilderness; and ye shall destroy all this people.

16 ¶ And they came near unto him, and said, We will build sheep-folds here for our cattle, and cities for our little ones:

17 But we ourselves will ^zgo ready armed before the children of Israel, until we have brought them unto their place: and our little ones shall dwell in the fenced cities, because of the inhabitants of the land.

18 We will not return unto our houses, until the children of Israel have inherited every man his inheritance.

19 For we will not inherit ^awith them on yonder side Jordan, or forward; because our inheritance is fallen to us on this side Jordan eastward.

20 ¶ And Moses said unto them, If ye will do this thing, if ye will go armed ^bbefore the LORD to war,

21 And will go ^call of you armed over Jordan before the LORD, until he hath driven out his enemies from before him,

22 And the land be subdued before the LORD: then afterward ye shall return, and be ^dguiltless before the LORD, and before Israel; and this land shall be ^eyour possession before the LORD.

23 But if ye will not do so, behold, ye have sinned against the LORD: and be sure ^fyour sin will ^gfind you out.

24 Build you cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep; and do that which hath ^hproceeded out of your mouth.

25 And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben spake unto Moses, saying, Thy servants will do as my lord commandeth.

26 Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our cattle, shall be there in the cities of Gilead:

27 But thy servants will ⁱpass over, every man ^jarmed for war, before the LORD to battle, as my lord saith.

28 So concerning them Moses commanded Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel:

29 And Moses said unto them, If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben will pass with you over Jordan, every man armed to battle, before the LORD, and the land shall be subdued before you; ^kthen ye shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession:

30 But if they will not pass over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan.

31 And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying, As the LORD hath said unto thy servants, so will we do.

32 We will pass over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, that the possession of our inheritance on this side Jordan may be ours.

33 And Moses ^lgave unto them, even to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, and unto ^mhalf the tribe of Manasseh, the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land, with the cities thereof in the coasts, even the cities of the country round about.

34 ¶ And the children of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer,

35 And Atroth, Shopan, and Jaazer, and Jogbeah,

36 And Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran, fenced cities: and folds for sheep.

37 And the children of Reuben built Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Kirjathaim, 38 And ⁿNebo, and Baal-meon, (their names being ^ochanged,) and Shibmah: and ^pgave other names unto the cities which they builded.

39 And the children of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead, and took it, and dispossessed the Amorite which was in it.

40 And Moses ^qgave Gilead unto ^rMachir the son of Manasseh; and he dwelt therein.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

Two and forty journeys of the Israelites.

THESE are the ^ajourneys of the children of Israel, which went forth out of the land of Egypt with their ^barmies under the ^chand of Moses and Aaron.

2 And Moses wrote their goings out according to their journeys by the ^dcommandment of the LORD: and these are their journeys according to their goings out.

3 And they departed from ^eRameses in the ^ffirst month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the morrow after the passover the children of Israel went out with a ^ghigh hand in the sight of all the Egyptians.

4 For the Egyptians buried all their first-born, which the LORD had ^hsmitten among them: upon their ⁱgods also the LORD executed judgments.

5 And the children of Israel removed from Rameses, and pitched in ^kSuccoth.

6 And they departed from Succoth, and pitched in ^lEtham, which is in the edge of the wilderness.

7 And they removed from Etham, and turned again unto ^mPi-hahiroth, which is before Baal-zephon: and they pitched before Migdol.

8 And they departed from before Pi-hahiroth, and passed through the ⁿmidst of the sea into the wilderness, and went three days' journey in the wilderness of ^oEtham, and pitched in ^pMarah.

9 And they removed from Marah, and came unto Elim: and in Elim were twelve fountains of water, and threescore and ten ^qpalm-trees; and they pitched there.

10 And they removed from Elim, and encamped by the Red sea.

11 And they removed from the Red sea, and encamped in the wilderness of ^rSin.

12 And they took their journey out of the wilderness of Sin, and encamped in Dophkah.

13 And they departed from Dophkah, and encamped in Alush.

14 And they removed from Alush, and encamped at ^sRephidim, where was no water for the people to drink.

15 And they departed from Rephidim, and pitched in the wilderness of ^tSinai.

16 And they removed from the desert of Sinai, and pitched at || Kibroth-hattaavah.

17 And they departed from Kibroth-hattaavah, and encamped at ^uHazeroth.

18 And they departed from Hazeroth, and pitched in || Rithmah.

19 And they departed from Rithmah, and pitched at || Rimmon-parez.

20 And they departed from Rimmon-parez, and pitched in ^vLibnah.

21 And they removed from Libnah, and pitched at Rissah.

22 And they journeyed from Rissah, and pitched in Kehelathah.

23 And they went from Kehelathah, and pitched in mount Shapher.

24 And they removed from mount Shapher, and encamped in Haradah.

25 And they removed from Haradah, and pitched in || Makheloth.

26 And they removed from Makheloth, and encamped at Tabath.

27 And they departed from Tabath, and pitched at Tarah.

28 And they removed from Tarah, and pitched in Mithcah.

29 And they went from Mithcah, and pitched in Hashmonah.

30 And they departed from Hashmonah, and encamped at ^yMoseroth.

31 And they departed from Moseroth, and pitched in ^zBene-jaakan.

32 And they removed from Bene-jaakan, and encamped at ^aHor-hagidgad.

33 And they went from Hor-hagidgad, and pitched in || Jotbathah.

34 And they removed from Jotbathah, and encamped at Ebronah.

35 And they departed from Ebronah, and encamped at ^bEzion-gaber.

36 And they removed from Ezion-gaber, and pitched in the wilderness ^cof Zin, which is Kadesh.

37 And they removed from Kadesh, and pitched in mount Hor, in the ^dedge of the land of Edom.

38 And Aaron the priest went up into mount Hor at the commandment of the LORD, and ^edied there, in the fortieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the first day of the fifth month.

39 And Aaron was a hundred and twenty and three years old when he died in mount Hor.

40 And king ^fArad the Canaanite, which dwelt in the south in the land of Canaan, ^gheard of the coming of the children of Israel.

41 And they departed from ^hmount Hor, and pitched in Zalmonah.

42 And they departed from Zalmonah, and pitched in Punon.

43 And they departed from Punon, and pitched in ⁱOboth.

44 And they departed from Oboth, and pitched in Ije-abarim, in the border of Moab.

45 And they departed from Iim, and pitched in ^kDibon-gad.

46 And they removed from Dibon-gad, and encamped in ^lAlmon-diblathaim.

47 And they removed from Almon-diblathaim, and pitched in the mountains of Abarim, before ^mNebo.

48 And they departed from the mountains of Abarim, and pitched in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho.

49 And they pitched by Jordan, from ⁿBeth-jesimoth even unto Abel-shittim || in the plains of Moab.

50 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho, saying,

51 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye are passed over Jordan into the land of Canaan;

52 Then ye shall ^odrive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and destroy all their ^ppictures, and destroy all their ^qmolten images, and quite pluck down all their high places:

53 And ye shall ^rdispossess the inhabitants of the land, and dwell therein: for I have given you the land to possess it.

54 And ye shall divide the land ^sby lot for an inheritance.

13 And of these cities which ye shall give, six cities shall ye have for refuge.

14 Ye shall give ^e three cities on this side Jordan, ^h and three cities shall ye give in the land of Canaan, ^h which shall be cities of refuge.

15 These six cities shall be a refuge, ^{both} for the children of Israel, and for the stranger, and for the ⁱ sojourner among them: that every one that killeth any person unawares may flee thither.

16 And if he smite him with an ^k instrument of iron, so that he die, he ^{is} a murderer: the murderer shall surely be ¹ put to death.

17 And if he smite him with throwing a stone, wherewith he may die, and he die, he ^{is} a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

18 Or ^{if} he smite him with a hand-weapon of wood, wherewith he may die, and he die, he ^{is} a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

19 The revenger of blood himself shall slay the murderer: when he ^m meeteth him, he shall slay him.

20 But if he thrust him ^o of hatred, or hurl at him by laying ^o of wait, that he die;

21 Or in enmity smite him with his hand, that he die: he that smote ^{him} shall surely be put to death; ^{for} he ^{is} a murderer: the revenger of blood shall slay the murderer, when he meeteth him.

22 But if he thrust him suddenly without enmity, or have cast upon him any thing without laying of wait,

23 Or with any stone, wherewith a man may die, seeing ^{him} not, and cast ^{it} upon him, that he die, and ^{was} not his enemy, neither sought his harm:

24 Then the congregation shall judge between the slayer and the revenger of blood according to these judgments:

25 And the congregation shall deliver the slayer out of the hand of the revenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to the city of his refuge, whither he was fled: and he shall abide in it unto the death of the ^p high priest, which was anointed with the holy oil.

26 But if the slayer shall at any time come ^q without the border of the city of his refuge, whither he was fled;

27 And the revenger of blood find ^{him} without the borders of the city of his refuge, and the revenger of blood kill the slayer; [†] he shall not be guilty of blood:

28 Because he should have remained in the city of his refuge until the death of the high priest: but after the death of the high priest the slayer shall return into the land of his possession.

29 So these ^{things} shall be for ^r a statute of judgment unto you throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

30 Whoso killeth any person, the murderer shall be put to death by the ^s mouth of witnesses: but one witness shall not testify against any person to ^{cause} ^{him} to die.

31 Moreover, ye shall take no satisfaction for the life of a murderer, which ^{is} † guilty of death: but he shall be surely put to death.

32 And ye shall take no satisfaction for him that is fled to the city of his refuge, that he should come again to dwell in the land, until the death of the priest.

33 So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye ^{are}: for blood it ¹ defileth the † land: and the † land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it.

34 Defile not therefore the land which ye shall inhabit, wherein I dwell: for I the LORD ^u dwell among the children of Israel.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

The daughters of Zelophehad marry their father's brothers' sons.

AND the chief fathers of the families of the children of ^a Gilead, the son of Machir the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near, and spake before Moses, and before the princes, the chief fathers of the children of Israel:

2 And they said, The LORD ^b commanded my lord to give the land for an inheritance by lot to the children of Israel: and ^c my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother unto his daughters.

3 And if they be married to any of the sons of the ^{other} tribes of the children of Israel, then shall their inheritance be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and shall be put to the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they are received: so shall it be taken from the lot of our inheritance.

4 And when the ^d jubilee of the children of Israel shall be, then shall their inheritance be put unto the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they are received: so shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

5 And Moses commanded the children of Israel according to the word ^e of the LORD, saying, The tribe of the sons of Joseph hath said well.

6 This ^{is} the thing which the LORD doth command concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, Let them [†] marry to whom they think best; only to the ^f family of the tribe of their fathers shall they marry.

7 So shall not the inheritance of the children of Israel remove from tribe to tribe: for every one of the children of Israel shall [†] keep himself to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 And every daughter, that possesseth an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israel, shall be wife unto one of the family of the tribe of her father, that the children of Israel may enjoy every man the inheritance of his fathers.

9 Neither shall the inheritance remove ^g from one tribe to another tribe; but every one of the tribes of the children of Israel shall keep himself to his own inheritance.

10 ¹ Even ^h as the LORD commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad:

11 For Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married unto their ⁱ father's brothers' sons:

¶ The FIFTH Book of Moses, called DEUTERONOMY.

CHAPTER I.

1 Moses' speech rehearsing the story of God's promise, 19 of sending the spies to search the land.

THESE be the words which Moses spake unto all Israel ^a on this side Jordan in the wilderness, in the plain over against the Red sea, between ^b Paran, and Tophel, and Laban, and Hazeroth, and Dizahab.

2 (There are ^c eleven days' journey from Horeb by the way of ^d mount Seir unto ^e Kadesh-barnea.)

3 And it came to pass in the ^f fortieth year, in the ^g eleventh month, on the first day of the month, that Moses spake unto the children of Israel, according unto all that the LORD had given him in commandment unto them:

4 After he had slain ^b Sihon the king of the Amorites, which dwelt in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, which dwelt at ⁱ Astaroth in Edrei:

5 On this side Jordan, in the land of Moab, began Moses to declare this law, saying,

6 The LORD our God spake unto us in Horeb, saying, Ye have dwelt ^k long enough in this mount:

7 Turn you, and take your journey, and go to the mount of the Amorites, and unto all the places nigh thereunto, in the plain, in the hills, and in the vale, and in the south, and by the ^l sea-side, to the land of the Canaanites, and unto Lebanon, unto the great river, the river Euphrates.

8 Behold, I have ^m set the land before you: go in and possess the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give unto them and to ⁿ their seed after them.

9 ¶ And I spake unto you at ^o that time, saying, I am not able to bear you myself alone:

10 The LORD your God hath multiplied you, and behold, ye are this day as the ^p stars of heaven for multitude.

11 (The LORD God of your fathers ^q make you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and bless you, as he hath promised you!)

12 How can I myself alone bear your ^r cumbrance, and your burden, and your strife?

13 ¶ Take you wise men, and ^s understanding, and ^t known among your tribes, and I will make them ^u rulers over you.

14 And he answered me, and said, The thing which thou hast spoken is good for us to do.

15 So I took the chief of your tribes, wise men, and known, and made them heads over you, captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, and captains over fifties, and captains over tens, and officers among your tribes.

16 And I charged your judges at that time, saying, Hear the causes between your brethren, and ^v judge righteously between every man and his brother, and the stranger that is with him.

17 Ye shall not ^w respect persons in judgment; but ye shall hear the small as well as the great; ye shall not be afraid of the face of man; for the judgment ^x is God's: and ^y the cause that is too hard for you, bring it unto me, and I will hear it.

18 And I commanded you at that time ^z all the things which ye should do.

19 ¶ And when we ^a departed from Horeb, we went through all that great and ^b terrible wilderness, which ye saw by the way of the ^c mountain of the Amorites, as the LORD our God commanded us; and we came to Kadesh-barnea.

20 And I said unto you, Ye are come unto the mountain of the Amorites, which the LORD our God doth give unto us.

21 Behold, the LORD thy God hath set the land before thee: go up and possess it, as the LORD God of thy fathers hath said unto thee; fear not, neither be discouraged.

22 ¶ And ye came near unto me every one of you, and said, We will send men before us, and they shall search us out the land, and bring us word again by what way we must go up, and into what cities we shall come.

23 And the saying ^d pleased me well: and I took twelve men of you, one of a tribe:

24 And they turned and went up into the mountain, and came unto the valley of ^e Eshcol, and searched it out.

25 And they took of the ^f fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down unto us, and brought us word again, and said, It is ^g a good land which the LORD our God doth give us.

26 Notwithstanding, ye would not go up, ^h but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God:

27 And ye murmured in your tents, and said, Because the LORD ⁱ hated us, he hath brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us.

28 Whither shall we go up? our brethren have ^j discouraged our heart, saying, The people is greater and taller than we; the cities are great and walled ^k up to heaven; and moreover, we have seen the sons of the ^l Anakims there.

29 Then I said unto you, Dread not, neither be afraid of them.

30 The LORD your God which goeth before you, he shall fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes;

31 And in the wilderness, where thou hast seen how that the LORD thy God ^m bare thee, as a man doth bear his son, in all the way that ye went, until ye came into this place.

32 Yet in this thing ye did ⁿ not believe the LORD your God,

33 Who ^o went in the way before you, to search you out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night, to shew you by what way ye should go, and in a cloud by day.

34 And the LORD heard the voice of your words, and was wroth, and sware, saying,

35 Surely there shall ^p not one of these men of this evil generation see that good land, which I sware to give unto your fathers,

36 Save ^q Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him will I give the land that he hath trodden upon, and to his children, because he hath ^r wholly followed the LORD.

37 Also the LORD was angry ^s with me ^t for your sakes, saying, Thou also shalt not go in thither.

38 But ^u Joshua the son of Nun, which ^x standeth before thee, he shall go in thither. ^y Encourage him: for he shall cause Israel to inherit it.

39 Moreover, your little ones, which ye said should be ^z a prey, and your children, which in that day had no knowledge ^a between good and evil, they ^b shall go in thither, and unto them will I give it, and they shall possess it.

40 But as for you, turn you and take your journey into the wilderness by ^c the way of the Red sea.

41 Then ye answered and said unto me, We have ^d sinned against the LORD, we will go up and fight, according to all that the LORD our God commanded us. And when he had girded on every man his weapons of war, ye were ready to go up into the hill.

42 And the LORD said unto me, Say unto them, Go not up, neither fight; for I am ^e not among you; lest ye be smitten before your enemies.

43 So I spake unto you; and ye would not hear, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD, and went presumptuously up into the hill.

44 And the Amorites, which dwelt in that mountain, came out against you, and chased you, as ^f bees do, and destroyed you in Seir even unto Hormah.

45 And ye returned and wept before the LORD; but the LORD would ^g not hearken to your voice, nor give ear unto you.

46 So ye abode in ^h Kadesh many days, according unto the days that ye abode there.

CHAPTER II.

The story is continued, that they were not to meddle with the Edomites, Moabites, nor Ammonites, &c.

THEN we turned, and took our journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea, as the LORD ^a spake unto me: and we compassed ^b mount Seir many days.

2 And the LORD spake unto me, saying,

3 Ye have compassed this mountain ^c long enough: turn you northward.

4 And command thou the people, saying, Ye are to pass through the coast of your ^d brethren the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir; and they shall be ^e afraid of you: take ye ^f good heed unto yourselves therefore:

5 ^g Meddle not with them; for I will not give you of their land, ^h no, not so much as a foot-breadth; because I have ⁱ given mount Seir unto Esau for a possession.

6 Ye shall ^j buy meat of them for money, that ye may eat; and ye shall also ^k buy water of them for money, that ye may drink.

7 For the LORD thy God hath blessed thee in all the works of thy hand: he ^l knoweth thy walking through this great wilderness: these forty years the LORD thy God hath been with ^m thee: thou hast lacked nothing.

8 And when we ⁿ passed by from our brethren the children of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, through the way of the plain from ^o Elath, and from Ezion-gaber, we turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab.

9 ^p And the LORD said unto me, ^q Distress not the Moabites, neither contend with them in battle: for I will not give thee of their land for a possession; because I have given ^r Ar unto the children of Lot for a possession.

10 (The ^s Emims dwelt therein in times past, a people great, and many, and tall as the Anakims:

11 Which also were accounted giants, as the Anakims: but the Moabites call them Emims.

12 The Horims also dwelt in Seir before-time, but the children of Esau succeeded them, when they had destroyed them from before them, and dwelt in their stead: ^t as Israel did unto the land of his possession, which the LORD gave unto them.)

13 Now rise up, said I, and get you over the brook ^u Zered: and we went over the brook Zered.

14 And the space in which we came from Kadesh-barnea, until we were come over the brook Zered, was thirty and eight years; until ^v all the generation of the men of war were wasted out from among the host, as the LORD sware unto them.

15 For indeed the ^w hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from among the host, until they were consumed.

16 So it came to pass, when all the men of war were consumed and dead from among the people,

17 ^x That the LORD spake unto me, saying,

18 Thou art to pass over through Ar, the coast of Moab, this day:

19 And when thou comest nigh over against the children of ^y Ammon, distress them not, nor meddle with them: for I will not give thee of the land of the children of Ammon any possession; because I have given it unto the children of Lot for a possession.

20 (That also was accounted a land of giants: giants dwelt therein in old time; and the Ammonites call them ^z Zamzummims;

21 A people great, and many, and tall as the Anakims; but the LORD destroyed them before them; and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead:

22 As he did to the children of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, when he destroyed the ^{aa} Horims from before them; and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead even unto this day:

23 And the ^{ab} Avims which dwelt in Hazerim, even unto ^{ac} Azzah, the Caphtorims, which came forth out of ^{ad} Caphtor, destroyed them, and dwelt in their stead.)

24 ^{ae} I Rise ye up, take your journey, and pass over the ^{af} river Arnon: behold, I have given into thy hand ^{ag} Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land: begin to possess it, and contend with him in battle.

25 This day will I begin to put the ^{ah} dread of thee and the fear of thee upon the nations that are under the whole heaven, who shall hear report of thee, and shall tremble, and be in ^{ai} anguish because of thee.

26 And I sent messengers out of the wilderness of ^{aj} Kedemoth unto Sihon king of Heshbon with words of ^{ak} peace, saying, 27 Let me pass through thy land: I will go along ^{al} by the highway, I will neither turn unto the right hand nor to the left.

28 Thou shalt sell me meat for money, that I may eat; and give me water for money, that I may drink: only I will pass through ^{am} on my feet;

29 (As the children of ^{an} Esau which dwell in Seir, and the Moabites which dwell in Ar, did unto me;) until I shall pass over Jordan into the land which the LORD our God giveth us.

30 But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him; for the LORD thy God ^{ao} hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, that he might deliver him into thy hand, as appeareth this day.

31 And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have begun to ^{ap} give Sihon and his land before thee: begin to possess, that thou mayest inherit his land.

32 Then Sihon came out against us, he and all his people, ^{aq} to fight at ^{ar} Jahaz.

33 And the LORD our God delivered him before us; and we ^{as} smote him, and his sons, and all his people.

34 And we took all his cities at that time, and utterly destroyed [†] the men, and the women, and the little ones of every city; we left none to remain:

35 Only the cattle we took for a prey unto ourselves, and the spoil of the cities which we took.

36 From Aroer which is by the brink of the river of ^a Arnon, and from the city that is by the river, even unto Gilead, there was not one city too strong for us: the LORD our God [†] delivered all unto us:

37 Only unto the land of the children of Ammon thou camest not, nor unto ^s any place of the river Jabbok, nor unto the cities in the mountains, [†] nor unto whatsoever the LORD our God forbade us.

CHAPTER III.

23 Moses' prayer to enter into the land....27 He is permitted to see it.

THEN we turned, and went up the ^a way to Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei.

2 And the LORD said unto me, Fear him not; for I will deliver him, and all his people, and his land, into thy hand; and thou shalt do unto him as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at ^b Heshbon.

3 So the LORD our God delivered into our hands Og also the king of Bashan, and ^c all his people: and we smote him until none was left to him remaining.

4 And we took all his cities at that time, there was not ^d a city which we took not from them, three-score cities, all [†] the region of ^e Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

5 All these cities were fenced with high walls, gates, and bars; besides [†] unwalled towns a great many.

6 And we utterly destroyed them, as we did unto Sihon king of Heshbon, [‡] utterly destroying the men, women, and children of every city.

7 But all the cattle, and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to ourselves.

8 And we took at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites the ^h land that was on this side Jordan, from the river of Arnon unto mount Hermon;

9 (Which ⁱ Hermon the Sidonians call ^k Sirion; and the Amorites call it ^{||} Shenir;)

10 All the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, unto Salchah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

11 [†] For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of [†] giants: behold his bedstead was a bedstead of ^m iron; is it not in ⁿ Rabbath of the children of Ammon? nine ^o cubits was the length thereof, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man.

12 [†] And this land, which we possessed at that time, from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, and half mount Gilead, and the cities thereof, gave I unto the [†] Reubenites and to the Gadites.

13 And the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, being the kingdom of Og, gave I unto the half-tribe of ^p Manasseh; all the region of Argob, with all Bashan, which was called the land of giants.

14 Jair the son of Manasseh took all the country of Argob, unto the coasts of ^q Geshuri, and Maachathi; and called them after his own name, ^r Bashan-havoth-jair, unto this day.

15 And I gave ^s Gilead unto ^t Machir.

16 And unto the Reubenites and unto the Gadites ^u I gave from Gilead even unto the river Arnon, half the valley, and the border, even unto the river Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon:

17 The plain also, and Jordan, and the coast thereof, from ^x Chinnereth even unto the sea of the plain, even the ^y salt sea, under ^z Ashdoth-pisgah eastward.

18 And I commanded ^a you at that time, saying, The LORD your God hath given you this land to possess it; ye shall pass over armed before your brethren the children of Israel, all that are [†] meet for the war.

19 But your wives, and your little ones, and your cattle, (for I know that ye have much cattle,) shall abide in your cities which I have given you;

20 Until the LORD have given rest unto your brethren, as well as unto you, and until they also possess the land which the LORD your God hath given them beyond Jordan: and then shall ye return every man unto his possession which I have given you.

21 And I commanded ^b Joshua at that time, saying, Thine eyes have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto these two kings: ^c so shall the LORD do unto all the kingdoms whither thou passest.

22 Ye shall not fear them: for the LORD your God he shall ^d fight for you.

23 [†] And I besought the LORD at that time, saying,

24 O LORD God, thou hast ^e begun to shew thy servant thy greatness, and thy mighty hand: for what God is there in heaven or in earth, that can do according to thy works, and according to thy [†] might?

25 I pray thee, let me go over, and see the [‡] good land that is beyond Jordan, that ^h goodly mountain, and ⁱ Lebanon.

26 But the LORD was wroth with me ^k for your sakes, and would not hear me: and the LORD said unto me, [†] Let it suffice thee; speak no more unto me of this matter.

27 [†] Get thee up into the top of Pisgah, and lift up thine eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and behold it with thine eyes: for thou shalt not go over this Jordan.

28 But charge ^{||} Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him: for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which thou shalt see.

29 So we abode in the valley over against Beth-peor.

CHAPTER IV.

Moses appointeth the three cities of refuge on that side Jordan.

NOW therefore hearken, O Israel, unto the statutes and unto the judgments which I teach you, for to do ^a them, that ye ^b may live, and go in and ^c possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers giveth you.

2 Ye shall ^d not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish [†] aught from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you.

3 Your eyes have seen what the LORD did because of ^e Baal-peor: for all the men that followed Baal-peor, the LORD thy God hath destroyed them from among you.

4 But ye that did cleave [†] unto the LORD your God, are alive every one of you this day.

5 Behold, I have taught you statutes, and judgments, even as the LORD my God commanded me, that ye should do so in the land whither ye go to possess it.

6 Keep therefore and do them: for this is your [‡] wisdom and your understanding in the ^h sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.

7 For what nation is there so great, who hath God so ⁱ nigh unto them, as the LORD our God is in all things that we call upon him for?

8 And what nation is there so great, that hath statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day?

9 Only take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they ^k depart from thy heart all the days of thy life: but ^l teach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons:

10 Speciall ^m the day that thou stoodest before the LORD thy God in Horeb, when the LORD said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children.

11 And ye came near and stood under the mountain: and the mountain ^o burned with fire unto the midst of heaven, with darkness, clouds, ^p and thick darkness.

12 And the LORD spake unto you out of the midst of the fire: ye heard the voice of the words, but saw ^q no similitude; only ye heard a voice.

13 And he declared unto you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, even ten commandments: and he wrote them upon two tables of ^r stone.

14 And the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you ^s statutes and judgments, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go over to possess it.

15 Take ye therefore ^t good heed unto yourselves; (for ye saw ^u no manner of similitude on the day that the LORD spake unto you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire:)

16 Lest ye corrupt yourselves, and make you a graven image, the similitude of any ^v figure, the likeness of male or female,

17 The likeness of any ^w beast that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged fowl that flieth in the air,

18 The likeness of any thing that creepeth on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth:

19 And lest thou lift up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou seest the ^x sun, and the moon, and the stars, even all the host of heaven, shouldest be ^y driven to worship them, and serve them, which the LORD thy God ^z hath divided unto all nations under the whole heaven.

20 But the LORD hath taken you, and brought you forth out of ^a the iron furnace, even out of Egypt, to be unto him a people of ^b inheritance, as ye are this day.

21 Furthermore, the LORD was angry with me ^c for your sakes, and sware that I should not go over Jordan, and that I should not go in unto that good land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance:

22 But I must die in this land, I must ^d not go over Jordan: but ye shall go over, and possess that good land.

23 Take heed unto yourselves, ^e lest ye forget the covenant of the LORD your God, which he made with you, and make you a graven image, or the likeness of any thing which the LORD thy God hath forbidden thee.

24 For the LORD thy God is a consuming ^f fire, even a ^g jealous God.

25 When thou shalt beget children, and children's children, and ye shall have ^h remained long in the land, and shall corrupt yourselves, and make a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, and shall do evil in the sight of the LORD thy God, to provoke him to anger;

26 ⁱ I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that ye shall soon utterly ^j perish from off the land whereunto ye go over Jordan to possess it: ye shall not prolong your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed.

27 And the LORD shall scatter you among the nations, and ye shall be left ^k few in number among the heathen, whither the LORD shall lead you.

28 And there ye shall serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither ^l see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.

29 But if ^m from thence thou shalt seek the LORD thy God, thou shalt find him, if thou seek him with all thy heart, and with all thy soul.

30 When thou art in tribulation, and all these things ⁿ are come upon thee, even in ^o the latter days, if thou ^p turn to the LORD thy God, and shalt be obedient unto his voice;

31 (For the LORD thy God is a merciful God:) he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers, which he sware unto them.

32 For ^q ask now of the days that are past, which were before thee, since the day that God created man upon the earth, and ask from the ^r one side of heaven unto the other, whether there hath been any such thing as this ^s great thing is, or hath been heard like it?

33 Did ever people hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as thou hast heard, ^t and live?

34 Or hath God assayed to go and take him a nation from the midst of another nation, by ^u temptations, by ^v signs, and by ^w wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by a ^x stretched out arm, and by great ^y terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

35 Unto thee it was shewed, that thou mightest ^z know that the LORD he is God: there is none else ^a besides him.

36 ^b Out of heaven he made thee to hear his voice, that he might ^c instruct thee: and ^d upon earth he shewed thee his great fire; and thou ^e heardest his words out of the midst of the fire.

37 And because he loved thy fathers, therefore he chose their seed after them, and brought thee out ^f in his sight with his mighty power out of Egypt;

38 To drive out nations from before thee, ^g greater and mightier than thou art, to bring thee in, to give thee their land for an inheritance, as it is this day.

39 ^h Know therefore this day, and consider it in thy heart, that the LORD he is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none else.

40 Thou shalt keep therefore his statutes and his commandments which I command thee this day, that it may ⁱ go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days upon the earth, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, for ever.

41 ^j Then Moses severed ^k three cities on this side Jordan, toward the sun-rising;

42 That the slayer might flee thither, which should kill his neighbour ^l unawares, and hated him not in times past; and that fleeing unto one of these cities he might live:

43 Namely, ^m Bezer in the wilderness, in the plain country, of the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead, of the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, of the Manassites.

44 ¶ And this is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel:

45 ^a These are the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments, which Moses spake unto the children of Israel, after they came forth out of Egypt.

46 On this side Jordan, in the valley over against Beth-peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel smote, after they were come forth out of Egypt:

47 And they possessed his land, and the land of ^o Og king of Bashan, two kings of the Amorites, which were on this side Jordan, toward the sun-rising;

48 From Aroer, which is by the bank of the river Arnon, even unto mount ^p Sion, which is Hermon, 49 And all the plain on this side Jordan eastward, even unto the ^a sea of the plain, under the ^r springs of Pishgah.

CHAPTER V.

1 The covenant in Horeb... 6 The ten commandments... 27 At the people's request Moses receiveth the law from God.

AND Moses called ^a all Israel, and said unto them, Hear, O Israel, the statutes and judgments which I speak in your ears this day, that ye may learn them, and [†] keep, and do them.

2 The LORD our God ^b made a covenant with us in ^c Horeb.

3 The LORD made not this covenant with our fathers, but ^d with us, even us, who are all of us here alive this day.

4 The LORD talked with you ^e face to face in the mount, out of the midst of the fire,

5 (I stood ^f between the LORD and you at that time, to shew you the word of the LORD: for ye were afraid by reason of the fire, and went not up into the mount,) saying,

6 I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of [†] bondage.

7 Thou shalt have ^g none other gods before me.

8 Thou shalt not make thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the waters beneath the earth.

9 Thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me,

10 And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that ^h love me, and keep my ⁱ commandments.

11 Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain: for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

12 Keep the sabbath-day to sanctify it, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee.

13 Six days thou shalt labour, and do all thy work;

14 But the seventh day is the ^k sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thine ox, nor thine ass, nor any of thy cattle, nor thy ^l stranger that is within thy gates; that thy man-servant and thy maid-servant may rest as well ^m as thou.

15 And remember that thou wast a servant in the land of Egypt, and that the LORD thy God brought thee out thence through a mighty hand and by a stretched out arm: therefore the LORD thy God commanded thee to ⁿ keep the sabbath-day.

16 ¶ Honour thy father and thy mother, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee; that thy days may be prolonged, and that it may go ^o well with thee, in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

17 Thou shalt not ^p kill.

18 ^q Neither shalt thou ^r commit adultery.

19 Neither shalt thou ^s steal.

20 Neither shalt thou bear ^t false witness against thy neighbour.

21 Neither shalt thou ^u desire thy neighbour's wife, neither shalt thou covet thy neighbour's house, his field, or his man-servant, or his maid-servant, his ox, or his ass, or any thing that is thy neighbour's:

22 These words the LORD spake unto all your assembly in the mount, out of the midst of the fire, of the cloud, and of the thick darkness, with a great voice; and he ^x added no more: and he wrote them in two tables ^y of stone, and delivered them unto me.

23 And it came to pass, when ye heard the voice out of the midst of the darkness, (for the ^z mountain did burn with fire,) that ye came near unto me, even all the ^a heads of your tribes, and your elders;

24 And ye said, Behold, the LORD our God hath shewed us his glory, and his greatness, and ^b we have heard his voice out of the midst of the fire: we have seen this day that God doth talk with man, and ^c he liveth.

25 Now therefore ^d why should we die? for this great ^e fire will consume us: if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any more, then we shall ^f die.

26 For who is there of ^g all flesh that hath heard the voice of the ^h living God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as we have, and ⁱ lived?

27 ¶ ^j Go thou near, and hear all that the LORD our God shall say: and ^k speak thou unto us all that the LORD our God shall speak unto thee; and we will hear it, and do it.

28 And the LORD heard the voice of your words, when ye spake unto me; and the LORD said unto me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken unto thee: they have ^l well said all that they have spoken.

29 Oh that there were such a heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my commandments ^m always, that it might be well with them, and with their children for ever!

30 Go say to them, Get you into your tents again.

31 But as for thee, stand thou here by me, and I will ⁿ speak unto thee all the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which thou shalt teach them, that they may do them in the land which I give them to possess it.

32 Ye shall observe to do therefore as the LORD your God hath commanded you: ye shall not turn aside to the ^o right hand or to the left.

33 Ye shall walk in all ^p the ways which the LORD your God hath commanded you, that ye may live, and that it may be ^q well with you, and that ye may prolong your days in the land which ye shall possess.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The end of the law is obedience. 3 An exhortation thereto.

NOW these are the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments which the LORD your God commanded to teach you, that ye might ^r do them in the land ^s whither ye go ^t to possess it:

2 That thou mightest ^b fear the LORD thy God, to keep all his statutes and his commandments which I command thee, thou, and thy son, and thy son's son, all the days of thy life; and that thy days may be ^c prolonged.

3 [†] Hear therefore, O Israel, and observe to do it; that it may be well with thee, and that ye may increase mightily, as the LORD God of thy fathers hath promised thee, in the land that floweth with ^d milk and honey.

4 ^e Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God is ^f one LORD: 5 And thou shalt ^g love the LORD thy God with all thy ^h heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy ⁱ might.

6 And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thy ^k heart:

7 And thou shalt [†] teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thy house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

8 And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thy hand, and they shall be as ^l frontlets between thy eyes.

9 And thou shalt write them upon the ^m posts of thy house, and on thy gates.

10 And it shall be, when the LORD thy God shall have brought thee into the land which he swore unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give thee great and goodly ⁿ cities, which thou buildedst not,

11 And houses ^o full of all good things, which thou filledst not, and wells digged, which thou diggedst not, vineyards and olive-trees, which thou plantedst not; when thou shalt have eaten and be full;

12 ^p Then beware lest thou forget the LORD, which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

13 Thou shalt fear the LORD thy God, and ^q serve him, and shalt ^r swear by his name.

14 Ye shall not ^s go after other gods, of the gods of the people which ^{are} round about you;

15 (For the LORD thy God is ^t a jealous God among you;) lest the anger of the LORD thy God be kindled against thee, and destroy thee from off ^u the face of the earth.

16 Ye shall ^v not tempt the LORD your God, as ye tempted ^{him} in ^x Massah.

17 Ye shall ^y diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and his testimonies and his statutes, which he hath commanded thee.

18 And thou shalt do ^z that which is ^{right} and good in the sight of the LORD: that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest go in and possess the good land which the LORD swore unto thy fathers, 19 To ^a cast out all thine enemies from before thee, as the LORD hath spoken.

20 And when thy son asketh thee in [†] time to come, saying, What ^{mean} the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments, which the LORD our God hath ^b commanded you?

21 Then thou shalt say unto thy son, We were ^c Pharaoh's bond-men in Egypt; and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with ^d a mighty hand:

22 And the LORD shewed signs and wonders, great and [†] sore, upon Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his household, ^e before our eyes:

23 And he ^f brought us out from thence, that he might bring us in, to give us the land which he swore unto our fathers.

24 And the LORD commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God, ^g for our good always, that he might preserve us ^h alive, as ⁱ it is at this day.

25 And it shall be ^j our righteousness, if we observe to do all these commandments before the LORD our God, as he hath commanded us.

CHAPTER VII.

1 All communion with the nations is forbidden.

WHEN the LORD thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, and hath ^a cast out many nations before thee, the Hittites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, ^b seven nations greater and mightier than thou;

2 And when the LORD thy God shall deliver them ^c before thee, thou shalt ^d smite them and utterly destroy them, thou shalt ^e make no covenant with them, nor shew mercy unto them:

3 Neither shalt thou make ^f marriages with them; thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son.

4 [†] For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve ^g other gods: so will the anger of the LORD be ^h kindled against you, and destroy thee suddenly.

5 But thus shall ye deal with them; ye shall destroy their altars, and break down their ⁱ images, and cut down their ^j groves, and burn their graven images with fire.

6 [†] For thou ^{art} a ^k holy people unto the LORD thy God: the LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be ^l a special people unto himself, above all people that ^{are} upon the face of the earth.

7 The LORD did not set his love upon you, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people; for ye ^m were the ⁿ fewest of all people:

8 But because the LORD loved ^o you, and because he would keep the ^p oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, hath the LORD brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of ^q bond-men, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

9 [†] Know therefore that the LORD thy God, he ^{is} God, the ^r faithful God, which keepeth covenant and mercy with them that ^s love him and keep his commandments to a thousand generations;

10 And repayeth them that hate him to their face, to destroy them: he will not be slack to him that hateth him, he will ^t repay him to his ^u face.

11 Thou shalt therefore keep the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which I command thee this day, to do them.

12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, [†] if ye hearken to these judgments, and ^v keep, and do them, that the LORD thy God shall keep unto thee the covenant and the ^w mercy which he ^x swore unto thy fathers:

13 And he will ^y love thee, and bless thee, and multiply thee: he will also bless the ^z fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep, in the land which he swore unto thy fathers to give thee.

14 Thou shalt be blessed above all people: there shall not be male or female ^a barren among you, or among your cattle.

15 And the LORD will take away from thee all sickness, and will put none of the ^b evil diseases of of thy heart, dost thou go to possess their land: but for the wickedness of these nations, the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform the word which the LORD swore unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

6 Understand therefore, that the LORD thy God giveth thee not this good land to possess it for thy righteousness; for thou art a stiff-necked people.

7 Remember, and forget not, how thou provokedst the LORD thy God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto this place, ye have been rebellious against the LORD.

8 Also in Horeb ye provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry with you to have destroyed you.

9 When I was gone up into the mount, to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I abode in the mount forty days and forty nights, I neither did eat bread nor drink water:

10 And the LORD delivered unto me two tables of stone written with the finger of God; and on them was written according to all the words which the LORD spake with you in the mount, out of the midst of the fire, in the day of the assembly.

11 And it came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that the LORD gave me the two tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant.

12 And the LORD said unto me, Arise, get thee down quickly from hence; for thy people which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt have corrupted themselves; they are quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image.

13 Furthermore, the LORD spake unto me, saying, I have seen this people, and behold, it is a stiff-necked people:

14 Let me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot out their name from under heaven: and I will make of thee a nation mightier and greater than they.

15 So I turned and came down from the mount, and the mount was burned with fire: and the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands.

16 And I looked, and behold, ye had sinned against the LORD your God, and had made you a molten calf: ye had turned aside quickly out of the way which the LORD had commanded you.

17 And I took the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes.

18 And I fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights: I did neither eat bread nor drink water, because of all your sins which ye sinned, in doing wickedly in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

19 (For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure wherewith the LORD was wroth against you to destroy you.) But the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also.

20 And the LORD was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him: and I prayed for Aaron also the same time.

21 And I took your sin, the calf which ye had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, and ground it very small, even until it was as small as dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the brook that descended out of the mount.

22 And at Taberah, and at Massah, and at Kibroth-hattaavah, ye provoked the LORD to wrath.

23 Likewise when the LORD sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then ye rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and ye believed him not, nor hearkened to his voice.

24 Ye have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you.

25 Thus I fell down before the LORD forty days and forty nights, as I fell down at the first; because the LORD had said he would destroy you.

26 I prayed therefore unto the LORD, and said, O LORD God, destroy not thy people and thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed through thy greatness, which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

27 Remember thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; look not unto the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin:

28 Lest the land whence thou broughtest us out, say, Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which he promised them, and because he hated them, he hath brought them out to slay them in the wilderness.

29 Yet they are thy people and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out by thy mighty power and by thy stretched out arm.

CHAPTER X.

1 God's mercy in restoring the two tables, 6 and in continuing the priesthood.

AT that time the LORD said unto me, Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first, and come up unto me into the mount, and make thee an ark of wood.

2 And I will write on the tables the words that were in the first tables which thou brakest, and thou shalt put them in the ark.

3 And I made an ark of shittim-wood, and hewed two tables of stone like unto the first, and went up into the mount, having the two tables in my hand.

4 And he wrote on the tables, according to the first writing, the ten commandments, which the LORD spake unto you in the mount, out of the midst of the fire, in the day of the assembly: and the LORD gave them unto me.

5 And I turned myself and came down from the mount, and put the tables in the ark which I had made; and there they be, as the LORD commanded me.

6 And the children of Israel took their journey from Beeroth of the children of Jaakan to Mosera: there Aaron died, and there he was buried; and Eleazar his son ministered in the priest's office in his stead.

7 From thence they journeyed unto Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to Jotbath, a land of rivers of waters.

8 At that time the LORD separated the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister unto him, and to bless in his name, unto this day.

9 Wherefore Levi hath no part nor inheritance with his brethren; the LORD is his inheritance, according as the LORD thy God promised him.

10 And I stayed in the mount, according to the first time, forty days and forty nights; and the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also, and the LORD would not destroy thee.

CHAPTER XI.

18 A careful study is required in God's words... 26 The blessing and curse is set before them.

THEREFORE thou shalt ^a love the LORD thy God, and keep his ^b charge, and his statutes, and his judgments, and his commandments, always.

2 ¶ And know ye this day: for I speak not with your children which have not known, and which have not seen the ^c chastisement of the LORD your God, his ^d greatness, his mighty hand, and his stretched-out arm,

3 And his ^e miracles, and his acts, which he did in the midst of Egypt, unto Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and unto all his land;

4 And what he did unto the ^f army of Egypt, unto their horses, and to their chariots; how he made the water of the Red sea to overflow them as they pursued after you, and how the LORD hath destroyed them unto this day;

5 And what he did unto you in the ^g wilderness, until ye came into this place.

6 And what he did unto ^h Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben: how the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and all the substance that ⁱ was in their possession, in the midst of all Israel:

7 But ^j your eyes have seen all the great acts of the LORD which he did.

8 ¶ Therefore shall ye keep all the commandments which I command you this day, that ye may ^k be strong, and go in and ^l possess the land, whither ye go to possess it;

9 And that ye may ^m prolong your days in the land which the LORD swore unto your fathers to give unto them, and to their seed, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

10 For the land, whither thou goest in to possess it, is not as the land of Egypt, from whence ye came out, where thou ⁿ sowedst thy seed, and wateredst it with thy ^o foot, as a garden of herbs:

11 But the land, whither ye go to possess it, is a land of hills and ^p valleys, and drinketh water of the ^q rain of heaven:

12 A land which the LORD thy God ^r careth for: ^s the eyes of the LORD thy God are always upon it, from the beginning of the year even unto the end of the year.

13 And it shall come to pass, if ye shall ^t hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, to love the LORD your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul,

14 That I will give you the rain of your land in his due season, the ^u first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy ^v corn, and thy wine, and thine oil.

15 And I will send grass in thy fields for thy cattle, that thou mayest ^w eat and be full.

16 Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not ^x deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them;

17 ¶ And then the LORD's wrath be kindled against you, and he ^y shut up the heaven, that there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit; and lest ye ^z perish quickly from off the good land which the LORD giveth you.

18 Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets ^a between your eyes.

19 And ye shall ^b teach them your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thy house, and when thou ^c walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

20 And thou shalt write them upon the ^d door posts of thy house, and upon thy gates:

21 That your ^e days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which the LORD swore unto your fathers to give them, as the days of heaven upon the earth.

22 For if ye shall diligently ^f keep all these commandments which I command you, to do them, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, and to ^g cleave unto him;

23 Then will the LORD drive out all these nations from before you, and ye shall possess ^h greater nations and mightier than yourselves.

10 But when ye go over Jordan, and dwell in the land which the LORD your God giveth you to inherit, and when he giveth you rest from all your enemies round about, so that ye dwell in ^x safety:

11 Then there shall be a place which the LORD your God shall ^y choose to cause his name to dwell there; thither shall ye bring all that I command you; your burnt-offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the heave-offering of your hand, and all ^z your choice vows which ye vow unto the LORD:

12 And ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God, ye, and your sons, and your daughters, and your men-servants, and your maid-servants, and the Levite that is within your gates; forasmuch as he hath no part nor inheritance with you.

13 ^z Take heed to thyself that thou offer not thy burnt-offerings ^a in every place that thou seest:

14 But in the place which the LORD shall choose in one of thy tribes, there thou shalt offer thy burnt-offerings, and there thou shalt ^b do all that I command thee.

15 Notwithstanding, thou mayest kill and eat flesh in all thy gates, whatsoever thy soul lusteth after, according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee: the ^c unclean and the clean may eat thereof, as of the roe-buck, and as of the hart.

161 Only ye shall not eat the ^d blood; ye shall pour it upon the earth as water.

17 Thou mayest not eat within thy ^e gates the ^f tithe of thy corn, or of thy wine, or of thy oil, or the firstlings of thy herds or of thy flock, nor any of thy vows which thou vowest, nor thy free-will-offerings, or heave-offering of thy hand:

18 But thou must eat them ^g before the LORD thy God in the place which the LORD thy God shall choose, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy man-servant, and thy maid-servant, and the Levite that is within thy gates: and thou shalt rejoice before the LORD thy God in all that thou puttest thy hands unto.

19 ^h Take heed to thyself that thou ⁱ forsake not the Levite as long as thou livest upon the earth.

201 When the LORD thy God shall ^k enlarge thy border, as he hath promised thee, and thou shalt say, I will eat flesh, because thy soul longeth to eat flesh, thou mayest eat flesh, whatsoever thy soul lusteth after.

21 If the place which the LORD thy God hath ^l chosen to put his name there be too far from thee, then thou shalt kill of thy herd and of thy flock, which the LORD hath given thee, as I have commanded thee, and thou shalt eat in thy gates whatsoever thy soul lusteth after.

22 Even as the ^m roe-buck and the hart is eaten, so thou shalt eat them: the unclean and the clean shall eat of them alike.

23 Only be sure that thou ⁿ eat not the blood: for the blood is the life; and thou mayest not eat the life with the flesh.

24 Thou shalt not eat it; thou shalt pour it upon the earth as water.

25 Thou shalt not eat it; that it may ^o go well with thee, and with thy ^p children after thee, when thou shalt do that which is right ^q in the sight of the LORD.

26 Only thy ^r holy things which thou hast, and ^s thy vows, thou shalt take, and go unto the place which the LORD shall choose:

27 And thou shalt offer thy burnt-offerings, the flesh and the blood, upon the altar of the LORD thy God: and the blood of thy ^t sacrifices shall be poured out upon the altar of the LORD thy God, and thou shalt eat the flesh.

28 Observe and hear all these words which ^u I command thee, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children ^v after thee for ever, when thou doest that which is good and right in the sight of the LORD thy God.

291 When the LORD thy God shall cut off the nations from before thee, whither thou goest to possess them, and thou succeedest them, and dwellest in their land;

30 Take heed to thyself, that thou be not ^x snared ^y by following them, after that they be destroyed from before thee; and that thou inquire not after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods? ^z even so will I do likewise.

31 Thou shalt not do so unto the LORD thy God; for every abomination to the LORD which he hateth have they done unto their gods; for even their sons and their daughters they have ^a burnt in the fire to their gods.

32 What thing soever I command you, observe to do it: thou shalt ^b not add thereto, nor diminish from it.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Enticers to idolatry are to be stoned to death....15 Idolatrous cities are not to be spared.

IF there ^a arise ^b among you a prophet, or a dreamer of ^c dreams, and giveth thee a sign or a ^d wonder.

2 And the sign or the wonder ^e come to pass, whereof he spake unto thee, saying, Let us go after other gods, which thou hast not known, and let us serve them;

3 Thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams: for the LORD your God ^f proveth you, to know whether ye love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

4 Ye shall walk after the LORD your God, and fear him, and keep his commandments, and obey his voice, and ye shall serve him, and ^g cleave unto him.

5 And that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams, shall be put to death; because he hath ^h spoken to turn you away from the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of bondage, to thrust thee out of the way which the LORD thy God commanded thee to walk in. So shalt thou put the ⁱ evil away from the midst of thee.

6 ^j If thy ^k brother, the ^l son of thy mother, or thy son, or thy daughter, or the wife of thy ^m bosom, or thy friend, which is as thine ⁿ own soul, entice thee ^o secretly, saying, Let us go and serve ^p other gods, which thou hast not known, thou, nor thy fathers;

7 Namely, of the gods of the people which are round about you, nigh unto thee, or far off from thee, from the one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth;

8 Thou shalt not ^q consent unto him, nor hearken unto him; neither shall thine ^r eye pity him, neither shalt thou spare, neither shalt thou conceal him:

9 But thou shalt surely ^s kill him; thy hand shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people.

10 And thou shalt stone him with stones that he die; because he hath sought to thrust thee away from the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt from the house of ^t bondage.

11 And all Israel shall ^u hear, and fear, and shall do no more any such wickedness as this is, among you.

12 If thou shalt hear say in one of thy ^v cities, which the LORD thy God hath given thee to dwell there, saying,

13 Certain men, the ^w children of Belial, are gone out from ^x among you, and have ^y withdrawn the inhabitants of their city, saying, Let us go and serve ^z other gods, which ye have not known;

14 Then shalt thou ^{aa} inquire, and make search, and ask diligently; and behold, if it be truth, and the thing certain, that such abomination is wrought among you;

15 Thou shalt surely smite the ^{ab} inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, ^{ac} destroying it utterly, and all that is therein, and the cattle thereof, with the edge of the sword.

16 And thou shalt gather all the spoil of it into the midst of the street thereof, and shalt burn with fire the ^{ad} city, and all the ^{ae} spoil thereof every whit, for the LORD thy God: and it shall be a heap for ^{af} ever; it shall not be built again.

17 And there shall ^{ag} cleave nought of the ^{ah} cursed thing to thy hand: that the LORD may turn from the fierceness of his anger, and shew thee mercy, and have compassion upon thee, and multiply thee, as he hath sworn unto thy fathers;

18 When thou shalt hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep all his commandments which I command thee this day, to do that which is right in the eyes of the LORD thy God.

CHAPTER XIV.

3 What may and what may not be eaten, 4 of beasts, 9 of fishes, 11 of fowls.

YE are the ^{ai} children of the LORD your God: ye shall ^{aj} not cut yourselves, nor make any ^{ak} baldness between your eyes for the dead.

2 For thou art a holy people unto the LORD thy God, and the LORD hath chosen thee to ^{al} be a peculiar people unto himself, above all the nations that are upon the earth.

3 ^{am} Thou shalt not eat any ^{an} abominable thing.

4 These are the beasts which ye shall eat: The ox, the sheep, and the goat,

5 The ^{ao} hart, and the ^{ap} roe-buck, and the fallow-deer, and the wild-goat, and the pygarg, and the ^{aq} wild-ox, and the chamois.

6 And every beast that ^{ar} parteth the hoof, and cleaveth the cleft into two claws, and cheweth the cud among the beasts, that ye shall eat.

7 Nevertheless, these ye shall not eat, of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the cloven hoof; as the ^{as} camel, and the hare, and the coney, for they chew the cud, but divide not the hoof; therefore they are unclean unto you.

8 And the swine, because it divideth the hoof, yet cheweth not the cud, it is unclean unto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead carcass.

9 ^{at} These ye shall eat, of all that are in the waters: all that have ^{au} fins and scales shall ye eat:

10 And whatsoever hath not fins and scales ye may not eat; it is unclean unto you.

11 Of all clean birds ye shall eat.

12 But these are they of which ye shall not eat: The ^{av} eagle, and the ossifrage, and the ospray,

13 And the glede, and the kite, and the ^{aw} vulture after his kind,

14 And every raven after his kind,

15 And the owl, and the night-hawk, and the cuckoo, and the hawk after his kind,

16 The little owl, and the great owl, and the swan,

17 And the pelican, and the gier-eagle, and the cormorant,

18 And the ^{ax} stork, and the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the oat.

19 And every creeping thing that ^{ay} flieth is unclean unto you: they shall not be eaten.

20 But of all ^{az} clean fowls ye may eat.

21 ^{ba} Ye shall not eat of any thing that ^{bb} dieth of itself: thou shalt give it unto the ^{bc} stranger that is in thy gates, that he may eat it; or thou mayest sell it unto an alien: for thou art a ^{bd} holy people unto the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not see the ^{be} kid in his mother's milk.

22 ^{bf} Thou shalt ^{bg} truly tithe all the increase of thy seed, that the field bringeth forth ^{bh} year by year.

23 ^{bi} And thou shalt eat ^{bj} before the LORD thy God, in the place which he shall choose to place his name there, the ^{bk} tithe of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine oil, and the firstlings of thy herds and of thy flocks; that thou mayest learn to ^{bl} fear the LORD thy God ^{bm} always.

2 ¶ If there be found among you, within any of thy gates which the LORD thy God giveth thee, ^cman or woman that hath wrought wickedness in the sight of thy LORD thy God, in transgressing his covenant,

3 And hath gone and served other gods, and worshipped them, either the ^dsun, or moon, or any of the ^ehost of heaven, which I have ^fnot commanded;

4 And it be told thee, and thou hast heard of it, and ^ginquired diligently, and behold, it be true, and the thing certain, that such abomination is wrought in Israel:

5 Then shalt thou bring forth that man or that woman, which have committed that wicked thing, unto thy ^hgates, even that man or that woman, and shalt ⁱstone them with stones, till they die.

6 At the ^kmouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he that is worthy of death be put to death; but at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death.

7 The hands of the witnesses shall be ^lfirst upon him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people. ^mSo thou shalt put the evil away from among you.

8 ¶ If there arise a matter too hard for thee in judgment, between ⁿblood and blood, between ^oplea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, being ^pmat- ters of controversy within thy gates: then shalt thou arise, and get thee up into the place which the LORD thy God shall choose;

9 And thou shalt come unto the ^qpriests the Le- vites, and unto the judge that shall be in those days, and inquire; and they shall shew thee the sentence of judgment:

10 And thou shalt do according to the sentence, which they of that place which the LORD shall choose shall shew thee; and thou shalt observe to do according to all that they ^rinform thee:

11 ^sAccording to the sentence of the law which they shall teach thee, and according to the judgment which they shall tell thee, thou shalt do: thou shalt not decline from the sentence which they shall shew thee, to the right hand, nor to the left.

12 ¶ And the man that will do ^tpresumptuously, and will ^unot hearken unto the priest that ^xstandeth to minister there before the LORD thy God, or unto the judge, even that man shall ^ydie: and thou shalt put away the evil from Israel.

13 And all the people shall hear, and fear, and do no more presumptuously.

14 ¶ When thou art come unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt possess it, and shalt dwell therein, and shalt say, I will ^{||}set a king over me, like as all the nations that are about me;

15 Thou shalt in any wise set ^{||}him ^zking over thee whom the LORD ^athy God shall choose: one from among thy ^bbrethren shalt thou set king over thee: thou mayest not set a ^cstranger over thee, which is not thy brother.

16 But he shall ^dnot multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to ^eEgypt, to the end that he should multiply horses: forasmuch as the LORD hath said unto you, Ye shall henceforth ^fre- turn no more that way.

17 Neither shall he ^gmultiply wives to himself, that his ^hheart turn not away: neither shall he greatly multiply to himself ⁱsilver and gold.

18 And it shall be when he sitteth upon the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write him a ^k copy of this law in a book out of that which is before the priests the Levites.

19 And ^lit shall be with him, and he shall ^mread therein all the days of his life: that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to do them:

20 That his heart be ⁿnot lifted up above his brethren, and that he turn not aside from the commandment to the right hand or to the left: to the end that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he, and his children, in the midst of Israel.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 The Lord is the priests' and Levites' inheritance....3 The priest's due....15 Christ the prophet is to be heard.

THE priests the Levites, and all the tribe of Levi, shall have ^a no part nor ^b inheritance with Israel: they shall eat the offerings of the LORD ^cmade by fire, and his inheritance.

2 Therefore shall they have no inheritance among their brethren: the LORD is their inheritance, as he hath said unto them.

3 [¶] And this shall be the priest's due from the people, from them that offer a sacrifice, whether it be ox or sheep; and they shall give unto the priest the shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the maw.

4 The ^d first-fruit also of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine oil, and the first of the fleece of thy sheep, shalt thou give him.

5 ^e For the LORD thy God hath chosen him out of all thy tribes, to stand to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons for ever.

6 [¶] And if a Levite come from any of thy gates out of all Israel, where he ^f sojourned, and come with all the desire of his mind unto the place which the LORD shall ^g choose;

7 Then he shall minister in the name of the LORD his God, ^h as all his brethren the Levites do, which stand there before the LORD.

8 They shall have like portions to eat, besides ⁱ that which cometh of the sale of his patrimony.

9 [¶] When thou art come into the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not learn to do after the abominations of those nations.

10 There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter to ^j pass through the fire, or that ^k useth divination, or an ^l observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch,

11 Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer.

12 For all that do these things are an abomination unto the LORD: and because of these abominations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee.

13 Thou shalt be ^m perfect with the LORD thy God.

14 For these nations, which thou shalt possess, hearkened unto observers of times, and unto diviners: but as for thee, the LORD thy God hath ⁿ not suffered thee so to do.

15 [¶] The LORD thy God will raise up unto thee ^o a Prophet from the midst of thee, of thy ^p brethren, like unto me; unto ^q him ye shall hearken.

16 According to all that thou desiredst of the LORD thy God in ^r Horeb in the day of the ^t assembly, saying, Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God, neither let me see this great fire any more, that I die not.

CHAPTER XIX.

2 The cities of refuge....15 Two witnesses at the least...16 The punishment of a false witness.

WHEN the LORD thy God hath ^a cut off the nations, whose land the LORD thy God giveth thee, and thou [†] succeedest them, and dwellest in their cities, and in their houses;

2 Thou shalt separate ^b three cities for thee in the midst of thy land which the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it.

3 Thou shalt prepare thee a way, and divide the coasts of thy land which the LORD thy God giveth thee to inherit, into three parts, that every slayer may flee thither.

4 [¶] And this is the case of the slayer, which shall flee thither, that he may live: Whoso killeth his neighbour ignorantly, whom he ^c hated not [†] in time past;

5 As when a man goeth unto the wood with his neighbour to hew wood, and his hand fetcheth a stroke with the axe to cut down the tree, and the [†] head slippeth from the helve, and lighteth upon his neighbour, that he die; he shall flee unto one of these cities, and ^d live:

6 Lest the avenger of blood pursue the slayer, while his heart is hot, and overtake him, because the way is long, and slay him; whereas he ^e was [†] not worthy of death, inasmuch as he hated him not in time past.

7 Wherefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt separate three cities for thee.

8 And if the LORD thy God enlarge thy coast, as he hath sworn unto ^f thy fathers, and give thee all the land which he promised to give unto thy fathers;

9 If thou shalt keep all ^g these commandments to do them, which I command thee this day, to love the LORD thy God, and to walk ever in his ways; then shalt thou add three cities more for thee, besides these three:

10 That innocent blood be not shed in thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and so blood be upon thee.

11 [¶] But if any man hate his neighbour, and lie in wait for him, and rise up against him, and smite him [†] mortally that he die, and fleeth into one of these cities:

12 Then the elders of his city shall send and fetch him ^h thence, and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die.

13 Thine eye shall not pity him, but thou shalt put away the guilt of innocent blood from Israel, that it may go well with thee.

14 Thou shalt not remove thy neighbour's land-mark, which they of old time have set in thine inheritance, which thou shalt inherit in the land that the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it.

15 ¶ One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sinneth; at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established.

16 ¶ If a false witness rise up against any man to testify against him that which is wrong;

17 Then both the men between whom the controversy is shall stand before the LORD, before the priests and the judges, which shall be in those days;

18 And the judges shall make diligent inquisition: and behold, if the witness be a false witness, and hath testified falsely against his brother;

19 Then shall ye do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother: so shalt thou put the evil away from among you.

20 And those which remain shall hear, and fear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such evil among you.

21 And thine eye shall not pity; but a life shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

CHAPTER XX.

The priest's exhortation to encourage the people to battle.

WHEN thou goest out to battle against thine enemies, and seest horses, and chariots, and a people more than thou, be not afraid of them: for the LORD thy God is with thee, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

2 And it shall be when ye are come nigh unto the battle, that the priest shall approach and speak unto the people,

3 And shall say unto them, Hear, O Israel, ye approach this day unto battle against your enemies: let not your hearts faint: fear not, and do not tremble, neither be ye terrified because of them;

4 For the LORD your God is he that goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.

5 ¶ And the officers shall speak unto the people, saying, What man is there that hath built a new house, and hath not dedicated it? let him go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man dedicate it.

6 And what man is he that hath planted a vineyard, and hath not yet eaten of it? let him also go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man eat of it.

7 And what man is there that hath betrothed a wife, and hath not taken her? let him go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man take her.

8 And the officers shall speak further unto the people, and they shall say, What man is there that is fearful and faint-hearted? let him go and return unto his house, lest his brethren's heart faint as well as his heart.

9 And it shall be, when the officers have made an end of speaking unto the people, that they shall make captains of the armies to lead the people.

10 ¶ When thou comest nigh unto a city to fight against it, then proclaim peace unto it.

11 And it shall be, if it make thee answer of peace, and open unto thee, then it shall be, that all the people that is found therein, shall be tributaries unto thee, and they shall serve thee.

12 And if it will make no peace with thee, but will make war against thee, then thou shalt besiege it:

13 And when the LORD thy God hath delivered it into thy hands, thou shalt smite every male thereof with the edge of the sword:

14 But the women, and the little ones, and the cattle, and all that is in the city, even all the spoil thereof, shalt thou take unto thyself: and thou shalt eat the spoil of thine enemies, which the LORD thy God hath given thee.

15 Thus shalt thou do unto all the cities which are very far off from thee, which are not of the cities of these nations.

16 But of the cities of these people which the LORD thy God doth give thee for an inheritance, thou shalt save alive nothing that breatheth:

17 But thou shalt utterly destroy them, namely, the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee:

18 That they teach you not to do after all their abominations which they have done unto their gods; so should ye sin against the LORD your God.

19 ¶ When thou shalt besiege a city a long time in making war against it to take it, thou shalt not destroy the trees thereof by forcing an axe against them; for thou mayest eat of them: and thou shalt not cut them down (for the tree of the field is man's life) to employ them in the siege:

20 Only the trees which thou knowest that they be not trees for meat, thou shalt destroy and cut them down; and thou shalt build bulwarks against the city that maketh war with thee, until it be subdued.

CHAPTER XXI.

18 A stubborn son is to be stoned to death....22 The malefactor must not hang all night on a tree.

IF one be found slain in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it, lying in the field, and it be not known who hath slain him:

2 Then thy elders and thy judges shall come forth, and they shall measure unto the cities which are round about him that is slain:

3 And it shall be that the city which is next unto the slain man, even the elders of that city shall take a heifer which hath not been wrought with, and which hath not drawn in the yoke;

4 And the elders of that city shall bring down the heifer unto a rough valley, which is neither eared nor sown, and shall strike off the heifer's neck there in the valley;

5 And the priests the sons of Levi shall come near, (for them the LORD thy God hath chosen to minister unto him, and to bless in the name of the LORD,) and by their word shall every controversy and every stroke be tried;

6 And all the elders of that city that are next unto the slain man, shall wash their hands over the heifer that is beheaded in the valley:

7 And they shall answer and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it.

8 Be merciful, O LORD, unto thy people Israel, whom thou hast redeemed, and lay not innocent blood unto thy people of Israel's charge. And the blood shall be forgiven them.

9 So shalt thou put away the guilt of innocent blood

CHAPTER XXII.

1 Of humanity towards brethren....5 The sex is to be distinguished by apparel....20, 22 Of adultery....25 Of rape, 28 and of fornication....30 Of incest.

THOU shalt not see thy brother's ox or his sheep go astray, and hide thyself from them: thou shalt in any case bring them again unto thy brother.

2 And if thy brother be not nigh unto thee, or if thou know him not, then thou shalt bring it unto thine own house, and it shall be with thee until thy brother seek after it, and thou shalt restore it to him again.

3 In like manner shalt thou do with his ass; and so shalt thou do with his raiment; and with all lost things of thy brother's, which he hath lost, and thou hast found, shalt thou do likewise; thou mayest not hide thyself.

4 Thou shalt not see thy brother's ass or his ox fall down by the way, and hide thyself from them: thou shalt surely help him to lift them up again.

5 The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do so are abomination unto the LORD thy God.

6 If a bird's nest chance to be before thee in the way in any tree, or on the ground, whether they be young ones, or eggs, and the dam sitting upon the young, or upon the eggs, thou shalt not take the dam with the young:

7 But thou shalt in any wise let the dam go, and take the young to thee; that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days.

8 When thou buildest a new house, then thou shalt make a battlement for thy roof, that thou bring not blood upon thine house, if any man fall from thence.

9 Thou shalt not sow thy vineyard with divers seeds: lest the fruit of thy seed which thou hast sown, and the fruit of thy vineyard, be defiled.

10 Thou shalt not plough with an ox and an ass together.

11 Thou shalt not wear a garment of divers sorts, as of woollen and linen together.

12 Thou shalt make thee fringes upon the four quarters of thy vesture, wherewith thou coverest thyself.

13 If any man take a wife, and go in unto her, and hate her,

14 And give occasions of speech against her, and bring up an evil name upon her, and say, I took this woman, and when I came to her, I found her not a maid:

15 Then shall the father of the damsel, and her mother, take and bring forth the tokens of the damsel's virginity unto the elders of the city in the gate:

16 And the damsel's father shall say unto the elders, I gave my daughter unto this man to wife, and he hateth her,

17 And lo, he hath given occasions of speech against her, saying, I found not thy daughter a maid; and yet these are the tokens of my daughter's virginity. And they shall spread the cloth before the elders of the city.

18 And the elders of that city shall take that man and chastise him;

19 And they shall amerce him in a hundred shekels of silver, and give them unto the father of the damsel, because he hath brought up an evil name upon a virgin of Israel: and she shall be his wife; he may not put her away all his days.

20 But if this thing be true, and the tokens of virginity be not found for the damsel:

21 Then they shall bring out the damsel to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones that she die; because she hath wrought folly in Israel, to play the whore in her father's house: so shalt thou put evil away from among you.

22 If a man be found lying with a woman married to a husband, then they shall both of them die, both the man that lay with the woman, and the woman: so shalt thou put away evil from Israel.

23 If a damsel that is a virgin be betrothed unto a husband, and a man find her in the city, and lie with her;

24 Then ye shall bring them both out unto the gate of that city, and ye shall stone them with stones that they die; the damsel, because she cried not, being in the city; and the man, because he hath ^a humbled his ^b neighbour's wife: so thou shalt put away evil from among you.

25 ¶ But if a man find a betrothed damsel in the field, and the man ^{||} force her, and lie with her; then the man only that lay with her shall die:

26 But unto the damsel thou shalt do nothing; there is in the damsel no sin worthy of death: for as when a man riseth against his neighbour, and [†] slayeth him, even so is this matter:

27 For he found her in the field, and the betrothed damsel ^c cried, and there was none to save her.

28 ¶ If a man ^d find a damsel that is a virgin, which is not betrothed, and lay hold on her, and lie with her, and they be found;

29 Then the man that lay with her shall give unto the damsel's father ^e fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife; because he hath humbled her, he may not put her away all his days.

30 ¶ A man shall not take ^f his father's wife, nor discover his father's ^g skirt.

CHAPTER XXIII.

9 Uncleaness to be avoided in the host....19 Of usury....21 Of vows.
24 Of trespasses.

HE that is wounded in the stones, or hath his privy member cut off, shall ^{||} not enter into the congregation of the LORD.

2 ^a A bastard shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the LORD.

3 An ^b Ammonite or Moabite shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD; even to their tenth generation shall they not enter into the congregation of the LORD ^c for ever:

4 Because they ^d met you not with bread and with water in the way, when ye came forth out of Egypt; and because they hired against thee Balaam the son of Beor, of Pethor of Mesopotamia, to ^e curse thee.

5 Nevertheless, the LORD thy God would not hearken unto Balaam: but the LORD thy God turned the curse into a blessing unto thee, because the LORD thy God loved thee.

6 Thou shalt ^f not seek their peace, nor their prosperity all thy days for ever.

7 ¶ Thou shalt not abhor an ^g Edomite, for he is thy ^h brother: thou shalt not abhor an Egyptian, because thou wast a stranger in his land.

8 The children that are begotten of them shall enter into the congregation of the LORD in their ⁱ third generation.

9 ¶ When the host goeth forth against thine enemies, then keep thee from every ^k wicked thing.

10 ¶ If there be among you any man that is not clean by reason of uncleanness that chanceth him ^l by night, then shall he go abroad out of the ^m camp, he shall not come within the camp:

11 But it shall be, when evening cometh on, he shall ⁿ wash himself with water: and when the sun is down, he shall come into the camp again.

12 ¶ Thou shalt have a place also without the camp, whither thou shalt go forth abroad:

13 And thou shalt have a paddle upon thy weapon: and it shall be when thou wilt ease thyself abroad, thou shalt dig therewith, and shall turn back, and cover that which ^o cometh from thee:

14 For the LORD thy God ^p walketh in the midst of thy camp, to deliver thee, and to give up thine enemies ^q before thee; therefore shall thy camp be holy: that he see no unclean thing in thee, and ^r turn away from thee.

15 ¶ Thou shalt not deliver unto his master the servant which ^s escaped from his master unto thee:

16 He shall dwell with thee, even among you in that place which he shall choose in one of thy gates where it liketh him best: thou shalt ^t not oppress him.

17 ¶ There shall be no ^u whore of the daughters of Israel, nor a ^x sodomite of the sons of Israel.

18 Thou shalt not bring the ^y hire of a ^z whore, or the price of ^a a dog into the house of the LORD thy God for any vow: for even ^b both these are abomination unto the LORD thy God.

19 ¶ Thou shalt not lend upon usury to thy brother; ^c usury of money, usury of victuals, usury of any thing that is lent upon usury:

20 Unto a stranger ^d thou mayest lend upon usury; but unto thy brother thou shalt not lend upon usury: that the LORD thy God may bless thee in all that thou testest thy ^e hand to in the land whither thou goest to possess it.

21 ¶ When thou shalt ^f vow a vow unto the LORD thy God, thou shalt not slack to ^g pay it: for the LORD thy God will surely require it of thee; and it would be ^h sin in thee.

22 But if thou shalt ⁱ forbear to vow, it shall be ^j no sin in thee.

23 That which is gone out of thy lips thou shalt ^k keep and perform; even a ^l free-will-offering, according as thou hast vowed unto the LORD thy God, which thou hast promised ^m with thy mouth.

24 ¶ When thou ⁿ comest into thy neighbour's vineyard, then thou mayest eat grapes thy fill, at thine own pleasure; but thou shalt not put any in thy vessel.

25 When thou comest into the standing-corn of thy neighbour, then thou mayest pluck the ears ^o with thy hand: but thou shalt not move a sickle unto thy neighbour's standing corn.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Of divorce....6, 10 Of pledges....7 Of man-stealers....14 The hire is to be given....16 Of justice....19 Of charity.

WHEN a man hath taken a wife, and ^a married her, and it come to pass that she find no favour in his eyes, because he hath found some [†] uncleanness in her: ^{||} then let him write her a bill of [†] divorcement, and give it in her hand, and send her out of his house.

2 And when she is departed out of his house, she may go and be ^b another man's wife.

3 And if the latter husband hate her, and write her a bill of divorcement, and giveth it in her hand, and sendeth her out of his house; or if the latter husband die, which took her to be his wife;

4 Her former husband which sent her away, may ^c not take her again to be his wife, after that she is defiled; for that is abomination before the LORD: and thou shalt not ^d cause the land to sin, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

5 ¶ When a man hath taken a new wife, he shall ^e not go out to war, neither shall he be charged with any business: but he shall be free at home one year, and shall ^f cheer up his wife which he hath taken.

6 ¶ No man shall take the nether or the upper ^g millstone to pledge: for he taketh a man's life to pledge.

7 ¶ If a man be found stealing ^h any of his brethren of the children of Israel, and maketh ⁱ merchandise of him, or selleth him; then that thief shall die; and thou shalt put evil away from among you

9 ¶ Remember what the LORD thy God did unto Miriam by the way, after that ye were come forth out of Egypt.

10 ¶ When thou dost lend thy brother any thing, thou shalt not go into his house to fetch his pledge:

11 Thou shalt stand abroad, and the man to whom thou dost lend shall bring out the pledge abroad unto thee:

12 And if the man be poor, thou shalt not sleep with his pledge:

13 In any case thou shalt deliver him the pledge again when the sun goeth down, that he may sleep in his own raiment, and bless thee; and it shall be ^o righteousness unto thee before the LORD thy God.

14 ¶ Thou shalt not oppress a ^p hired servant that is poor and needy, whether he be of thy brethren, or of thy strangers that are in thy land within thy gates:

15 At his day thou shalt give him his hire, neither shall the sun go down upon it, for he is poor, and setteth his heart upon it: lest he cry against thee unto the LORD, and it be sin unto thee.

16 ¶ The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the children be put to death for the fathers: every man shall be put to death for his own sin.

17 ¶ Thou shalt not ^t pervert the judgment of the stranger, nor of the fatherless, nor take the widow's raiment to pledge:

18 But thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt, and the LORD thy God redeemed thee thence: therefore I command thee to do this thing.

19 ¶ When thou cuttest down thy harvest in thy field, and hast ^y forgot a sheaf in the field, thou shalt not go again to fetch it: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow: that the LORD thy God may bless thee in all the work of thy hands.

20 When thou beatest thine olive-tree, thou shalt not go over the boughs again: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow.

21 When thou gatherest the grapes of thy vineyard, thou shalt not glean it afterward: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow.

22 And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bond-man in the land of Egypt: therefore I command thee to do this thing.

CHAPTER XXV.

3 Stripes must not exceed forty... 4 The ox is not to be muzzled.
13 Of unjust weights.

IF there be a controversy between men, and they come unto judgment, that the judges may judge them; then they shall justify the righteous, and condemn the wicked.

2 And it shall be, if the wicked man be worthy to be beaten, that the judge shall cause him to lie down, and to be beaten before his face, according to his fault, by a certain number.

3 Forty stripes he may give him, and not exceed: lest if he should exceed, and beat him above these with many stripes, then thy brother should seem vile unto thee.

4 ¶ Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn.

5 If brethren dwell together, and one of them die, and have no child, the wife of the dead shall not marry without unto a stranger: her husband's brother shall go in unto her, and take her to him to wife, and perform the duty of a husband's brother unto her.

6 And it shall be, that the first-born which she beareth, shall succeed in the name of his brother which is dead, that his name be not put out of Israel.

7 And if the man like not to take his brother's wife, then let his brother's wife go up to the gate unto the elders, and say, My husband's brother refuseth to raise up unto his brother a name in Israel, he will not perform the duty of my husband's brother.

8 Then the elders of his city shall call him, and speak unto him: and if he stand to it, and say, I like not to take her,

9 Then shall his brother's wife come unto him in the presence of the elders, and loose his shoe from off his foot, and spit in his face, and shall answer and say, So shall it be done unto that man that will not build up his brother's house.

10 And his name shall be called in Israel, The house of him that hath his shoe loosed.

11 ¶ When men strive together one with another, and the wife of the one draweth near for to deliver her husband out of the hand of him that smiteth him, and putteth forth her hand, and taketh him by the secrets.

12 Then thou shalt cut off her hand, thine eye shall not pity her.

13 ¶ Thou shalt not have in thy bag divers weights, a great and a small:

14 Thou shalt not have in thy house divers measures, a great and a small:

15 But thou shalt have a perfect and just weight, a perfect and just measure shalt thou have; that thy days may be lengthened in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

16 For all that do such things, and all that do unrighteously, are an abomination unto the LORD thy God.

17 ¶ Remember what Amalek did unto thee by the way, when ye were come forth out of Egypt;

18 How he met thee by the way, and smote the hindmost of thee, even all that were feeble behind thee, when thou wast faint and weary: and he feared not God.

19 Therefore it shall be, when the LORD thy God hath given thee rest from all thine enemies round about, in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it, that thou shalt blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven; thou shalt not forget it.

CHAPTER XXVI.

AND it shall be, when thou art come in unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and possessest it, and dwellest therein;

2 That thou shalt take of the first of all the fruit of the earth, which thou shalt bring of thy land that the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt put it in a basket, and shalt go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose to place his name there.

3 And thou shalt go unto the priest that shall be in those days, and say unto him, I profess this day unto the LORD thy God, that I am come unto the country which the LORD sware unto our fathers for to give us.

4 And the priest shall take the basket out of thy hand, and set it down before the altar of the LORD thy God.

5 And thou shalt speak and say before the LORD thy God, A Syrian ready to perish was my father;

¶ Or, persecuted my father.

Before CHRIST 1451.
 and he went down into Egypt, and sojourned there with a ^e few, and became there a nation, great, mighty, and populous;

6 And the Egyptians ^f evil-entreated us, and afflicted us, and laid upon us ^g hard bondage.

7 And when we ^h cried unto the LORD God of our fathers, the LORD heard our voice, and ⁱ looked on our affliction, and our labour, and our oppression:

8 And the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an ^k out-stretched arm, and with great ^l terribleness, and with signs, and with wonders;

9 And he hath brought us into this place, and hath given us this land, even a land that floweth with ^m milk and honey.

10 And now, behold, I have brought the ⁿ first-fruits of the land, which thou, O LORD, hast given me: and thou shalt ^o set it before the LORD thy God, and worship before the LORD thy God:

11 And thou shalt ^p rejoice in every ^q good thing which the LORD thy God hath given unto thee, and unto thy house, thou, and the Levite, and the stranger that is among you.

12 ¶ When thou hast made an end of tithing all the tithes of thine ^r increase the third ^s year, which is the year of tithing, and hast given ^t it unto the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, that they may eat within thy gates, and be filled:

13 Then thou shalt say before the LORD thy God, I have brought away the hallowed things out of my house, and also have given them unto the Levite, and unto the stranger, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all thy commandments, which thou hast commanded me: I ^u have not transgressed thy commandments, neither have I forgotten them:

14 I have not eaten thereof in my ^v mourning, neither have I taken away ought thereof for any unclean use, nor given ought thereof for the ^x dead: but I have hearkened to the voice of the LORD my God, and have done according to all that thou hast commanded me.

15 ¶ Look down from thy holy habitation, from heaven, and bless thy people Israel, and the land which thou hast given us, as thou swarest unto our fathers, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

16 ¶ This day the LORD thy God hath commanded thee to do these statutes and judgments: thou shalt therefore keep and do them with all thy heart, and with all thy soul.

17 Thou hast ^a avouched the LORD this day to be thy God, and to walk in his ^b ways, and to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and to ^c hearken unto his voice:

18 And the LORD hath avouched thee this day to be his ^d peculiar people, as he hath promised thee, and that thou shouldest keep all his commandments;

19 And to ^e make thee high above all nations which he hath made, in ^f praise, and in ^g name, and in ^h honour; and that thou mayest be a ⁱ holy people unto the LORD thy God, as he hath spoken.

CHAPTER XXVII.

The curses pronounced on mount Ebal.

AND Moses, with the ^a elders of Israel, commanded the people, saying, Keep ^b all the commandments which I command you this day.

2 And it shall be on ^c the day when ye shall pass over Jordan unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, that thou shalt ^d set thee up great stones, and plaster them with ^e plaster:

3 And thou shalt write upon them ^f all the words of this law, when thou art passed over, that thou mayest go in unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, a land that floweth with milk and honey; as the LORD God of thy fathers hath promised thee.

4 Therefore it shall be, when ye be gone over Jordan, that ye shall set up these stones, which I command you this day, in mount ^g Ebal, and thou shalt plaster them with plaster.

5 And there shalt thou build ^h an altar unto the LORD thy God, an altar of stones: thou shalt not lift up any ⁱ iron tool upon them.

6 Thou shalt build the altar of the LORD thy God of ^k whole stones; and thou shalt offer ^l burnt-offerings thereon unto the LORD thy God:

7 And thou shalt offer ^m peace-offerings, and shalt ⁿ eat there, and rejoice before the LORD thy God.

8 And thou shalt write upon the stones all the words of this law, very ^o plainly.

9 ¶ And Moses and the priests the Levites, spake unto all Israel, saying, Take heed, and hearken, O Israel; this day thou art become the ^p people of the LORD thy God.

10 Thou shalt therefore obey the voice of the LORD thy God, and ^q do his commandments and his statutes, which I command thee this day.

11 ¶ And Moses charged the people the same day, saying,

12 These shall stand upon mount ^r Gerizim to bless the people, when ye are come over Jordan; Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Joseph, and Benjamin:

13 And these shall stand upon mount Ebal to curse; ^s Reuben, ^t Gad, and Asner, and ^u Zebulun, ^x Dan, and Naphtali.

14 ¶ And the ^y Levites shall speak, and say unto all the men of Israel with a loud voice,

15 ^z Cursed be the man that maketh any ^a graven or molten image, ^b an abomination unto the LORD, the work of the hands of the ^c craftsman, and putteth it in a ^d secret place: and all the people shall answer and say, Amen.

16 Cursed be he that ^e setteth light by his father or his mother: and all the people shall say, Amen.

17 Cursed be he that removeth his neighbour's ^f landmark: and all the people shall say, Amen.

18 Cursed be he that maketh the ^g blind to wander out of the way: and all the people shall say, Amen.

19 Cursed be he that perverteth the judgment of the stranger, fatherless, and widow: and all the people shall say, Amen.

20 Cursed be he that ^h lieth with his father's wife; because he uncovereth his father's skirt: and all the people shall say, Amen.

21 Cursed be he that lieth with any manner of beast: and all the people shall say, Amen.

22 Cursed be he that lieth with his sister, the daughter of his father, or the daughter of his mother: and all the people shall say, Amen.

23 Cursed be he that lieth with his mother-in-law: and all the people shall say, Amen.

24 Cursed be he that ⁱ smiteth his neighbour secretly: and all the people shall say, Amen.

25 Cursed be he that taketh reward ^k to slay an innocent person: and all the people shall say, Amen.

26 Cursed be he that ^l confirmeth not all the words

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 The blessings for obedience....15 The curses for disobedience.

AND it shall come to pass, if thou shalt ^a hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe and to do all his commandments which I command thee this day: that the LORD thy God will ^b set thee on high above all nations of the earth:

2 And all these blessings shall come on thee, and ^c overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God.

3 ^d Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field.

4 Blessed shall be the ^e fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy ground, and the fruit of thy cattle, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

5 Blessed shall be thy ^f basket and thy store.

6 Blessed shalt thou be when thou ^g comest in, and blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

7 The LORD shall cause thine enemies that rise up against thee to be ^h smitten before thy face: they shall come out against thee one way, and ⁱ flee before thee ^k seven ways.

8 The LORD shall ^l command the blessing upon thee in thy ^m store-houses, and in all that thou ⁿ settest thy hand unto: and he shall bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

9 The LORD shall ^o establish thee a holy people unto himself, as he hath sworn unto thee, if thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, and walk in his ways.

10 And all people of the earth shall see that ^p thou art called by the name of the LORD; and they shall be ^q afraid of thee.

11 And the LORD shall make thee plenteous in goods, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers to give thee.

12 The LORD shall open unto thee his good ^r treasure, the heaven to give the rain unto thy land in his ^s season, and to bless all the work of thy hand: and thou shalt ^t lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow.

13 And the LORD shall make thee the ^u head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be ^v above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them:

14 And thou shalt not go aside from any of the words which I command thee this day, to the right hand or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

15 ^w But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt ^x not hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day: that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee:

16 ^y Cursed shalt thou be in the city, and cursed shalt thou be in the field.

17 Cursed shall be thy basket and thy ^a store.

18 Cursed shall be the ^b fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy land, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

19 Cursed shalt thou be when thou ^c comest in, and cursed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

20 The LORD shall send upon thee ^d cursing, vexation, and ^e rebuke, in all that thou settest thy hand unto for to do, until thou be destroyed, and until thou perish quickly: because of the wickedness of thy doings, whereby thou hast forsaken me.

21 The LORD shall make the ^f pestilence cleave unto thee, until he have consumed thee from off the land, whither thou goest to possess it.

22 The LORD shall smite thee with a ^g consumption, and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with ^h the sword, and with ⁱ blasting, and with ^k mildew: and they shall pursue thee until thou perish.

23 And the ^l heaven that is over thy head shall be brass, and the earth that is under thee shall be iron.

24 The LORD shall make the rain of thy land ^m powder and dust: from heaven shall it come down upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

25 The LORD shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them; and shalt be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

26 And thy ⁿ carcass shall be meat unto all fowls of the air, and unto the beasts of the earth, and no man shall fray them away.

27 The LORD will smite thee with the ^o botch of Egypt, and with ^p the emerods, and with the scab, and with the itch, whereof thou ^q canst not be healed.

28 The LORD shall smite thee with ^r madness, and ^s blindness, and ^t astonishment of heart:

29 And thou shalt ^u grope at noon-day, as the blind gropeth in darkness, and thou shalt not prosper in thy ways: and thou shalt be only oppressed and spoiled evermore, and no man shall ^x save thee.

30 Thou shalt betroth a wife, and another man shall ^y lie with her: thou shalt build a house, and thou shalt not dwell therein: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not ^z gather the grapes thereof.

31 Thine ox shall be slain before thine eyes, and thou shalt not eat thereof: thine ass shall be violently taken away from before thy face, and shall not be restored to thee: thy sheep shall be given unto thine enemies, and thou shalt have none to rescue them.

32 Thy sons and thy daughters shall be given unto another people, and thine eyes shall look, and ^a fail with longing for them all the day long: and there shall be no ^b might in thy hand.

33 The fruit of thy land, and all thy labours, shall a nation which thou knowest not ^c eat up: and thou shalt be only oppressed and crushed always:

34 So that thou shalt be mad for the ^d sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

35 The LORD shall smite thee in the knees, and in the legs, with ^e a sore botch that cannot be healed, from the sole of thy foot unto the top of thy head.

36 The LORD shall ^f bring thee, and ^g thy king which thou shalt set over thee, unto a nation which neither thou nor thy fathers have known; and there shalt thou serve ^h other gods, wood and stone.

37 And thou shalt become ⁱ an astonishment, a proverb, and a by-word, among all nations whither the LORD shall lead thee.

38 Thou shalt carry much seed out into the field, and shalt gather but little in: for the ^j locust shall consume it.

39 Thou shalt plant vineyards and dress them, but shalt neither drink of the wine, nor gather the grapes; for the ^k worms shall eat them.

40 Thou shalt have olive-trees throughout all thy coasts, but thou shalt ^l not anoint thyself with the oil: for thine olive shall cast his fruit.

41 Thou shalt beget sons and daughters, but † thou shalt not enjoy them : for they shall go into captivity.

42 All thy trees and fruit of thy land shall the † locust consume.

43 The ^m stranger that is within thee shall get up above thee † very high ; and thou shalt come down very low.

44 He shall ⁿ lend to thee, and thou shalt not lend to him : he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail.

45 ^o Moreover, all these curses shall come upon thee, and shall pursue thee, and overtake thee, till thou be destroyed : because thou hearkenest not unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded thee.

46 And they shall be upon thee for a ^p sign and for a wonder, and upon thy seed for ever.

47 Because thou servedst not the LORD thy God with joyfulness and with ^q gladness of heart, for the abundance of all things ;

48 Therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies, which the LORD shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things : and he shall put ^a a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee.

49 The LORD shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the ^r eagle flieth, a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand ;

50 A nation of † fierce countenance, which shall not regard the person of the old, nor shew favour to the young :

51 And he shall eat the ^t fruit of thy cattle, and the fruit of thy land, until thou be destroyed : which also shall not leave thee either ^u corn, wine, or oil, or the increase of thy kine, or flocks of thy sheep, until he have destroyed thee.

52 And he shall besiege thee ^x in all thy gates, until thy high and ^y fenced walls come down, wherein thou trustedst, throughout all thy land : and he shall besiege thee in all thy gates throughout all thy land which the LORD thy God hath given thee.

53 And thou shalt eat ^z the fruit of thine own body, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters which the LORD thy God hath given thee, in the siege and in the straitness wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee :

54 So that the man that is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be ^a evil toward his brother, and toward the wife of his ^b bosom, and toward the remnant of his children which he shall leave :

55 So that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall ^c eat : because he hath nothing left him in the siege and in the straitness wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee in all thy gates.

56 The ^d tender and delicate woman among you, which would not adventure to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter,

57 And toward her † young one that cometh out from between her feet, and toward her children which she shall bear : for she shall eat them for want of all things secretly in the siege and straitness wherewith thine enemy shall distress thee in thy gates.

58 If thou wilt not observe to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that thou mayest fear ^e this glorious and fearful ^f name THE LORD THY GOD ;

59 Then the LORD will make thy plagues ^g wonderful, and the plagues of thy seed, even great plagues, and of long continuance, and sore sicknesses, and of long continuance.

60 Moreover, he will bring upon thee all the diseases of ^h Egypt, which thou wast afraid of ; and they shall cleave unto thee.

61 Also every sickness, and every plague which is not written in the book of this law, them will the LORD † bring upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

62 And ye shall be left ⁱ few in number, whereas, ye were as ^k the stars of heaven for multitude ; because thou wouldest not obey the voice of the LORD thy God.

63 And it shall come to pass, that as the LORD rejoiced over you ^l to do you good, and to multiply you ; so the LORD ^m will rejoice over you to destroy you and to bring you to nought ; and ye shall be plucked from off the land whither thou goest to possess it.

64 And the LORD shall scatter thee among all people from the one end of the earth even unto the other ; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone.

65 And among these nations shalt thou find ⁿ no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest : but the LORD shall give thee there a ^o trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and ^p sorrow of mind.

66 And thy life shall hang in doubt before thee : and thou shalt fear day and night, and shalt have none assurance of thy life :

67 In the morning thou shalt say, Would God it were even ! and at even thou shalt say, Would God it were morning ! for the fear of thy heart wherewith thou shalt fear, and for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

68 And the LORD shall bring thee into ^q Egypt again with ships, by the way whereof I spake unto thee, Thou shalt see it no more again : and there ye shall be sold unto your enemies for bond-men and bond-women, and no man shall buy you.

CHAPTER XXIX.

2 Moses exhorteth them to obedience, by the memory of the works they have seen....29 Secret things belong unto God.

THESE are the words of the covenant which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of ^a Moab, besides the covenant which he made with them in ^b Horeb.

2 ¹ And Moses called unto all Israel, and said unto them, Ye have ^c seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt unto Pharaoh, and unto all his servants, and unto all his land ;

3 The great ^d temptations which thine eyes have seen, the signs, and those great miracles :

4 Yet the LORD hath ^e not given you a heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, unto this day.

5 And I have led you forty years in the wilderness : your clothes are not waxen old ^f upon you, and thy shoe is not waxen old upon thy foot.

6 Ye have not eaten ^g bread, neither have ye drunk ^h wine or strong drink : that ye might know that I am the LORD your God.

7 And when ye came unto this place, ⁱ Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, came out against us unto battle, and we smote them :

8 And we took their land, and gave it for an inheritance unto the ^k Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh

9 Keep therefore the words of this covenant, and do them, that ye may ¹ prosper in all that ye do.

10 ¶ Ye stand this day all of you before the LORD your God; your captains of your tribes, your elders, and your officers, with all the men of Israel,

11 Your little ones, your wives, and thy ^m stranger that is in thy camp, from the ⁿ hewer of thy wood, unto the drawer of thy water :

12 That thou shouldest enter into covenant with the LORD thy God, and into ^o his oath, which the LORD thy God maketh with thee this day :

13 That he may establish thee to-day for a ^p people unto himself, and that he may be unto thee a ^q God, as he hath said unto thee, and as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

14 Neither with you only do I make this covenant and this oath :

15 But with him that standeth here with us this day before the LORD our God, and also with him that is ^r not here with us this day :

16 (For ye know how we have dwelt in the land of Egypt; and how we came through the nations which ye passed by ;

17 And ye have seen their abominations, and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them :)

18 Lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose ^s heart turneth away this day from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations; lest there should be among you a root that beareth || gall and wormwood ;

19 And it come to pass, when he heareth the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the || imagination of my heart, to add drunkenness to thirst :

20 The LORD will ^t not spare him, but then the anger of the LORD and his ^u jealousy shall smoke against that man, and all the curses that are written in this book shall ^x lie upon him, and the LORD shall blot out his name from under heaven.

21 And the LORD shall separate him unto evil ^z out of all the tribes of Israel according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this book of the law :

22 So that the generation to come of your children that shall rise up after you, and the stranger that shall come from a far land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses which the LORD hath laid upon it ;

23 And that the whole land thereof is brimstone, and ^a salt, and burning, that it is not sown, nor beareth, nor any ^b grass groweth therein, like the ^c overthrow of Sodom, and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboim, which the LORD overthrew in his ^d anger and in his wrath :

24 Even all nations shall say, ^e Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this land? what meaneth the heat of this great anger?

25 Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt :

26 For they went and served other gods, and worshipped them, gods whom they ^f knew not, and ^g whom he had not given unto them :

27 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against this land, to bring upon it ^h all the curses that are written in this book :

28 And the LORD ⁱ rooted them out of their land in anger and in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as it is this day.

29 The ¹ secret things belong unto the LORD our God: but those things which are ^k revealed belong unto us, and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law.

CHAPTER XXX.

1 Great mercies promised unto the repentant... 15 Life and death are set before them.

AND it shall come to pass, when all these things are come upon thee, the ^a blessing and the curse, which I have set before thee, and thou shalt ^b call them to mind among all the nations whither the LORD thy God hath driven thee.

2 And shalt ^c return unto the LORD thy God, and shalt obey his voice according to all that I command thee this day, thou and thy children, with all thy heart, and with all thy soul ;

3 That then the LORD thy God will ^d turn thy captivity, and have ^e compassion upon thee, and will return and ^f gather thee from all the nations whither the LORD thy God hath scattered thee.

4 If any of thine be ^g driven out unto the outmost parts of heaven, from thence will the LORD thy God gather thee, and from thence will he fetch thee :

5 And the LORD thy God will bring thee into the land which thy fathers ^h possessed, and thou shalt possess it: and he ⁱ will do thee good, and multiply thee above thy fathers.

6 And the LORD thy God will ^j circumcise thy heart, and the heart of thy seed, ^k to love the LORD thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live.

7 And the LORD thy God will put all these curses upon thine enemies, and on them that hate thee, which persecuted thee.

8 And thou shalt return and obey the voice of the LORD, and do all his commandments which I command thee this day.

9 And the LORD thy God will make thee ^l plentiful in every work of thy hand, in the fruit of thy body and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy land, for good: for the LORD will again ^m rejoice over thee for good, as he rejoiced over thy fathers :

10 If thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which are written in this book of the law, and if thou turn unto the LORD thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul.

11 ¶ For ⁿ in this commandment which I com- mand thee this day, it is ^o not hidden from thee, nei- ther is it far off.

12 It is not in heaven, that thou shouldest say, ^p Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?

13 Neither is it beyond the sea, that thou shouldest say, Who shall ^q go over the sea for us, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?

14 But ^r the word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest ^s do it.

15 ¶ See, I have set before thee this day life and good, and death and evil ;

16 In that I command thee this day to love the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, and ^t to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his judg- ments, that thou mayest live and multiply : and the LORD thy God shall bless thee in the land whither thou goest to possess it

1 Moses encourageth the people, and Joshua....9 He delivereth the law unto the priests....14 God giveth a charge to Joshua.

AND Moses went and spake these words unto all Israel.

2 And he said unto them, I am a ^a hundred and twenty years old this day ; I can no more ^b go out and come in : also the LORD hath said unto me, ^c Thou shalt not go over this Jordan.

3 The LORD thy God, ^d he will go over before thee, and he will destroy these nations from before thee, and thou shalt possess them : and ^e Joshua, he shall go over before thee, as the LORD hath said.

4 And the LORD shall do unto them as he did to Sihon, and to Og, kings of the ^f Amorites, and unto the land of them, whom he destroyed.

5 And the LORD shall give them up before your face, that ye may do unto them according unto all the commandments which I have ^g commanded you.

6 ^h Be strong and of a ⁱ good courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them : for the LORD thy God, he it is that doth go ^k with thee, he will ^l not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

7 ^l And Moses called unto Joshua, and said unto him in the sight of all Israel, Be strong and of a good courage : for thou must go with this people unto the land which the LORD hath sworn unto their fathers to give them ; and thou shalt cause them to inherit it.

8 And the LORD, he it is that doth go before thee ; he will be with thee, he will not fail thee, neither forsake thee : fear not, neither be dismayed.

9 ^m And Moses wrote this law, and delivered it unto the ⁿ priests the sons of Levi, which ^o bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and unto all the ^p elders of Israel.

10 And Moses commanded them, saying, At the end of ^q every ^r seven years, in the solemnity of the year of ^s release, in the ^t feast of tabernacles,

11 When all Israel is come to appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall ^u choose, thou shalt ^v read this law before all Israel in their ^w hearing.

12 Gather the people together, men, and women, and ^x children, and thy stranger that is within thy gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the LORD your God, and observe to do all the words of this law :

13 And that their children which have not known ^y any thing, may ^z hear, and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as ye live in the land whither ye go over Jordan to possess it.

14 ^l And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thy days approach that thou must die : call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tabernacle of the congregation, that I may ^z give him a charge. And Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves in the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And the LORD appeared in the tabernacle in a ^a pillar of a cloud : and the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the tabernacle.

16 And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thou shalt [†] sleep with thy ^b fathers, and this people will ^c rise up, and go a ^d whoring after the gods of the strangers of the land, whither they go to be among them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them.

17 Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be ^e devoured, and many evils and troubles shall [†] befall them, so that they will say in that day, Are not these evils come upon us, because our God is not among us ?

18 And I will surely hide my face in that day for all the evils which they shall have wrought, in that they are turned unto other gods.

19 Now therefore write ye ^f this song for you, and teach it the children of Israel : put it in ^g their mouths, that this song may be a witness for me against the children of Israel.

20 For when I shall have brought them into the land which I sware unto their fathers, that floweth with milk and honey ; and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and waxen ^h fat ; then will they turn unto other gods, and serve them, and provoke me, and break my covenant.

21 And it shall come to pass, when many evils and troubles are befallen them, that this song shall testify against them as a witness : for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed : for ⁱ I know their imagination which they go about, even now, before I have brought them into the land which I sware.

22 ^l And Moses wrote this song the same day, and taught it the children of Israel.

23 And he gave Joshua the son of Nun a charge and said, ^k Be strong and of a good courage : for ^l thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the land which I sware unto them : and I will be with thee.

24 ^m And it came to pass, when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this law in a book, until they were finished,

25 That Moses commanded the ⁿ Levites which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying,

26 Take this book of the law, and put it in the ^o side of the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there for a witness against thee.

27 For I know thy rebellion, and thy ^p stiff neck : behold, while I am ^q yet alive with you this day, ye have been rebellious against the LORD ; and how much more after my death ?

28 Gather unto me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and ^r call heaven and earth to record against them.

29 For I know that ^s after my death ye will utterly corrupt yourselves, and turn aside from the ^t way which I have commanded you ; and ^u evil will befall you in the latter days ; because ye will do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands.

30 And Moses spake in the ears of all the congregation of Israel the words of this song until they were ended.

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 Moses' song, which setteth forth God's mercy and vengeance: 48
God sendeth him up to mount Nebo, to see the land.

GIVE ear, O ye heavens, and I will speak; and hear, O^a earth, the words of my mouth.

2 My doctrine shall^b drop as the rain, my speech shall distil as the dew, as the small rain upon the tender herb, and as the^c showers upon the grass:

3 Because I will publish the name of the LORD: I ascribe ye greatness unto our God.

4 He is the^d Rock, his^e work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth and^f without iniquity, just and right is he.

5 They have corrupted themselves, their spot is not the spot^h of his children: they are a perverse andⁱ crooked generation.

6 Do ye thus^k requite the LORD, O foolish people and unwise? is not he^l thy father that hath^m bought thee? hath he not made thee, and established thee?

7 I Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations: ask thy father, and he will shew thee; thy elders, and they will tell thee.

8 When the Most High^o divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he^p set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel.

9 For the LORD's^q portion is his people; Jacob is the lot of his inheritance.

10 He found him in a^s desert land, and in the waste howling wilderness; he led him about, he instructed him, he kept him as the^t apple of his eye.

11 As an^u eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young, spreadeth abroad her^x wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings;

12 So the LORD^y alone did^z lead him, and there was no strange god with him.

13 He made him ride on the^a high places of the earth, that he might eat the increase of the fields; and he made him to suck honey out of the rock, and oil out of the flinty rock;

14 Butter of kine, and milk of sheep, with fat of lambs, and rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats, with the fat of kidneys of wheat; and thou didst drink the^b pure blood of the grape.

15 I But^c Jeshurun^d waxed fat, and^e kicked: thou art waxen fat, thou art grown thick, thou art covered with fatness; then he forsook God which made him, and lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation.

16 They provoked him to^f jealousy with strange gods, with abominations provoked they him to anger.

17 They sacrificed unto^g devils, not to God; to gods whom they knew not, to new gods that came newly up, whom your fathers feared not.

18 Of the Rock that begat thee thou art^h unmindful, and hast forgotten God that formed thee.

19 And when the LORD saw it, heⁱ abhorred them, because of the provoking of his sons, and of his daughters.

20 And he said, I will^k hide my face from them, I will see what their end shall be: for they are a very froward generation, children in whom is no faith.

21 They have moved me to jealousy with that which is^l not God; they have provoked me to anger with their vanities: and I will move them to jealousy with those which are not a people, I will provoke them to anger with a^m foolish nation.

22 Forⁿ a fire is kindled in mine anger, and shall burn unto the lowest hell, and shall consume the earth with her increase, and set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

23 I will heap mischiefs upon them; I will spend mine^o arrows upon them.

24 They shall be burnt with hunger, and devoured with burning heat, and with bitter destruction: I will also send the^p teeth of beasts upon them, with the poison of^q serpents of the dust.

25 The^r sword without, and terror within, shall destroy both the young man and the virgin, the suckling also with the man of gray hairs.

26 I said, I would scatter them into corners, I would make the remembrance of them to cease from among men;

27 Were it not that I feared the wrath of the enemy, lest their adversaries should^s behave themselves strangely, and lest they should say, Our hand is high, and the LORD hath not done all this.

28 For they are a nation^t void of counsel, neither is there any understanding in them.

29 Oh that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their^u latter end!

30 How should^v one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, except their Rock had^w sold them, and the LORD had shut them up?

31 For their rock is not^x as our Rock, even our enemies themselves being^y judges:

32 For their^z vine is of the vine of Sodom, and of the fields of Gomorrah: their^a grapes are grapes of gall, their clusters are bitter:

33 Their^b wine is the^c poison of dragons, and the cruel venom of asps.

34 Is not this laid up in store with me, and^d sealed up among my^e treasures?

35 To me belongeth^f vengeance, and recompense; their foot shall^g slide in^h due time: for the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that shall come upon themⁱ make haste.

36 For the LORD shall judge his people, and repent himself for his servants; when he seeth that their power is gone, and there is none shut up, or left.

37 And he shall say, Where are their gods, their rock in whom they trusted, 38 Which did^j eat the fat of their sacrifices, and drank the wine of their drink-offerings? let them rise up and help you, and be your protection.

39 See now that I, even I am he, and there is no god with me: I^k kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand.

40 For I^l lift up my hand to heaven, and say, I live for ever.

41 If I whet my glittering sword, and my hand take hold on^m judgment; I will render vengeance to mine enemies, and will reward them that hate me.

42 I will make mine arrowsⁿ drunk with blood, and my sword shall devour flesh; and that with the blood of the slain and of the captives from the beginning of^o revenges upon the enemy.

43 Rejoice, O ye nations, with his people: for he will avenge^p the blood of his servants, and will render vengeance to his adversaries, and will be merciful unto his^q land, and to his people.

44 I And Moses came and spake all the words of this ^c song in the ears of the people, he and ^d Hoshea the son of Nun.

45 And Moses made an end of speaking all these words to all Israel :

46 And he said unto them, ^e Set your hearts unto all the words which I testify among you this day, which ye shall command your children to observe to do, all the words of this law.

47 For it is ^f not a vain thing for you : because it is ^g your life ; and through this thing ye shall prolong your days in the land whither ye go over Jordan to possess it.

48 And the LORD ^h spake unto Moses that self-same day, saying,

49 Get thee up into this mountain Abarim, unto mount ⁱ Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, that is over against Jericho ; and behold the land of Canaan which I give unto the children of Israel for a possession :

50 And die in the mount whither thou goest up, and be ^j gathered unto thy people ; as Aaron thy brother died in ^k mount Hor, and was gathered unto his people :

51 Because ye ^l trespassed against me among the children of Israel at the waters of Meribah-Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin ; because ye sanctified ^m me not in the midst of the children of Israel.

52 Yet thou shalt ⁿ see the land before thee, but thou shalt not go thither unto the land which I give the children of Israel.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

2 The majesty of God....6 The blessings of the twelve tribes....
26 The excellency of Israel.

AND this is the ^a blessing wherewith Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death.

2 And he said, The LORD came from ^b Sinai, and rose up from ^c Seir unto them ; he shined forth from mount ^d Paran, and he came with ten thousands of saints : from his right hand went a fiery law for them.

3 Yea, he loved ^e the people ; ^f all his saints are in thy hand : and they ^g sat down at thy feet ; every one shall ^h receive of thy words.

4 Moses commanded us a law ; even the ⁱ inheritance of the congregation of Jacob.

5 And he was king in Jeshurun, when the heads of the people and the tribes of Israel were gathered together.

6 ^j Let ^k Reuben live, and not die ; and let not his men be few.

7 ^l And this is the blessing of ^m Judah : and he said, Hear, LORD, the voice of Judah, and ⁿ bring him unto his people : let his hands be ^o sufficient for him, and be thou a help to him from his enemies.

8 ^p And of Levi he said, Let thy ^q Thummim and thy Urim be with thy holy one, whom thou didst prove at Massah, and with whom thou didst ^r strive at the waters of Meribah ;

9 Who said unto his father and to his mother, I have ^s not seen him, neither did he acknowledge his brethren, nor knew his own children : for they have observed thy word, and kept thy covenant.

10 They shall ^t teach Jacob thy judgments, and Israel thy law ; they shall put ^u incense before thee, and whole burnt-sacrifice upon thine altar.

11 Bless, LORD, his substance, and accept the ^v work of his hands : smite through the loins of them that ^w rise against him, and of them that hate him, that they rise not again.

12 ^x And of ^y Benjamin he said, The beloved of the LORD shall dwell in safety by him ; and the LORD shall cover ^z him all the day long, and he shall dwell between his ^a shoulders.

13 ^b And of ^c Joseph he said, Blessed of the LORD be his land, for the ^d precious things of heaven, for the ^e dew, and for the deep that coucheth beneath.

14 And for the precious fruits brought forth by the sun, and for the precious things put forth by the moon.

15 And for the chief things of the ^f ancient mountains, and for the precious things of the lasting hills.

16 And for the precious things of the earth and ^g fulness thereof, and for the ^h good will of him that ⁱ dwelt in the bush : let the blessing come upon the head of Joseph, and upon the top of the head of him that was ^j separated from his brethren.

17 His glory is like the firstling of his bullock, and his horns are like the horns of ^k unicorns : with them he shall ^l push the people together to the ends of the earth : and they are the ^m ten thousands of Ephraim, and they are the thousands of Manasseh.

18 ⁿ And of Zebulun he said, Rejoice, Zebulun, ^o in thy going out ; and ^p Issachar, in thy tents.

19 They shall ^q call the people unto the mountain ; there they shall offer sacrifices of righteousness : for they shall suck of the abundance of the seas, and of treasures hid in the sand.

20 ^r And of Gad he said, Blessed be he that ^s enlargeth Gad : he dwelleth as a lion, and ^t teareth the arm with the crown of the head.

21 And he ^u provided the first part for himself, because there, in a portion of the lawgiver, was he seated : and he came with the heads of the people, he executed ^v the justice of the LORD, and his judgments with Israel.

22 ^w And of Dan he said, Dan is a ^x lion's whelp : he shall leap from Bashan.

23 ^y And of Naphtali he said, O Naphtali, ^z satisfied with favour, and full with the blessing of the LORD, possess thou the ^a west and the south.

24 ^b And of Asher he said, Let Asher be blessed with children ; let him be acceptable to his brethren, and let him dip his foot in oil.

25 Thy shoes shall be iron and brass ; and as thy days, so shall thy strength be.

26 ^c There is ^d none like unto the God of Jeshurun, who ^e rideth upon the heaven in thy help, and in his ^f excellency on the sky.

27 The ^g eternal God is thy ^h refuge, and underneath are the everlasting ⁱ arms : and he shall thrust out the enemy from before thee ; and shall say, Destroy them.

28 Israel then shall dwell in ^j safety alone ; the ^k fountain of Jacob shall be upon a land of corn and wine, also his ^l heavens shall drop down dew.

29 Happy art thou, O Israel : ^m who is like unto thee, O people saved by the ⁿ LORD, the shield of thy help, and who is the ^o sword of thy excellency : and thine enemies shall be found liars unto thee ; and thou shalt ^p tread upon their high places.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

1 Moses from mount Nebo vieweth the land....5 He dieth there :
6 His burial....7 His age.

AND Moses ^a went up from the plains of Moab, unto the ^b mountain of Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, that is over against Jericho : and the LORD ^c shewed him all the land of Gilead, unto Dan,

2 And all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim, and

4 And the LORD said unto him, This is the land which I swear unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, saying, I will give it unto thy seed: I have caused thee to see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not go over thither.

5 ¶ So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD.

6 ¶ And he buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, over against Beth-peor: but no man knoweth of his sepulchre unto this day.

7 ¶ And Moses was a hundred and twenty years old when he died: his eye was not dim, nor his natural force abated.

8 ¶ And the children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days: so the days of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended.

9 ¶ And Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom; for Moses had laid his hands upon him: and the children of Israel hearkened unto him, and did as the LORD commanded Moses.

10 ¶ And there arose not a prophet since in Israel like unto Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face;

11 In all the signs and the wonders which the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land;

12 And in all that mighty hand, and in all the great terror which Moses shewed in the sight of all Israel.

¶ The Book of JOSHUA.

CHAPTER I.

The Lord appointeth Joshua to succeed Moses.

Now after the death of Moses, the servant of the LORD, it came to pass, that the LORD spake unto Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' minister, saying,

2 Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, thou and all this people, unto the land which I do give to them, even to the children of Israel.

3 Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that have I given unto you, as I said unto Moses.

4 From the wilderness and this Lebanon even unto the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and unto the great sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your coast.

5 There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life: as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee: I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

6 Be strong and of a good courage: for unto this people shalt thou divide for an inheritance the land which I swear unto their fathers to give them.

7 Only be thou strong and very courageous, that thou mayest observe to do according to all the law which Moses my servant commanded thee: turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, that thou mayest prosper whithersoever thou goest.

8 This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success.

9 Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

10 ¶ Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,

11 Pass through the host and command the people, saying, Prepare you victuals; for within three days ye shall pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God giveth you to possess it.

12 ¶ And to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to half the tribe of Manasseh, spake Joshua, saying,

13 Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, The LORD your God hath given you rest, and hath given you this land.

14 Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle shall remain in the land which Moses gave you on this side Jordan; but ye shall pass before your brethren armed, all the mighty men of valour, and help them;

15 Until the LORD have given your brethren rest, as he hath given you, and they also have possessed the land which the LORD your God giveth them: then ye shall return unto the land of your possession, and enjoy it, which Moses the LORD's servant gave you on this side Jordan toward the sun-rising.

16 ¶ And they answered Joshua saying, All that thou commandest us, we will do, and whithersoever thou sendest us, we will go.

17 According as we hearkened unto Moses in all things, so will we hearken unto thee: only the LORD thy God be with thee, as he was with Moses.

18 Whosoever he be that doth rebel against thy commandment, and will not hearken unto thy words in all that thou commandest him, he shall be put to death: only be strong and of a good courage.

CHAPTER II.

Rahab concealeth the two spies sent from Shittim.

AND Joshua the son of Nun sent out of Shittim two men to spy secretly, saying, Go view the land, even Jericho. And they went, and came into a harlot's house, named Rahab, and lodged there.

2 And it was told the king of Jericho, saying, Behold, there came men in hither to-night of the children of Israel, to search out the country.

3 And the king of Jericho sent unto Rahab, saying, Bring forth the men that are come to thee, which are entered into thy house: for they be come to search out all the country.

4 And the woman took the two men, and hid them, and said thus, There came men unto me, but I wist not whence they were:

5 And it came to pass about the time of shutting of the gate, when it was dark, that the men went out: whither the men went, I wot not: pursue after them quickly; for ye shall overtake them.

6 But she had brought them up to the roof of the house, and hid them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order upon the roof.

7 And the men pursued after them the way to Jordan unto the fords: and as soon as they which Before CHRIST 1451. pursued after them were gone out, they ^k shut the gate.

8 ¶ And before they were lain down, she came up unto them upon the roof;

9 And she said unto the men, ¹ I know that the LORD hath given you the land, and that your ^m terror is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land [†] faint because of you.

10 For we have ⁿ heard how the LORD ^o dried up the water of the Red sea for you, when ye came out of Egypt; and what ye did unto the ^p two kings of the Amorites that were on the other side Jordan, Sihon and Og, whom ye utterly destroyed.

11 And as soon as we had heard these things, our hearts did melt, neither did there [†] remain any more courage in any man, because of you: for the LORD your God, he is God in heaven above, and in earth beneath.

12 Now therefore, I pray you, swear unto me by the LORD, ^a since I have shewed you kindness, that ye will also shew kindness unto my ^r father's house, and give me a true token:

13 And that ye will save alive my father, and my mother, and my brethren, and my sisters, and all that they have, and deliver our lives from death.

14 And the men answered her, [†] Our life for yours, if ye utter not this our business. And it shall be, when the LORD hath given us the land, that we will ^s deal kindly and truly with thee.

15 Then she ^t let them down by a cord through the window: for her house was upon the town-wall, and she dwelt upon the wall.

16 And ^u she said unto them, Get you to the mountain, lest the pursuers meet you; and hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers be returned: and afterward may ye go your way.

17 And the men said unto her, We will be ^x blameless of this thine oath, which thou hast made us swear.

18 Behold, when we come into the land, thou shalt bind this line of scarlet thread in the window which thou didst let us down by: and thou shalt [†] bring thy father, and thy mother, and thy brethren, and all thy father's household home unto thee.

19 And it shall be, that whosoever shall ^y go out of the doors of thy house into the street, ^z his blood shall be upon his head, and we will be guiltless: and whosoever shall be with thee in the house, his blood shall be on our head, if ^{any} hand be upon him.

20 And if thou utter this our business, then we will be quit of thine oath which thou hast made us to swear.

21 And she said, According unto your words, so be it. And she sent them away, and they departed: and she bound the scarlet line in the window.

22 And they went, and came unto the mountain, and abode there three days, until the pursuers were returned: And the pursuers sought them throughout all the way, ^a but found them not.

23 ¶ So the two women returned, and descended from the mountain, and passed over, and came to Joshua the son of Nun, and told him all things that befel them:

24 And they said unto Joshua, Truly ^b the LORD hath delivered into our hands all the land; for even all the inhabitants of the country do [†] faint because of us.

CHAPTER III.

1 Joshua cometh to Jordan....14 The waters of Jordan are divided.

AND Joshua ^a rose early in the morning; and they removed from Shittim, and came to Jordan, he and all the children of Israel, and lodged there before they passed over.

2 And it came to pass after ^b three days, that the officers went through the host;

3 And they commanded the people, saying, When ye see the ^c ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and the priests the Levites bearing it, then ye shall ^d remove from your place, and go after it.

4 Yet there shall be a ^e space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure: come not near unto it, that ye may know the way by which ye must go; for ye have not passed this way heretofore.

5 And Joshua said unto the people, ^f Sanctify yourselves: for ^g to-morrow the LORD will do ^h wonders among you.

6 And Joshua spake unto the priests, saying, ⁱ Take up the ark of the covenant, and pass over ^k before the people. And they took up the ark of the covenant, and went before the people.

7 ¶ And the LORD said unto Joshua, This day will I begin to ^l magnify thee in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that ^m as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee.

8 And thou shalt command the priests that bear the ark of the covenant, saying, When ye are come to the brink of the water of Jordan, ye shall ⁿ stand still in Jordan.

9 ¶ And Joshua said unto the children of Israel, Come hither and ^o hear the words of the LORD your God.

10 And Joshua said, ^p Hereby ye shall know that the ^q living God is among you, and that he will without fail ^r drive out from before you the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hivites, and the Perizzites, and the Gergashites, and the Amorites, and the Jebusites.

11 Behold, the ark of the covenant of the ^s LORD of all the earth passeth over before you into Jordan.

12 Now therefore take you ^t twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, out of every tribe a man.

13 And it shall come to pass, ^u as soon as the soles of the feet of the priest that bear the ark of the LORD, the LORD of all the earth, shall rest in the waters of Jordan, that the waters of Jordan shall be cut off from the waters that come down from above; and they shall ^x stand upon a heap.

14 ¶ And it came to pass, when the people removed from their tents to pass over Jordan, and the priests bearing the ^y ark of the covenant before the people;

15 And as they that bare the ark were come unto Jordan, and the ^z feet of the priests that bare the ark were dipped in the brim of the water, (for ^a Jordan overfloweth all his banks all the time of harvest,)

16 That the waters which came down from above stood and ^b rose up upon a heap very far from the city Adam, that is beside ^c Zaretan; and those that came down toward the sea of the plain, even the ^d salt sea, failed, and were cut off: and the people passed over ^e right against Jericho.

17 And the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground ^f in the midst of Jordan, and all ^g the Israelites passed over on dry ground, until all the people were passed clean over Jordan.

CHAPTER IV.

Twelve men are appointed to take twelve stones for a memorial out of Jordan.

AND it came to pass, when all the people were ^a clean ^b passed over Jordan, that the ^b LORD spake unto Joshua, saying,

2 Take you ^e twelve men out of the people, out of every tribe a man,

3 And command ye them, saying, Take you hence out of the midst of Jordan, out of the place where the priests' ^d feet stood firm, twelve ^e stones, and ye shall carry them over with you, and leave them in the lodging-place where ye shall lodge this night.

4 Then Joshua called the twelve men, whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of every tribe a man:

5 And Joshua said unto them, Pass over before the ark of the LORD ^f your God into the midst of Jordan, and take you up every man of you a stone upon his shoulder, according unto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel:

6 That this may be a ^g sign among you, that when your children ask their fathers ^h in time to come, saying, ⁱ What mean ye by these stones?

7 Then ye shall answer them, That the waters of Jordan were ^j cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; when it passed over Jordan, the waters of Jordan were cut off: and these stones shall be for a ^k memorial unto the children of Israel for ever.

8 And the children of Israel did so as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of Jordan, as the LORD spake unto Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and carried them over with them unto the place where they lodged, and laid them down there.

9 And Joshua set up twelve stones in the ^l midst of Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests which bare the ark of the covenant stood: and they are there unto this day.

10 ¶ For the priest which bare the ark stood in the midst of Jordan, ^m until every thing was finished that the LORD commanded Joshua to speak unto the people, according to all that ⁿ Moses commanded Joshua: and the people ^o hastened and passed over.

11 And it came to pass, when all the people were clean passed over, that the ark of the LORD passed over, and the priests in the presence of the people.

12 And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh, passed over armed ^p before the children of Israel, as Moses spake unto them:

13 About forty thousand ^q prepared for war, passed over ^r before the LORD unto battle, to the plains of Jericho.

14 ¶ On that day the LORD ^s magnified Joshua in the sight of all Israel, and they feared him as they ^t feared Moses, all the days of his life.

15 And the LORD spake unto Joshua, saying,

16 Command the priests that bear the ^u ark of the testimony, that they come up out of Jordan.

17 Joshua therefore commanded the priests, saying, ^v Come ye up out of Jordan.

18 And it came to pass, when the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD were come up out of the midst of Jordan, and the soles of the priests' feet were lifted up unto the dry land, that the waters of Jordan returned unto their place, and ^w flowed over all his banks, ^x as they did before.

19 ¶ And the people came up out of Jordan on the tenth ^y day of ^z the first month, and encamped in ^a Gilgal, in the east border of Jericho.

20 ¶ And those twelve stones which they took out of Jordan, did Joshua pitch in Gilgal.

21 And he spake unto the children of Israel, saying, When your children shall ask their fathers [†] in time to come, saying, What mean these stones?

22 Then ye shall let your children know, saying, Israel came over this Jordan on dry land.

23 For the LORD your God dried up the waters of Jordan from before you, until ye were passed over, as the LORD your God did to the ^y Red sea, which he dried up from before us, until we were gone over.

24 That all the people of the earth might know the hand of the LORD, that it is mighty: that ye might ^z fear the LORD your God for ever.

CHAPTER V.

2 Joshua reneweth circumcision....10 The passover is kept at Gilgal....12 Manna ceaseth.

AND it came to pass, when all the kings of the ^a Amorites which were on the side of Jordan westward, and all the kings of the ^b Canaanites which were by the sea, heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of Jordan from before the children of Israel, until we were passed over, that their ^c heart melted; neither was there spirit in them any more, because of the children of Israel.

2 ¶ At that time the LORD said unto Joshua, Make thee [†] sharp knives, and circumcise again the children of Israel the second time.

3 And ^d Joshua made him sharp knives, and circumcised the children of Israel at the hill of the foreskins.

4 And this is the cause why Joshua did circumcise: All the people that came out of Egypt, that were males, even all the men of war ^e died in the wilderness by the way, after they came out of Egypt.

5 Now all the people that came out were circumcised; but all the people that were ^f born in the wilderness by the way as they came forth out of Egypt, them they had not circumcised.

6 For the children of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, till all the people that were men of war which came out of Egypt were consumed, because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: unto whom the LORD ^g sware that he would not shew them the land which the LORD sware unto their fathers that he would give us, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

7 And their children, whom ^h he raised up in their stead, them Joshua circumcised: for they were ⁱ uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them by the way.

8 And it came to pass when they had done circumcising all the people, that they abode in their places in the camp, till they were whole.

9 And the LORD said unto Joshua, This day have I rolled away the ^k reproach of Egypt ^l from off you: Wherefore the name of the place is called ^m Gilgal unto this day.

10 ¶ And the children of Israel encamped in Gilgal, and kept ⁿ the passover on the fourteenth day of the month at even, in the plains of Jericho.

11 And they did eat of ^o the old corn of the land on the morrow after the passover, unleavened cakes and parched corn in the self-same day.

12 ¶ And the ^p manna ceased on the morrow after they had eaten of the old corn of the land; neither had the children of Israel manna any more; but they did eat of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year.

13 ¶ And it came to pass when Joshua was by Jericho, that he ^q lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, there stood ^r a man over against him with his sword drawn in his hand: and Joshua went unto

CHAPTER VI.

1 Jericho is shut up....2 God instructeth Joshua how to besiege it....22 Rahab is saved.

NOW Jericho † was straitly shut up ^a because of the children of Israel: none went out, and none came in.

2 And ^b the LORD said unto Joshua, See, ^c I have given into thy hand Jericho, and the ^d king thereof, and the mighty men of valour.

3 And ye shall ^e compass the city, all ye men of war, and go round about the city once: thus shalt thou do six days.

4 And seven priests shall bear before the ark seven trumpets of ^f rams' horns: and the seventh day ye shall compass the city ^g seven times, and the priests shall blow with the trumpets.

5 And it shall come to pass, that when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when ye hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall ⁱ shout with a great shout: and the wall of the city shall fall down † flat, and the people shall ascend up every man straight before him.

6 † And Joshua the son of Nun called the priests, and said unto them, Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven ^k priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD.

7 And he said unto the people, Pass on, and compass the city, and let him that ^l is armed pass on before the ark of the LORD.

8 † And it came to pass, when Joshua had spoken unto the people, that the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns passed on ^m before the LORD, and ⁿ blew with the trumpets: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them.

9 † And the armed men went before the priests that blew with the trumpets, and the || rere-ward came after the ark, the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets.

10 And Joshua had commanded the people, saying, Ye shall not shout, nor make any noise with your voice, neither shall any word proceed out of your mouth, until the ^o day I bid you shout, then shall ye shout.

11 So the ark of the LORD compassed the city, going about it once: and they came into the camp, and lodged in the camp.

12 † And Joshua ^p rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD.

13 And ^q seven priests bearing seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD, went on continually, and blew with the trumpets: and the armed men went before them; but the rere-ward came after the ark of the LORD, the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets.

14 And the second day they compassed the city once, and returned into the camp. So they did six days.

15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they rose early about the dawning of the day, and compassed the city after the same manner seven times: only on that day they compassed the city seven times.

16 And it came to pass at the seventh time, when the priests blew with the trumpets, Joshua said unto the people, Shout; for the LORD hath given you the city.

17 † And the city shall be || accursed, even it, and all that are therein, to the LORD: only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all that are with her in the house, because she ^r hid the messengers that we sent.

18 And ye, in any wise keep yourselves from the accursed thing, lest ye make yourselves accursed, when ye take of the accursed thing, and make the camp of Israel a curse, and ^s trouble it.

19 But all the silver, and gold, and vessels of brass and iron, are consecrated unto the LORD: they shall come into the treasury of the LORD.

20 So the people shouted when the priests blew with the trumpets: and it came to pass, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that the wall fell down ^t flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city.

21 And they ^x utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox, and sheep, and ass, with the edge of the sword.

22 But Joshua had said unto the two men that had spied out the country, Go into the harlot's house, and bring out thence the woman, and all that she hath, ^y as ye sware unto her.

23 And the young men that were spies went in, and brought out Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and her brethren, and all that she had; and they brought out all her kindred, and left them ^z without the camp of Israel.

24 And they ^a burnt the city with fire, and all that was therein: only the silver, and the gold, and the vessels of brass and of iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD.

25 And Joshua ^b saved Rahab the harlot alive, and her father's household, and all that she had; and she ^c dwelleth in Israel even unto this day: because she hid the messengers which Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

26 † And Joshua adjured them at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before the LORD, that riseth up and buildeth this city Jericho: he shall lay the foundation thereof in ^d his first-born, and in his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it.

27 So the LORD was with Joshua; and his ^e fame was noised throughout all the country.

CHAPTER VII.

5 The Israelites are smitten at Ai....6 Joshua's complaint.

BUT the ^a children of Israel committed a trespass in the accursed thing: for Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the accursed thing: and the ^b anger of the LORD was kindled against the children of Israel.

2 And Joshua sent men from Jericho to ^c Ai, which is beside ^d Beth-aven, on the east side of Beth-el, and spake unto them, saying, Go up and ^e view the country. And the men went up and viewed Ai.

3 And they returned to Joshua, and said unto him, Let not all the people go up; but let about two or three thousand men go up and smite Ai: and make not all the people to labour thither; for they are but few.

9 For the Canaanites, and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear of it, and shall environ us round, and ^p cut off our name from the earth: and ^q what wilt thou do unto thy great name?

10 ¶ And the LORD said unto Joshua, ^r Get thee up; wherefore ^s liest thou thus upon thy face?

11 † Israel hath sinned, and they have also transgressed ^u my covenant which I commanded them: for they have even taken of the accursed thing, and have also ^x stolen, and dissembled also, and they have ^y put it even among their own stuff.

12 Therefore the children of Israel ^z could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they were accursed: neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the accursed from among you.

13 Up, ^a sanctify the people, and say, Sanctify yourselves against to-morrow: for thus saith the LORD God of Israel, There is an accursed thing in the midst of thee, O Israel: thou canst not stand before thine enemies, until ye take away the accursed thing from among you.

14 In the morning therefore ye shall be brought according to your tribes: and it shall be, that the tribe which the LORD ^b taketh shall come according to the families thereof; and the family which the LORD shall take shall come by households; and the household which the LORD shall take shall come man by man.

15 And it shall be, that he that is ^c taken with the accursed thing shall be ^d burnt with fire, he and all that he hath: because he hath transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he hath wrought folly ^e in Israel.

16 ¶ So Joshua ^f rose up early in the morning, and brought Israel by their tribes; and the tribe of Judah was taken:

17 And he brought the family of ^g Judah; and he took the family of the Zarahites: and he brought the family of the Zarahites man by man; and Zabdi was taken:

18 And he brought his household man by man; and Achan, the son of Carni, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.

19 And Joshua said unto Achan, ^h My son, give, I pray thee, ⁱ glory to the LORD God of Israel, and ^k make confession unto him; and tell me now what thou hast done, hide it not from me.

20 And Achan answered Joshua, and said, Indeed I have sinned against the LORD God of Israel, and thus and thus have I done.

21 When I ^l saw among the spoils a goodly [†] Babylonish garment, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I ^m coveted them, and took them, and behold, they are ⁿ hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it.

22 ¶ So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran unto the tent, and behold, it was hid in his ^o tent, and the silver under it.

23 And they took them out of the midst of the tent, and brought them unto Joshua, and unto all the children of Israel, and [†] laid them out before the LORD.

24 And Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, and the silver, and the garment, and the [†] wedge of gold, and his ^p sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and ^q all that he had: and they brought them unto the valley of Achor.

25 And Joshua said, Why hast thou ^r troubled us? the LORD shall trouble thee this day. And all Israel stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire, after they had stoned them with stones.

26 And they raised over him a great ^s heap of stones unto this day. ^t So the LORD turned from the fierceness of his anger: wherefore the name of that place was called The valley of || Achor, unto this day.

1 God encourageth Joshua....3 The stratagem whereby Ai was taken
...30 Joshua buildeth an altar....34 Propoundeth blessings and cursings.

AND the LORD said unto Joshua, ^a Fear not, neither be thou dismayed: ^b take all the people of war with thee, and arise, go up to Ai: see, ^c I have given into thy hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land:

2 And thou shalt do to Ai and her king, as thou didst unto ^d Jericho and her king: only the ^e spoil thereof, and the cattle thereof, shall ye take for a prey unto yourselves: lay thee an ambush for the city ^f behind it.

3 ¶ So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up against Ai: and Joshua chose out ^g thirty thousand mighty men of valour, and sent them away ^h by night.

4 And he commanded them, saying, Behold, ye shall lie || in wait against the city, even behind the city: go not very far from the city, but be ye all ready:

5 And I, and all the people that are with me, will approach unto the city: and it shall come to pass when they come out against us, as at the first, that we will ⁱ flee before them,

6 (For they will come out after us) till we have [†] drawn them from the city; for they ^k will say, They flee before us, as at the first: therefore we will flee before them.

7 Then ye shall rise up from the ambush, and seize upon the city: for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand.

8 And it shall be when ye have taken the city, that ye shall set the city on fire: according to the commandment of the LORD shall ye do. See, ^l I have commanded you.

9 ¶ Joshua therefore sent them forth; and they went to lie in ambush, and abode between Beth-el and Ai, on the west side of Ai: but Joshua lodged that night among the people.

10 And Joshua rose up ^m early in the morning, and numbered the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai.

11 And all the people, even the people of war that were with him, went up, and drew nigh, and came before the city, and pitched on the north side of Ai: now there was a valley between them and Ai.

12 And he took about five thousand men, and set them to lie in ambush between Beth-el and Ai, on the west side of the city.

13 And when they had set the people, even all the host that was on the north of the city, and their *†*liers in wait on the west of the city, Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley.

14 ¶ And it came to pass when the king of Ai saw it, that they hastened and rose up early, and the men of the city went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people, at a time appointed, before the plain: but he ⁱ wist not that there were liers in ambush against him behind the city.

15 And Joshua and all Israel made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the ⁱ wilderness.

16 And all the people that were in Ai were called together to pursue after them: and they pursued after Joshua, and ⁱ were drawn away from the city.

17 And there was ⁱ not a man left in Ai, or Beth-el, that went not out after Israel: and they left the city open, and pursued after Israel.

18 And the LORD said unto Joshua, Stretch out the spear that is in thy hand toward Ai; for I will give it into thy hand. And Joshua ⁱ stretched out the spear that he had in his hand toward the city.

19 And the ambush arose quickly out of their place, and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand: and they entered into the city, and took it, and hastened, and set the city on fire.

20 And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and behold, the ⁱ smoke of the city ascended up to heaven, and † they had no power to flee this way or that way: and the people that fled to the wilderness turned back upon the pursuers.

21 And when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended, then they turned again and slew the men of Ai.

22 And the other issued out of the city against them; so they were in the midst of Israel some on this side, and some on that side: and they smote them, so that they let ⁱ none of them remain or escape.

23 And the ⁱ king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.

24 And it came to pass when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness wherein they chased them, and when they were all fallen on the edge of the sword, until they were consumed, that all the Israelites returned unto Ai, and smote it with the † edge of the sword.

25 And so it was, that all that fell that day, both of men and women, were twelve thousand, even all the men of Ai.

26 For Joshua ⁱ drew not his hand back where-with he stretched out the spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.

27 Only the cattle and the spoil of that city Israel ⁱ took for a prey unto themselves, according unto the word of the LORD which he commanded Joshua.

28 And Joshua burnt Ai, and made it a heap ⁱ for ever, even a desolation unto this day.

29 And the king of Ai he ⁱ hanged on a tree until even-tide: and as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his carcass down from the tree, and cast it at the entering of the gate of the city, and raise thereon a ⁱ great heap of stones, that remaineth unto this day.

30 ¶ Then Joshua ⁱ built an altar unto the LORD God of Israel in ⁱ mount Ebal, 31 As Moses the servant of the LORD commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses. An altar of ⁱ whole stones, over which no man hath lifted up any iron; and they offered thereon ⁱ burnt-offerings unto the LORD, and sacrificed ⁱ peace-offerings.

32 And he wrote there ⁱ upon the stones ⁱ a copy of the law of Moses, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Israel.

33 And all Israel, and their elders, and officers, and their judges, stood on this side the ark and on that side before the priests the Levites, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, as well the stranger, as he that was born among them; half of them over against mount ⁱ Gerizim, and half of them over against mount Ebal; as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded before, that they should ⁱ bless the people of Israel.

34 And afterward he ⁱ read all the words of the law, the blessings and cursings according to all that is written in the book of the law.

35 There was not a word of all that Moses commanded, which Joshua read not before all the congregation of Israel, with the ⁱ women, and the little ones, and the ⁱ strangers that were conversant among them.

CHAPTER IX.

1 The kings combine against Israel....3 The Gibeonites, by craft, obtain a league.

AND it came to pass, when all the kings which were on ⁱ this side Jordan in the hills, and in the valleys, and in all the coasts of the ⁱ great sea over against Lebanon, the ⁱ Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite heard thereof;

2 That they ⁱ gathered themselves together, to fight with Joshua and with Israel, with one accord.

3 ¶ And when the inhabitants of ⁱ Gibeon ⁱ heard what Joshua had done unto Jericho and to Ai,

4 They did work ⁱ wilily, and went and made as if they had been ambassadors, and took old sacks upon their asses, and wine-bottles, old, and rent, and bound up;

5 And old shoes and clouted upon their feet, and old garments upon them; and all the bread of their provision was dry and mouldy.

6 And they went to Joshua unto the camp at ⁱ Gilgal, and said unto him, and to the men of Israel, We be come from a far country: now therefore make ye ⁱ a league with us.

7 And the men of Israel said unto the ⁱ Hivites, Peradventure ye dwell among us; and ⁱ how shall we make a league with you?

8 And they said unto Joshua, We are thy ⁱ servants. And Joshua said unto them, Who are ye? and from whence come ye?

9 And they said unto him, From a very far country thy servants are come, because of the ⁱ name of the LORD thy God: for we have heard the fame of him, and all that he did in Egypt.

and had utterly destroyed it; as he had done to ^aJericho and her king, so he had done to ^bAi and her king; and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them;

2 That they ^cfeared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, as one of the [†]royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all the men thereof were ^dmighty.

3 Wherefore Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem sent unto Hoham king of ^eHebron, and unto Piram king of Jarmuth, and unto Japhia king of ^fLachish, and unto Debir king of ^gEglon, saying,

4 Come up unto me, and help me, that we may smite Gibeon: for ^hit hath made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel.

5 Therefore the ⁱfive kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their hosts, and ^kencamped before Gibeon, and made war against it.

6 And the men of Gibeon sent unto Joshua to the camp of Gilgal, saying, Slack not thy hand from thy servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us: for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the mountains are gathered together against us.

7 So Joshua ascended from Gilgal, he, and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valour.

8 And the LORD said unto Joshua, ^lFear them not: for I have delivered them into thy hand; there shall not a man of them stand before thee.

9 Joshua therefore came unto them suddenly, and went up from Gilgal all night.

10 And the LORD discomfited them before Israel, and slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth up to ^mBeth-horon, and smote them to ⁿAzekah, and unto Makkedah.

11 And it came to pass, as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down to Beth-horon, that the LORD cast down ^ogreat stones from heaven upon them unto Azekah, and they died: they were more which died with hailstones than they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword.

12 ¹ Then ^pspake Joshua to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of ^qAjalon.

13 And the ^rsun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of || Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day.

14 And there was ^sno day like that before it or after it, that the LORD hearkened unto the voice of a man: for the LORD fought for Israel.

15 And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him unto the camp to Gilgal.

16 But ^tthese five kings fled, and ^uhid themselves in a cave at Makkedah.

17 And it was told Joshua, saying, The five kings are found hid in a cave at Makkedah.

14 And all^a the spoil of these cities, and the cattle, the children of Israel took for a prey unto themselves; but every man they smote with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, neither left they any to breathe.

15 ¶ As the LORD commanded Moses his servant, so did Moses command Joshua, and so did Joshua: he left nothing undone of all that the LORD commanded Moses.

16 So Joshua took all that land, the hills, and all the south country, and all the land of^s Goshen, and the valley, and the plain, and the mountain of Israel, and the valley of the same;

17 Even from the || mount Halak, that goeth up to Seir, even unto Baal-gad, in the valley of Lebanon under mount Hermon: and all their kings he took, and smote them, and slew them.

18 Joshua made war || a long time with all those kings.

19 There was not a city that^t made peace with the children of Israel, save the Hivites the inhabitants of Gibeon: all other they took in battle.

20 For it was of the LORD to^u harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, that he might destroy them utterly, and that they might have no favour, but that he might destroy them, as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 There was none of the Anakims left in the land of the children of Israel: only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod, there remained.

23 So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD said unto Moses: and Joshua gave it for an inheritance unto Israel^y according to their divisions by their tribes. And the land^z rested from war.

Lebanon unto ^k Misrephoth-maim, and all the Sidonians, them will ^l I drive out from before the children of Israel: only divide thou it by lot unto the Israelites for an inheritance, as I have commanded thee.

7 Now ^m therefore divide this land for an inheritance unto the nine tribes, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, 8 With whom the Reubenites and the Gadites have received their inheritance, which Moses gave them, beyond Jordan eastward, even as ⁿ Moses the servant of the LORD gave them;

9 From Aroer that is upon the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain of ^o Medeba unto ^p Dibon;

10 And all the cities of ^q Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, unto the border of the children of Ammon;

11 And ^r Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites and ^s Maachathites, and all mount Hermon, and all Bashan unto Salcah;

12 All the kingdom of Og in Bashan, which reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei, who remained of the remnant of the ^t giants: For these did Moses smite, and cast them out.

13 Nevertheless, the children of Israel ^u expelled not the Geshurites nor the Maachathites: but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Israelites until this day.

14 Only unto the tribe of Levi he gave none inheritance; the ^x sacrifices of the LORD God of Israel made by fire are their inheritance, as he said unto them.

15 ^y And Moses gave unto the tribe of the children of Reuben inheritance according to their families.

16 And their coast was from ^z Aroer that is on the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain by Medeba:

17 ^a Heshbon, and all her cities that are in the plain; Dibon, and ^b Bamoth-baal, and Beth-baal-meon,

18 And ^a Jahaza, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath,

19 And Kirjathaim, and Sibmah, and Zareth-shahar in the mount of the valley,

20 And ^b Beth-peor, and Ashdodh-pisgah, and ^c Beth-jeshimoth,

21 And all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites which reigned in Heshbon, whom ^d Moses smote with the princes of Midian, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, which were dukes of Sihon, dwelling in the country.

22 ^e Balaam also the son of Beor, the ^f soothsayer, did the children of Israel slay with the sword, ^g among them that were slain by them.

23 And the border of the children of Reuben was Jordan, and the border thereof. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben, after their families, the cities and villages thereof.

24 And Moses gave inheritance unto the tribe of Gad, even unto the children of Gad, according to their families:

25 And their coast was ^h Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and ⁱ half the land of the children of Ammon, unto Aroer that is before ^k Rabbab;

26 And from Heshbon unto ^l Ramath-mizpeh, and Betonim; and from ^m Mahanaim unto the border of ⁿ Debir;

27 And in the valley, ^o Beth-aram, and ^p Beth-nimrah, and Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, Jordan and his border, even unto the edge of the sea of Cinneroth, on the other side Jordan eastward.

28 This is the inheritance of the children of Gad after their families, the cities, and their villages.

29 ^q And Moses gave inheritance unto the half-tribe of Manasseh: and this was the possession of the half-tribe of the children of Manasseh by their families.

30 And their coast was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of ^r Jair, which are in Bashan, threescore cities:

31 And half Gilead, and ^s Ashtaroth, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were pertaining unto the children of Machir, the son of Manasseh, even to the ^t one half of the children of Machir by their families.

32 These are the countries which Moses did distribute for inheritance in the plains of Moab, on the other side Jordan by Jericho eastward.

33 But unto the ^u tribe of Levi, Moses gave not any inheritance: the LORD God of Israel was their inheritance, as he said unto them.

CHAPTER XIV.

Caleb by privilege obtaineth Hebron.

AND these are the countries which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which ^a Ekazsar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel distributed for inheritance to them.

2 ^b By lot was their inheritance, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half-tribe.

3 For Moses had given the inheritance of two tribes and a half-tribe on the other side Jordan: but unto the ^c Levites he gave none inheritance among them.

4 For the children of Joseph were ^d two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim: therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land, save ^e cities to dwell in, with their suburbs for their cattle, and for their substance.

5 As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land.

6 ^f Then the children of ^f Judah came unto Joshua in ^g Gilgal: and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite said unto him, Thou knowest the thing that the LORD said unto Moses the ^h man of God concerning me and thee in Kadesh-barnea.

THIS then was the ^a lot of the tribe of the children of Judah by their families; even to the ^b border of Edom ^c the wilderness of Zin southward was the uttermost part of the south coast.

2 And their south border was from the shore of the ^d salt sea, from the bay that looketh southward:

3 And it went out to the south side to Maaleh-acrabbim, and passed along to Zin, and ascended up on the south side unto ^e Kadesh-barnea, and passed along to Hezron, and went up to Adar, and fetched a compass to Karkaa:

4 From thence it passed toward Azmon, and went out unto the river of Egypt; and the goings out of that coast were at the sea: this shall be your south coast.

5 And the east border was the salt sea, even unto the end of Jordan: and their border in the north quarter was from the bay of the sea, at the uttermost part of Jordan:

6 And the border went up to ^f Beth-hoglah, and passed along by the north of Beth-arabah; and the border went up to the stone of ^g Bohan the son of Reuben;

7 And the border went up toward Debir from the ^h valley of Achor, and so northward looking toward ⁱ Gilgal, that is before the going up to Adummim, which is on the south side of the river: and the border passed toward the waters of En-shemesh, and the goings out thereof were at ^j En-rogel:

8 And the border went up by the valley of the ^k son of Hinnom, unto the south side of the ^l Jebusite; the same is Jerusalem: and the border went up to the top of the mountain that lieth before the valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the end of the valley of the giants northward:

9 And the border was drawn from the top of the hill unto the fountain of the water of ^m Nephtoah, and went out to the cities of mount ⁿ Ephron; and the border was drawn to Baalah, which is ^o Kirjath-jearim:

10 And the border compassed from Baalah westward unto mount Seir, and passed along unto the side of mount Jearim (which is Chesalon) on the north side, and went down to Beth-shemesh, and passed on to ^p Timnah:

11 And the border went out unto the side of ^q Ekron northward: and the border was drawn to Shicron, and passed along to mount ^r Baalah, and went out unto Jabneel; and the goings out of the border were at the sea.

12 And the west border was to the great sea, and the coast thereof: this is the coast of the children of Judah round about, according to their families.

13 ^t And unto ^u Caleb the son of Jephunneh he gave a part among the children of Judah, according to the commandment of the LORD to Joshua, even the city of Arba the father of Anak, which city is Hebron.

14 And Caleb ^v drove thence the three sons of Anak, Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmi, the children of Anak.

15 And ^w he went up thence to the inhabitants of Debir: and the name of Debir before was Kirjath-sepher.

16 ^x And Caleb said, ^y He that smiteth Kirjath-sepher, and taketh it, to him will ^z I give Achsah ^a my daughter to wife.

17 And Othniel the ^b son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife.

18 And it came to pass, as she came unto him, that she ^c moved him to ask of her father a field. And she ^d lighted off her ass; and Caleb said unto her, What wouldest thou?

19 Who answered, Give me ^e a blessing; for thou hast given me a south land, give me also springs of water. And he gave her the ^f upper springs, and the nether springs.

20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families.

21 And the uttermost cities of the tribe of the children of Judah, toward the coast of Edom southward were ^g Kabzeel, and Eder, and Jagur,

22 And Kinah, and ^h Dimonah, and Adadah,

23 And ⁱ Kedesh, and ^j Hazor, and Ithnan,

24 ^k Ziph, and Telem, and Bealoth,

25 And Hazor, Hadattah, and Kerioth, and Hezron, which is Hazor,

26 Amam, and ^l Shema, and ^m Moladah,

27 And Hazar-gaddah, and Heshmon, and Beth-palet.

28 And ⁿ Hazar-shual, and ^o Beer-sheba, and Bizjothjah,

29 Baalah, and Iim, and ^p Azem,

30 And Eltolad, and Chesil, and ^q Hormah,

31 And ^r Ziklag, and Madmannah, and Sannah,

32 And Lebaoth, and Shilhim, and ^s Ain, and ^t Rimmon: all the cities are twenty and nine, with their villages:

33 And in the valley, Eshtaol, and Zoreah, and Ashnah,

34 And Zanoah, and ^u En-gannim, ^x Tappuah, and Enam,

35 ^y Jarmuth, and ^z Adullam, Socoh, and Azekah, 36 And Sharaim, and Adithaim, and Gederah, and Gederothaim; fourteen cities with their villages:

37 Zenan, and Hadashah, and Migdal-gad,

38 And Dilean, and ^b Mizpeh, and Joktheel,

39 ^c Lachish, and Bozkath, and ^d Eglon,

40 And Cabbon, and Lahmam, and Kithlish,

41 And Gederoth, Beth-dagon, and Naamah, and ^e Makkedah; sixteen cities with their villages:

42 ^f Libnah, and Ether, and Ashan,

43 And Jiphtah, and Ashnah, and Nezib,

44 And Keilah, and ^g Achzib, and Maresah; nine cities with their villages:

45 Ekron, with her towns and her villages:

46 From Ekron even unto the sea, all that lay near Ashdod, with their villages:

47 Ashdod, with her towns and her villages; ^h Gaza, with her towns and her villages, unto the ⁱ river of Egypt, and the ^k great sea, and the border thereof:

62 And Nibshan, and the city of Salt, and ^bEngedi: six cities with their villages.

63 As for the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the children of Judah ^ccould not drive them out: but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Judah at ^dJerusalem unto this day.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 The general borders of the sons of Joseph, 5 and of Ephraim.

AND the lot of the children of ¶ Joseph fell from Jordan by Jericho, unto the water of Jericho, on the east, to the wilderness that goeth up from Jericho throughout mount Beth-el.

2 And goeth out from ^aBeth-el to ^bLuz, and passeth along unto the borders of ^cArchi to ^dAtaroth,

3 And goeth down westward to the coast of ^eJaphleti, unto the coast of Beth-horon the nether, and to ^fGezer: and the goings out thereof are at the sea.

4 So the children of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their inheritance.

5 ¶ And the border of the children of Ephraim according to their families was thus: even the border of their inheritance on the east side was Atarothadar, unto Beth-horon the upper;

6 And the border went out toward the sea to ^gMichmethah on the north side; and the border went about eastward unto Taanath-shiloh, and passed by it on the east to Janohah;

7 And it went down from Janohah to Ataroth, and to ^hNaarath, and came to Jericho, and went out at Jordan.

8 The border went out from ⁱTappuah westward unto the ^kriver Kanah; and the goings out thereof were at the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim by their families.

9 And the ^lseparate cities for the children of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages.

10 And they ^mdrave not out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer: but the Canaanites dwell among the Ephraimites unto this day, and serve under tribute

CHAPTER XVII.

The lot of Manasseh.

THERE was also ^aa lot for the tribe of Manasseh; for he was the ^bfirst-born of Joseph; to wit, for ^cMachir the first-born of Manasseh, the father of Gilead. because he was ^da man of war, therefore he had ^eGilead and ^fBashan.

2 There was also a lot for the ^grest of the children of Manasseh by their families; for the children of Abiezer, and for the children of Helek, and for the children of Asriel, and for the children of Shechem, and for the children of Hepher, and for the children of Shemida: these were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph by their families.

3 ¶ But ^hZelophehad, the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

4 And they came near before Eleazar the priest, and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brethren: therefore according to the ⁱcommandment of the LORD he gave them an inheritance ^jamong the brethren of their father.

5 And there fell ^kten portions to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which were on the other side Jordan;

6 Because the daughters of Manasseh had an inheritance among his sons: and the rest of Manasseh's sons had the land of Gilead.

7 ¶ And the coast of Manasseh was from Asher to ^lMichmethah, that lieth before Shechem; and the border went along on the right hand unto the inhabitants of En-tappuah.

8 Now Manasseh had the land of ^mTappuah: but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the children of Ephraim:

9 And the coast descended unto the ¶ river Kanah, southward of the river. These cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasseh: the coast of Manasseh also was on the north side of the river, and the out-goings of it were at the sea:

10 Southward it was Ephraim's, and northward it was Manasseh's, and the sea is his border; and they met together in Asher on the north, and in Issachar on the east.

11 And Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher, ⁿBeth-shean and her towns, and ^oIbleam and her towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of ^pEn-dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of ^qTaanach and her towns, and the inhabitants of ^rMegiddo and her towns, even three countries.

12 Yet the children of Manasseh ^scould not drive out the inhabitants of those cities; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.

13 Yet it came to pass, when the children of Israel were ^twaxed strong, that they put the Canaanites to ^utribute; but did not ^vutterly drive them out.

14 And the children of Joseph spake unto Joshua, saying, Why hast thou given me but one lot and one portion to inherit, seeing I am a ^wgreat people, forasmuch as the LORD hath blessed me hitherto?

15 And Joshua answered them, If ^xthou be a great people, then get thee up to the wood-country, and cut down for thyself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the ¶ giants, if mount Ephraim be too narrow for thee.

16 And the children of Joseph said, The hill is not enough for us: and all the Canaanites that dwell in the land of the valley have ^ychariots of iron, both they

CHAPTER XVIII.

The tabernacle is set up at Shiloh.

AND the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled together at ^a Shiloh, and set up the ^b tabernacle of the congregation there: and the land was subdued before them.

2 And there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes, which had not yet received their inheritance.

3 And Joshua said unto the children of Israel, ^c How long are ye slack to go to possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers hath given you?

4 Give out from among you three men for each tribe: and I will send them, and they shall rise, and [†] go through the land, and ^d describe it according to the inheritance of them, and they shall come again to me.

5 And they shall divide it into seven parts; ^e Judah shall abide in their coast on the ^f south, and the house of Joseph shall abide in their coasts on the north.

6 Ye shall therefore describe the land into seven parts, and bring the description hither to me, that I may cast lots for you here ^g before the LORD our God.

7 But the Levites have ^h no part among you; for the ⁱ priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance. And Gad, and Reuben, and half the tribe of Manasseh, have received their inheritance beyond Jordan on the east, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them.

8 ¶ And the men arose, and went away: and Joshua charged them that went to describe the land, saying, Go, and walk through the land, and describe it, and come again to me, that I may here cast lots for you before the LORD in Shiloh.

9 And the men went and passed through the land, and described it by cities into seven parts in a book, and came again to Joshua to the host ^{||} at Shiloh.

10 ¶ And Joshua ¹ cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD: and there Joshua divided the land unto the children of Israel according to their divisions.

11 ¶ And the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin ^m came up according to their families: and the coast of their lot came forth ⁿ between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph.

12 And their border on the north side was from Jordan; and the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north side, and went up through the mountains westward; and the goings out thereof were at the wilderness of ^o Beth-aven.

13 And the border went over from thence toward Luz, to the side of ^p Luz (which is Beth-el) southward; and the border descended to ^q Ataroth-adar, near the hill that lieth on the south side of the nether Beth-horon.

14 And the border was drawn thence, and compassed the corner of the sea southward, from the hill that lieth before Beth-horon southward; and the goings out thereof were at Kirjath-baal (which is Kirjath-jearim) a city of the children of Judah. This was the west quarter.

15 And the south quarter was from the end of Kirjath-jearim, and the border went out on the west, and went out to the well of waters of ^r Nephtoa: ^{r ch. 15, 28}

16 And the border came down to the end of the mountain that lieth before the valley of the son of Hinnom, and which is in the valley of the giants on the north, and descended to the valley of ^s Hinnom, to the side of Jebusi on the south, and descended to ^t En-rogel, ^{t ch. 15, 7}

17 And was drawn from the north, and went forth to ^u En-shemesh, and went forth toward ^x Geliloth, which is over against the going up of ^y Adummim, and descended to the stone of ^z Bohan the son of Reuben, ^{u ch. 15, 7} ^{x ch. 15, 7} ^{y ch. 15, 7} ^{z ch. 15, 6}

18 And passed along toward the side over against ^{||} Arabah northward, and went down unto Arabah: ^{|| Or, 7th plain.}

19 And the border passed along to the side of ^a Beth-hoglah northward: and the outgoings of the border were at the north bay [†] of the salt sea, at the south end of Jordan. This was the south coast. ^{a ch. 15, 6} ^{† Heb. tongue, ch. 15, 2}

20 And Jordan was the border of it on the east side. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, by the coasts thereof round about, according to their families. ^{|| Or, Emek kezi.} ^{b ch. 15, 6} ^{c Isa. 15, 6} ^{d Judg. 6, 11.} ^{e Sam. 13, 17.} ^{f Ezra 2, 26.} ^{g ch. 17, 17.} ^{h 1 Kings 3, 4.} ^{i Isa. 28, 21.} ^{j Hosea 5, 8.} ^{k ch. 9, 17.} ^{l Sam. 4, 2.} ^{m Ezra 2, 26.} ^{n ch. 11, 3.} ^{o Sam. 7, 3.} ^{p ch. 9, 17.} ^{q Ezek. 2, 26.} ^{r 2 Sam. 21, 14.} ^{s 2 Sam. 2, 8.} ^{t Acts 17, 26.}

21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families, were Jericho, and Beth-hoglah, and ^{||} the valley of Keziz,

22 And ^b Beth-arabah, and ^c Zemaraim, and Beth-el,

23 And Avim, and Parah, and ^d Ophrah,

24 And Chephar-haammonai, and Ophni, and ^e Gaba: twelve cities with their villages:

25 ^f Gibeon, and ^g Ramah, and ^h Beeroth,

26 And ⁱ Mizpeh, and ^k Chephirah, and Mozah,

27 And Rekem, and Irpeel, and Taralah,

28 And ^l Zelah, Eleph, and ^m Jebusi, (which is Jerusalem) Gibeath, and Kirjath; fourteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin ⁿ according to their families.

CHAPTER XIX.

The children of Israel give an inheritance to Joshua.

AND the second lot ^a came forth to Simeon, even for the tribe of the children of Simeon, according to their families: and their inheritance was ^b within the inheritance of the children of Judah. ^{a ch. 16, 1.} ^{b Gen. 49, 7.} ^{c Gen. 21, 14.} ^{d That is, Sheba, for it was but one city.} ^{e 1 Chr. 4, 20.} ^{f Neh. 11, 26.} ^{g ch. 15, 28.} ^{h 1 Chr. 4, 20.} ^{i Judges 1, 17.} ^{j 1 Sam. 27, 6.} ^{k 1 Chr. 4, 31.} ^{l 1 Chr. 4, 31.} ^{m Num. 34, 11.} ^{n ch. 15, 32.} ^{o ch. 15, 42.} ^{p ch. 15, 42.} ^{q 1 Chr. 4, 33.} ^{r 1 Sam. 30, 27.} ^{s 1 Tim. 6, 17.} ^{t Gen. 42, 12.}

2 And they had in their inheritance, ^c Beer-sheba, and ^{||} Sheba, and ^d Moladah,

3 And ^e Hazar-shual, and ^f Balah, and Azem,

4 And ^g Eltolad, and Bethul, and ^h Hormah,

5 And ⁱ Ziklag, and ^k Beth-marcaboth, and Hazar-susah,

6 And ^l Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuhin; thirteen cities and their villages:

7 ^m Ain, ⁿ Remmon, and ^o Ether, and ^p Ashan; four cities and their villages:

8 And all the villages that were round about these cities to ^q Baalath-beer, ^r Ramath of the south. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families.

9 Out of the portion of the children of Judah was the inheritance of the children of Simeon: for the part of the children of Judah was ^s too much for them: therefore the children of Simeon had their inheritance within the inheritance of them.

10 ¶ And the ^t third lot came up for the children of Zebulun according to their families: and the border of their inheritance was unto Sarid:

11 And their border went up toward the sea, and Maralah, and reached to Dabbasheth, and reached to the river that is before ^u Jokneam,

12 And turned from Sarid eastward, toward the sun-rising, unto the border of ^x Chisloth-tabor, and then goeth out to ^y Daberath, and goeth up to Japhia,

13 And from thence passeth on along on the east to Gittah-hepher, to Ittah-kazin, and goeth out to Remmon-methoarto Neah;

14 And the border compasseth it on the north side to Hannathon: and the outgoings thereof are in the valley of Jiphthah-el:

15 And Kattath, and ^z Nahallal, and ^a Shimron, and Idalah, and ^b Beth-lehem; twelve cities with their villages.

16 This is the inheritance of the children of Zebulun according to their families, these cities with their villages.

17 [†] And the fourth lot came out to Issachar, for the children of Issachar according to their families.

18 And their border was toward ^c Jezreel, and Chesulloth, and ^d Shunem,

19 And Haphraim, and Shihon, and Anaharath,

20 And Rabbith, and Kishion, and Abez,

21 And Remeth, and ^e En-gannim, and En-haddah, and Beth-pazzez;

22 And the coast reacheth to ^f Tabor, and Shazimamah, and ^g Beth-shemesh; and the out-goings of their border were at Jordan: sixteen cities with their villages.

23 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar according to their families, the cities and their villages.

24 [†] And the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families.

25 And their border was ^b Helkath, and Hali, and Beten, and Achshaph,

26 And Alammelech, and Amad, and ⁱ Misheal; and reacheth to ^k Carmel [†] westward, and to Shihor-libnath;

27 And turneth toward the sun-rising to Beth-dagon, and reacheth to Zebulun, and to the valley of Jiphthah-el, toward the north side of Beth-emek, and Neiel, and goeth out to ^l Cabul on the left hand,

28 And ^m Hebron, and Rehob, and Hammon, and ⁿ Kanah, even unto ^o great Zidon:

29 And then the coast turneth to Ramah, and to the strong city [†] Tyre; and the coast turneth to Hosah: and the out-goings thereof are at the sea from the coast to ^p Achzib:

30 Ummah also, and ^q Aphek, and Rehob: twenty and two cities with their villages.

31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages.

32 [†] The sixth lot came out to the children of Naphtali, even for the children of Naphtali according to their families.

33 And their coast was from Heleph, from Allon to Zaanannim, and Adami, Nekeb, and Jabneel, unto Lakum; and the ^r out-goings thereof were at Jordan:

34 And then the coast turneth westward to Aznoth-tabor, and goeth out from thence to Hukkok, and reacheth to Zebulun on the south side, and reacheth to Asher on the west side, and to Judah upon Jordan toward the sun-rising.

35 And the fenced cities are Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and ^s Cinneroth,

36 And Adamah, and Ramah, and Hazor,

37 And Kedesh, and ^t Edrei, and En-hazor,

38 And Iron, and Migdal-el, Horem, and Beth-anath, and Beth-shemesh; nineteen cities with their villages.

39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families, the cities and their villages.

40 [†] And the seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families.

41 And the coast of their inheritance was ^x Zorah, and Eshtaol, and Ir-shemesh,

42 And Shaalabbin, and ^y Ajalon, and Jethlah,

43 And Elon, and ^z Thimnathah, and Ekron,

44 And Eltekeh, and ^a Gibbethon, and Baalath,

45 And Jehud, and Bene-berak, and ^b Gath-rimmon,

46 And Me-jarkon, and Rakkon, with the border

[†] before Japho.

47 And the coast of the children of Dan, went out ^c too little for them: therefore the children of Dan went up to fight against ^d Leshem, and took it, and smote it with the [†] edge of the sword, and possessed it, and dwelt therein, and called Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan their father.

48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

49 [†] When they had made an end of dividing the land for inheritance by their coasts, the children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun [†] among them:

50 According to the [†] word of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked, even ^e Timnath-serah in mount Ephraim: and he built the city, and dwelt therein.

51 [†] These are the inheritances which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, divided for an inheritance by lot in Shiloh before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. So they made an end of dividing the country.

CHAPTER XX

1 God commandeth, 7 and the children of Israel appoint the six cities of refuge.

[†] THE ^a LORD also spake unto Joshua, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, Apportion out for you cities of refuge, whereof I spake unto you ^b by the hand of Moses:

3 That the slayer that killeth any person [†] unawares and unwittingly, may flee thither: and they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood.

4 And when he that doth flee unto one of those cities shall ^c stand at the entering of the gate of the city, and shall declare his cause in the ears of the elders of that city, they shall [†] take him into the city unto them, and give him a place, that he may dwell among them.

5 And if the avenger of blood pursue after him, then they shall not deliver the slayer up into his hand; because he smote his neighbour unwittingly, and hated him not beforetime.

6 And he shall dwell in that city, until he stand before the congregation for judgment, and ^d until the death of the high priest that shall be in those days: then shall the slayer return, and come unto his own city, and unto his own house, unto the city from whence he fled.

mount Naphtali, and [†] Shechem in mount Ephraim, and Kirjath-arba, (which is Hebron,) in the ^g mountain of Judah.

8 And on the other side Jordan by Jericho eastward, they assigned ^h Bezer in the wilderness upon the plain out of the tribe of Reuben, and ⁱ Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Manasseh.

9 These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them, that whosoever killeth any person at unawares might flee thither, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stood before the congregation.

CHAPTER XXI.

Eight and forty cities given unto the Levites.

THEN came near the ^a heads of the fathers of the Levites unto Eleazar the priest, and unto Joshua the son of Nun, and unto the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel;

2 And they spake unto them at ^b Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, The LORD commanded by the ^c hand of Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with the suburbs thereof for our cattle.

3 And the children of Israel, ^d gave unto the Levites out of their inheritance, at the [†] commandment of the LORD, these cities and their suburbs.

4 And the lot came out for the families of the ^e Kohathites: and the children of Aaron the priest, which were of the Levites, had ^f by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, ^g thirteen cities.

5 And the rest of the children of Kohath had by lot, out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, ^h ten cities.

6 And the children of Gershon had by lot, out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, ⁱ thirteen cities.

7 The children of Merari by their families had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, ^k twelve cities.

8 And the children of Israel gave by lot unto the Levites these cities with their ^{||} suburbs, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

9 [¶] And they gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, these cities which are here mentioned by name,

10 Which the children of Aaron, being of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Levi, had: for theirs was the first lot.

11 And they gave them the city of ^l Arba, the father of Anak (which city is Hebron) in the hill-country of Judah, with the suburbs thereof round about it.

12 But the ^m fields of the city, and the villages thereof, gave they to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for his possession.

13 [¶] Thus they gave to the children of Aaron the priest, Hebron with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and ⁿ Libnah with her suburbs,

14 And ^o Jattir with her suburbs, and ^p Eshtemoa with her suburbs,

15 And ^q Holon with her suburbs, and ^r Debir with her suburbs,

16 And ^s Ain with her suburbs, and ^t Juttah with her suburbs, and ^u Beth-shemesh with her suburbs; nine cities out of those two tribes.

17 And out of the tribe of Benjamin, ^x Gibeon with her suburbs, ^y Geba with her suburbs, 18 ^z Anathoth with her suburbs, and Almon with her suburbs; four cities.

19 All the cities of the children of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

20 [¶] And the families of the children of Kohath, the Levites which remained of the children of Kohath, even they had the cities of their lot out of the tribe of Ephraim.

21 For they gave them Shechem with her suburbs in mount Ephraim; to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and ^a Gezer with her suburbs, 22 And Kibzaim with her suburbs, and Beth-horon with her suburbs; four cities.

23 And out of the tribe of Dan, ^b Eltekeh with her suburbs, ^c Gibbethon with her suburbs, 24 ^d Aijalon with her suburbs, ^e Gath-rimmon with her suburbs; four cities.

25 And out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, ^f Taanach with her suburbs, and Gath-rimmon with her suburbs; two cities.

26 All the cities were ten with their suburbs, for the families of the children of Kohath that remained.

27 [¶] And unto the children of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, out of the other half-tribe of Manasseh they gave Golan in Bashan with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer, and Beesh-terah with her suburbs; two cities.

28 And out of the tribe of Issachar, ^g Kishon with her suburbs, ^h Dabareh with her suburbs, 29 ⁱ Jarmuth with her suburbs, ^k En-gannim with her suburbs; four cities.

30 And out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal with her suburbs, ^l Abdon with her suburbs, 31 ^m Helkath with her suburbs, and ⁿ Rehob with her suburbs; four cities.

32 And out of the tribe of Naphtali, ^o Kedesh in Galilee with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Hammoth-dor with her suburbs, and Kartan with her suburbs; three cities.

33 All the cities of the Gershonites, according to their families, were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

34 [¶] And unto the families of the children of Merari, the ^p rest of the Levites, out of the tribe of Zebulun, ^q Jokneam with her suburbs, and Kartah with her suburbs, 35 Dimnah with her suburbs, ^r Nahalal with her suburbs; four cities.

36 And out of the tribe of Reuben, ^s Bezer with her suburbs, and ^t Jahazah with her suburbs, 37 ^u Kedemoth with her suburbs, and ^x Mephaath with her suburbs; four cities.

38 And out of the tribe of Gad, ^y Ramoth in Gilead with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and ^z Mahanaim with her suburbs, 39 ^a Heshbon with her suburbs, ^b Jazer with her suburbs; four cities in all.

40 So all the cities for the children of Merari by their families, which were remaining of the families of the Levites, were by their lot twelve cities.

41 All the cities of the Levites ^c within the possession of the children of Israel were forty and eight cities with their suburbs.

42 These cities were every one with their suburbs round about them. Thus were all these cities.

44 And the LORD gave them rest round about, according to all that he swore unto their fathers: and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them; the ^e LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand.

45 ¶ There failed not aught of any good thing which the LORD had spoken unto the house of Israel; all came to pass.

CHAPTER XXII.

The two tribes and half with a blessing are sent home.

THEN ^a Joshua called the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh,

2 And said unto them, Ye have ^b kept all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you:

3 Ye have ^c not left your brethren these many days unto this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of the LORD your God.

4 And now the LORD your God hath given rest unto your brethren, as he promised them: therefore now return ye, and get you unto ^d your tents, and unto the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side Jordan.

5 But ^e take diligent heed to do the commandment and the law, which Moses the servant of the LORD charged you, to ^f love the LORD your God, and to walk in ^g all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to cleave unto him, and to serve him with all your heart, and with all your soul.

6 So Joshua ^h blessed them, and sent them away; and they went unto their tents.

7 ¶ Now to the one half of the tribe of Manasseh, Moses had given possession in Bashan: but unto the other half thereof gave Joshua among their brethren on this side Jordan westward. And when Joshua sent them away also unto their tents, then he blessed them,

8 And he spake unto them, saying, Return with much riches unto your tents, and with very much cattle, with silver, and with gold, and with brass, and with iron, and with very much raiment: ⁱ divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren.

9 ¶ And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go unto the country of ^k Gilead, to the land of their possession, whereof they were possessed, according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

10 ¶ And when they came unto ^l the borders of Jordan, that are in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh built there an ^m altar by Jordan, a great altar to see to.

11 ¶ And the children of Israel ⁿ heard say, Behold, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, have built an altar over against the land of Canaan, in the borders of Jordan, at the passage of the children of Israel.

12 And when the children of Israel heard of it, the whole congregation of the children of Israel ^o gathered themselves together at Shiloh, to go up to ^p war against them.

13 And the children of Israel ^q sent unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh into the land of Gilead, ^r Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, 14 And with him ten princes, of each chief house a prince throughout all the tribes of Israel; and each ^s one was a head of the house of their fathers among the thousands of Israel.

15 And they came unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, unto the land of Gilead, and they spake with them, saying,

16 Thus saith the ^t whole congregation of the LORD, What trespass is this that ye have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following the LORD, in that ye have builded you an altar, that ye might ^u rebel this day against the LORD?

17 Is the iniquity of ^v Peor too little for us, from which we are not cleansed until this day, although there was a plague in the congregation of the LORD,

18 But that ye must turn away this day from following the LORD? and it will be, seeing ye rebel to-day against the LORD, that ^w to-morrow he will be wroth with the ^x whole congregation of Israel.

19 Notwithstanding, if the land of your possession be unclean, then pass ye over unto the land of the possession of the LORD, wherein the LORD's tabernacle ^y dwelleth, and take possession among us: but rebel not against the LORD, nor rebel against us, in building you an altar besides the altar of the LORD our God.

20 Did not ^z Achan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the accursed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? and that man perished not alone in his iniquity.

21 ¶ Then the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh answered, and said unto the heads of the thousands of Israel,

22 The LORD ^a God of gods, the LORD God of gods, he ^b knoweth, and Israel he shall know; if it ^c be in ^d rebellion, or if in transgression against the LORD, (save us not this day,)

23 That we have built us an altar to turn from following the LORD, or if to offer thereon burnt-offering, or meat-offering, or if to offer peace-offerings thereon, let the LORD himself require it;

24 And if we have not rather done it ^e for fear of this thing, saying, ^f In time to come your children might speak unto our children, saying, What have ye to do with the LORD God of Israel?

25 For the LORD hath made Jordan a border between us and you, ye children of Reuben and children of Gad, ye have ^g no part in the LORD. So shall your children make our children cease from fearing the LORD.

26 Therefore we said, Let us now prepare to build us an altar, ^h not for burnt-offering, nor for sacrifice:

27 But that it may be ⁱ a witness between us, and you, and our generations after us, that we might do the service of the LORD before him with our burnt-offerings, and with our sacrifices, and with our peace-offerings; that your children may not say to our children in time to come, Ye have no part in the LORD.

28 Therefore said we, that it shall be, when they should so say to us or to our generations in time to come, that we may say again, Behold the pattern of the altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for burnt-offerings, nor for sacrifices; but it is a witness between us and you.

29 God forbid that we should rebel against the LORD, and turn this day from following the LORD, to build an altar for burnt-offerings, for meat-offerings, or for sacrifices, besides the altar of the LORD our God that is before his tabernacle.

30 ¶ And when Phinehas the priest, and the princes of the congregation, and heads of the thousands of Israel which were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the children of Manasseh spake, † it pleased them.

31 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasseh, This day we perceive that the LORD is ^b among us, because ye have not committed this trespass against the LORD: † now ye have delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the LORD.

32 ¶ And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, unto the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and ⁱ brought them word again.

33 And the thing pleased the children of Israel; and the children of Israel blessed God, and did not intend to go up against them in battle, to destroy the land wherein the children of Reuben and Gad dwelt.

34 And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad called the altar ¶ Ed: for it shall be a witness between us that ^k the LORD is God.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 Joshua's exhortation before his death, 3 by former benefits 5 by promises, 11 and by threatenings.

AND it came to pass, † a long time after that ^a the LORD had given rest unto Israel from all their enemies round about, that Joshua waxed old and stricken in age.

2 And Joshua ^b called for all Israel, and for their elders, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and said unto them, I am old and stricken in age:

3 And ye have ^c seen all that ^d the LORD your God hath done unto all these nations because of you; for the LORD your God is he that hath fought for you.

4 Behold, I have divided unto you by ^e lot these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even unto the great sea westward.

5 And the LORD your God, ^f he shall expel them from before you, and drive them from out of your sight; and ye shall possess their land, as the LORD your God hath promised unto you.

6 Be ye therefore ^g very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, that ye turn not aside therefrom to the ^h right hand or to the left;

7 That ye ⁱ come not among these nations, these that remain among you; neither ^k make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to ^l swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow yourselves unto them:

8 But ^m cleave unto the LORD your God, as ye have done unto this day.

9 For the LORD hath driven out from before you great nations and strong: but as for you, no man hath been able to stand before you unto this day.

10 ⁿ One man of you shall chase a thousand: for the LORD your God, he it is that fighteth for you, as he hath promised you.

11 Take good heed therefore unto yourselves, that ye love the LORD your God.

12 Else if ye do in any wise ^o go back, and cleave unto the remnant of these nations, even these that remain among you, and shall make marriages with them, and go in unto them, and they to you:

13 Know for a certainty that the LORD your God will no more drive out any of these nations from before you: but they shall be ^p snares and traps unto you, and scourges in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until ye perish from off this good land which the LORD your God hath given you.

14 And behold, this day I am ^q going the way of all the earth; and ye know in all your hearts, and in all your souls, that ^r not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spake concerning you; all are come to pass unto you, and not one thing hath failed thereof.

15 Therefore it shall come to pass, that as ^s all good things are come upon you, which the LORD your God promised you; so shall the LORD bring upon you ^t all evil things, until he have destroyed you from off this good land which the LORD your God hath given you.

16 When ye have transgressed the covenant of the LORD your God, which he commanded you, and have gone and served other gods, and bowed yourselves to them; then shall the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and ye shall perish quickly from off the good land which he hath given unto you.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Joshua assembleth the tribes at Shechem.... 14 He reneweth a covenant between them and God.

AND Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to ^a Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, and for their heads and for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented themselves before God.

2 And Joshua said unto ^b all the people, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Your fathers dwelt on the other side of the ^c flood in old time, even ^d Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor: and they ^e served other gods.

3 And ^f I took your father Abraham from the other side of the flood, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and ^g multiplied his seed, and ^h gave him Isaac.

4 And I gave unto Isaac ⁱ Jacob and Esau; and ^k I gave unto Esau mount Seir, to possess it; but ^l Jacob and his children went down into Egypt.

5 ^m I sent Moses also and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did among them: and afterward I brought you out.

6 And I ⁿ brought your fathers out of Egypt: and ye came unto the sea; and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and horsemen unto the ^o Red sea.

7 And when they cried unto the LORD, he ^p put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them, and covered them; and your eyes have seen what I have done in Egypt: and ye dwelt in the wilderness ^q a long season.

8 And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt on the other side Jordan; and they fought ^r with you: and I gave them into your hand, that ye might possess their land; and I destroyed them from before you.

13 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's^p younger brother, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife.

14 And it came to pass, when she came to him, that she moved him to ask of her father a field: and she lighted from off her ass; and Caleb said unto her, What wilt thou?

15 And she said unto him, Give me^q a blessing: for thou hast given me a south land; give me also springs of water. And Caleb gave her the upper springs, and the nether springs.

16 ¶ And the children of the^r Kenite, Moses' father-in-law, went up out of the city of palm-trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which lieth in the south of Arad; and they went and dwelt among the people.

17 And Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they slew the Canaanites that inhabited^s Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. And the name of the city was called^t Hormah.

18 Also Judah took^u Gaza with the coast thereof, and Askelon with the coast thereof, and Ekron with the coast thereof.

19 And^x the LORD was with Judah; and he drave out the inhabitants of the mountain; but^y could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had^z chariots of iron.

20 And they gave Hebron unto Caleb, as Moses said: and he expelled thence the^a three sons of Anak.

21 And the children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites^b that inhabited Jerusalem; but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem unto this day.

22 ¶ And the house of Joseph, they also went up against Beth-el: and^c the LORD was with them.

23 And the house of Joseph sent to^d descry Beth-el. Now the name of the city before was^e Luz.

24 And the spies saw a man come forth out of the city, and they said unto him, Shew us, we pray thee, the entrance into the city; and^f we will shew thee mercy.

25 And when he shewed them the entrance into the city, they smote the city with the edge of the sword: but they let go the man and all his family.

26 And the man went into the land of the^g Hittites, and built a city, and called the name thereof Luz: which is the name thereof unto this day.

27 ¶ Neither did Manasseh drive out the inhabitants of^h Beth-shean and her towns, norⁱ Taanach and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo and her towns: but the Canaanites^k would dwell in that land.

28 And it came to pass when Israel was strong, that they put the Canaanites to^l tribute, and^m did not utterly drive them out.

29 ¶ Neither did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites that dwelt inⁿ Gezer; but the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them.

30 Neither did Zebulun drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of^o Nahalol; but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and became tributaries.

31 ¶ Neither did^p Asher drive out the inhabitants of Accho, nor the inhabitants of^q Zidon, nor of Ahlab, nor of Achzib, nor of Helbah, nor of Aphik, nor of^r Rehob:

32 But the Asherites^r dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land: for they did not drive them out.

33 ¶ Neither did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of^s Beth-shemish, nor the inhabitants of Beth-anath; but he dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land: nevertheless, the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh and of Beth-anath became tributaries unto them.

34 And the Amorites forced the children of Dan into the mountain: for they would not suffer them to come down to the valley:

35 But the Amorites would dwell in^t mount Heres in Aijalon, and^u in Shaalvim: yet the hand of the house of Joseph^v prevailed, so that they became tributaries.

36 And the coast of the Amorites was from the going up to^x Akkrabbim, from the rock, and upward.

CHAPTER II.

1 An angel rebuketh the people at Bochim....20 The Canaanites are left to prove Israel.

AND an ¶ angel of the LORD came up from^a Gilgal to Bochim, and said, I made you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you unto the land which I^b sware unto your fathers; and I said, I will never break my covenant with you.

2 And ye shall make^c no league with the inhabitants of this land; ye shall^d throw down their altars: but ye have not obeyed my voice: why have ye done this?

3 Wherefore I also said,^e I will not drive them out from before you; but they shall be as thorns in your sides, and their^f gods shall be a snare unto you.

4 And it came to pass, when the angel of the LORD spake these words unto all the children of Israel, that the people^g lifted up their voice, and wept.

5 And they called the name of that place ¶ Bochim: and they sacrificed there unto the LORD.

6 ¶ And when Joshua hadⁱ let the people go, the children of Israel went every man unto his inheritance to possess the land.

7 And the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works of the LORD, that he did for Israel.

8 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being a hundred and ten years old.

9 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in^k Timnath-heres, in the mount of Ephraim; on the north side of the hill Gaash.

10 And also all that generation were^l gathered unto their fathers; and there arose another generation after them, which^m knew not the LORD, nor yet theⁿ works which he had done for Israel.

11 ¶ And the children of Israel did evil in the^o sight of the LORD, and served Baalim:

12 And they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed^p other gods, of the gods of the people that were round about them, and^q bowed themselves unto them, and provoked the LORD to anger.

13 And they forsook the LORD, and served Baal and Ashtaroth.

hands of their enemies round about, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies.

15 ^t Whithersoever they went out, the ^u hand of the LORD was against them for evil, ^x as the LORD had said, and as the LORD had sworn unto them: and they were greatly distressed.

16 ^y Nevertheless, the LORD ^z raised up judges, which delivered them out of the hand of those that spoiled them.

17 And yet they would ^a not hearken unto their judges, but they went ^a a whoring after other gods, and bowed themselves unto them; they turned quickly out of the way which their fathers walked in, obeying the commandments of the LORD; but they did not so.

18 And when the LORD raised them up judges, then ^b the LORD was with the judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge: for it ^c repented the LORD because of their ^d groanings by reason of them that oppressed them and vexed them.

19 And it came to pass, when the judge was ^e dead, that they returned, and corrupted themselves more than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down unto them; they ceased not from their own doings, nor from their ^f stubborn way.

20 ^g And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he said, Because that this people hath transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not hearkened unto my voice;

21 I also will ^h not henceforth drive out any from before them of the nations which Joshua ⁱ left when he died:

22 That through them I may ^j prove Israel, whether they will keep the way of the LORD to walk therein, as their fathers did keep it, or not.

23 Therefore the LORD left those nations, without driving them out hastily, neither delivered he them into the hand of Joshua.

CHAPTER III.

1 The nations which were left to prove Israel... 5 By communion with them, they commit idolatry.

NOW these are the nations which the LORD left, to ^a prove Israel by them, (even as many of Israel as had not known all the wars of Canaan;

2 Only that the generations of the children of Israel might know ^b to teach them war, at the least such as before ^c knew nothing thereof:)

3 Namely, ^d five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites that dwelt in ^e mount Lebanon, from mount ^f Baalhermon unto the entering in of Hamath.

4 And they were to prove Israel by them, ^g to know whether they would hearken unto the commandments of the LORD, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

5 ^h And the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, Hittites, and Amorites, and Perizzites, and Hivites, and Jebusites:

6 And they ⁱ took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons, and ^j served their gods.

7 And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and forgot the LORD their God, and served Baalim, and the groves.

8 ^k Therefore the anger of the LORD was ^l hot against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Chushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia; and the children of Israel served Chushan-rishathaim ^m eight years.

9 And ⁿ when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, the LORD raised up a ^o deliverer to the children of Israel, who delivered them, even ^p Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.

10 And the spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel, and went out to war: and the LORD delivered Chushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia into his hand; and his hand prevailed against Chushan-rishathaim.

11 And the land had ^q rest forty years: and Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

12 ^r And the children of Israel did ^s evil again in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD ^t strengthened Eglon the king of Moab against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of the LORD.

13 And he gathered unto him the children of ^u Ammon and Amalek, and went and smote Israel, and possessed the ^v city of ^w palm-trees.

14 So the children of Israel ^x served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years.

15 But when the children of Israel ^y cried unto the LORD, the LORD raised them up a deliverer, Ehud the son of Gera, a Benjamite, a man left-handed: and by him the children of Israel sent a present unto Eglon the king of Moab.

16 But Ehud made him a dagger which had ^z two edges, of a cubit length: and he did gird it under his raiment upon his right thigh.

17 And he brought the present unto Eglon king of Moab: and Eglon was a very fat man.

18 And when he had made an end to offer the present, he sent away the people that bare the present.

19 But he himself turned again from the ^{aa} quarries that were by Gilgal, and said, I have a secret errand unto thee, O king: who said, Keep silence. And all that stood by him went out from him.

20 And Ehud came unto him; and he was sitting in a summer-parlour, which he had for himself alone; and Ehud said, I have ^{ab} a message from God unto thee. And he ^{ac} arose out of his seat.

21 And Ehud put forth his ^{ad} left hand, and took the dagger from his right thigh, and ^{ae} thrust it into his belly.

22 And the haft also went in after the blade: and the fat closed upon the blade, so that he could not draw the dagger out of his belly; and the ^{af} dirt came out.

23 Then Ehud went forth through the porch, and shut the doors of the parlour upon him, and locked them.

24 When he was gone out, his servants came; and when they saw that, behold, the doors of the parlour were locked, they said, Surely he ^{ag} covereth his feet in his summer-chamber.

25 And they tarried till they were ashamed: and behold, he opened not the doors of the parlour, therefore they took a key and opened them: and behold, their lord was fallen down dead on the earth.

26 And Ehud escaped while they tarried; and passed beyond the quarries, and escaped unto Seirath.

27 And it came to pass when he was come, that he ^{ah} blew a trumpet in the ^{ai} mountain of Ephraim, and the children of Israel went down with him from the mount, and he before them.

28 And he said unto them, Follow after me: for the ^{aj} LORD hath delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand. And they went down after him, and took the ^{ak} fords of Jordan toward Moab, and suffered not a man to pass over.

31 ¶ And after him was ^e Shamgar the son of Anath, which slew of the Philistines six hundred men with an ^f ox-goad; and he also delivered Israel.

CHAPTER IV.

4, 6 Deborah and Barak deliver Israel from Jabin and Sisera.

AND the children of Israel ^a again did evil in the sight of the LORD when Ehud was dead.

2 And the LORD ^b sold them into the hand of ^c Jabin king of Canaan, that reigned in ^d Hazor, the captain of whose host was Sisera, which dwelt in ^e Harosheth of the Gentiles.

3 And the children of Israel cried unto the LORD; for he had nine hundred chariots of iron; and ^f twenty years he mightily oppressed the children of Israel.

4 And ^g Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, she judged Israel at that time.

5 And she dwelt under the palm-tree of Deborah, between Ramah and Beth-el in mount Ephraim: and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment.

6 And she sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam out of ^b Kedesh-naphtali, and said unto him, ⁱ Hath not the LORD God of Israel commanded, saying, ^k Go, and draw toward ^l mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali, and of the children of Zebulun;

7 And ^m I will draw unto thee, to the river ⁿ Kishon, Sisera the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into thy hand?

8 And Barak said unto her, ^o If thou wilt go with me, then I will go: but if thou wilt not go with me, then I will not go.

9 And she said, I will surely go with thee: notwithstanding the journey that thou takest shall not be for thine honour; for the LORD shall ^p sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh.

10 ¶ And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh; and he went up with ten thousand men ^q at his feet: and Deborah went up with him.

11 Now Heber the ^r Kenite, which was of the children of ^s Hobab the father-in-law of Moses, had severed himself from the ^t Kenites, and pitched his tent unto the plain of Zaanaim, which is by Kedesh.

12 And they shewed Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam was gone up to mount Tabor.

13 And Sisera [†] gathered together all his chariots, even nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people that were with him, from Harosheth of the Gentiles unto the river of Kishon.

14 And Deborah said unto Barak, Up; for this is the day in which the LORD hath delivered Sisera into thy hand: is not the LORD ^u gone out before thee? So Barak went down from mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him.

15 And the LORD ^v discomfited Sisera, and all his chariots, and all his host, with the [†] edge of the sword, before Barak; so that Sisera lighted down off his chariot, and fled away on his feet.

16 But Barak pursued after the chariots, and after the host, unto Harosheth of the Gentiles: and all the host of Sisera fell upon the edge of the sword; and there was not [†] a man left.

17 Howbeit, Sisera fled away on his feet to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite: for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.

18 ¶ And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said unto him, Turn in, my lord, turn in to me; fear not. And when he had turned in unto her into the tent, she covered him with a mantle.

19 And he said unto her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water to drink; for I am thirsty. And she opened a ^x bottle of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him.

20 Again he said unto her, stand in the door of the tent, and it shall be, when any man doth come and inquire of thee, and say, Is there any man here? that thou shalt say, ^y No.

21 Then Jael Heber's wife took ^z a nail of the tent, and took a hammer in her hand, and went softly unto him, and smote the nail into his temples, and fastened it into the ground: for he was fast asleep, and weary. So he died.

22 And behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said unto him, Come, and I will shew thee the man whom thou seekest. And when he came into her tent, behold, Sisera lay dead, and the nail was in his temples.

23 So ^a God subdued on that day Jabin the king of Canaan before the children of Israel.

24 And the hand of the children of Israel [†] prospered, and prevailed against Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of ^b Canaan.

CHAPTER V.

The song of Deborah and Barak.

THEN ^a sang Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam on that day, saying,

2 Praise ye the LORD, for the ^b avenging of Israel, when the ^c people ^d willingly offered themselves.

3 ^e Hear, O ye kings; give ear, O ye princes; I, even I, will sing unto the LORD; I will sing praise to the LORD God of Israel.

4 LORD, when thou ^f wentest out of Seir, when thou marchedst out of the field of Edom, the ^g earth trembled, and the ^h heavens dropped, the clouds also dropped water.

5 The mountains melted from before the LORD, even that Sinai from before the LORD God of Israel.

6 In the days of ⁱ Shamgar the son of Anath, in the days of Jael, the ^k highways were unoccupied, and the travellers walked through by-ways.

7 The inhabitants of the ^l villages ceased, they ceased in Israel, until that I Deborah arose, that I arose a ^m mother in Israel.

8 They chose ⁿ new gods; then was war in the gates: was there ^o a shield or spear seen among forty thousand in Israel?

9 My heart is toward the governors of Israel that offered themselves ^p willingly among the people: Bless ye the LORD.

10 ^q Speak, ye that ride on ^r white asses, ye that ^s sit in judgment, and walk by the way.

11 They that are delivered from ^t the noise of archers in the places of drawing water, there shall they rehearse the righteous acts of the LORD, even the righteous acts toward the inhabitants of his villages in Israel: then shall the people of the LORD go down to the gates

13 Then he made him that remaineth have ^y dominion over the nobles among the people: the LORD made me have dominion over the mighty.

14 Out of Ephraim was there a root of them against Amalek; ^z after thee, Benjamin, among thy people; out of Machir came down governors, and out of Zebulun they that handle the pen of the writer.

15 And the princes of Issachar were with Deborah; even Issachar, and also Barak: he was sent on [†] foot into the valley. || For the divisions of Reuben [†] there were great thoughts of heart.

16 Why abodest thou among the sheep-folds, to hear the ^a bleatings of the flocks? For the divisions of Reuben there were great searchings of heart.

17 Gilead abode beyond Jordan: and why did Dan remain in ships? Asher continued on the sea-shore, and abode in his breaches.

18 Zebulun and Naphtali were a people that ^b jeoparded their lives unto the death in the high places of the field.

19 The ^c kings came and fought, then fought the kings of Canaan in Taanach by the waters of Megiddo; they took no gain of money.

20 They ^d fought from heaven; the stars in their courses fought against Sisera.

21 The river of Kishon swept them away, that ancient river, the river Kishon. O my soul, thou hast trodden down strength.

22 Then were the ^e horse-hoofs broken by the means of the prancings, the prancings of their mighty ones.

23 Curse ye Meroz, said the angel of the LORD, curse ye bitterly the inhabitants thereof; because they came not to the ^f help of the LORD, to the help of the LORD against the mighty.

24 ^g Blessed above women shall Jacl the wife of Heber the Kenite be, blessed shall she be above women in the ^h tent.

25 He asked water, and she gave him milk; she brought forth butter in a lordly dish.

26 She put her hand to the nail, and her right hand to the workman's hammer; and with the hammer she smote Sisera, she [†] smote off his head, when she had pierced and stricken through his temples.

27 At her feet he bowed, he fell, he lay down: at her feet he bowed, he fell: where he bowed, there he fell down ⁱ dead.

28 The mother of Sisera looked out at a window, and cried through the lattice, Why is his chariot so long in coming? why tarry the wheels of his chariots?

29 Her wise ladies answered her, yea, she returned answer to herself.

30 Have they not sped? have they not divided the prey; to every man a damsel or two; to Sisera a prey of divers colours, a prey of divers colours of needle-work, of divers colours of needle-work on both sides, meet for the necks of them that take the spoil?

31 ^k So let all thine enemies perish, O LORD: but let them that ^l love him be as the ^m sun when he goeth forth in his might. And the land had rest forty years.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The Israelites for their sin are oppressed by Midian.... 31 Joash defendeth his son, and calleth him Jemibbaal.

AND the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD delivered them into the hand of ^a Midian seven years.

2 And the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel: and because of the Midianites the children of Israel made them the ^b dens which are in the mountains, and caves, and strong holds.

3 And so it was, when Israel had sown, that the Midianites came up, and the ^c Amalekites, and the ^d children of the east, even they came up against them:

4 And they encamped against them, and ^e destroyed the increase of the earth, till thou come unto ^f Gaza; and left no sustenance for Israel, neither sheep, nor ox, nor ass.

5 For they came up with their cattle and their ^g tents, and they came ^h as grasshoppers for multitude: for both they and their camels were [†] without number: and they entered into the land to destroy it.

6 And Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites; and the children of Israel ⁱ cried unto the LORD.

7 [†] And it came to pass, when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD because of the Midianites,

8 That the LORD sent [†] a prophet unto the children of Israel, which said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you forth out of the house of bondage;

9 And I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and ^k drave them out from before you, and gave you their land;

10 And I said unto you, I am the LORD your God; fear not the ^l gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but ye have not obeyed my voice.

11 [†] And there came an ^m angel of the LORD, and sat under an oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained unto Joash the ⁿ Abi-ezrite: and his son Gideon threshed wheat by the wine-press, to [†] hide it from the Midianites.

12 And the angel of the LORD appeared unto him, and said unto him, The LORD is ^o with thee, thou mighty man of valour.

13 And Gideon said unto him, ^p O my LORD, if the LORD be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and ^q where be all his miracles which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt? but now the LORD hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites.

14 And the LORD ^r looked upon him, and said, Go in this thy might, and thou shalt save Israel from the hand of the Midianites: ^s have not I sent thee?

15 And he said unto him, O my LORD, ^t where-with shall I save Israel? behold, my [†] family is poor in Manasseh, and I am the ^u least in my father's house.

16 And the LORD said unto him, Surely I will be ^x with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites as one man.

17 And he said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, then ^y shew me a sign that thou talkest with me.

18 Depart not hence, I pray thee, until I come unto thee, and bring forth my ^z present, and set it before thee. And he said, I will tarry until thou come again.

19 And Gideon went in, and made ready a kid, and unleavened cakes of an ephah of flour: the flesh he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out unto him under the oak, and presented it.

20 And the angel of God said unto him, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and lay them upon this rock, and ^a pour out the broth. And he did so.

end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and there rose up ^b fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes. Then the angel of the LORD departed out of his sight.

22 And when Gideon perceived that he was an angel of the LORD, Gideon said, Alas, O Lord God! for ^c because I have seen an angel of the LORD ^d face to face.

23 And the LORD said unto him, ^e Peace be unto thee; fear not: thou shalt not die.

24 Then Gideon built an altar there unto the LORD, and called it Jehovah-shalom: unto this day it is yet in Ophrah of the Abi-ezrites.

25 ¶ And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said unto him, Take thy ^f father's young bullock, even the second bullock of seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut down the grove that is by it:

26 And build an altar unto the LORD thy God upon the top of this rock, in the ordered place, and take the second bullock, and offer a burnt-sacrifice with the wood of the grove which thou shalt cut down.

27 Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and ^g did as the LORD had said unto him: and so it was, because he feared his father's household, and the men of the city, that he could not do it by day, that he did it by ^h night.

28 ¶ And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was cast down, and the grove was cut down that was by it, and the second bullock was offered upon the altar that was built.

29 And they said one to another, Who hath done this thing? And when they inquired and asked, they said, Gideon the son of Joash hath done this thing.

30 Then the men of the city said unto Joash, Bring out thy son, that he may ⁱ die: because he hath cast down the altar of Baal, and because he hath cut down the grove that was by it.

31 And Joash said unto all that stood against him, Will ye ^k plead for Baal? will ye save him? he that will plead for him, let him be put ^l to death whilst it is yet morning: if he be a god, let him plead for himself, because one hath cast down his altar.

32 Therefore on that day he called him ¶ Jerubbaal, saying, Let Baal plead against him, because he hath thrown down his altar.

33 Then all the Midianites, and the Amalekites, and the children of the east were gathered together, ^m and went over, and pitched in the ⁿ valley of Jezreel.

34 But the Spirit of the LORD ^o came upon Gideon, and he ^o blew a trumpet; and Abi-ezer ^o was gathered after him.

35 And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh; who also was gathered after him: and he sent messengers unto Asher, and unto Zebulun, and unto Naphtali; and they came up to meet them.

36 ¶ And Gideon said unto God, ^p If thou wilt save Israel by my hand, as thou hast said, 37 Behold, I will put a fleece of wool in the floor: and if the ^q dew be on the ^r fleece only, and it be dry upon all the earth besides, then shall I know that thou wilt save Israel by my hand, as thou hast said.

38 And it was so; for he rose up early on the morning, and thrust the fleece together, and wringed the dew out of the fleece, a bowl-full of water.

39 And Gideon said unto God, ^s Let not thine anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once: Let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece; let it now be dry ^t only upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew.

40 And God did so that night: for it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

CHAPTER VII.

1, 7 Gideon's army of two and thirty thousand is brought to three hundred.

THEN ^a Jerubbaal (who is Gideon) and all the people that were with him, rose up early and pitched beside the well of [†] Harod: so that the host of the Midianites were on the north side of them by the hill of Moreh, in the valley.

2 And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people that are with thee are ^b too many for me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel vaunt themselves against me, saying, ^c Mine own hand hath saved me.

3 Now therefore go to, proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, ^d Whosoever is fearful and afraid, let him return and [†] depart early from mount Gilead. And there returned of the people twenty and two thousand; and there remained ten thousand.

4 And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people are yet too many; bring them down unto the water, and I will [†] try them for thee there; and it shall be that of ^e whom I say unto thee, this shall go with thee, the same shall go with thee; and of whomsoever I say unto thee, This shall not go with thee, the same shall not go.

5 So he brought down the people unto the water: and the LORD said unto Gideon, Every one that [†] lapped of the water with his tongue as a dog lappeth, him shalt thou set by himself; likewise every one that boweth down upon his knees to drink.

6 And the number of them that lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, were three hundred men: but all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink water.

7 And the LORD said unto Gideon, ^g By the three hundred men that lapped will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into thy hand: and let all the other people go every man unto his place.

8 So the people took victuals in their hand, and their ^h trumpets: and he sent all the rest of Israel every man unto his tent, and retained those three hundred men. And the host of Midian was beneath him in the valley.

9 ¶ And it came to pass the same ⁱ night, that the LORD said unto him, Arise, get thee down unto the host, for I have delivered it into thy hand.

10 But if thou fear to go down, go thou with Phurah thy servant down to the host:

11 And thou shalt ^k hear what they say; and afterward shall thy ^l hands be strengthened to go down unto the host. Then went he down with Phurah his servant unto the outside of the [†] armed men that were in the host.

12 And the ^m Midianites, and the Amalekites, and all the children of the east, lay along in the valley like grasshoppers for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the ⁿ sand [†] by the sea-side for multitude.

13 And when Gideon was come, behold, there was a man that told a dream unto his fellow, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and lo, ^o a cake of barley-bread tumbled into the host of Midian, and came unto a tent, and smote it that it fell, and overturned it that the tent lay along.

14 And his fellow answered, and said, ^r This is nothing else save the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel: ^s for into his hand hath God delivered Midian, and all the host.

15 ^t And it was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and the [†] interpretation thereof, that he worshipped, and returned into the host of Israel, and said, ^u Arise: for the LORD hath delivered into your hand the host of Midian.

16 And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a trumpet in every man's hand, with ^v empty pitchers, and ^w lamps within the pitchers.

17 And he said unto them, Look on me, and do likewise: and behold, when I come to the outside of the camp, it shall be ^x that as I do, so shall ye do.

18 When I blow with a trumpet, I and all that ^y are with me, then blow ye the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, and say, ^z The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon.

19 [†] So Gideon, and the hundred men that [†] were with him, came unto the outside of the camp in the beginning of the [†] middle watch; and they had but newly set the watch: and they blew the trumpets, and [†] brake the pitchers that [†] were in their hands.

20 And the three companies blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers, and held the lamps in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands to blow [†] withal: and they cried, The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon.

21 And they [†] stood every man in his place round about the camp; and all the [†] host ran, and cried, and fled.

22 And the three hundred blew the trumpets, and the [†] LORD set every man's sword against his fellow, even throughout all the host: and the host fled to Beth-shittah in Zererath, and to the border of [†] Abel-meholah, unto Tabbath.

23 And the men of Israel [†] gathered themselves together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, and pursued after the Midianites.

24 [†] And Gideon sent messengers throughout all [†] mount Ephraim, saying, Come down against the Midianites, and take before them the [†] waters unto Beth-barah and Jordan. Then all the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and took the waters unto [†] Beth-barah and Jordan.

25 And they took [†] two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb; and they slew Oreb upon the [†] rock Oreb, and Zeeb they slew at the [†] wine-press of Zeeb, and pursued Midian, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other [†] side Jordan.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Gideon pacifieth the Ephraimites....4 Succoth and Penuel refuse to relieve Gideon's army.

AND the men of Ephraim said unto him, Why hast thou served us thus, that thou calledst us not when thou wentest to fight with the Midianites? and they did chide with him [†] sharply.

2 And he said unto them, What have I done now [†] in comparison of you? [†] Is not the gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer?

3 [†] God hath delivered into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparison of you? Then their anger was abated toward him, when he had said that.

4 And Gideon came to Jordan, and passed over, he, and the three hundred men that [†] were with him, faint, yet pursuing [†] them.

5 And he said unto the men of [†] Succoth, Give, I pray you, [†] loaves of bread unto the people that follow me: for they [†] be faint, and I am [†] pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian.

6 [†] And the princes of Succoth said, [†] Are the [†] hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thy hand, that we should [†] give bread unto thine army?

7 And Gideon said, Therefore when the LORD hath delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers.

8 And he went up thence to [†] Penuel, and spake unto them likewise: and the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered [†] him.

9 And he spake also unto the men of Penuel, saying, When I come again [†] in peace, I will break down [†] this tower.

10 [†] Now Zebah and Zalmunna [†] were in Karkor, and their hosts with them, about fifteen thousand [†] men, all that were left of all the hosts of the children of the east: for there fell [†] a hundred and twenty thousand [†] men that drew sword.

11 [†] And Gideon went up by the way of them that dwelt in tents on the east of [†] Nobah and Jogbehah, and smote the host: for the host was [†] secure.

12 And when Zebah and Zalmunna [†] fled, he pursued after them, and took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and discomfited all the host.

13 [†] And Gideon the son of Joash returned from battle [†] before the sun [†] was up,

14 And caught a young man of the men of Succoth, and inquired of him: and he described unto him the princes of Succoth, and the elders thereof, [†] even threescore and seventeen men.

15 And he came unto the men of Succoth, and said, Behold, Zebah and Zalmunna, with whom ye did upbraid me, saying, [†] Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thy hand, that we should give bread unto thy men [†] that are weary?

16 And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness, and briers, and with them he [†] taught the men of Succoth.

17 And he beat down the tower of Penuel, and slew the [†] men of the city.

18 [†] Then said he unto Zebah and Zalmunna, What manner of men [†] were they whom ye slew at [†] Tabor? And they answered, [†] As thou [†] art, so [†] were they; each one resembled the children of a king.

19 And he said, They [†] were my brethren, [†] even the sons of my mother: [†] as the LORD liveth, if ye had saved them alive, I would not slay you.

20 And he said unto Jether his first-born, [†] Up, and slay them. But the youth drew not his sword: for he feared, because he [†] was yet a youth.

21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, [†] Rise thou, and fall upon us: for as the man [†] is, so [†] is his strength. And Gideon arose, and [†] slew Zebah and Zalmunna, and took away the ornaments that [†] were on their camels' necks.

22 [†] Then the men of Israel said unto Gideon, [†] Rule thou over us, both thou, and thy son, and thy son's son also: for thou hast delivered us from the hand of Midian.

23 And Gideon said unto them, [†] I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you: [†] the LORD shall rule over you.

24 And Gideon said unto them, I would desire a request of you, that you would give me every man the ear-rings of his prey. (For they had golden ear-rings, because they were Ishmaelites.)

25 And they answered, We will willingly give them. And they spread a garment, and did cast therein every man the ear-rings of his prey.

26 And the weight of the golden ear-rings that he requested, was a thousand and seven hundred shekels of gold; besides ornaments, and collars, and purple raiment that was on the kings of Midian, and besides the chains that were about their camels' necks.

27 And Gideon made an ephod thereof, and put it in his city, even in Ophrah: and all Israel went thither a whoring after it: which thing became a snare unto Gideon, and to his house.

28 Thus was Midian subdued before the children of Israel, so that they lifted up their heads no more. And the country was in quietness forty years in the days of Gideon.

29 ¶ And Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and dwelt in his own house.

30 And Gideon had threescore and ten sons of his body begotten: for he had many wives.

31 And his concubine that was in Shechem, she also bare him a son, whose name he called Abimelech.

32 ¶ And Gideon the son of Joash died in a good old age, and was buried in the sepulchre of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

33 And it came to pass as soon as Gideon was dead, that the children of Israel turned again, and went a whoring after Baalim, and made Baal-berith their god.

34 And the children of Israel remembered not the LORD their God, who had delivered them out of the hands of all their enemies on every side:

35 Neither shewed they kindness to the house of Jerubbaal, namely, Gideon, according to all the goodness which he had shewed unto Israel.

CHAPTER IX.

Abimelech by conspiracy with the Shechemites, and murder of his brethren, is made king.

AND Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem unto his mother's brethren, and communed with them, and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying,

2 Speak, I pray you, in the ears of all the men of Shechem, Whether is better for you, either that all the sons of Jerubbaal, which are threescore and ten persons, reign over you, or that one reign over you? remember also that I am your bone and your flesh.

3 And his mother's brethren spake of him in the ears of all the men of Shechem all these words: and their hearts inclined to follow Abimelech; for they said, He is our brother.

4 And they gave him threescore and ten pieces of silver out of the house of Baal-berith, wherewith Abimelech hired vain and light persons, which followed him.

5 And he went unto his father's house at Ophrah, and slew his brethren, the sons of Jerubbaal, being threescore and ten persons, upon one stone: notwithstanding, yet Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left; for he hid himself.

6 And all the men of Shechem gathered together, and all the house of Millo, and went and made Abimelech king, by the plain of the pillar that was in Shechem.

7 ¶ And when they told it to Jotham, he went and stood in the top of mount Gerizim, and lifted up his voice, and cried, and said unto them, Hearken unto me, ye men of Shechem, that God may hearken unto you.

8 The trees went forth on a time to anoint a king over them; and they said unto the olive-tree, Reign thou over us.

9 But the olive-tree said unto them, Should I leave my fatness, wherewith by me they honour God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees?

10 And the trees said to the fig-tree, Come thou, and reign over us.

11 But the fig-tree said unto them, Should I forsake my sweetness, and my good fruit, and go to be promoted over the trees?

12 Then said the trees unto the vine, Come thou, and reign over us.

13 And the vine said unto them, Should I leave my wine, which cheereth God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees?

14 Then said all the trees unto the bramble, Come thou, and reign over us.

15 And the bramble said unto the trees, If in truth ye anoint me king over you, then come and put your trust in my shadow: and if not, let fire come out of the bramble, and devour the cedars of Lebanon.

16 Now therefore, if ye have done truly and sincerely, in that ye have made Abimelech king, and if ye have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have done unto him according to the deserving of his hands:

17 (For my father fought for you, and adventured his life for you, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian:

18 And ye are risen up against my father's house this day, and have slain his sons, threescore and ten persons, upon one stone, and have made Abimelech, the son of his maid-servant, king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother:)

19 If ye then have dealt truly and sincerely with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, then rejoice ye in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you:

20 But if not, let fire come out from Abimelech, and devour the men of Shechem, and the house of Millo; and let fire come out from the men of Shechem, and from the house of Millo, and devour Abimelech.

21 And Jotham ran away, and fled, and went to Beer, and dwelt there, for fear of Abimelech his brother.

22 ¶ When Abimelech had reigned three years over Israel,

23 Then God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech:

24 That the cruelty done to the threescore and ten sons of Jerubbaal might come, and their blood be laid upon Abimelech their brother which slew them, and upon the men of Shechem which aided him in the killing of his brethren.

25 And the men of Shechem set liers in wait for him in the top of the mountains, and they robbed all that came along that way by them; and it was told Abimelech.

26 And Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brethren, and went over to Shechem: and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him.

27 And they went out into the fields, and gathered their vineyards, and trode the grapes, and made merry, and went into the house of their god, and did eat and drink, and cursed Abimelech.

28 And Gaal the son of Ebed said, ^a Who is Abimelech, and who is ^e Shechem, that we should serve him? Is not he the son of Jerubbaal? and Zebul his officer? Serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem: for why should we serve him?

29 And ^e would to God this people were under my hand! ^b then would I remove Abimelech. And he said to Abimelech, Increase thine army, and come out.

30 ¶ And when Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was kindled.

31 And he sent messengers unto Abimelech [†]privily, saying, Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed, and his brethren, be come to Shechem; and behold, they fortify the city against thee.

32 Now therefore up by night, thou, and the people that is with thee, and lie in wait in the field:

33 And it shall be, that in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, thou shalt rise early, and set upon the city: and behold, when he and the people that is with him come out against thee, then mayest thou do to them [†] as thou shalt find occasion.

34 ¶ And Abimelech rose up, and all the people that were with him, by night, and they laid wait against Shechem in four [†] companies.

35 And Gaal the son of Ebed went out, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and Abimelech rose up, and the people that were with him, from lying in wait.

36 And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, Behold, there come people down from the top of the mountains. And Zebul said unto him, Thou ⁱ seest the shadow of the mountains as if they were men.

37 And Gaal spake again, and said, See, there come people down by the [†] middle of the land, and another company come along by the plain of || Meonenim.

38 Then said Zebul unto him, ^k Where is now thy mouth, wherewith thou saidst, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? Is not this the people that thou hast despised? go out, I pray now, and fight with them.

39 And Gaal went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.

40 And Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him, and many were overthrown and wounded, even unto the entering of the gate.

41 And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul ^l thrust out Gaal and his brethren, that they should not dwell in Shechem.

42 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people went out into the field; and they told Abimelech.

43 And he took the people, and divided them into three companies, and laid wait in the field, and looked, and behold, the people were come forth out of the city; and he rose up against them, and smote them.

44 And Abimelech, and the [†] company that was with him, rushed forward, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and the two other companies ran upon all the people that were in the fields, and slew them.

45 And Abimelech fought against the city all that day; and he ^m took the city, and slew the people that was therein, and beat down the city, and ⁿ sowed it with salt.

46 ¶ And when all the men of the tower of Shechem heard that, they entered into a hold of the house of the ^o god Berith.

X

47 And it was told Abimelech, that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together.

48 And Abimelech gat him up to mount ^p Zalmon, he and all the people that were with him; and Abimelech took an axe in his hand, and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it, and laid it on his shoulder, and said unto the people that were with him, What ye have seen [†] me do, make haste, and do as I have done.

49 And all the people likewise cut down every man his bough, and followed Abimelech, and put them to the hold, and set the hold on fire upon them: so that all the men of the tower of Shechem died also, about a thousand men and women.

50 ¶ Then went Abimelech to ^q Thebez, and encamped against Thebez, and took it.

51 But there was a strong tower within the city, and thither fled all the men and women, and all they of the city, and shut it to them, and gat them up to the top of the tower.

52 And Abimelech came unto the tower, and fought against it, and went hard unto the door of the tower to burn it with fire.

53 And a certain ^r woman cast a piece of a ^s millstone upon Abimelech's head, and all to break his skull.

54 Then he called hastily unto the young man his ^t armour-bearer, and said unto him, Draw thy sword, and slay me, that ^u men say not of me, A woman slew him. And his young man thrust him through, and he died.

55 And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed every man unto his place.

56 ¶ ^x Thus God rendered the wickedness of Abimelech, which he did unto his father, in slaying his seventy brethren:

57 And all the evil of the ^y men of Shechem did God render upon their heads: and upon them came the ^z curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal.

CHAPTER X.

Tola judgeth Israel in Shamir.

AND after Abimelech there ^a arose to defend Israel, Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of ^b Issachar; and he dwelt in Shamir in mount Ephraim.

2 And he judged Israel twenty and three years, and died, and was buried in Shamir.

3 ¶ And after him arose Jair ^c a Gileadite, and judged Israel twenty and two years.

4 And he had thirty sons ^d that rode on thirty asscolts, and they had thirty cities, which are called ^e Havoth-jair unto this day, which are in the land of Gilead.

5 And Jair died, and was buried in Camon.

6 And the children of Israel did evil ^f again in the sight of the LORD, and served ^g Baalim, and Ashtaroth, and the gods of Syria, and the gods of ^h Zidon, and the gods of ⁱ Moab, and the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the ^k Philistines, and forsook the LORD, and served not him.

7 ¶ And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he ^l sold them into the hands of the Philistines, and into the hands of the children of Ammon.

8 And || that year they vexed and oppressed the children of Israel ^m eighteen years, all the children of Israel that were on the other side Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead:

jamin, and against the house of Ephraim: so that Israel was sore distressed.

10 And the children of Israel cried^o unto the LORD, saying, We have sinned against thee, both because we have forsaken our God, and also served Baalim.

11 And the LORD^p said unto the children of Israel, Did not I deliver you from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines?

12 The Zidonians also, and the Amalekites, and the Maonites did oppress you; and ye cried to me, and I delivered you out of their hand.

13 Yet ye have^q forsaken me, and served other gods: wherefore I will^r deliver you no more.

14^s Go and cry unto the gods which ye have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your tribulation.

15 And the children of Israel said unto the LORD, We have sinned: do thou unto us whatsoever^t seemeth good unto thee; deliver us^u only, we pray thee, this day.

16 And they put away the^x strange gods from among them, and served the LORD: and his soul was grieved for the^y misery of Israel.

17 Then the children of Ammon were gathered together, and encamped in Gilead. And the children of Israel^z assembled themselves together, and encamped in^a Mizpeh.

18 And the people^b and^c princes of Gilead said one to another, What man^d is he that will begin to fight against the children of Ammon? he shall be^e head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

CHAPTER XI.

The covenant between Jephthah and the Gileadites.

NOW^a Jephthah the^b Gileadite was^c a mighty man of valour, and he^d was the son of a harlot: and Gilead begat Jephthah.

2 And Gilead's wife bare him sons; and his wife's sons grew up, and they thrust out Jephthah, and said unto him, Thou shalt not inherit in our father's house; for thou^e art the son of a^f strange woman.

3 Then Jephthah fled from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of^g Tob: and there were gathered^h vain men to Jephthah, and went out with him.

4 And it came to passⁱ in process of time, that the children of Ammon made war against Israel.

5 And it was so, that when the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah out of the land of Tob:

6 And they said unto Jephthah, Come, and be our captain, that we may fight with the children of Ammon.

7 And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, Did not ye hate me, and expel me out of my father's house? and why are ye come unto me now when ye are in distress?

8 And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, Therefore we turn again to thee now, that thou mayest go with us, and fight against the children of Ammon, and be our^j head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

9 And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home again to fight against the children of Ammon, and the LORD deliver them before me, shall I be your head?

10 And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, The LORD^k be witness between us, if we do not so according to thy words.

11 Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and captain over them: and Jephthah uttered all his words^l before the LORD in Mizpeh.

12 And Jephthahⁱ sent messengers unto the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to do with me, that thou art come against me to fight in my land?

13 And the king of the children of Ammon answered unto the messengers of Jephthah, Because^k Israel took away my land, when they came up out of Egypt, from^l Arnon even unto^m Jabbok, and unto Jordan: now, therefore, restore thoseⁿ lands again peaceably.

14 And Jephthah sent messengers^o again unto the king of the children of Ammon:

15 And said unto him, Thus saith Jephthah, O Israel took not away the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon:

16 But when Israel came up from Egypt, and walked through the wilderness unto the Red sea, and came to^p Kadesh;

17 Then Israel sent messengers unto the king of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, pass through thy land: but the king of Edom^q would not hearken^r thereto. And in like manner they sent unto the king of Moab: but he would not^s consent. And Israel abode in Kadesh.

18 Then they went along through the wilderness, and compassed the land of Edom and the land of Moab, and came by the east side of the land of Moab, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, but^t came not within the border of Moab: for Arnon^u was the border of Moab.

19 And Israel^v sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon; and Israel said unto him, Let us pass, we pray thee, through thy land unto my place.

20 But Sihon trusted not Israel to pass through his coast: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and pitched in^w Jahaz, and fought against Israel.

21 And the LORD God of Israel delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they smote them: So Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country.

22 And they possessed^x all the coasts of the Amorites, from Arnon even unto Jabbok, and from the wilderness even unto Jordan.

23 So now the LORD God of Israel hath dispossessed the Amorites from before his people Israel, and shouldst thou possess it?

24 Wilt not thou possess that^y which Chemosh thy god giveth thee to possess? ^z So whomsoever the LORD our God shall drive out from before us, them will we possess.

25 And now^a art thou^b any thing better than Balak the son of Zippor king of Moab? did he ever^c strive against Israel, or did he ever fight against them,

26 While Israel dwelt in Heshbon and her towns, and in Aroer and her towns, and in all the cities that be along by the coasts of Arnon, || three hundred years? why therefore did ye not recover^d them within that time?

27 Wherefore I have not sinned against thee, but thou doest me wrong to war against me: the LORD^e the Judge^f be judge this day between the children of Israel and the children of Ammon.

28 Howbeit, the king of the children of Ammon^g hearkened not unto the words of Jephthah which he sent him.

29 Then the Spirit of the LORD^h came upon Jephthah; and he passed over Gilead, and Manasseh, and passed over Mizpeh of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead he passed over unto the children of Ammon.

30 And Jephthah^c vowed a vow unto the LORD, and said, If thou shalt without fail deliver the children of Ammon into my hands,

31 Then it shall be, that whatsoever cometh forth of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, shall surely || be the LORD's, and I will offer it up || for a burnt-offering.

32 ¶ So Jephthah passed over unto the children of Ammon to fight against them: and the LORD delivered them into his hands.

33 And he smote them from^d Aroer even till thou come to^e Minnith, even twenty cities, and unto the plain of the vineyards, with a very great slaughter. Thus the children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel.

34 ¶ And Jephthah came to Mizpeh unto his house, and behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and with dances; and she was his only child: besides her he had neither son nor daughter.

35 And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he rent his clothes, and said, Alas, my daughter! thou hast brought me very low, and thou art one of them that^h trouble me: for I haveⁱ opened my mouth unto the LORD, and^k I cannot go back.

36 And she said unto him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth unto the LORD,^l do to me according to that^m which hath proceeded out of thy mouth; forasmuch as the LORD hath taken vengeance for thee of thine enemies, even of the children of Ammon.

37 And she said unto her father, Let this thing be done for me: Let me alone two months, that I may go up and down upon the mountains, and bewailⁿ my virginity, I and my fellows.

38 And he said, Go. And he sent her away for two months: and she went with her companions, and bewailed her virginity upon the mountains.

39 And it came to pass at the end of two months, that she returned unto her father, who^o did with her according to his vow which he had vowed: and she knew no man. And it was a custom in Israel,

40 That the daughters of Israel went yearly || to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in a year.

CHAPTER XII.

The Ephraimites, quarrelling with Jephthah, and discerned by Shibboleth, are slain by the Gileadites.

AND the men of Ephraim[†] gathered themselves together, and went^a northward, and said unto Jephthah, Wherefore passedst thou over to fight against the children of Ammon, and didst not call us to go with thee? ^b we will burn thy house upon thee with fire.

2 And Jephthah said unto them, I and my people were at^c great strife with the children of Ammon; and when I called you, ye delivered me not out of their hands.

3 And when I saw that ye delivered me not,^d I put my life in my hands, and passed over against the children of Ammon, and the LORD delivered them into my hand: wherefore then are ye come up unto me this day, to fight against me?

4^e Then Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim: and the men of Gilead smote Ephraim, because they said, ^f Ye Gileadites are fugitives of Ephraim among the Ephraimites, and among the Manassites

5 And the Gileadites took^g the passages of Jordan before the Ephraimites: and it was so, that when those Ephraimites which were escaped, said, Let me go over; that the men of Gilead said unto him, Art thou an Ephraimite? If he said, Nay;

6 Then said they unto him, Say now || Shibboleth: and he said^h Sibboleth: for he could not frame to pronounce it right. Then they took him and slew him at the passages of Jordan. And there fell at that time of the Ephraimitesⁱ forty and two thousand.

7 And Jephthah judged Israel six years: then died Jephthah the Gileadite, and was buried in one of the cities of Gilead.

8 ¶ And after him Ibzan of^k Beth-lehem judged Israel.

9 And he had thirty sons, and thirty daughters whom he sent abroad, and took in thirty daughters, from abroad for his sons: and he judged Israel seven years.

10 Then died Ibzan, and was buried at Beth-lehem.

11 ¶ And after him Elon, a Zebulonite, judged Israel, and he judged Israel ten years.

12 And Elon the Zebulonite died, and was buried in Aijalon in^l the country of Zebulun.

13 ¶ And after him Abdon the son of Hillel^m a Pirathonite, judged Israel.

14 And he had forty sons and thirty nephews, that rode on threescore and tenⁿ ass colts: and he judged Israel eight years.

15 And Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died, and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the mount of the^o Amalekites.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Israel is in the hand of the Philistines....24 Samson is born.

AND the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD delivered them into the hand of the Philistines^a forty years.

2 ¶ And there was a certain man of^b Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was^c barren, and bare not.

3 And the^d angel of the LORD appeared unto the woman, and said unto her, Behold, now, thou art barren, and bearest not: but thou shalt^e conceive, and bear a son.

4 Now therefore beware, I pray thee, and^f drink^g not wine, nor strong drink, and eat not any^h unclean thing:

5 For lo, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and noⁱ razor shall come on his head: for the child shall be^j a Nazarite unto God from the womb: and he shall^k begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines.

6 ¶ Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, ^l A man of God came unto me, and his countenance was like the countenance of an angel of God, very terrible: but^m I asked him not whence he was, neither told he me his name:

7 But he said unto me, Behold, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and now drink no wine nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing: for the child shall be a Nazarite to God from the womb to the day of his death.

8 ¶ Then Manoah entreated the LORD, and said, O my LORD, let the man of God which thou didst send come again unto us, andⁿ teach us what we shall do unto the child that shall be born.

9 And God^o hearkened to the voice of Manoah; and the angel of God came again unto the woman as she sat in the field: but Manoah her husband was not with her.

10 And the woman ^p made haste, and ran, and shewed her husband, and said unto him, Behold, the man hath appeared unto me, that came unto me the other day.

11 And Manoah arose, and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said unto him, Art thou the man that spakest unto the woman? And he said, I am.

12 And Manoah said, Now let thy words come to pass : how shall we order the child? and [†] how shall we do unto him?

13 And the angel of the LORD said unto Manoah, Of all that I said unto the woman let her beware.

14 She may not eat of any thing that cometh of the ^a vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing : ^r all that I commanded her let her observe.

15 And Manoah said unto the angel of the LORD, I pray thee, let us detain thee until we shall have made ready a kid ^s for thee.

16 And the angel of the LORD said unto Manoah, Though thou detain me, I will not eat of thy ^t bread; and if thou wilt offer a burnt-offering, thou must offer it ^u unto the LORD : for Manoah knew not that he was an angel of the LORD.

17 And Manoah said unto the angel of the LORD, What is thy name, that, when thy sayings come to pass, we may ^x do thee honour?

18 And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Why askest thou thus after my name, seeing it is ^{||} secret?

19 So Manoah took a kid, with a meat-offering, and ^y offered it upon a rock unto the LORD; and the angel did ^z wondrously; and Manoah and his wife looked on.

20 For it came to pass, when the flame went up toward heaven from off the altar, that the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar : and Manoah and his wife looked on it, and ^a fell on their faces to the ground.

21 But the angel of the LORD did no more appear to Manoah and to his wife. Then Manoah knew that he was an angel of the LORD.

22 And Manoah said unto his wife, We shall surely ^b die, because we have seen God.

23 But ^c his wife said unto him, If the LORD were pleased to kill us, ^d he would not have received a burnt-offering and a meat-offering at our hands, neither would he have ^e shewed us all these things, nor would ^e as at this time have told us such things as these.

24 [†] And the woman bare a son, and called his name Samson. And the child grew, and the LORD blessed him.

25 And the Spirit of the LORD began ^f to move him at times in the ^g camp of Dan, between Zorah and ^h Eshtaol.

CHAPTER XIV.

Samson desireth a wife of the Philistines.

AND Samson went down to ^a Timnath, and ^b saw a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines.

2 And he came up, and told his father and his mother, and said, I have seen a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines : now therefore ^c get her for me to wife.

3 Then his father and his mother said unto him, Is there never a woman among the daughters of ^d thy brethren, or among all my people, that thou goest to take a wife of ^e the uncircumcised Philistines? And Samson said unto his father, Get her for me; for she pleaseth me well.

4 But his father and his mother knew not that it was ^f of the LORD, that he sought an occasion against the Philistines : for ^g at that time the Philistines had dominion over Israel.

5 Then went Samson down, ^h and his father and his mother, to Timnath, and came to the vineyards of Timnath : and behold, [†] a young lion roared against him.

6 And the ⁱ Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he rent him as he would have rent a kid, and he had ^k nothing in his hand : but he told not his father or his mother what he had done.

7 And he went down, and talked with the woman : and she pleased Samson well.

8 [†] And after a time he returned to ^l take her, and he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion : and behold, there was a swarm of bees and honey in the carcass of the lion.

9 And he took thereof in his hands, and went on eating, and came to his father and mother, and he gave them, and they did eat : but he told not them that he had taken the honey out of the carcass of the lion.

10 [†] So his father went down unto the woman : and Samson made there a ^m feast; for so used the young men to do.

11 And it came to pass, when they saw ⁿ him, that they brought ^o thirty companions to be with him.

12 [†] And Samson said unto them, I will now put forth [†] a riddle unto you : if ye can certainly declare it me ^p within the ^p seven days of the feast, and find [†] it out, then I will give you thirty ^{||} sheets and thirty change of garments :

13 But if ye cannot declare it me, then shall ye give me thirty sheets and thirty change of garments. And they said unto him, Put forth thy riddle, that we may hear it.

14 And he said unto them, [†] Out of the eater came forth meat, and out of the strong came forth sweetness. And they could not in three days expound the riddle.

15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they said to Samson's wife, ^q Entice thy husband, that he may declare unto us the riddle, lest we burn thee and thy father's house with fire : have ye called us to take that we have? is it not so?

16 And Samson's wife wept before him and said, Thou dost but ^r hate me, and lovest me not : thou hast put forth a riddle unto the children of my people, and hast not told it me. And he said unto her, Behold, I have not told it my father nor my mother, and shall I tell it thee?

17 And she wept before him the seven days, while their feast lasted : and it came to pass on the seventh day, that he told her, because she lay sore upon him : and she told the riddle to the children of her people.

18 And the men of the city said unto him on the seventh day before the sun went down, What is sweeter than honey? and what is stronger than a lion? And he said unto them, If ye had not ^s ploughed with my heifer, ye had not found out my riddle.

19 [†] And the Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon, and slew thirty men of them, and took their spoil, and gave change of garments unto them which expounded the riddle; and his " anger was kindled, and he went up to his father's house.

20 But Samson's wife † was given to his companion, whom he had used as his * friend.

CHAPTER XV.

Samson burneth the Philistines' corn with foxes and fire-brands.

BUT it came to pass within a while after, in the time of wheat-harvest, that Samson visited his wife with a kid; and he said, I will ^a go in to my wife into the ^b chamber. But her father would not suffer him to go in.

2 And her father said, I verily thought that thou hadst utterly hated her; therefore ^c I gave her to thy companion: is not her younger sister fairer than she? take her, I pray thee, instead of her.

3 ¶ And Samson said concerning them, † Now shall I be more blameless than the Philistines, though I do them a displeasure.

4 And Samson went and caught ^d three hundred foxes, and took fire-brands, and turned ^e tail to tail, and put a fire-brand in the midst between two tails.

5 And when he had set the brands on fire, he let them go into the standing corn of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks, and also the standing corn, with the vineyards and olives.

6 ¶ Then the Philistines said, Who hath done this? And they answered, Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he had taken his wife, and given her to his companion. And the Philistines came up, ^f and burnt her and her father with fire.

7 ¶ And Samson said unto them, Though ye have done this, yet will I be ^g avenged of you, and after that I will cease.

8 And he smote them ^h hip and thigh with a great slaughter. And he went down and dwelt in the top of the rock ⁱ Etam.

9 ¶ Then the Philistines went up, and pitched in Judah, and spread themselves in ¶ Lehi.

10 And the men of Judah said, Why are ye come up against us? And they answered, To ^k bind Samson are we come up, to do to him as he hath done to us.

11 Then three thousand men of Judah went to the top of the rock Etam, and said to Samson, Knowest thou not that the Philistines are ^l rulers over us? what is this that thou hast done unto us? And he said unto them, As they did unto me, so have I done unto them.

12 And they said unto him, We are come down to bind thee, that we may ^m deliver thee into the hand of the Philistines. And Samson said unto them, Swear unto me, that ye will not fall upon me yourselves.

13 And they spake unto him, saying, No; but we will bind thee fast, and deliver thee into their hand: but surely we will not kill thee. And they bound him with two new cords, and brought him up from the rock.

14 ¶ And when he came unto Lehi, the Philistines ⁿ shouted against him: and the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and the cords that were upon his arms became as flax that was burnt with fire, and his bands † loosed from off his hands.

15 And he found a new jaw-bone of an ass, and put forth his hand, and took it, and ^o slew a thousand men therewith.

16 And Samson said, With the jaw-bone of an ass, heaps upon heaps, with the jaw of an ass have I slain a thousand men.

17 And it came to pass when he had made an end of speaking, that he cast away the jaw-bone out of his hand, and called that place ¶ Ramath-lehi.

18 ¶ And he was sore athirst, and called on the LORD, and said, ^p Thou hast given this great deliverance into the hand of thy servant: and now shall I ^q die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?

19 But God clave a hollow place that was in the jaw, and there came water thereout; and when he had drunk, ^r his spirit came again, and he revived. Wherefore he called the name thereof ¶ En-hakkore, which is in Lehi unto this day.

20 And he ^s judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

CHAPTER XVI.

Samson escapeth, and carrieth away the gates of Gaza.

THEN ^a went Samson to Gaza, and saw there † a harlot, and went in unto her.

2 And it was told the Gazites, saying, Samson is come hither. And they ^b compassed him in, and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were quiet all the night, saying, In the morning when it is day ^c we shall kill him.

3 And Samson lay till midnight, and arose at midnight, and took the doors of the ^d gate of the city, and the two posts, and went away with them, bar and all, and put them upon his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of a hill that is before Hebron.

4 ¶ And it came to pass afterward, that he ^e loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was ¶ Delilah.

5 And the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and said unto her, ^f Entice him, and see wherein his ^g great strength lieth, and by what means we may prevail against him, that we may bind him to afflict him: and we will ^h give thee every one of us eleven hundred pieces of silver.

6 And Delilah said to Samson, ⁱ Tell me, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength lieth, and where-with thou mightest be bound to afflict thee.

7 And Samson said unto her, If they bind me with ^k seven green withs, that were never dried, then shall I be weak, and be ^l as another man.

8 Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven green withs, which had not been dried, and she ^m bound him with them.

9 (Now there were men lying in wait, abiding with her in the chamber.) And she said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he brake the withs as a thread of tow is broken when it † toucheth the fire. So his ⁿ strength was not known.

10 And Delilah said unto Samson, Behold, thou hast ^o mocked me, and told me lies: now tell me, I pray thee, wherewith thou mightest be bound.

11 And he said unto her, If they bind me fast with new ropes that never were occupied, then shall I be weak, and be as another man.

12 Delilah therefore took ^p new ropes, and bound him therewith, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. (And there were liers in wait abiding in the chamber.) And he brake them from off his arms like a thread.

13 And Delilah said unto Samson, Hitherto thou hast mocked me, and told me lies: tell me wherewith thou mightest be bound. And he said unto her, If thou ^q weavest the seven locks of my head with the web.

14 And she fastened it with the pin, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awaked out of his sleep, and went away with the pin of the ^r beam, and with the web.

15 ¶ And she said unto him, How canst thou say, I love thee, when thy heart is not with me? thou hast mocked me these three times, and hast not told me wherein thy great strength lieth.

16 And it came to pass when she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, so that his soul was [†] vexed unto death;

17 That he [†] told her all his heart, and said unto her, There hath not come a razor upon my head; for I have been ^a a Nazarite unto God from my mother's womb: if I be shaven, ^u then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man.

18 And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come up this once, for he hath shewed me all his heart. Then the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought ^x money in their hand.

19 And she made him ^y sleep upon her knees; and she called for a man, and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head; and she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him.

20 And she said, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, I will go out as at other times before, and shake myself. And he wist not that the LORD was ^z departed from him.

21 ¶ But the Philistines took him, and [†] put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with ^a fetters of brass; and he did grind in the prison-house.

22 Howbeit the hair of his head began to grow again after he was shaven.

23 Then the lords of the Philistines gathered them together, for to offer a great sacrifice unto ^b Dagon their god, and to rejoice: for they said, Our god hath delivered Samson our enemy into our hand.

24 And when the people saw him, they ^c praised their god: for they said, Our god hath delivered into our hands our enemy, and the destroyer of our country; ^{||} which slew many of us.

25 And it came to pass, when their hearts were merry, that they said, Call for Samson that he may make us ^d sport. And they called for Samson out of the prison-house; and he made them sport: and they set him between the pillars.

26 And Samson said unto the lad that held him by the hand, Suffer me that I may feel the pillars whereupon ^e the house standeth, that I may lean upon them.

27 Now the house was full of men and women: and all the lords of the Philistines were there: and there were upon the ^f roof about three thousand men and women, that beheld while Samson made sport.

28 And Samson ^g called unto the LORD, and said, O Lord God, remember me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee, only this once, O God, that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.

29 And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the house stood, and on which it was borne up, of the one with his right hand, and of the other with his left.

30 And Samson said, [†] Let me die with the Philistines. And he bowed himself with all his might; and the house ^h fell upon the lords, and upon all the people that were therein. So the dead which he slew ⁱ at his death were more than they which he slew in his life.

31 Then his brethren and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought him up, and buried him between ^k Zorah and Eshtaol in the burying-place of Manohah his father. And he judged Israel ^l twenty years.

CHAPTER XVII.

Micah hireth a Levite to be his priest.

AND there was a man of mount Ephraim, whose name was Micah.

2 And he said unto his mother, The eleven hundred shekels of silver that were taken [†] from thee, about which thou cursedst, and spakest of also in mine ears, behold, the silver is with me; I took it. And his mother said, ^{||} Blessed be thou of the LORD, my son.

3 And when he had restored the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, his mother said, I had wholly ^a dedicated the silver unto the LORD from my hand for my son, to make a graven image and a ^b molten image: now therefore I will restore it unto thee.

4 Yet he restored the money unto his mother; and his mother took ^c two hundred shekels of silver, and gave them to the founder, who made thereof a graven image and a molten image: and they were in the house of Micah.

5 And the man Micah had a house of gods, and made an ^d ephod, and ^e teraphim, and [†] consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest.

6 In those days there was ^f no king in Israel, but every man did that which was ^g right in his own eyes.

7 ¶ And there was a young man out of ^h Beth-lehem-judah of the family of Judah, who was a Levite, and he sojourned there.

8 And the man departed out of the city from Beth-lehem-judah, to sojourn ⁱ where he could find a place: and he came to mount Ephraim to the house of Micah, as he journeyed.

9 And Micah said unto him, Whence comest thou? And he said unto him, I am a Levite of Beth-lehem-judah, and I go to sojourn where I may find a place.

10 And Micah said unto him, Dwell with me, and be unto me ^k a father and a priest, and I will give thee ten shekels of silver by the year, and a suit of apparel, and thy ^l victuals. So the Levite went in.

11 And the Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man was unto him as one of his sons.

12 And Micah consecrated the Levite; and the young man became his priest, and was in the house of Micah.

13 Then said Micah, ^m Now know I that the LORD will do me good, seeing I have a Levite to my priest.

CHAPTER XVIII.

The Danites send five men to seek out an inheritance.

IN those days there was ^a no king in Israel: and in those days the tribe of the Danites ^b sought them an inheritance to dwell in; for unto that day all their inheritance had ^c not fallen unto them among the tribes of Israel.

2 And the children of Dan sent of their family five men from their coasts, men of valour, from ^d Zorah, and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said unto them, Go, search the land: who when they came to mount Ephraim, to the ^e house of Micah, they lodged there.

 7 ¶ Then the five men departed, and came to ^l Laish, and saw the people that were therein, how they dwelt careless, after the manner of the Zidonians, quiet and [†] secure; and there was no magistrate in the land, that might ^m put them to shame in any thing; and they were far from the Zidonians, and had no business with any man.

8 And they came unto their brethren to Zorah and Eshtaol: and their brethren said unto them, What say ye?

9 And they said, Arise, that we may go up against them: for we have seen the land, and behold, it is very good: and are ye [†] still? be not slothful to go, and to enter to possess the land.

10 When ye go, ye shall come unto a people secure, and to [†] a large land: for God hath given it into your hands; a place where there is no want of any thing that is in the earth.

11 ¶ And there went from thence of the family of the Danites, out of Zorah and out of Eshtaol, six hundred men appointed with weapons of war.

12 And they went up, and pitched in ^a Kirjath-jearim, in Judah: wherefore they called that place Mahaneh-dan unto this day: behold, it is ^o behind Kirjath-jearim.

13 And they passed thence unto mount Ephraim, and came unto the ^p house of Micah.

14 ¶ Then ^q answered the five men that went to spy out the country of Laish, and said unto their brethren, Doye know that there is in ^r these houses an ephod, and teraphim, and a graven image, and a molten image? now therefore ^s consider what ye have to do.

15 And they turned thitherward, and came to the house of the young man the Levite, even unto the house of Micah, and [†] saluted him.

16 And the six hundred men appointed with their weapons of war, which were of the children of Dan, stood by the entering of the gate.

17 And the five men that went to spy out the land went up, and came in thither, and took the ^t graven image, and the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image: and the priest stood in the entering of the gate with the six hundred men that were appointed with weapons of war.

18 And these went into Micah's house, and fetched the carved image, the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image. Then said the priest unto them, What do ye?

19 And they said unto him, Hold thy peace, ^u lay thy hand upon thy mouth, and go with us, and be to us a father and a priest: Is it better for thee to be a priest unto the house of one man, or that thou be a priest unto a tribe and a family in Israel?

20 And the ^x priest's heart was glad, and he took the ephod, and the teraphim, and the graven image, and went in the midst of the people.

21 So they turned and departed, and put the little ones, and the cattle, and the carriage before them.

22 ¶ And when they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men that were in the houses near to Micah's house were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan.

23 And they cried unto the children of Dan. And they turned their faces, and said unto Micah, What aileth thee, that thou comest with such a company?

24 And he said, Ye have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and ye are gone away: and ^v what have I more? and what is this that ye say unto me, What aileth thee?

25 And the children of Dan said unto him, Let not thy voice be heard among us, lest [†] angry fellows run upon thee, and thou [†] lose thy life, with the lives of thy household.

26 And the children of Dan went their way: and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back unto his house.

27 And they took the things which Micah had made, and the priest which he had, and came unto Laish, unto a people that were at quiet and secure: and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and burnt the city with fire.

28 And there was no deliverer, because it was ^z far from Zidon, and they had no business with any man; and it was in the valley that lieth by ^a Beth-rehob. And they built a city, and dwelt therein.

29 And they called the name of the city ^b Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born unto Israel: howbeit the name of the city was Laish at the first.

30 ¶ And the children of Dan [†] set up the graven image: and Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh, he and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan ^c until the day of the captivity of the land.

31 And they set them up Micah's graven image which he made, ^d all the time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

CHAPTER XIX.

A Levite goeth to Beth-lehem to fetch home his wife.

AND it came to pass in those days, when there was ^a no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite sojourning on the side of mount Ephraim, who took to him [†] a concubine out of ^b Beth-lehem-judah.

2 And his concubine played the ^c whore against him, and went away ^d from him unto her father's house to Beth-lehem-judah, and was there four whole months.

3 And her husband arose, and went after her, to speak ^{||} friendly unto her, and to bring her again, having his servant with him, and a couple of asses: and she brought him into her father's house: and when the father of the damsel saw him, he rejoiced to meet him.

4 And his father-in-law, the damsel's father, retained him; and he abode with him three days: so they did ^e eat and drink, and lodged there.

5 And it came to pass on the fourth day, when they arose early in the morning, that he arose up to depart: and the damsel's father said unto his son-in-law, [†] Comfort thy heart with ^f a morsel of bread, and afterward go your way.

6 And they sat down, and did eat and drink both of them together: for the damsel's father had said unto the man, Be content, I pray thee, and tarry all night, and let thy heart [†] be merry.

7 And when the man rose up to depart, his father-in-law urged him: therefore he lodged there again the tribe of Benjamin, saying, What wickedness is this that is done among you?

13 Now therefore ^mdeliver us the men, the children of ⁿBelial, which are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel. But the children of Benjamin would ^onot hearken to the voice of their brethren the children of Israel.

14 But the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities unto Gibeah, to go out to battle against the children of Israel.

15 And the children of Benjamin were numbered at that time out of the cities ^ptwenty and six thousand men that drew sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were numbered seven hundred chosen men.

16 Among all this people there were seven hundred chosen men [†]left-handed; every one could sling stones at a hair-breadth, and not miss.

17 And the men of Israel, besides Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men that drew sword: all these were men of war.

18 ¶ And the children of Israel arose, and went up to the ^qhouse of God, and ^rasked counsel of God, and said, Which of us shall go up ^sfirst to the battle against the children of Benjamin? And the LORD said, Judah shall go up first.

19 And the children of Israel rose up in the morning, and encamped against Gibeah.

20 And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel put themselves in array to fight against them at Gibeah.

21 And the children of Benjamin came forth out of Gibeah, and ^tdestroyed down to the ground of the Israelites that day twenty and two thousand men.

22 And the people of the men of Israel ^uencouraged themselves, and set their battle again in array in the place where they put themselves in array the first day.

23 (And the children of Israel went up and wept ^xbefore the LORD until even, and asked counsel of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And the LORD said, Go up against him.)

24 And the children of Israel came near against the children of Benjamin the second day.

25 And Benjamin went forth against them out of Gibeah the second day, and destroyed down to the ground, of the children of Israel again eighteen thousand men: all these drew the sword.

26 ¶ Then all the children of Israel, and all the people, went up, and came unto the [†]house of God, and wept, and ^{||}sat there before the LORD, and fasted that day until even, and offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings before the LORD.

27 And the children of Israel ^yinquired of the LORD, (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, 28 And ^zPhinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, ^astood before it in those days,) saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease? And the LORD said, Go up; for to-morrow I will deliver them into thy hand.

29 And Israel ^bset liers in wait round about Gibeah.

30 And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times.

31 And the children of Benjamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city; and they began to smite of the people [†]and kill, as at other times, in the highways, of which one goeth up to the house of God, and the other to Gibeah in the ^cfield, about thirty men of Israel.

32 And the children of Benjamin said, They are smitten down before us, as at the first. But the children of Israel said, Let us flee, and draw them away from the city unto the highways.

33 And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and put themselves in array at Baal-tamar: and the liers in wait of Israel came forth out of their places, even out of the meadows of Gibeah.

34 And there came against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was sore: but they ^dknew not that evil was near them.

35 And the LORD smote Benjamin before Israel: and the children of Israel destroyed of the Benjamites that day twenty and five thousand and a hundred men: all these ^edrew the sword.

36 So the children of Benjamin saw that they were smitten: for the men of Israel gave place to the Benjamites, because they trusted unto the liers in wait which they had set beside Gibeah.

37 And the liers in wait hasted, and rushed upon Gibeah; and the liers in wait ^{||}drew themselves along, and smote all the city with the edge of the sword.

38 Now there was an appointed sign between the men of Israel and the liers in wait, that they should make a great flame with smoke to rise up out of the city.

39 And when the men of Israel ^rretired in the battle, Benjamin began to smite and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons: for they said, [†]Surely they are smitten down before us, as in the first battle.

40 But when the [†]flame began to arise up out of the city with a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and behold, the flame of the city ascended up to heaven.

41 And when the men of Israel turned again, the men of Benjamin were amazed: for they saw that evil was come upon them.

42 Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel unto the way of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them; and them which came out of the cities they destroyed in the midst of them.

43 Thus they enclosed the Benjamites round about, and chased them, and trode them down with ease over against Gibeah toward the sun-rising.

44 And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men: all these were men of valour.

45 And they turned and fled toward the wilderness unto the ^erock of Rimmon: and they gleaned of them in the highways five thousand men: and pursued hard after them unto Gidom, and slew two thousand men of them.

46 So that all which fell that day of Benjamin were ^htwenty and five thousand men that drew the sword; all these were men of valour.

47 ⁱBut six hundred men turned and fled to the wilderness unto the rock Rimmon, and abode in the rock Rimmon four months.

48 And the men of Israel turned again upon the children of Benjamin, and smote them with the edge of the sword, [†]as well the men of every city, as the beast, and all that came to hand: also they set on fire all the cities that they came to.

2 And the people came to the ^chouse of God, and abode there till even before God, and lifted up their voices, and wept sore :

3 And said, O LORD God of Israel, ^dwhy is this come to pass in Israel, that there should be to-day one tribe lacking in Israel ?

4 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people rose early, and built there an ^ealtar, and offered burnt-offerings, and peace-offerings.

5 And the children of Israel said, Who is there among all the tribes of Israel that came not up with the congregation ^funto the LORD ? For they had made a great oath concerning him that came not up to the LORD to Mizpeh, saying, He shall surely be ^gput to death.

6 And the children of Israel repented them for Benjamin their brother, and said, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day.

7 How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing we have sworn by the LORD, that we will not give them of our daughters to wives ?

8 ¶ And they said, What one is there of the tribes of Israel that came not up to Mizpeh to the LORD ? And behold, there came none to the camp from ^hJabesh-gilead to the assembly.

9 For the people were numbered, and behold, there were none of the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead there.

10 And the congregation sent thither twelve thousand [†]men of the valiantest, and commanded them, saying, Go and smite the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead with the edge of the sword, with the women and the children.

11 And this is the thing that ye shall do, Ye shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman that hath lain by man.

12 And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead four hundred [†]young virgins, that had known no man by [†]lying with any male : and they brought them unto the camp to ^kShiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

13 And the whole congregation sent some to speak to the children of Benjamin that were in the ^lrock Rimmon, and [†]to call peaceably unto them.

14 And Benjamin came again at that time ; and they gave them wives which they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh-gilead : and yet so they [†]sufficed them not.

15 And the people repented them for Benjamin, because that the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

16 Then the elders of the congregation said, How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing the women are destroyed out of Benjamin ?

17 And they said, There must be an inheritance for them that be escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel.

18 Howbeit, we may not give them wives of our daughters : for the children of Israel have ^msworn, saying, Cursed be he that giveth a wife to Benjamin.

19 Then they said, Behold, there is ⁿa feast of the LORD in Shiloh [†]yearly in a place which is on the north side of Beth-el, on the east side of the highway that goeth up from Beth-el to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah.

20 Therefore they commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, Go, and lie in wait in the vineyards ;

21 And see, and behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to ^odance in dances, then come ye out of the vineyards, and catch ^oevery man his wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin.

22 And it shall be, when their fathers or their brethren come unto us to complain, that we will say unto them, || Be favourable unto them for our sakes : because we reserved not to each man his wife in the war : for ye did not give unto them at this time, that ye should be guilty.

23 And the children of Benjamin did so, and took them wives, according to their number, of them that danced, whom they caught : and they went and returned unto their inheritance, and ^prepaired the cities, and dwelt in them.

24 And the children of Israel departed thence ^qat that time, every man to his tribe and to his family, and they went out from thence every man to his inheritance.

25 In those days there was ^ra no king in Israel : every man did that which was ^rright in his own eyes.

NOW it came to pass in the days when the judges [†]ruled, that there was ^aa famine in the land. And a certain man of ^bBeth-lehem-judah went to sojourn in the country of Moab, ^che, and his wife, and his two sons.

2 And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the name of his two sons Mahlon and Chilion, ^dEphrathites of Beth-lehem-judah. And they came into the country of Moab, and continued there.

3 And Elimelech, Naomi's husband, ^edied ; and she was left, and her ^ftwo sons.

4 And ^gthey took them wives of the women of Moab ; the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other ^hRuth : and they dwelled there about ⁱten years.

5 And Mahlon and Chilion died also both of them ; and the woman ^kwas left of her two sons and her husband. ^kDeut. 32, 36.

6 ¶ Then she arose with her daughters-in-law, that she might return from the country of Moab ; for she had heard in the country of Moab how that the LORD had ^lvisited ^mhis people in giving them ⁿbread.

7 Wherefore ^oshe went forth out of the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her : and ^pthey went on the way to return unto the land of Judah.

8 And Naomi said unto her two daughters-in-law, Go, return each to her ^qmother's house : ^rthe LORD deal kindly with you, as ye have dealt ^swith the dead, and with me.

9 The LORD grant you that ye may ^tfind rest, each of you in the house of her husband. Then she ^ukissed them : and they lifted up their voice, and wept.

10 And they said unto her, Surely we will return ^xwith thee unto thy people.

11 And Naomi said, Turn again, my daughters : why will ye go with me ? are there yet any more sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands ?

12 Turn again, my daughters, go your way ; for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say, I have hope, if I should have a husband also to-night, and should also bear sons ;

13 Would ye tarry for them till they were grown ? would ye stay for them from having husbands ? nay, my daughters ; for it grieveth me much for your sakes, that the hand of the LORD is gone out against me.

14 And they lifted up their voice, and wept again. And Orpah ^b kissed her mother-in-law, ^c but Ruth clave unto her.

15 And she said, Behold, ^d thy sister-in-law is gone back unto her people, and unto ^e her gods : ^f return thou after thy sister-in-law.

16 And Ruth said, ^g Entreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee : for whither thou goest, I will go ; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge : thy people ^h shall be my people, and ⁱ thy God my God :

17 Where thou diest, will I die, and there will I be buried : the LORD do so to me, and more also, if ^j aught but death part thee and me.

18 When she saw that she was steadfastly minded to go with her, then she ^k left speaking unto her.

19 ^l So ^m they two went until they came to Bethlehem. And it came to pass, when they were come to ⁿ Beth-lehem, that all the city was moved about them, and they said, ^o Is this Naomi ?

20 And she said unto them, Call me not Naomi, call me Mara : for the Almighty ^p hath dealt very bitterly with me.

21 I went out full, and the LORD hath brought me home again ^q empty : why ^r then call ye me Naomi, seeing the LORD hath ^s testified against me, and the Almighty hath afflicted me ?

22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess her daughter-in-law with her, which ^t returned out of the country of Moab : and they came to Bethlehem in the beginning of ^u barley-harvest.

CHAPTER II.

Ruth gleaneth in the fields of Boaz.

AND Naomi had ^a a kinsman of her husband's, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech ; and his name was Boaz.

2 And Ruth the Moabitess said unto Naomi, Let me now go to the field, and ^b glean ears of corn after ^c him in whose sight I shall find grace. And she said unto her, Go, my daughter.

3 And she went, and came, and gleaned in the field after the reapers : and her hap was to light on a part of the field ^d belonging unto Boaz, who was of the kindred of Elimelech.

4 And ^e behold, Boaz came from Beth-lehem, and said unto the reapers, ^f The LORD be with you. And they answered him, The LORD bless thee.

5 Then said Boaz unto his servant that was ^g set over the reapers, Whose damsel is this ?

6 And the servant that was set over the reapers answered and said, It is the Moabitish damsel that ^h came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab :

7 And she said, ⁱ I pray you, let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves : so she came, and hath ^j continued even from the morning until now, that she tarried a little in the house.

8 Then said Boaz unto Ruth, Hearest thou not, my daughter ? Go not to glean in ^k another field, neither go from hence, but abide here fast by my ^l maidens :

9 Let thine eyes be on the field that they do reap, and go thou after them : have I not charged the young men that they shall ^m not touch thee ? and when thou art athirst, ⁿ go unto the vessels, and drink of ^o that which the young men have drawn.

10 Then she ^p fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said unto him, Why have I found grace in thine eyes, that thou shouldest ^q take knowledge of me, seeing I ^r am a stranger ?

11 And Boaz answered and said unto her, It hath fully been ^s shewed me, all that thou hast ^t done unto thy mother-in-law since the death of thy husband : and ^u how thou hast ^v left thy father and thy mother, and the land of thy nativity, and art come unto a people which thou knewest not heretofore.

12 The LORD ^w recompense thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the LORD God of Israel, under whose ^x wings thou art come to trust.

13 Then she said, Let me find favour in thy sight, my lord ; for that thou hast comforted me, and for that thou hast spoken friendly unto thy handmaid, ^y though I be not like unto one of thy handmaidens.

14 And Boaz said unto her, ^z At meal-time come thou hither, and eat of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the vinegar. And she ^a sat beside the reapers : and he reached her parched ^b corn, and she did eat, and was ^c sufficed, and ^d left.

15 And when she was risen up to ^e glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, Let her glean even among the sheaves, and reproach her not.

16 And ^f let fall also some of the handfuls of purpose for her, and leave ^g them, that she may glean ^h them, and rebuke her not :

17 So she gleaned in the field ⁱ until even, and beat out that she had gleaned : and it was about an ephah of barley.

18 ^j And she took ^k it up, and went into the city : and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned : and she brought forth, and gave to her that she had ^l reserved after she was sufficed.

19 And her mother-in-law said unto her, Where hast thou gleaned to-day ? and where wroughtest thou ? blessed be he that did take knowledge of thee. And she shewed her mother-in-law with whom she had wrought, and said, The man's name with whom I wrought to-day is Boaz.

20 And Naomi said unto her daughter-in-law, ^m Blessed be he of the LORD, who hath ⁿ not left off his kindness to the living and to the dead. And Naomi said unto her, The man is near of kin unto us, one of our ^o next kinsmen.

21 And Ruth the Moabitess said, He said unto me also, Thou ^p shalt keep fast by my young men, until they have ended all my harvest.

22 And Naomi said unto Ruth her daughter-in-law, It is ^q good, my daughter, that thou go out with his maidens, that they ^r meet thee not in any other field.

23 ^s So she kept fast by the maidens of Boaz to glean unto the end of barley-harvest and of wheat-harvest ; and dwelt with her mother-in-law.

CHAPTER III.

1 By Naomi's instruction, 5 Ruth leth at Boaz's feet.

whose maidens thou wast? Behold, he winnoweth barley to-night in the threshing floor.

3 Wash thyself therefore, and anoint thee, and put thy raiment upon thee, and get thee down to the floor: but make not thyself known unto the man, until he shall have done eating and drinking.

4 And it shall be when he lieth down, that thou shalt mark the place where he shall lie, and thou shalt go in, and uncover his feet, and lay thee down; and he will tell thee what thou shalt do.

5 And she said unto her, All that thou sayest unto me I will do.

6 And she went down unto the floor, and did according to all that her mother-in-law bade her.

7 And when Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of a heap of corn: and she came softly, and uncovered his feet, and laid her down.

8 And it came to pass at midnight, that the man was afraid, and turned himself: and behold, a woman lay at his feet.

9 And he said, Who art thou? And she answered, I am Ruth thy handmaid: spread therefore thy skirt over thy handmaid; for thou art a near kinsman.

10 And he said, Blessed be thou of the LORD, my daughter: for thou hast shewed more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning, inasmuch as thou followedst not young men, whether poor or rich.

11 And now, my daughter, fear not; I will do to thee all that thou requirest: for all the city of my people doth know that thou art a virtuous woman.

12 And now it is true that I am thy near kinsman: howbeit there is a kinsman nearer than I.

13 Tarry this night, and it shall be in the morning, that if he will perform unto thee the part of a kinsman, well; let him do the kinsman's part: but if he will not do the part of a kinsman to thee, then will I do the part of a kinsman to thee, as the LORD liveth: lie down until the morning.

14 And she lay at his feet until the morning: and she rose up before one could know another. And he said, Let it not be known that a woman came into the floor.

15 Also he said, Bring the veil that thou hast upon thee, and hold it. And when she held it, he measured six measures of barley, and laid it on her: and she went into the city.

16 And when she came to her mother-in-law, she said, Who art thou, my daughter? And she told her all that the man had done to her.

17 And she said, These six measures of barley gave he me; for he said to me, Go not empty unto thy mother-in-law.

18 Then said she, Sit still, my daughter, until thou know how the matter will fall: for the man will not be in rest, until he have finished the thing this day.

CHAPTER IV.

Boaz calleth into judgment the next kinsman.

THEN went Boaz up to the gate, and sat him down there: and behold, the kinsman of whom Boaz spake came by; unto whom he said, Ho, such a one! turn aside, sit down here. And he turned aside, and sat down.

2 And he took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, Sit ye down here. And they sat down.

3 And he said unto the kinsman, Naomi, that is come again out of the country of Moab, selleth a parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelech's:

4 And I thought to advertise thee, saying, Buy it before the inhabitants, and before the elders of my people. If thou wilt redeem it, redeem it: but if thou wilt not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know: for there is none to redeem it besides thee; and I am after thee. And he said, I will redeem it.

5 Then said Boaz, What day thou buyest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must buy it also of Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance.

6 And the kinsman said, I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I mar mine own inheritance: redeem thou my right to thyself; for I cannot redeem it.

7 Now this was the manner in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning changing, for to confirm all things; a man plucked off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbour: and this was a testimony in Israel.

8 Therefore the kinsman said unto Boaz, Buy it for thee. So he drew off his shoe.

9 And Boaz said unto the elders, and unto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's, of the hand of Naomi.

10 Moreover, Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye are witnesses this day.

11 And all the people that were in the gate, and the elders said, We are witnesses. The LORD make the woman that is come into thy house like Rachel and like Leah, which two did build the house of Israel: and do thou worthily in Ephratah and be famous in Beth-lehem:

12 And let thy house be like the house of Pharez, whom Tamar bare unto Judah, of the seed which the LORD shall give thee of this young woman.

13 So Boaz took Ruth, and she was his wife: and when he went in unto her, the LORD gave her conception, and she bare a son.

14 And the women said unto Naomi, Blessed be the LORD, which hath not left thee this day without a kinsman, that his name may be famous in Israel.

15 And he shall be unto thee a restorer of thy life, and a nourisher of thine old age: for thy daughter-in-law, which loveth thee, which is better to thee than seven sons, hath borne him.

16 And Naomi took the child, and laid it in her bosom, and became nurse unto it.

17 And the women her neighbours gave it a name, saying, There is a son born to Naomi; and they called his name Obed: he is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

18 Now these are the generations of Pharez: Pharez begat Hezron,

19 And Hezron begat Ram, and Ram begat Amminadab,

20 And Amminadab begat Nahshon, and Nahshon begat Salmon,

21 And Salmon begat Boaz, and Boaz begat Obed,

22 And Obed begat Jesse, and Jesse begat David.

¶ The FIRST Book of SAMUEL, otherwise called, The FIRST Book of the KINGS.

CHAPTER I.

Hannah having borne Samuel, presenteth him to the LORD.

NOW there was a certain man of ^a Ramathaim-zophim, of mount Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an ^b Ephrathite :

2 And he had ^c two wives ; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other ^d Peninnah : and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had ^e no children.

3 And this man went up out of his city yearly to worship and to sacrifice unto the LORD of hosts in ^f Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the priests of the LORD, were there.

4 ¶ And when the time was that Elkanah ^g offered, he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters, ^h portions :

5 But unto Hannah he gave a worthy portion ; for he ⁱ loved Hannah ; but the LORD had ^k shut up her womb.

6 And her ^l adversary also provoked her sore, for to make her ^m fret, because the LORD had shut up her womb.

7 And as he ⁿ did so year by year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked her ; therefore she wept, and did not eat.

8 Then said Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, ^o why weepest thou ? and why eatest thou not ? and why is thy heart grieved ? am not I better to thee than ten sons ?

9 ¶ So Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk : (now Eli the priest sat upon a seat by a post of the ^p temple of the LORD :) 10 And she was in bitterness of soul, and prayed unto the LORD, and wept sore.

11 And she ^q vowed a vow, and said, O LORD of hosts, if thou wilt indeed look on the affliction of thy handmaid, and remember me, and not forget thy handmaid, but wilt give unto thy handmaid a man child, then I will ^r give him unto the LORD ^s all the days of his life, and there shall no ^t razor come upon his head.

12 And it came to pass, as she continued praying before the LORD, that Eli ^u marked her mouth.

13 Now Hannah, she ^v spake in her heart ; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard : therefore Eli ^w thought she had been drunken.

14 And Eli said unto her, How long wilt thou be drunken ? put away thy wine from thee.

15 And Hannah answered and said, No, ^x my lord, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit : I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have ^y poured out my soul before the LORD.

16 Count not thy handmaid for a daughter of ^b Belial : for out of the abundance of my complaint and grief have I spoken hitherto.

17 Then Eli answered and said, Go ^c in peace : and the God of Israel grant thee thy petition that thou hast asked of him.

18 And she said, Let thy handmaid find grace in thy sight. So the woman went her way, and did eat, and her countenance was ^d no more sad.

19 ¶ And they rose up in the morning early, and ^e worshipped before the LORD, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah : and Elkanah ^f knew Hannah his wife ; and the LORD remembered her.

20 Wherefore it came to pass, ^g when the time was come about after Hannah had conceived, that she bare a son, and called his name ^h Samuel, saying, Because I have asked him of the LORD.

21 And the man Elkanah, and all his house, went up to offer unto the LORD the yearly sacrifice, and his vow.

22 But Hannah ⁱ went not up ; for she said unto her husband, I will not go up until the child be ^j weaned, and then I will bring him, that he may appear before the LORD, and there abide ^k for ever.

23 And Elkanah her husband said unto her, Do what seemeth thee good ; tarry until thou have weaned him ; only the LORD ^l establish his word. So the woman abode, and ^m gave her son suck until she weaned him.

24 ¶ And when she had weaned him, she ⁿ took him up with her, with three bullocks, and one ^o ephah of flour, and a bottle of wine, and brought him unto the house of the LORD in Shiloh : and the ^p child was young.

25 And they slew a bullock, and brought the child to Eli.

26 And she said, O my lord, as thy soul liveth, my lord, I am the woman that stood by thee here, ^q praying unto the LORD.

27 For this child I prayed ; and the LORD hath given me my petition which I asked of him :

28 Therefore also I have lent him to the LORD ; as long as he liveth ^r he shall be lent to the LORD. And he worshipped the LORD there.

CHAPTER II.

1 Hannah's song in thankfulness... 12 The sin of Eli's sons.

AND Hannah ^a prayed, and said, My ^b heart rejoiceth in the LORD, my ^c horn is exalted in the LORD ; my mouth is enlarged ^d over mine enemies ; because I rejoice in ^e thy salvation.

2 There is ^f none holy as the LORD : for there is none ^g besides thee : neither is there any rock like our God.

3 Talk no more so exceeding proudly ; let not arrogancy come out of your mouth : for the LORD is a God of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed.

4 The ^h bows of the mighty men are broken, and they that ⁱ stumbled are girded with strength.

5 They that were ^j full have hired out themselves for bread ; and they that were hungry ceased : so that the barren hath ^k borne seven ; and she that hath many children is waxed feeble.

6 The LORD ^l killeth, and maketh alive : he bringeth down to the ^m grave, and bringeth up.

7 The LORD maketh ⁿ poor, and maketh rich : he bringeth low, and lifteth up.

8 He ^o raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth up the beggar from the dunhill, to set them among princes, and to make them inherit the throne of glory : for the ^p pillars of the earth are the LORD's, and he hath set the world upon them.

9 He will keep the ^q feet of his saints, and the wicked shall be ^r silent in darkness ; for ^s by strength shall no man prevail.

10 The adversaries of the LORD shall be ^t broken to pieces ; out of heaven shall he thunder upon them :

the LORD shall judge the ends of the earth: and he shall give strength unto ^a his king, and exalt the horn of his ^b anointed.

11 And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house. And the child did minister unto the LORD before Eli the priest.

12 ¶ Now the sons of Eli were sons of ^c Belial; they ^d knew not the LORD.

13 And the priest's ^e custom with the people was, that, when any man offered sacrifice, the priest's servant came, while the flesh was in seething, with a flesh-hook of three teeth in his hand;

14 And he struck ^f it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; ^g all that the flesh-hook brought up ^d the priest took for himself. So they did in Shiloh unto all the Israelites that came thither.

15 Also before they burnt the ^e fat, the priest's servant came, and said to the man that sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priest; for he will not have sodden flesh of thee, but raw.

16 And ^h if any man said unto him, Let them not fail to burn the fat presently, and ⁱ then take as much as thy soul desireth; then he would answer him, Nay; but thou shalt give ^j it me now: and if not, I will take ^k it by force.

17 Wherefore the sin of the young men was very great ^l before the LORD: for men ^m abhorred the offering of the LORD.

18 ¶ But Samuel ministered before the LORD, ⁿ being a child, girded with a linen ^o ephod.

19 Moreover his mother made him ^p a little coat, and brought ^q it to him ^r from year to year, when she came up with her husband, to offer the yearly sacrifice.

20 ¶ And Eli ^s blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, The LORD give thee seed of this woman for the loan which is lent to the LORD. And they went unto their own home.

21 And the LORD ^t visited Hannah, so that she conceived, and bare ^u three sons and two daughters. And the child Samuel ^v grew before the LORD.

22 ¶ Now Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons did unto all Israel; and how they lay with the women that assembled ^w at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

23 And he said unto them, Why do ye such things? for I hear of your evil dealings ^x by all this people.

24 Nay, my sons; for ^y it is ^z no good report that I hear: ye make the LORD's people to transgress.

25 If one man sin against another, the judge shall judge him: but if a man ^a sin against the LORD, who shall ^b entreat for him? Notwithstanding, they hearkened not unto the voice of their father, ^c because the LORD would slay them.

26 And the child Samuel ^d grew on, and was in favour both with the LORD, and also with men.

27 ¶ And there came ^e a ^f man of God unto Eli, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Did I plainly appear unto the ^g house of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh's house?

28 And did ^h I choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to offer upon mine altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before me? and did I give unto the house of thy father ⁱ all the offerings made by fire of the children of Israel?

29 Wherefore ^j kick ye at my sacrifice and at mine offering, which I have commanded ^k in my ^l habitation; and ^m honourest thy sons above me, to make yourselves fat with the chiefest of all the offerings of Israel my people?

30 Wherefore the LORD God of Israel saith, ⁿ I said indeed ^o that thy house, and the house of thy father, should walk before me for ever: but now the LORD saith, ^p Be it far from me; for them that ^q honour me ^r I will honour, and they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed.

31 Behold, the days come, that I will cut off thine arm, and the arm of thy father's house, that there shall not be an old man in thy house.

32 And thou shalt see ^s an enemy in my habitation, ^t in all the wealth which God shall give Israel: and there shall not be an old man in thy house for ever.

33 And the man of thine, whom I shall not ^u cut off ^v from mine altar, shall be to consume thine eyes, and to grieve thy heart: and all the increase of thy house shall die in the flower of their age.

34 And this shall be ^w a sign unto thee, that shall come upon thy two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas: ^x in one day they shall die both of them.

35 And I will ^y raise me up ^z a faithful priest, that shall do according to ^a that which is in my heart and in my mind: and I will build him ^b a sure house; and he shall walk before mine ^c anointed ^d for ever.

36 And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left in thy house, shall come ^e and ^f crouch to him for a piece of silver and a morsel of bread, and shall say, Put me, I pray thee, into one of the priest's offices, that I may eat a piece of bread.

CHAPTER III.

How the word of the Lord was first revealed to Samuel.

AND the child Samuel ministered unto the LORD ^a before Eli. And the word of the LORD was ^b precious in those days; ^c there was no ^d open vision.

2 And it came to pass at that time, when Eli was lain down in his place, and his eyes ^e began to wax dim, that he could ^f not see;

3 And ere the lamp of God ^g went out in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was, and Samuel was lain down to sleep;

4 That the LORD ^h called Samuel: and he answered, Here am I.

5 And he ran unto Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou calledst me. And he said, I called not; lie down again. And he went and lay down.

6 And the LORD called yet again, Samuel. And Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou didst call me. And he answered, I called not, my son; lie down again.

7 Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, neither was the word of the LORD yet revealed unto him.

8 And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. And he arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou didst call me. And Eli perceived that the LORD had called the child.

9 Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go, lie down: and it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, ⁱ Speak, LORD; for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

10 And the LORD came, and stood and called ^j as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered, Speak; for thy servant heareth.

11 ¶ And the LORD said to Samuel, Behold, ^k I will do a thing in Israel, at which both the ears of every one that heareth it shall ^l tingle.

12 In that day I will perform against Eli all things which ^a I have spoken concerning his house: when I begin. I will also make an end.

13 For I have ^a told him, that I will ^m judge his house for ever, for the iniquity which he knoweth: because his sons [†] made themselves vile, and he restrained them not.

14 And therefore I have sworn unto the house of Eli, that the iniquity of Eli's house shall ⁿ not be purged with sacrifice nor offering for ever.

15 [†] And Samuel lay until the morning, and opened the doors of the house of the LORD: and Samuel ^o feared to shew Eli the vision.

16 Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel, my son. And he answered, Here am I.

17 And he said, What is the thing that the LORD hath said unto thee? I pray thee hide it not from me: ^p God do so to thee, and more also, if thou hide any thing from me, of all the things that he said unto thee.

18 And Samuel told him every whit, and hid nothing from him. And he said, It is the LORD: ^q let him do what seemeth him good.

19 [†] And Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him, and did let ^r none of his words fall to the ground.

20 And all Israel, from ^s Dan even to Beer-sheba, knew that Samuel was established to be a prophet of the LORD.

21 And the LORD appeared again in Shiloh: for the LORD revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh ^t by the word of the LORD.

CHAPTER IV.

The Israelites are overcome by the Philistines at Eben-ezer.

^a AND the ^a word of Samuel [†] came to all Israel. Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and pitched beside Eben-ezer: and the Philistines pitched in ^b Aphec.

2 And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they [†] joined battle, ^c Israel was smitten before the Philistines: and they slew of the army in the field about four thousand men.

3 [†] And when the people were come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, Wherefore hath the LORD smitten us to-day before the Philistines? Let us fetch the ^e ark of the covenant of the LORD out of Shiloh unto us, that when it cometh among us, it may ^f save us out of the hand of our enemies.

4 So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from thence the ark of the covenant of the LORD of ^g hosts, which dwelleth ^h between the cherubims: and the ⁱ two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

5 And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel ^k shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again.

6 And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What meaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the ark of the LORD was come into the camp.

7 And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, God is come into the camp. And they said, ^l Wo unto us! for there hath not been such a thing heretofore.

8 Wo unto us! Who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty Gods? these are the Gods that smote the Egyptians with all the plagues ^m in the wilderness.

9 Be strong, and quit yourselves like men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, ⁿ as they have been to you: quit yourselves like men, and fight.

10 ^o And the Philistines fought, and Israel was smitten, and they fled every man into his ^o tent: and there was a very great ^p slaughter, for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen.

11 And the ^q ark of God was taken; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were ^r slain.

12 [†] And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the army, and came to Shiloh the same day with his clothes ^s rent, and with earth ^t upon his head.

13 And when he came, lo, Eli sat upon a seat by the way-side watching: for his heart trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city and told it, all the city cried out.

14 And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What meaneth the noise of this tumult? And the man came in hastily, and told Eli.

15 Now Eli was ninety and eight years old; and his eyes were dim, that he could not see.

16 And the man said unto Eli, I am he that came out of the army, and I fled to-day out of the army. And he said, What is there done, my son?

17 And the messenger answered and said, Israel is fled before the Philistines, and there hath been also a great slaughter among the people, and thy two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God is taken.

18 And it came to pass, when he made mention of the ark of God, that he fell from off the seat backward by the side of the ^u gate, and his ^v neck brake, and he died: for he was an old man, and heavy. And he had judged Israel forty years.

19 [†] And his daughter-in-law, Phinehas' wife, was with child near to be delivered: and when she heard the tidings that the ark of God was taken, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself, and travailed; for [†] her pains came upon her.

20 And about the time of her death, the women that stood by her said unto her, Fear not; for thou hast borne ^y a son. But she answered not, [†] neither did she regard it.

21 And she named the child ^z I-chabod, saying, ^a The glory is departed from Israel. (Because the ark of God was taken, and because of her father-in-law and her husband.)

22 And ^a she said, The glory is departed from Israel: for the ark of God is taken.

CHAPTER V.

The ark is brought into Ashdod, and set in the house of Dagon.

^a AND the Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it from ^a Eben-ezer unto ^b Ashdod.

2 When the Philistines took the ark of God, they brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by ^c Dagon.

3 [†] And when they of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, behold, Dagon ^d was fallen upon his face to the earth before the ark of the LORD. And they took Dagon, and set him in his place again.

4 And when they arose early on the morrow morning, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD: and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were ^e cut off upon the threshold; [†] only the stump of Dagon was left to him.

5 Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any that come into Dagon's house, ^f tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod unto this day.

6 But the ^g hand of the LORD was heavy upon them of Ashdod, and he ^h destroyed them, and smote them ⁱ with emerods, even Ashdod, and the coasts thereof.

7 And when the men of Ashdod ^k saw that it was so, they said, The ark of the God of Israel shall not abide with us: for his hand is sore upon us, and ^l upon Dagon our god.

8 They sent therefore, and gathered all the lords of the Philistines unto them: and said, ^m What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about unto ⁿ Gath. And they carried the ark of the God of Israel about thither.

9 And it was so, that after they had carried it about, the hand of the LORD was against the city with ^o a very great destruction: and he smote the men of the city both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret parts.

10 Therefore they sent the ark of God to Ekron. And it came to pass as the ark of God came to ^p Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to slay us and our people.

11 So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to his own place, that it slay us not, and our people: for there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city; the hand of God was very heavy there.

12 And the men that ^q died not, were smitten with the emerods: and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

CHAPTER VI.

The Philistines take counsel how to send back the ark.

AND the ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philistines seven ^a months.

2 And the Philistines called for the ^b priests and the diviners, saying, What shall we do to the ark of the LORD? tell us wherewith we shall send it to his place.

3 And they said, If ye send away the ark of the God of Israel, send it ^c not empty; but in [†] any wise return him a trespass-offering: then ye shall be healed, and it shall be ^d known to you why his hand is not removed from you.

4 Then said they, What shall be the trespass-offering which we shall return to him? ^e They answered, Five golden emerods, and five golden mice, according to the number of the lords of the Philistines: for [†] one plague was on you all, and on your lords.

5 Wherefore ye shall make images of your emerods, and images of your mice that ^f mar the land; and ye shall ^g give glory unto the God of Israel: peradventure he will lighten his hand from off you, and from off ^h your gods, and from off your land.

6 Wherefore then do ye harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh ⁱ hardened their hearts? when he had wrought wonderfully among them, did they not let the people go, and they departed?

7 Now therefore make a ^k new cart, and take two milch-kine on which there hath come no yoke, and tie the kine to the cart, and bring their calves home from them:

8 And take the ark of the LORD, and lay it upon the cart; and put the [†] jewels of gold which ye return him for a trespass-offering, in a coffer by the side thereof; and send it away, that it may go.

9 And see, if it goeth up by the way of his own coast to Beth-shemesh, then he hath done us this great evil: but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that smote us; it was a chance that happened to us.

10 [†] And the men did so; and took two milch-kine, and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home:

11 And they laid the ark of the LORD upon the cart, and the coffer with the mice of gold and the images of their emerods.

12 And the kine took the straight way to the way of [†] Beth-shemesh, † and went along the highway, lowing as they went, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left; and the lords of the Philistines went after them unto the border of Beth-shemesh.

13 And they of Beth-shemesh were reaping their ^m wheat harvest in the valley: and they lifted up their eyes, and ⁿ saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it.

14 And the cart came into the field of Joshua, a Beth-shemite, and stood there, where there was a great stone: and they ^o clave the wood of the cart, and offered the kine a burnt-offering unto the LORD.

15 And the ^p Levites took down the ark of the LORD, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone: and the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt-offerings and sacrificed sacrifices the same day unto the LORD.

16 And when the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day.

17 And these are the golden emerods which the Philistines returned for a trespass-offering unto the LORD; for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Askelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one;

18 And the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both of fenced cities, and of country villages, even unto [†] the great stone of Abel, whereon they set down the ark of the LORD: which stone remaineth unto this day in the field of Joshua the Beth-shemite.

19 [†] And he smote the men of Beth-shemesh because they had ^q looked into the ark of the LORD, even he smote of the people ^r fifty thousand and threescore and ten men: and the people lamented, because the LORD had smitten many of the people with a great slaughter.

20 And the men of Beth-shemesh said, ^s who is able to stand before this holy LORD God? and to whom shall he go up from us?

21 [†] And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of ^t Kirjath-jearim, saying, The Philistines have brought again the ark of the LORD; come ye down, and fetch it up to you.

CHAPTER VII.

They of Kirjath-jearim bring the ark into the house of Abinadab, to keep it.

AND the men of ^a Kirjath-jearim came, and fetched up the ark of the LORD, and brought it into the house of ^b Abinadab in the hill, and sanctified Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the LORD.

2 And it came to pass, while the ark abode in Kirjath-jearim, that the time was long; for it was twenty years: and all the house of Israel ^c lamented after the LORD.

3 [†] And Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye do ^d return unto the LORD with all your hearts, then put away the ^e strange gods, and Ashtaroth, from among you, and ^f prepare your hearts unto the LORD, and ^g serve him only: and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.

4 Then the children of Israel did put away ^b Baalim, and Ashtaroth, and served the LORD only.

5 And Samuel said, Gather all Israel ⁱ to Mizpeh, and I will pray for you unto the LORD.

6 And they gathered together to Mizpeh, and ^k drew water, and poured it out before the LORD, and ^l fasted on that day, and said there, We have ^m sinned against the LORD. And Samuel ⁿ judged the children of Israel in Mizpeh.

7 And when the Philistines ^o heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpeh, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard it, they were ^p afraid of the Philistines.

8 And the children of Israel said to Samuel, ^q Cease not to cry unto the LORD our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistines.

9 ¶ And Samuel took a sucking lamb, and offered it for ^r a burnt-offering wholly unto the LORD: and Samuel cried unto the LORD for Israel; and the LORD ^s heard him.

10 And as Samuel was offering up the burnt-offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel: but the LORD ^t thundered with a great thunder on that day upon the Philistines, and ^u discomfited them; and they were smitten before Israel.

11 And the men of Israel went out of Mizpeh, and pursued the Philistines, and smote them, until they came under Beth-el.

12 Then Samuel took a stone, and ^v set it between Mizpeh and Shen, and called the name of it ^w Ebenezer, saying, Hitherto hath the LORD helped us.

13 So the Philistines were subdued, and they came ^x no more into the coast of Israel: and the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

14 And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even unto Gath; and the coasts thereof did Israel deliver out of the hands of the Philistines: and there was ^y peace between Israel and the Amorites.

15 And Samuel ^z judged Israel ^a all the days of his life.

16 And he went from year to year in circuit to ^b Beth-el, and Gilgal, and Mizpeh, and judged Israel in all those places.

17 And his return was to ^c Ramah; for there was his house; and there he judged Israel; and there he ^d built an altar unto the LORD.

CHAPTER VIII.

By occasion of the ill government of Samuel's sons, the Israelites ask a king.

AND it came to pass, when Samuel was old, that he ^e made his sons judges over Israel.

2 Now the name of his first-born was ^f Joel; and the name of his second, Abiah: they were judges in Beer-sheba.

3 And his sons ^g walked not in his ways, but turned aside after ^h lucre, and took bribes, and perverted judgment.

4 Then all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel unto Ramah,

5 And said unto him, Behold, thou art ⁱ old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways: now ^j make us a king to judge us ^k like all the nations.

6 ¶ But the thing ^l displeased Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us: and Samuel ^m prayed unto the LORD.

7 And the LORD said unto Samuel, ⁿ Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: for they have ^o not rejected thee, but they have rejected ^p me, that I should ^q not reign over them.

8 According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, wherewith they have forsaken me, and served other gods, so do they also unto thee.

9 Now therefore hearken unto their voice: howbeit, yet protest solemnly unto them, and shew them ^r the manner of the king that shall reign over them.

10 ¶ And Samuel told all the words of the LORD unto the people that asked of him a king.

11 And he said, This will be the manner of the king that shall reign over you: He will take your sons, and appoint them for himself, for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and some shall run before his chariots.

12 And he will appoint him captains over thousands, and captains over fifties; and will set them to ear his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and instruments of his chariots.

13 And he will take your daughters to be concubines, and to be cooks, and to be bakers.

14 And he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your olive-yards, even the best of them, and give them to ^s his servants.

15 And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give to his ^t officers, and to his servants.

16 And he will take your men-servants, and your maid-servants, and your goodliest young men, and your asses, and put them to his work.

17 He will take the tenth of your sheep: and ye shall be his ^u servants.

18 And ye shall ^v cry out in that day because of your king which ye shall have chosen you; and the LORD will ^w not hear you in that day.

19 ¶ Nevertheless, the people ^x refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, ^y Nay; but we will have a king over us;

20 That we also may be ^z like all the nations; and that our king may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles.

21 And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he rehearsed them in the ears of the LORD.

22 And the LORD said to Samuel, Hearken unto their voice, and make them a king. And Samuel said unto the men of Israel, Go ye every man unto his city.

CHAPTER IX.

19 Samuel entertaineth Saul at the feast....25 Samuel, after secret communication, bringeth Saul on his way.

NOW there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was ^a Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, a mighty man of power.

2 And he had a son, whose name was Saul, ^b a choice young man, and a goodly: and there was not among the children of Israel a goodlier person than he: from his shoulders and upward he was ^c higher than any of the people.

3 And the ^d asses of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. And Kish said to Saul his son, Take now one of the servants with thee, and arise, go seek the asses.

4 And he passed through mount Ephraim, and passed through the land of ^e Shalisha, but they found them not: then they passed through the land of ^f Shalim, and there they were not : and he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they found them not.

5 And when they were come to the land of ^a Zuph, Saul said to his servant that was with him, Come, and let us return ; lest my father leave caring for the asses, and take thought for us.

6 And he said unto him, Behold now, there is in this city ⁱ a man of God, and he is ^k an honourable man ; all that he saith ^l cometh surely to pass : now let us go thither ; peradventure he can shew us our way that we should go.

7 Then said Saul to his servant, But behold, if we go, what shall we ^m bring the man ? for the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is not a present to bring to the man of God : what have we ?

8 And the servant answered Saul again, and said, Behold, [†] I have here at hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver : that will I give to the man of God, to tell us our way.

9 (Beforetime in Israel, when a man went to ⁿ inquire of God, thus he spake, Come, and let us go to the seer : for he that is now called a Prophet was beforetime called ^o a Seer.)

10 Then said Saul to his servant, ^p Well said ; come, let us go : so they went unto the city where the man of God was.

11 ¶ And as they went up the hill to the city, they found young maidens going out to draw water, and said unto them, Is the seer here ?

12 And they answered them, and said, He is ; behold, he is before you : make haste now, for he came to-day to the city ; for there is ^{||} a sacrifice of the people to-day ^a in the high place :

13 As soon as ye be come into the city, ye shall straightway find him, before he go up to the high place to eat : for the people will not eat until he come, because he doth ^r bless the sacrifice ; and afterwards they eat that he bidden. Now therefore get you up : for about this time ye shall find him.

14 And they went up into the city : and when they were come into the city, behold, Samuel came out against them, for to go up to the high place.

15 ¶ Now the LORD had told Samuel in his ear a day before Saul came, saying,

16 To-morrow about this time I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin, and thou shalt anoint him to be captain over my people Israel, that he may save my people ^t out of the hand of the Philistines : for I have looked upon my people, because their cry is come unto me.

17 And when Samuel saw Saul, the LORD ^u said unto him, Behold the man whom I spake to thee of ! this same shall [†] reign over my people.

18 Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the seer's house is.

19 And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the seer : go up before me unto the high place ; for ye shall eat with me to-day, and to-morrow I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that is in thy heart.

20 And as for thine asses that were lost three days ago, set not thy mind on them ; for they are found. And on whom is all ^x the desire of Israel ? Is it not on thee, and on all thy father's house ?

21 And Saul answered and said, Am not I a Benjamite, of the ^y smallest of the tribes of Israel ? and my family the ^z least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin ? wherefore then speakest thou so to me ?

22 And Samuel took Saul, and his servant, and brought them into the parlour, and made them ^a sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden, which were about thirty persons.

23 And Samuel said unto the cook, Bring the ^b portion which I gave thee, of which I said unto thee, Set it by thee.

24 And the cook took up the ^c shoulder, and that which was upon it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, Behold that which is left ! set it before thee, and eat ; for unto this time hath it been kept for thee since I said, I have invited the people. So Saul did eat with Samuel that day.

25 ¶ And when they were come down from the high place into the city, Samuel ^d communed with Saul upon the ^e top of the house.

26 And they arose early : and it came to pass about the spring of the day that Samuel called Saul to the top of the house, saying, Up, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out both of them, he and Samuel, abroad.

27 And as they were going down to the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the servant pass on before us, (and he passed on,) but ^f stand thou still [†] a while, that I may [†] shew thee the word of God.

CHAPTER X.

1 Samuel anointeth Saul... 2 He confirmeth him by prediction. THEN Samuel took ^a a vial of oil, and poured it upon his head, and ^b kissed him, and said, Is it not because the LORD hath ^c anointed thee to be captain over his ^d inheritance ?

2 When thou art departed from me to-day, then thou shalt find two men by ^e Rachel's sepulchre in the border of Benjamin at Zelzah ; and they will say unto thee, The asses which thou wentest to seek are found : and lo, thy father hath left the care of the asses, and sorroweth for you, saying, What shall I do for my son ?

3 Then shalt thou go on forward from thence, and thou shalt come to the plain of Tabor, and there shall meet thee three men going up to God to Beth-el, one carrying three kids, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of ^f wine :

4 And they will salute thee, and give thee two loaves of bread ; which thou shalt receive of their hands.

5 After that thou shalt come to the ^g hill of God, where is the garrison of the Philistines : and it shall come to pass, when thou art come thither to the city, that thou shalt meet a [†] company of prophets coming down from the high place with a psaltery, and a tabret, and a pipe, and a harp before them ; and they shall ^h prophesy :

6 And the Spirit of the LORD [†] will come upon thee, and thou shalt ⁱ prophesy with them, and shalt be ^k turned into another man.

7 And let it be, when these signs are come unto thee, that thou do ^l as occasion shall serve thee ; for God is ^m with thee.

8 And thou shalt go down before me to ⁿ Gilgal ; and behold, I will come down unto thee, ^o to offer burnt-offerings, and to sacrifice sacrifices of peace-offerings : ^a seven days shalt thou tarry, till I come to thee, and shew thee what thou shalt do.

9 ¶ And it was so, that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God gave him another heart : and all those signs came to pass that day.

10 And when they came thither to the hill, behold, a company of ^q prophets met him ; and the Spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied ^r among them.

beforetime, saw, that, behold, he prophesied among the prophets, then the people said one to another, What is this that is come unto the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?

12 And one of the same place answered and said, But who is their father? Therefore it became a proverb, Is Saul also among the prophets?

13 And when he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place.

14 ¶ And Saul's uncle said unto him and to his servant, Whither went ye? And he said, To seek the asses: and when we saw that they were no where, we came to Samuel.

15 And Saul's uncle said, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said unto you.

16 And Saul said unto his uncle, He told us plainly that the asses were found. But of the matter of the kingdom, whereof Samuel spake, he told us him not.

17 ¶ And Samuel called the people together x unto the LORD to y Mizpeh;

18 And said unto the children of Israel, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, z I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all kingdoms, and of them that oppressed you:

21 When he had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Matri was taken, and Saul the son of Kish was taken: and when they sought him, he could g not be found.

22 Therefore they h inquired of the LORD further, if the man should yet come thither. And the LORD answered, Behold, he hath i hid himself among the stuff.

23 And they ran and fetched him thence: and when he stood among the people, he was k higher than any of the people from his shoulders and upward.

24 And Samuel said to all the people, See ye him l whom the LORD hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, and said, God save the king.

25 Then Samuel told the people the m manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.

26 ¶ And Saul also went home to n Gibeah; and there went with him a band of men, whose hearts God had touched.

27 But the children of o Belial said, How shall this man save us? And they despised him, and brought him p no presents. But he q held his peace.

3 And the elders of Jabesh said unto him, Give us seven days respite, that we may send messengers unto all the coasts of Israel: and then, if there be no man to save us, we will come out to thee.

4 ¶ Then came the messengers to f Gibeah of Saul, and told the tidings in the ears of the people: and all the people lifted up their voices, and wept.

5 And behold, Saul came after the || herd out of the field; and Saul said, What avileth the people that they weep? And they told him the tidings of the men of Jabesh.

6 And the g Spirit of God came upon Saul when he heard those tidings, and his h anger was kindled greatly.

7 And he took a yoke of oxen, and i hewed them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the coasts of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, Whosoever cometh not forth after Saul and after Samuel, k so shall it be done unto his oxen. And the fear of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out † with one consent.

8 And when he numbered them in l Bezek, the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand.

9 And they said unto the messengers that came, thus shall ye say unto the men of Jabesh-gilead, Tomorrow, by that time the sun be hot, ye shall have help. And the messengers came and shewed it to the men of Jabesh; and they were glad.

10 Therefore the men of Jabesh said, To-morrow m we will come out unto you, and ye shall do with us all that seemeth good unto you.

11 And it was so on the n morrow, that Saul put the people in three † companies; and they came into the midst of the host in the o morning-watch, and slew the Ammonites until the heat of the day: and it came to pass, that they which remained were scattered, so that p two of them were not left together.

12 ¶ And the people said unto Samuel, Who is he that said, Shall Saul q reign over us? bring the men, that we may put them to death.

13 And Saul said, There shall r not a man be put to death this day: for to-day the LORD hath wrought salvation in Israel.

14 Then said Samuel to the people, Come, and let us go to s Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there.

15 And all the people went to Gilgal; and there they made Saul t king before the LORD in Gilgal: and there they sacrificed sacrifices of peace-offerings before the LORD; and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

CHAPTER XII.

Samuel testifieth his integrity.

AND Samuel said unto all Israel, Behold, I have hearkened unto your voice in all that ye said unto me, and have made a a king over you.

2 And now, behold, the king b walketh before you: and I am c old and gray-headed: and behold, my sons are with you: and I have walked before you from my childhood unto this day.

3 Behold, d here I am: witness against me before the LORD, and e before his anointed; whose f ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I received any g bribe to h blind mine eyes therewith? and I will restore it you.

4 And they said, i Thou hast not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither hast thou taken aught of any man's hand.

5 And he said unto them. The LORD is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that ye have not found aught ^k in my hand. And they answered, He is witness.

6 ¶ And Samuel said unto the people, It is the LORD ¹ that advanced Moses and Aaron, and that brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt.

7 Now therefore stand still, that I may ^m reason with you before the LORD of all the righteous acts of the LORD, which he did to you and to your fathers.

8 When ⁿ Jacob was come into Egypt, and your fathers ^o cried unto the LORD, then the LORD sent ^p Moses and Aaron, which brought forth your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place.

9 And when they ^q forgot the LORD their God, ^r he sold them into the hand of ^s Sisera, captain of the host of Hazor, and into the hand of the ^t Philistines, and into the hand of the king of ^u Moab, and they fought against them.

10 And they cried unto the LORD, and said, We have sinned, because we have forsaken the LORD, and have served ^x Baalim and Ashtaroth: but now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve thee.

11 And the LORD sent ^y Jerubbaal, and Bedan, and Jephthah, and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side, and ye dwelled safe.

12 And when ye saw that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, ye said unto me, Nay; but ^z a king shall reign over us: when the LORD your God ^a was your king.

13 Now therefore, behold the king whom ^b ye have chosen, and whom ye have desired! and behold, ^c the LORD hath set a king over you.

14 If ye will ^d fear the LORD, and serve him, and obey his voice, and not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then shall both ye, and also the king that reigneth over you, continue following the LORD your God.

15 But if ye will ^e not obey the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then shall the hand of the LORD be against you, as it was against your fathers.

16 ¶ Now therefore, stand and see ^f this great thing, which the LORD will do before your eyes.

17 Is it not ^g wheat-harvest to-day? I will ^h call unto the LORD, and he shall send thunder and rain; that ye may perceive and see that your wickedness is ⁱ great, which ye have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking you a king.

18 So Samuel called unto the LORD; and the LORD ^k sent thunder and rain that day: and all the people greatly ^l feared the LORD and Samuel.

19 And all the people said unto Samuel, Pray for thy servants unto the LORD thy God, that we die not: for we have added unto all our sins this evil, to ask us a king.

20 ¶ And Samuel said unto the people, Fear not: ye have done all this wickedness: ^m yet turn not aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD ⁿ with all your heart;

21 And turn ye not aside: for then should ye go after ^o vain things, which cannot profit nor deliver; for they are vain.

22 For the LORD will not forsake his people ^p for his great name's sake: because it hath ^q pleased the LORD to make you his people.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Saul's selected band....3 He calleth the Hebrews to Gilgal against the Philistines.

SAUL [†] reigned one year; and when he had reigned ^a two years over Israel,

2 Saul chose him ^b three thousand men of Israel; whereof two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in mount Beth-el, and a thousand were with Jonathan in ^c Gibeah of Benjamin: and the rest of the people he sent every man to his tent.

3 And Jonathan smote ^d the garrison of the Philistines that was in ^e Geba; and the Philistines heard of it. And Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Let the Hebrews hear.

4 And all Israel heard say ^f that Saul had smitten a garrison of the Philistines, and that Israel also was had in abomination with the Philistines: and the people were called together after Saul to Gilgal.

5 ¶ And the Philistines gathered themselves together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the ^g sea-shore in multitude: and they came up, and pitched in Michmash, eastward from ^h Beth-aven.

6 When the men of Israel saw that they were in ⁱ a strait (for the people were distressed) then the people did hide themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in high places, and in pits.

7 And some of the Hebrews went over Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. As for Saul, he was yet in Gilgal, and all the people [†] followed him trembling.

8 ¶ And he tarried ^k seven days, according to the set time that Samuel had appointed: but Samuel came not to Gilgal; and the people were scattered from him.

9 And Saul ^l said, Bring hither a burnt-offering to me, and peace-offerings. And he ^m offered the burnt-offering.

10 And it came to pass, that ⁿ as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt-offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might salute him.

11 ¶ And Samuel said, What hast thou done? And Saul said, Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that thou camest not ^o within the days appointed, and that the Philistines gathered themselves together at Michmash;

12 Therefore ^p said I, the Philistines will come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I have not made supplication unto the LORD: ^q I forced myself therefore, and offered a burnt-offering.

13 And Samuel said to Saul, ^r Thou hast done ^s foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of the LORD thy God, which he commanded thee: for now would the LORD have established thy kingdom upon Israel for ever.

14 But now thy kingdom shall not continue: the LORD hath ^t sought him a man after his own heart, and the LORD hath commanded him to be captain over his people, because thou hast not kept that which the LORD commanded thee.

15 And Samuel arose, and gat him up from Gilgal unto Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people that were present with him, ^u about six hundred men.

16 And Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the people that were present with them, abode in Gibeah of Benjamin: but the Philistines encamped in Michmash.

17 ¶ And the spoilers came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned unto the way that leadeth to ^x Ophrah, unto the land of ^y Shual:

18 And another company turned the way to ^z Beth-horon: and another company turned to the way of the border that looketh to the ^a valley of Zeboim, toward the wilderness.

19 ¶ Now there was ^b no smith found throughout all the land of Israel: (for the Philistines said, ^c Lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears:)

20 But all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his share, and his coulter, and his axe, and his mattock.

21 Yet they had a file for the mattocks, and for the coulters, and for the forks, and for the axes, and to sharpen the goads.

22 So it came to pass in the day of battle, that there was neither ^d sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people that were with Saul and Jonathan: but with Saul and with Jonathan his son was there found.

23 And the garrison of the Philistines went out to the passage of Michmash.

CHAPTER XIV.

Jonathan goeth and miraculously smiteth the Philistines' garrison.

NOW it came to pass upon a day, that Jonathan the son of Saul said unto the young man that bare his armour, ^a Come, and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison that is on the other side. But he ^b told not his father.

2 And Saul tarried in the uttermost part of Gibeah under a pomegranate-tree which is in ^c Migron: and the people that were with him were about six hundred men;

3 And ^d Ahiah, the son of Ahitub, ^e I-chabob's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the LORD's priest in Shiloh ^f wearing an ephod. And the people knew not that Jonathan was gone.

4 ¶ And between the passages by which Jonathan sought to go over unto the Philistines' garrison, there was a [†] sharp rock on the one side, and a sharp rock on the other side: and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.

5 The forefront of the one was situate northward over against Michmash, and the other southward over against Gibeah.

6 And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over unto the garrison of these ^g uncircumcised: ^h it may be that the LORD will work for us: for there is no restraint to the LORD to save by many ⁱ or by few.

7 And his armour-bearer said unto him, Do all that is in thy heart: turn thee; behold, I am with thee according to thy heart.

8 Then said Jonathan, Behold, we will pass over unto these men, and we will discover ourselves unto them.

9 ^k If they say thus unto us, Tarry until we come to you; then we will stand still in our place, and will not go up unto them.

10 But if they say thus, Come up unto us; then we will go up: for the LORD hath delivered them into our hand; and ^l this shall be a sign unto us.

11 And both of them discovered themselves unto the garrison of the Philistines: and the Philistines said, Behold, the Hebrews come forth out of the holes where they had hid themselves.

12 And the men of the ^m garrison answered Jonathan and his armour-bearer, and said, Come up to us, and we ⁿ will shew you a thing. And Jonathan said unto his armour-bearer, Come up after me: for the LORD hath delivered them into the hand of Israel.

13 And Jonathan ^o climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet, and his armour-bearer after him: and they fell before Jonathan; and his armour-bearer ^p slew after him.

14 And that first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armourer-bearer made, was about twenty men, [†] within as it were a half-acre of land, which a yoke of oxen might plough.

15 And there was ^q trembling in the host, in the field, and among all the people: the garrison, and the spoilers, they also trembled, and the earth quaked: so it was [†] a very great trembling.

16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked; and behold, the multitude melted away, and they went on beating down one another.

17 Then said Saul unto the people that were with him, Number now, and see who is gone from us. And when they had numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armour-bearer were not there.

18 And Saul said unto Ahiah, ^r Bring hither the ark of God. For the ark of God was at that time with the children of Israel.

19 ¶ And it came to pass while Saul talked unto the priest, that the noise that was in the host of the Philistines went on, and increased: and Saul said unto the priest, ^s Withdraw thy hand.

20 And Saul and all the people that were with him assembled themselves, and they came to the battle: and behold, ^t every man's sword was against his fellow, and there was a very great discomfiture.

21 Moreover, the Hebrews that were with the Philistines before that time, which went up with them into the camp from the country round about, even they also turned to be with the Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan.

22 Likewise all the men of Israel which had ^u hid themselves in mount Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle.

23 So the LORD ^x saved Israel that day: and the battle passed over unto Beth-aven.

24 ¶ And the men of Israel were distressed that day: for Saul had ^y adjured the people, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any ^z food until evening, that I may be ^a avenged on mine enemies. So none of the people tasted any food.

25 And ^b all they of the land came to a wood; and there was ^c honey upon the ground.

26 And when the people were come into the wood, behold, the honey dropped: but no man put his hand to his mouth; for the people feared the oath.

27 But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath: wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipped it in ^{||} a honey-comb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his ^d eyes were enlightened.

32 And the people flew upon the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground : and the people ^e did it them with the ^f blood.

33 ¶ Then they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sin against the LORD, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye have ^g transgressed : ^h roll a great stone unto me this day.

34 And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and say unto them, Bring me hither every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and slay them here, and eat ; and sin not against the LORD in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and slew them there.

35 And Saul ⁱ built an altar unto the LORD : † the same was the first altar that he built unto the LORD :

36 And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatsoever seemeth good unto thee. Then said the priest, Let us ^k draw near hither unto God.

37 And Saul ^l asked counsel of God, Shall I go down after the Philistines ? wilt thou deliver them into the hand of Israel ? But he ^m answered him not that day.

38 And Saul said, Draw ye near hither all the † chief of the people : and know and see ⁿ wherein this sin hath been this day :

39 For as the LORD liveth, which saveth Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die. But there was not a man among all the people that answered him.

40 Then said he unto all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people said unto Saul, Do what seemeth good unto thee.

41 Therefore Saul said unto the LORD God of Israel, † Give a perfect lot. And Saul and Jonathan were taken : but the people escaped.

42 And Saul said, Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken.

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what thou hast done. And Jonathan told him, and said, I did but taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in my hand, and, lo, I must die.

44 And Saul answered, ° God do so, and more also : for thou shalt surely ^p die, Jonathan.

45 And the people said unto Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who hath wrought this great salvation in Israel ? God forbid : as the LORD liveth, there shall not ^q one hair of his head fall to the ground ; for he hath wrought ^r with God this day. So the people rescued Jonathan, that he died not.

46 Then Saul went up from following the Philistines : and the Philistines went to their own place.

47 ¶ So Saul took the kingdom over Israel, and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of ^t Zobah, and against the Philistines : and whithersoever he turned himself, he ^u vexed them.

48 And he gathered a host, and smote the ^x Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of them that spoiled them.

49 Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and ^v Ishui, and Melchi-shua : and the names of his two daughters, were these ; the name of the first-born Merab, and the name of the younger, Michal :

50 And the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz : and the name of the captain of his host was Abner, the son of Ner, Saul's uncle.

51 And Kish was the father of Saul ; and Ner the father of Abner was the son of ^z Abiel.

52 And there was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saul : and when Saul saw any strong man, or any † valiant man, he took him unto him.

CHAPTER XV.

Samuel sendeth Saul to destroy Amalek.

SAMUEL also said unto Saul, The LORD ^a sent me to anoint thee to be king over his people, over Israel : now therefore ^b hearken thou unto the voice of the words of the LORD.

2 Thus saith the ^c LORD of hosts, ^d I remember that which Amalek did to Israel, how he ^e laid wait for him in the way, when he came up from Egypt.

3 Now go and smite Amalek, and ^f utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not ; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ^g ox and sheep, camel and ass.

4 And Saul gathered the people together, and numbered them in ^h Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ⁱ ten thousand men of Judah.

5 And Saul came to a city of Amalek, and laid wait in the ^k valley.

6 ¶ And Saul said unto the ^l Kenites, ^m Go, depart, ⁿ get you down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them : for ye ^o shewed kindness to all the children of Israel when they came up out of Egypt. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

7 And Saul ^p smote the Amalekites from ^q Havilah, until thou comest to ^r Shur, that is over against Egypt.

8 And he took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

9 But Saul and the people ^s spared Agag, and the ^t best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them : but every thing that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly.

10 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Samuel, saying,

11 It ^u repenteth me that I have set up Saul to be king : for he is ^x turned back from following me, and hath ^y not performed my commandments. And it grieved Samuel ; and he ^z cried unto the LORD all night.

12 And when Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning, it was told Samuel, saying, Saul came to ^a Carmel, and behold, he set him up a place, and is gone about, and passed on, and gone down to Gilgal.

13 And Samuel came to Saul : and Saul said unto him, Blessed be thou of the LORD : ^b I have performed the commandment of the LORD.

14 And Samuel said, What meaneth then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?

15 And Saul said, They have brought them from the Amalekites: for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed.

16 Then Samuel said unto Saul, Stay, and I will tell thee what the LORD hath said to me this night. And he said unto him, Say on.

17 And Samuel said, When thou wast a little in thine own sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel, and the LORD anointed thee king over Israel?

18 And the LORD sent thee on a journey, and said, Go, and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until they be consumed.

19 Wherefore then didst thou not obey the voice of the LORD, but didst fly upon the spoil, and didst evil in the sight of the LORD?

20 And Saul said unto Samuel, Yea, I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and have gone the way which the LORD sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

21 But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things, which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God in Gilgal.

22 And Samuel said, Hath the LORD as great delight in burnt-offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams.

23 For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, he hath also rejected thee from being king.

24 And Saul said unto Samuel, I have sinned: for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD, and thy words: because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice.

25 Now therefore, I pray thee, pardon my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD.

26 And Samuel said unto Saul, I will not return with thee: for thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD hath rejected thee from being king over Israel.

27 And as Samuel turned about to go away, he laid hold upon the skirt of his mantle, and it rent.

28 And Samuel said unto him, The LORD hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbour of thine that is better than thou.

29 And also the Strength of Israel will not lie nor repent: for he is not a man, that he should repent.

30 Then he said, I have sinned: yet honour me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD thy God.

31 So Samuel turned again after Saul; and Saul worshipped the LORD.

32 Then said Samuel, Bring ye hither to me Agag the king of the Amalekites. And Agag came unto him delicately. And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past.

33 And Samuel said, As thy sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal.

34 Then Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house to Gibeah of Saul.

35 And Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death: nevertheless Samuel mourned for Saul: and the LORD repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.

CHAPTER XVI.

Samuel anointeth David.

AND the LORD said unto Samuel, How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? fill thy horn with oil, and go, I will send thee to Jesse the Beth-lehemite: for I have provided me a king among his sons.

2 And Samuel said, How can I go? if Saul hear it, he will kill me. And the LORD said, take a heifer with thee, and say, I am come to sacrifice to the LORD.

3 And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will shew thee what thou shalt do: and thou shalt anoint unto me him whom I name unto thee.

4 And Samuel did that which the LORD spake, and came to Beth-lehem. And the elders of the town trembled at his coming, and said, Comest thou peaceably?

5 And he said, Peaceably: I am come to sacrifice unto the LORD: sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

6 And it came to pass when they were come, that he looked on Eliab, and said, Surely the LORD's anointed is before him.

7 But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart.

8 Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this.

9 Then Jesse made Shammah to pass by. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this.

10 Again Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel. And Samuel said unto Jesse, The LORD hath not chosen these.

11 And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are here all thy children? And he said, There remaineth yet the youngest, and behold, he keepeth the sheep. And Samuel said unto Jesse, Send and fetch him: for we will not sit down till he come hither.

12 And he sent, and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, and withal of a beautiful countenance, and goodly to look to. And the LORD said, Arise, anoint him: for this is he.

13 Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brethren: and the Spirit of the LORD came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.

14 But the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD troubled him.

15 And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee.

16 Let our lord now command thy servants, which are before thee, to seek out a man who is a cunning player on a harp: and it shall come to pass, when the evil spirit from God is upon thee, that he shall play with his hand, and thou shalt be well.

17 And Saul said unto his servants, Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring him to me.

18 Then answered one of the servants and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Beth-lehemite, that is cunning in playing, and ^a a mighty valiant man, and a man of war, and prudent in matters, and a comely person, and the LORD is ^e with him.

19 ¶ Wherefore Saul sent messengers unto Jesse, and said, Send me David thy son, which is with the sheep.

20 And Jesse took an ass laden with bread, and a bottle of wine, and a kid, and sent them by David his son unto Saul.

21 And David came to Saul, and ^f stood before him: and he ^g loved him greatly; and he became his armour-bearer.

22 And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Let David, I pray thee, stand before me; for he hath found favour in my sight.

23 And it came to pass, when the evil spirit ^h from God was upon Saul, that David took a harp, and played with his hand: so Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit ⁱ departed from him.

CHAPTER XVII.

Goliath cometh forth to challenge a combat with the Israelites.

NOW ¶ the Philistines gathered together their armies to battle, and were gathered together at Shochoh, which belongeth to Judah, and pitched ^a between Shochoh and ^b Azekah, in ^c Ephes-dammim.

2 And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and pitched by the valley of Elah, and set the battle in array against the Philistines.

3 And the Philistines stood on a mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them.

4 ¶ And there went out [†] a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named ^d Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span.

5 And he had a helmet of brass upon his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of brass.

6 And he had greaves of brass upon his legs, and a target of brass between his shoulders.

7 And the staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron: and one bearing a shield went before him.

8 And he stood and cried unto the armies of Israel, and said unto them, Why are ye come out to set your battle in array? am not I a Philistine, and ye servants to Saul? choose you a man for you, and let him come down to me.

9 If he be able to fight with me, and to kill me, then will we be your servants: but if I prevail against him, and kill him, then shall ye be our servants, and serve us.

10 And the Philistine said, ^e I defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a man, that we may fight together.

11 When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid.

12 ¶ Now David was ^f the son of that Ephraimite of Beth-lehem-judah, whose name was Jesse; and he had ^g eight sons: and the man went among men for an old man in the days of Saul.

13 And the three ^h eldest sons of Jesse went and followed Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons that went to the battle were Eliab the first-born, and next unto him Abinadab, and the third Shamhah.

14 And David was ⁱ the youngest: and the three eldest followed Saul.

15 But David ¶ went and returned from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Beth-lehem.

16 And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days.

17 And Jesse said unto David his son, Take now for thy brethren an ^k ephah of this parched corn, and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to thy brethren:

18 And carry these ten cheeses unto the captain of their thousand, and look how thy brethren fare, and take their pledge.

19 Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

20 ¶ And David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the ¶ trench, as the host was going forth to the ^l fight, and shouted for the battle.

21 For Israel and the Philistines had put the battle in array, army against army.

22 And David left his carriage in the hand of the keeper of the carriage, and ran into the army, and came and [†] saluted his brethren.

23 And as he talked with them, behold, there came up the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, out of the armies of the Philistines, and spake according to the same words: and David heard them.

24 And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, [†] fled from him, and were sore afraid.

25 And the men of Israel said, Have ye seen this man that is come up? surely to defy Israel is he come up: and it shall be, that the man who killeth him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and will ^m give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel.

26 And David spake to the men that stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the ⁿ reproach from Israel? for who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the ^o living God?

27 And the people answered him after this manner, saying, So shall it be done to the man that killeth him.

28 ¶ And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spake unto the men; and Eliab's ^p anger was kindled against David, and he said, Why camest thou down hither? and with whom hast thou left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know thy ^q pride, and the naughtiness of thy heart; for thou art come down that thou mightest see the battle.

29 And David said, What have I now done? ^r Is there not a cause?

30 ¶ And he turned from him toward another, and spake after the [†] same manner: and the people answered him again after the former manner.

31 And when the words were heard which David spake, they rehearsed them before Saul, and he sent for him.

32 ¶ And David said to Saul, ^s Let no man's heart fail because of him; thy servant ^t will go and fight with this Philistine.

33 And Saul said to David, Thou art not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him: for thou art but a youth, and he ^u a man of war from his youth.

34 And David said unto Saul, Thy servant [†] kept his father's sheep, and there came a lion, and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock:

35 And I went out after him and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and ^{*} smote him, and slew him.

36 Thy servant slew both the lion and the bear : and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he hath defied the armies of the living God.

37 David said moreover, The LORD that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will ^v deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said unto David, Go, and the LORD be with thee.

38 ¶ And Saul armed David with ^z his armour, and he put a helmet of brass upon his head ; also he armed him with a coat of mail.

39 And David girded his sword upon his armour, and he assayed to go ; for he had not proved it. And David said unto Saul, I cannot ^a go with these, for I have not proved them. And David put them off him.

40 And he took his ^b staff in his hand, and chose him ^c five smooth stones out of the brook and put them in a shepherd's bag which he had, even in a scrip ; and his sling was in his hand : and he drew near to the Philistine.

41 And the Philistine came on, and drew near unto David ; and the man that bare the ^d shield went before him.

42 And when the Philistine looked about, and saw David, ^e he disdained him : for he was but a youth, and ruddy, and of a fair countenance.

43 And the Philistine said unto David, Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with ^f staves ? and the Philistine cursed David by his gods.

44 And the Philistine said to David, Come to me, and ^g I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field.

45 Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield : but I come to thee ^h in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied.

46 ¶ This day will the LORD deliver thee into my hand ; and I will smite thee, and take thy head from thee ; and I will give the carcasses of the host of the Philistines this day unto ^k the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth : that ^l all the earth may know that there is a God ^m in Israel.

47 And all this assembly shall know that the LORD ⁿ saveth not with sword and spear : for the battle ^o is the LORD's, and he will give you into our hands.

48 And it came to pass, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew nigh to meet David, that David hasted, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine.

49 And David put his hand in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone ^{||} sunk into his forehead ; and he fell upon his face to the earth.

50 So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine and slew him ; but there was no sword in the hand of David.

51 Therefore David ran and stood upon the Philistine, and took his sword, and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith. And when the Philistines saw their champion was dead, they fled.

52 And the men of Israel and of Judah arose, and shouted, and pursued the Philistines, until thou come to the valley, and to the gates of Ekron. And the wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to Shaaraim, even unto Gath, and unto Ekron.

53 And the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they spoiled their [†] tents.

54 And David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to ^q Jerusalem ; but he put his ^r armour in his tent.

55 ¶ And when Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said unto Abner the captain of the host, Abner, ^s whose son is this youth ? And Abner said, As thy soul liveth, O king, I cannot tell.

56 And the king said, ¶ Inquire thou whose son the stripling is.

57 And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul ^t with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

58 And Saul said to him, Whose son art thou, thou young man ? And David answered, I am the son of thy servant Jesse the Beth-lehemite.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 Jonathan loveth David....5 Saul envieth his praise.

AND it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, that the soul of Jonathan was ^a knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.

2 And Saul took him ^b that day, and would let him go no more home to his father's house.

3 Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.

4 And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle.

5 ¶ And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and behaved himself ^c wisely : and Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

6 And it came to pass as they came, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the women came out of all the cities of Israel, ^d singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with tabrets, with joy, and with instruments of music.

7 And the women ^e answered one another as they played, and said, ^f Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands.

8 And Saul was very wroth, and the saying [†] displeased him ; and he said, They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands : and what can he have more but the ^g kingdom ?

9 And Saul ^h eyed David from that day and forward.

10 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that the ⁱ evil spirit from God came upon Saul, and he ^k prophesied in the midst of the house ; and David played with his hand, as at other times : and there was a javelin in Saul's hand.

11 And Saul cast the ^l javelin ; for he said, I will smite David even to the wall with it. And David avoided out of his presence twice.

12 ¶ And Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him, and was departed from Saul.

13 Therefore Saul removed him from him, and made him his captain ^m over a thousand ; and he went out ⁿ and came in before the people.

14 And David behaved himself wisely in all his ways ; and the LORD was with him.

15 Wherefore when Saul saw that he behaved himself very wisely, he was afraid of him.

16 But all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and came in before them.

17 ¶ And Saul said to David, Behold, my † elder daughter Merab, her will I give thee to wife: only be thou valiant for me, and fight the ° LORD's battles. For Saul said, † Let not my hand be upon him, but let the hand of the Philistines be upon him.

18 And David said unto Saul, † Who am I? and what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?

19 But it came to pass at the time when Merab, Saul's daughter, should have been given to David, that she was given unto † Adriel the † Meholathite to wife.

20 And Michal, Saul's daughter, loved David: and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him.

21 And Saul said, I will give him her, that she may be † a snare to him, and that the † hand of the Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to David, Thou shalt this day be my son-in-law, in the one of the twain.

22 And Saul commanded his servants, saying, Commune with David secretly, and say, Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee: now therefore be the king's son-in-law.

23 And Saul's servants spake those words in the ears of David. And David said, Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a king's son-in-law, seeing that I am † a poor man, and lightly esteemed?

24 And the servants of Saul told him, saying, † On this manner spake David.

25 And Saul said, Thus shall ye say to David, the king desireth not any † dowry, but a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king's enemies. But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

26 And when his servants told David these words, † it pleased David well to be the king's son-in-law: and the days were not expired.

27 Wherefore David arose, and went, he and his men, and slew of the Philistines two hundred men; and David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full † tale to the king, that he might be the king's son-in-law. And Saul gave him Michal his daughter to wife.

28 ¶ And Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that Michal, Saul's daughter, loved him.

29 And Saul was yet the † more afraid of David; and Saul became David's enemy continually.

30 Then the princes of the Philistines went forth: and it came to pass, after they went forth, that David behaved himself † more wisely than all the servants of Saul: so that his name was † much set by.

CHAPTER XIX.

Jonathan discloseth his father's purpose to kill David.

AND Saul spake to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should † kill David.

2 But Jonathan, Saul's son, † delighted much in David: and † Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father seeketh to kill thee: now therefore, I pray thee, take heed to thyself until the morning, and abide in a secret place, and hide thyself:

3 And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where thou art, and I will commune with my father of thee; and what I see, that I will tell thee.

4 ¶ And Jonathan spake † good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Let not the king † sin against his servant, against David; because he hath not sinned against thee, and because † his works have been † to thee-ward very good:

5 For he did † put his life in his hand, and slew the Philistine, and the † LORD wrought a great salvation for all Israel: thou sawest it, and didst † rejoice: wherefore then wilt thou † sin against innocent blood, to slay David without a cause?

6 And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan: and Saul † sware, As the LORD liveth, he shall not be slain.

7 And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan shewed him all those things. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, as in times past.

8 ¶ And there was war again: and David went out, and fought with the Philistines, and slew them with a great slaughter; and they fled from him.

9 And the † evil spirit from the LORD was upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his † javelin in his hand: and David played with his hand.

10 And Saul † sought to smite David even to the wall with the javelin; but he slipped away out of Saul's presence, and he smote the javelin into the wall: and David fled, and † escaped that night.

11 Saul † also sent messengers unto David's house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal, David's wife, told him, saying, if thou save not thy life to-night, to-morrow thou shalt be slain.

12 ¶ So Michal let David down through † a window: and he went, and fled, and escaped.

13 And Michal took an † image, and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats' hair for his bolster, and covered it with a cloth.

14 And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, He is sick.

15 And Saul sent the messengers again to see David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may slay him.

16 And when the messengers were come in, behold, there was an image in the bed, with a pillow of goats' hair for his bolster.

17 And Saul said unto Michal, Why hast thou † deceived me so, and sent away mine enemy, that he is escaped? And Michal answered Saul, He said unto me, let me go; † why should I kill thee?

18 ¶ So David fled, and escaped, and came † to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and dwelt in Naioth.

19 And it was † told Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah.

20 And Saul sent † messengers to take David: and when they saw the company of the prophets † prophesying, and Samuel standing as appointed over them, the Spirit of God was upon the messengers of Saul, and they also † prophesied.

21 And when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise. And Saul sent messengers again the † third time, and they prophesied also.

22 Then went † he also to Ramah, and came to a great well that is in † Sechu: and he asked and said, Where are Samuel and David? And one said, Behold, they be at Naioth in Ramah.

23 And he went thither to Naioth in Ramah: and the Spirit of God was upon him also, and he went on, and prophesied until he came to Naioth in Ramah.

24 And he † stripped off his clothes also, and prophesied before Samuel in like manner, and † lay down naked all that day and all that night. Wherefore they say, Is † Saul also among the prophets?

AND David^a fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan,^c What have I done? what is mine iniquity? and what is my sin before thy father, that he seeketh my[†] life?

2 And he said unto him, God forbid; thou shalt not die: behold, my father will do nothing either great or small, but that he will shew it me: and why should my father hide this thing from me? It is not so.

3 And David swore moreover, and said, Thy father certainly knoweth that I have found grace in thine eyes; and he saith, Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved: But truly^d as the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, there is but a step between me and^e death.

4 Then said Jonathan unto David, Whatsoever thy soul^f desireth, I will even do it for thee.

5 And David said unto Jonathan, Behold, to-morrow is the^g new-moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at meat: but let me go, that I may hide myself in the field unto the third day at even.

6 If thy father at all miss me, then say, David earnestly asked leave of me, that he might run to Beth-lehem^h his city: for there is aⁱ yearly sacrifice there for all the family.

7 If he say thus, It is well; thy servant shall have peace: but if he be very wroth, then be sure that evil is determined by him.

8 Therefore thou shalt deal kindly with thy servant; for^k thou hast brought thy servant into a covenant of the LORD with thee: notwithstanding, if^l there be in me iniquity, slay me thyself; for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father?

9 And Jonathan said, Far be it from thee: for if I knew certainly that evil were determined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I tell it thee?

10 Then said David to Jonathan, Who shall tell me? or what if thy father answer thee roughly?

11 ¶ And Jonathan said unto David, Come, and let us go out into the field. And they went out both of them into the field.

12 And Jonathan said unto David, ¶ O LORD God of Israel, when I have[†] sounded my father about to-morrow any time, or the third day, and behold, if there be good toward David, and I then send not unto thee, and[†] shew it thee;

13^m The LORD do so and much more to Jonathan; but if it please my father to do thee evil, then I will shew it thee, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and the LORDⁿ be with thee, as he hath been with my father.

14 And thou shalt not only while yet I live shew me the kindness of the LORD, that I die not:

15 But also thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house for ever: no, not when the LORD hath cut off the enemies of David every one from the face of the earth.

16 So Jonathan[†] made a covenant with the house of David, saying, Let the LORD even^p require it at the hand of David's enemies.

17 And Jonathan caused David to^q swear again, because he loved him: for he loved him[†] as he loved his own soul.

18 Then Jonathan said to David, To-morrow is the new-moon: and thou shalt be missed, because thy seat will be empty.

19 And when thou hast stayed three days, then thou shalt go down quickly, and come to the place where thou didst hide thyself[†] when the business was in hand, and shalt remain by the stone^{||} Ezel.

20 And I will shoot three arrows on the side thereof, as though I shot at a mark.

21 And behold, I will send a lad, saying, Go, find out the arrows. If I expressly say unto the lad, Behold, the arrows are on this side of thee, take them; then come thou: for there is peace to thee, and no hurt; as the LORD liveth.

22 But if I say thus unto the young man, Behold, the arrows are beyond thee; go thy way: for the LORD hath sent thee away.

23 And as touching the matter which thou and I have spoken of, behold, the LORD be between thee and me for ever.

24 ¶ So David hid^r himself in the field: and when the new-moon was come, the king sat him down to eat meat.

25 And the king sat upon his seat, [†] as at other times, even upon a seat by the wall: and Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Saul's side, and David's place was empty.

26 Nevertheless Saul spake not any thing that day: for he thought, Something hath befallen him, he is not clean; surely he is^s not clean.

27 And it came to pass on the morrow, which was the second day of the month, that David's place was empty: and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, Wherefore cometh not the son of^u Jesse to[†] meat, neither yesterday, nor to-day?

28 And Jonathan answered Saul, David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Beth-lehem:

29 And he said, Let me go, I pray thee; for our family hath^x a sacrifice in the city; and my brother he hath commanded me to be there: and now if I have found favour in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray thee, and see my brethren. Therefore he cometh not unto the king's table.

30 Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, [†] Thou son of the perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own confusion, and unto the confusion of thy mother's nakedness?

31 For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be established, nor thy kingdom. Wherefore now send and fetch him unto me, for he shall surely die.

32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, ^y Wherefore shall he be slain? what hath he done?

33 And Saul cast a javelin at him to smite him: whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to slay David.

34 So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did eat no meat the second day of the month: for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame.

35 ¶ And it came to pass in the morning, that Jonathan went out in the field^z at the time appointed with David, and a little lad with him.

36 And he said unto his lad, Run, find out now the arrows which I shoot. And as the lad ran, he shot an arrow, [†] beyond him.

37 And when the lad was come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the lad, and said, Is not the arrow beyond thee?

38 And Jonathan cried after the lad, Make speed,

CHAPTER XXI.

David at Nob obtaineth of Ahimelech hallowed bread.

THEN came David to a Nob to Ahimelech the priest: and Ahimelech was b afraid at the meeting of David, and said unto him, Why art thou c alone, and no man with thee?

2 And David said unto Ahimelech the priest, d The king hath commanded me a business, and hath said unto me, Let no man know any thing of the business whereabout I send thee, and what I have commanded thee: and I have appointed my servants to such and such a place.

3 Now therefore what is under thy hand? give me five loaves of bread in my hand, or what there is present.

4 And the priest answered David, and said, There is no common b bread under my hand, but there is e hallowed bread; if the young men have kept themselves at least f from women.

5 And David answered the priest, and said unto him, Of a truth women have been kept from us about these three days, since I came out, and the g vessels of the young men are holy, and the bread is in a h manner common, yea, though it were sanctified this day in the vessel.

6 So the priest i gave him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there but the shew-bread, that was taken from before the LORD, to put k hot bread in the day when it was taken away.

7 Now a certain man of the l servants of Saul was there that m day, detained before the LORD; and his name was Doeg, an n Edomite, the † chiefest of the herdmen that belonged to Saul.

8 ¶ And David said unto Ahimelech, And is there not here under thy hand spear or sword? for I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste.

9 And the priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom thou slewest in the o valley of Elah, behold, it is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod: if thou wilt take that, take it: for there is no other save that here. And David said, There is none like that; give it me.

10 ¶ And David arose, and p fled that day for fear of Saul, and went to q Achish the king of Gath.

11 And the servants of Achish said unto him, Is not this David the king of the land? did they not sing one to another of him in dances, saying, r Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

12 And David s laid up these words in his heart, and was t sore afraid of Achish the king of Gath.

13 And he changed his behaviour before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and scrabbled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down upon his beard.

14 Then said Achish unto his servants, Lo, ye see the man is † mad: wherefore then have ye brought him to me?

15 Have I need of mad-men, that ye have brought this fellow to play the mad-man in my presence? shall this fellow come into my house?

CHAPTER XXII.

Companies resort unto David at Adullam.

DAVID therefore departed thence, and a escapee to the cave b Adullam: and when his brethren and all his father's house heard it, c they went down thither to him.

2 And every one that was d in distress, and every one that was e in debt, and every one that was discontented, gathered themselves unto him; and he became a f captain over them: and there were with him about four hundred men.

3 ¶ And David went thence g to Mizpeh of Moab: and he h said unto the king of Moab, i Let my father and my mother, I pray thee, come forth, and be with you, till I know what God will do for me.

4 And he brought them before the king of Moab: and they dwelt with him all the while that David was in the hold.

5 ¶ And the prophet k Gad said unto David, Abide not in the hold; l depart and get thee into the m land of Judah. Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hareth.

6 ¶ When Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men that were with him, (now Saul abode in Gibeah under a tree in Ramah, having his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing about him;)

7 Then Saul said unto his servants that stood about him, Hear now, ye Benjamites; will the n son of Jesse o give every one of you fields and vineyards, and make you all captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds;

8 That all of you have conspired against me, and there is none that sheweth me that my son hath made p a league with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you that is sorry for me, or sheweth unto me that my son hath q stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?

9 ¶ Then answered r Doeg the Edomite, which was set over the servants of Saul, and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of s Ahitub.

10 And he t inquired of the LORD for him, and gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine.

11 u Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests that were in Nob: and they came all of them to the king.

12 And Saul said, Hear now, thou son of Ahitub. And he answered, Here I am, my lord.

13 And Saul said unto him, Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him bread, and a sword, and hast inquired of God for him, that x he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?

14 Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, And who is so faithful among all thy servants as David, which is the king's son-in-law, and ^y goeth at thy bidding, and is honourable in thy house?

15 Did I then begin to inquire of God for him? be it far from me. Let not the king impute any thing unto his servant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy servant knew nothing of all this, less or more.

But the servants of the king ^b would not put forth their hand to fall upon the priests of the LORD.

CHAPTER XXIII.

David inquiring of the Lord by Abiathar, rescueth Keilah.

THEN ^a they told David, saying, Behold, the Philistines fight against ^b Keilah, and they rob the threshing-floors.

2 Therefore David ^c inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go and smite these Philistines? And the LORD said unto David, Go, and smite the Philistines, and save Keilah.

3 And David's men said unto him, Behold, we be afraid here in Judah: ^d how much more then if we come to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?

4 Then David inquired of the LORD ^e yet again. And the LORD answered him and said, Arise, go down to Keilah; for I will deliver the Philistines into thy hand.

5 So David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and smote them with a great slaughter. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

6 And it came to pass, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech ^f fled to David to Keilah, that he came down with an ^g ephod in his hand.

7 [†] And it was told Saul that David was come to Keilah. And Saul said, God hath ^h delivered him into my hand; for he is ⁱ shut in by entering into a town that hath gates and bars.

8 And Saul called all the people together to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men.

9 [†] And David knew that Saul secretly practised mischief against him; and he said to Abiathar the priest, Bring hither the ephod.

10 Then said David, O LORD God of Israel, thy servant [†] hath certainly heard that Saul seeketh to come to Keilah, to destroy the city ^k for my sake.

11 Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? will Saul come down, as thy servant hath heard? O LORD God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy servant. And the LORD said, ^l He will come down.

12 Then said David, Will the men of Keilah [†] deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul? And the LORD said, they will deliver thee up.

13 [†] Then David and his men, which were about ^m six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, and went whithersoever they could go. And it was told Saul that David was escaped from Keilah; and he forbore to go forth.

14 And David abode in the wilderness in strong holds, and remained in a ⁿ mountain in the wilderness of ^o Ziph. And Saul sought him ^p every day, but ^q God delivered him not into his hand.

15 And David saw that Saul was come out to seek his life: and David was in the wilderness of Ziph in a wood.

16 And Jonathan Saul's son arose, and went to David into the wood, and ^r strengthened his hand in God.

17 And he said unto him, Fear not: for the hand of Saul my father shall not find thee; and thou shalt be king over Israel, and I shall be next unto thee; and that also Saul my father ^s knoweth.

18 And they two ^t made a covenant before the LORD: and David abode in the wood, and Jonathan went to his house.

19 [†] Then came up the ^u Ziphites to Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself with us in strong ^x holds in the wood, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the south of ^y Jeshimon?

20 Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of thy soul to come down; [†] and our part shall be to deliver him into the king's hand.

21 And Saul said, ^z Blessed be ye of the LORD; for ye have ^a compassion on me.

22 Go, I pray you, ^b prepare yet, and know, and see his place where his [†] haunt is, and who hath seen him there: for it is told me that he dealeth very subtilly.

23 See therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking-places where he hideth himself, and come ye again to me with the certainty, and I will go with you: and it shall come to pass, if he be in the land, that I will search him out throughout all the thousands of Judah.

24 And they arose, and went to Ziph before Saul: but David and his men were in the wilderness of ^c Maon, in the plain on the south of Jeshimon.

25 Saul also and his men went to seek him. And they told David: wherefore he came down into a rock, and abode in the wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard that, he pursued after David in the wilderness of Maon.

26 And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his ^d men on that side of the mountain: and David made haste to get away for fear of Saul; for Saul and his men compassed David and his men round about to take them.

27 [†] But there came a messenger unto Saul, saying, Haste thee, and come; for the Philistines have invaded the land.

28 Wherefore Saul returned from pursuing after

AND it came to pass, when Saul was returned ^a from following the Philistines, that it was ^b told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of ^c En-gedi.

2 Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went ^d to seek David and his men upon the rocks of the wild goats.

3 And he came to the sheep-cotes by the way, where was a cave; and Saul went in to ^e cover his feet: and David and his men remained in the sides of the cave.

4 And the men of David said unto him, Behold, the day of which the LORD said unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thy hand, that thou mayest do to him as it shall seem good unto thee. Then David arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul's ^f robe privily.

5 And it came to pass afterward, that David's heart ^g smote him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt.

6 And he said unto his men, The LORD forbid that I should do this thing unto ^h my master, the LORD's anointed, to stretch forth my hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the LORD.

7 So David ⁱ stayed his servants with these words, and suffered them not to rise against Saul. But Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on his way.

8 David also rose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, My lord the king. And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth, and bowed himself.

9 ^j And David said to Saul, Wherefore ^k hearest thou men's words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy hurt?

10 Behold, this day thine eyes have seen how that the LORD had delivered thee to-day into my hand in the cave: and some bade me kill thee; but mine eye spared thee; and I said, I will not put forth my hand against my lord; for he is the LORD's anointed.

11 Moreover, ^l my father, see, yea, see the skirt of thy robe in my hand: for in that I cut off the skirt of thy robe, and killed thee not, know thou and see that there is neither ^m evil nor transgression in my hand, and I have not sinned against thee; yet thou ⁿ huntest my soul to take it.

12 The ^o LORD judge between me and thee, and the LORD ^p avenge me of thee: but my hand shall not be ^q upon thee.

13 As saith the proverb of the ancients, ^r Wickedness proceedeth from the wicked: but ^s my hand shall not be upon thee.

14 After whom is ^t the king of Israel come out? after whom dost thou pursue? after ^u a dead dog, after a flea?

15 The LORD therefore be judge, and judge between me and thee, and ^v see, and ^w plead my cause, and deliver me out of thy hand.

16 ^x And it came to pass when David had made an end of speaking these words unto Saul, that Saul said, ^y Is this thy voice, ^z my son David? And Saul lifted up his voice and wept.

17 And he said to David, Thou art more righteous than I: for thou hast ^b rewarded me good, whereas I have rewarded thee evil.

18 And thou hast shewed this day how that thou hast dealt well with me; forasmuch as when the LORD had delivered me into thy hand, thou killedst me not.

19 For if a man find his enemy, will he let him go well away? wherefore the LORD reward thee good, for that thou hast done unto me ^c this day.

20 And now, behold, ^d I know well that thou shalt surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in thy hand.

21 Swear now therefore unto me by the LORD, that thou wilt not cut off my seed after me, and that thou wilt not destroy my name out of my father's house.

22 And David ^e swore unto Saul. And Saul went home; but David and his men ^f gat them up unto the hold.

CHAPTER XXV.

1 Samuel dieth....2 David in Paran sendeth to Nabal.

AND Samuel ^a died: and all the Israelites were gathered together, and ^b lamented him, and buried him in his house at Ramah. And David arose, and went down to the wilderness of ^c Paran.

2 And there was a man in ^d Maon, whose ^e possessions were in Carmel; and the man was ^f very great, and he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats: and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.

3 Now the name of the man was Nabal; and the name of his wife Abigail: and she was a woman of good understanding, and of a beautiful countenance: but the man was churlish and evil in his doings; and he was of the house of Caleb.

4 And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal did ^g shear his sheep.

5 And David sent out ten young men, and David said unto the young men, Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name:

6 And thus shall ye say to him that liveth in prosperity, Peace be both to thee, and peace be to ^h thy house, and peace be unto all that thou hast.

7 And now I have heard that thou hast shearers; now thy shepherds which were with us, we ⁱ hurt them not, neither was there ^j ought missing unto them, all the while they were in Carmel.

8 Ask thy young men, and they will shew thee. Wherefore let the young men find favour in thine eyes: for we come in ^k a good day: give, I pray thee, whatsoever cometh to thy hand unto thy servants, and to thy son David.

9 And when David's young men came, they spake to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and ceased.

10 ^l And Nabal answered David's servants, and said, ^m Who is David? and who is the son of Jesse? there be many servants now-a-days that break away every man ⁿ from his master.

11 Shall I then take ^o my bread, and my ^p water, and my flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and ^q give it unto men, whom I know not whence they be?

12 ^r So David's young men turned their way, and went again, and came and told him all those sayings.

13 And David said unto his men, ^s Gird ye on every man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword; and David also girded on his sword: and there went up after David about four hundred men; and two hundred abode by the stuff.

14 ^t But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master; and he railed on them.

15 But the men were very good unto us, and we were not hurt, neither missed we any thing, as long as we were conversant with them, when we were in the fields:

16 They were a wall unto us both by night and day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep.

17 Now therefore know and consider what thou wilt do: for evil is determined against our master, and against all his household: for he is such a son of Belial, that a man cannot speak to him.

18 ¶ Then Abigail made haste, and took two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched corn, and a hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on asses.

19 And she said unto her servants, Go on before me; behold, I come after you. But she told not her husband Nabal.

20 And it was so, as she rode on the ass, that she came down by the covert of the hill, and behold, David and his men came down against her; and she met them.

21 (Now David had said, Surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow hath in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained unto him: and he hath requited me evil for good.

22 So and more also do God unto the enemies of David, if I leave of all that pertain to him by the morning light any that pisseth against the wall.)

23 And when Abigail saw David, she hasted, and lighted off the ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground,

24 And fell at his feet, and said, Upon me, my lord, upon me let this iniquity be: and let thy handmaid, I pray thee, speak in thine audience, and hear the words of thy handmaid.

25 Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this man of Belial, even Nabal: for as his name is, so is he; || Nabal is his name, and folly is with him: but I thy handmaid saw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didst send.

26 Now therefore, my lord, as the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, seeing the LORD hath withholden thee from coming † to shed blood, and from avenging thyself with thine own hand, now let thine enemies, and they that seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal.

27 And now this blessing which thy handmaid hath brought unto my lord, let it even be given unto the young men that † follow my lord.

28 I pray thee, forgive the trespass of thy handmaid: for the LORD will certainly make my lord a sure house; because my lord fighteth the battles of the LORD, and evil hath not been found in thee all thy days.

29 Yet a man is risen to pursue thee, and to seek thy soul: but the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of life with the LORD thy God; and the souls of thine enemies, them shall he sling out, as out of the middle of a sling.

30 And it shall come to pass, when the LORD shall have done to my lord according to all the good that he hath spoken concerning thee, and shall have appointed thee ruler over Israel;

31 That this shall be † no grief unto thee, nor offence of heart unto my lord, either that thou hast shed blood causeless, or that my lord hath avenged himself: but when the LORD shall have dealt well with my lord, then remember thy handmaid.

32 ¶ And David said to Abigail, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meet me:

33 And blessed be thy advice, and blessed be thou, which hast kept me this day from coming to shed blood, and from avenging myself with mine own hand.

34 For in very deed, as the LORD God of Israel liveth, which hath kept me back from hurting thee, except thou hadst hasted and come to meet me, surely there had not been left unto Nabal by the morning light any that pisseth against the wall.

35 So David received of her hand that which she had brought him, and said unto her, Go up in peace to thy house; see, I have hearkened to thy voice, and have accepted thy person.

36 ¶ And Abigail came to Nabal; and behold, he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king; and Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light.

37 But it came to pass in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, and his wife had told him these things, that his heart † died within him, and he became as a stone.

38 And it came to pass about ten days after, that the LORD smote Nabal, that he died.

39 ¶ And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be the LORD that hath pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and hath kept his servant from evil: for the LORD hath returned the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head. And David sent and communed with Abigail, to take her to him to wife.

40 And when the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake unto her, saying, David sent us unto thee, to take thee to him to wife.

41 And she arose, and bowed herself on her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let thy handmaid be a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord.

42 And Abigail hasted, and arose, and rode upon an ass, with five damsels of hers that went † after her; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife.

43 David also took Ahinoam of d Jezreel; and they were also both of them his wives.

44 ¶ But Saul had given Michal his daughter, David's wife, to e Phalti the son of Laish, which was of f Gallim.

CHAPTER XXVI.

Saul cometh to Hachilah against David.

AND the a Ziphites came unto Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon?

2 Then e Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph.

3 And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah which is before Jeshimon, by the way. But David abode in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness.

4 David therefore sent out e spies, and understood that Saul was come in very deed.

5 ¶ And David arose and came to the place where Saul had pitched: and David beheld the place where

Saul lay, and 'Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host. And Saul lay in the || trench, and the people pitched round about him.

6 Then answered David and said to Ahimelech the ^hHittite, and to Abishai the son of ⁱZeruiah, brother to Joab, saying, ^kWho will go down with me to Saul to the camp? And Abishai said, I will go down with thee.

7 So David and Abishai came to the people ^lby night: and behold, Saul lay sleeping within the trench, and his spear stuck in the ground at his bolster: but Abner and the people lay round about him.

8 Then said Abishai to David, God hath [†]delivered thine enemy into thy hand this day: now therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear, even to the earth at once, and I will not smite him the second time.

9 And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not: for who can stretch forth his hand against the ^mLORD's anointed, and be guiltless?

10 David said furthermore, As the LORD liveth, ⁿthe LORD shall smite him; or ^ohis day shall come to die; or he shall descend into ^pbattle, and perish.

11 The LORD forbid that I should stretch forth my hand against the LORD's anointed: but, I pray thee, take thou now the spear that is at his bolster, and the cruse of water, and let us go.

12 So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's bolster; and they gat them away, and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither awaked: for they were all asleep: because ^qa deep sleep from the LORD was fallen upon them.

13 ¶ Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of a hill afar off; a great space being between them:

14 And David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Answerest thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered and said, Who art thou that criest to the king?

15 And David said to Abner, Art not thou a valiant man? and who is like to thee in Israel? Wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord the king? || for there came one of the people in to destroy the king thy lord.

16 This thing is not good that thou hast done. As the LORD liveth, ye are || worthy to die, because ye have not kept your master the LORD's anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the cruse of water that was at his bolster.

17 And Saul knew David's voice, and said, Is this thy voice, my son David? And David said, It is my voice, my lord, O king.

18 And he said, Wherefore doth my lord thus pursue after his servant? for 'what have I done? or what evil is in my hand?

19 Now therefore, I pray thee, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. ^aIf the LORD have stirred thee up against me, let him [†]accept an offering: but if they be the children of men, ^ccursed be they before the LORD; for they have driven me out this day from [†]abiding in the inheritance of the LORD, saying, ^uGo, serve other gods.

20 Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the LORD: for the king of Israel is come out to seek a ^xflea, as when one doth hunt a partridge in the mountains.

21 ¶ Then said Saul, ^yI have sinned: return, my son David: for I will ^zno more do thee harm, because my soul was precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly.

22 And David answered and said, Behold the king's spear! and let one of the young men come over and fetch it.

23 The LORD ^arender to every man his righteousness, and his faithfulness: for the LORD delivered thee into my hand to-day; but I would not stretch forth my hand against the LORD's anointed.

24 And behold, as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes, so let my life be much set by in the eyes of the LORD, and let him deliver me out of all tribulation.

25 Then Saul said to David, Blessed be thou, my son David: thou shalt both do great things, and also shalt still prevail. So David ^bwent on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

CHAPTER XXVII.

Saul hearing David to be in Gath, seeketh no more for him.

AND David ^asaid in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul: there is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul shall despair of me, to seek me any more in any coast of Israel: so shall I escape out of his hand.

2 And David arose, and he ^bpassed over with the six hundred men that were with him unto Achish, the son of Maach, king of ^cGath.

3 And David dwelt with Achish at Gath, he and his men, every man with his household, even David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, ^dNabal's wife.

4 And it was told Saul that David was fled to Gath: and he sought ^eno more again for him.

5 ¶ And David said unto Achish, If I have now found grace in thine eyes, let them give me a place in some town in the ^fcountry, that I may dwell there: for why should thy servant dwell in the royal city with thee?

6 Then Achish gave him ^gZiklag that day: wherefore Ziklag pertaineth unto the kings of Judah unto this day.

7 And the time that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines was [†]a full year and four months.

8 ¶ And David and his men went up, and invaded the ^hGeshurites, and the ⁱGezrites, and the ^kAmalekites: for those nations were of old the ^linhabitants of the land, as thou goest to Shur, even unto the land of Egypt.

9 And David smote the land, and ^mleft neither man nor woman alive, and took away the sheep, and the oxen, and the asses, and the camels, and the apparel, and returned, and came to Achish.

10 And Achish said, Whither have ye made a road to-day? And David said, Against the ⁿsouth of Judah, and against the south of the ^oJerahmeelites, and against the south of the Kenites.

11 And David saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring tidings to Gath, saying, Lest they should tell on us, saying, So did David, and so will be his manner all the while he dwelleth in the country of the Philistines.

12 And Achish believed David, saying, He hath made his people Israel [†]utterly to abhor him; therefore he shall be my servant for ever.

David, † Know thou assuredly, that thou shalt go out with me to battle, thou and thy men.

2 And David said to Achish, Surely ^b thou shalt know what thy servant can do. And Achish said to David, Therefore will I make thee keeper of my head for ever.

3 ¶ Now Samuel was ^c dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city. And Saul had put away those that had ^d familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land.

4 And the Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and pitched ^e in Shunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they pitched in ^f Gilboa.

5 And when Saul saw the host of the Philistines, he was ^g afraid, and his heart greatly trembled.

6 And when Saul ^h inquired of the LORD, the LORD ⁱ answered him not, neither by ^k dreams, nor by ^l Urim, nor by ^m prophets.

7 ¶ Then said Saul unto his servants, ⁿ Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and inquire of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, ^o there is a woman that hath a familiar spirit ^p at En-dor.

8 And Saul ^q disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray thee, divine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me ^r him ^s up whom I shall name unto thee.

9 And the woman said unto him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath cut off those that have familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land; wherefore then layest thou a snare for my life, to cause me to die?

10 And Saul ^t sware to her by the LORD, saying, As the LORD liveth, there shall no punishment happen to thee for this thing.

11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring me up Samuel.

12 And when the woman ^u saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice: and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou ^v art Saul.

13 And the king said unto her, Be not afraid: for what sawest thou? And the woman said unto Saul, I saw ^w gods ascending out of the earth.

14 And he said unto her, What form ^x is he of? And she said, An old man cometh up; and he ^y is covered with a ^z mantle. And Saul ^{aa} perceived that it ^{ab} was Samuel, and he stooped with ^{ac} his face to the ground, and bowed himself.

15 ¶ And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou ^{ad} disquieted me, to bring me up? and Saul answered, I am ^{ae} sore distressed: for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, neither by prophets, nor by dreams: therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest make known unto me what I shall do.

16 Then said Samuel, Wherefore then dost thou ^{af} ask of me, ^{ag} seeing the LORD is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy?

17 And the LORD hath done ^{ah} to him, as he spake ^{ai} by me: for the LORD hath rent the kingdom out of thy hand, and given it to thy neighbour, ^{aj} even to David:

18 Because thou obeyedst not the voice of the LORD, ^{ak} nor ^{al} executedst his fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore hath the LORD done this thing unto thee this day.

19 Moreover, the LORD will also deliver Israel with thee into the hand of the Philistines: and ^{am} to-morrow ^{an} shalt thou and thy sons ^{ao} be with me: the LORD also shall deliver the host of Israel into the hand of the Philistines.

20 Then Saul ^{ap} fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore afraid, because of the words of Samuel: and there was no strength in him; for he had eaten no ^{aq} bread all the day, nor all the night.

21 ¶ And the woman came unto Saul, and saw that he was sore troubled, and said unto him, Behold, thy handmaid hath obeyed thy voice, and I have ^{ar} put my life in my hand, and have hearkened unto thy words which thou spakest unto me:

22 Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also unto the voice of thy handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee; and eat, that thou mayest have strength when thou goest on thy way.

23 But he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants, together with the woman, compelled him; and he hearkened unto their voice. So he arose from the earth, and sat upon the bed.

24 And the woman had a fat calf in the house; and she hasted, and killed it, and took flour, and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened bread thereof:

25 And she brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they did eat. Then they arose up, and went away that ^{as} night.

CHAPTER XXIX.

Achish dismisseth David with commendations of his fidelity.

NOW the Philistines gathered together all their armies to ^{at} Aphec: and the Israelites pitched by a fountain which ^{au} is in Jezreel.

2 And the lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands: but David and his men passed on in the re-re-ward ^{av} with Achish.

3 Then said the princes of the Philistines, What do these Hebrews ^{aw} here? And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, ^{ax} Is not this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, which hath been with me ^{ay} these days, or these years, and I have found ^{az} no fault in him since he fell ^{ba} unto me unto this day?

4 And the princes of the Philistines were wroth with him; and the princes of the Philistines said unto him, Make ^{bb} this fellow return, that he may go again to his place which thou hast appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he be ^{bc} an adversary to us: for where-with should he reconcile himself unto his master? ^{bd} should it not be with the heads of these men?

5 ^{be} Is not this David, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying, ^{bf} Saul slew his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

6 ¶ Then Achish called David, and said unto him, Surely, ^{bg} as ^{bh} the LORD liveth, thou hast been upright, and thy ^{bi} going out and thy coming in with me in the host ^{bj} is good in my sight: for I have not found evil in thee since the day of thy coming unto me unto this day: nevertheless the lords favour thee not.

7 Wherefore now return, and go in peace, that thou ^{bk} displease not the lords of the Philistines.

8 ¶ And David said unto Achish, But what have I done? and what hast thou found in thy servant, so long as I have been ^{bl} with thee unto this day, that I may not go fight against the enemies of my lord the king?

9 And Achish answered and said to David, I know that thou ^{bm} art good in my sight, as an angel of God: notwithstanding, the princes of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us to the battle.

10 Wherefore now rise up early in the morning with thy master's servants that are come with thee: and as soon as ye be up early in the morning, and have light, depart.

11 So David and his men rose up early ¹to depart in the morning to return into the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

CHAPTER XXX.

1 The Amalekites spoil Ziklag... 7 David pursueth them.

AND it came to pass, when David and his men were come to Ziklag on the ^athird day, that the ^bAmalekites had invaded the south, and Ziklag, and ^csmitten Ziklag, and burned it with fire;

2 And had taken the women captives that were therein; they ^dslew not any, either great or small, but carried them away, and went on their way.

3 ¶ So David and his men came to the city, and behold, it was ^eburned with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, were taken captives.

4 Then David and the people that were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep.

5 And David's two wives were taken captives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the ^fwife of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 And David was greatly distressed: for the people spake of ^gstoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons, and for his daughters: But David ^hencouraged himself in the LORD his God.

7 And David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son, I pray thee bring me hither the ⁱephod. And Abiathar brought thither the ephod to David.

8 And David ^kinquired at the LORD, saying, Shall I pursue after this troop? shall I ^lovertake them? And he answered him, Pursue: for thou shalt surely overtake them, and without fail recover all.

9 So David went, he and the six hundred men that were with him, and came to the brook Besor, where those that were left behind stayed.

10 But David pursued, he and four hundred men: for two hundred abode behind, which were so faint that they could not go over the brook Besor.

11 ¶ And they ^mfound an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he did eat; and they made him drink water;

12 And they gave him a piece of a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins: and when he had eaten, his spirit ⁿcame again to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water, three days and three nights.

13 And David said unto him, To whom ^obelongest thou? and whence art thou? And he said, I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; and my master left me, because ^pthree days ago I fell sick.

14 We made an invasion upon the south of the ^qCherethites, and upon the coast which ^rbelongeth to Judah, and upon the ^ssouth of Caleb; and we burnt Ziklag with fire.

15 And David said to him, Canst thou bring me down to this company? And he said, Swear unto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee down to this company.

16 ¶ And when he had brought him down, behold, they were spread abroad upon all the earth, ^teating and drinking, and dancing, because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah.

17 And David smote them from the ^utwilight even unto the evening of the next day: and there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men, which rode upon camels, and fled.

18 And David recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away: and David rescued his two wives.

19 And there was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil, nor any thing that they had taken to them: David recovered all.

20 And David took all the flocks and the herds, which they drove before those other cattle, and said, This is ^vDavid's spoil.

21 ¶ And David came to the ^wtwo hundred men, which were so faint that they could not follow David, whom they had made also to abide at the brook Besor: and they went forth to meet David, and to meet the people that were with him: And when David came near to the people, he saluted them.

22 Then answered ^xall the wicked men, and men of Belial, of those that went with David, and said, Because they went not with us, we will not give them ^yought of the spoil that we have recovered, save to every man his wife and his children, that they may lead them away, and depart.

23 Then said David, Ye shall not do so, ^zmy brethren, with that which ^athe LORD hath given us, who hath preserved us, and delivered the company that came against us into our hand.

24 For who will hearken unto you in this matter? but as his part is that goeth down to the battle, ^bso shall his part be that tarrieth by the stuff: they shall part alike.

25 And it was so from that day forward, that he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel unto this day.

26 ¶ And when David came to Ziklag, he sent of the spoil unto the elders of Judah, ^ceven to his ^dfriends, saying, Behold a ^epresent for you, of the spoil of the enemies of the LORD;

27 To them which were in ^fBeth-el, and to them which were in ^gsouth Ramoth, and to them which were in Jattir,

28 And to them which were in ^hAroer, and to them which were in ⁱSiphmoth, and to them which were in ^jEshtemoa,

29 And to them which were in Rachal, and to them which were in the cities of the ^kJerahmeelites, and to them which were in the cities of the ^lKenites,

30 And to them which were in ^mHormah, and to them which were in ⁿChor-ashan, and to them which were in Athach.

31 And to them which were in ^oHebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men were wont to haunt.

CHAPTER XXXI.

Saul and his armour-bearer kill themselves.

NOW the ^pPhilistines fought against Israel: and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down ^qslain in mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philistines followed hard upon Saul and upon his sons; and the Philistines slew ^rJonathan, and ^sAbinadab and Malchi-shua, Saul's sons.

3 And the battle went sore against Saul, and the archers ^thit him; and he was sore wounded of the archers.

4 Then said Saul unto his armour-bearer, Draw thy sword, and ^uthrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and abuse me. But his armour-bearer would not:

David lamenteth Saul and Jonathan with a song.
NOW it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David was returned from ^a the slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had abode ^b two days in Ziklag;

2 It came even to pass on the third day, that behold, a man came out of the camp from Saul with his ^c clothes rent, and ^d earth upon his head: and so it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the earth, and did obeisance.

3 And David said unto him, From whence comest thou? And he said unto him, Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped.

4 And David said unto him, How went the matter? I pray thee, tell me. And he answered, That the people are fled from the battle, and many of the people also are fallen and dead; and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also.

5 And David said unto the young man that told him, ^e How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his son be dead?

6 And the young man that told him said, ^f As I happened by chance upon mount ^g Gilboa, behold, Saul leaned upon his spear; and lo, the chariots and horsemen ^h followed hard after him.

7 And when he looked behind him, he saw me, and called unto me. And I answered, Here am I.

8 And he said unto me, Who art thou? And I answered him, I am ⁱ an Amalekite.

9 He said unto me again, Stand, I pray thee, upon me, and slay me: for anguish is come upon me, because my life is yet whole in me.

10 So I stood upon him, and ^j slew him, because I was sure that he could not live after that he was fallen: and I took the crown that was upon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them hither unto my lord.

11 Then David took hold on his clothes, and ^k rent them; and likewise all the men that were with him:

12 And they ^l mourned and wept, and fasted until even, for Saul and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of the LORD, and for the house of Israel: because they were fallen by the sword.

13 ¶ And David said unto the young man that told

9 And they ^k cut off his head, and stripped off his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to publish it in the house of their idols, and among the people.

10 And they put his armour in the nouse of ^l Ash-taroht: and they fastened his body to the ^m wall of ⁿ Beth-shan.

11 ¶ And when the inhabitants of ^o Jabesh-gilead heard of that which the Philistines had done to Saul, 12 All the valiant men arose, and went all night, and took the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan, and came to Jabesh, and ^p burnt them there.

13 And they took their bones, and ^q buried them under a tree at Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

him, Whence art thou? And he answered, I am the son of a stranger, an Amalekite.

14 And David said unto him, How wast thou ^l not afraid to stretch forth thy hand ^m to destroy ⁿ the LORD's anointed?

15 And David called one of the young men, and said, Go near, and fall upon him. And he ^o smote him that he died.

16 And David said unto him, ^p Thy blood be upon thy head; for thy mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I have slain the LORD's anointed.

17 ¶ And David lamented with ^q this lamentation over Saul, and over Jonathan his son:

18 (Also he bade them teach the ^r children of Judah the use of ^s the bow: behold, it is written in the book of Jasher.)

19 The ^t beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places: how are the mighty fallen!

20 Tell it not ^u in Gath, publish it not in the streets of Askelon; lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the ^v daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.

21 Ye mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew, neither let there be rain upon you, nor [†] fields of offerings: for there the shield of the mighty is vilely cast away, the shield of Saul, as though he had not been ^y anointed with oil.

22 From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan turned not back, and the sword of Saul returned not empty.

23 Saul and Jonathan were ^z lovely and pleasant in their lives, and in their death they were not divided: they were swifter than eagles, they were stronger than lions.

24 Ye daughters of Israel, ^a weep over Saul, who clothed you in scarlet, with other ^c delights; who put on ornaments of gold upon your apparel.

25 How are the ^d mighty fallen in the midst of the battle! O Jonathan, thou wast slain in thy high places.

26 I am distressed for thee, my brother Jonathan: very pleasant hast thou been unto me: thy love to me was ^e wonderful, passing the love of women.

27 How are the mighty fallen, and the ^f weapons of war perished!

of the cities of Judah? And the LORD said unto him, Go up. And David said, Whither shall I go up? And he said, ^bUnto Hebron.

2 So David went up thither, and his ^ctwo wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail Nabal's wife the Carmelite.

3 And ^dhis men that were with him did David bring up, every man with his household: and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

4 And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the ^ehouse of Judah. And they ^ftold David, saying, That the men of Jabesh-gilead were they that buried Saul.

5 ¶ And David sent messengers unto the men of Jabesh-gilead, and said unto them, ^gBlessed be ye of the LORD, that ye have shewed this kindness unto your lord, even unto Saul, and have buried him.

6 And now the LORD shew ^hkindness and truth unto you: and I also will requite you this kindness, because ye have done this thing.

7 Therefore now let your hands be strengthened, and be ye ⁱvaliant: for your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah have anointed ^jme king over them.

8 ¶ But ^kAbner the son of Ner, captain of Saul's host, took ^lIsh-bosheth the son of Saul, and brought him over to Mahanaim;

9 And made him ^mking over Gilead, and over the Ashurites, and over ⁿJezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel.

10 Ish-bosheth, Saul's son was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and reigned ^otwo years: but the house of Judah followed David.

11 And the ^ptime that David was king in Hebron, over the house of Judah, was seven years and six months.

12 ¶ And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to ^qGibeon.

13 And ^rJoab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David went out, and met together by the pool of Gibeon: and they sat down, the one on the one side of the ^spool, and the other on the other side of the pool.

14 And Abner said to Joab, Let the young men now arise, and ^tplay before us. And Joab said, Let them arise.

15 Then there arose, and went over by number, twelve of Benjamin, which ^upertained to Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.

16 And they caught every one his fellow by the head, and ^vthrust his sword in his fellow's side: so they fell down together: wherefore that place was called Helkath-hazzurim, which ^wis in Gibeon.

17 And there was a very sore battle that day; and Abner was ^xbeaten, and the men of Israel, before the servants of David.

18 ¶ And there were three sons of Zeruiah there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel: and ^yAsahel was as light of foot as a wild roe.

19 And Asahel pursued after Abner; and in going he turned not to the right hand nor to the left ^zfrom following Abner.

20 Then Abner looked behind him, and said, Art thou Asahel? and he answered, I am.

21 And Abner said to him, Turn thee aside to thy right hand or to thy left, and lay thee hold on one of the young men, and take thee his ^aarmour. But Asahel would not turn aside from following him.

22 And Abner said again to Asahel, Turn thee aside from following me: wherefore should I smite thee to the ground? how then should I hold up my face to Joab thy brother?

23 Howbeit he refused to turn aside: wherefore Abner with the hinder end of the spear smote him under the ^bfifth rib, that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the same place: and it came to pass, that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died, stood still.

24 Joab also and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sun went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah, that ^clieth before Giah, by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon.

25 ¶ And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one troop, and stood on the top of a hill.

26 Then Abner called to Joab, and said, Shall the sword devour for ever? knowest thou not that it will be bitterness in the latter end? how long shall it be then ere thou bid the people return ^dfrom following their brethren?

27 And Joab said, As God liveth, ^eunless thou hadst spoken, surely then in the morning the people had gone up every one from following his brother.

28 So Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they ^fany more.

29 And Abner and his men walked all that night through the plain, and passed over Jordan, and went through all ^gBith-ron, and they came to Mahanaim.

30 And Joab returned from following Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of David's servants nineteen men, and Asahel.

31 But the servants of David had smitten of Benjamin, and of Abner's men, ^hso that ⁱthree hundred and threescore men died.

32 ¶ And they ^jtook up Asahel, and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Beth-lehem. And Joab and his men went all night, and they came ^kto Hebron at break of day.

CHAPTER III.

During the war David still waxeth stronger.

NOW there was ^aa long war between the house of Saul and the house of David: but David ^bwaxed stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul ^cwaxed weaker and weaker.

2 ¶ And unto David were ^dsons born in Hebron: and his ^efirst-born was Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess;

3 And his second, Chileab, of Abigail the ^fwife of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, ^g¶ Absalom the son of Maacah, the daughter of Talmai king of ^hGeshur;

4 And the fourth, ⁱAdonijah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah, the son of Abital;

5 And the sixth Ithream, ^jby Eglah, David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

6 ¶ And it came to pass, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner made ^khimself strong for the house of Saul.

7 And Saul had a concubine, whose name was ^lRizpah, the daughter of Aiah: and Ish-bosheth said to Abner, Wherefore hast thou ^mgone in unto my father's concubine?

8 Then was Abner ⁿvery wroth for the words of Ish-bosheth, and said, Am I ^oa dog's head, which against Judah do shew kindness this day unto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, that thou chargest me to-day with a fault concerning this woman?

9^o So do God to Abner, and more also, except, ^p as the LORD hath sworn to David, even so I do to him:

10 To translate the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, ^q from Dan even to Beer-sheba.

11 And he could not answer Abner a word again, because he feared him.

12 And Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, ^r Whese is the land? saying also, Make thy league with me, and behold, my hand shall be with thee, to bring about all Israel unto thee.

13 ¹ And he said, Well; I will make a league with thee: but one thing I require of thee, that is, Thou shalt not ^s see my face, except thou first bring ^t Michal, Saul's daughter, when thou comest to see my face.

14 And David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, saying, Deliver me my wife Michal, which I espoused to me for a hundred ^u foreskins of the Philistines.

15 And Ish-bosheth sent and took her from her husband, even from ^x Phaltiel the son of Laish.

16 And her husband went with her along [†] weeping behind her to ^y Bahurim. Then said Abner unto him, Go, return. And he returned.

17 ¹ And Abner had communication with the elders of Israel, saying, Ye sought for David in times past to be king over you:

18 Now then do it: for ^z the LORD hath spoken of David, saying, ^a By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies.

19 And Abner also spake in the ears of ^b Benjamin: and Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and that seemed good to the whole house of Benjamin.

20 So Abner ^c came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him: and David made Abner, and the men that were with him, a feast.

21 And Abner said unto David, I will arise and go, and will gather ^d all Israel unto my lord the king, that they may make a league with thee, and that thou mayest reign over all that thy heart desireth. And David sent Abner away; and he went in peace.

22 ¹ And behold, the servants of David and Joab came from pursuing a troop, and brought in a great spoil with them: but Abner was not with David in Hebron; for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace.

23 When Joab and all the host that was with him were come, they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

24 Then Joab came to the king, and said, What hast thou done? behold, Abner came unto thee; why is it that thou hast sent him away, and he is [†] quite gone?

25 Thou knowest Abner the son of Ner, that he came ^e to deceive thee, and to know thy ^f going out and thy coming in, and to know all that thou doest.

26 And when Joab was come out from David, ^g he sent messengers after Abner, which brought him again from the well of Sirah: but David knew it not.

27 And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him [†] aside in the gate to speak with him [†] quietly, and smote him there under the ¹ fifth rib that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.

28 ¹ And afterward when David heard it, he said, I and my kingdom are ^k guiltless before the LORD for ever from the [†] blood of Abner the son of Ner:

29 ¹ Let it rest on the head of Joab, and on all his father's house; and let there not fail from the house of Joab one that hath ^m an issue, or that is a leper, or that leaneth on ^{||} a staff, or that falleth on the sword, or that lacketh bread.

30 So Joab and Abishai his brother slew Abner, because he had ⁿ slain their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.

31 ¹ And David said ^o to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, rend your clothes, and gird you with sackcloth, and mourn ^p before Abner. And king David himself followed the bier.

32 And they buried Abner in Hebron: and the king lifted up his voice and ^q wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept.

33 And the king lamented over Abner, and said, Died Abner as a fool dieth?

34 Thy hands were not bound, nor thy feet put into fetters: as a man falleth before [†] wicked men, so feldest thou. And all the people wept again over him.

35 And when all the people came to cause David ^r to eat meat while it was yet day, David sware, saying, So do God to me, and more also, if I taste bread or aught else, till ^s the sun be down.

36 And all the people took notice of it, and it pleased them: as whatsoever the king did pleased all the people.

37 For all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not of the king to slay Abner the son of Ner.

38 And the king said unto his servants, Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?

39 And I am this day weak, though anointed king; and these men the sons of Zeruiah be ^t too hard for me. The LORD shall ^u reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

CHAPTER IV.

Baanah and Rechab slay Ish-bosheth.

AND when Saul's son heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, his hands were ^a feeble, and all the Israelites were troubled.

2 And Saul's son had two men that were captains ^b of bands: the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon a Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin: (for ^c Beeroth also was reckoned to Benjamin:

3 And the Beerothites fled to ^d Gittaim, and were sojourners there until this day.)

4 And Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son that was [†] lame of his feet: he was five years old when the tidings came of Saul and Jonathan out of ^e Jezreel, and his nurse took him up and fled: and it came to pass, as she made haste to flee, that he fell, and became lame. And his name was Mephibosheth.

5 And the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, ^f went, and came about the heat of the day to the house of Ish-bosheth, who lay on a bed at noon.

6 And they came thither into the midst of the house, as though they would have ^g fetched wheat; and they smote him under the fifth ^h rib: and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped

7 For when they came into the house, he lay on his bed in his bed-chamber, and they smote him, and slew him, and beheaded him, and ⁱ took his head, and gat them away through the plain all night.

8 And they brought the head of Ish-bosheth unto David to Hebron, and said to the king, Behold the head of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul thy enemy, which sought thy [†] life; and the LORD hath avenged my lord the king this day of Saul and of his seed.

9 ¶ And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said unto them, As the LORD liveth, who hath ^k redeemed my soul out of all adversity,

10 When ^l one told me, saying, Behold, Saul is dead, (thinking to have brought good tidings,) I took hold of him, and slew him in Ziklag, who thought that I would have given him a reward for his tidings:

11 How much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house upon his bed? shall I not therefore now ^m require his blood of your hand, and take you away from the earth?

12 And David commanded his young men, and they ⁿ slew them, and cut off their hands and their feet, ^o and hanged them up over the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-bosheth, and buried it in the ^p sepulchre of Abner in Hebron.

CHAPTER V.

The tribes come to Hebron to anoint David over Israel.

THEN came ^a all the tribes of Israel to David unto Hebron, and spake, saying, Behold, we are ^b thy bone and thy flesh.

2 Also in time past, when Saul was king over us, thou wast he that ^c leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and ^d the LORD said to thee, Thou shalt ^e feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captain over Israel.

3 So all the ^f elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron: and king David made a league with them in ^g Hebron before the LORD: and they ^h anointed David king over Israel.

4 ¶ David was ⁱ thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years.

5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah ^k seven years and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Israel and Judah.

6 ¶ And the king and his men went to ^l Jerusalem unto the ^m Jebusites the inhabitants of the land: which spake unto David, saying, Except thou take away ⁿ the blind and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: thinking, David cannot come in hither.

7 Nevertheless, David took the strong hold of Zion: The same is the ^o city of David.

8 And David said on that day, Whosoever ^p getteth up to the gutter and smiteth the Jebusites, and the lame and the blind, that are hated of David's soul, he shall be ^q chief and captain. Wherefore they said, The blind and the lame shall not come into the house.

9 So David dwelt in the fort, and called it, The city of David. And David built round about from ^r Millo and inward.

10 And David went on, and grew great, and the LORD God of hosts was ^s with him.

11 ¶ And ^t Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar-trees, and carpenters, and masons: and they built David a house.

12 And David perceived that the LORD had established him king over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdom ^u for his people Israel's sake.

13 ¶ And David took him ^x more concubines and wives out of Jerusalem, after he was come from Hebron: and there were yet sons and daughters born to David.

14 And these be the names of those that were born unto him in Jerusalem; Shammuah, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon,

15 Ibhar also, and Elishua, and Nepheg, and Japhia,

16 And Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphalet.

17 ¶ But when the Philistines ^y heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines came up ^z to seek David; and David heard of it, and ^a went down to the hold.

18 The Philistines also came and spread themselves in the valley of ^b Rephaim.

19 And David ^c inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up to the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into my hand? And the LORD said unto David, Go up: for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into thy hand.

20 And David came to ^d Baal-perazim, and David smote them there, and said, The LORD hath broken forth upon mine enemies before me, ^e as the breach of waters. Therefore he called the name of that place Baal-perazim.

21 And there they left their images, and David and his men ^f burned them.

22 ¶ And the Philistines came up yet ^g again, and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

23 And when David inquired of the LORD, he said, Thou shalt not go up: but fetch a compass behind them, and come upon them over against the mulberry-trees.

24 And let it be, when thou hearest the sound of ^h a going in the tops of the mulberry-trees, that then thou shalt bestir thyself: for then shall the LORD go out before thee, to smite the host of the Philistines.

25 And David did so as the LORD had commanded him: and smote the Philistines from ⁱ Geba until thou come to ^k Gazer.

CHAPTER VI.

David fetcheth the ark from Kirjath-jearim on a new cart.

AGAIN, David ^a gathered together all the chosen ^b men of Israel, ^c thirty thousand.

2 And David arose and went with all the people that were with him from ^d Baale of Judah, to bring up from thence the ark of God, ^e whose name is called by the name of the LORD of hosts that ^f dwelleth between the cherubims.

3 And they set the ark of God upon ^g a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was in ^h Gibeah: and Uzzah and Ahio the sons of Abinadab drave the new cart.

4 And they brought it out of the ⁱ house of Abinadab, which was at Gibeah, accompanying the ark of God: and Ahio went before the ark.

5 And David and all the house of Israel ^j played ^k before the LORD on all manner of instruments made of fir-wood, even on harps, and on psalteries, and on timbrels, and on cornets, and on cymbals.

6 ¶ And when they came to ^l Nachon's threshing-floor, Uzzah put forth his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it: for the oxen shook it.

7 And the anger of the LORD was kindled ^m against Uzzah, and God smote him there for his ⁿ error; and there he died by the ark of God.

8 And David was ^o displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzzah: and he called the name of the place Perez-uzzah to this day.

9 And David was afraid of the LORD that day, and said, How shall the ark of the LORD come to me?

10 So David would not remove the ark of the LORD unto him into the city of David: but David carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

11 And the ark of the LORD continued in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months: and the LORD blessed Obed-edom and all his household.

12 ¶ And it was told king David, saying, The LORD hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that pertaineth unto him; because of the ark of God. So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with gladness.

13 And it was so, that when they that bare the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed oxen and fatlings.

14 And David danced before the LORD with all his might; and David was girded with a linen ephod.

15 So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

16 And as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, looked through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.

17 ¶ And they brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in his place, in the midst of the tabernacle that David had pitched for it: and David offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings before the LORD.

18 And as soon as David had made an end of offering burnt-offerings and peace-offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts.

19 And he dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine. So all the people departed every one to his house.

20 ¶ Then David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel to-day, who uncovered himself to-day in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the vain fellows shamelessly uncovereth himself!

21 And David said unto Michal, It was before the LORD, which chose me before thy father, and before all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of the LORD, over Israel: therefore will I play before the LORD.

22 And I will yet be more vile than thus, and will be base in mine own sight: and of the maid-servants which thou hast spoken of, of them shall I be had in honour.

23 Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no child unto the day of her death.

CHAPTER VII.

David's prayer and thanksgiving.

AND it came to pass, when the king sat in his house, and the LORD had given him rest round about from all his enemies,

2 That the king said unto Nathan the prophet, See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of God dwelleth within curtains.

3 And Nathan said to the king, Go, do all that is in thy heart: for the LORD is with thee

4 ¶ And it came to pass that night, that the word of the LORD came unto Nathan, saying,

5 Go and tell my servant David, Thus saith the LORD, Shalt thou build me a house for me to dwell in?

6 Whereas I havenot dwelt in any house since the time that I brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day, but have walked in a tent and in a tabernacle.

7 In all the places wherein I have walked with all the children of Israel spake I a word with any of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people Israel, saying, Why build ye not me a house of cedar?

8 Now therefore, so shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I took thee from the sheep-cote, from following the sheep, to be ruler over my people, over Israel:

9 And I was with thee whithersoever thou wentest, and have cut off all thine enemies out of thy sight, and have made thee a great name, like unto the name of the great men that are in the earth.

10 Moreover, I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more as before time.

11 And as since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel, and have caused thee to rest from all thine enemies. Also the LORD telleth thee that he will make thee a house.

12 ¶ And when thy days be fulfilled, and thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom.

13 He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom for ever.

14 I will be his father, and he shall be my son. If ye commit iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men:

15 But my mercy shall not depart away from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before thee.

16 And thy house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for ever.

17 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

18 ¶ Then went king David in, and sat before the LORD, and he said, Who am I, O LORD God? and what is my house, that thou hast brought me hitherto;

19 And this was yet a small thing in thy sight, O LORD God; but thou hast spoken also of thy servant's house for a great while to come. And is this the manner of man, O LORD God?

20 And what can David say more unto thee? for thou, LORD God, knowest thy servant.

21 For thy word's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all these great things, to make thy servant know them.

22 Wherefore thou art great, O LORD God: for there is none like thee, neither is there any God besides thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

23 And what one nation in the earth is like thy people, even like Israel, whom God went to redeem for a people to himself, and to make him a name, and to do for you great things and terrible, for thy land, 24 For thou hast confirmed to thyself thy^o people Israel to be a people unto thee for ever: and thou, LORD, art become^p their God.

CHAPTER VIII.

David subdueth the Philistines and the Moabites.

AND after this it came to pass, that David^a smote the Philistines, and subdued them: and David^b took Metheg-ammah out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he smote Moab, and^c measured them with a line, casting them down to the ground; even with^d two lines measured he to put to death, and with one full line to keep alive. And so the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

3 ¶ David smote also Hadadezer, the son of Rehob, king of^e Zobah, as he^f went to recover his border at the river Euphrates.

4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, and^g seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: and David^h houghed all the chariot-horses, but reserved of them for a hundred chariots.

5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to succour Hadadezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syriansⁱ two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus: and the Syrians became^k servants to David, and brought gifts. And the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 And from^m Betah, and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, king David took exceeding much brass.

9 ¶ When Toi king ofⁿ Hamath heard that David had smitten all the host of Hadadezer,

10 Then Toi sent Joram his son unto king David, to salute him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer, and smitten him: (for Hadadezer[†] had wars with Toi.) And Joram brought with him vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and vessels of brass:

11 Which also king David did dedicate unto the LORD, with the silver and gold that he had^o dedicated of all nations which he subdued:

12 Of Syria, and of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoil of Hadadezer son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

13 And David gat him^p a name when he returned from smiting of the Syrians in the^q valley of Salt, being^r eighteen thousand men.

14 ¶ And he put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom put he garrisons, and all they of Edom became David's^s servants. And the LORD^t preserved David whithersoever he went.

15 And David reigned over all Israel; and David executed judgment and justice unto all his people.

16 And Joab the son of Zeruiah was^u over the host; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder;

17 And^x Zadok the son of^y Ahitub, and Ahimelech, the son of Abiathar, were the^z priests; and Seraiah was the scribe;

18 And^a Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over both the^b Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were^c chief rulers.

CHAPTER IX.

David by Ziba sendeth for Mephibosheth.

AND David said, Is there yet any that is left of the house of Saul, that I may shew him kindness^a for Jonathan's sake?

2 And[†] there was of the house of Saul a servant whose name was Ziba. And when they had called him unto David, the king said unto him, Art thou Ziba? And he said, Thy servant is he.

3 And the king said, Is there not yet any of the house of Saul, that I may shew^b the kindness of God unto him? And Ziba said unto the king, Jonathan hath yet a son, which is^c lame on his feet.

4 And the king said unto him, Where is he? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he is in the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, in^d Lo-debar.

5 ¶ Then king David sent, and fetched him out of the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, from Lo-debar.

6 Now when^{||} Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did reverence. And David said, Mephibosheth. And he answered, Behold thy servant!

7 ¶ And David said unto him, ^e Fear not: for I will surely shew thee kindness for Jonathan thy^f father's sake, and will restore thee all the land of Saul thy father; and thou shalt eat^g bread at my table continually.

8 And he bowed himself, and said, What is thy servant, that thou shouldest look upon such^h a dead dog as I am?

9 ¶ Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said unto him, I have given unto thyⁱ master's son all that pertained to Saul, and to all his house.

10 Thou therefore, and thy sons, and thy servants, shall till the land for him, and thou shalt bring in the fruits that thy master's son may have food to eat: but Mephibosheth thy master's son shall eat bread alway at my table. Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

11 Then said Ziba unto the king, According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant,^k so shall thy servant do. As for Mephibosheth, said the king, he shall eat at my table, as one of the king's sons.

12 And Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was Micah. And[†] all that dwell in the house of Ziba were servants unto Mephibosheth.

13 So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem: for he did eat continually at the king's table; and was lame on both his feet.

CHAPTER X.

David's messengers are sent to comfort Hanun the son of Nahash.

AND it came to pass after this, that the ^a king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his stead.

2 Then said David, I will ^b shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father shewed kindness unto me. And David sent to comfort him by the hand of his servants for his father. And David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon.

3 And the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hanun their lord, Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? ^c hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee, to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved off the one half of their ^d beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their ^e buttocks, and sent them away.

5 When they told it unto David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 ^f And when the children of Ammon saw that they ^g stank before David, the children of Ammon sent and ^h hired the Syrians of Beth-rehob, and ⁱ the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand footmen, and of king Maacah a thousand men, and of ^k Ish-tob twelve thousand men.

7 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of ^l the mighty men.

8 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the entering in of the ^m gate: and the Syrians of Zoba, and of Rehob, and Ish-tob, and Maacah were by themselves in the field.

9 When Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice ⁿ men of Israel, and put them ^o in array against the Syrians:

10 And the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of Abishai his brother, that he might put them in array against the children of Ammon.

11 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt ^p help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will come and help thee.

12 ^q Be of good courage, and let us play the men for our people, and for the ^r cities of our God: and the LORD do that which seemeth him good.

13 And Joab drew nigh, and the people that were with him, unto the battle against the Syrians: and they fled before him.

14 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, then fled they also before Abishai, and entered into the city. So Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.

15 ^s And when the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered themselves together.

16 And Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Syrians that were beyond the river: and they came to Helam: and ^t Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them.

17 And when it was told David, he gathered all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in array against David, and fought with him.

18 And the Syrians ^u fled before Israel; and David ^v slew the men of ^w seven hundred chariots of the Syrians, and ^x forty thousand horsemen, and smote Shobach the captain of their host, who died there.

19 And when all the kings that were servants to Hadarezer saw that they were smitten before Israel, they made ^y peace with Israel, and served them. So the Syrians ^z feared to help the children of ^{aa} Ammon any more.

CHAPTER XI.

While Joab besiegeth Rabbah, David committeth adultery with Bath-Sheba.

AND it came to pass, ^{ab} after the year was expired, ^{ac} at the time when kings go forth to battle, that David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah. But David ^{ad} tarried still at Jerusalem.

2 ^{ae} And it came to pass in an evening-tide, that David arose from off his ^{af} bed, and walked upon the roof of the king's house: and from the ^{ag} roof he ^{ah} saw a woman ^{ai} washing herself; and the woman was very beautiful to look upon.

3 And David ^{aj} sent and inquired after the woman. And one said, Is not this Lath-sheba the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the ^{ak} Hittite?

4 And David ^{al} sent messengers and took her: and she came in unto him, and he ^{am} lay with her; (for she was purified from her uncleanness:) and she returned unto her house.

5 And the woman conceived, and sent and ^{an} told David, and said, I am with child.

6 ^{ao} And David sent to Joab, saying, ^{ap} Send me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab sent Uriah to David.

7 And when Uriah was come unto him, David demanded of him how Joab did, and how the people did, and how the war prospered.

8 And David said to Uriah, Go down to thy house, and wash thy feet. And Uriah departed out of the king's house, and there followed him ^{aq} a mess of meat from the king.

9 But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to his house.

10 And when they had told David, saying, Uriah went not down unto his house, David said unto Uriah, Camest thou not from thy journey? why then didst thou not go down unto thy house?

11 And Uriah said unto David, The ^{ar} ark, and Israel, and Judah, abide in tents; and ^{as} my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord are encamped in the open fields; shall I then go into my house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? As thou livest, and as thy soul liveth, I will not do this thing.

12 And David said to Uriah, Tarry here to-day also, and to-morrow I will let thee depart. So Uriah abode in Jerusalem that day and the morrow.

13 And when David had called him, he did eat and drink before him; and he made him drunk: and at even he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but went not down to his house.

14 ^{at} And it came to pass in the morning, that David ^{au} wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah.

15 And he wrote in the letter, saying, ^{av} Set ye Uriah in the fore front of the hottest battle, and retire ye from him, that he may be smitten, and die.

city, that he assigned Uriah unto a place where he knew that valiant men were.

17 And the men of the city went out, and fought with Joab: and there fell some of the people of the servants of David; and Uriah the Hittite died also.

18 ¶ Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war;

19 And charged the messenger, saying, When thou hast made an end of telling the matters of the war unto the king,

20 And if so be that the king's wrath arise, and he say unto thee, Wherefore approached ye so nigh unto the city when ye did fight? knew ye not that they would shoot from the wall?

21 Who smote ^s Abimelech the son of ^t Jerubesheth? did not a woman cast a piece of a millstone upon him from the wall that he died in Thebez? why went ye nigh the wall? Then say thou, Thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

22 ¶ So the messenger went, and came and shewed David all that Joab had sent him for.

23 And the messenger said unto David, Surely the men prevailed against us, and came out unto us into the field, and we were upon them even unto the entering of the gate.

24 And the shooters shot from off the wall upon thy servants: and some of the king's servants be dead, and thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

25 Then David said unto the messenger, Thus shalt thou say unto Joab, Let not this thing [†] displease thee, for the sword devoureth [†] one as well as another: make thy battle more strong against the city, and ^u overthrow it: and encourage thou him.

26 ¶ And when the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she mourned for her husband.

27 And when the mourning was past, David sent and [†] fetched her to his house, and she became his wife, and bare him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD.

CHAPTER XII.

Nathan's parable of the ewe-lamb, causeth David to be his own judge.

AND the LORD sent ^a Nathan unto David. And he came unto him, and said unto him, ^b There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor.

2 The rich man had exceeding ^c many flocks and herds:

3 But the poor man had nothing save one little ewe-lamb, which he had bought and nourished up: and it grew up together with him, and with his children; it did eat of his own [†] meat and drank of his own cup, and lay in his ^d bosom, and was unto him as a daughter.

4 And there came a ^e traveller unto the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the way-faring man that was come unto him; but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man that was come to him.

5 And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, As the LORD liveth, the man that hath done this thing [†] shall surely die.

6 And he shall restore the lamb ^f fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity.

7 ¶ And Nathan said to David, ^g Thou art the man. Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, ^h I anointed thee king over Israel, and I delivered thee out of the hand of Saul;

8 And I gave thee thy ⁱ master's house, and thy master's wives into thy ^k bosom, and gave thee the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that had been too little, I would moreover have given unto thee such and such things.

9 Wherefore ^m hast thou despised the commandment of the LORD, to do evil in his sight? thou hast killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon.

10 Now therefore the ⁿ sword shall never depart from thy house; because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife.

11 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, ^o I will raise up evil against thee out of thine own house, and I will take thy wives before thine eyes, and give them unto thy neighbour, and he shall lie with thy wives in the sight of this sun.

12 For thou didst it secretly: but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun.

13 And David said unto Nathan, I have ^p sinned against the LORD. And Nathan said unto David, The LORD also hath [†] put ^q away thy sin; thou shalt ^r not die.

14 Howbeit, because by this deed thou hast given great occasion to the enemies of the LORD ^s to blaspheme, the child also that is born unto thee shall surely die.

15 ¶ And Nathan departed unto his house. And the LORD struck the child that Uriah's wife bare unto David, and it was very sick.

16 David therefore ^t besought God for the child; and David [†] fasted, and went in and lay all night upon the earth.

17 And the elders of his house arose, and went to him, to raise him up from the earth: but he would not, neither did he eat bread with them.

18 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that the child died. And the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead: for they said, Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spake unto him, and he would not hearken unto our voice: how will he then vex himself if we tell him that the child is dead?

19 But when David saw that his servants whispered, David perceived that the child was dead: therefore David said unto his servants, Is the child dead? And they said, He is dead.

20 Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and ^u anointed himself, and changed his apparel, and came into the ^v house of the LORD, and ^w worshipped: then he came to his own house; and when he required, they set bread before him, and he did eat.

21 Then said his servants unto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? thou didst fast and weep for the child, while it was alive; but when the child was dead, thou didst rise and eat bread.

22 And he said, While the child was yet alive, I fasted, and wept: for I said, Who can tell whether God will be gracious to me, that the child may live?

23 But now he is dead, wherefore should I fast? can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me.

24 ¶ And David ^z comforted Bath-sheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her: and she ^a bare a son, and he ^b called his name ^{||} Solomon: and the LORD ^c loved him.

25 And he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet; and he called his name Jedidiah, because of the LORD.

18 And she had a garment ^t of divers colours upon her: for with such robes were the king's daughters that were virgins apparelled. Then his servant brought her out, and bolted the door after her.

19 ¶ And Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent her garment of divers colours that was on her, and ^u laid her hand on her head, and went on crying.

20 And Absalom her brother said unto her, Hath [†] Amnon thy brother been with thee? but ^x hold now thy peace, my sister: he is thy brother; regard not this thing. So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom's house.

21 ¶ But when king David heard of all these things, ^y he was very wroth.

22 And Absalom spake unto his brother Amnon, neither ^z good nor bad: for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

23 ¶ And it came to pass ^a after two full years, that Absalom had sheep-shearers in ^b Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king's sons.

24 And Absalom came to the king, and said, Behold now, thy servant hath ^c sheep-shearers: ^d let the king, I beseech thee, and his servants go with thy servant.

25 And the king said to Absalom, Nay, my son, let us not all now go, lest we be chargeable unto thee. And he pressed him: howbeit he would not go, but blessed him.

26 Then said Absalom, If not, I pray thee, let ^e my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said unto him, Why should he go with thee?

27 But Absalom pressed him, that he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.

28 ¶ Now Absalom had ^f commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon; then kill him, fear not: have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be [†] valiant.

29 And the servants of Absalom did unto Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and every man gat him up upon his mule, and fled.

30 ¶ And it came to pass, while they were in the way, that tidings came to David, saying, Absalom hath slain all the king's sons, and there is not one of them left.

31 Then the king arose, and ^g tare his garments and ^h lay on the earth; and all his servants stood by with their clothes rent.

32 And ⁱJonadab, the son of Shimeah, David's brother, answered and said, Let not my lord suppose that they have slain all the young men the king's sons; for Amnon only is dead: for by the appointment of Absalom this hath been ^kdetermined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar.

33 Now therefore let not my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead: for Amnon only is dead.

34 But Absalom ^lfled. And the young man that kept the watch lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold, there came much people by the way of the hill-side behind him.

35 And Jonadab said unto the king, Behold, the king's sons come: as thy servant said, so it is.

36 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of speaking, that behold, the king's sons came, and lifted up their voice and wept: and the king also and all his servants [†]wept very sore.

37 [‡]But Absalom fled, and went to ^mTalmai, the son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son every day.

38 So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three years.

39 And [§]the soul of king David ^{||}longed ^ato go forth unto Absalom: for he ^owas comforted concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead.

CHAPTER XIV.

Absalom by Joab is brought into the king's presence.

NOW Joab the son of ^aZeruiah perceived that the ^bking's heart was toward Absalom.

2 And Joab sent to ^cTekoah, and fetched thence ^da wise woman, and said unto her, I pray thee, feign thyself to be a mourner, and put on now mourning apparel, and ^eanoint not thyself with oil, but be as a woman that had a long time mourned for the dead:

3 And come to the king, and speak on this manner unto him. So ^fJoab put the words in her mouth.

4 [‡]And when the woman of Tekoah spake to the king, she [§]fell on her face to the ground, and ^hdid obeisance, and said, Help, O king.

5 And the ⁱking said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, I ^{am} indeed a widow woman, and my husband is dead.

6 And thy handmaid had two sons, and they two strove together in the field, and ^{there was} ^knone to part them, but the one smote the other, and slew him.

7 And behold, ^lthe whole family is risen against thy handmaid, and they said, Deliver him that smote his brother, that we may kill him, for the life of his brother whom he slew; and we will destroy the heir also: and so they shall ^mquench my coal which is left, and shall not leave to my husband ^{neither} name nor remainder upon the earth.

8 And the king said unto the woman, Go to thy house, and I will give charge ⁿconcerning thee.

9 And the woman of Tekoah said unto the king, My lord, O king, ^othe iniquity be on me, and on my father's house: and the ^pking and his throne be guiltless.

10 And the king said, Whosoever saith ^{aught} unto thee, bring him to me, and he shall not touch thee any more.

11 Then said she, I pray thee, let the king ^qremember the LORD thy God, that thou wouldest not suffer the revengers of blood to destroy any more, lest they destroy my son. And he said, ^rAs the LORD liveth, ^sthere shall not ^tone hair of thy son fall to the earth.

12 Then the woman said, Let thy handmaid, I pray thee, speak ^{one} word unto my lord the king. And he said, Say on.

13 And the woman said, Wherefore then hast thou [†]thought such a thing ^uagainst the people of God? [‡]for the king doth speak this thing as one which is faulty, ^xin that the king doth not fetch home again his banished.

14 For we must ^yneeds die, and ^{are} as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again; ^{||}neither doth God ^zrespect ^{any} person: yet doth he ^adevise means that his banished be not expelled from him.

15 Now therefore that I am come to speak of this thing unto my lord the king, ^{it is} because the people have made me afraid: and thy handmaid said, I will now speak unto the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his handmaid.

16 For the king will hear, to deliver his handmaid out of the hand of the man ^{that would} destroy me and my son together out of the inheritance of God.

17 Then thy handmaid said, The word of my lord the king shall now be comfortable: ^bfor as an angel of God, so ^{is} my lord the king ^cto discern good and bad: therefore the LORD thy God will be with thee.

18 Then the king answered and said unto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak.

19 And the king said, ^{Is not} the hand of Joab with thee in all this? And the woman answered and said, ^{As} thy soul liveth, my lord the king, none can turn to the right hand or to the left from aught that my lord the king hath spoken: for thy servant Joab, he bade me, and he put all these words in the mouth of thy handmaid:

20 To fetch about this form of speech hath thy servant Joab done this thing: and my lord ^{is} wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all ^{things} that ^{are} in the earth.

21 [‡]And the king said unto Joab, Behold now, I have done this thing: go therefore, bring the young man Absalom again.

22 And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself, and [†]thanked the king: and Joab said, To-day thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord, O king, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of his servant.

23 So Joab arose and went to ^dGeshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

24 And the king said, Let him turn to his own house, and let him not ^esee my face. So Absalom returned to his own house, and saw not the king's face.

25 [‡]But in all Israel [†]there [†]was none to be so much praised as Absalom for his beauty: [§]from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.

26 And when he polled his head, (for it was at every year's end that he polled ^{it}: because ^{the hair} was heavy on him, therefore he polled ^{it};) he weighed the hair of his head ^{||}at two hundred shekels ^hafter the king's [†]weight.

27 And unto Absalom there were born ⁱthree sons, and one daughter, whose name ^{was} Tamar: she was a woman of a fair countenance.

28 [‡]So Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, and ^ksaw not the king's face.

29 Therefore Absalom sent for Joab, to have sent him to the king; but he would not come to him: and when he sent again the second time, he would not come.

30 Therefore he said unto his servants, See, Joab's field is near mine, and he hath barley there; go and set it on fire. And Absalom's servants set the field on fire.

31 Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom unto his house, and said unto him, Wherefore have thy servants set my field on fire?

32 And Absalom answered Joab, Behold, I sent unto thee, saying, Come hither, that I may send thee to the king, to say, Wherefore am I come from Geshur? it had been good for me to have been there still: now therefore let me see the king's face; and if there be any iniquity in me, let him kill me.

33 So Joab came to the king, and told him: and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king: and the king kissed Absalom.

CHAPTER XV.

Absalom, by fair speeches and courtesies, stealeth the hearts of Israel.

AND it came to pass after this, that Absalom prepared him chariots and horses, and fifty men to run before him.

2 And Absalom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate: and it was so, that when any man that had a controversy came to the king for judgment, then Absalom called unto him, and said, Of what city art thou? And he said, Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel.

3 And Absalom said unto him, See, thy matters are good and right; but there is no man deputed of the king to hear thee.

4 Absalom said moreover, Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man which hath any suit or cause might come unto me, and I would do him justice!

5 And it was so, that when any man came nigh to him to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took him, and kissed him.

6 And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgment: so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

7 And it came to pass after forty years, that Absalom said unto the king, I pray thee, let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed unto the LORD, in Hebron.

8 For thy servant vowed a vow while I abode at Geshur in Syria, saying, If the LORD shall bring me again indeed to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD.

9 And the king said unto him, Go in peace. So he arose, and went to Hebron.

10 But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, As soon as ye hear the sound of the trumpet, then ye shall say, Absalom reigneth in Hebron.

11 And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, that were called; and they went in their simplicity, and they knew not any thing.

12 And Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counsellor, from his city, even from Giloh, while he offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong; for the people increased continually with Absalom.

13 And there came a messenger to David, saying, The hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom.

14 And David said unto all his servants that were with him at Jerusalem, Arise, and let us flee; for we shall not else escape from Absalom. make speed to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly, and bring evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword.

15 And the king's servants said unto the king, Behold, thy servants are ready to do whatsoever my lord the king shall appoint.

16 And the king went forth, and all his household after him. And the king left ten women which were concubines to keep the house.

17 And the king went forth, and all the people after him, and tarried in a place that was far off.

18 And all his servants passed on beside him; and all the Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men which came after him from Gath, passed on before the king.

19 Then said the king to Ittai the Gittite, Wherefore goest thou also with us? return to thy place, and abide with the king; for thou art a stranger, and also an exile.

20 Whereas thou camest but yesterday, should I this day make thee go up and down with us? seeing I go whither I may; return thou, and take back thy brethren: mercy and truth be with thee.

21 And Ittai answered the king, and said, As the LORD liveth, and as my lord the king liveth, surely in what place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also will thy servant be.

22 And David said to Ittai, Go and pass over. And Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones that were with him.

23 And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over: the king also himself passed over the brook Kidron, and all the people passed over, toward the way of the wilderness.

24 And lo, Zadok also, and all the Levites were with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of God: and they set down the ark of God; and Abiathar went up, until all the people had done passing out of the city.

25 And the king said unto Zadok, Carry back the ark of God into the city: if I shall find favour in the eyes of the LORD, he will bring me again, and shew me both it, and his habitation:

26 But if he thus say, I have no delight in thee; behold, here am I, let him do to me as seemeth good unto him.

27 The king said also unto Zadok the priest, Art not thou a seer? return into the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz thy son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar.

28 See, I will tarry in the plain of the wilderness, until there come word from you to certify me.

29 Zadok therefore and Abiathar carried the ark of God again to Jerusalem: and they tarried there.

30 And David went up by the ascent of mount Olivet, and wept as he went up, and had his head covered, and he went barefoot: and all the people that was with him covered every man his head, and they went up, weeping as they went up.

31 And one told David, saying, Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom. And David said, O LORD, I pray thee, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness.

32 And it came to pass, that when David was to the ^ptop of the mount, where he ^qworshipped God, behold, Hushai the ^rArchite came to meet him with his coat rent, and earth upon his head :

33 Unto whom David said, If thou passest on with me, then thou shalt be a burden unto me :

34 But if thou ^sreturn to the city, and say unto Absalom, I will be thy servant, O king ; as I have been thy father's servant ^thitherto, so will I now also be thy servant : then mayest thou for me defeat the counsel of Ahithophel.

35 And hast ^uthou not there with thee Zadok and Abiathar the priests ? therefore it shall be, that what thing soever thou shalt hear out of the king's house, thou shalt tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests.

36 Behold, they have ^vthere with them their two sons, Ahimaaz, Zadok's son, and Jonathan, Abiathar's son ; and by them ye shall send unto me every thing that ye can hear.

37 So Hushai, David's ^xfriend, came into the city, and Absalom came into Jerusalem.

CHAPTER XVI.

5 Shimei curseth David....9 David with patience abstaineth from revenge.

AND when David was a little past the ^atop of the hill, behold, ^bZiba the servant of Mephibosheth met him, with a ^ccouple of asses saddled, and upon them two hundred loaves of bread, and a hundred bunches of raisins, and a hundred of summer fruits, and a bottle of wine.

2 And the king said unto Ziba, What meanest thou by these ? And Ziba said, The asses ^dbe for the king's household to ^eride on ; and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat ; and the wine, that such as be faint in the wilderness may drink.

3 And the king said, And where is thy master's son ? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he abideth at Jerusalem : for ^ehe said, To-day shall the house of Israel restore me the kingdom of my father.

4 Then said the king to Ziba, Behold, ^fthine are all that pertained unto Mephibosheth. And Ziba said, [†]I humbly beseech thee that I may find grace in thy sight, my lord, O king.

5 And when king David came to ^gBahurim, behold, thence came out a man of the family of the house of Saul, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera : ^hhe came forth, and cursed still as he came.

6 And he cast stones at David, and at all the servants of king David : and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left.

7 And thus said Shimei when he cursed, Come out, come out, [†]thou bloody man, and thou man of ⁱBelial :

8 The LORD hath ^kreturned upon thee all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose stead thou hast reigned ; and the LORD hath delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom thy son : and behold, thou art taken in thy mischief, because thou art a bloody man.

9 [†]Then said Abishai the son of Zeruiah unto the king, Why should this ^ldead dog curse my lord the king ? let me go over, I pray thee, and take off his head.

10 And the king said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah ? so let him curse, because the LORD hath said unto him, ^mCurse David. ⁿWho shall then say, Wherefore hast thou done so ?

11 And David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, Behold, my son, which came forth of my bowels, seeketh my [†]life : how much more now may this Benjamite do it ? let him alone, and let him curse ; for the LORD hath bidden him.

12 It may be that the LORD will look on mine ^{††}affliction, and that the LORD will ^orequite me good for his cursing this day.

13 And as David and his men went by the way, Shimei went along on the hill's side over against him, and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him, and [†]cast dust.

14 And the king, and all the people that were with him, came weary, and refreshed themselves there.

15 [†]And Absalom, and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him.

16 And it came to pass, when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, was come unto Absalom, that Hushai said unto Absalom, God save the king, God save the king.

17 And Absalom said to Hushai, Is this thy kindness to thy ^pfriend ? why wentest thou not with thy friend ?

18 And Hushai said unto Absalom, Nay ; but ^qwhom the LORD, and this people, and all the men of Israel choose, his will I be, and with him will I abide.

19 And again, whom should I serve ? should I not serve in the presence of his son ? as I have served in thy father's presence, so will I be in thy presence.

20 [†]Then said Absalom to Ahithophel, ^rGive counsel among you what we shall do.

21 And Ahithophel said unto Absalom, ^sGo in unto thy father's concubines, which he hath ^tleft to keep the house ; and all Israel shall hear that thou art abhorred of thy father : then shall the hands of all that are with thee be strong.

22 So they spread Absalom a tent upon the ^utop of the house ; and Absalom went in unto his father's concubines in the ^xsight of all Israel.

23 And the counsel of Ahithophel, which he counselled in those days, was as if a man had inquired at the [†]oracle of God : so was all the counsel of Ahithophel, both with David and with Absalom.

CHAPTER XVII.

Ahithophel's counsel is overthrown by Hushai's.

MOREOVER, Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Let me now choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David ^athis night :

2 And I will come upon him while he is ^bweary and weak-handed, and will make him afraid : and all the people that are with him shall flee ; and I will smite the king only :

3 And I will bring back all the people unto thee : the man whom thou seekest is as if all returned : so all the people shall be ^cin peace.

4 And the saying ^dpleased Absalom well, and all the elders of Israel.

5 Then said Absalom, Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise what he saith.

6 And when Hushai was come to Absalom, Absalom spake unto him, saying, Ahithophel hath spoken after this manner : shall we do after his saying ? if not, speak thou.

7 And Hushai said unto Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel hath given is ^enot good ^fat this time.

8 For, said Hushai, thou knowest thy father and his men, that they be mighty men, and they be [†]chafed in their minds, as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field : and thy father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people.

9 Behold, he is hid now in some ^gpit, or in some other place : and it will come to pass, when some [†]of them be overthrown at the first, that whosoever hear-eth it will say, There is a slaughter among the people that follow Absalom.

10 And he also that is † valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall utterly ^h melt : for all Israel knoweth that thy father is a mighty man, and they which be with him are valiant men.

11 Therefore I counsel that all Israel be generally gathered unto thee, ⁱ from Dan even to Beer-sheba, ^k as the sand that is by the sea for multitude, and that ^l thou go to † battle in thine own person.

12 So shall we come upon him in some place where he shall be found, and we will light upon him as the dew falleth on the ground : and of him and of all the men that are with him there shall not be left so much as one.

13 Moreover, if he be gotten into a city, then shall all Israel bring ^m ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one small ⁿ stone found there.

14 And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. For the LORD had † appointed to defeat the ^p good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring evil upon Absalom.

15 ¶ Then said Hushai unto Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel ; and thus and thus have I counselled.

16 Now therefore send quickly, and tell David, saying, Lodge not this night in the plains of the wilderness, but speedily † pass over ; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people that are with him.

17 Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz ^p stayed by ^q Enrogel ; for they might not be seen to come into the city : and a wench went and told them ; and they went and told king David.

18 Nevertheless, a lad saw them, and told Absalom : but they went both of them away quickly, and came to a man's house in Bahurim, which had ^r a well in his court ; whither they went down.

19 And the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground corn thereon ; and the thing was not known.

20 And when Absalom's servants came to the woman to the house, they said, Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan ? And the woman said unto them, They be gone over the brook of water. And when they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

21 And it came to pass, after they were departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David, and said unto David, Arise, and pass quickly over the water : for thus hath Ahithophel counselled against you.

22 Then David ^s arose, and all the people that were with him, and they passed over Jordan : by the morning light there ^t lacked not one of them that was not gone over Jordan.

23 ¶ And when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his ass, and arose, and gat him home to his house, ^u to his city, and ^x put his household in order, and ^y hanged himself, and died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father.

24 Then David came to ^z Mahanaim. And Absalom passed over Jordan, he and ^a all the men of Israel with him.

25 ¶ And Absalom made Amasa captain of the host instead of Joab ; which Amasa was a man's son, whose name was Ithra, ^b an Israelite, that ^c went in to ^d Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zeruiah, Joab's mother.

26 So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, when David was come to Mahanaim, that ^e Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and ^f Machir the son of Ammiel of Lo-debar, and ^g Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim,

28 Brought beds, and basons, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and parched corn, and beans, and lentiles, and parched pulse,

29 And honey, and butter, and sheep, and cheese of kine, ^h for David, and for the people that were with him, to eat : for they said, The people is hungry, and weary, and thirsty, in the wilderness.

CHAPTER XVIII.

Absalom, hanging in an oak, is slain by Joab.

AND David ^a numbered the people that were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them.

2 And David sent forth a third part of the people under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of ^b Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and a third part under the hand of ^c Ittai the Gittite. And the king said unto the people, I will surely go forth with you myself also.

3 But the people answered, Thou shalt not go forth : for if we flee away, they will ^d not care for us ; neither if half of us die, will they care for us : but now thou art † worth ten thousand of us : therefore now it is better that thou ^e succour us out of the city.

4 And the king said unto them, What seemeth you best I will do. And the king stood by the ^f gate side, and all the people came out by hundreds and by thousands.

5 And the king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, ^g Deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with Absalom. And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom.

6 ¶ So the people went out into the field against Israel : and the battle was in the ^h wood of Ephraim ;

7 Where the people of Israel were slain before the servants of David, and there was there ⁱ a great slaughter that day of twenty thousand men.

8 For the battle was there scattered over the face of all the country : and the wood † devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

9 ¶ And Absalom met the servants of David. And Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and his ^k head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the heaven and the earth ; and the mule that was under him went away.

10 And a certain man saw it, and told Joab, and said, Behold, I saw Absalom hanged in an oak.

11 And Joab said unto the man that told him, And behold, thou sawest him, and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground ? and I would have given thee ^l ten shekels of silver, and a girdle.

12 And the man said unto Joab, Though I should receive a thousand shekels of silver in my hand, yet would I not put forth my hand against the king's son : for in our hearing the king charged thee and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Beware that none touch the young man Absalom.

13 Otherwise I should have wrought falsehood against my own [†] life: for there is no matter hid from the king, and thou thyself wouldest have ^m set thyself against me.

14 Then said Joab, I may not tarry thus with thee. And he took three darts in his hand, and thrust them through the ⁿ heart of Absalom, while he was ^o yet alive in the [†] midst of the oak.

15 And ten young men that bare Joab's armour compassed about, and smote Absalom, and slew him.

16 And Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Joab held back the people.

17 And they took Absalom, and ^p cast him into a great pit in the wood, and laid a very great ^q heap of stones upon him: and all Israel fled every one to his tent.

18 ¶ Now Absalom in his life-time had taken and reared up for himself a ^r pillar, which is in the king's dale: for he said, I have ^s no son to keep my name in remembrance: and he called the pillar after his own name: and it is called unto this day, Absalom's Place.

19 ¶ Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok, Let me now run, and bear the king tidings, how that the LORD hath [†] avenged him of his enemies.

20 And Joab said unto him, [†] Thou shalt not bear tidings this day, but thou shalt bear tidings another day: but this day thou shalt bear no tidings, because the king's son is dead.

21 Then said Joab to ¶ Cushi, Go, tell the king what thou hast seen. And Cushi bowed himself unto Joab and ran.

22 Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok yet again to Joab, But howsoever, let me, I pray thee, also run after Cushi. And Joab said, Wherefore wilt thou run, my son, seeing that thou hast no tidings ready?

23 But howsoever, said he, let me run. And he said unto him, Run. Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plain, and overran Cushi.

24 And David sat between the ^t two gates: and the watchman went up to the roof over the gate unto the wall, and lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold, a man running alone.

25 And the watchman cried, and told the king. And the king said, If he be alone, there is tidings in his mouth. And he came apace, and drew near.

26 And the watchman saw another man running: and the watchman called unto the porter, and said, Behold, another man running alone. And the king said, He also bringeth tidings.

27 And the watchman said, [†] Methinketh the running of the foremost is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, He is ^u a good man, and cometh with good tidings.

28 And Ahimaaz called, and said unto the king, All is well. And he fell down to the earth upon his face before the king, and said, Blessed be the LORD thy God, which hath ^z delivered up the men that lifted up their hand against my lord the king.

29 And the king said, [†] Is the young man Absalom safe? And Ahimaaz answered, When Joab sent the king's servant, and me thy servant, I saw a great tumult, but I knew not what it was.

30 And the king said unto him, Turn aside and stand here. And he turned aside, and stood still.

31 And behold, Cushi came; and Cushi said, Tidings, my lord the king: for the LORD hath ^y avenged thee this day of all them that rose up against thee.

32 And the king said unto Cushi, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Cushi answered, The enemies of my lord the king, and all that rise against thee to do thee hurt, be as that young man is.

33 ¶ And the king was much moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept: and as he went, thus he said, O my son Absalom! my son, my son Absalom! [†] would God I had died for thee, O Absalom, my son, my son!

CHAPTER XIX.

Joab causeth the king to cease his mourning.

AND it was told Joab, Behold, the king weepeth and mourneth for Absalom.

2 And the [†] victory that day was turned into, ^a mourning unto all the people: for the people heard say that day how the king was grieved for his son.

3 And the people gat them by stealth that day into the city, as people being ashamed steal away when they flee in battle.

4 But the king ^b covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, O my son Absalom! O Absalom, my son, my son!

5 And Joab came into the house to the king, and said, Thou hast shamed this day the faces of all thy servants, which this day have saved thy life, and the lives of thy sons and of thy daughters, and the lives of thy wives, and the lives of thy concubines;

6 In that thou lovest thine enemies, and hatest thy friends: for thou hast declared this day, [†] that thou regardest neither princes nor servants: for this day I perceive, that if Absalom had lived, and all we had died this day, then ^c it had pleased thee well.

7 Now therefore arise, go forth, and speak [†] comfortably unto thy servants: for I swear by the LORD, if thou go not forth, there will not tarry ^d one with thee this night: and that will be worse unto thee than all the evil that befel thee from thy youth until now.

8 Then the king arose, and sat in the ^e gate. And they told unto all the people, saying, Behold, the king doth sit in the gate. And all the people came before the king: ^f for Israel had fled every man to his tent.

9 ¶ And all the people were ^g at strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The king saved us out of the hand of our enemies, and he delivered us out of the hand of the Philistines; and now he is fled out of the land for Absalom.

10 And Absalom, whom ^h we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why [†] speak ye not a word of bringing the king back?

11 ¶ And king David sent to ⁱ Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, Speak unto the elders of Judah, saying, Why are ye ^k the last to bring the king back to his house? seeing the speech of all Israel is come to the king, even to his house.

12 Ye are my brethren, ye ^l are my bones and my flesh: wherefore then are ye the last to bring back the king?

13 And say ye to ^m Amasa, Art thou not of my bone, and of my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if thou be not captain of the host before me continually in the ⁿ room of Joab.

14 And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even as the heart of ^o one man; so that they sent this word unto the king, Return thou, and all thy servants.

15 So the king returned, and came to Jordan. And Judah came to ^p Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to conduct the king over Jordan.

which was of ^a Bahurim, ^a hasted and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David.

17 And there were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and ^t Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his ^u fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they went over Jordan before the king.

18 And there went over a ferry-boat to carry over the king's household, and to do [†] what he thought good. And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king, as he was come over Jordan;

19 And said unto the king, Let not my lord impute iniquity unto me, neither do thou remember that which thy servant did ^x perversely the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should take it to his heart.

20 For thy servant doth know that I have sinned: therefore behold, I am come ^y the first this day of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king.

21 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, Shall not Shimei be ^z put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD's anointed?

22 And David said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah, that ye should this day be [†] adversaries unto me? shall there any man be put to death this day in Israel? for do I not know that I am this day king over Israel?

23 Therefore the king said unto Shimei, Thou shalt ^a not die: and the king sware unto him.

24 ¶ And Mephibosheth the son ^b of Saul came down to meet the king, and had neither ^c dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor ^d washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came again in peace.

25 And it came to pass, when he was come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said unto him, Wherefore wentest not thou with me, Mephibosheth?

26 And he answered, My lord, O king, my servant deceived me: for thy servant said, I will saddle me an ass, that I may ride thereon, and go to the king; because thy servant is lame.

27 And he hath ^e slandered thy servant unto my lord the king; but my lord the king is as an angel of God: do therefore what is good in thine eyes.

28 For all of my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king: yet didst thou set thy servant among them that did eat at thine own table. What ¶ right therefore have I yet to cry any more unto the king?

29 And the king said unto him, Why speakest thou any more of thy matters? ^f I have said, Thou and Ziba divide the land.

30 And Mephibosheth said unto the king, Yea, let him take all, forasmuch as my lord the king is come again in peace unto his own house.

31 ¶ And Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim, and went over Jordan with the king, to conduct him over Jordan.

32 Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even fourscore years old: and he had provided the king of sustenance while he lay at Mahanaim: for he was a very great man.

33 And the king said unto Barzillai, Come thou over with me, and I will feed thee with me in Jerusalem.

34 And Barzillai said unto the king, [†] How ^h long have I to live, that I should go up with the king unto Jerusalem?

35 I am this day ⁱ fourscore years old: and can I ^k discern between good and evil? can thy servant taste what I eat or what I drink? can I hear any more the voice of singing-men and singing-women? wherefore then should thy servant be yet a burden unto my lord the king?

36 Thy servant will go a little way over Jordan with the king: and why should the king recompense it me with such a reward?

37 Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, and be buried by the grave of my father and of my mother: but behold, thy servant ^l Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what shall seem good unto thee.

38 And the king answered, Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good unto thee: and whatsoever thou shalt require of me, that will I do for thee.

39 And all the people went over Jordan. And when the king was come over, the king ^m kissed Barzillai, and ⁿ blessed him: and he returned unto his own place.

40 Then the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him: and all the people of Judah conducted the king, and also half the people of Israel.

41 ¶ And behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said unto the king, Why have our brethren the men of Judah, stolen thee away, and have ^o brought the king, and his household, and all David's men with him, over Jordan?

42 And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is near of kin to us: wherefore then be ye angry for this matter? have we eaten at all of the king's cost? or hath he given us any gift?

43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, ^p We have ten [†] parts in the king, and we have also more right in David than ye: why then did ye [†] despise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king? And the [†] words of the men of Judah ^q were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

CHAPTER XX.

By occasion of the quarrel, Sheba maketh a party in Israel.

AND there happened to be ^a there a man of ^b Belial, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite: and he blew ^c a trumpet, and said, We have ^d no part in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to his tents, O Israel.

2 So every man of Israel went up from after David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri: but the men ^e of Judah clave unto their king, from Jordan even to Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And David came to his house at Jerusalem; and the king took the ^f ten women his concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in ^g ward, and fed them, but ^h went not in unto them. So they were shut up unto the day of their death, living in widowhood.

4 ¶ Then said the king to ⁱ Amasa, Assemble me the men of Judah within three days, and be thou here present.

5 So Amasa went to assemble the men of Judah: but he tarried longer than the set time which he had appointed him.

6 And David said to ^k Abishai, Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom.

take thou thy ¹ lord's servants and pursue after him, lest he get him fenced cities, and escape us.

7 And there went out after him Joab's men, and the ^m Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men: and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

8 When they were at the great stone ^a which is in Gibeon, Amasa went before them. And Joab's garment that he had put on was girded unto him, and upon it a girdle with a sword fastened upon his loins in the sheath thereof; and as he went forth it fell out.

9 And Joab said to Amasa, † Art thou in health, ^o my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to ^p kiss him.

10 But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand: so he smote him therewith in the fifth ^q rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and struck him not again; and he died. So Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri.

11 And one of Joab's men stood by him, and said, He that favoureth Joab, and he that is for David, let him go after Joab.

12 And Amasa wallowed in blood in the midst of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, when he saw that every one that came by him stood still.

13 When he was removed out of the highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

14 ¶ And he went through all the tribes of Israel unto Abel, and to ^s Beth-maachah, and all the ^t Berites: and they were gathered together, and went also after him.

15 And they came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-maachah, and they † cast up a bank against the city, and it stood in the trench: and all the people that were with Joab battered the wall, to throw it down.

16 ¶ Then cried ^u a wise woman out of the city, Hear, hear; say, I pray you, unto Joab, Come near hither, that I may speak with thee.

17 And when he was come near unto her, the woman said, Art thou Joab? And he answered, I am he. Then she said unto him, Hear the words of thy handmaid. And he answered, I do hear.

18 Then she spake, saying, They were wont to speak in old time, saying, They shall surely ^x ask counsel at Abel: and so they ended the matter.

19 I am one † of them that are peaceable and faithful in Israel: thou seekest to destroy a city and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou swallow up the inheritance of the Lord?

20 And Joab answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy.

21 The matter is not so: but a man ^y of mount Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, hath lifted up his hand against the king, even against David: deliver him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said unto Joab, Behold, ^z his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall.

22 Then the woman went unto all the people ^a in her wisdom. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri and cast it out to Joab. And he blew a trumpet, and they † retired from the city, every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem unto the king.

23 ¶ Now ^b Joab was over all the host of Israel:

and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and over the Pelethites:

24 And Adoram was over the ^c tribute: and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was ^d recorder:

25 And ^e Sheva was scribe: and Zadok and Abiathar were the ^f priests:

26 And Ira also the ^g Jairite was a chief ruler about David.

CHAPTER XXI.

The three years' famine for the Gibeonites cease.

THEN there was ^a a famine in the days of David ^b three years, year after year; and David ^c inquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, It is for Saul, and for his ^d bloody house, because he slew the Gibeonites.

2 And the king called the Gibeonites, and said unto them; (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but of the ^e remnant of the Amorites; and the children of Israel had sworn unto them: and Saul sought to slay them, ^f in his zeal to the children of Israel and Judah.)

3 Wherefore David said unto the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you? and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that ^g ye may bless the inheritance of the LORD?

4 And the Gibeonites said unto him, We will have ^h no silver nor gold of Saul, nor of his house; neither for us shalt thou kill any man in Israel. And he said, What ye shall say, that will I do for you.

5 And they answered the king, The man that consumed us, and that ⁱ devised against us, that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the coasts of Israel,

6 Let ^k seven men of his sons be delivered unto us, and we will hang them up ^l unto the LORD in Gibeah of Saul, whom the LORD did choose. And the king said, I will give them.

7 But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, because of ^m the LORD's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

8 But the king took the two sons of ⁿ Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bare unto Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she brought up for Adriel, the son of Barzillai the ^o Meholahite:

9 And he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the ^p hill ^q before the LORD: and they fell all seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first ^r days, in the beginning of ^r barley-harvest.

10 And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, from the beginning of harvest ^s until water dropped upon them out of heaven, and suffered neither the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night.

11 And it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah the concubine of Saul had done.

12 ¶ And David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of ^t Jabesh-gilead, which had stolen them from the street of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, when the Philistines had slain Saul in Gilboa:

13 And he brought up from thence the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son: and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged.

14 And the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son buried they in the country of Benjamin in ^u Zelah, in the sepulchre of ^x Kish his father: and they performed all that the king commanded. And after that God was ^y entreated for the land.

15 [†] Moreover, the Philistines had yet war again with Israel; and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines: and David waxed faint.

16 And Ishbi-benob, which was of the sons of the ^z giant, the ^a weight of whose spear weighed || three hundred shekels of brass in weight, he being girded with a new sword, thought to have slain David.

17 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah ^b succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David swore unto him, saying, Thou shalt go no more out with us to battle, that thou quench not the [†] light of Israel.

18 And it came to pass after this, that there was again a battle with the Philistines at ^c Gob: then ^d Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Saph, which was of the sons of the giant.

19 And there was again a battle in Gob with the Philistines, where ^e Elhanan the son of Jaare-oregim, a Beth-lehemite, slew the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

20 And there was yet a battle in ^f Gath, where was a man of great stature, that had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to the giant.

21 And when he ^g defied Israel, ^h Jonathan the son of Shimeah the brother of David slew him.

22 These four were born to the giant in Gath, and ⁱ fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAPTER XXII.

A psalm of thanksgiving for God's powerful deliverance and manifold blessings.

AND David spake unto the LORD the words of this ^a song in the day that ^b the LORD had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of ^c Saul:

2 And he said, The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my ^d deliverer;

3 The God of my rock; in him will I ^e trust: he is my ^f shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower, and my refuge, my ^g saviour; thou savest me from violence.

4 I will call on the LORD, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

5 When the ^h waves of death compassed me, the floods of ungodly men made me afraid;

6 The ⁱ sorrows of hell compassed me about; the ^k snares of death prevented me;

7 In my distress [†] I called upon the LORD, and cried to my God: and he did hear my voice out of his temple, and my cry ^m did enter into his ears.

8 Then the ⁿ earth shook and trembled: the ^o foundations of heaven moved and shook, because he was wroth.

9 There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and ^p fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

10 He ^q bowed the heavens also, and came down; and ^r darkness was under his feet.

11 And he rode upon ^s a cherub, and did fly: and he was seen upon the wings of the wind.

12 And he made darkness pavilions ^t round about him, dark waters, and thick clouds of the skies.

13 Through the brightness before him were ^u coals of fire kindled.

14 The LORD thundered from heaven, and the Most High ^x uttered his voice.

15 And he sent out arrows, and stattered them; lightning, and discomfited them.

16 And the channels of the sea appeared, the foundations of the world were discovered, at the ^y rebuking of the LORD, at the blast of the breath of his [†] nostrils.

17 He sent from ^z above, he took me: he drew me out of many ^a waters:

18 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them that hated me: for they were too strong for me.

19 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay.

20 He brought me forth also into a large place: he delivered me, because ^b he delighted in me.

21 The LORD rewarded me ^c according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

22 For I have ^d kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

23 For ^e all his judgments were before me: and as for his statutes, I did not depart from them.

24 I was also ^f upright before him, and have kept myself ^g from mine iniquity.

25 Therefore the LORD hath recompensed me according to my righteousness; according to my cleanness in his eye-sight.

26 With the ^h merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful, and with the upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright.

27 With the ⁱ pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and with the ^k froward thou wilt shew thyself unsavoury.

28 And the [†] afflicted people thou wilt save: but thine ^m eyes are upon the haughty, that thou mayest bring them down.

29 For thou art my lamp, O LORD: and the LORD will ⁿ lighten my darkness.

30 For ^o by thee I have run through a troop: by my God have I leaped over a wall.

31 As for God, ^p his way is perfect; the word of the LORD ^q is tried: he is a buckler to all them that trust in him.

32 For ^r who is God, save the LORD? and who is a rock, save our God?

33 God is my strength and power: and he maketh my way perfect.

34 He maketh my feet like ^s hinds' feet: and setteth me upon my ^t high places.

35 He teacheth my hands to war; so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

36 Thou hast also given me the ^u shield of thy salvation: and thy gentleness hath [†] made me great.

37 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me; so that my feet did not slip.

38 I have pursued mine enemies, and destroyed them; and turned not again until I had consumed them.

39 And I have consumed them, and wounded them, that they could not arise: yea, they are fallen ^x under my feet.

40 For thou hast girded me with strength to battle: them that rose up against me hast thou subdued under me.

51 He is the tower of salvation for his king: and sheweth mercy to his ^e anointed, unto David, and to his seed for evermore.

CHAPTER XXIII.

David in his last words professeth his faith in God's promises. NOW these be the ^a last words of David. David the son of Jesse said, and the man who was raised up on high, the anointed of the God of Jacob, and the sweet ^b psalmist of Israel, said,

2 The ^c Spirit of the LORD spake by me, and his word was in my tongue.

3 The God of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spake to me, || He that ruleth over men must be just, ^f ruling in the fear of God.

4 And he shall be as the ^d light of the morning when the sun riseth, even a morning without clouds; as the ^e tender grass springing out of the earth by clear shining after rain.

5 Although ^f my house be not so with God; yet he hath made with me an ^e everlasting covenant, ^h ordered in all things, and sure: for this is all my salvation, and all my desire, although he make it || not to grow.

6 || But the sons of ⁱ Belial shall be all of them as ^k thorns thrust away, because they cannot be taken with hands:

7 But the man that shall touch them must be fenced with iron and the staff of a spear; and they shall be utterly burned with fire in the same place.

8 || These be the names of ⁱ the mighty men whom David had. The Tachmonite that sat in the seat, chief among the captains; the same was Adino the Eznite: he lifted up his spear against eight hundred, whom he slew at one time.

9 And after him was ^m Eleazar the son of Dodo the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David, when they ⁿ defied the Philistines that were there gathered together to battle, and the men of Israel were gone away:

10 He arose, and smote the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand clave unto the sword: and the LORD wrought a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to spoil,

11 And after him was ^o Shamhah the son of Agee the Hararite. And the Philistines were gathered together into a troop, where was a piece of ground full of lentiles: and the people fled from the Philistines.

12 But he stood in the midst of the ground, and defended it, and slew the Philistines: and the LORD wrought a great victory.

13 And three of the thirty chief went down, and came to David in the harvest time unto the cave of ^p Adullam: and the troop of the Philistines pitched in the valley of Rephaim.

14 And David was then in ^q a hold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Beth-lehem.

15 And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, which is by the gate!

16 And the three mighty men brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: nevertheless he would not drink thereof, but ^r poured it out unto the LORD.

17 And he said, Be it far from me, O LORD, that I should ^s do this: is not this the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mighty men.

18 And ^t Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief among three. And he lifted up his spear against three hundred, and slew them, and had the name among three.

19 Was he not most honourable of three? therefore he was their captain: howbeit he attained not unto the first three.

20 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man, of ^u Kabzeel, ^f who had done many acts, he slew two lion-like men of Moab: he went down also and slew a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow:

21 And he slew an Egyptian, a ^f goodly man: and the Egyptian had a spear in his hand; but he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him ^x with his own spear.

22 These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had the name among three mighty men.

23 He was more honourable than the thirty, but he attained not to the first three. And David set him ^f over his guard.

24 ^y Asahel the || brother of Joab was one of the thirty; Elhanan the son of Dodo of Beth-lehem,

CHAPTER XXIV.

David tempted by Satan, forceth Joab to number the people.

AND ^a again the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and || he moved David against them to say, Go, number Israel and Judah.

2 For the king said to Joab, the captain of the host, which was with him, ^b Go now through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, and number ye the people, that ^c I may know the number of the people.

3 And Joab said unto the king, Now the LORD thy God add unto the people, how many soever they be, a hundred-fold, and that the eyes of my lord the king may see it: but why doth my lord the king delight in this thing?

4 Notwithstanding the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the host. And Joab and the captains of the host ^d went out from the presence of the king, to number the people of Israel.

5 ¶ And they passed over Jordan, and pitched in ^e Aroer, on the right side of the city that lieth in the midst of the river of Gad, and toward ^f Jazer:

6 Then they came to Gilead, and to the land of Tahtim-hodshi; and they came to ^g Dan-jaan, and about to ^h Zidon,

7 And came to the strong hold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites, and of the Canaanites: and they went out to the south of Judah, even to Beer-sheba.

8 So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

9 And Joab gave up the sum of the number of the people unto the king: and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men that drew the sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

10 ¶ And David's heart ⁱ smote him after that he had numbered the people. And David said unto the LORD, I have ^k sinned greatly in that I have done: and now, I beseech thee, O LORD, ^l take away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.

11 For when David was up in the morning, the word of the LORD came unto the prophet ^m Gad, David's seer, saying, 12 Go and say unto David, Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three things; choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

13 So Gad came to David, and told him, and said unto him, || Shall seven years of famine come unto thee in thy land? or wilt thou flee three months before thine enemies, while they pursue thee? or that there be three days' pestilence in thy land? Now advise, and see what answer I shall return to him that sent me.

14 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let us fall now into the ⁿ hand of the LORD; for his mercies are ^o great; and let me not fall into the hand ^p of man.

15 So the LORD sent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning even to the time appointed: and there died of the people from Dan even to Beer-sheba ^q seventy thousand men.

16 And when the angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed the people, It is ^r enough: stay now thy hand. And the angel of the LORD was by the threshing-place of ^s Araunah the ^t Jebusite.

17 And David spake unto the LORD when he ^u saw the angel that smote the people, and said, Lo, I have sinned, and I have done wickedly: but these sheep, what have they done? Let thy hand, I pray thee, be against me, and against my father's house.

18 ¶ And Gad came that day to David, and said unto him, ^x Go up, rear an altar unto the LORD in the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

19 And David, according to the saying of Gad, went up ^y as the LORD commanded.

20 And Araunah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming on toward him: And Araunah went out, and bowed himself before the king on his face upon the ground.

21 And Araunah said, Wherefore is my lord the king come to his servant? And David said, To buy the threshing-floor of thee, to build an altar unto the LORD, that ^z the plague may be stayed from the people.

22 And Araunah said unto David, Let my lord the king take and offer up what seemeth good unto him: behold, here be oxen for burnt-sacrifice, and threshing-instruments and other instruments of the ^a oxen for wood.

23 All these things did Araunah, as a king, give unto the king. And Araunah said unto the king, The LORD thy God ^b accept thee.

24 And the king said unto Araunah, Nay; but I will surely buy it of thee at a price: neither will I offer burnt-offerings unto the LORD my God of that which doth cost me nothing. So David bought the threshing-floor and the oxen for ^c fifty shekels of silver.

25 And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings. So the LORD was ^d entreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel.

¶ The FIRST Book of the KINGS, commonly called The THIRD Book of the KINGS.

CHAPTER I.

Solomon, by David's appointment, is anointed king.

NOW king David was ^a old and stricken in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he gat no heat.

2 Wherefore his ^b servants said unto him, Let there be sought for my lord the king a young virgin:

and let her ^c stand before the king, and let her cherish him, and let her lie in thy ^d bosom, that my lord the king may get ^e heat.

3 So they sought for a fair damsel throughout all the coasts of Israel, and found Abishag ^f a Shunammite, and brought her to the king.

4 And the damsel was very fair, and cherished the and they have caused him to ride upon the king's mule:

45 And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon: and they are come up from thence rejoicing, so that the city rang again. This is the noise that ye have heard.

46 And also Solomon sitteth on the throne of the kingdom.

47 And moreover, the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, God make the name of Solomon better than thy name, and make his throne greater than thy throne. And the king bowed himself upon the bed.

48 And also thus said the king, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which hath given one to sit on my throne this day, mine eyes even seeing it.

49 And all the guests that were with Adonijah were afraid, and rose up, and went every man his way.

50 ¶ And Adonijah feared because of Solomon, and arose, and went, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.

51 And it was told Solomon, saying, Behold, Adonijah feareth king Solomon: for lo, he hath caught hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let king Solomon swear unto me to-day that he will not slay his servant with the sword.

52 And Solomon said, If he will shew himself a worthy man, there shall not a hair of him fall to the earth: but if wickedness shall be found in him, he shall die.

53 So king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and bowed himself to king Solomon: and Solomon said unto him, Go to thy house.

CHAPTER II.

David, having given a charge to Solomon, dieth.

NOW the days of David drew nigh that he should die: and he charged Solomon his son, saying,

2 I go the way of all the earth: be thou strong therefore, and shew thyself a man;

3 And keep the charge of the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and his testimonies, as it is written in the law of Moses, that thou mayest prosper in all that thou doest, and whithersoever thou turnest thyself.

4 That the LORD may continue his word which he spake concerning me, saying, If thy children take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth; with all their heart, and with all their soul, there shall not fail thee (said he) a man on the throne of Israel.

5 Moreover, thou knowest also what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, and what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, unto Abner the son of Ner, and unto Amasa the son of Jether, whom he slew, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle that was about his loins, and in his shoes that were on his feet.

6 Do therefore according to thy wisdom, and let not his hoar head go down to the grave in peace.

7 But shew kindness unto the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be of those that eat at thy table: for so they came to me when I fled because of Absalom thy brother.

8 And behold, thou hast with thee Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite of Bahurim, which cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim: but he came down to meet me at Jordan, and I swear to him by the LORD, saying, I will not put thee to death with the sword.

9 Now therefore hold him not guiltless: for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou oughtest to do unto him; but his hoar head bring thou down to the grave with blood.

10 So David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David.

11 And the days that David reigned over Israel were forty years: seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem.

12 ¶ Then sat Solomon upon the throne of David his father; and his kingdom was established greatly.

13 ¶ And Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, Comest thou peaceably? And he said, Peaceably.

14 He said moreover, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And she said, Say on.

15 And he said, Thou knowest that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign: howbeit the kingdom is turned about, and is become my brother's: for it was his from the LORD.

16 And now I ask one petition of thee, deny me not. And she said unto him, Say on.

17 And he said, Speak, I pray thee, unto Solomon the king, (for he will not say thee nay,) that he give me Abishag the Shunammite to wife.

18 And Bath-sheba said, Well; I will speak for thee unto the king.

19 ¶ Bath-sheba therefore went unto king Solomon, to speak unto him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a seat to be set for the king's mother; and she sat on his right hand.

20 Then she said, I desire one small petition of thee; I pray thee, say me not nay. And the king said unto her, Ask on, my mother: for I will not say thee nay.

21 And she said, Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah thy brother to wife.

22 And king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, And why dost thou ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? ask for him the kingdom also; for he is mine elder brother; even for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah.

23 Then king Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah have not spoken this word against his own life.

24 Now therefore, as the LORD liveth, which hath established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and who hath made me a house, as he promised, Adonijah shall be put to death this day.

25 And king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell upon him that he died.

26 ¶ And unto Abiathar the priest said the king, Get thee to Anathoth, unto thine own fields; for thou art worthy of death: but I will not at this time put thee to death, because thou barest the ark of the LORD God before David my father, and because thou hast been afflicted in all wherein my father was afflicted.

27 So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest unto the LORD; that he might fulfil the word of the LORD, which he spake concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

28 ¶ Then tidings came to Joab: (for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he turned not after Absalom;) and Joab fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.

29 And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD; and behold, he is by the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go, fall upon him.

30 And Benaiah came to the tabernacle of the LORD, and said unto him, Thus saith the king, Come forth. And he said, Nay; but I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me.

31 And the king said unto him, Do as he hath said, and fall upon him, and bury him; that thou mayest take away the innocent blood which Joab shed, from me, and from the house of my father.

32 And the LORD shall return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, my father David not knowing thereof, to wit, Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah.

33 Their blood shall therefore return upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever: but upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace for ever from the LORD.

34 So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and slew him: and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.

35 And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host: and Zadok the priest did the king put in the room of Abiathar.

36 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Build thee a house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and go not forth thence any whither.

37 For it shall be, that on the day thou goest out, and passest over the brook Kidron, thou shalt know for certain that thou shalt surely die: thy blood shall be upon thine own head.

38 And Shimei said unto the king, The saying is good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do. And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.

39 And it came to pass at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away unto Achish son of Maachah king of Gath: and they told Shimei, saying, Behold, thy servants be in Gath.

40 And Shimei arose and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish to seek his servants: and Shimei went and brought his servants from Gath.

41 And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again.

42 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Did I not make thee to swear by the LORD, and protested unto thee, saying, Know for a certain, on the day thou goest out, and walkest abroad any whither, that thou shalt surely die? and thou saidst unto me, The word that I have heard is good.

43 Why then hast thou not kept the oath of the LORD, and the commandment that I have charged thee with?

44 The king said moreover to Shimei, Thou knowest all the wickedness which thy heart is privy to, that thou didst to David my father: therefore the LORD shall return thy wickedness upon thine own head;

45 And king Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD for ever.

46 So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; which went out, and fell upon him, that he died. And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

CHAPTER III.

Solomon's judgment between the two harlots, maketh him renowned.

AND Solomon made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the city of David, until he had made an end of building his own house, and the house of the LORD, and the wall of Jerusalem round about.

2 Only the people sacrificed in high places, because there was no house built unto the name of the LORD, until those days.

3 And Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in high places.

4 And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there; for that was the great high place: a thousand burnt-offerings did Solomon offer upon that altar.

5 In Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night: and God said, Ask what I shall give thee.

6 And Solomon said, Thou hast shewed unto thy servant David my father great mercy, according as he walked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee; and thou hast kept for him this great kindness, that thou hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.

7 And now, O LORD my God, thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father: and I am but a little child: I know not how to go out or come in.

8 And thy servant is in the midst of thy people which thou hast chosen, a great people, that cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude.

9 Give therefore thy servant an understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy so great a people?

10 And the speech pleased the LORD, that Solomon had asked this thing.

11 And God said unto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself long life; neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies: but hast asked for thyself understanding to discern judgment;

12 Behold, I have done according to thy words: lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart; so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee.

13 And I have also given thee that which thou hast not asked, both riches, and honour: so that there shall not be any among the kings like unto thee all thy days.

14 And if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as thy father David did walk, then I will lengthen thy days.

15 And Solomon awoke; and behold, it was a dream. And he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and offered up burnt-offerings, and offered peace-offerings, and made a feast to all his servants.

16 Then came there two women, that were harlots, unto the king, and stood before him.

SO king Solomon was king over ^a all Israel.

2 And these were the ^b princes which he had: Azariah the son of ^{||} Zadok the priest;

3 Elihoreph and Ahiah, the sons of Shisha, ^c scribes; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, the recorder.

4 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the host: and Zadok and ^{||} Abiathar were the priests:

5 And Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers: and Zabud the son of Nathan was principal officer, and the king's ^d friend:

6 And Ahishar was over the household: and Adoniram the son of Abda was over the ^e tribute.

7 ^f And Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, which provided victuals for the king and his household: each man his month in a year made provision.

8 And these are their names: The son of Hur, in ^g mount Ephraim:

9 The son of Dekar, in ^h Makaz, and in Shaalbim, and Beth-shemesh, and Elon-beth-hanan:

10 The son of Hesei, in ⁱ Aruboth; to him pertained Sochoh, and all the land of ^j Hepher:

11 The son of Abinadab, in all the region of ^k Dor: which had Taphath the daughter of Solomon to wife:

12 Baana the son of Ahilud; to him pertained Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth-shean, which is by ^l Zartanah beneath ^m Jezreel, from ⁿ Beth-shean to ^p Abel-meholah, even unto the place that is beyond

13 Jokneam:

13 The son of Geber, in ^r Ramoth-gilead; to him pertained the ^s towns of Jair the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead; to him also pertained the ^t region of Argob, which is in Bashan, threescore great cities with walls and brazen bars:

14 Ahinadab the son of Iddo had ^u Mahanaim:

15 Ahimaaz was in Naphtali; he also took Bas-math the daughter of Solomon to wife:

16 Baanah the son of Hushai was in Asher and in Aloth:

17 Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issachar:

18 Shimei the son of Elah, in Benjamin.

19 Geber the son of Uri was in the country of Gilead, in the country of ^x Sihon king of the Amorites, and of Og king of Bashan; and he was the only officer which was in the land.

20 ^y And Judah and Israel were many, as the ^z sand which is by the sea in multitude, ^z eating and drinking, and making merry.

21 And Solomon reigned ^a over all kingdoms from the river unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt: they brought ^b presents, and served Solomon all the days of his life.

22 ^{||} And Solomon's ^t provision for one day was ^{||} thirty measures of fine flour, and ^{||} threescore measures of meal,

23 Ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and a hundred sheep, besides harts and roebucks, and fallow-deer, and fatted fowl.

24 For he had dominion over all the region on this side the river, from ^c Tiphseh even to ^d Azzah, ^e over all the kings on this side the river: and he had peace on all sides round about him.

25 And Judah and Israel ^f dwelt safely, every man ^g under his vine and under his fig-tree, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, all the days of Solomon.

26 ^{||} And Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.

27 And those officers provided victual for king Solomon, and for all that came unto king Solomon's table, every man in his month: they lacked nothing.

28 Barley also and straw for the horses and ^h dromedaries brought they unto the place where the officers were, every man according to his charge.

29 ^{||} And ⁱ God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and ^j largeness of heart, even as the sand that is on the sea-shore.

30 And Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the children of the ^k east country, and all the wisdom of ^l Egypt.

31 For he was ^m wiser than all men; than ⁿ Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and ^o Chalcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol: and his fame was in all nations round about.

32 And he spake three thousand ^p proverbs: and his ^q songs were a thousand and five.

33 And he spake of trees, from the cedar-tree that is in Lebanon, even unto the hyssop that springeth out of the wall: he spake also of beasts, and of fowl, and of creeping things, and of fishes.

34 And there came of ^r all people to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all kings of the earth, which had heard of his wisdom.

2 And ^b Solomon sent to Hiram, saying,

3 Thou knowest how that David my father could not ^c build a house ^d unto the name of the LORD his God, for the ^e wars which were about him on every side, until the LORD put them ^f under the soles of his feet.

4 But now the LORD my God hath given me ^g rest on every side, so that there is neither adversary nor evil occurrent.

5 And behold, I purpose to build a house unto the name of the LORD my God, ^h as the LORD spake unto David my father, saying, Thy son whom I will set upon thy throne in thy room, he shall build a house unto my name.

6 Now therefore command thou, that they hew me ^k cedar-trees out of Lebanon; and my servants shall be with thy servants: and unto thee will I give hire for thy servants according to all that thou shalt appoint: for thou knowest that there is not among us any that can skill to hew timber like unto the ^l Sidonians.

7 ¶ And it came to pass, ^m when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, Blessed be ⁿ the LORD this day, which hath given unto David a wise son over this great people.

8 And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I have considered the things which thou sentest to me for: and I will do all thy desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of fir.

9 My servants shall bring them down from ⁿ Lebanon unto the sea: and I will convey them by sea in floats unto the place that thou shalt appoint me, and will cause them to be discharged there, and thou shalt receive them: and thou shalt accomplish my desire, in giving food for my ^o household.

10 So Hiram gave Solomon cedar-trees and fir-trees according to all his desire.

11 And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand ^p measures of wheat for food to his household, and twenty measures of pure oil: thus gave Solomon to Hiram year by year.

12 And the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as he ^q promised him: and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and they two made a league together.

13 ¶ And king Solomon raised ^r a levy out of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men.

14 And he sent them to Lebanon ten thousand a month by courses; a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home. ^s And Adoniram was over the levy.

15 And Solomon had threescore and ten thousand that ^t bare burdens, and fourscore thousand || hewers in the mountains;

16 Besides the chief of Solomon's officers which were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, which ruled over the people that wrought in the work.

17 And the king commanded, and they brought ^u great stones, costly stones, and ^v hewed stones, to lay the foundation of the house.

18 And Solomon's builders, and Hiram's builders did hew them, and the || stone-squarers: so they prepared timber and stones to build the house.

CHAPTER VI.

The building of Solomon's temple.

AND ^a it came to pass in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month ^b Zif, which is the ^c second month, that he began to build the house of the LORD.

2 And the house which king Solomon built for the LORD, the length thereof was ^d threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits.

3 And the ^e porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house; and ten cubits was the breadth thereof, before the house.

4 And for the house he made ^f windows of narrow lights.

5 ¶ And against the wall of the house he built ^g chambers round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of the ^h oracle: and he made chambers round about.

6 The nethermost chamber was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad: for without in the wall of the house he made narrowed rests round about, that the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the house.

7 And the house, when it was in building, was built ⁱ of stone made ready before it was brought thither: so that there was neither ^k hammer nor axe, nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building.

8 The door for the middle chamber was in the right side of the house: and they went up with winding stairs into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the ^l third.

9 So he built the house, and finished it; and covered the house with ^m beams and boards of cedar.

10 And then he built chambers against all the house, five cubits high: and they rested on the house with timber of cedar.

11 ¶ And the word of the LORD ⁿ came to Solomon, saying,

12 Concerning this house which thou art in building, if thou wilt walk in my statutes, and execute my ^o judgments, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then will I perform my word with thee, which I spake unto David thy father:

13 And I will ^p dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel.

14 So Solomon built the house, and finished it.

15 And he built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar, ^q both the floor of the house, and the walls of the ceiling: and he covered them on the inside with wood, and covered the floor of the house with planks of fir.

16 And he built twenty cubits on the sides of the house, both the floor and the walls with boards of cedar: he even built them for it within, even for the oracle, even for the ^r most holy place.

17 And the house, that is, the temple before it, was forty cubits long.

18 And the cedar of the house within was carved with || knops and open flowers: all was cedar; there was no stones seen.

19 And the oracle he prepared in the house within, to set there the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

20 And the oracle in the forepart was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in ^s the height thereof: and he overlaid it with ^t pure gold; and so covered the altar which was of cedar

21 So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold: and he made a partition by the ^s chains of gold before the oracle; and he overlaid it with gold.

22 And the whole house he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the house: also the whole altar that was by the oracle he overlaid with gold.

23 ¶ And within the oracle he made two ^u cherubims of [†] olive-tree, each ten cubits high.

24 And five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub: from the uttermost part of the one wing unto the uttermost part of the other were ten cubits.

25 And the other cherub was ten cubits: both the cherubims were of one measure and one size.

26 The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of the other cherub.

27 And he set the cherubims within the inner house; and they ^x stretched forth the wings of the cherubims, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house.

28 And he overlaid the cherubims with gold.

29 And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of cherubims, and palm-trees, and [†] open flowers, within and without.

30 And the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, within and without.

31 ¶ And for the entering of the oracle he made doors of olive-tree: the lintel and side-posts were || a fifth part of the wall.

32 The two doors also were of olive-tree; and he carved upon them carvings of cherubims, and palm-trees, and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold, and spread gold upon the cherubims, and upon the palm-trees.

33 So also made he for the door of the temple, posts of olive-tree, a fourth part of the wall.

34 And the two doors were of ^y fir-tree: the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding.

35 And he carved thereon cherubims, and palm-trees, and open flowers; and covered them with gold, fitted upon the carved work.

36 ¶ And he built the ^z inner court with three rows of hewed stone, and a row of cedar beams.

37 ¶ In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of the LORD laid, in the month Zif:

38 And in the eleventh year, in the month || Bul (which is the eighth month) was the house ^a finished throughout all the parts thereof, and according to all the fashion of it. So was he ^b seven years in building it.

CHAPTER VII.

1 The building of Solomon's house, 2 of the house of Lebanon.

BUT Solomon was building his own ^a house || thirteen years, and he finished all his house.

2 ¶ He built also the house of the forest of Lebanon; the length thereof was a hundred cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits, upon four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars.

3 And it was covered with cedar above upon the beams that lay on forty-five pillars, fifteen in a row.

4 And there were windows in three rows, and light was against light in three ranks.

5 And all the doors and posts were square with the windows: and light was against light in three ranks. ||

6 ¶ And he made a porch of pillars; the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth thereof thirty cubits: and the porch was before them: and the other pillars and the thick beam were before them.

7 ¶ Then he made a porch for the ^b throne where he might judge, even the porch of judgment: and it was covered with cedar from one side of the floor to the other.

8 ¶ And his house where he dwelt had another court within the porch, which was of the like work. Solomon made also a house ^c for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken to wife, like unto this porch.

9 All these were of ^d costly stones, according to the measures of hewed stones, sawed with saws, within and without, even from the foundation unto the coping, and so on the outside toward the great court.

10 And the foundation was of costly stones, even great stones; stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits.

11 And ^e above were costly stones, after the measures of hewed stones, and cedars.

12 And the great court round about was with three rows of hewed stones, and a row of cedar beams, both for the ^f inner court of the house of the LORD, and for the porch of the house.

13 ¶ And king Solomon sent and ^g fetched Hiram out of Tyre.

14 He was a widow's son of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass; and he was ^h filled with wisdom, and understanding, and cunning to work all works in brass. And he came to king Solomon, and wrought all his work.

15 For he [†] cast ⁱ two pillars of brass, of || eighteen cubits high apiece: and a line of twelve cubits did compass either of them about.

16 And he made two chapiters of molten brass, to set upon the tops of the pillars: the height of the one chapter was five cubits, and the height of the other chapter was five cubits:

17 And nets of checker-work, and wreaths of chain-work, for the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars; seven for the one chapter, and seven for the other chapter.

18 And he made the pillars, and two rows round about upon the one net-work, to cover the chapiters that were upon the top, with pomegranates: and so did he for the other chapter.

19 And the chapiters that were upon the top of the pillars were of lily-work in the porch, ^k four cubits.

20 And the chapiters upon the two pillars had pomegranates also above, over against the belly which was by the net-work; and the pomegranates were ^l two hundred in rows round about upon the other chapter.

21 And he set up the ^m pillars in the porch of the temple: and he set up the right pillar, and called the name thereof || Jachin: and he set up the left pillar, and called the name thereof || Boaz.

22 And upon the top of the pillars was lily-work: so was the work of the pillars finished.

23 ¶ And he made ⁿ a molten sea, ten cubits from the one brim to the other: it was round all about, and his height was five cubits: and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about.

24 And under the brim of it round about there were || knops compassing it, ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about: the knops were cast in two rows, when it was cast.

toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

p Jer. 52, 21

26 And it was a ^p hand-breadth thick, and the brim thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies: it contained two thousand baths.

27 ¶ And he made ten bases of brass; four cubits was the length of one base, and four cubits the breadth thereof, and three cubits the height of it.

ver. 29, 36.

28 And the work of the bases was on this manner: They had borders, and the † borders were between the ledges:

29 And on the borders that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubims: and upon the ledges there was a base above: and beneath the lions and oxen were certain additions made of thin work.

30 And every base had four brazen wheels, and plates of brass: and the four corners thereof had undersetters: under the laver were undersetters molten, at the side of every addition.

31 And the mouth of it within the chapter and above was a cubit: but the mouth thereof was round after the work of the base, a cubit and a half: and also upon the mouth of it were gravings with their borders, four-square, not round.

32 And under the borders were four wheels; and the axletrees of the wheels were joined to the base: and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit.

33 And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel; their axletrees, and their naves, and their felloes, and their spokes, were all molten.

34 And there were four undersetters to the four corners of one base: and the undersetters were of the very base itself.

35 And in the top of the base was there a round compass of half a cubit high: and on the top of the base the ledges thereof and the borders thereof were of the same.

38 ¶ Then made he ^a ten lavers of brass: one laver contained forty baths: and every laver was four cubits: and upon every one of the ten bases one laver.

47 And Solomon left all the vessels ^y unweighed, because they were exceeding many: neither was the weight of the brass found out.

51 So was ended all the work that king Solomon made for the house of the LORD. And Solomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated: even the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, did he put among the treasures of the house of the LORD.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 The feast of the dedication of the temple....22 Solomon's prayer.

THEN Solomon ^a assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto king Solomon in Jerusalem, that they might bring up the ^b ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the ^c city of David, which is Zion.

2 And all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto king Solomon at the ^d feast in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month.

3 And all the elders of Israel came, and the ^e priests took up the ark.

4 And they brought up the ark of the LORD, and the ^f tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, even those did ^g the priests and the Levites bring up.

5 And king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel, that were assembled unto him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, ^h that could not be told nor numbered for multitude.

6 And the ⁱ priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto ^k his place, into the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims.

7 For the cherubims spread forth their two wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the ^l staves thereof above.

8 And they ^m drew out the staves, that the ends of the staves were seen out in the ⁿ holy place before the oracle, and they were not seen without: and there they are unto this day.

9 There was ^o nothing in the ark save the two tables of stone, which Moses put there at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

10 And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place, that the ^p cloud ^q filled the house of the LORD,

11 So that the priests could ^r not stand to minister because of the cloud: for the ^s glory of the LORD had filled the house of the LORD.

12 ¶ Then spake Solomon, The LORD said ^t that he would dwell in the thick darkness.

13 I have surely built ^u thee a house to dwell in, a settled place for thee to abide in for ever.

14 And the king turned his face about, and ^x blessed all the congregation of Israel: and all the congregation of Israel stood;

15 And he said, ^y Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which ^z spake with his mouth unto David my father; and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying,

16 Since the day that I brought forth my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house, that ^a my name might be therein; but I chose David to be over my people Israel.

17 And it was ^b in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

18 And the LORD said unto David my father, Whereas it was in thy heart to build a house unto my name, thou ^c didst well that it was in thy heart.

19 Nevertheless, ^d thou shalt not build the house: but thy son that shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house unto my name.

20 And the LORD hath performed his word that he spake, and I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD ^e promised, and have built a house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

21 And I have set there a place for the ark, wherein ^f is the covenant of the LORD, which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ And Solomon ^g stood before the altar of the LORD, in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread ^h forth his hands toward heaven:

23 And he said, LORD God of Israel, there ⁱ is no god like thee, in heaven above, or on earth beneath, who keepest covenant and mercy with thy servants that ^k walk before thee with all their heart:

24 Who hast kept with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him: thou spakest also with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thy hand, as it is this day.

25 Therefore now, LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him, saying, There shall ^l not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel; so that thy children take heed to their way, that they walk before me as thou hast walked before me.

26 And now, O God of Israel, let thy word, I pray thee, be verified, which thou spakest unto thy servant David my father.

27 But will God indeed ^m dwell on the earth? behold the ⁿ heaven and heaven of heavens ^o cannot contain thee; how much less this house that I have builded!

28 Yet have thou respect unto the ^p prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer, which thy servant prayeth before thee to-day:

29 That thine ^q eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which thou hast said, ^r My name shall be there: that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which thy servant shall ^s make toward this place.

30 And hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant, and of ^t thy people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place: and hear thou in heaven thy dwelling-place: and when thou hearest, ^u forgive.

31 ¶ If any man ^x trespass against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to cause him to swear, and the oath come ^y before thine altar in this house:

32 Then hear thou in heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, ^z condemning the wicked, to bring ^a his way upon his head; and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

33 ¶ When thy people Israel be smitten down before the enemy, because they have ^b sinned against thee, and shall turn again to thee, and confess thy name, and pray, and make supplication unto thee in this house:

34 Then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest unto their fathers.

35 ¶ When heaven is ^c shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when ^d thou afflictest them:

36 Then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, that thou ^e teach them the ^f good way wherein they should walk, and give rain upon thy land, which thou hast given to thy people for an inheritance.

37 ¶ If there be in the land famine, if there be pestilence, blasting, mildew, locust, or if there be caterpillar; if their enemy besiege them in the land of their cities, whatsoever plague, whatsoever sickness there be:

38 What prayer and supplication soever be ^g made by any man, or by all thy people Israel, which shall know every man the plague of ^h his own heart, and spread forth his hands toward this house:

39 Then hear thou in heaven thy dwelling-place, and forgive, and do, and give to every man according to his ways, whose heart thou knowest: (for thou, even thou ⁱ only, knowest the hearts of all the children of men;)

40 That they may ^k fear thee all the days that they live in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.

41 Moreover, concerning ^l a stranger, that is not of thy people Israel, but cometh out of ^m a far country for ⁿ thy name's sake;

42 (For they shall hear of thy great name, and of thy ^o strong hand, and of thy stretched-out arm;) when he shall come and pray toward this house;

43 Hear thou in heaven thy dwelling-place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for: that ^p all people of the earth may know thy name, to fear thee, as do thy people Israel; and that they may know that this house which I have builded is called by thy name.

44 ¶ If thy people go out ^q to battle against their enemy, whithersoever thou shalt send them, and shall pray unto the LORD toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house that I have built for thy name:

45 Then hear thou in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

46 If they sin against thee, (for there is no man that ^r sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captives unto the land of the enemy, far or near;

47 Yet if they shall ^s bethink themselves in the land whither they were carried captives, and repent, and make supplication unto thee in the land of them that carried them captives, saying, We have sinned, and have done perversely, we have committed wickedness; 48 And so return unto thee 'with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies which led them away captive, and pray unto thee toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, the city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name:

49 Then hear thou their prayer and their supplication in heaven thy dwelling-place, and "maintain their cause.

50 And forgive thy people that have sinned against thee, and all their transgressions wherein they have transgressed against thee, and *give them compassion before them who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them:

51 For they be thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest forth out of Egypt, from the midst of ^y the furnace of iron:

52 That thine eyes may be open unto the supplication of thy servant, and unto the supplication of thy people Israel, to hearken unto them in all that they call for unto thee.

53 For thou didst ^z separate them from among all the people of the earth, to be thine ^a inheritance, as thou spakest by the hand of Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord God.

54 And it was so, that when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication unto the LORD, he arose from before the altar of the LORD, from ^b kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven.

55 And he stood and ^c blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying,

56 Blessed be the LORD, that hath given rest unto his people Israel, ^d according to all that he promised: there hath not failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised by the hand of Moses his servant.

57 The LORD our God be ^e with us, as he was with our fathers: let him not leave us, nor forsake us:

58 That he may ^f incline our hearts unto him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his judgments, which he commanded our fathers.

59 And let these my words wherewith I have made supplication before the LORD, ^g be nigh unto the LORD our God day and night, that he maintain the cause of his servant, and the cause of his people Israel at ^h all times, as the matter shall require:

60 That ⁱ all the people of the earth may know that ^j the LORD is God, and that there is none else.

61 Let your heart therefore ^k be perfect with the LORD our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day.

62 ¶ And the king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice ^l before the LORD.

63 And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace-offerings, which he offered unto the LORD, ^m two and twenty thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD.

64 The same day did ⁿ the king hallow the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt-offerings, and meat-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings: because the brazen altar that was before the LORD was too little to receive the burnt-offerings, and meat-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings.

65 And at that time Solomon held ^o a feast, and all Israel with him, a great congregation, from the entering in of ^p Hamath unto the ^q river of Egypt, before the LORD our God, ^r seven days and seven days, even fourteen days.

66 On the ^s eighth day he sent the people away: and they blessed the king, and went unto their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that the LORD had done for David his servant, and for Israel his people.

CHAPTER IX.

God's covenant in a vision with Solomon

AND it came to pass, when Solomon had ^a finished the building of the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all Solomon's ^b desire which he was pleased to do,

2 That the LORD appeared to Solomon the ^c second time, as he had appeared unto him at Gibeon.

3 And the LORD said unto him, I have ^d heard thy prayer and thy supplication that thou hast made before me: I have hallowed this house, which thou hast built, to put my name there for ever; and ^e mine eyes and my heart shall be there perpetually.

4 And if thou wilt walk ^f before me, as David thy father walked, ^g in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded thee, and wilt keep my statutes and my judgments:

5 Then I will establish the throne of thy kingdom upon Israel for ever, ^h as I promised to David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man upon the throne of Israel.

6 But if ye shall at all ⁱ turn from following me, ye or your children, and will not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods, and worship them:

7 Then will I ^k cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and ^l this house which I have hallowed for my name, will I cast out of my sight; and Israel shall be ^m a proverb and a by-word among all people:

8 And at this house, which is high, every one that passeth by it shall be ⁿ astonished, and shall ^o hiss; and they shall say, ^p Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and to this house?

9 And ^q they shall answer, Because they forsook the LORD their God, who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have taken hold upon other gods; and have worshipped them, and served them: ^r therefore hath the LORD brought upon them all this evil.

10 ¶ And it came to pass ^s at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD, and the ^t king's house.

11 (Now Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar-trees and fir-trees, and with gold, according to all his desire;) that then king Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.

12 And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him; and they ^u pleased him not.

13 And he said, What cities are these which thou hast given me, ^v my brother? And he called them the land of Cabul unto this day.

14 And Hiram sent to the ^w king six score talents of gold.

Solomon raised; for to build the house of the LORD, and his own house, and ²Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and ^aHazor, and ^bMegiddo, and ^cGezer.

16 For Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, and ^dtaken Gezer; and burnt it with fire, and slain the Canaanites that dwelt in the city, and given it for a present unto his daughter, Solomon's wife.

17 And Solomon built Gezer, and ^eBeth-horon the nether,

18 And ^fBaalath, and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land,

19 And all the cities of ^gstore that Solomon had, and cities for his chariots, and cities for his horsemen, and that which Solomon ^hdesired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

20 And all the people that were ⁱleft of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, which were not of the children of Israel;

21 Their children that were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel also were not able ^kutterly to destroy, upon those did Solomon ^llevy a tribute of ^mbond-service unto this day.

22 But of the children of Israel did Solomon ⁿmake no bond-men: but they were men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horsemen.

23 These were the chief of the officers that were over Solomon's work, five hundred and fifty, which bare rule over the people that wrought in the work.

24 ¶ But Pharaoh's daughter ^ocame up out of the city of David unto ^pher house which Solomon had built for her: then did he build Millo.

25 ¶ And ^qthree times in a year did Solomon offer burnt-offerings and peace-offerings upon the altar which he built unto the LORD, and he burnt incense upon the ^raltar that was before the LORD. So he finished the house.

26 ¶ And king Solomon made a navy of ships in ^sEzion-geber, which is beside ^tEloth, on the shore of the Red sea, in the land of Edom.

27 And Hiram sent in the navy his servants, shipmen that had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon.

28 And they came to ^uOphir, and fetched from thence gold, ^vfour hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon.

CHAPTER X.

The queen of Sheba admireth the wisdom of Solomon.

AND when the ^wqueen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the ^xname of the LORD, she came ^yto prove him with hard questions.

2 And she came ^zto Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bare spices, and very much gold, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was ^ain her heart.

3 And Solomon told her all her ^bquestions: there was not ^cany thing hid from the king, which he told her not.

4 And when the queen of Sheba had seen all Solomon's wisdom, and the house that he had built,

5 And the ^dmeat of his table, and the ^esitting of his servants, and the ^fattendance of his ministers, and ^gtheir apparel, and his cup-bearers, and his ascent by which he went up unto the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her.

6 And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thy acts and of thy wisdom.

7 Howbeit, I believed not the words, ⁱuntil I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and behold, the half was not told me: thy wisdom and prosperity ^kexceedeth the fame which I heard.

8 Happy ^lare thy men, happy ^mare these thy servants; ⁿwhich stand continually before thee, and that ^ohear thy wisdom.

9 ¶ Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in thee, to set thee on the ^pthrone of Israel: because the LORD loved Israel for ever, therefore made he thee king, ^qto do judgment and justice.

10 And she ^rgave the king a hundred and ^stwenty talents of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones: there came no more such abundance of ^tspices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon.

11 And the navy also of Hiram, that brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir great plenty of ^ualmug-trees, and precious stones.

12 And the king made of the almug-trees ^vpillars for the house of the LORD, and for the king's house, harps also and psalteries for singers: there came no such almug-trees, nor were seen unto this day.

13 And king Solomon gave unto the queen of Sheba ^wall her desire, whatsoever she asked, besides that which Solomon gave her of his royal bounty. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

14 ¶ Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred three score and six ^xtalents of gold,

15 Besides that he had of the ^ymerchant-men, and of the traffic of the spice-merchants, and of all the kings ^zof Arabia, and of the governors of the country.

16 And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold; six hundred ^ashekels of gold went to one target.

17 And he made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three pounds of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of ^bLebanon.

18 ¶ Moreover, the king made a great ^cthrone of ^divory, and overlaid it with the best gold.

19 The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round behind: and there were stays on either side on the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the stays.

20 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps: there was not the like made in any kingdom.

21 ¶ And all king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of ^epure gold; none were of silver: it was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon.

22 For the king had at sea a navy of ^fTharshish with the navy of Hiram: once in three years came the navy of Tharshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and ^gapes, and peacocks.

23 So king Solomon ^hexceeded all the kings of the earth for riches and for wisdom.

24 ¶ And ⁱall the earth sought to Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.

25 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver; and vessels of gold, and garments, and armour, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate ^jyear by year.

26 ¶ And Solomon ^kgathered together chariots, and horsemen: and he had a ^lthousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he bestowed in the cities for chariots, and with the king at Jerusalem.

27 And the king made ^g silver to be in Jerusalem as ^h stones, and cedars made he to be as the ⁱ sycamore trees that are in the vale, for abundance.

28 And Solomon had ^k horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the ^l linen yarn at a price.

29 And a chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty: and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, did they bring them out by their means.

CHAPTER XI.

Solomon's acts, reign, and death.

BUT king Solomon ^a loved ^b many strange women, ^c together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, and Hittites;

2 Of the nations concerning which the LORD ^e said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall not go in to them, neither shall they come in unto you: for surely they will ^d turn away your heart after their gods: Solomon clave unto these in love.

3 And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines: and his wives ^e turned away his heart.

4 For it came to pass, when Solomon was ^{||} old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods: and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as was the heart of David his father.

5 For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.

6 And Solomon did evil ^f in the sight of the LORD, and went not fully after the LORD, as did David his father.

7 Then did Solomon build a high place for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, in the hill that is before Jerusalem, and for Molech, the abomination of the children of Ammon.

8 And likewise did he for all his strange wives, which burnt incense and sacrificed unto their gods.

9 And the LORD was angry with Solomon, because ^g his heart was turned from the LORD God of Israel, which had appeared unto him ^h twice,

10 And had ⁱ commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he kept not that which the LORD commanded.

11 Wherefore the LORD said unto Solomon, Forasmuch as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes which I have commanded thee, I will surely rend the kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy servant.

12 Notwithstanding, in thy days I will not do it ^k for David thy father's sake: but I will rend it out of the hand of thy son.

13 Howbeit, I will not rend away all the kingdom; but will give ^l one tribe to thy son, for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen.

14 ¶ And the ^m LORD stirred up an adversary unto Solomon, Hadad the Edomite: he was of the king's seed in Edom.

15 For it came to pass, when David was in ⁿ Edom, and Joab the captain of the host was gone up to bury the slain, after he had smitten ^o every male in Edom;

16 (For six months did Joab remain there with all Israel, until he had cut off every male in Edom:)

17 That Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt; Hadad being yet a little ^p child.

18 And they arose out of ^q Midian, and came to Paran: and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, unto Pharaoh king of Egypt; which gave him a house, and appointed him [†] victuals, and gave him land.

19 And Hadad found [†] great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him to wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the ^{||} queen.

20 And the sister of Tahpenes bare him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes [†] weaned in Pharaoh's house: and Genubath was in Pharaoh's household among the sons of Pharaoh.

21 And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the host was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, Let me depart, that I may go to mine own country.

22 Then Pharaoh said unto him, But what hast thou lacked with me, that, behold, thou seekest to go to thine own country? And he answered, Nothing: howbeit, ^s let me go in any wise.

23 ¶ And God stirred him up another adversary, Rezon the son of Eliadah, which [†] fled from his lord Hadadezer king of ^u Zobah:

24 And he gathered men unto him, and became captain over a band, when David ^x slew them of Zobah: and they went to Damascus, and dwelt therein, and reigned in Damascus.

25 And he was an adversary to Israel ^y all the days of Solomon, besides the mischief that Hadad did: and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria.

26 ¶ And ^z Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephrathite of ^a Zeredah, Solomon's servant, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow woman, even he ^b lifted up his hand against the king.

27 And this was the cause that he lifted up his hand against the king: Solomon built ^c Millo, and repaired the breaches of the city of David his father.

28 And the man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valour: and Solomon seeing the young man that he was industrious, he made him ruler over all the [†] charge of the house of Joseph.

29 And it came to pass at that time when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the ^d prophet Ahijah the ^e Shilonite found him in the way; and he had clad himself with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field:

30 And Ahijah caught the new garment that was on him, and ^f rent it in twelve pieces:

31 And he said to Jeroboam, Take thee ten pieces: for thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee:

32 (But he shall have one tribe for my servant David's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake the city, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel:)

33 Because that they have forsaken me, and have worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon: and have not walked in ^g my ways, to do that which is ^h right in mine eyes, and to keep my statutes and my judgments, as did David his father.

34 Howbeit, [†] I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand: but I will make him prince all the days of his life for David my servant's sake, whom I chose, because he kept my commandments and my statutes:

35 But I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it unto thee, even ten tribes.

36 And unto ¹his son will I give one tribe, that David my servant may have a [†]light ^kalways before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen me to put my name there.

37 And I will take thee, and thou shalt reign according to all that thy soul desireth, and shalt be king over Israel.

38 And it shall be, if thou wilt hearken unto all that I command thee, and wilt walk in my ways, and do that is right in my sight, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did; that I will be ¹with thee, and build thee ^ma sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel unto thee.

39 And I will for this afflict the seed of David, but [†]not for ever.

40 Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam. And Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt, unto ^aShishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

41 ¹And the rest of the acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the ^obook of the acts of Solomon?

42 And the time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was ¹forty years.

43 And Solomon ^aslept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David his father: and [†]Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XII.

The Israelites assemble at Shechem to crown Rehoboam.

AND Rehoboam went to ^aShechem: for all Israel were come to Shechem to make him king.

2 And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was yet ^bin Egypt, ^cheard of it, (for he was fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam dwelt in Egypt;)

3 That they sent and called him. And Jeroboam and all the congregation of Israel came, and spake unto Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke ^dgrievous: now therefore make thou the grievous service of thy father, and his heavy yoke which he put upon us, lighter, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them, Depart yet for three days, then come again to me. And the people departed.

6 ¹And king Rehoboam ^econsulted with the ^fold men that stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, and said, How do ye advise that I may answer this people?

7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou wilt be ^ga servant unto ^hthis people this day, and wilt serve them, and answer them, and speak ⁱgood words to them, then they will be thy servants for ever.

8 But he forsook the counsel of the old men, which they had given him, and consulted with the ^kyoung men that were grown up with him, and which stood before him:

9 And he said unto them, What counsel give ye that we may answer this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke which thy father did put upon us lighter?

10 And the young men that were grown up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou speak unto this people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter unto us; thus shalt thou say unto them, ¹My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11 And now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father hath chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 ¹So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, Come to me again the third day.

13 And the king answered the people [†]roughly, and forsook the old men's counsel that they gave him;

14 And spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, and ^mI will add to your yoke: my father also chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 Wherefore the king hearkened not unto the people: for the [†]cause was from the LORD, that he might perform his saying, which the LORD spake by [†]Ahijah the Shilonite unto Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 ¹So when all Israel saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? neither have we inheritance in the ^ason of Jesse: to your ^oents, O Israel: now see to thine own house, David. So Israel departed unto their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel which dwelt in the ^ocities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent ^aAdoran, who was over the tribute; and all Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. Therefore king Rehoboam [†]made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 So Israel [†]rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

20 And it came to pass, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come again, that they ^ssent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none that followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah ¹only.

21 ¹And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, with the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were ^awarriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

22 But the word of God came unto ^xShemaiah the ^yman of God, saying,

23 Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the ^zremnant of the people, saying,

24 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: return every man to his house; for this thing is from me. They hearkened therefore to the word of the LORD, and returned to depart, according to the word of the LORD.

25 ¹Then Jeroboam built ^aShechem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein; and went out from thence, and built ^bPenuel.

26 And Jeroboam ^csaid in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David:

27 If this people go up to do ^dsacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Judah, and they shall kill ^eme, and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah.

28 [†]Whereupon the king ^ftook counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is^b too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

29 And he set the one inⁱ Beth-el, and the other put he in^k Dan.

30 And this thing became a^l sin: for the people went to worship before the one, even unto Dan.

31 And he made^m a house of high places, and made priests of the lowest ofⁿ the people, which were^o not of the sons of Levi.

32 And Jeroboam ordained^p a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto the feast that is^q in Judah, and^r he offered upon the altar. So did he in Beth-el, sacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Beth-el the priests of the high places which he had made.

33 So he offered upon the altar which he had made in Beth-el the fifteenth day of the eighth month, even in the month which he had^s devised of his own heart; and ordained a feast unto the children of Israel: and he offered upon the altar, and burnt incense.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Jeroboam's hand withereth; 6 and, at the prayer of the prophet, is restored.

AND behold, there came^a a man of God^b out of Judah^c by the word of the LORD unto Beth-el: and Jeroboam stood by the altar^d to burn incense.

2 And he^e cried against the altar in the word of the LORD, and said, O altar, altar! thus saith the LORD; Behold, a child shall be born unto the house of David, ^h Josiah by name; and upon thee shall he offer the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and men's bones shall be burnt upon thee.

3 And he gaveⁱ a sign the same day, saying, This is the sign which the LORD hath spoken; Behold, the altar shall be rent, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured out.

4 And it came to pass when king Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, which had cried against the altar in Beth-el, that he^k put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him. And his hand, which he put forth against him, ^l dried up, so that he could not pull it in again to him.

5 The altar also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.

6 And the king answered and said unto the man of God, ^m Entreat now the face of the LORDⁿ thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again. And the man of God^o besought the LORD, and the king's hand was^p restored him again, and became as it was before.

7 And the king said unto the man of God, Come home with me, and [†] refresh thyself, and I will give thee^q a reward.

8 And the man of God said unto the king, If thou wilt give me^r half thy house, I will not go in with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place:

9 For so was it^s charged me by the word of the LORD, saying, Eat no bread, nor drink water, ^u nor turn again by the same way that thou camest.

10 So he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Beth-el.

11 ¶ Now there dwelt an old^x prophet^y in Beth-el; and his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Beth-el: the words which he had spoken unto the king, them they told also to their father.

12 And their father said unto them, What way went he? for his sons had seen what way the man of God went which came from Judah.

13 And he said unto his sons, Saddle me the^z ass. ^z Num. 22, 21.

So they saddled him the ass: and he rode thereon,

14 And went after the man of God, and found him^a sitting under an oak: and he said unto him, Art ^a John 4, 6 thou the man of God that camest from Judah? And he said, I am.

15 Then he said unto him, Come home with me, and eat bread.

16 And he said, I may not return with thee, nor go in with thee: neither will I eat bread nor drink water with thee in this place:

17 For it was said to me by the word of the LORD, Thou shalt eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that thou camest.

18 He said unto him, I am a prophet also as thou art; and^b an angel spake unto me by the word of the LORD, saying, Bring him back with thee into thy house, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he^c lied unto him. ^b Num. 27, 35.

19 So he went^d back with him, and did eat bread in his house and drank water.

20 ¶ And it came to pass, as they sat at the table, that the word of the LORD came unto the^e prophet that brought him back:

21 And he^f cried unto the man of God that came from Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Forasmuch as thou hast^g disobeyed the mouth of the LORD, and hast not kept the commandment which the LORD thy God commanded thee,

22 But camest back, and hast eaten bread and drunk water in the place, of the which the LORD did say to thee, Eat no bread, and drink no water; thy^h carcass shall not come unto the sepulchre of thy fathers.

23 ¶ And it came to pass, after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he saddled for him the ass, to wit, for the prophet whom he had brought back.

24 And when he was gone, a lionⁱ met him by the way, and^k slew him: and his carcass was cast in the way, and the ass stood by it, the^l lion also stood by the carcass.

25 And behold, men passed by, and saw the carcass cast in the way, and the lion standing by the carcass: and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt.

26 And when the prophet that brought him back from the way heard thereof, he said, It is the man of God, who was disobedient unto the word of the LORD: therefore the LORD hath delivered him unto the lion, which hath[†] torn him, and slain him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake unto him.

27 And he spake to his sons, saying, Saddle me the ass. And they saddled him.

28 And he went, and found his carcass cast in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the carcass: the lion had not eaten the carcass, nor torn^m the ass.

29 And the prophet took up the carcass of the man of God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back; and the old prophet came to the city, to mourn and to bury him.

30 And he laid his carcass in his own grave; and they mourned over him, saying, Alas, my brother!

2 Three years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was ^b Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom.

4 Nevertheless, ^d for David's sake did the LORD his God give him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem:

5 Because David did that which was ^e right in the eyes of the LORD, and turned not aside ^f from any thing that he commanded him ^g all the days of his life, ^h save only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.

6 And there was ⁱ war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.

7 Now the rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam.

8 And Abijam ^k slept with his fathers; and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his stead.

9 And in the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel reigned Asa over Judah.

10 And forty and one years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom.

11 And Asa did that which was ^l right in the eyes of the LORD, as did David his father.

12 And he took away the Sodomites out of the land, and removed all the idols that ^m his fathers had made.

13 And also Maachah ⁿ his mother, even her he removed from being queen, because she had made an ^o idol in a grove; and Asa destroyed her idol, and burnt it by the brook ^q Kidron.

14 But the ^r high places were not removed: nevertheless Asa's heart was perfect with the LORD all his days.

15 And he brought in the things which his father had ^s dedicated, and the things which himself had dedicated, into the house of the LORD, silver, and gold, and vessels.

16 And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel ^t all their days.

17 And Baasha king of Israel ^u went up against Judah, and built ^x Ramah, that he might not suffer any to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

18 Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants: and king Asa sent them to Ben-hadad, the son of Tabrimon, the son of ^y Hezion, king of Syria, that dwelt at ^z Damascus, saying,

19 There is a ^a league between me and thee, and between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent unto thee a present of silver and gold; ^b come and break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

20 So Ben-hadad ^c hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of the hosts which he had against the cities of Israel, and smote Ijon, and Dan, and ^d Abel-beth-maachah, and all Cinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali.

21 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard thereof, that he left off building of Ramah, and dwelt in ^e Tirzah.

22 Then king Asa made a proclamation throughout all Judah; none was exempted: and they took away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha had builded; and king Asa built with ^f them Geba of Benjamin, and ^g Mizpah.

23 The rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his ^h might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah? Nevertheless in the time of his ⁱ old age he was diseased in his feet.

24 And Asa ^k slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and ^l Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead.

25 ¹ And Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned over Israel two years.

26 And he did ^m evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ⁿ way of his father, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.

27 ¹ And Baasha the son of ^o Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha smote him at ^p Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel ^q laid siege to Gibbethon.

28 Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah did Baasha slay him, and reigned in his stead.

29 And it came to pass, when he reigned, that he smote ^r all the house of Jeroboam; ^s he left not to Jeroboam any that breathed, until he had destroyed him, according unto the saying of the LORD, which he spake by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite:

30 Because of the ^t sins of Jeroboam which he sinued, and which he made ^u Israel sin, by his provocation wherewith he provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger.

31 ¹ Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the ^x book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

32 And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

33 In the third year of Asa king of Judah began Baasha the son of Ahijah to reign over all Israel in Tirzah, ^y twenty and four years.

34 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and ^z in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.

that he did in the sight of the LORD, in provoking him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam; and because he killed him.

8 In the twenty and sixth year of Asa king of Judah began Elah the son of Baasha to reign over Israel in Tirzah, two years.

9 And his servant Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him, as he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, steward of his house in Tirzah.

10 And Zimri went in and smote him, and killed him, in the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his stead.

11 And it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he slew all the house of Baasha: he left him not one that pisseth against a wall, neither of his kinsfolks, nor of his friends.

12 Thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake against Baasha by Jehu the prophet.

13 For all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, by which they sinned, and by which they made Israel to sin, in provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities.

14 Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

15 In the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah did Zimri reign seven days in Tirzah. And the people were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines.

16 And the people that were encamped heard say, Zimri hath conspired, and hath also slain the king: wherefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the host, king over Israel that day in the camp.

17 And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah.

18 And it came to pass, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the palace of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over him with fire, and died.

19 For his sins which he sinned in doing evil in the sight of the LORD, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, to make Israel to sin.

20 Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he wrought, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

21 Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri.

22 But the people that followed Omri prevailed against the people that followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

23 In the thirty and first year of Asa king of Judah began Omri to reign over Israel, twelve years: six years reigned he in Tirzah.

24 And he bought the hill Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver, and built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shemer, owner of the hill, Samaria.

25 But Omri wrought evil in the eyes of the LORD, and did worse than all that were before him.

26 For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities.

27 Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he shewed, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

28 So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria: and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

29 And in the thirty and eighth year of Asa king of Judah began Ahab the son of Omri to reign over Israel: and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty and two years.

30 And Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD above all that were before him.

31 And it came to pass, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took to wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Zidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him.

32 And he reared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.

33 And Ahab made a grove; and Ahab did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel that were before him.

34 In his days did Hiel the Beth-elite build Jericho: he laid the foundation thereof in Abiram his first-born, and set up the gates thereof in his youngest son Segub, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Joshua the son of Nun.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Elijah is fed by ravens... 17 He raiseth the widow's son.

AND Elijah the Tishbite, who was of the inhabitants of Gilead, said unto Ahab, As the LORD God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word.

2 And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, 3 Get thee hence, and turn thee eastward, and hide thyself by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan.

4 And it shall be, that thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there.

5 So he went and did according unto the word of the LORD: for he went and dwelt by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan.

6 And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook.

7 And it came to pass after a while, that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land.

8 And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying,

9 Arise, get thee to Zarephath, which belongeth to Zidon, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain thee.

10 So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, the widow woman was there gathering of sticks: and he called to her, and said, Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink.

11 And as she was going to fetch it, he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread in thy hand.

12 And she said, As the LORD thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but a handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oil in a cruse: and behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die.

13 And Elijah said unto her, Fear not: go and do as thou hast said: but make me thereof a little cake first, and bring it unto me, and after make for thee and for thy son.

14 For thus saith the LORD God of Israel, °The barrel of meal shall not waste, neither shall the cruse of oil fail, until the day that the LORD sendeth rain upon the earth.

15 And she went and did ^p according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and ^a her house, did eat many days.

16 And the barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Elijah.

17 And it came to pass after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was so sore, that there was no [†] breath left in him.

18 And she said unto Elijah, [†] What have I to do with thee, O thou ^r man of God? art thou come unto me to call my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son?

19 And he said unto her, Give me thy son. And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into a ^s loft, where he abode, and laid him upon his own bed.

20 And ^t he cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD ^u my God, hast thou also brought ^x evil upon the widow with whom ^y I sojourn, by slaying her son?

21 And he ^z stretched himself upon the child ^a three times, and cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, I pray thee, let this child's soul come into him again.

22 And the LORD heard the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came into him again, and he ^b revived.

23 And Elijah took the child, and brought him down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered him unto ^c his mother: and Elijah said, See, thy son liveth.

24 [†] And the woman said to Elijah, Now ^d by this I know that thou art a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in thy mouth is truth.

CHAPTER XVIII.

Elijah, by prayer obtaining rain, followeth Ahab to Jezreel.

AND it came to pass after ^a many days, that the word of the LORD came to Elijah in the ^b third year, saying, Go, shew thyself unto Ahab; and I will ^c send rain upon ^d the earth.

2 And Elijah went to shew himself unto Ahab. And there was a sore famine in ^e Samaria.

3 And Ahab called Obadiah, which was the ^f governor of his house. (Now Obadiah ^g feared the LORD greatly:

4 For it was so, when Jezebel ^h cut off the prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah took a hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and ⁱ fed them with bread and water.)

5 And Ahab said unto Obadiah, Go into the land unto all fountains of water, and unto all brooks: peradventure we may find ^k grass to save the horses and mules alive, that we lose not all the beasts.

6 So they divided the land between them to pass throughout it: Ahab went one way by himself, ^l and Obadiah went another way by himself.

7 [†] And as Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him: and ^m he knew him, and ⁿ fell on his face, and said, Art thou that ^o my lord Elijah?

8 And he answered him, I am: go, tell thy lord, ^p Behold, Elijah is here.

9 And he said, ^q What have I sinned, that thou wouldest deliver thy servant into the hand of Ahab, to slay me?

10 ^r As the LORD thy God liveth, there is no nation nor kingdom whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee: and when they said, He is not there; he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they found thee not.

11 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

12 And it shall come to pass, as soon as I am gone from thee, that the Spirit of the LORD shall ^s carry thee whither I know not; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find thee, he shall slay me: but I ^t thy servant fear the LORD from my youth.

13 Was it not told my lord what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of the LORD, how I hid a hundred men of the LORD's prophets by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water?

14 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here; and he shall slay me.

15 And Elijah said, As the ^u LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, I will surely shew myself unto him to-day.

16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him: and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

17 [†] And it came to pass when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he ^x that troubleth Israel?

18 And he answered, ^y I have not troubled Israel; but ^z thou, and ^a thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed Baalim.

19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel unto mount ^b Carmel, and the ^c prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the ^d groves four hundred, which ^e eat at Jezebel's table.

20 So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and gathered the ^f prophets together unto mount Carmel.

21 And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long ^g halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD ^h be ⁱ God, follow him: but if ^j Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word.

22 Then said Elijah unto the people, ^k I, even I only, remain a prophet of the LORD; but Baal's prophets ^l are ^m four hundred and fifty men.

23 Let them therefore give us two bullocks; and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under: and ⁿ I will dress the other bullock, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under:

24 And call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD: and the God that answereth ^o by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said, It is well spoken.

25 And Elijah said unto the prophets of Baal, Choose you one bullock for yourselves, and dress it first; for ye are many; and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire under.

26 And they took the bullock which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, O Baal, hear us. But there was ^p no voice, nor any that answered. And they leaped upon the altar which was made.

27 And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah ^q mocked them, and said, Cry aloud: for he is a god: either he is talking, or he is pursuing, or he is in a journey, or peradventure he ^r sleepeth, and must be awaked.

28 And they cried aloud, and cut themselves after their ^s manner with knives and lancets, till ^t the blood gushed out upon them.

29 And it came to pass, when mid-day was past, and they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any that regarded.

30 And Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down.

31 And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, unto whom the word of the LORD came, saying, Israel shall be thy name :

32 And with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD : and he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two measures of seed.

33 And he put the wood in order, and cut the bullock in pieces, and laid him on the wood, and said, Fill four barrels with water, and pour it on the burnt-sacrifice, and on the wood.

34 And he said, Do it the second time. And they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third time. And they did it the third time.

35 And the water ran round about the altar ; and he filled the trench also with water.

36 And it came to pass at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near and said, LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and that I have done all these things at thy word.

37 Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that thou art the LORD God, and that thou hast turned their heart back again.

38 Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt-sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.

39 And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces : and they said, The LORD, he is the God ; the LORD, he is the God.

40 And Elijah said unto them, Take the prophets of Baal ; let not one of them escape. And they took them : and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and slew them there.

41 And Elijah said unto Ahab, Get thee up, eat and drink ; for there is a sound of abundance of rain.

42 So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel ; and he cast himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees, 43 And said to his servant, Go up now, look toward the sea. And he went up, and looked, and said, There is nothing. And he said, Go again seven times.

44 And it came to pass at the seventh time, that he said, Behold, there ariseth a little cloud out of the sea, like a man's hand. And he said, Go up, say unto Ahab, Prepare thy chariot, and get thee down, that the rain stop thee not.

45 And it came to pass in the mean while, that the heaven was black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel.

46 And the hand of the LORD was on Elijah ; and he girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

CHAPTER XIX.

Elisha, taking leave of his friends, followeth Elijah.

AND Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and withal how he had slain all the prophets with the sword.

2 Then Jezebel sent a messenger unto Elijah, saying, So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I make not thy life as the life of one of them by to-morrow about this time.

3 And when he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beer-sheba, which belongeth to Judah, and left his servant there.

4 But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper-tree : and he requested for himself that he might die : and said, It is enough ; now, O LORD, take away my life ; for I am not better than my fathers.

5 And as he lay and slept under a juniper-tree, behold, then an angel touched him, and said unto him, Arise and eat.

6 And he looked, and behold, there was a cake baked on the coals, and a cruse of water at his head : and he did eat and drink, and laid him down again.

7 And the angel of the LORD came again the second time, and touched him, and said, Arise and eat, because the journey is too great for thee.

8 And he arose, and did eat and drink, and went in the strength of that meat forty days and forty nights unto Horeb the mount of God.

9 And he came thither unto a cave, and lodged there ; and behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and he said unto him, What doest thou here, Elijah ?

10 And he said, I have been very jealous for the LORD God of hosts : for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword ; and I, even I only, am left ; and they seek my life to take it away.

11 And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the LORD. And behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the LORD ; but the LORD was not in the wind : and after the wind an earthquake : but the LORD was not in the earthquake :

12 And after the earthquake a fire ; but the LORD was not in the fire : and after the fire a still small voice.

13 And it was so, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entering in of the cave. And behold, there came a voice unto him, and said, What doest thou here, Elijah ?

14 And he said, I have been very jealous for the LORD God of hosts : because the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword ; and I, even I only, am left ; and they seek my life, to take it away.

15 And the LORD said unto him, Go, return on thy way to the wilderness of Damascus : and when thou comest, anoint Hazael to be king over Syria.

16 And Jehu the son of Nimshi shalt thou anoint to be king over Israel : and Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah, shalt thou anoint to be prophet in thy room.

17 And it shall come to pass, that him that escapeth the sword of Hazael shall Jehu slay : and him that escapeth from the sword of Jehu shall Elisha slay.

18 Yet I have left me seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth which hath not kissed him.

19 So he departed thence, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was ploughing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth : and Elijah passed by him, and cast his mantle upon him.

20 And he left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and

CHAPTER XX.

By the direction of the prophet the Syrians are slain.

AND ^aBen-hadad the king of Syria gathered all his host together: and there were ^bthirty and two kings with him, and horses, and chariots: and he went up and besieged Samaria, and warred against it.

2 And he ^csent messengers to Ahab king of Israel into the city, and said unto him, Thus saith Ben-hadad,

3 ^dThy silver and thy gold is mine; thy wives also and thy children, even the goodliest, are mine.

4 And the king of Israel answered and said, My lord, O king, according to thy saying, ^eI am thine, and all that I have.

5 And the messengers came again, and said, Thus speaketh Ben-hadad, saying, Although I have sent unto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliver me thy silver, and thy gold, and thy wives, and thy children;

6 Yet I will send my servants unto thee to-morrow about this time, and they shall search thy house, and the houses of thy servants: and it shall be, that whatsoever is ^fpleasant in thine eyes, they shall put it in their hand, and take it away.

7 Then the king of Israel called all the elders ^gof the land, and said, Mark, I pray you, and see how this man seeketh ^hmischief: for he sent unto me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold, and ⁱI denied him not.

8 And all the elders and all the people said unto him, Harken not unto him, ^jnor consent.

9 Wherefore he said unto the messengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou didst send for to thy servant at the first, I will do: but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, and brought him word again.

10 And Ben-hadad sent unto him, and said, ^kThe gods do so unto me, and more also, if the ^ldust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that ^mfollow me.

11 And the king of Israel answered and said, Tell him, ⁿLet not him that girdeth on his harness boast himself as he that putteth it off.

12 And it came to pass, when Ben-hadad heard this message as he was ^odrinking, he and the kings in the pavilions, that he said unto his servants, Set yourselves in array. And they set themselves in array against the city.

13 ^pAnd behold, there ^qcame a prophet unto Ahab king of Israel, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou seen all this ^rgreat multitude? behold, I will deliver it into thy hand this day; and thou shalt ^sknow that I am the LORD.

14 And Ahab said, By whom? And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Even by the ^tyoung men of the princes of the provinces. Then he said, Who shall order the battle? And he answered, ^uThou.

15 Then he numbered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty-two: and after them he numbered all the people, even all the children of Israel, being seven thousand.

16 And they went out ^vat noon. But Ben-hadad was drinking himself ^wdrunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings that helped him.

17 And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Ben-hadad sent out, and they told him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria.

18 And he said, Whether they be come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they be come out for war, ^xtake them alive.

19 So these young men of the princes of the provinces came out of the city, and the army which followed them.

20 And they slew ^yevery one his man: and the Syrians ^zfled; and Israel pursued them: and Ben-hadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse with the horsemen.

21 And ^{aa}the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and chariots, and slew the Syrians with a great slaughter.

22 ^{ab}And the prophet came to the king of Israel, and ^{ac}said unto him, Go, ^{ad}strengthen thyself, and mark, and see what thou doest: for at the ^{ae}return of the year the king of Syria will come up against thee.

23 And the servants of the king of Syria said unto him, Their gods are gods of the ^{af}hills; therefore they were stronger than we; but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they.

24 And do this thing, ^{ag}Take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put captains in their rooms:

25 And number thee an army, like the army that thou hast lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot: and we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. And he hearkened unto their voice, and did so.

26 And it came to pass at the return of the year, that Ben-hadad numbered the Syrians, and went up ^{ah}to Aphek, to fight against Israel.

27 And the children of Israel were numbered, and were all present, and went against them: and the children of Israel pitched before them like two little flocks of kids; but the Syrians ^{ai}filled the country.

28 ^{aj}And there came ^{ak}a man of God, and spake unto the king of Israel, and said, Thus saith the LORD, ^{al}Because the Syrians have said, The LORD is God of the hills, but he is not God of the valleys, therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into thy hand, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

29 And they pitched one over against the other ^{am}seven days. And so it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined: and the children of Israel slew of the Syrians ^{an}a hundred thousand footmen in one day.

30 But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and there a wall fell upon twenty and seven thousand of the men that were left. And Ben-hadad fled, and came into the city, ^{ao}into an inner chamber.

31 And his servants said unto him, Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings: let us, I pray thee, ^{ap}put sackcloth on our loins, and ropes upon our heads, and go out to the king of Israel; peradventure he will save thy life.

32 So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, ^{aq}Thy servant Ben-hadad saith, I pray thee, let me live. And he said, Is he yet alive? he is my brother.

33 Now the men did diligently observe whether any thing would come from him, and did hastily catch

28 And the word of the LORD cameⁿ to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

CHAPTER XXII.

Ahab, seduced by false prophets, is slain at Ramoth-gilead.

AND they continued^a three years without war between Syria and Israel.

2 And it came to pass in^b the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel.

3 And the king of Israel said unto his servants, Know ye that^c Ramoth in Gilead is^d ours, and we be still, and take it not out of the hand of the king of Syria?

4 And he said unto Jehoshaphat, Wilt^e thou go with me to battle to Ramoth-Gilead? And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I am as thou art, my people as thy people, my horses as thy horses.

5 And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Inquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to-day.

6 Then the king of Israel gathered the^h prophets together, about four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; forⁱ the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

7 And Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might inquire of him?

8 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is^k yet one man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom^l we may inquire of the LORD: but^m I hate him: for he doth not prophesyⁿ good concerning me, but^o evil. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

9 Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, Hasten hither Micaiah the son of Imlah.

10 And the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, sat each on his throne, having put on^p their robes, in a void place in the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets^q prophesied before them.

11 And Zedekiah the^r son of Chenaanah made him^s horns of iron: and he said, Thus saith the LORD, With these shalt thou push the Syrians, until thou have consumed them.

12 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and^t prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the king's hand.

13 And the messenger that was gone to call Micaiah spake unto him, saying, Behold now, the words of the prophets declare good unto the king with^u one mouth: let thy word, I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and speak that which is good.

14 And Micaiah said, As the LORD liveth, what the LORD saith unto me, ^x that will I speak.

15 ¶ So he came to the king. And the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we forbear? And he answered him, ^y Go, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

16 And the king said unto him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou tell me nothing but that which is true in the name of the LORD?

17 And he said, ^z I saw all Israel scattered upon the hills, ^a as sheep that have not a shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master; let them return every man to his house in peace.

18 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would prophesy no good concerning me, but evil?

19 And he said, Hear thou therefore the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD^b sitting on his throne, and all^c the host of heaven^d standing by him on his right hand and on his left.

20 And the LORD said, Who shall persuade Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one said on this manner, and another said on that manner.

21 And there came forth^e a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will persuade him.

22 And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go forth, and I will be^f a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, ^g Thou shalt persuade him, and prevail also: ^h go forth, and do so.

23 Now therefore, behold, ⁱ the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil concerning thee.

24 But Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near, and smote Micaiah on the^k cheek, and said, ^l Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee?

25 And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt^m see in that day, when thou shalt goⁿ into an inner chamber to hide thyself.

26 And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and carry him back unto Amon the^o governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;

27 And say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with^p bread of affliction, and with water of affliction, until I come in peace.

28 And Micaiah said, If thou return at all in peace, the LORD hath^q not spoken by me. And he said, ^r Harken, O people, every one of you.

29 So the king of Israel and^s Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.

30 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will^t disguise myself, and enter into the battle; but put thou on thy robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself, and went into the battle.

31 But the king of Syria commanded his thirty and two captains that had rule over his chariots, saying, Fight neither with^u small nor great, save only with the king of Israel.

32 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, Surely it is the king of Israel. And they^x turned aside to fight against him: and Jehoshaphat^y cried out.

33 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.

34 And a certain man drew a bow^z at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the joints of the harness : wherefore he said unto the driver of his chariot, Turn thy hand, and carry me out of the host ; for I am † wounded.

35 And the battle increased that day : and the king was ^a stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians, and died at even : and the blood ran out of the wound into the midst of the chariot.

36 And there went ^b a proclamation throughout the host about the going down of the sun, saying, Every man to his ^c city and every man to his own country.

37 ¶ So the king ^d died and was brought to Samaria ; and they buried the king ^e in Samaria.

38 And one washed the chariot in the pool of Samaria ; and the dogs licked up his blood ; and they washed his armour ; according ^f unto the word of the LORD which he spake.

39 Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the † ivory house which he made, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel ?

40 So Ahab ^g slept with his fathers ; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

41 ¶ And ^h Jehoshaphat the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.

42 Jehoshaphat was thirty and five years old when he began to reign ; and he reigned ⁱ twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And ^k his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilbi.

43 And he walked ^l in all the way of Asa his father ; he turned not aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of the LORD : nevertheless ^m the high places were not taken away ; for the people offered and burnt incense yet in the high places.

44 And Jehoshaphat ⁿ made peace with the king of Israel.

45 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might that he shewed, and how he warred, are they not written in the ^o book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah ?

46 And the remnant of the ^p sodomites, which remained in the days of his father Asa, he took out of the land.

47 There was then ^q no king in Edom : a deputy was king.

48 Jehoshaphat made ^r ships of Tharshish to go to Ophir for gold : but they went not : for the ships were broken at ^s Ezion-geber.

49 Then said Ahaziah the son of Ahab unto Jehoshaphat, Let my servants go with thy servants in the ships. But Jehoshaphat ^t would not.

50 ¶ And Jehoshaphat ^u slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father : and Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.

51 ¶ Ahaziah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned ^v two years over Israel.

52 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and ^w walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin :

53 For he served ^x Baal, and worshipped him, and provoked to anger the LORD God of Israel, according to all that his father had done.

¶ The SECOND Book of the KINGS, commonly called, The FOURTH Book of the KINGS.

CHAPTER I.

Elijah bringeth fire from heaven upon them whom Ahaziah sent to apprehend him.

THEN ^a Moab ^b rebelled against Israel after ^c the death of Ahab.

2 And Ahaziah fell down through a lattice in his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and ^d was sick : and he sent messengers, and said unto them, Go, inquire of Baal-zebub the god of ^e Ekron, whether I shall recover of this disease.

3 But the angel of the Lord said to ^f Elijah the Tishbite, ^g Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say unto them, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that ye go to inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron ?

4 Now therefore thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. And Elijah ^h departed.

5 ¶ And when the messengers turned back unto him, he said unto them, Why are ye now turned back ?

6 And they said unto him, There came a man up to meet us, and said unto us, Go, turn again unto the king that sent you, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that thou sendest to inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron ? therefore thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.

7 And he said unto them, What manner of man was he which came up to meet you, and told you these words ?

8 And they answered him, He was a hairy ⁱ man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loins. And he said, It is Elijah the Tishbite.

9 Then the king ^k sent unto him ^l a captain ^m of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him : and behold, he sat on the top of a ⁿ hill. And he spake unto him, Thou man of ^o God, the king hath said, Come down.

10 And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, If I be a man of God, then ^p let fire come down from ^q heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And there ^r came down fire from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

11 † Again also he sent unto him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he ^s answered and said unto him, O man of God, thus hath the king said, Come down ^t quickly.

12 And Elijah answered and said unto them, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And the fire of God came down from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

13 ¶ And he sent ^u again a captain of the third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and ^v fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said unto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my ^w † life, and the life of these fifty thy servants, be precious in thy sight.

CHAPTER II.

9 Elijah is taken up by a fiery chariot into heaven....23 Bears destroy the children that mocked Elisha.

AND it came to pass, when the LORD would take up Elijah^a into heaven by a whirlwind, that Elijah went with^b Elisha from^c Gilgal.

2 And Elijah said unto Elisha, Tarry^d here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to^e Beth-el. And Elisha said unto him, As the LORD liveth, and^e as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they went down to Beth-el.

3 And the^b sons of the prophets that were at Beth-el came forth to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take away thy master from thyⁱ head to-day? And he said, Yea, I know it; hold ye your peace.

4 And Elijah said unto him, Elisha, tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to Jericho. And he said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they came to^k Jericho.

5 And the sons of the prophets that were at Jericho came to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take away thy master from thy head to-day? And he answered, Yea, I know it; hold ye your peace.

6 And Elijah said unto him, ^l Tarry, I pray thee, here; for the LORD hath sent me to Jordan. And he said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And they two went on.

7 And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood to view afar off: and they two stood by Jordan.

8 And Elijah took his^m mantle, and wrapped it together, andⁿ smote the waters, and they were divided hither and thither, so that they two went over on^o dry ground.

9 [¶] And it came to pass, when they were gone over, that Elijah said unto Elisha, ^p Ask what I shall^q do for thee, before I be taken away from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, let a double portion of thy spirit be upon me.

10 And he said, Thou hast asked a hard thing: nevertheless, ^r if thou see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so unto thee; but if not, it shall not be so.

11 And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that behold, there appeared a^s chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into^t heaven.

12 [¶] And Elisha saw it, and he^u cried, My father, my father, the^x chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof! And he^y saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and rent them in two pieces.

13 He took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the bank of Jordan;

14 And he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and^z smote the waters, and said, Where is the LORD God of Elijah? And when he also had smitten the waters, they parted hither and thither: and Elisha went over.

15 And when the sons of the prophets which were to view at Jericho saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah doth rest on Elisha. And they came to meet him, and^a bowed themselves to the ground before him.

16 And they said unto him, Behold now, there be with thy servants fifty strong men: let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master: lest peradventure the Spirit of the LORD hath taken him up, and cast him upon some^b mountain, or into some valley. And he said, Ye shall not send.

17 And when they urged him till he[†] was ashamed, he said, Send. They sent therefore fifty men; and they sought three days, but found him not.

18 And when they came again to him, (for he tarried at Jericho,) he said unto them, Did I not say unto you, Go not?

19 [¶] And the men of the city said unto Elisha, Behold, I pray thee, the situation of this city is^c pleasant, as my lord seeth: but the^d water is nought, and the ground^e barren.

20 And he said, Bring me a new cruse, and put^f salt therein. And they brought it to him.

21 And he went forth unto the spring of the waters, and cast the salt in there, and said, Thus saith the LORD, I have^g healed these waters; there shall not be from thence any more death or barren land.

22 So the waters were healed unto this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spake.

23 [¶] And he went up from thence unto^h Beth-el: and as he was going up by the way, there came forth littleⁱ children out of the city, ^k and mocked him, and said unto him, Go up, thou bald-head; go up, thou bald-head.

24 And he turned back, and looked on them, and^l cursed them in the^m name of the LORD. And there came forth two she-bears out of the wood, and tare forty and two children of them.

25 And he went from thence to mountⁿ Carmel, and from thence he returned to^o Samaria.

CHAPTER III.

1 Jehoram's reign....4 Mesha rebelleth.

NOW Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria, in the eighteenth^a year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years.

2 And he wrought evil in the sight of the LORD; but not like^b his father, ^c and like his mother: for he put away the image^d of Baal that his father had made.

3^e Nevertheless, he cleaved unto the sins^f of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom.

4 [¶] And Mesha king of Moab was a^g sheep-master, and^h rendered unto the king of Israel a hundred thousand lambs, and a hundred thousand rams, with the wool.

5 But it came to pass, when Ahab was dead, that Before CHRIST 896 the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

6 ¶ And king Jehoram went out of Samaria the same time, and ^k numbered all Israel.

7 And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab hath rebelled against me: ^l wilt thou go with me against Moab to battle? And he said, ^m I will go up: I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and my horses as thy horses.

8 And he said; Which way shall we go up? And he answered, The way through the ⁿ wilderness of Edom.

9 So the king of Israel went, and the ^o king of Judah, and the king of Edom: and they fetched a compass of seven days' journey: and there was no water for the host, and for the cattle [†] that followed them.

10 And the king of Israel said, Alas, that ^p the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab!

11 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a ^q prophet of the LORD, that we may inquire of the LORD by him? And one of the king of Israel's servants answered and said, Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat which poured water on the hands of Elijah.

12 And Jehoshaphat said, The word of the LORD is with him. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom ^r went down to him.

13 And Elisha said unto the king of Israel, ¶ What have I to do with thee? get thee to the prophets of thy father, and to the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said unto him, Nay: for the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab.

14 And Elisha said, ^t As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, surely, were it not that ^u I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, [†] I would not look toward thee, nor see thee.

15 But now bring me ^x a minstrel. And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that the ^y hand of the LORD came upon him.

16 And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Make this valley [†] full of ditches.

17 For thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not see ^z wind, neither shall ye see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, that ye may drink, both ye, and your ^a cattle, and your beasts.

18 And this is ^b but a light thing in the sight of the LORD: he will deliver the Moabites also into your hand.

19 And ye shall ^b smite every fenced city, and every choice city, and shall ^c fell every good tree, and stop all wells of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones.

20 And it came to pass in the morning, when the ^d meat-offering was offered, that behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was ^c filled with water.

21 ¶ And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they gathered all that were able to put on armour, and upward, and stood in the border.

22 And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side ^e as red as blood:

23 And they said, This is blood: the kings are surely slain, and they have smitten one another: now therefore, Moab, to the spoil.

24 And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they went forward smiting the Moabites, even in their country.

25 And they beat down the cities, and on every good piece of land cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees: only in ^f Kir-haraseth left they the stones thereof; howbeit the slingers went about [†] it, and smote it.

26 ¶ And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men that ^g drew swords, to break through ^{even} unto the king of Edom: but they could not.

27 Then he took ^h his eldest son, that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt-offering upon the wall. And there was great indignation against Israel: And they departed from him, and returned to their own land.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Elisha multiplieth the widow's oil—18 He raiseth again her dead son.

NOW there cried a certain woman of the wives of the ^a sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant ^b did fear the LORD: and the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be ^c bond-men.

2 And Elisha ^d said unto her, ^e What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thy handmaid hath not any thing in the house save ^f a pot of oil.

3 Then he said, Go, borrow thee ^g vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels; borrow not a few.

4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt ^h shut the door upon thee and upon thy ⁱ sons, and shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full.

5 So she ^k went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she ^l poured out.

6 And it came to pass, when the vessels were ^m full, that she said unto her son, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, There is not a vessel more. And the oil ⁿ stayed.

7 Then she ^o came and told the man of God, and he said, Go, sell the oil, and ^p pay thy debt, and live thou and thy children of the ^q rest.

8 ¶ And it fell on a day, that Elisha passed to ^r Shunem, where was a great ^s woman; and she constrained him to eat bread. And so it was, that as oft as he passed by, he turned in thither to eat bread.

9 And she said ^t unto her husband, Behold now, I perceive that this is ^u a holy man of God, which passeth by us continually.

10 Let us make a little chamber, I pray thee, ^x on the wall; and let us set for him there ^y a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick: and it shall be, when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither.

11 And it fell on a day, that he came thither, and he turned into the chamber, and lay there.

12 And he said to Gehazi his servant, Call this Shunammite. And when he had called her, she stood before him.

13 And he said unto him, Say now unto her, Behold, thou hast been ^z careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for thee? wouldest thou be spoken for ^a to the king, or to the captain of the host? And she answered, ^b I dwell among mine own people.

14 And he said, What then is to be done for her?

18.d Acts 20, 10.

And Gehazi answered, Verily she hath no child, and her husband is old.

15 And he said, Call her. And when he had called her, she stood ^d in the door.

16 And he said, About this season, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son. And she said, Nay, my lord, thou man of God, do ^e not lie unto thy handmaid.

17 And the woman ^f conceived, and bare a son at that season that Elisha had said unto her, according to the time of life.

18 ¶ And when the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers.

19 And he said unto his father, ^g My head, my head. And he said to a lad, Carry him to his ^h mother.

20 And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then ⁱ died.

21 And she went up, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and ^k shut the door upon him, and went out.

22 And she called unto her husband, and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may ^l run to the man of God, and come again.

23 And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to-day? it is neither ^m new-moon, nor sabbath. And she said, ⁿ It shall be well.

24 Then ^o she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, Drive, and go forward; slack not thy riding for me, except I bid thee.

25 So she went and came unto the man of God to mount ^p Carmel. And it came to pass, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, yonder is that Shunammite:

26 Run now, I pray thee, to meet her, and say unto her, Is it well with thee? Is it well with thy husband? is it well with the child? And she answered, It is well.

27 And when she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught him by the ^q feet: but Gehazi came near ^a to thrust her away. And the man of God said, Let her alone; for her soul ^r is vexed within her: and the LORD hath ^s hid it from me, and hath not told me.

28 Then she said, ^t Did I desire a son of my lord? did I not say, Do not deceive me?

29 Then he said to Gehazi, ^u Gird up thy loins, and take ^v my staff in thy hand, and go thy way: if thou meet any man, ^w salute him not; and if any salute thee, answer him not again: and lay my staff upon the face of the child.

30 And the mother of the child said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And he arose, and ^x followed her.

31 And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the child; but there was neither ^y voice, nor hearing. Wherefore he went again to meet him, and told him, saying, The child ^z is ^a not awaked.

32 And when Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid upon his bed.

33 He went in therefore, and ^b shut the door upon them twain, ^c and prayed unto the LORD.

34 And he went up, and ^d lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands: and he stretched himself upon the child; and the flesh of the child waxed warm.

35 Then he returned, and ^e walked in the house to and fro; and went up, and stretched himself upon him: and the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes.

36 And he called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunammite. So he called her. And when she was come in unto him, he said, ^f Take up thy son.

37 Then she went in, and ^g fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground, and took up her son, and went out.

38 And Elisha came again to ^h Gilgal. And there was ⁱ a dearth in the land; and the sons of the prophets ^j were ^k sitting before him: and he said unto his servant, Set on the great pot, and seethe pottage for the sons of the prophets.

39 And one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered thereof wild gourds his lap full, and came and shred them into the pot of pottage: for they ^l knew them not.

40 So they poured out for the men to eat. And it came to pass, as they were eating of the pottage, that they cried out, and said, O thou man of God, there is ^m death in the pot. And they could not eat thereof.

41 But he said, Then bring meal. And he ⁿ cast it into the pot; and he said, Pour out for the people, that they may eat. And there was no harm in the pot.

42 ¶ And there came a man from ^o Baal-shalisha, and ^p brought the man of God bread of the ^q first-fruits, twenty loaves of barley, and full ears of corn in the husk thereof. And he said, Give unto the people, that they may eat.

43 And his servitor said, ^r What! should I set this before a hundred men? He said again, Give the people, that they may eat: for thus saith the LORD, They shall ^s eat, and shall leave thereof.

44 So he set it before them, and they did eat, and ^t left thereof, according to the word of the LORD.

CHAPTER V.

Naaman is sent to Samaria to be cured of his leprosy.

NOW Naaman, captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a ^a great man with his master, and honourable, because ^b by him the LORD had given deliverance unto Syria: he was also a mighty man in valour, but he was ^c a leper.

2 And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid; and she ^d waited on Naaman's wife.

3 And ^e she said unto her mistress, Would God my lord ^f were with the prophet that is ^g in Samaria! for he would recover him of his leprosy.

4 And ^h one went in, and told his lord, saying, Thus and thus said the ⁱ maid that is of the land of Israel.

5 And the king of Syria said, Go to, go, and I will send a letter ^j unto the king of Israel. And he departed, and took ^k with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand ^l pieces of gold, and ^m ten changes of raiment.

6 And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, Now when this letter is come unto thee, behold, I have therewith sent Naaman my servant to thee, that thou mayest recover him of his leprosy.

7 And it came to pass, when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he rent his clothes, and said, Am ⁿ I God, ^o to kill and to make alive, that this man doth send unto me to recover a man of his leprosy? Wherefore consider, I pray you, and see how he seeketh ^p a quarrel against me.

heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, ^a Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a ^o prophet in Israel.

9 So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and ^p stood at the door of the house of Elisha.

10 And Elisha sent ^q a messenger unto him, saying, Go and ^r wash in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and thou shalt be ^s clean.

11 But Naaman was wroth, ^t and went away, and said, Behold, I thought, He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of the LORD his God, and ^u strike his hand over the place, and recover the leper.

12 Are not Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not wash in them, and be clean? So he turned and went away in a rage.

13 And his servants came near, and spake unto him, and said, ^x My father, if the prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldest thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash, and be clean?

14 ^y Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came again like unto the flesh of a little child, and he ^z was clean.

15 ^{aa} And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came and stood before him: and he said, Behold, now I know that there is ^a no God in all the earth, but in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, take ^b a blessing of thy servant.

16 But he said, As the LORD liveth, before whom I stand, I will ^c receive none. And he urged him to take it; but he refused.

17 And Naaman said, Shall there not then, I pray thee, be given to thy servant two mules' burden of earth? for thy servant will henceforth offer neither burnt-offering nor sacrifice unto other gods, but unto the LORD.

18 In this thing the LORD pardon thy servant, that ^{aa} when my master goeth into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leaneth on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon: when I bow down myself in the house of Rimmon, the LORD pardon thy servant in this thing.

19 And he said unto him, Go in peace. So he departed from him a little way.

20 ^{ab} But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, Behold, my master hath spared Naaman this Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought: but as the LORD liveth, ^a I will run after him, and take somewhat of him.

21 So Gehazi followed after Naaman. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he lighted down from the chariot to meet him, and said, Is all well?

22 And he said, All is well. My master hath sent me, saying, Behold, even now there be come to me from mount Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets: give them, I pray thee, a talent of silver, and two changes of garments.

23 And Naaman said, Be content, take two talents. And he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and laid them upon two of his servants; and they bare them before him.

24 And when he came to the tower, he took them from their hand, and bestowed them in the house: and he let the men go, and they departed.

25 But he went in, and stood before his master: and Elisha said unto him, Whence comest thou, Gehazi? And he said, Thy servant went no whither.

26 And he said unto him, Went not my heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? ^a Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and olive-yards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and men-servants, and maid-servants?

27 The leprosy therefore of Naaman shall cleave unto thee and unto thy seed ^b for ever. And he went out from his presence a leper as white ^c as snow.

CHAPTER VI.

The army which was sent to Dothan, to apprehend Elisha, is smitten with blindness.

AND the ^a sons of the prophets said unto Elisha, Behold now, the place where we ^b dwell with thee is too straight for us.

2 Let us go, we pray thee, unto Jordan, and take thence every man a beam, and let us make us ^b a place there, where we may dwell. And he answered, Go ye.

3 And one said, Be content, I pray thee, and ^c go with thy servants. And he answered, I will go.

4 So ^d he went with them. And when they came to Jordan, they cut down wood.

5 But as one was felling a beam, the ^e axe-head fell into the water: and he cried, and said, Alas, master! for it was ^f borrowed.

6 And the man of God said, Where fell it? And he shewed him the place. And he cut down ^f a stick, and cast it in thither; and the iron did swim.

7 Therefore said he, Take it up to thee. And he put out his hand, and took it.

8 ^g Then the king of Syria warred against Israel, and ^h took counsel with his servants, saying, ⁱ In such and such a place shall be my camp.

9 And the man of God sent unto the king of Israel, saying, Beware that thou pass not such a place; for thither the Syrians are come down.

10 And the king of Israel ^j sent to the place which the man of God told him and warned him of, and saved himself there, not once nor twice.

11 Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was ^k sore troubled for this thing; and he called his servants, and said unto them, Will ye not shew me which of us is for the king of Israel?

12 And one of his servants said, None, my lord, O king: but Elisha, the prophet that is in Israel, telleth the king of Israel the words that thou speakest in thy ^l bed-chamber.

13 And he said, Go, and ^m spy where he is, that I may send and fetch him. And it was told him, saying, Behold, he is ⁿ in Dothan.

14 Therefore sent he thither horses, and chariots, and ^o a great host: and they came by night, and ^p compassed the city about.

15 And when the servant of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, a host compassed the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant said unto him, Alas, my master! how shall we do?

16 And he answered, ^q Fear not: for they that be ^r with us are more than they that be with them.

17 And Elisha ^s prayed, and said, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha.

18 And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed unto the LORD, and said, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindness. And he smote them with blindness, according to the word of Elisha.

19 ¶ And Elisha said unto them, This is not the way, neither is this the city: follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom ye seek. But he led them to Samaria.

20 And it came to pass, when they were come into Samaria, that Elisha said, LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see. And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and behold, they were in the midst of Samaria.

21 And the king of Israel said unto Elisha, when he saw them, My father, shall I smite them? shall I smite them?

22 And he answered, Thou shalt not smite them: wouldest thou smite those whom thou hast taken captive with thy sword and with thy bow? Set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master.

23 And he prepared great provision for them: and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. So the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.

24 And it came to pass after this, that Ben-hadad king of Syria gathered all his host, and went up, and besieged Samaria.

25 And there was a great famine in Samaria: and behold, they besieged it, until an ass's head was sold for || fourscore pieces of silver, and || the fourth part of a cab of dove's dung for five pieces of silver.

26 And as the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, there cried a woman unto him, saying, Help, my lord, O king.

27 And he said, If the LORD do not help thee, whence shall I help thee? out of the barn-floor, or out of the wine-press?

28 And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, This woman said unto me, Give thy son, that we may eat him to-day, and we will eat my son to-morrow.

29 So we boiled my son, and did eat him: and I said unto her on the next day, Give thy son, that we may eat him: and she hath hid her son.

30 ¶ And it came to pass, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he rent his clothes; and he passed by upon the wall, and the people looked, and behold, he had sackcloth within upon his flesh.

31 Then he said, God do so and more also to me if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall stand on him this day.

32 But Elisha sat in his house, and the elders sat with him; and the king sent a man from before him: but ere the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, See ye how this son of a murderer hath sent to take away my head? look, when the messenger cometh, shut the door, and hold him fast at the door: is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?

33 And while he yet talked with them, behold, the messenger came down unto him; and he said, Behold, this evil is of the LORD; what should I wait for the LORD any longer?

CHAPTER VII.

Elisha prophesieth incredible plenty in Samaria.

THEN Elisha said, Hear ye the word of the LORD; Thus saith the LORD, To-morrow about this time shall a measure of fine flour be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria.

2 Then a lord on whose hand the king leaned, answered the man of God, and said, Behold, if the LORD would make windows in heaven, might this thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof.

3 ¶ And there were four leprous men at the entering in of the gate: and they said one to another, Why sit we here until we die?

4 If we say, We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there: and if we sit still here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us fall unto the host of the Syrians: if they save us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die.

5 And they rose up in the twilight to go unto the camp of the Syrians: and when they were come to the uttermost part of the camp of Syria, behold, there was no man there.

6 For the LORD had made the host of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host: and they said one to another, Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us.

7 Wherefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life.

8 And when these lepers came to the uttermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and carried thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it: and came again, and entered into another tent, and carried thence also, and went and hid it.

9 Then they said one to another, We do not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace: if we tarry till the morning-light, some mischief will come upon us: now therefore come, that we may go and tell the king's household.

10 So they came and called unto the porter of the city: and they told them, saying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but horses tied, and asses tied, and the tents as they were.

11 And he called the porters; and they told it to the king's house within.

12 ¶ And the king arose in the night, and said unto his servants, I will now shew you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we be hungry; therefore are they gone out of the camp, to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and get into the city.

13 And one of his servants answered and said, Let some take, I pray thee, five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city, (behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel that are left in it: behold, I say, they are even as all the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed;) and let us send and see.

14 They took, therefore two chariot horses; and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, Go and see.

15 And they went after them unto Jordan: and lo, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. And the messengers returned, and told the king.

16 And the people went out, and spoiled the tents of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 The Shunammite, for Elisha's miracle's sake, hath her land restored by the king.... 16 Jehoram's wicked reign in Judah.

THEN spake Elisha unto the woman, whose son he had restored to life, saying, Arise, and go thou and thy household, and sojourn wheresoever thou canst sojourn: for the LORD hath called for a famine; and it shall also come upon the land seven years.

2 And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God: and she went with her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years.

3 And it came to pass at the seven years' end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines: and she went forth to cry unto the king for her house, and for her land.

4 And the king talked with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great things that Elisha hath done.

5 And it came to pass, as he was telling the king how he had restored a dead body to life, that behold, the woman, whose son he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said, My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life.

6 And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed unto her a certain officer, saying, Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now.

7 And Elisha came to Damascus: and Ben-hadad the king of Syria was sick: and it was told him, saying, The man of God is come hither.

8 And the king said unto Hazael, Take a present in thy hand, and go, meet the man of God, and inquire of the LORD by him, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

9 So Hazael went to meet him, and took a present with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden, and came and stood before him, and said, Thy son Ben-hadad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

10 And Elisha said unto him, Go, say unto him, Thou mayest certainly recover: howbeit, the LORD hath shewed me, that he shall surely die.

11 And he settled his countenance steadfastly, until he was ashamed: and the man of God wept.

12 And Hazael said, Why weepeth my lord? And he answered, Because I know the evil that thou wilt do unto the children of Israel: their strong holds wilt thou set on fire, and their young men wilt thou slay with the sword, and wilt dash their children, and rip up their women with child.

13 And Hazael said, But what! is thy servant a dog, that he should do this great thing? And Elisha answered, The LORD hath shewed me that thou shalt be king over Syria.

14 So he departed from Elisha, and came to his master; who said to him, What said Elisha to thee? And he answered, He told me that thou shouldest surely recover.

15 And it came to pass on the morrow, that he took a thick cloth, and dipped it in water, and spread it on his face, so that he died: And Hazael reigned in his stead.

16 And in the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat being then king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah began to reign.

17 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

18 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for the daughter of Ahab was his wife: and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

19 Yet the LORD would not destroy Judah, for David his servant's sake, as he promised him to give him always a light, and to his children.

20 In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves.

21 So Joram went over to Zair, and all the chariots with him: and he rose by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him about, and the captains of the chariots: and the people fled into their tents.

22 Yet Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time.

23 And the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

24 And Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

25 In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel did Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah begin to reign.

26 Two and twenty years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah, the daughter of Omri king of Israel.

27 And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the LORD, as did the house of Ahab: for he was the son-in-law of the house of Ahab.

28 And he went with Joram the son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Syria in Ramoth-gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram.

29 And king Joram went back to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him in Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

up thy loins, and take this box of oil in thy hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead:

2 And when thou comest thither, look out there Jehu the ^bson of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, and go in, and make him arise up from among his brethren, and carry him to an [†]inner chamber;

3 Then take the box of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, Thus saith the LORD, I have ^eanointed thee king over Israel. Then open the door, and ^dflee, and tarry not.

4 So the young man, even the young man the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead.

5 And when he came, behold, the captains of the host were sitting; and he said, I have an errand to thee, O captain. And Jehu said, Unto which of all us? And he said, To thee, O captain.

6 And he arose, and went into the house; and he poured the oil on his head, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I have anointed thee king over the people of the LORD, even over Israel.

7 And thou shalt ^esmite the house of Ahab thy master, that I may ^favenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, ^gat the hand of Jezebel.

8 For the whole house of Ahab shall perish: and I will cut off from Ahab him that ^hpisseth against the wall, and him that is ⁱshut up and left in Israel:

9 And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of ^kJeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of ^lBaasha the son of Ahijah:

10 And the ^mdogs shall eat Jezebel in the ⁿportion of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door, and fled.

11 ¶ Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord: and one said unto him, Is all well? wherefore came this ^omad fellow to thee? And he said unto them, Ye know the man, and his communication.

12 And they said, It is false; tell us now. And he said, Thus and thus spake he to me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel.

13 Then they hasted, and took every man his garment, and ^pput it under him on the top of the stairs, and blew with trumpets, saying, Jehu is king.

14 So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, conspired against Joram. (Now Joram had kept Ramoth-gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria.)

15 But king Joram was returned to be ^qhealed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) And Jehu said, If it be your minds, then ^rlet none go forth nor escape out of the city to go to tell it in Jezreel.

16 So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for Joram lay there. And ^sAhaziah king of Judah was come down to see Joram.

17 And there stood ^ta watchman on the tower of Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, I see a company. And Joram said, Take a horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, Is it peace?

18 So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said, ^uWhat hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but he cometh not again.

19 Then he sent out a second on horseback, which came to them, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu answered, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me.

20 And the watchman told, saying, He came even unto them, and cometh not again: and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he driveth ^vfuriously.

21 And Joram said, Make ready. And his chariot was made ready. And Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out against Jehu, and met him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite.

22 And it came to pass, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, Is it peace, Jehu? And he answered, ^wWhat peace, so long as the ^xwhoredoms of thy mother Jezebel and her ^ywitchcrafts are so many?

23 And Joram ^zturned his hands, and ^afled, and said to Ahaziah, There is treachery, O Ahaziah.

24 And Jehu drew a bow with his full strength, and smote Jehoram between his arms, and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sunk down in his chariot.

25 Then said Jehu to Bidkar his captain, Take up and cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for remember how that, when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the LORD laid this ^bburden upon him;

26 Surely I have seen ^cyesterday the ^dblood of Naboth, and the blood of his ^esons, saith the LORD; and I will requite thee in this plat, saith the LORD. Now therefore take and cast him into the plat of ground, according to the word of the LORD.

27 ¶ But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden-house. And Jehu followed after him, and said, Smite ^fhim also in the chariot. And they did so at the going up to ^gGur, which is by ^hIbleam. And he fled to ⁱMe-giddo, and died there.

28 And his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the ^jcity of David.

29 And in the ^keleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab began Ahaziah to reign over Judah.

30 ¶ And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she ^lpaintred her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window.

31 And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, Had ^mZimri peace, who slew his master?

32 And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who? And there looked out to him two or three eunuchs.

33 And he said, Throw her down. So they threw her down: and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he ⁿtrode her under foot.

34 And when he was come in, he did eat and drink, and said, Go, see now this ^ocursed woman, and ^pbury her: for she is a ^qking's daughter.

35 And they went to bury her: but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands.

36 Wherefore they came again, and told him. And he said, This is ^rthe word of the LORD, which he spake by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the portion of Jezreel shall ^sdogs eat the flesh of Jezebel:

37 And the carcass of Jezebel shall be as ^tdung upon the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel; so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel.

3 And he was with her hid in the house of the LORD six years. And Athalia ^e did reign over the land.

4 † And the seventh year ^f Jehoiada sent and fetched the ^g rulers over hundreds, with the captains and the guard, and brought them to him into the house of the LORD, and ^h made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of the LORD, and shewed them the king's son.

5 And he commanded them, saying, This is the thing that he shall do: ⁱ A third part of you that enter in on the ^k sabbath shall even be keepers of the watch of the king's house;

6 And a third part shall be at the gate of ^l Sur; and a third part at the gate ^m behind the guard: so shall ye keep the watch of the house, that it be not broken down.

7 And two parts of all you that go forth on the sabbath, even they shall keep the watch of the house of the LORD about the king.

8 And ye shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand: and he that cometh within the ranges, let him be ⁿ slain. And be ye with the king as he goeth out and as he cometh in.

9 And the captains over the hundreds did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest commanded: and they took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that should go out on the sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest.

10 And to the captains over hundreds did the priest give king ^o David's spears and shields, that were in the temple of the LORD.

11 And the guard stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, round about the king, from the right corner of the temple to the left corner of the temple, along by the ^p altar and the temple.

12 And he brought forth the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and gave him the ^q testimony; and they ^r made him king, and anointed him; and they ^s clapped their hands, and said, God † save the king.

13 † And when Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people into the ^t temple of the LORD.

14 And when she looked, behold, the king stood by a ^u pillar, as the manner was, and the princes and the trumpeters by the king, and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew with trumpets. And Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, ^x Treason, treason!

15 But Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of the ^y hundreds, the officers of the host, and said unto them, Have her forth without the ranges: and him that ^z followeth her kill with the sword. For the priest had said, Let her not be slain in the house of the LORD.

16 And they laid hands on her; and she went by the way by the which the horses came into the king's house: and there was she ^a slain.

17 † And Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD and the ^b king and the people, that they should be the LORD's people; ^c between the king also and the people.

18 And all the people of the land went into the ^d house of Baal, and brake it down; his altars and his images brake they in pieces thoroughly, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed officers over the house of the LORD.

19 And he took the rulers over hundreds, and the captains, and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of the LORD, and came by the way of the ^e gate of the guard to the king's house. And he sat on the throne of the kings.

20 And all the people of the land ^f rejoiced, and the city was in quiet: and they slew Athaliah with the sword beside the king's house.

21 Seven years old was Jehoash when he began to reign.

CHAPTER XII.

Jehoash reigneth well all the days of Jehoiada.

IN the ^a seventh year of Jehu, Jehoash began to reign; and forty years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his ^b mother's name was Zibiah of ^c Beer-sheba.

2 And Jehoash did that which was ^d right in the sight of the LORD all his days wherein Jehoiada the priest instructed him.

3 But the ^e high places were not taken away: the people still ^f sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.

4 † And Jehoash said to the priests, All the money of the † dedicated things that is brought into the house of the LORD, even the money ^g of every one that passeth the account, the money that every man ^h is ⁱ set at, and all the money that ^j cometh into any man's heart to bring into the house of the LORD,

5 Let the ^k priests take it to them, every man of his ^l acquaintance: and let them repair the breaches of the house, wheresoever any breach shall be found.

6 But it was so, that in the three and twentieth year of king Jehoash the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house.

7 Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and the other priests, and said unto them, Why repair ye not the breaches of the house? now therefore ^m receive no more money of your acquaintance, but deliver it for the breaches of the house.

8 And the priests consented to receive no more money of the people, neither to repair the breaches of the house.

9 But Jehoiada the priest took ⁿ a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set ^o it ^p beside the altar, on the right side as one cometh into the house of the LORD: and the priests that kept the † door put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD.

10 And it was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's ^q scribe and the ^r high priest came up, and they put up in bags, and

11 And they gave the money, being ^r told, into the hands of them that did the work, that had the oversight of the house of the LORD: and they laid it out to the carpenters and builders, that wrought upon the house of the LORD,

14 But they gave that to the workmen, and repaired therewith the house of the LORD.

16 The ^y trespass-money and sin-money was not brought into the house of the LORD: it was the priests'.

17 ¶ Then ^z Hazael king of Syria ^a went up, and fought against Gath, and took it: and Hazael ^b set his face to go up to Jerusalem.

18 And Joash king of Judah took all the hallowed things that Jehoshaphat, and Jehoram, and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own hallowed things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and in the king's house, and ^c sent it to Hazael king of Syria: and he went away from Jerusalem.

CHAPTER XIII.
Jehoahaz's wicked reign.

IN the ^a three and twentieth year of Joash the son of Ahaziah king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned seventeen years.

2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom.

3 ¶ And the anger of the LORD was ^b kindled against Israel, and he ^c delivered them into the hand of ^d Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of ^e Ben-hadad the son of Hazael, all their days.

4 And Jehoahaz ^f besought the LORD, and the LORD hearkened unto him: for ^g he saw the oppression of Israel, because the king of Syria oppressed them.

5 (And the LORD gave Israel ^h a saviour, so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians: and the children of Israel dwelt in their tents, as beforetime.

6 Nevertheless they departed not from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who made Israel sin, but walked therein: and there remained the ⁱ grove also in Samaria.)

but fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria had destroyed them, and had made them like the ^k dust by threshing.

9 And Jehoahaz ⁿ slept with his fathers; and they ^o buried him in ^p Samaria: and Joash his son reigned in his stead.

10 ¶ In the thirty and seventh year of Joash king of Judah began Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixteen years.

11 And he did that which was evil ^q in the sight of the LORD; he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin; but he walked therein.

13 And Joash slept with his fathers; and Jeroboam ^r sat upon his throne; and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

14 ¶ Now Elisha was fallen sick of his sickness whereof he ^s died. And Joash the king of Israel came down unto him, and wept over his face, and said, O my father, ^t my father! the ^u chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof!

15 And Elisha said unto him, Take bow and arrows. And he took unto him bow and arrows.

16 And he said to the king of Israel, [†] Put thy hand upon the bow. And he put his hand upon it: and Elisha ^x put his hands upon the king's hands.

17 And he said, Open the window eastward. And he opened it. Then Elisha said, Shoot. And he shot. And he said, The arrow of the LORD's deliverance, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria: for thou shalt smite the Syrians in ^y Aphek, till thou have consumed them.

18 And he said, Take the arrows. And he took them. And he said unto the king of Israel, ^z Smite upon the ground. And he smote thrice, and stayed.

19 And the man of God was wroth with him, and said, Thou shouldest have smitten five or six times: then hadst thou smitten Syria till thou hadst consumed it: whereas now thou shalt smite Syria but thrice.

20 ¶ And Elisha died, and they buried him. And the ^a bands of the Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year.

21 And it came to pass, as they were burying a man, that behold, they spied a band of ^b men; and they cast the man into the sepulchre of Elisha: [†] and when the man was let down, ^b and touched the bones of Elisha, he revived, and stood up on his feet.

22 ¶ But Hazael king of Syria ^c oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz.

23 And the LORD was gracious unto them, and had compassion on them, and had respect unto them, because of his ^d covenant with ^e Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them, neither cast he them from his presence ^f as yet.

24 So Hazael king of Syria died; and Ben-hadad his son reigned in his stead.

25 And Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz took again out of the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael the cities, which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war. ^g Three times did Joash beat him, and recovered the cities of Israel.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Amaziah's good reign.....5 His justice on the murderers of his father.

IN the second year of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel reigned ^a Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah.

2 He was twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and reigned ^b twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehohaddan of Jerusalem.

3 And he ^c did that which was ^c right in the sight of the LORD, yet not like David his father: he did according to all things ^d as Joash his father did.

4 Howbeit the ^e high places were not taken away: as yet the people did sacrifice, and burnt incense on the high places.

5 ^f And it came to pass, as soon as the kingdom was ^f confirmed in his hand, that he ^g slew his servants which had ^b slain the king his father.

6 But ⁱ the children of the murderers he slew not: according unto that which is written in the book of the law of Moses, wherein the LORD commanded, saying, ^k The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall be put to death for his own sin.

7 He ^l slew of ^m Edom in the ⁿ valley of Salt ^o ten thousand, and took ^p Selah by war, and called the name of it ^q Joktheel unto this day.

8 ^r Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz, son of Jehu king of Israel, saying, ^s Come, let us ^t look one another in the face.

9 And Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The ^u thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the ^v cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.

10 Thou hast indeed smitten Edom, and ^w thy heart hath lifted thee up: glory of this, and tarry at home: for why shouldest thou ^x meddle to thy hurt, that thou shouldest fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?

11 But Amaziah ^y would not hear: therefore Jehoash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth-shemesh, which ^z belongeth ^z to Judah.

12 And Judah was put to the worse before Israel; and they fled every man to their tents.

13 And Jehoash king of Israel ^{aa} took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash the son of Ahaziah, at Beth-shemesh, and came to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the ^{ab} gate of Ephraim unto the ^{ac} corner-gate, four hundred cubits.

14 And he took all the gold and silver, and all the ^{ad} vessels that were found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

15 ^{ae} Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, in his ^{af} might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, ^{ag} are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

16 And Jehoash ^{ah} slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; and Jeroboam his son reigned in his stead.

17 ^{ai} And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years.

18 And the ^{aj} rest of the acts of Amaziah, ^{ak} are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

19 Now they made ^{al} a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem: and he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to ^{am} Lachish, and slew him there.

20 And they brought him ^{an} on horses: and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David.

21 ^{ao} And all the people of Judah took Azariah, which was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah.

22 He built ^{ap} Elath, and ^{aq} restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

23 ^{ar} In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel began to reign in Samaria, and reigned forty and one years.

24 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not ^{as} from all the ^{at} sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

25 He ^{au} restored the ^{av} coast of Israel from the entering of Hamath unto the sea of the plain, according to the word of the LORD God of Israel, which he spake by the hand of his servant ^{aw} Jonah, the son of Amittai, the prophet, which was of ^{ax} Gath-hepher.

26 For the LORD ^{ay} saw the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter: for there was not any ^{az} shut up, nor any left, nor ^{ba} any helper for Israel.

27 And the LORD ^{bb} said not that he would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven: but he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash.

28 ^{bc} Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his might, how he warred, and how he recovered ^{bd} Damascus, and ^{be} Hamath, which belonged ^{bf} to Judah, for Israel, ^{bg} are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

29 And Jeroboam slept with his fathers, even with the kings of Israel; and ^{bh} Zachariah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XV.

1 Azariah's good reign.....5 Jotham succeedeth him.

IN the ^{ci} twenty and seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, began ^{cd} Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah to reign.

2 ^{ce} Sixteen years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned ^{cf} two and fifty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jecholia of Jerusalem.

3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, ^{cg} according to all that his father Amaziah had done;

4 Save that the ^{ch} high places were not removed: ^{ci} the people sacrificed and burnt incense still on the high places.

5 ^{ck} And the LORD ^{cl} smote the king, so that he was ^{cm} a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a ^{cn} several house. And Jotham the king's son was over the house, ^{co} judging the people of the land.

6 And the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, ^{cp} are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

7 So Azariah ^{cq} slept with his fathers; and they ^{cr} buried him with his fathers in the city of David; and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

8 ^{cs} In the thirty and eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, did Zachariah the son of Jeroboam reign over Israel in Samaria ^{ct} six months.

LORD, ° as his fathers had done: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

10 And Shallum the son of Jabesh ^p conspired against him, and smote him ^a before the people, and slew him, and reigned in his stead.

11 And the rest of the acts of Zachariah, behold, they are written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

12 This was ^r the word of the LORD which he spake unto Jehu, saying, Thy sons shall sit on the throne of Israel unto the ^s fourth generation. And so it came to pass.

13 ¶ Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the nine and thirtieth year of ^t Uzziah king of Judah; and he reigned a full month in Samaria.

14 For Menahem the son of Gadi went up from ^u Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and smote Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and slew him, and ^x reigned in his stead.

15 And the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy which he made, behold, they are written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

16 ¶ Then Menahem smote ^y Tiphsah, and all that were therein, and the coasts thereof from Tirzah: because they opened not to him, therefore he smote it; and all the ^z women therein that were with child he ripped up.

17 In the nine and thirtieth year of Azariah king of Judah ^a began Menahem the son of Gadi to reign over Israel, and reigned ten years in Samaria.

18 And he did that which was ^b evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

19 And ^c Pul the king of Assyria came against the land: and Menahem gave Pul ^{||} a thousand talents of silver, that his hand might be with him to ^d confirm the kingdom in his hand.

20 And Menahem exacted the money of Israel, even of all the mighty men of wealth, of each man fifty shekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and stayed not there in the land.

21 ¶ And the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

22 And Menahem ^e slept with his fathers; and Pekahiah his son reigned in his stead.

23 ¶ In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned ^f two years.

24 And he did that which was ^g evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

25 But ^h Pekah the son of Remaliah, a captain of his, conspired against him, and smote him in Samaria, in the palace of the king's house, with Argob and Arieah, and with him fifty men of the Gileadites: and he killed him, and reigned in his room.

26 And the ⁱ rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

27 ¶ In the two and fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah the son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned twenty years.

28 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

29 In the days of Pekah king of Israel came

^k Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and took ^l Ijon, and Abel-beth-maachah, and ^m Janoah, and ⁿ Kedesh, and ^o Hazor, and ^p Gilead, and ^q Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and carried them ^r captive to Assyria.

30 And Hoshea the son of ^s Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and smote him, and slew him, and reigned in his stead, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah.

31 And the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

32 ¶ In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel began ^t Jotham the son of Uzziah king of Judah to reign.

33 Five and twenty years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jerusha, the daughter of Zadok.

34 And he did that which was ^u right in the sight of the LORD: he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done.

35 ¶ Howbeit, the ^x high places were not removed: the people sacrificed and burned incense still in the high places. He built the ^y higher gate of the house of the LORD.

36 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

37 In those days the ^z LORD ^a began to send against Judah, Rezin the king of Syria, and ^b Pekah the son of Remaliah.

38 And ^{||} Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: And Ahaz his son reigned in his stead

CHAPTER XVI.

1 Ahaz's wicked reign....19 Hezekiah succeedeth him.

IN the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, ^a Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign.

2 Twenty years old was Ahaz when he began to reign, and reigned ^b sixteen years in Jerusalem, and did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD his God, like David his father.

3 But he walked in the ^c way of the kings of Israel, yea, and made ^d his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel.

4 And he sacrificed and burnt incense in the ^e high places, and on the ^f hills, and ^g under every green tree.

5 ¶ Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to war: and they besieged Ahaz, but ^h could not overcome him.

6 At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and drove the Jews from ⁱ Elath: and the ^j Syrians came to Elath, and dwelt there unto this day.

7 So Ahaz sent messengers to ^k Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, I am ^m thy servant and thy son: come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, which rise up against me.

8 And Ahaz took the ⁿ silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent it for ^o a present to the king of Assyria.

9 And the king of Assyria hearkened unto him: for the king of Assyria went up against Damascus, and ^p took it, and carried the people of it captive to ^q Kir, and slew Rezin.

10 ¶ And king Ahaz went to Damascus ^r to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and ^s saw an altar that was at Damascus: and king Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the fashion of the ^t altar, and the pattern of it, according to all the workmanship thereof.

11 And ^u Urijah the priest built an altar according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus: so Urijah the priest ^x made it against king Ahaz came from Damascus.

12 And when the king was come from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and the king approached to the altar, and ^y offered thereon.

13 And he burnt his burnt-offering and his ^z meat-offering, and poured his drink-offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace-offerings upon the altar.

14 And he brought also the ^a brazen altar, which was ^b before the LORD, from the forefront of the house, from between the altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of the altar.

15 And king Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, Upon the great altar burn the morning burnt-offering, and the evening meat-offering, and the king's burnt-sacrifice, and his meat-offering, with the burnt-offering of all the people of the land, and their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings; and sprinkle upon it all the blood of the burnt-offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice: and the brazen altar shall be for me to inquire by.

16 ^c Thus did Urijah the priest, according to all that king Ahaz commanded.

17 ¶ And king Ahaz cut off the ^d borders of the bases, and removed the laver from off them; and took down the sea from off the brazen oxen that were under it, and put it upon a pavement of stones.

18 And the ^e covert for the sabbath that they had built in the house, and the king's entry without, turned he from the house of the LORD ^e for the king of Assyria.

19 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

20 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in ^f the city of David: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XVII.

Hoshea's wicked reign.

IN the ^a twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, began Hoshea the son of Elah, to reign in Samaria over Israel nine years.

2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, but ^b not as the kings of Israel that were before him.

3 ¶ Against him came up ^c Shalmanezzer king of Assyria; and Hoshea became his servant, and gave him presents.

4 And the king of Assyria found conspiracy ^d in Hoshea: for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no present to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in ^e prison.

5 ¶ Then the king of Assyria came up ^f throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years.

6 ¶ In the ^g ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria took Samaria, and ^h carried Israel away into Assyria, and placed them in ⁱ Halah and in ^j Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the ^k Medes.

7 For so it was, that the children of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, which had ^l brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared ^m other gods,

8 And walked in the ⁿ statutes of the heathen whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, ^o which they had made.

9 And the children of Israel ^p did secretly those things that were not right against the LORD their God, and they built them high places in all their cities, from the ^q tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

10 And they set them up ^r images and ^s groves in every high hill, and under every green tree:

11 And there they burnt ^t incense in all the high places, as did the heathen whom the LORD carried away ^u before them; and wrought wicked things to provoke the LORD to anger:

12 For they served idols, whereof the LORD had said unto them, Ye shall not do this thing.

13 Yet the LORD testified against Israel, and against Judah, by all ^v the prophets, and by all the seers, saying, Turn ye ^w from your evil ways, and keep my commandments, and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets.

14 Notwithstanding, they would not hear, but ^x hardened their necks, like to the neck of their fathers, that did not believe in the LORD their God.

15 And they rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified against them; and they followed vanity, and became ^y vain, and went after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the LORD had charged them, that they should ^z not do like them.

16 And they ^a left all the commandments of the LORD their God, and made them ^b molten images, even two ^c calves, and made a grove, and worshipped all the ^d host of heaven, and served Baal.

17 And they caused their sons and their daughters ^e to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and ^f sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

18 Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out ^g of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of ^h Judah only.

19 Also ⁱ Judah kept not the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.

20 And the LORD rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of ^j spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight.

21 For he rent ^k Israel from the house of David; and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king: and Jeroboam drave Israel from following the LORD, and made them sin a great sin.

22 For the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them;

23 Until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, as he had said ^l by all his servants the prophets. So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day.

24 ¶ And ^m the king of Assyria brought men from ⁿ Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from ^o Ava, and from ^p Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria ^q instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

25 And so it was at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they ^t feared not the LORD: therefore the LORD sent lions among them, which slew some of them.

26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast removed, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, and behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land.

27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither one of the ^u priests whom ye brought from thence; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the God of the land.

28 Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in ^x Beth-el, and taught them how they should fear the LORD.

29 Howbeit, [†] every nation made ^y gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the ^z Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

30 And the men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima,

31 And the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burnt ^a their children in fire to || Adramelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

32 So they ^b feared the LORD, and made unto themselves of the ^c lowest of them priests of the high places, which sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.

33 They feared the LORD, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations whom they carried away from thence.

34 Unto this day they do after the former ^d manners: they fear not the LORD, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, whom ^e he named Israel;

35 With whom the LORD had made a ^f covenant, and charged them, saying, Ye shall ^g not fear other gods, nor bow ^h yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them:

36 But the LORD, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and ⁱ a stretched-out arm, him shall ye ^k fear, and him shall ye worship, and to him shall ye do sacrifice.

37 And the ^l statutes, and the ordinances, and the law, and the commandment which he wrote for you, ye shall observe to do for evermore; and ye shall not fear other gods.

38 And the covenant that I have made with you ye shall ^m not forget; neither shall ye fear other gods.

39 But the LORD your God ye shall fear; and he shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.

40 Howbeit they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner.

41 So ⁿ these nations ^o feared the LORD, and ^p served their graven images, both their children, and their children's children: as did their fathers, so do they unto this day.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 Hezekiah's good reign... 4 He destroyeth idolatry, and prospereth.

NOW it came to pass in the ^a third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Hezekiah ^b the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign.

2 Twenty and five years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Abi the daughter of ^c Zachariah.

3 And he did that which was ^d right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that ^e David his father did.

4 [¶] He removed ^f the high places, and brake the images, and cut down the groves, and brake in pieces the brazen serpent ^g that Moses had made: for unto those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it: and he called it || Nehushtan.

5 He trusted ^h in the LORD God of Israel; so that after him ⁱ was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any that were before him.

6 For he ^k clave to the LORD, and departed not from following him, but kept his commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses.

7 And the LORD was ^l with him: and he || prospered whithersoever he went forth: and he ^m rebelled against the king of Assyria, and served him not.

8 He smote ⁿ the Philistines, even unto Gaza, and the borders thereof, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

9 [¶] And it came to pass in the ^o fourth year of king Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it.

10 And at the end of three years they ^p took it: even in the sixth year of Hezekiah, (that is, the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel,) Samaria was taken.

11 And the king of Assyria did carry away Israel unto Assyria, and put them in ^q Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes:

12 Because they ^r obeyed not the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed his covenant, and all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and would not hear them, nor do them.

13 [¶] Now in the ^s fourteenth year of king Hezekiah did Sennacherib king of Assyria come up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and ^t took them.

14 And Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to ^u Lachish, saying, I have ^x offended; return from me: that which thou puttest on me I will bear. And the king of Assyria appointed unto Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.

15 And Hezekiah gave him all ^y the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house.

16 At that time did Hezekiah cut off the ^z gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria.

17 [¶] And the king of Assyria ^a sent Tartan and Rabсарis and Rab-shakeh from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a great host against Jerusalem: and they went up, and came to Jerusalem: and when they were come up, they came and stood by the ^b conduit of the upper pool, which is in the highway of the fuller's field.

18 And when they had called to the king, there came out to ^c them Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder.

19 And Rab-shakeh said unto them, Speak ye now to Hezekiah, Thus ^d saith the great ^e king, the king of Assyria, What ^f confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

20 Thou sayest, (but they are but vain [†] words,) I have ^a counsel and strength for the war. Now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

21 Now behold, thou trustest upon the ^b staff of this bruised reed, even upon Egypt, on which if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt unto all that trust on him.

22 But if ye say unto me, We trust in the LORD our God: is not that he whose high places and ⁱ whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to Judah and Jerusalem, Ye shall worship ^k before this altar in Jerusalem?

23 Now therefore, I pray thee, give pledges to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will deliver thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

24 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

25 Am I now come up without the LORD against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

26 Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, and Shebna, and Joah, unto Rab-shakeh, Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants in the Syrian language; for we [†] understand it: and talk not with us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

27 But Rab-shakeh said unto them, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men which sit on the wall, that they may ^m eat their own dung, and drink their [†] own piss with you?

28 Then Rab-shakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spake, saying, Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria:

29 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for ⁿ he shall not be able to deliver you out of his hand:

30 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

31 Harken not unto Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, [†] Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me, and then eat ye every man of his own vine, and every one of his fig-tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his cistern:

32 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn ^o and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil-olive and of honey, that ye may live, and not die: and hearken not unto Hezekiah, when he persuadeth you, saying, The LORD will deliver us.

33 Hath any of ^p the gods of the nations delivered at all his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

34 Where are the gods of ^q Hamath, and of Arpad? where are the gods of ^r Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah? have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

35 Who are they among all the gods of the countries that have delivered their country out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

36 But the people ^s held their peace, and ^t answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

37 Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes [†] rent, and told him the words of Rab-shakeh.

CHAPTER XIX.

Hezekiah mourning, sendeth to Isaiah to pray for him.

AND it came to pass, when king Hezekiah ^a heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went ^b into the house of the LORD.

2 And he sent Eliakim, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to ^c Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.

3 And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of ^d trouble, and of ^{||} rebuke, and ^e blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not ^f strength to bring forth.

4 It may be the LORD ^g thy God will hear all the ^h words of Rab-shakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach ⁱ the living God; and will ^k reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the ^l remnant that are left.

5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 [†] And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not ^m afraid of the words which thou hast heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have ⁿ blasphemed me.

7 Behold, I will send [†] a blast upon him, and he shall hear a ^o rumour, and shall return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

8 [†] So Rab-shakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah; for he had heard that he was departed from ^p Lachish.

9 And when he heard say of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight ^q against thee: [†] he sent messengers again unto Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not ^r thy god in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly: and shalt thou be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which ^s my fathers have destroyed; as Gozan, and ^t Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of ^u Eden which were in Thelasar?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivah?

14 [†] And Hezekiah received the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD, and spread it before ^x the LORD.

15 And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD and said, O LORD God of Israel, which ^y dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou ^z alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast ^a made heaven and earth.

16 LORD, bow down ^b thine ear, and hear: ^c open, LORD, thine eyes, and see: and hear the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent him to reproach the living God.

17 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have ^d destroyed the nations and their lands,

18 And have [†] cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but ^e the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them

19 Now therefore, O LORD ^r our God, I beseech thee, save thou us out of his hand, that ^s all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD God, even thou only.

20 ¶ Then ^h Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, That ⁱ which thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria I have heard.

21 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning him; The ^k virgin the daughter of Zion hath despised ^l thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken ^m her head at thee.

22 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against the Holy ⁿ One of Israel.

23 By thy ^o messengers thou hast reproached the LORD, and hast said, With the ^p multitude of my chariots I am come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon, and will cut down the ^q tall cedar-trees thereof, and the choice fir-trees thereof: and I will enter into the lodgings of his borders, and into the forest of his ^r Carmel.

24 I have digged and drunk strange ^s waters, and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of besieged places.

25 Hast thou not heard long ago how I have done it, and of ancient times that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that ^t thou shouldest be to lay waste fenced cities into ruinous heaps.

26 Therefore the inhabitants were of ^u small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the ^v grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the house-tops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

27 But I know thy ^x abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage ^y against me.

28 Because thy rage against me and thy tumult is come up into mine ears, therefore I will put my ^z hook in thy nose, and my ^a bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

29 And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat ^b this year such things as grow of ^c themselves, and in the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruits thereof.

30 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall yet again take ^d root downward, and bear fruit upward.

31 For out of ^e Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion: the ^f zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.

32 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall ^g not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a bank against it.

33 By the way ^h that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.

34 For I will defend this city, to save it, for ⁱ mine own sake, and for my servant ^k David's sake.

35 ¶ And it came to pass ^l that night, that the ^m angel of the LORD went out, and smote in the ⁿ camp of the Assyrians a hundred fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

36 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at ^o Nineveh.

37 And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch ^p his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his ^q sons smote him with the sword: and they escaped into the land of Armenia. And ^r Esar-haddon his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Hezekiah, by prayer, hath his life lengthened....20 Manasseh succeedeth him.

IN those days ^a was Hezekiah sick unto death. And the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz came to him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thy ^b house in order; for thou shalt die, and not live.

2 Then he ^c turned his face to the wall, and prayed unto the LORD, saying,

3 I beseech thee, O LORD, remember ^d now how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy ^e sight. And Hezekiah ^f wept sore.

4 And it came to pass, afore Isaiah was gone out into the ^g middle court, that the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

5 Turn again, and tell Hezekiah the captain of my people, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have ^h heard thy prayer, I have seen ⁱ thy tears: behold, I will ^k heal thee: on the third day thou shalt go up unto the house of the LORD.

6 And I will ^l add unto thy days fifteen years; and I will ^m deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.

7 And Isaiah said, Take ⁿ a lump of figs. And they took and laid ^o it on the bile, and he ^p recovered.

8 ¶ And Hezekiah said unto Isaiah, What shall be the ^q sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the LORD the third day?

9 And Isaiah said, This sign shalt thou have of the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he hath spoken: shall the ^r shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degrees?

10 And Hezekiah answered, It is a light ^s thing for the shadow to go down ten degrees: nay, but let the shadow return backward ten degrees.

11 And Isaiah the prophet ^t cried unto the LORD: and he brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down in the dial of Ahaz.

12 ¶ At that time ^u Berodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent ^v letters and a present unto Hezekiah: for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick.

13 And Hezekiah ^w hearkened unto them, and ^x shewed them all the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was ^y nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

14 ¶ Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from ^z whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country, even from Babylon.

15 And he said, What have they seen in thy house? And Hezekiah answered, All ^a the things that are in my house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.

16 And Isaiah said unto Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD.

house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store unto this day, shall be ^bcarried into Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

18 And of thy sons that shall issue ^cfrom thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

19 Then said Hezekiah unto Isaiah, Good ^dis the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. And he said, Is it not good, if ^epeace and truth be in my days?

20 ¶ And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made ^fa pool, and a conduit, and brought ^gwater into the city, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

21 And Hezekiah ^hslept with his fathers: and Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Manasseh's reign....3 His great idolatry.

MANASSEH ^awas ^atwelve years old when he began to reign, and reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name ^bwas Hephiz-bah.

2 ^cAnd he did that which was evil in the sight ^dof the LORD, after the abominations ^eof the heathen, whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel.

3 For he built up again the high places which Hezekiah ^fhis father had destroyed; and he reared up altars for Baal, and made a grove, as ^gdid Ahab king of Israel; and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them.

4 And he ^hbuilt altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD said, In ⁱJerusalem will I put my name.

5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the ^ktwo courts of the house of the LORD.

6 And he made ^lhis son pass through the fire, and ^mobserved times, and used enchantments, and dealt with familiar spirits and wizards: he wrought much wickedness in the sight of the LORD, to provoke ⁿhim to anger.

7 And he set a graven image of the grove that he had made in the house, of which the LORD said ⁿto David, and to Solomon his son, In this ^ohouse, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:

8 Neither will I make the ^pfeet of Israel move any more out of the land which I gave their fathers; only ^qif they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them.

9 But they hearkened not: and Manasseh ^rseduced them to do more ^sevil than did the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 ¶ And the LORD spake by his servants the prophets, saying,

11 Because ^tManasseh king of Judah hath done these abominations, and hath done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, which were before him, and hath made Judah also to sin with his idols:

12 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing such evil upon ^uJerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth of it, both his ears shall ^xtingle.

13 And I will stretch over Jerusalem the ^yline of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of ^zAhab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man ^awipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down.

14 And I will forsake the ^bremnant of mine inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies;

15 Because they have done that which was evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, ^csince the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even unto this day.

16 Moreover, Manasseh shed ^dinnocent blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; besides ^ehis sin wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

17 Now the ^frest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

18 And Manasseh ^gslept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza: and ^hAmon his son reigned in his stead.

19 ¶ Amon ⁱwas twenty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name ^jwas Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz of ^kJotbah.

20 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, ^kas his father Manasseh did.

21 And he walked ^lin all the way that his father walked in, and served the idols that his father served, and worshipped them:

22 And he ^mforsook the LORD God of his fathers, and ⁿwalked not in the way of the LORD.

23 ¶ And the servants of ^oAmon conspired against him, and slew the king in his own house.

24 And the people of the land ^pslew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in ^qhis stead.

25 Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

26 And he was buried in his sepulchre in the garden of Uzza: and ^rJosiah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 Josiah's good reign....8 Hilkiah findeth the book of the law.

JOSIAH ^awas ^aeight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty and one years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name ^bwas Jedidah the daughter of Adaiah of ^bBoscath.

2 And he did that which ^cwas right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in all the way of David his father, and turned not aside to the ^dright hand or to the left.

3 ¶ And it came to pass in ^ethe eighteenth year of king Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam the scribe, to the house of the LORD, saying,

4 Go up to ^fHilkiah the high priest, that he may sum the silver which is brought into the house of the LORD, which the ^gkeepers of the ^hdoor have gathered of the people:

5 And let them deliver it into the hand of the doers of the work, that have the ⁱoversight of the house of the LORD: and let them give it to the doers of the work, which ^jis in the house of the LORD, to repair the breaches of the house,

6 Unto ^kcarpenters, and builders, and masons, and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair the house.

7 Howbeit, there was no reckoning made ^lwith them of the money that was delivered into their hand, because they dealt ^mfaithfully.

8 ¶ And Hilkiah the high priest said unto Shaphan the scribe, I have found ^k the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.

9 And Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and said, Thy servants have gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of them that do the work, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD.

10 And Shaphan the scribe shewed the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath delivered me ^l a book. And Shaphan ^m read it before the king.

11 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the ⁿ words of the book of the law, that he ^o rent his clothes.

12 And the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and ^p Achbor the son of Michaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asahiah a servant of the king's, saying,

13 Go ye, inquire of the LORD for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found: for great ^q is the wrath of the LORD that is kindled ^r against us, because our fathers have not hearkened unto the words of this book, to do according unto all that which is written concerning us.

14 So Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asahiah, went unto Huldah the ^r prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of ^s Harhas, keeper of the ^t wardrobe: (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the ^{||} college;) and they communed with her.

15 ^{||} And she said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell ^u the man that sent you to me,

16 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, ^v even ^u all the words of the book which the king of Judah hath read:

17 Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the ^x works of their hands: therefore my wrath shall be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched.

18 But to ^y the king of Judah which sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus shall ye say to him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, As touching the words which thou hast heard;

19 Because thy heart was ^z tender, and thou hast ^z humbled thyself before the LORD, when thou hearest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard ^z thee, saith the LORD.

20 Behold therefore, I will ^a gather thee unto thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered into thy grave ^b in peace; and thine eyes shall not see all the evil which ^c I will bring upon this place. And they brought the king word again.

CHAPTER XXIII.

Josiah causeth the book to be read in a solemn assembly.

AND the king ^a sent, and they gathered unto him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem.

2 And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and ^b all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the ^c prophets, and all the people, both small and great: and he read in their ears all the words of the ^d book of the covenant which was found in the house of the LORD.

3 ^{||} And the king stood by ^e a pillar, and made ^f a covenant ^g before the LORD, to ^h walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all ⁱ their heart, and all ⁱ their soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people ⁱ stood to the covenant.

4 And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the door, to bring forth out of the temple of the LORD all the ^k vessels that were made for Baal, and for the ^l grove, and for all the host of heaven: and he burned them without Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried the ashes of them unto ^m Beth-el.

5 And he put down the ⁿ idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem; them also that burned incense unto Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the planets, and to all the ^o host of heaven.

6 And he brought out the ^p grove from the house of the LORD, without Jerusalem, unto the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and stamped it small to powder, and cast the powder thereof upon the ^q graves of the children of the people.

7 And he brake down the houses of the ^r Sodomites that were by the house of the LORD, where the women wove ^{||} hangings for the grove.

8 And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the ^t high places where the priests had burnt incense, from ^u Geba to Beer-sheba, and brake down the high places of the gates that were in the entering in of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city.

9 Nevertheless, the priests of the high places ^t came not up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they ^u did eat of the unleavened bread among their brethren.

10 And he defiled ^x Topheth, which is in the valley of the children ^y of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to ^z Molech.

11 And he took away the ^a horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entering in of the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathanaelech the chamberlain, which was in the suburbs, and burned the chariots of the sun with fire.

12 And the altars that were on the ^b top of the upper chamber of Abaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which ^c Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, did the king beat down, and brake ^c them down from thence, and cast the dust of them into the brook Kidron.

13 And the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of the mount of ^d Corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had builded for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Zidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for ^e Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon, did the king defile.

14 And he brake in pieces the images, and cut down the groves, and filled their places with the ^f bones of men.

15 ^{||} Moreover, the ^g altar that was at Beth-el, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he brake down, and burned the high place, and stamped it small to powder, and burned the grove.

16 And as Josiah turned himself, he spied the 17 Then he said, What title is that that I see? And the men of the city told him, It is the ^h sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Judah, and proclaimed ⁱ these things that thou hast done against the altar of Beth-el.

18 And he said, Let him alone; let no man ^k move his bones. So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the ^l prophet that came out of ^m Samaria.

19 And all the houses also of the high places that were in the ⁿ cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the LORD to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Beth-el.

20 And he || slew ^o all the priests of the high places that were there upon the altars, and burnt men's bones upon them, and returned to Jerusalem.

21 ¶ And the king commanded all the people, saying, Keep the ^p passover unto the LORD your God, as it is written in the ^q book of this covenant.

22 Surely there was not holden such a passover ^r from the days of the judges that judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah;

23 But in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, where- in this passover was holden to the LORD in ^s Jerusalem.

24 ¶ Moreover, the workers with ^t familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the images, and the idols, and all the abominations that were spied in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Josiah put away, that he might perform the words of the ^u law which were written in the book that ^x Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the LORD.

25 And ^y like unto him was there no king before him, that turned to the LORD ^z with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him arose there any like him.

26 ¶ Notwithstanding, the LORD turned not from the fierceness of his great wrath, wherewith his anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the [†] provocations that Manasseh had provoked him withal.

27 And the LORD said, I will remove ^b Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed ^c Israel, and will cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and the house of which I have said, ^d My name shall be there.

34 And Pharaoh-nechoh made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in the room of Josiah his father, and ⁿ turned his name to ^o Jehoiakim, and took Jehoahaz away: and he came to Egypt, and ^p died there.

35 And Jehoiakim ^q gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give the money according to the commandment of Pharaoh: he exacted the silver and the gold of the people of the land, of every one according to his taxation, to give it unto Pharaoh-nechoh.

36 ¶ Jehoiakim was ^r twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zebudah, the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah.

37 And he did that which was ^s evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

CHAPTER XXIV.

8 Jehoiachin's evil reign....10 Jerusalem is taken.

IN ^a his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon ^b came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant three years: then he turned and rebelled against him.

2 And ^c the LORD sent against him ^d bands of the Chaldees, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by his ^e servants the prophets.

3 Surely at the commandment of the LORD came this upon Judah, to remove them ^f out of his sight, for the sins of ^g Manasseh, according to all that he did;

4 And also for the ^h innocent blood that he shed, (for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood,) which the LORD would ⁱ not pardon.

5 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

6 So Jehoiakim ^k slept with his fathers: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

7 And the king of Egypt came ^l not again any more out of his land: for the king of Babylon had taken from the river of Egypt unto the ^m river Euphrates ⁿ all that pertained to the king of Egypt.

8 ¶ Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem ^o three months. And his mother's name was Nehushta, the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.

9 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that ^p his father had done.

10 ¶ At ^q that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the city was besieged.

11 And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came against the city, and his servants did besiege it.

12 And Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his officers: and the king of Babylon ^r took him in the eighth year of || his reign.

13 And he carried out thence ^s all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the LORD, as the LORD had said.

14 And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valour, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen, and smiths:

16 And all the ^u men of might, even seven thousand, and craftsmen and smiths a thousand, all that were strong and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon.

17 ¶ And the king of Babylon made Mattaniah ^x his father's brother king in his stead, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

18 Zedekiah was ^y twenty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was ^z Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

19 And he did that which was ^a evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

20 For ^b through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem, and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled ^c against the king of Babylon.

CHAPTER XXV.

Zedekiah taken, his sons slain, and his eyes put out.

AND it came to pass in the ^a ninth year of his reign, in the tenth ^b month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he, and all his host, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it; and they built ^c forts against it round about.

2 And the city was besieged unto the ^d eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

3 And on the ninth day of the ^e fourth month the famine prevailed in the city, and there was ^f no bread for the people of the land.

4 ¶ And the city was ^g broken up, and all the ^h men of war fled ⁱ by night by the way of the gate between two walls, which is by the king's garden: (now the Chaldees were against the city round about) and ^k the king went the way toward the plain.

5 And the army of the Chaldees ^l pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho: and all his army were scattered from him.

6 So they took the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah; and they [†] gave judgment upon him.

7 And they slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and ^m put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and ⁿ bound him with fetters of brass, and carried him to Babylon.

8 ¶ And in the ^o fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, (which is the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon,) came Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, unto Jerusalem:

9 And he ^p burnt the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and ^q every great man's house burnt he with fire.

10 And all the army of the Chaldees, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down ^r the walls of Jerusalem round about.

11 Now the rest of the people that were left in the city, and the ^s fugitives that fell away to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carry away.

12 But the captain of the guard left of the ^t poor of the land to be vine-dressers and husbandmen.

13 And the ^u pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the ^v brazen sea that was in the house of the LORD, did the Chaldees break in pieces, and carried the brass of them to Babylon.

14 And the ^w pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the ^x vessels of brass where-with they ministered, took they away.

15 And the ^z fire-pans, and the bowls, and such things as were [†] of gold, in gold, and of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away.

16 The two pillars, one sea, and the bases which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD; the brass of all these vessels was without weight.

17 The height of the one pillar was ^a eighteen cubits, and the chapter upon it was brass: and the height of the chapter three cubits; and the wreathen work, and pomegranates upon the chapter round about, all of brass: and like unto these had the second pillar with wreathen work.

18 ¶ And the captain of the guard took ^b Seraiah the ^c chief priest, and Zephaniah the ^d second priest, and the three keepers of the [†] door:

19 And out of the city he took an officer that was set over the men of war, and ^e five men of them that were [†] in the king's presence, which were found in the city, and the ^f principal scribe of the host, which mustered the people of the land, and threescore men of the people of the land that were found in the city:

20 And Nebuzar-adan captain of the guard took these, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah:

21 And the king of Babylon ^g smote them, and slew them at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So ^h Judah was carried away out of their land.

22 ¶ And as for the people that ⁱ remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made ^k Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, ruler.

23 And when all the ^l captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, there came to Gedaliah to ^m Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Careah, and Seraiah the son of Tanlummeth the ⁿ Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men.

24 And Gedaliah ^o sware to them, and to their men, and said unto them, Fear not to be the servants of the Chaldees: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

25 But it came to pass in the ^p seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed [†] royal, came, and ten men with him, and ^q smote Gedaliah, that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldees that were with him at Mizpah.

26 And all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the armies, arose, and came to ^r Egypt: for they were afraid of the Chaldees.

27 ¶ And it came to pass in the ^s seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, that ^t Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign did lift up the ^u head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison; 28 And he spake kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon;

29 And ^x changed his prison garments: and he did eat ^y bread continually before him all the days of his life.

30 And his allowance was a continual allowance given him of the king, ^z a daily rate for every day, all the days of his life.

CHAPTER V.

The line of Reuben unto the captivity.

NOW the sons of Reuben, the first-born of Israel, (for he was the first-born; but, forasmuch as he ^a defiled his father's bed, his ^b birthright was given unto the sons of Joseph the son of Israel: and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birthright.

2 For Judah ° prevailed above his brethren, and of him came the || chief ruler; but the ^d birthright was Joseph's:)

3 The sons, I say, of ° Reuben the first-born of Israel were, Hanoah, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

4 The sons of Joel; Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son,

5 Micah his son, Reaia his son, Baal his son,

6 Beerah his son, whom ° Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria carried away captive: he was prince of the Reubenites.

7 And his brethren by their families, (when the genealogy of their generations was reckoned,) were the chief, Jeiel, and Zechariah,

8 And Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who dwelt in ° Aroer, even unto ° Nebo and Baal-meon:

9 And eastward he inhabited unto the entering in of the wilderness from the river Euphrates: because their ⁱ cattle were multiplied in the land of Gilead.

10 And in the days of Saul they made war with the ^k Hagarites, who fell by their hand: and they dwelt in their tents † throughout all the east land of Gilead.

11 ¶ And the children of Gad || dwelt over against them, in the land of ° Bashan, unto ° Salcah:

12 Joel the chief, and Shaphan the next, and Jaanai, and Shaphat in ° Bashan.

13 And their brethren of the house of their fathers were, Michael, and Meshullam, and Sheba, and Jorai, and Jachan, and Zia, and Heber, seven.

14 These are the children of Abihail the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz;

15 Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, chief of the house of their fathers.

16 And they dwelt in Gilead in ° Bashan, and in her towns, and in all the suburbs of ° Sharon, upon their borders.

17 All these were reckoned by genealogies in the days of ° Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of ° Jeroboam king of Israel.

18 ¶ The sons of Reuben, and the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh, of valiant men, men able to bear buckler and sword, and to shoot with bow, and skilful in war, were ° four and forty thousand seven hundred and threescore, that went out to the war.

19 And they made war with the Hagarites, with ° Jetur, and Nephish, and Nodab.

20 And they were ° helped against them, and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all that were with them: for they ° cried to God in the battle, and he was entreated of them; because they ° put their trust in him.

21 And they took away their cattle; of their camels fifty thousand, and of sheep two hundred and fifty thousand, and of ° asses two thousand, and of men a hundred thousand.

22 For there fell down many slain, because the ° war was of God. And they dwelt ° in their steads ° until the captivity.

23 ¶ And the children of the half-tribe of Manasseh dwelt in the land: they increased from Bashan unto Baal-hermon and ° Senir, and unto mount Hermon.

24 And these were the heads of the house of their fathers, even Ephraim, and Ishi, and Eliel, and Azriel, and Jeremiah, and Hodaviah, and Jahdiel, mighty men of valour, † famous men, and heads of the house of their fathers.

25 ¶ And they transgressed against the God of their fathers, and went a ° whoring after the gods of the people of the land whom God destroyed before them.

26 And the God of Israel ° stirred up the spirit of ° Pulking of Assyria, and the spirit of Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria, and he carried them away, even the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, and brought them unto ° Halah, and Habor, and Hara, and to the river Gozan, unto this day

CHAPTER IX.

The genealogies of Israel and Judah.

SO all Israel were reckoned by genealogies; and behold, they were written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah, who were carried away to [†] Babylon for their ^a transgression.

2 [†] Now the first inhabitants that dwelt in their possessions in their cities were, the Israelites, the priests, Levites, and the ^b Nethinims.

3 And in Jerusalem dwelt of the children of ^c Judah, and of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of ^d Ephraim, and Manasseh:

4 ^e Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the children of Pharez the son of Judah.

5 And of the ^f Shilonites; Asaiah the first-born, and his sons.

6 And of the sons of Zerah; Jeuel, and their [†] brethren, six hundred and ninety.

7 And of the sons of Benjamin; Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hasenuah,

8 And Ibneiah the son of Jeroham, and Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri, and Meshullam the son of Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah;

12 And Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of ^k Pashur, the son of Malchijah, and Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer;

13 And their brethren, heads of the house of their fathers, a thousand and seven hundred and threescore; very able men for the work of the service of the house of God.

14 And of the Levites; Shemaiah the son of Hashub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari;

15 And Bakbakkar, Heresh, and Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Micah, the son of Zichri, the son of [†] Asaph;

16 And Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of ^m Jeduthun, and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, that dwelt in the villages of the ⁿ Netophathites.

and Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brethren: Shallum was the chief;

18 Who hitherto waited in ^p the king's gate eastward: they were porters in the companies of the children of Levi.

19 And Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brethren of the house of his father, the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the gates of the tabernacle: and their ^q fathers, being over the host of the LORD, were keepers of the entry.

20 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar was the ^r ruler over them in time past, and the LORD was ^s with him.

21 And Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was porter of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 All these which were chosen to be porters in the gates were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by their genealogy in their villages, whom ^t David and ^u Samuel the seer [†] did ordain in their set office.

23 So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of the LORD, namely, the house of the ^x tabernacle, by wards.

24 In four quarters were the porters, toward the east, west, north, and south.

25 And their brethren, which were in their villages, were to come after seven days from time to time with them.

26 For these Levites, the four chief porters, were in their set office, and were over the ^y chambers and treasures of the house of God.

27 [†] And they lodged round about the house of God, because the charge was upon them, and the opening thereof every [†] morning pertained to them.

28 And certain of them had the charge of the ^z ministering vessels, that they should bring them in and out by tale.

29 Some of them also were appointed to oversee the vessels, and all the instruments of the sanctuary, and the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices.

30 And some of the sons of the priests made the ointment of the spices.

31 And Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the first-born of Shallum the Korahite, had the set office over the things that were made in the ^a pans.

32 And other of their brethren, of the sons of the Kohathites, were over the ^b shew-bread, to prepare it every [†] sabbath.

33 And these are the singers, chief of the fathers of the Levites, who remaining in the ^c chambers were free: for they [†] were employed in that work day and night.

34 These chief fathers of the Levites were chief throughout their generations; these dwelt at Jerusalem.

35 [†] And in ^d Gibeon dwelt the father of Gibeon, Jehiel, whose ^{||} wife's name was Maachah:

36 And his first-born son Abdon, then Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and ^e Ner, and Nadab, 37 And Gedor, and Ahio, and Zechariah, and Mikloth.

38 And Mikloth begat Shimeam. And they also dwelt with their brethren at Jerusalem, over against their brethren.

39 And Ner begat Kish; and Kish begat Saul; and Saul begat Jonathan, and Malchi-shua, and Abinadab, and Esh-baal.

40 And the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal: and Merib-baal begat Micah.

41 And the sons of Micah were, Pithon, and Melech, and Tahrea, and ^f Ahaz.

42 And Ahaz begat ^{||} Jarah: and Jarah begat Ale-meth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begat Moza;

43 And Moza begat Binea; and Rephaiah his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son.

44 And Azel had six sons, whose names are these, Azrikam, Bocheru, and ^{||} Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan: these were the sons of Azel.

CHAPTER X.

2 Saul's overthrow....8 The Philistines triumph over Saul.

NOW the ^a Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain in mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philistines followed hard after Saul, and after his sons; and the Philistines slew ^b Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchi-shua, the sons of Saul.

3 And the battle went sore against Saul, and the ^c archers hit him, and he was wounded of the archers.

4 Then said Saul to his armour-bearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith, lest these uncircumcised come and ^d abuse me. But his armour-bearer would not; for he was sore afraid. So Saul took a sword, and fell upon it.

5 And when his armour-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise on the sword, and died.

6 So Saul died, and his ^e three sons, and ^f all his house died together.

7 And when all the men of Israel that were in the ^g valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, then they forsook their cities, and fled: and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

8 [†] And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen in mount Gilboa.

9 And when they had ^h stripped him, they took his head, and his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to carry tidings unto their ⁱ idols, and to the people.

10 And they put his armour in the house of their ^k gods, and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon.

11 [†] And when all ^l Jabesh-gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, 12 They arose, all the valiant men, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

13 [†] So Saul died for his transgression which he committed against the LORD, even against ^m the word of the LORD, which he kept not, and also for ⁿ asking counsel of one that had a familiar spirit, to inquire of it;

14 And ^o inquired not of the LORD: therefore he ^p slew him, and ^q turned the kingdom unto David the son of Jesse.

CHAPTER XI.

David by a general consent is made king at Hebron.

THEN ^a all Israel ^b gathered themselves to David unto Hebron, saying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh.

2 And moreover in time past, even when Saul was king, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the LORD thy God said unto thee, Thou shalt ^{||} feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be ruler over my people Israel.

Luke 24, 19.

3 Therefore came all the elders of Israel to the king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD; and they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by Samuel.

4 ¶ And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus; where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land.

5 And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, Thou shalt not come hither. Nevertheless David took the castle of Zion, which is the city of David.

6 And David said, whosoever smiteth the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain. So Joab the son of Zeruiah went first up, and was chief.

7 And David dwelt in the castle; therefore they called it, The city of David.

8 And he built the city round about, even from Millo round about: and Joab repaired the rest of the city.

9 So David waxed greater and greater: for the LORD of hosts was with him.

10 ¶ These also are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, and with all Israel, to make him king according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

11 And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had; Jashobeam a Hachmonite, the chief of the captains: he lifted up his spear against three hundred slain by him at one time.

12 And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty:

13 He was with David at Pas-dammim, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, where was a parcel of ground full of barley; and the people fled from before the Philistines.

14 And they set themselves in the midst of that parcel, and delivered it, and slew the Philistines; and the LORD saved them by a great deliverance.

15 ¶ Now three of the thirty captains went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the host of the Philistines encamped in the valley of Rephaim.

16 And David was then in the hold, and the Philistines' garrison was then at Beth-lehem.

17 And David longed, and said, ¶ Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, that is at the gate!

18 And the three brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to the LORD,

19 And said, My God forbid it me, that I should do this thing: shall I drink the blood of these men that have put their lives in jeopardy? for with the jeopardy of their lives they brought it. Therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mightiest.

20 ¶ And Abishai the brother of Joab, he was chief of the three: for lifting up his spear against three hundred, he slew them, and had a name among the three.

21 Of the three, he was more honourable than the two; for he was their captain: howbeit he attained not unto the first three.

22 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, † who had done many acts;

he slew two lion-like men of Moab: also he went down and slew a lion in a pit in a snowy day.

23 And he slew an Egyptian, a man of great stature, five cubits high; and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear.

24 These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had the name among the three mighty.

25 Behold, he was honourable among the thirty, but attained not to the first three: and David set him over his guard.

26 ¶ Also the valiant men of the armies were, Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Beth-lehem,

27 Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite,

28 Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abiezer the Antothite,

29 Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite,

30 Maharai the Netophathite, Heled the son of Baanah the Netophathite,

31 Ithai the son of Ribai of Gibeah, that pertained to the children of Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite,

32 Hurai of the brooks of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite,

33 Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite,

34 The sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan the son of Shage the Hararite,

35 Ahiam the son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphal the son of Ur,

36 Hopher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite,

37 Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai the son of Ezbai,

38 Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar the son of Haggeri,

39 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite, the armour-bearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah,

40 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

41 Uriah the Hittite, Zabad the son of Ahlai,

42 Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite, a captain of the Reubenites, and thirty with him,

43 Hanan the son of Maachah, and Joshaphat the Mithnite,

44 Uzzi the Ashterathite, Shama and Jehiel the sons of Hothan the Aroerite,

45 Jedaiel the son of Shimri, and Joha his brother, the Tizite,

46 Eliel the Mahavite, and Jeribai, and Joshaviah, the sons of Elnaam, and Ithmah the Moabite, 47 Eliel, and Obed, and Jasiel the Mesobaite.

CHAPTER XII.

The companies that came to David at Ziklag.

NOW these are they that came to David to Ziklag, while he yet kept himself close because of Saul the son of Kish: and they were among the mighty men, helpers of the war.

2 They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in hurling stones, and shooting arrows out of a bow, even of Saul's brethren of Benjamin.

3 The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; and Jeziel, and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth; and Berachah, and Jehu the Antothite,

4 And Ismaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty; and Jeremiah, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Jozabad the Gerathite,

5 Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Bealiah, and She-mariah, and Shephathiah the Haruphite,

6 Elkanah, and Jesiah, and Azareel, and Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korhites,

7 And Joelah, and Zebadiah, the sons of ⁱ Jeroham of Gedor.

8 And of the Gadites there separated themselves unto David into the ^k hold to the wilderness men of might, and men of war ^{fit} for the battle, that could handle shield and buckler, whose ^l faces were like the faces of lions, and were as [†] swift as the roes upon the mountains :

9 Ezer the first, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,

10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,

11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

13 Jeremiah the tenth, Machbanai the eleventh.

14 These were of the sons of Gad, captains of the host : one ^{||} of the least was over a hundred, and the greatest over a thousand.

15 These are they that went over Jordan in the ^m first month, when it had overflown ⁿ all his banks ; and they put to flight all ^{them} of the valleys, both toward the east, and toward the west.

16 And there came of the children of Benjamin and Judah to the hold unto David.

17 And David went out to meet them, and answered and said unto them, If ye be come [†] peaceably unto me to help me, ^o my heart shall be knit unto you : but if ye be come to betray me to mine enemies, seeing there is no wrong ^p in my hands, the God of our fathers look ^q thereon, and rebuke it.

18 Then the spirit [†] came upon Amasai, who was chief ^r of the captains, and he said. Thine ^s are we, David, and on thy side, thou son of Jesse : peace, peace be unto thee, and peace be to ^t thy helpers : for thy God helpeth thee. Then David received them, and made them ^u captains of the band.

19 And there fell some of Manasseh to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle : but they helped them not : for the lords of the Philistines upon advisement sent him away, saying, He will fall ^x to his master Saul to the jeopardy of our heads.

20 As he went to ^y Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jedaiel, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zithai, captains of the thousands that were of Manasseh.

21 And they helped David ^z against the band of the rovers : for they were all mighty ^a men of valour, and were captains in the host.

22 For at ^b that time day by day there came to David to help him, until it was a ^c great host, like the host of God.

23 ^d And these are the numbers of the bands that were ready armed to the war, and came to David to Hebron, to turn ^e the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the LORD.

24 The children of Judah that bare shield and spear were six ^f thousand and eight hundred, ready armed to the war.

25 Of the children of ^g Simeon, mighty men of valour for the war, seven thousand and one hundred.

26 Of the children of ^h Levi four thousand and six hundred.

27 And Jehoiada was the leader of the Aaronites, and with him were three thousand and seven hundred ;

28 And ⁱ Zadok, a young man mighty of valour, and of his father's house twenty and two captains.

29 And of the children of Benjamin, the kindred of Saul, three thousand : for hitherto the [†] greatest part of them had kept the ward of the house of Saul.

30 And of the children of Ephraim twenty thousand and eight hundred, mighty men of valour, [†] famous throughout the house of their fathers.

31 And of the half-tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, which were expressed by name, to come and make David king.

32 And of the children of Issachar, which were men that had ^h understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do ; the heads of them were two hundred ; and all their brethren were at their commandment.

33 Of Zebulun, such as went forth to battle, expert in war, with all instruments of war, fifty thousand, which could keep rank : they were not of [†] double heart.

34 And of Naphtali a thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear thirty and seven thousand.

35 And of the Danites expert in war twenty and eight thousand and six hundred.

36 And of Asher, such as went forth to battle, expert in war, forty thousand.

37 And on the ⁱ other side of Jordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and of the half-tribe of Manasseh, with all manner of instruments of war for the battle, a hundred and twenty thousand.

38 All these men of war, that could keep rank, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel : and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king.

39 And there they were with David three days, ^k eating and drinking : for their brethren had prepared for them.

40 Moreover, they that were nigh them, even unto Issachar, and Zebulun, and Naphtali, brought bread on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, and ^{||} meat, meal, cakes of figs, and bunches of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep abundantly : for there was ^l joy in Israel.

CHAPTER XIII.

David fetcheth the ark from Kirjath-jearim.

AND David ^a consulted with the captains of thousands, and hundreds, and with every leader.

2 And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it ^b seem good unto you, and that it be of the LORD our God, let us send abroad unto our brethren every where, that are ^c left in all the land of Israel, and with them also to the priests and Levites which are in their cities and suburbs, that they may gather themselves unto us :

3 And let us bring again the ark of our God to us : for we ^d inquired not at it in the days of Saul.

4 And all the congregation said that they would do so : for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

5 So David ^e gathered all Israel together, from ^f Shihor of Egypt even unto the entering of Hemath, to bring the ark of God from ^g Kirjath-jearim.

6 And David went up, and all Israel, to ^h Baalah, that is, to Kirjath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up thence the ark of God the LORD, that ⁱ dwelleth between the cherubims, whose name is called on it.

7 And they [†] carried the ark of God in a new cart out of the house of Abinadab : and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart.

8 And David and all Israel played ^k before God with all their might, and with singing, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.

9 ¶ And when they came unto the threshing-floor of Chidon, Uzza ^l put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled.

10 And the ^m anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, ⁿ because he put his hand to the ark: and there he ^o died before God.

11 And David was displeased because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzza: wherefore that place is called Perez-uzza to this day.

12 And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me?

13 So David brought not the ark home to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

14 And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom ^p in his house three months. And the LORD ^q blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that he had.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Hiram's kindness to David....2 His felicity.

NOW ^a Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and timber of cedars, with masons and carpenters, to build him a house.

2 And David perceived that ^b the LORD had confirmed him king over Israel, for his kingdom was ^c lifted up on high, because of his people Israel.

3 ¶ And David took ^d more wives at Jerusalem: and David begat more sons and daughters.

4 Now these are the names of his children which he had in Jerusalem; ^e Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon,

5 And Ibhar, and ^f Elishua, and ^g Elpalet,

6 And Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia,

7 And Elishama, and ^h Beeliada, and Eliphalet.

8 ¶ And when the Philistines heard that ⁱ David was anointed king over all Israel, ^k all the Philistines went up to seek David. And David heard of it, and went out against them.

9 And the Philistines came and spread themselves in the ^l valley of Rephaim.

10 And David ^m inquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt thou deliver them into my hand? And the LORD said unto him, Go up; for I will deliver them into thy hand.

11 So they came up to Baal-perazim; and David smote them there. Then David said, God hath broken in upon mine enemies by my hand like the breaking forth of waters: therefore they called the name of that place || Baal-perazim.

12 And when they had left their ⁿ gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burned with fire.

13 And the Philistines ^o yet again spread themselves abroad in the valley.

14 Therefore David inquired again of God: and God said unto him, Go not up after them; turn away from them, and ^p come upon them over against the mulberry-trees.

15 And it shall be, when thou shalt hear ^q a sound of going in the ^r tops of the mulberry-trees, that then thou shalt go out to battle: for God is gone forth before thee, to smite the host of the Philistines.

16 David therefore did as God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gazer.

17 And the ^s fame of David went out into all lands; and the LORD brought the ^t fear of him upon all nations.

CHAPTER XV.

1 David ordereth the priests and Levites to bring the ark from Obed-edom....25 He performeth the solemnity thereof with great joy....29 Michal despiseth him.

AND David made him houses in the ^a city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched for it a ^b tent.

2 Then David said, None ought to carry the ark of God but the ^c Levites: for them hath the LORD chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto him for ever.

3 And David ^d gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD unto his place, which he had prepared for it.

4 And David assembled the ^e children of Aaron, and the Levites:

5 Of the sons of ^f Kohath; Uriel the chief, and his brethren a hundred and twenty:

6 Of the sons of ^g Merari; Asaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty:

7 Of the sons of ^h Gershon; Joel the chief, and his brethren a hundred and thirty:

8 Of the sons of ⁱ Elizaphan; Shemaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred:

9 Of the sons of ^k Hebron; Eliel the chief, and his brethren fourscore:

10 Of the sons of ^l Uzziel; Amminadab the chief, and his brethren a hundred and twelve.

11 And David called for ^m Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, 12 And said unto them, Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites: ⁿ sanctify yourselves, both ye and your brethren, that ye may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for it.

13 For because ye ^o did it not at the first, the LORD our God made ^p a breach upon us, for that we sought him not ^q after the due order.

14 So the priests and the Levites ^r sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.

15 And the children of the ^s Levites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders with the staves thereon, ^t as Moses commanded, according to the word of the LORD.

16 And David spake to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the ^u singers with instruments of music, psalteries, and harps, and cymbals, sounding, by lifting up the voice with joy.

17 So the Levites appointed ^x Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, ^y Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, ^z Ethan the son of Kushaiah;

18 And with them their brethren of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, the porters.

19 So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass;

20 And Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with psalteries on || Alamoth;

21 And Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah, with harps on the ^a Sheminith to excel.
